CHAP. XVIII.

1 As Paul at Corinth, 6. taught the Gentiles, 9. the Lord confirmed him. 12. Hee arrived before Gallio, 16. but in vaine. 18. From thence hee sailed to Syria, 19. and so to Ephesus, 23. A Galatia and Phrygia hee strengthened by the 24. apostles. 25. Appollus being more perfectly instructed by Aquila, 28. preacht for his work, at Ephesus.

A Fear these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth,

2 And found a certaine Iew named Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italie, and his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and hee came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, hee abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tents.)

4 And hee disputed in the Synagogue every Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes, and the Grecians.

5 Now when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul forced in spirit, testified to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, hee shooke his raiment, and said vnto them, Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleane:
from henceforth will I go vnto the Gentiles.

7 So hee departed thence, and entered into a certain mans house, named Tulus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue.

8 And Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue beleueed in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleueed and were baptized.

9 Then saith the Lord to Paul in the night by vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold fast thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this cite.

11 So hee continued there a yeere and sixe moneths, and taught the word of God among them.

12 Now when Gallio was depuie of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seat,

13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God otherwise then the law appointeth,

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill dede, O ye Iewes, I would according to reason maintaine you.

15 But if it bee a question of wordes and names, and of your Law, looke yee to it your selues: for I will be no iudge of those things.

16 Aud hee draue them from the iudgement seat.

17 Thentooke all the Grecians Sosthenes the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, and beate him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he tooke leave of the brethren, and sailed into Syria, (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that he had shorne his head in Cenchrea:
for he had made a vow.

19 Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he entered into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes.

20 Who desired him to tarry a longer time with them: but he would not consent,

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needes keepe this feast that cometh, in Hieru-salem: but I will returne againe vnto you, if mi
God will. So hee failed from Ephesus.

22 And when he came downe to Cesarea, he went vp to Hierusalem: and when hee had saluted the Church, he went downe vnto Antiochia.

23 Now when hee had taried there a while,
he departed, and went thorow the cuntry of Ga-latia and Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 And a certaine Iewe named Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent man and mighty in the Scriptures.

25 The same was instructed in the way of the Lord, and he spake feruently in the Spirit, and taught diligently the things of the Lord, & knew but the baptisme of Iohn only.

26 And he began to speake boldly in the Synagogue: Whom when Aquila & Priscilla had heard, they tooke him vnto them, and expounded vnto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when hee was minded to goe into Achaia, the brethren exhorting him, wrote to the disciples to receive him: and after hee was come thither, he holpe them much which had beleueed through grace.

28 For mightily hee confuted publicly the Iewes, with great vehemency, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iesus was that Christ.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Paul appointed ſome to Macedonia. 7 In Treas preaching until midnight. 9 Eutichus fell down dead out of a window. 10 he raiſed him up liſt: 15 A Mileſian, 17 hauing called the Elders of Ephesus together, 23 hee declares what things ſhall come vpon himſelfe, 28 and others.

NOW after the tumult was appeaſed, Paul called the diſciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through thoſe parts, and had exhorted them with many words, hee came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried there three months, becauſe the Iewes laid wait for him, as he was about to faile into Syria, hee purpoſed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Aſia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Theſſalonica, Arrichtarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Aſia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 The ſeuenth before, and taried vs at Troas. 6 And we ſailed forth from Philippi, after the daies of vnleavened bread, and came vnto them to Troas in five dayes, where wee abode ſeuē dayes.

7 3 And the ſixt day of the weeke, the diſciples being come together to breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morrow, & continued the preaching vnto midnight.

8 4 And there were many lights in an vpper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there late in a window a certaine young man, named Eutychus, fallen into a dead ſleepe: as Paul was long preaching, hee overcame with ſleepe, fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, and liſte himſelfe vpon him, and embraced him, ſaying, Trouble not your ſelues: for his life is in him.

11 Then when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, & eaten hauing ſpoken a long while till the dawning of the day hee departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliue, and they were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ Then we went before to ſhippe, and ſailed vnto the citie Affos, that wee might receiue Paul there: for ſo he had appointed, & would himſelfe go afore.

14 Now when he was come vnto vs to Affos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mytelene.

15 And we ſailed thence, and came the next day ouer againſt Chios, and the next day we arrived at Samos, and taried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 5 For Paul had determined to faile by Ephesus, becauſe he would not ſpend the time in Aſia: for he had ſeet to be, if he could poſſibly, at Hieruſalem, at the day of Pentecoſt.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum, hee ſent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 ¶ Who when they were come to him, hee ſaid vnto them, Ye know from the firſt day that I came into Aſia, after what manner I haue bene with you at all ſeaſons,

19 Seruing the Lord with all moſtety, and with many teares, and tentations, which came vnto me by the layings await of the Iewes,

20 And how I kept backe nothing that was profitable, but haue ſhewed you, and taught you openly and throughout eury houſe, 21 Witneſſing both to the Iewes, and to the Grecians, the repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

22 7 And now behold, I goe bound in the Spirit, vnto Hieruſalem, & know not what things ſhall come vnto me there:

23 Saue that the holy Ghoſt witneſſeth in eury cite, ſaying, that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But I paſſe not at all, neither is my life deare vnto my ſelfe, ſo that I may fulfill my courſe with ioy, and the miniſtration which I haue receiued of the Lord Ieſus, to teſtifie the Goſpel of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, I know that henceforth ye all, through whom I haue gone preaching the kingdom of God, ſhall ſee my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 8 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue ſhewed you all the counſell of God.

28 Take heed therefore vnto your ſelues, and to all the flocke, whereof the holy Ghoſt hath made you Ouſters, to feed the Church of God which hee hath purchaſed with his owne blood.

29 9 For I know this, that after my departing ſhall grievous wolues enter in among you, not ſparing the flocke.

30 Moreouer of your owne ſelues ſhall men ariſe ſpeaking peruerſe things, to draw diſciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember that by the ſpace of three yeares I ceaſed not to warne eury one, both night and day with teares.

32 10 And now brethren, I commend you to God, & to the word of his grace, which is able to build further, and to giue you an inheritance among all them which are ſanctified.

33 11 I haue couered no mans ſiluer, nor gold, nor apparell.

34 Yea, ye know, that theſe hands haue miniſtered vnto my neceſſities, and to them that were with me.

35 I haue ſhewed you all things, how that ſo labouring, ye ought to ſupport the weakes, and to remember the words of the Lord Ieſus, how that he ſaid, It is a bleſſed thing to giue, rather than to receiue.

36 And when he had thus ſpoken, hee kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 12 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kiſſed him,

38 Being chieſly for the words which he ſpoke, that they ſhould ſee his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the ſhippe.

6 A lively image of a true Paſſion. 7 17 ſeemes not to ſpeak, neither aſſembled in any reſpect what, neuer, either for teares or lares ſake.

7 He teſtifieth, that hee goeth to his bonds by the commandment of God.

8 He calleth, that motion of the holy Ghoſt, which enforced him to take his journey to Hieruſalem, the bond of the Spirit, which he followed with a his heart.

9 If you do perſiſt, here ſhall be no change in me, ſaith chap. 18.

10 The doctrine of the Apoſtle is moſt perfect and abſolute.

11 To keep it, to ſeeke it, and goeuer ſe.

12 A notable ſentence for Chriſtians to heed, which ſheweth plainly in this text, how that by reason of the ſinning together of theſe two natures in his 14 The wildome of the Spirit must be ioined with simplicity.

22 There is no countell against the Lord and his seruants.

23 Greke, that thou hast heard these things to mee.

Pharises, yee cried in the Council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharese, the sonne of a Pharese: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when hee had said this, there was a diffension betwene the Pharises and Sadduces, so that the multitude was diuided.

8 For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, neither ^{an} Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharesees confesse both.

9 Then there was a great crie: and the scribes of the Pharises part rose vp, and stroue, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great diffension, the chiefe captaine, fearing lest Paul should haue bene pulled in peeces of them, commanded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 Now the night following, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of mee in Hierusalem, so must thou beare witness alio at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Iewes made an assembly, and bound themselves with a curse, saying that they would neither eate nor drinke till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fourtie, which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priests and Elders, and said, We haue bound our selues with a solemne curse, that we will eat nothing, vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, yee and the Council, signifie vnto the chiefe Captaine, that hee bring him forth vnto you to morow, as though you would know something more perfectly of him, and wee, or euer he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters sonne heard of their laying await, he went, and entred into the Castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and said, Take this yong man hence vnto the chiefe Captaine: for hee hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So he tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe Captaine, and said, Paul the Prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed mee to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath something to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he said, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the Council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly:

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them, more then fourty men, which haue bound themselves with a curse, that they will neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and now they are ready and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe Captaine then let the yong man depart, after hee had charged him to viter it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may go to Cesaria, and horsemen threecore and ten, and two hundred with darts, at the third hour of the night:

24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being led on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the gouernour.

25 And he wrote an Epistle in this manner.

26 Claudius Tyllias vnto the most noble gouernour Felix sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garriſon, and rescued him perceiving that he was a Romane.

28 And when I would haue knowne the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Council.

29 There I perceived that hee was accused of queſtions of their Law, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And, when it was shewed me, how that the Iewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Anipatris.

32 And the next day, they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the Castle.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they delivered the Epistle to the gouernour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouernour had read it, hee asked of what prouince hee was: and when hee vnderstood that he was of Cilicia, 35 I will heare thee, said he, when thine accusers also are come, and commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

2 Tertullus accuseth Paul: 10 Heaun worth for himselfe: 22 Hee preached Christ to the gouernour and his wife: 27 Felix hoped hee would want, to receive a bribe, 28 who going from his office leaues Paul in prison.

Now after five daies, Ananias the hie Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine orator which appeared before the gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that we haue obtained great quietnesse through thee, and that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix with all chankes.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy cunctie a few words.

5 Certainly we haue found this man a pestilent fellow, and a moouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the world; and a chiefe maintainer of the sect of the Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our law:

7 But the chiefe Captaine Tyllias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou maist (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

of the towne name where they thought that Christ was borne, whereupon it came that Iulian the Apostata called him Galitian.

12 Tyllias is fondly made by the Lesatista patron.

1 Hippocrite when they cannot doe what they would doe by force and deceit at length they are forced to compasse it by a shew of Law.
2 A Felix ruled that prouince with great crueltie and conuincion, and yet Tertullus records that he did many worthy things, as that hee tooke Elazar the captaine of certaine custodes and iusts that decem wrecks the Egyptian to flight, which caused great trouble in Iudaea.

Paul professed: and as for other matters touching the Religion, he should see good to deferre it till he heard Lyfias, and therefore he gave Paul somewhat more liberty. 6 God is a most faithful keeper of his seruants, and the force of the truth is wonderfull, euen among men which are otherwise prophane. 7 This Drusilla was Agrippas sister, of whom Iulius speaks afterward, a very barlot and licentious woman, and being the wife of Arch King of the Emperors, who was excommunicated departed from him, and went to this Felix the brother of one Pilate, who was sometime Nero his bondman.*

11 In a naughty minde that is guilty it is lesse thought sometimes there be some show of equity, yet by and by it will be extinguished: but in the meane season we shew need of patience, and that continual.

12 And he likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

*13 2 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckoned vnto him that hee should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answer for my selfe, forasmuch as I know that thou hast bene
8 of many yeeres a Iudge vnto this nation,*

11 Seeing that thou must know, that there are but twelue daies since I came vp to worship in Hierusalem.

12 And they neither found me in the Temple, disputing with any man, neither making vp-roare among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the Cite.

13 Neither can they b proue the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 3 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call heresie) to worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing at things which are written in the Law and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead, which they themselues looke for also, shalbe both of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I Endeauour my selfe to haue always a cleare conscience toward God, and toward men.

17 4 Now after many yerres, I came & brought almes to my nation, and offerings.

18 At what time, certaine Iewes of Asia found me purified in the Temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who ought to haue bene present before thee, and accuse me, if they had ought against me.

20 Or let these themselves say, if they haue found any vniust thing in mee, while I stood in the Council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.

22 5 Now when Felix heard these things, he deferred them, and said, When I shall more perfectly know the things which concerne this way by the comming of Lyfias the chiefe captaine, I will decide your matter.

23 6 Then hee commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that he should haue ease, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

24 7 And after certaine daies, came Felix with his wife o Drusilla, which was a Iewesse, and he called forth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

25 And as hee disputed of righteousness and temperance, and of the iudgement to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Goe thy way for this time and when I haue conuenient time, I will call for thee.

26 Hee hoped also that money should haue bene giuen him of Paul, that hee might loose him: wherefore hee sent for him the o ener, and communed with him.

27 7 When two yeeres were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix roomes: and Felix willing to get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bound.

to get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bound.

in the province had it not bene for fauour of his brother Paul, he should haue said for it: so that we may gather hereby why he would haue pleased the Iewes.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Festus succeeding Felix, 6 commanded Paul to be brought forth. 11 Paul appealeth vnto Cesar. 14 Festus openeth Pauls matter to King Agrippa, 23 Audringeth him before him, 27 that he may understand his cause.

WHen Festus then came into the prouince, after three daies hee went vp from Cesarea vnto Hierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that hee would send for him to Hierusalem: and they laid wait to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that hee himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore said hee, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickednes in the man, let them accuse him.

6 ¶ Now when he had tarried among them no more then ten daies, he went downe to Cesa-rea, and the next day fate in the iudgement seate, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Iewes which were come from Hierusalem, stood about him, and laid many and grieuous complaints against Paul, whereof they could make no plaine prooffe,

8 Forasmuch as he answered that he had neither offended any thing against the lawe of the Iewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 3 Yet Festus willing to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul and said, Wilt thou goe vp to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cessars iudgement seat, where I ought to be iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest:

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die:
but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man to pleasure them, can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Councill, he answered, Haft thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 ¶ And after certaine daies, king Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus declared Pauls cause vnto the king, saying, there is a certaine man left in prison by Felix,

15 Of whom when I came to Hierusalem, the high Priests and Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romans for fauour to c deliuer any man to the death, before that hee which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following I fate on the iudgement seate, and commanded the man to be brought forth,

18 Against whom when the accusers stood vp, they

32 Then sayd Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue bene loosed, if hee had not appealed to Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Paul ⁹ foretelleth the perill of the voyage, 11 but feelinge beleues, 13 They are tolde so and see with the tempest, 21, 41. and suffer shipwracke: 33 Yet all safe and sound, 44. escape land.

NOW when it was concluded, that we should saile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Iulius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And we went into into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to saile by the coasts of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Iulius courteously entreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence wee lanchd, and sayled hard by Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 Then failed wee ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a cite in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sayling into Italy, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many daies, and scarce we came against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sayled hard by Candie, neere to a Salomone,

8 And with much adoe sayled beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the city Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sailing was now iopardous, because also the 5 Feast was now past, Paul exhorted them,

10 And laid vnto them, Sirs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt, and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuerthelesse the Centurion beleued rather the gouernour and the master of the shippe, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an haue of Candie, and lyeth toward the South-west and by West, and North-west and by West.

13 And when the Southerne winde blew softly, they supposing to attaine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sayled by Candie.

14 But anon after there arose by a stormy winde called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, wee let her goe, and were carried away.

16 And we ran vnder a little Ile named Clauda, and had much adoe to get the boat.

17 Which theyooke vp and vfed all helpe, vndergirding the ship, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtis, and they strake saile, and so were caried.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest they lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the mids of them, and sayd Sirs, ye should haue hearkened to me, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to bee of good courage: for there shall bee no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the ship onely.

23 For there stood by me this night the Angell of God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto thee freely, all that saile with thee.

25 Wherefore, Sirs, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shall be so as it hath bene tolde me.

26 Howbeit, wee must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were caried to and fro in these Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approached vnto them,

28 And founded, & found it twenty fathomes: and when they had gone a little further, they founded againe, and found fifteene fathomes.

29 Then fearing lest they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ankers out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Now as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boat into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ankers out of the foreship,

31 Paul sayd vnto the Centurion and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, yee can not be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meat, saying, This is the fourteenth day that ye haue taried, and continued fasting, receiuing nothing:

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meat: for this is for your safegard: for there shall not an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God in the preface of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meat.

37 Now wee were in the ship in all two hundred threecore and fixteene soules.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken vp the ankers, they committed the ship vnto the Sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoied vp the maine saile to the wind, and drew to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place where two seas meette, they thrust in the ship: and the forepart sturke fast, and could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

5 God spareth the wicked for a time, for his elect and choicest sake.

6 The promise is made effectall through faith, 7 Weattaine and come to the promised and sure saluation through the mids of temptations and death it selfe.

8 For Pilome which the Adriaticall sea stretch upon the East shore of Sicily, f That they drew neere to some countrey.

9 There is none so soule an ache, whereas distrust and cuill conscience doe not enforce men.

10 Although the performing of Gods promises doeth not simply depend vpon confidence causes, yet they make themselves unworthy of Gods bounty, fullnesse, which doe not embrace those means which God offeth them, either vpon rationalle or distrust.

11 When the world trembleth, the faithfull alone be not only quiet, but confirme others by their example.

12 This is a promise which the Hebrews receiued, whereby they meant, that they should be safe, and not one of them perish.

13 Then the tempest is most of all to be feared and looked for, when the port or haue is in need.

14 A creeke is a sea within land, as the Adriaticall sea and the Persian sea.

15 So it is thought, because the sea is so full of furies.

1 Paul with many other prisoners, & through the mids of many deaths, is brought to Rome, but yet by Gods owne hand as it were, and set forth and commended vnto the world with many glorious testimonies.

* 2 Cor. 11. 31.

2 Gods providence raketh not away the causes which God vseth as means, but rather ordereth and disposeth their right vs end then when he openeth an extraordinary issue.

3 This is intent of the leuit first, which they kept in the feast of expiation, as we read, Lewis. 23. 7, which fills the seuerall maner which we call Obolus, and is not good for navigation, or sailing.

4 Men cast themselves willingly into an infinite sort of dangers, when they chuse to follow their owne wisdomes, rather than Gods speaking by the mouth of his seruants.

5 By candle from whose shore our ship was driven by their means.

CHAP. II.

14 Hee bringeth all before the iudgement seate of God. 15 The example that the Gentiles might preceide, 16 of ignorance, hee taketh quite away. 17 Hee rebuketh the Iewes with their sinfull. 23 in which they boast: 27 And also matcheth both Iewes and Gentiles alike.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, who sinner thou art that condemnest: for in that that thou condemnest another, thou condemnest thy selfe: for thou that condemnest doest the same things.

2 But we know that the iudgement of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man that condemnest them which doe such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his bountifullnesse, and patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifullnesse of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou, after thine hardnesse, and heart that cannot repent, * a heapest vp as a treasure vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

7 That is, to them which through patience in well doing, seeke glory, and honour and immortalitye, everlasting life.

8 But vnto them that are contentious and disobey the truth, and obey varighteousnesse, shall bee indignation and wrath.

9 Tribulation and anguish shall bee vpon the soule of every man that doeth ill: of the Iewe first, and also of the Grecian.

10 But to every man that doeth good, shall be glory, and honour, and peace to the Iewe first and also to the Grecian.

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 4 For as many as haue sinned without the Law, shall perishe also without the Law: and as many as haue sinned in the Law, shall bee iudged by the Law.

13 5 (For the hearers of the Law are not righteous before God: but the doers of the Law shall be iustificd.)

14 6 For when the Gentiles which haue i not the Law, doe by nature the things contained in the Law, they haue not the Law, are a Law vnto them selues,

15 Which shew the effect of the Law I written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing)

16 7 At the day when God shall iudge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 ¶ Behold thou art called a Iewe, and rekest in the Law, and gloriest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and * If thyselfe the things that differ from it, in that thou art instructed by the Law:

19 And perfwadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of them which lack discretiō, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the forme of knowledge, and of the truth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man should not feare, doest thou feare?

22 Thou that sayest, A man should not commit adultery, doest thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou facrilege?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Law, through breaking the Law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, * as it is written.

25 9 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou do the Law: but if thou be a transgressor of the Law, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Law, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Law) condemne thee which by the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Law?

28 For hee is not a Iewe, which is one outstanding he will execute at their convenient time by Iesus Christ. 29 I will examine him, not onely of wordes and deede, but of thoughts also: hee they meant to hideen of secret. 30 As thou my selfe wast iustified, which I am appointed to teach.

31 Hee proueth by the rheme of David, and the other Prophets, that God bestowed greatest benefit vpon the Iewes, in giuing them the Law, but that they are the most vnkauallent and vnkauallent of all men. 32 Canst thou and I differ what things I haue from Gods will? A Or, allowest the things that are excellent. 33 The way to reach and to come into the knowledge of the truth. 34 As though he sayd, that the Iewes, though account of an inward crying of Gods challenge, did themselves, whereas in deed, they are not, lest they should be the Law. * Gal. 5. 1. rege. 26. 20. 9 Hee preclerly preuenteth his obiection, which is, that an holiness in circumcision, and the outward obseruation of the Law: So that he sheweth that the outward circumcision, if it be separate from the inward doth not only not iustifie, but also condemne them that are indeed circumcised, of whom it requirith that which it signifieth, that is to say, cleanness of the heart and the whole life, according to the commandmentes of the Law, for that if there be a man vncircumcised according to the flesh, yet so circumcised in heart, he is farre better and more to be accounted of, then a man that is circumcised according to the flesh onely. 9 Thus the Iewes, which are the circumcised. 10 The flatter and commendation of the Iewes, which is, that hee which is vncircumcised in heart and blood, 11 Paul sayeth, to iustifie the letter against the spirit, that in this place, the circumcision which is according to the letter, is the cutting off of the sinne, but the circumcision of the spirit, is the circumcision of the heart, that is to say, the spiritualnes of the conscience, and the inward circumcision, whereby the people of God are knowne from people and Gentiles.

13 The flatter and commendation of the Iewes, which is, that hee which is vncircumcised in heart and blood, 14 Paul sayeth, to iustifie the letter against the spirit, that in this place, the circumcision which is according to the letter, is the cutting off of the sinne, but the circumcision of the spirit, is the circumcision of the heart, that is to say, the spiritualnes of the conscience, and the inward circumcision, whereby the people of God are knowne from people and Gentiles.

16 The flatter and commendation of the Iewes, which is, that hee which is vncircumcised in heart and blood, 17 Paul sayeth, to iustifie the letter against the spirit, that in this place, the circumcision which is according to the letter, is the cutting off of the sinne, but the circumcision of the spirit, is the circumcision of the heart, that is to say, the spiritualnes of the conscience, and the inward circumcision, whereby the people of God are knowne from people and Gentiles.

4 And patience experience, and experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when we were yet of no strength, at that time died for the vngodly.

7 Doubtlesse one will scarce die for a righteous man: but for a good man it may be one dare die.

8 But Gods fetheth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shalbe faued fro wrath through him.

10 For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shalbe faued by his life,

11 And not only so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom we haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne¹ entred into the world, & death by sinne, & so death went ouer all men: in whom all men haue sinned,

13 For vnto the time of the Law was sin in the world, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moyses, euen ouer them also that sinned not after the like manner of the transgression of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.

15 And yet the gifts not so as is the offence: for if through the offence of that one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by the grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entered in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receiue that abundance of grace, and of that gift of that righteousnesse, reigne in life through one, that is Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one, the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefit abounded toward all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners, so by that obedience of that one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Moreover the Law entred thereupon, that the offence should abound: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more.

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousnesse vnto eternal life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

the contrary side, the righteousnesse of Christ, which by Gods mercie is imputed to all believers, iustifieth them, that they may become partakers of euertlasting life. x Not only because our sinnes are forgiven vs, but also because the righteousnesse of Christ is imputed vnto vs. x The ground of this whole comparison is this, that these two men are let as two stocks or roots, so that out of the one sinne by nature, out of the other righteousnesse by grace doeth spring forth vnto others. y So therefore euertlasting vs only by following the steps of our forerunner, but we take corruption of him by inheritance. z This word many, is set against this word, a few. a A preuailing of an objection: why then did the Law of Moses come in? b That men might be to much the more guiltie, and the benefit of Gods in Christ Jesus be to much the more glorious. c A beate that dealeth with all men were in selfe withall by being asid with one man: sinne the Law entred. d Grace was powerfull plentifully from the Law, this is did not only counteruail sinne, but also manerly passed it.

CHAP. VI.

1 He commeth to iustification, without which, to no man pertaineth our Christs righteousnesse the growth of an argument taken of Baptisme. 2 and thereupon exhorteth to holinesse of life, 3 briefly making mention of the Law transgressed.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall we, that are dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that all we which haue bene baptized into Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 Wee are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead, so to the glory of the Father, so we also should walke in newnesse of life.

5 For if wee bee placed with him to the

1 He passeth now to another benefit of Christ, which is called iustification or regeneration.

2 In this corruption: for though the guiltinesse of sinne be not imputed to vs, yet the corruption remainseth still in vs: the which Sanctification that followeth iustification, is to be attained by little and little.

3 The benefit of iustification and Sanctification, are alwayes intended together inseparably and both of them procede from Christ by the grace of God: Now Sanctification is the abolishing of sinne, that is, of our natural corruption, into whose place succeedeth the cleanness and purenesse of nature reformed. b They are said of Paul to be dead to sinne, which are in such sort made partakers of the vertue of Christ, that natural corruption is deaden them, that is, the force of sinne is taken out, and it bringeth not forth his bitter fruits and on the other side, they are said to liue to sinne which are in the flesh, that is, who are the spirit of God hath not departed from the fluencie of the corruption of nature.

4 The death of the old man or sinne, his buriall and the resurrection of the new man, depending into vs from the vertue of the death, buriall, and resurrection of Christ, of which benefit our baptism is the signe and pledge.

5 To the end that growing up in one with him we should take his strength to overcome sinne in vs and to make vs new men. a Coloss. 2. 12. d That Christ himselfe, leaving alwayes of his infirmities and weakness, might liue in glory with God for euer.

6 And we which are his members, rise for the end, that being made partakers of the same vertue, we should begin to leade a new life, as though we were already in heaven. e Ephel. 4. 22. coloss. 3. 8. hebr. 12. 1. 1. pet. 2. 1.

7 The death of sinne and life of righteousnesse, or our iustifying into Christ, and growing vp into one with him, cannot be separated by any means, neither in death nor in life, whereby it followeth that no man is sanctified, which liueth still in sinne, and therefore no man made partaker of Christs faith, which repenteth not, and burneth not in his wickednesse: for as he said before, the Law is not subuerted, but established by faith.

6 The Ark of the covenant which was a token of Gods presence. * Chap. 27. ephe. 2. 12. a The tables of the covenant: and this is spoken by the figure of the Law. * Of the Iudaical Law. * The ceremonial Law.
7 Which were made to Abraham and to his posterity. 2 A most manifest testimony of the Goodness and diuinitie of Christ. Chap. 2. 28. 3 He came into the handling of Predestination by a kind of presenting and ordering. How may be, that Isaac is called, but that the twelfth was null make the covenant certain and made with Abraham and his seed, frustrate and voyde? He answereth therefore that Gods word is true, although that Isaac be called: for the election of the people of God is to be general and common, that notwithstanding the same, God chooseth by his secret counsell, such as is pleast him. So then this is the proposition and Rise of this Treatise: The grace of saluation is offered generally in such sort, that notwithstanding the efficacy thereof pertaineth onely to the elect.
8 If Isaac be called, place is taken for Isakob: and in the second, for the Iudaical.
* Gen. 21. 12. 12. 18. 4 The first proofe is taken from the example of Abraham, whose home, wherein Isaac was once conceived the founte, and that by Gods ordnance: although if Isaac was also borne of Abraham, and circumcised before Isaac 1 Isaac had only one name, Isaac, and therefore there is no distinction.
5 A general application of the former proude example. 6 Which are borne of Abraham by the course of nature. * Galat. 4. 28. 1 Which are borne by virtue of the promise. 6 A reason of that application: Because that Isaac was borne by the virtue of the promise, and therefore he was not chosen, nay he was not at all, but by the free will of God: whereby it followeth that the promise is the fountaine of predestination, and not the flesh, from which promise the particular election proceedeth: that is, that the elect be borne of God: and not that they be first borne of God, and then afterward elected in respect of God who doeth predestinate. * Gen. 18. 10.

7 Another forcible proofe, taken from the example of Esau and Isakob, which were both borne of the same Isaac, which was the founte of the promise, of one mother, and at one birth, and not at diuers as Isaac and Esau were: and yet notwithstanding Esau being called, Isakob was chosen: and that before their birth, that neither any goodnes of Isakob might be thought to be the cause of his election, neither any wickednes of Esau, of his electing away. * Gen. 25. 11. in Gods decree, which proceedeth of his mere good will. * Ephes. 1. 5. He saith plain in his will, and in his other. 8 Paul saith not, might be made, but being made might remaine.
Therefore they are decreed which make to foretell faith the cause of election, and foreknowledge in the cause of reprobation. 9 He prooueth the calling away of Esau by that that he was made friend to his brother, and promoueth the calling of Isakob by that that he was made Lord of his brother, as though his brother was the first begotten. And least that any man might take this saying of God, and reiect it to external things, the Apostle sheweth out of Malchii who is a good interpreter of Moses that the seruitude of Esau was signified with the hatred of God, and the Lordship of Isakob with the loue of God. * Gen. 25. 23.

his will, 20. even as the Father doth. 24. 20. He promoueth against the calling of the Gentiles, 21. against the reiecting of the Iewes, 25. 27. by the testimonies of the Prophets.

I Say: the truth in Christ, I lie not, my confidence bearing me witness in the holy Ghost, 2 That I have great heaviness, and continuall sorrow in mine heart.

3 For I would with my selfe to bee separate from Christ, for my brethren that are my kind-men according to the flesh,

4 Which are the Israelites, to whom pertaineth
the adoption, and the glory, & the ^d Covenants, and the giuing of the Law, and the service of God, and the promises.

5 Of whom are the fathers, and of whom concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is a God ouer all, blessed for ever, Amen.

6 * Notwithstanding, it cannot be that the word of God should take none effect: for all they are not Israel which are of Israel:

7 Neither are they all children, because they are the seed of Abraham, * 4 but, in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

8 * That is, they which are the children of the flesh, are not the children of God: but the children of the promise, are counted for the seed.

9 For this is a word of promise, * In this same time will I come, and Sara shall haue a son.

10 7 Neither he only: it shal, but also * Rebecca, when she had conceived by one, em by our father Isaac.

11 For yet the children were borne, and when they had neither done good, nor euill (that the in purpose of God might remaine according to election, not by works, but by him that calleth)

12 It was said vnto her, * The Elder shall serue the younger.

13 As it is written, * I have loued Jacob, and have hated Esau.

14 10 What shall we say then? Is there vnrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 11 For he saith to Moses, * I wil haue mercie on him, to whom I wil shew mercy: and wil haue compassion on him, on whom I wil haue compassion.

16 12 So then it is not in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth, but in God: sheweth mercy.
17 13 For the Scripture saith vnto Pharaos, * For this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 15 Therefore he hath mercy on whom hee will, and whom hee will he hardeneth.

19 16 Thou wilt say then vnto me, Why doth he yet complaineth? for who hath resisted his will?

20 17 But, O man, who art thou which pleadest against God? shall the thing * formed say to 11 Hee answereth first touching them which are chosen to saluation: in choosing of whom, he denieth that God may seeme vniust, although he chuse & predestinate to saluation, them that are not yett borne, without any respect of worthinesse: because he bringeth not the chosen to the appointed end, but by the means of his mercy, which is vnder predestination. No mercy, precept, piteousness, misery, and againe misery precept, piteousness, misery, and againe misery, corruption, and corruption, precept, piteousness, a pure and perfect creation. Moreover mercy is shewed by her degrees: to wit, by calling, by faith, by iustification, and sanctification, that at length we come to glorification, as the Apostle will shewe afterward. Now all these things orderly following the purpose of God, do clearly proue that he can by no means seeme vniust in louing and fauing his. * Exod. 33. 19. o I will be merciful and favourable to whom I list to be favourable. p I will haue compassion on whom I list to haue compassion. 12 The conclusion of the answer: Therefore God is not vniust in choosing and fauing of his free goodnes, such as is pleast him, as he also answered Moses, when he prayed for all the people. q Th will be merciful and favourable to whom I list to be merciful and favourable. r I will be merciful and favourable to whom I list to be merciful and favourable. 13 Now he answereth concerning the reprobate, or them whom God hateth being not yett borne, and hath appointed to destruction, without any respect of worthinesse, and first will he pro-ueth this to be true, by allegizing the testimonie of God himselfe touching Pharaos, whome hee stirred vp to this purpose, that he might be glorified in his hard-ning and iust punishing. God saith to Pharaos in the Scripture, or, the S. spirit bringeth in God, speaking to Pharaos, * Gen. 9. 16. f I brought thee into this world. 14 Secondly, he bringeth the end of Gods counsell, to shew that there is no vniustnesse in him. Now this chiefest end, is not properly and simply the destruction of the wicked, but Gods glory which appeareth in their rightfull punishment.

15 A conclusion of the last answer to the first objection: therefore seeing God doeth so faue them whom hee freely chooseth according to his good will and pleasure, but by vniustly and fauouring them by his grace, his counsell in fauing them cannot seeme vniust. And againe, there is no vniustnesse in the electing counsell of God touching the destruction of them whom hee listeth to destroy, for that hee hardeneth before hee destroyeth: Therefore this third answer for the maintenance of Gods iustice in the electing counsell of reprobation, consisteth in this word, Hardening: which notwithstanding he concealed in the former verse, because the Historie of Pharaos was well known. But the force of the word is greater: Hardening which is against Mercy, precept, piteousness the same things that mercy did, to wit, a voluntary corruption, wherein the reprobate are hardened: and againe corruption precept, piteousness a perfect state of creation. Moreover, this hardening also is voluntary, for God he hardeneth being offended with corruption, that hee vniustly their own will which hee hardeneth to the executing of his iudgement. Then follow the fruites of Hardening to wit, vniustnesse and fauour, which are the true and proper causes of the condemnation of the reprobate. Why doth hee then appoint to destruction? because hee will: why doth hee harden? because they are corrupt: why doth hee condemne? because they are reprobates. Where is then vniustnesse? Nay, it is that hee should destroy all after this same sort, to whom should hee doe iniury? I woulde it pleast him to appoint, to these his sinners. 16 Another objection, but only for the reprobate, rising vpon the former answer. If God doe appoint to eu-erlasting destruction, such as hee listeth, and if that cannot be hindred nor withstandeth that hee hath once decreed, how doeth hee iustly condemn them, which perish by his will? 17 The Apostle doeth not answer that it is not Gods will, or that God doth not elect neither elect according to his pleasure, which thing the wicked call blasphemie, but he rather ganeth his answer to follow, by the cause to wit, that it is Gods will, and that it must of necessity fall out, yet he denieth that God is therefore to be thought an vniust reuenger of the wicked: for seeing it appeareth by manifest proofe that this is the will of God, and his doing, what impudencie is it for man, which is both dull and alies, to dispute with God, and as it were to call him into iudgement? Now if any man say that the doubt is not dissolved and answered, I answer, that there is no finer demerit in any matter, because it is grounded vpon this principle. That the will of God is the rule of righteousness. 18 An amplification of the former answer taken from a comparison, whereby also it appeareth that Gods determinate counsell is set of Paul the highest of all causes, so that it dependeth not vpon any respect of second causes, but doth rather frame and direct them. * Eph. 4. 5. n Thou shalt not agree very easily to the first seruation of mankinde.

* Malach. 2. 2. 10 The first objection: if God doth love or hate vpon no consideration of worthinesse or vn-worthinesse, then is hee vniust, because he may loue them which are unworthy, and hate them which are worthy.
The Apostle denieth this blyphemy, & afterward answereth
it severally, point by point.
a Man will knowe
the other causes of loue or hatred, but those that are in the reprobates, and thereupon this objection referreth.

him

9 That is, true faith, which seeketh God in his word, and that preached according as God hath appointed in the Church.

* 1 John 1. 7. Wherefore faith is there also to the word, but not contrariwise, whereof the word is, there is faith also; for many refuse and reject the word. 1. He speaketh thus because of the Jews.

* 1 John 1. 7. John 1. 38.

11 A conclusion of the former gradation: we must ascend from faith, to our vocation, as by our vocation we came to the testimony of our election.

* By Gods commandment. 11 An obedienc. If calling be a testimony of election, were not the Jewes called? why should I not grant that, faith the Apostle, seeing that there is no nation which hath not been called: much lesse can I say, that the Jewes were not called. * Psal 19. 3. The defender and maintainer of the Jewes came goeth on still to aske, whether the Jewes all knew not God which called them. (I say, which the Apostle) denieth it, and witnesseth that the Gospel was manifested to them by the Gentiles, because the Jewes neglected it. And nevertheless the Apostle teacheth, that that onward and universal calling, which is set forth by the creation of the world, sufficient unto the knowledge of God: yes, and that the particular also which is by the word of God, is of it selfe of small or no efficacy, vntill it be apprehended or layd hold on by faith, by the gift of God: otherwise by vntellect it is made vnto faith, and that by the only talent of man, who can pretend no ignorance. * Deut. 32. 2. He calleth all prophane people, a nation that is no nation, which are not said to live but to die, which are appointed for euill last consummation. * 1 John 5. 1. 2. He calleth without faith. * Eiaj 62.

CHAP. XI.

1. The calling off of the Jewes should be limited according to the outward appearance, 4. he sheweth that the Jewes in times past did receive: 16. and thus seeing they haue an holy roote, 23. many of them likewise shall be holy. 18. 24. He exalteth or setteth the Gentiles to bee kinde, 33. and crieth out, that Gods iudgements are vnto all.

2 Now the Apostle sheweth how this doctrine is to be applied to our confounding flesh in his propounded case. Therefore he teacheth vs that all the Jewes in particular are not cast away and therefore we ought not to pronounce rashly of private persons, whether they be of the number of the elect or not. 2 The first proofe: I am a Jew, and yet I elected, therefore we may and ought fully to reioyce vpon our election, as hath been before said: but of another mans we cannot be so certainly reioiced, and yet ours may cause vs to hope well of others. 3 The second proofe: Because that God is faithful in his league or Covenant, although men be faithfull: so then seeing that God hath digged, that hee will be the God of his vnto a thousand generations, we must take heed, that we thinke not that the whole race and offspring is cast off, by reason of the vntellect of a few, but rather that we hope well of every member of the Church, because of Gods league and covenant. * Which hee loved and chose from euill.

4 The third proofe, taken from the same that was made to Elias: euen then also, when there appeared openly to the face of the world no elect, yet God knew his elect and chosen, and of them also good hope and number. Whereupon this also is concluded, that we ought not rashly to pronounce of any man as of a reprobate, seeing that the Church is often times brought to that state, that euen the most wastefull and sharpe sighted pastors thinke it to be cleare exind and put out. * 1 King 19. 10.

4 But what faith the answer of God to him? * I haue referred vnto my selfe leuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then, at this present time is there a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of works: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of works, it is no more grace, or els were work no more work.

7 What then? Ifrael hath not obtained that he sought: but the election hath obtained it, and the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And David saith, * Let their table be made of mire, and a net, and a stumbling block, euen for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demand then, Haue they stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall, saluation commeth vnto the Gentiles, to provoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing thereof the riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office,

14 To triuie if by any means I might prouoke them of my flesh to follow them, and might saue some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiuing be, but life from the dead?

25 For if the first fruits be holy, so is the whole lump: and if the p roore be holy, so are the branches.

by our insufficiency of themselves doe teach: that workes are rather wholly or partly the cause of our iustificati. p. 1. Looko Mar. 3. 6. And yet this hadst thou of heart commeth not but by Gods iudic decree and iudgement, and yet without fault, when as he so punisheth the vntowardness by taking from them all sense and penceirance, and by doubling their darkness, that the benefices of God which are offered vnto them should be to their delatation. * 1st Cor. 1. 9. and 2. 12. Math. 13. 14. 1st Cor. 1. 9. and 2. 12. 8. A very denie they which haue alwayes alwayes. 9. That is, yet vnto the 10. 1. Psalm 69. 23. 1. As they say, they are to die, to death by which they sought life, to wit, the Law of God, for the preparatiuereale whereof they resisted the Gospel. 7. God appointed this casting off of the Jewes, that it might be an occasion to call the Gentiles: and againe might turne this calling of the Gentiles, to be an occasion to restore the Jewes, to wit, that they being inflamed and prouoked by emulation of the Gentiles, might themselves at length embrace the Gospel. And hereby we may learne, that the futureitie of God seeth as well to the setting forth of his glory, as his merie doeth, and also that God prepareth himselfe a way to mercy by his severitie: so that we ought not rashly to despair of any man, nor proudly triumphe over other men, but rather prouoke them to an holy emulation, that God may be glorified in them alway. 6. By which hee meaneth the knowledge of the Gospel, to our aching life, and by the world, all nations diffused throughout the whole world. 1. Of the times when the man was without exception had come to Christ. 8. Hee witnesseth by his owne example, that hee goeth before all other in this behaile. 9. I make whole and firm, n. It shall come to passe that when the times come to the Gospel, the world shall be more quick againe, and rise up from death to life. 9. The nation of the Jewes being considered in their flocke and roote, that is, in Abraham, is holy, although that many of the branches be cut off. Therefore in iudging of our brethren, we must not stick in their vnworthinesse, to thinke that they are at once all cast off, but we ought to consider the roote of the Conenant, and rather goe backe to their ancestors, which were faithfull, thence we may know that the blessing of the Conenant resteth in some of their posteritie, as we also finde procle here in our felices. 9. Hee addeth to the first fruits of the lump, by the offering of wheat, of olive, of whole crappe of corn, of sanctified, and they might use the rest of the yeere following with good conscience. p. Abraham.

* 1 King 19. 18. 6. He speaketh of remanens and reformed people, which be more chosen from euill, as of remanens that should be chosen from euill: which is the reason why they were not chosen, because they were not chosen, but therefore it is not euill, because they were chosen and elected.

* Baal signifieth as much as a, or patron, or one in whose power another which name the idolaters at this day give their idols, naming them patron and patronesses or Ladies. 8. The election of grace is not where-by men chose grace, but whereby God chose vs of in grace and good-will.

* Although that all be not elect and chosen, yet let them that are elected, remember that they are freely chosen: and let them that stubbornly refuse the grace and free merie of God, impute it vnto themselves.

* This saying beareth some all to the ground all the doctine of all kinde and manner of workes, where-

He willeth that we submit our (clay) to Magistrates: 8 To loue ourneighbour: 12 To live uprightly, 14 and to put in Christ.

¶ Et * euery a soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: 3 For there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are ordained of God.

2 Who euer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receive to them selves damnation.

3 ¶ For magistrates are not to be feared for good workes, but for euill. ¶ Wilt thou then be without fear of the power? doe well: so shalt thou haue praise of the same.

4 For hee is the minister of God for thy wealth: ¶ but if thou doe euill, feare: for he beareth not the sword for nought: for he is the minister of God to take vengeance on him that doeth euill.

5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath only, but also for conscience sake.

6 ¶ For this cause ye pay alio tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying themselves for the same thing.

7 ¶ Due to all men therefore their duty: tribute, to whom ye owe tribute: custome, to whom custome is due, to whom feare: honour, to whom ye owe honour.

8 ¶ Owe nothing to any man, but to loue one another: ¶ for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the Law.

9 For this, * Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witness, Thou shalt not couet: and if there be any other commandement, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, even in this, * Thou shalt louethy neighbour as thy selfe.

10 Loue doeth not euill to his neighbour: therefore is loue the * fulfilling of the Law.

11 ¶ And that, considering the season, that it is now time that we should arise from sleepe: for now is our saluation neerer, then when wee beleeued it.

12 Then ghispaist, and the day is at hand, let vs therefore cast away the workes of darknesse, and let vs put on the armour of light,

13 So that wee walke honestly, as in the day, not in gluttony, and drunkennesse, neither in the end wherefore they were made, which is most profitable: but that God by this means prefereth the good and bridelth the wicked: by which words the Magistrates themselves are put in minde of that day which they owe to their subjects.

5 An excellent way to beare this yoke, not only without griele, but also with great profit: 6 God hath armed the Magistrate with a reuenging sword: by whom God reuengeth the wicked. 7 The conclusion: We must obey the Magistrate, not only for feare of punishment, but much more because that (although the Magistrate haue no power over the conscience of man, yet seeing he is Gods minister) he cannot be refuted by any good conscience. 8 So farre as lawfully we may: 9 for in all things we must obey the Lord, but in the Lord we must obey the Lord first and then the Magistrate.

8 Herekoeth vs the chiefest thing wherein consisteth the obedience of subjects. ¶ Matth. 23. 17. c Obedience and that from the heart. ¶ Reuerence which (as we said) is due to the Magistrate. 9 He that heareth howe few very few indgements need to be executed, yet seeing hee to order our life as no man may iustly require any thing of vs, he leaues that only to we order one to another, by the perpetual law of charity. 10 He commended charity, as an abridgement of the whole Law. 11 Hath not one done you commandement, but performed generally that which the Law commandeth. ¶ Exod. 23. 14. dent. 5. 14. For the whole Law commandeth nothing else, but that we loue God, and our neighbour. But seeing Paul speaketh here of the duties we owe one to another, we must reforme this whole Law, as the second Table. ¶ Leu. 19. 18. dent. 22. 30. mar. 12. 1. gal. 5. 14. iam. 2. 8. ¶ 1. Tim. 1. 1. ¶ It an amplification taken of the circumstance of the times which alloweth selfe punishment in minde of our owne, seeing that this remaineth after that the darkelth ignorance and wicked affections by the knowledge of Gods truth be driuen out of vs, that we order our life according to that certaine and firme rule of all righte conscience and honestly, being fully persuaded by the veritie of the spirit of Christ. ¶ In another place we are said to be in the light, but yet so, that it appeareth not as yet what we are, for as yet we are as it were in the twilight. ¶ That kinde of life which they lead, that beeth the light. ¶ Luke 1. 34. chambering

CHAP. XIII.

11 Hee will shew that mee to deale with the weak in faith, 15 shal through our fault they bee not offended, 16 And on the other side hee commaendeth them not rashly 10 and 16 of the stronger, 19 That within the bound of infirmitie, 20 and charitie
22 Christian libertie may consist.

HIm^r that is weake in the faith, ^a receive vnto you, but not for ^b controuerfies of difputations.

3 2 One beleueth that hee may eate of all things: & another, which is weake, eareth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not : and let not him which eateth not, condemne him that eateth : for God hath receiued him.

4 * 5 Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? he standeth or falleth to his owne Master: yea hee shall be established: for God is able to make him stand.

5 ¶ This man esteemeth one day aboue another day, and another man counteth every day alike: 7 let ^d every man be fully perswaded in his minde.

6 ³ Hee that ^c obserueth the day, obserueth it to the Lord: and he that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the ¹ Lord. Hee that ^e eateth eateth to the Lord: ² for he giueth God thanks:

doe not doe, than his company, but take him to you. b To make and uncertaine disputations, goe away more in dubitation, with a troubled conscience. a Hee propoundeth for an example, (which some thought was needfully to be observed by the Law (not knowing that it was taken away,) whereas such as had profited in the knowledge of the Gospel, knew the benefit of the Law were abolished. c Know your Faith neither the Apostle, Let neither them which know their lices, their weak brother, neither let the vnlearned easily be led that, that they vnderstand not. 4 The first reason: Because that catech, and hee that catech not, is notwithstanding the neither he which catecheth, can iustly be contemned, neither iustly condemned: Nowe the first proposition is declared in James 4. 12. 5 Another reason which hangeth vpon the order and more vnclear ought not to be condemned of the without hope of saluation: Because, 'Zich the Apostle, he that may be indued to morow with further knowledge, for that he is: Therefore is he loued to God, and no woe man to none

[illegible]

and he that eateth ^h not, eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thanks.

7 10 For none of vs liueth to himselfe, neither doeth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether wee liue, wee liue vnto the Lord: or whether wee die, wee die vnto the Lord:
whether wee liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore died and rose again, and reuiued, that hee might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 11 But why dost thou condemne thy brother? or why dost thou despise thy brother? * for we shall all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ

11 For it is written, * I ^k liue, saith the Lord, and euery knee shall bow to me, and all tongues shall ^l confesse vnto God.

12 So then every one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe vnto God.

13 ¹² Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more : but vse your iudgement rather in ^m this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling block before his brother.

14. ¹³ I know, and am perswaded through the ¹⁴ Lord Ieſus, that there is nothing vncleane of it ſelfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to bee vncleane, to him ¹⁵ it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother be grieved for the meat, now walkest thou not charitably: * 14 destroy not him with thy meate, for whom 15 Christ died.

16 16 Cause not your commoditie bee euill spoken of.

17 17 For the kingdome of God, is not meate nor drinke, but righteoufnesse, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoever in p these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

19 ¹⁸ Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

CHAP. XV.

1 The stronger must employ their strength to strengthen the weaker. 3 By Christs example, 7 who reuice. 8 Not only the Iewes, 10 but also the Gentiles, 15 The cause why he wrote this Epistle.

1 Now the Apostle reasoneth generally of collatour or bearing with the weake by all meanes, lo faire foorme as may be for their perne.

2 Therefore let every man please his neighbour in that that is good to edification. 3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, The rebukes of them which rebuked thee, fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things are written aforetime, are written for our learning, that we through patience, and comfort of the 4 Scriptures might haue hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation giue you that ye be like minded one toward another, according to Christ Iesus,

6 That ye with one mind, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receiue ye one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision, for the 2 truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the Fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God, for his mercy, as it is written, * For this cause I will b confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe he saith, * Reioyce ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And againe, * Prayfe the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and laud ye him all people together.

12 And againe Elias saith, * There shall bee

a roote of Iesse, and hee that shall rise to reigne ouer the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all loy, and peace in beleuing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that I yee also are full of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Nethertheless, brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen me of God,

16 That I should bee the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore wherof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not speake of any thing, which Christ hath not wrought by mee, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deede,

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the spirit of God: so that from Hierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

22 Therefore also I haue bene off let to come vnto you.

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue * bene desirous many yeeres agoe to come vnto you,

24 When I shall tak: my journey into spaine, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, after that I haue bene some what filled with your company.

25 But now goe I to Ierusalem, to minister vnto the Saints,

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia & Achaia to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saints which are at Ierusalem.

27 For it hath pleased them, and their debtors are they: * for if the Gentiles bee made partakers of their spiritual things, their dutie is also to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue * sealed them with fruit, I will passe by you into spaine.

29 And I know when I come, that I shall

8 The conclusion of the Epistle, wherein hee findeth exulteth himselfe, that hee hath written somewhat at large vnto them, rather to warne them, then to teach them, and that of necessity, by reason of his vocation, which bindeth him peculiarly to the Gentiles

10 Your own accords, and of your selfe, in the offering up of the Gentiles, hee searcheth the Gentiles them, I in whom he offered to God as a sacrifice.

11 He commendeth his Apostleship highly by the effect, but yet so, that moreover and besides that hee speaketh all things truly, hegiueth all the glory to God as the only author: and doth not properly respect himselfe, but this rather: that men might lesse doubt of the truth of the doctrine which he propoundeth vnto them

12 Christ was with me in all things, and by all meanes, that I should neuer so fauour, yet I cannot say, what hee hath done by me to bring the Gentiles to obey the Gospel.

ours in Christ, yet have not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus I have begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore I pray you, be ye followers of me.
17 For this cause have I sent vnto you Timo-theus which is my beloved sonne, and faithfull of the Lord, which hath put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christ, as I teach every where in every Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I would not come vnto you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, * if the Lord will, and will know, not the words of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What wil ye? shall I come vnto you with a rod, or in loue, and in the spirit of meekenesse?

CHAP. V.

1 That they have winked at him who committed incest with his mother in law. 2 & hee threateneth that he should cause them rather to be ashamed than to receive: 10 Such kind of wickedness is to be punished with excommunication, 12 lest he be infected with it.

IT is hard certainly that there is fornication among you: and such fornication as is not once named among the Gentiles, that one should have his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed vp, and haue not rather forrowed, that hee which hath done this deeble might be put from among you.

3 For I verely, as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already, as though I were present, that he that hath thus done this thing,

4 When ye are gathered together, and my spirit in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that such one, I say, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ,

5 Bee delivered vnto Satan, for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Iesus.

6 Your reioycing is not good: Know ye not that a little leauen leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leauen, that he may be a new leump, as ye are vnleavened: for Christ our Passouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with old leauen, neither in the leauen of maliciousnesse himselfe siteth as Iudge. 9 The excommunication is delivered to the power of Satan, in that he is cast out of the kingdom of God. c What is it to be delivered to Satan, the Lord himselfe declares when he saith, Let him become thou as an Hea-ben and Publican, Mat. 18. 17. that is to say, to be disfranchised, and put out of the right and liberie of the citie of Christ, which is the Church, out of which Satan is Iord and master.

6 The end of excommunication is not to cast away the excommunicate, that he should utterly perish, but that he may be tamed, to wit, that by this means his flesh may be tamed, that hee may learn to liue to the Spirit.

7 Another end of excommunication is, that other be not infected and therefore it must of necessity be retained in the Church, that the one be not infected by the other. d I thought and not grounded upon consideration, as though they were excellent, and yet the worst wickedness I found among them. 8 By alluding to the ceremonie of the Passouer, he exhorted them to cast out their vnleavened person from among them. In times past (saith he), it was not lawfull for them which did celebrate the Passouer, to eate leavened bread: Inasmuch that hee was holden as vnleavened and vnworthy to eate the Passouer, whoseuer had been tainted of leauen.

Now all our whole life must be as it were the feast of vnleavened bread wherein all they that are partakers of that immaculate Lambe which is Iesus, must cast out both of the members, and also out of their houses and Congregations, all impure leaven. e By dumping forth the whole body of the Church, every member vnleavened leavened bread, that is to be renewed in spirit by plucking away the idle corruption.
f The lambe of our Passouer. g Let vs lead our whole life as it were a continual feast, honestly and uprightly.

and wickednesse: but with the vnleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, that ye should not company together with fornicatours?

10 And not altogether with the fornicatours of this world, or with the couetous, or with exortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must go out of the world.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye company not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicatour, or couetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

12 For what haue I to doe to iudge them also which are without? doe ye not iudge them that are within?

13 But God iudgeth them that are without.
Put away therefore from among your selues that wicked man.

that he meaneth those seals of loue wherewith the supper of the Lord was received, or else their common liuage and manner of life which is rightly to be taken, left any man should thinke that either matrimonie were broken by excommunication, or such duties hindered and cut off thereby, as we owe one to another: children to their parents, subiects to their rulers, seruants to their masters, and neighbour to neighbour, to win one another to God. b If you should utterly abstaine from such mens company, you should goe out of the world: therefore I speake of them which are in the very bosome of the Church, which must be called home by discipline, and not of them which are without, with whom we must labour by all means possible, to bring them to Christ. c Such are false brethren, ought to be cast out of the Congregation:
as for them which are without, they must be left to the iudgement of God.

CHAP. VI.

1 He weighed against their conuictions in law matters, & wherwith they were one another under iudge: that were initially, so the speech of the Gospel, 9 and thus sharply threateneth fornicatours.

DAre any of you, hauing business against another, be iudged by vnder the vnjust? and not under the Saints.

2 Doe ye not know that the Saints shall iudge the world? If the world then shal be iudged by you, are ye not worthy to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that wee shall iudge the Angels? how much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgments of things pertaining to this life, set vp them which are least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame, Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to law with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

7 Now therefore there is altogether

he doeth not forbid that one neighbors may goe to lawe with another, if neede require, but yet vnder holy iudges. 3 Hee gathereth by a comparison that the faithfull cannot seek to infidels to be iudged, without great iniurie done to the Saints, seeing that God himselfe will make the Saints iudges of the world, and of the deuils, with his Sonne Christ: much more ought they to iudge their light and small causes, which may be by equitie and good conscience, determined. 4 The conclusion, wherein hee prescribeth a remedie for this mischief: to wit, if they their private affairs betwixt themselves by chosen arbiters out of the Church: for which matter and purpose, the least of you, sayth hee, is sufficient. Therefore be contented with iudgement seats, but sheweth what is expedient for the circumstance of the time, and that without any diminishing of the right of the magistrate:
for he speaketh not of iudgements which are praedid betweene the faithfull and the infidels, neither of publique iudgements, but of controuersies which may be ended by private arbiters. c Courts and places of iudgements. d Euen the most abstinent among you.

5 He applieth the generally opposition to a particular, alwayes calling them backe to this, to take away from them that false opinion of their owne excellencie, from whence all these mischiefs spring. 6 Now he goeth further also, and although by granting them private arbiters out of the Congregation of the faithfull, he doth not simply condemne, but rather establish private iudgements, so that they be exercised without offence, yet he sheweth that if they were such as they ought to be, and as it were to be wished, they should not neede to vnder remedie neither.

9 Now hee speaketh more generally: and that which hee speake before of the incessant person, he sheweth that it pertaineth to them which are known to be wieked, and such as through their naughty life are a scandal to the Church, which ought also by law-full order be cast out of the communitie of the Church. And making mention of uants to their masters, and neighbour

God. b If you should utterly ab-staine from such mens company, you should goe out of the world: therefore I speake of them which are in the very bosome of the

be called home by discipline, and not of them which are

tion is of ciuill

ment seat of an swers that it is

9 Hean swereth an objection: But the faithful is defiled by the vncircumcision, that the Apostle denieth that, and prometh that the faithful man which of good conscience may vie the well of his vncircumcised wife by this, that their children which are borne of them are accounted holy (that is, contained within the promise) for it is said to all the faithful, I will be thy God, and the God of thy seed.

The godliness of the wife of mine force is cause their coupling together to be accounted holy, then the infidelity of the husband is to plague the marriage.

The infidel's made himself his own perilous, in respect of his wife, if he is faithful to her.

To be faithful himself, and to have the option of them that will not have children to be baptised, and their opinions all, that make baptisation a very cost.

For the children of the faithful are holy, by the virtue of the covenant, then before Baptism, and Baptism is added as the seal of that holiness.

To be answereth to a question: what if the vncircumcised forsake the faithful? then is the faithful free, faith he, because he is forsaken of the vncircumcised.

When any such thing falleth out, I left any man upon pretence of this libertie should give occasion to the vncircumcised to depart, hee to vnderstand, that marriage contracted with an infidel, ought peaceably to be kept, that it is possible the infidel may be wonne to the faith.

Taking occasion by that which he sayd of the bondage and libertie of matrimony, he digresseth to a generall doctrine concerning the outward state and condition of man, as Circumcision and vncircumcision, seruitude and libertie: warning euery man generally to liue with a contented minde in the Lord, what state or condition he be in, because that those outward things, as to be circumcised or vncircumcised, to be bond or free, are not of the substance (as they terme it) of the kingdom of heaven.

He hath bound him to a certaine kind of life.

Notwithstanding he giueth vs to vnderstand, that in these examples all are not of like sort: because that circumcision is not simply of it selfe to be desired, but such as are bound may desire to be free. Therefore herein only they are equal, that the kingdom of God consisteth not in them, and therefore there are no hindrance to obey God.

He hath said together his vncircumcision who by the helpe of Chyrurgians, recovereth an upper sense which is lost by the drawing the sinew with awyngment, to witte: to use the new Clasp who's bond, and 23. Chapter. 1. He sheweth the state of a servant, and it is called to be a Christian.

Chap. 1. He sheweth the reason of the vncircumcised, because that they desire to be circumcised, maketh himselfe subiect to man's tradition, and not to God. And this may be much more vnderstood of superstitions, which some doe foolishly account for things indifferent.

A repetition of the generall doctrine. 1. Suppely and from the heart, that your doings may be approved before God.

14 ¶ For the vncircumcised husband is sanctified to the wife, and the vncircumcised wife is sanctified to the husband, and they are your children vncircumcised: but now are they holy.

15 ¶ But if the vncircumcised depart, let him depart a brother or a sister is not in subiection in such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 ¶ For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thine husband? Or what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 ¶ But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lord hath called one, so let him walke, and so ordeine I in all Churches.

18 ¶ Is any man called being circumcised? let him not gather his vncircumcision: is any called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 ¶ Let euery man abide in the same vocation wherein he was called.

21 ¶ Art thou called being a seruant? care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vnderstand it.

22 ¶ For he that is called in the Lord, being a seruant, is the Lords freeman: likewise also hee that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 ¶ ¶ Yee are bought with a price: bee not the seruants of men.

24 ¶ Brethren, let euery man wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 ¶ Now concerning virgins: I haue no commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine advice, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 ¶ I suppose then a care to be good for the present necessitie: I mean, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 ¶ Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 ¶ But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgin marrie, the sinne is not neuertheless, (such shall haue trouble in their flesh: but I spare you).

29 ¶ And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, hereafter, that both they which haue wives, be as though they had none:

30 ¶ And they that weepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 ¶ And they that vse this world, as though they vsed it not: for the fashion of this world goeth away.

32 ¶ And I would haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 ¶ But hee that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, how hee may please his wife.

34 ¶ There is difference also betwene a virgin and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the worlde, how shee may please her husband.

35 ¶ And thus I speake for your owne commodity, not to tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that which is honest, and that ye may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 ¶ But if any man thinke that it is vncome for his virginie, if he passe the floure of her age, and neede so require let him doe what he will, he sinne not let them be married.

37 ¶ Neuertheless, hee that standeth firme in his heart, that he hath no need, but hath power over his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keepe his virginie, hee doeth well.

38 ¶ So then hee that giueth her to marriage, doeth well, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doeth it better.

39 ¶ The wife is bound by the law, as long as her husband liueth: but if her husband bee dead, shee is at liberty to marry with whom shee will, only in the Lord.

40 ¶ But hee is more blessed, if she so abide in my iudgement: * and I thinke that I haue also the Spirit of God.

or not to marrie, but to shewe themselves what kinde of life is most commodious.

¶ Now hee turneth himselfe to the Parents, in whose power and authoritie their children are, warning them, that according to the former doctrine they consider what is meete and conuenient for their children, that they neither deprive them of the necessary remedie against incontinencie, nor constrain them to marriage, whereas neither their will doth lead them, nor their conscience vttereth them. And againe he prayeth virginie, but of it selfe, and not in all. He doeth will for he expoundeth this verse. 8. I resolved with myselfe, that the weakness of my daughter inforced him not, or any other manner, but that he may satisfy the law of virginie. I promise more commodious for his children, & that not simply, but by reason of such conditions as are before mentioned. 18. That which hee spake, of a widow, hee speaketh now of a widow, to wit, that they marrie againe, so that the doe it in the feare of God: and yet he deniebeth not, but faith, that it remaineth still a widow, the shall be void of many cares. By the law of marriage, Rom. 7. 1. n. Religiously, and in the feare of God, 1. Thess. 4. 3.

CHAP. VIII.

¶ From this place unto the end of the tenth Chapter, hee writeth sheweth not to be as the Gentiles prophane bachelers. He reprobeth the abuse of Christian libertie, and sheweth that knowledge must be vnderstood with charitie.

And

2 He entreat to increase of another kind of things indifferent, to wit, of things offered to idoles, or the use of flesh offered and sacrificed. And first of all he remoueth all these things which the Corinthian pretended in viing things offered to idoles without any respect. First of all, they affirmed that this difference of meats was for unskillful men becaus for them they knew enough the benefit of Christ, which causeth all these things to be cleane to them that are cleane. Be it (saith Paul): be it that we are all sufficiently instructed in the knowledge of Christ, I say not without adding that we must not simply rest in this knowledge.

2 Now if any man thinke that hee knoweth anything, hee knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.
3 But if any man loue God, the same is knowne of him.
4 Concerning therfore the eating of things sacrificed vnto idoles, we know that an idole is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.
5 For though there beeth that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth (as there bee many gods and many lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is that Father, of whom are all things, and we in him, and ¹ one Lord Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 But every man hath not that knowledge: for many haue ^k conscience of the idole, vntill this hour, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God, for neither if we eat, haue we the more, neither if we eate not, haue we the lesse.

9 But take heede lest by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling, to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be boldened to eat those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God, for neither if we eat, haue we the more, neither if we eate not, haue we the lesse.
12 But take heede lest by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling, to them that are weak.

13 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be boldened to eat those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

14 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God, for neither if we eat, haue we the more, neither if we eate not, haue we the lesse.

15 But take heede lest by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling, to them that are weak.

16 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be boldened to eat those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

17 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God, for neither if we eat, haue we the more, neither if we eate not, haue we the lesse.

18 But take heede lest by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling, to them that are weak.

19 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be boldened to eat those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

20 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God, for neither if we eat, haue we the more, neither if we eate not, haue we the lesse.

21 But take heede lest by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling, to them that are weak.

22 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be boldened to eat those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died.

12 Now when yee sinne fo against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, yee sinne against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

14 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

15 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

16 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

17 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

18 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

19 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

20 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

21 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

22 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

23 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

24 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

25 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

26 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

27 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

28 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

29 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

30 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

31 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

32 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

33 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

34 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

CHAP. IX.

1 Heed to each that from the liberty which the Lord giveth him, is he mutually abused, 18. 12 lest in things that give us freedom offend any. 24 He that with that our life is like unto a race.

AM I not an Apostle? am I not free? I have I not feene Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my workes in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for ye are ^{the} seals of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defence to them that examine mee in this,

4 I haue wee not power to ^e eate and to drinke?

5 Or: haue we not power to leade about a wife being a sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not wee power, f not to goeth?

7 Who g goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things ^h according to man? faith not the Law the same also?

9 For it is written in the Lawe of Moses, * Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for i oxen?

10 Either faith hee it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt it is written, that he which eareth, should eare in hope, & that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

16 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

17 And therefore, if meate offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

1 Before hee proceedeth any further in his propolled matter of things offered to idoles, he would shew the cause of all this mischief, and also take a way to remove the same. Hee saith hee thought the Corinthians themselves not bound to depart from a line of their liberty for any mans pleasure. Hee saith hee thought hee might be an example, and that in a matter almost necessary.

2 And yet hee speaketh fearefully of both, but first of his owne person.

then that I should not require my wages, then would it appaare that I took the paines not to much for the Gospels sake, as for my gaines and advantages. But I say, this was not to vie, but to be my right and liberie. Therefore not onely in this thing, but also in all other (as much as I could) I am made all things to all men, that I might winne them to Christ, and might together with them bee become to Christ.

bringeth in another cause of this mischiefe, to wit, that they were given to gluttony, for there were sokene bankers of sacrifices, and the rize of the Priests was al ways too much celebrated and kept. Therefore it was hard for them which were accustomed to intemperate, especially when they pretended the liberie of the Gos pel, to be refrained from these bankers: but contrariwise, the Apostle calleth them by a pleasant similitude, and also by his own example, to sobriety and mer gaming of sinnes were, which pampere up their bodies: and therefore affirming that they can have no reward, willest they take another course and trade of life.

s They must be as preachers.

11 * If wee have sown vnto you spirituall things, is it a great thing if we reape your carnall things?

12 If others with you bee partakers of this power, are not we rather? neither selfe we have not vied this power: but I suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Doe ye not know that they which mini ster about the holy things, eate of the things of the Temple? and they which wait at the Altar, are partakers with the Altar?

14 So also hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, should live of the Gospel.

15 But I have vied none of these things: nei ther wrote I these things, that it should be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my reioicing vaine.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I have no thing to reioyce of: for necessity is laid vpon me, and woe is vnto me, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I doe it willingly, I have a reward, but if I doe it against my will, without standing the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verily that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free, that I abuse not mine autoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the more.

20 * And to the Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vn der the Law, as though I were vnder the Law:
that I may winne them that are vnder the Law:

21 To them that are without Law, as though I were without Lawe (when I am not without Lawe as pertaining to God, but am in the Lawe through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law:

22 To the weakke I became as weakke, that I may winne the weakke: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not, that they which runne in runne that ye may obtaine.

25 And enery man that pouteth masteries, ab

1 If God should see the Iewes, neither will he spare those who are of like condition. 2. 4. touching the outward figures of his grace. 14. That is, in absurd that we should be partakers of the table of the dead, who are partakers of the Lords Supper. 24.
To have consideration of our neighbor in things indifferent.

MOREOVER brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, that all our Fathers were vnder that cloud, and all passed through that sea,

2 And were all Baptized vnto Moses, in that cloud, and in that sea,

3 And did all eate of the same spirituall meat.

4 And did all drinke the same spirituall drinke (for they dranke of the spirituall Rock that followed them: and the Rock was Christ)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased:
for they were ouerthrowne in the wilderness.

6 Now these things are our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after euil things as they also lusted.

7 Neither bee ye idolaters as were some of them, as it is written, the people sate downe to eate and drinke, and rose vp to play.

8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let vs tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted him, and * were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmure ye, as some of them * also murmured and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things came vnto them for enamples, and were written to admonish vs, vpon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh hee stand eth, take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as appertaine to man: and God is faithful and conserue Christ. a Paul speaketh in the name of the conuents, and not in respect of the person, leaving in general. b Exodus 13. 21. num. 9. 18. c Exodus 14. 23.

chained, but they themselves. c He that is your guide. d Exodus 16. 15.

ried away by their lusts beyond the bounds which God hath measured out: For this is the beginning of all euill, as of idollatry (which had gluttonie as companion vnto it) fornication rebellion against Christ, murmuring and such like, which God punished most sharply in that old people. to the end that we which succede them and haue a more full declaration of the will of God, might by this means be bettered.

k Some read figures: which signify our sacraments: For circum cision was to the Iewes a seale of righteousness, and is as truly pattern of Baptisme, l In conclusion, he deniceth that to the Corinthians themselves warning them that they please not themselves, but rather that they prevent the subtilties of Satan. Yet he vouch in confirmation and comfort them, that he may not see me to make them altogether like to those wicked idolaters and contemners of Christ, which perished in the wilderness. m The two comets of weaknesse.

moreouer some thing else, to wit, that though these gifts are vnequall, yet they are most wisely diuided, because the will of the Spirit of God is the rule of this ditribution. n He setteth forth his former saying by a similitude taken from the body. This hee doeth here, it manifestly seeme to the body, whose members are di-uers, yet to knit together, that they make but one body. o The applying of the similitude. So much we also thinke, (saith he of the mystical body of Christ) for all we that beleeue, whether we be Iewes or Gentiles, are by one selfe same Baptisme ioyned together with our head, that by that means, there may be framed one body compact of many members: and we haue drinke one selfe same spirit, that is to say, a spiritual feeling, perseverance and motion common to vsall, out of one cuppe. p Chr stayed together with his Church. q To become one body with Christ. r By one quai-ling drinke of the Lords Love were made partakers of his holy spirit. s He amplifieth that which followed of the simi-litude: as if he should say. The vniety of the body is not only not let by this diuersity of members: but also it could not be a body, if it did not consist of many and those diuers members. t Now he buildeth his doctrine vpon the foundations which he hath laid: and fill of all hee continueth in his purposed similitude, and afterward hee goeth to the matter barely and simply. And first of all hee speaketh vnto them, which would haue separated themselves from this is. saith hee, as if the loote should fly, it were not of the body, because it is not the hand, or the ear, because it is not the eye. Therefore all parts ought rather to defend the vniety of the body, being coupled together to serue one the other. u Againe, speaking to them, hee sheweth them that if that should come to passe which they desire, to wit, that all should be equall one to another, there would follow a destruction of the whole body, yea, and of themselves:
for it could not be a body, vntill it were made of many members knit together, and diuers one from the other. And that no man might haue fault with this diuision vnequall, hee addeth that God himselfe hath coupled all these together. Therefore all must remaine coupled together, that the body may remaine in safety.*

God is the same which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withall.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom: and to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is given faith by the same Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit:

10 And to another the operations of great works: and to another, the prophesie: and to another, the discerning of spirits: and to another, the diversities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 * And all these things worketh one and the selfe same Spirit, distributing to every man severally, as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: so euen to us is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Iewes, or Grecians whether we be bond or free, and haue bene all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member but many.

15 If the foot would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, it is therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members every one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members yet but one body.

11 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no need of thee, nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And vpon those members of the body, which we thinke most vnhonour, put wee more honestly one and our vncomely parts haue more comeliess.

24 For our comely parts neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that part which lacked.

25 Left there should be any diuision in the body: but that the members should haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the members reioice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members of his part.

28 * And God hath ordained some in the Church: as first, Apostles, secondly, Prophets, thirdly, teachers, then them that doe miracles. After that, the gifts of healing, helpers, gouernours, diuersity of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the gifts of healing? doe all speake with tongues? doe all interpret?

31 But desire you the best gifts, and I will yet shew you a more excellent way.

community both in commodities and discomforts, of the smallest and vilest officers, and therefore finally account of the best. q We more carefully count them. r Should bestow their operations and offices to the profit and perfection of the whole body. s Now he applieth the same doctrine to the church, as he did to the body, warning them that these things are diuers functions and diuers gifts, it is their duty, next to offend one against another, either by enuie or ambition, but rather that they being ioined together in love and charity one with another, every one of them bestow to the profit of all, that which he hath received, according as his ministry doth require. f For all churches wherefore they are dispersed thorow the whole world are diuers members of one body. g Ephes. 4. 11. h The offices of Deacons. i He setteth forth the order of Elders, which were the maintainers of the churches discipline. k He teacheth them that are ambitious and enuious, a certaine holy ambition and enuie, to wit, if they giue themselves to the best gifts, and such as are most profitable to the Church, and if they contend to excell one another in loue, which fauor passeth all other gifts.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He sheweth that there are no gifts so excellent, which in Gods sight are not corrupt, if charitie be as: 4 and therefore hee directeth vnto the commendation of it.

Though I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, & haue not loue, I am as sounding brasse, or as tinkling cymball.

2 And though I had the gifts of prophesie, and knew all secrets and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I could remooue mountains, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feed the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body that it be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth mee nothing.

the reason first of Charitie, the excellency wherewith first theued by this, that without it, all other gifts are as nothing before God, which thing hee prooueth partly by an illustration, and partly also by an argument: then of the end wherefore those gifts are given. For so what purpose? these gifts, that to Gods glory and the profit of the Church, as is before pronounced: to that (those gifts without Charitie, beano right vnto. A very earnest kind of amplying a matter as if he said, If there were any tongue of Angels, and I haue no loue, what is to them the benefit of my neighbours, if I were nothing else but a raine and a vntimely kind of labour. 8 That giueth a word and no more and sound e. If I were with the gift of doing miracles, and not that I should be able to do, which I cannot be and of Charitie as the other way. * Mat. 7. 16.

17 For thou verie gueſt thanks well but the other is not edified.

18 ¹ I thank my God, I ſpeake languages more than ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to ſpeake 9 ſeuall words with mine vnderſtanding, than I might alſo inſtruct others, then ten thouſand wordes in a ſtrange tongue.

20 Brethren, bee not * children in vnderſtanding, but as concerning maliciousneſſe bee children, but in vnderſtanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the * Law it is written, * By men of other tongues, & by other languages will I ſpeake vnto this people: yet ſo ſhall they not heare mee, ſaith the Lord.

22 ¹ Wherefore ſtrange tongues are for a ſigne, not to them that beleue, but to them that beleue not: but prophelying ieſuſh not for them that beleue not, but for ſuch which beleue.

23 ¹ If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all ſpeake ſtrange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, will they not ſay, that ye are out of your wits?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleueeth not, or one vnlearned, hee is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all,

25 And fo are the ſecrets of his heart made manifeſt, and ſo he will fall downe on his face, and worſhip God, and ſay plainly that God is in you in deed.

26 ² What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a Pſalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 ³ If any man ſpeake a ſtrange tongue, let it be by two, or at the moſt, by three, and that by courſe, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe ſilence in the Church, which ſpeaketh languages, and let him ſpeake to himſelfe and to God.

29 ⁴ Let the Prophets ſpeake: two or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuealed to another that ſitteth by, let the firſt hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne and all may haue comfort.

32 And the * ſpirits of the Prophets, are ſubiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confuſion, but of peace, weſe in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 ⁵ * Let your women keepe ſilence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to ſpeake: but they ought to be ſubiect, as alſo * the Law ſayeth.

8 Hee propoundeth himſelfe for an example, both that they may be aſhamed of their foolish ambition, and alſo that hee may cleaſe all ſuſpition of enuie.
9 A very ſtrange word.
9 Now hee reprocheth them freely for their childiſh folly, which hee ſayeth not how this gift of tongues which was giuento the Church is turned by their ambition into an instrument of confuſion, ſeeing that this ſame alſo contained amongſt the puniſhments where with God puniſhed the ſtubborneſſe of his people, that hee diſperſed them amongſt ſtrange whoſe language they vnderſtood not.
10 The concluſion.
10 Therefore the gift of tongues ſeruech to puniſh the vnbeleuſſe: vnto theſe it is referred to prophesie (that is to ſay, to the interpretation of Scripture) and that that which is ſpoken, be by that means vnderſtood of the hearers.
11 Another argument: The gift of tongues without prophesie is not only vnprofitable to the faithfull: but alſo doth very much hurt as well to them as to the vnfaithfull which ſhould be worne in the publicke aſſemblies: For by this meanes it cometh to paſſe, that the faithfull ſeemet to other to be mad, much leſſe can the vnfaithfull be inſtructed thereby.
12 The concluſion: The edifying of the Congregation is a rule & ſquare of the righte of all ſpiritual gifts.
13 The manner how to ſe the gift of tongues, it may be lawfull for one or two, or at the moſt for three to ſe the gift of tongues, one after another in an aſſembly, ſo that there be time to expound the ſame: but if there bee none to expound, let him that hath that gift ſpeake to himſelfe alone.
14 The manner of prophelying: Let two or three propound, and let the other iudge of that that is propounded, whether it be agreeable to the word of God or no: If in this examination the Lord giue any man ought to ſpeake, let them giue him leave to ſpeake. Let euery man be admitted to prophesie ſeuall and in his order, ſo farre forth as his requiſite or the edifying of the Church: Let them be content to be ſubiect to the other iudgment.
15 The doctrine which the Prophets bring which is a ſpiritual gift: God's Spirit.
16 Women are commanded to be ſilence in publicke aſſemblies, and they are commanded to aſke of their husbands at home.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aſke their husbands at home, for it is a ſhame for women to ſpeake in the Church.

36 ⁶ Came the word of God out from you? either came it vnto you only?

37 If any man thinke himſelfe to bee a Prophet, or a ſpiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 ⁷ And if any man may be ignorant, let him bee ignorant.

39 ⁸ Wherefore, brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to ſpeake languages.

40 Let all things bee done honeſtly, and by order.

ought not to care for ſuch as be ſtubborne ignorant, & will not be to be forward to withſtanding in thoſe things which are ſufficiently ought ſimply to be received, and kept in Congregation, thoſe things which are to be forbidden, but al things muſt be done orderly.

16 A generall concluſion of the treatiſe of the righte of ſpiritual gifts: ſimilitude with charge reſpectiue, ſhall the Corinthians might alone ſeeme to themſelues to be vnto.
17 The Church abideth to be taught, bright, 18 Pro the gift of tongues

CHAP. XV.

¹ The Goſpell that Paul preached: 2 The death and reſurreccion of Chriſt: 3 Pauls own Chriſt, 4 He had preached that Chriſt was dead, and he was made a ſinner: 5 Chriſt ſuffered againe, and we alſo ſhall riſe againe: 6 The ſecond death, 7 To be like unto Chriſt, 8 An Epheſian Pauls own words: 9 How the dead are riſe, 10 The firſt Aſſembly, 11 The laſt Aſſembly, 12 The firſt and ſecond time, 13 We ſhall be changed, we ſhall not be ſeene, 14 Deaths ſing, 15 Vnto the 58 Conſtant and ſeſſion of the ſing.

1 ¹ O reouer, * brethren, I declare vnto you the Goſpel, which I preached vnto you, which yee haue alſo receiued, and wherein yee continue,

2 And whereby yee are ſaued, if yee keepe in memory, after what manner I preached it vnto you, except yee haue beleued in vaine.

3 For firſt of all, I deliuered vnto you that which I receiued, how that Chriſt died for our ſinnes, according to the * Scriptures,

4 And that he was buried, and that hee aroſe the third day according to the * Scriptures,

5 * And that he was ſeene of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that he was ſeene of more then five hundred brethren at once, whereof many remaine vnto this preſent, and ſome alſo are aſleepe.

7 After that he was ſeene of Iames: then of all the Apoſtles.

8 * And laſt of all he was ſeene alſo of mee, as of one borne out of due time.

9 * For I am the laſt of the Apoſtles, which am not meete to be called an Apoſtle, becauſe I persecuted the Church of God.

10 * But by the grace of God I am that I am: and his grace which is with me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they alſo: not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore, whether it were I, or they, ſo we preach, and ſo haue ye beleued.

12 ¶ Now if it be preached, ¶ Chriſt is riſen

1 The firſt treatiſe of this Epistle concerning the reſurreccion: and heſeth a tranſition, or preſenting ourſe from one matter to another, ſhewing firſt that hee bringeth no new thing, to the end that the Corinthians might vnderſtand that they had begun to ſuare from the right courſe: and next that hee goeth not about to entreate of a trifling matter, but of another chiefe poynt of the Goſpel which if he taken away, the faithfull muſt needs come to naught. And ſo as the length he beginneth this treatiſe at Chriſts reſurreccion, which is the ground and foundation of ours, and confirmeth it ſelfe by the teſtimonie of the Scriptures, and by the witneſſe of the Apoſtles and of more then five hundred brethren, and laſt of all by his owne. * Gal. 1. 1. THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 He beginneth with the praise of afflictions, 8 declaring what he hath suffered in Asia, and how happily God afflicted him. 17 He saith it was upon any thing himselfe, that he came not according to his promise.

PAVL * an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus, with all the Saints, which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 * Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ the Father of all mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, 3 that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 * And whether wee be afflicted, it is for your consolation and saluation, which is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which wee also suffer: or whether wee be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hopes stedfast concerning you in as much as we know, that as yee are partakers of the sufferings, so shall yee be also of the consolation.

8 * For brethren wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how we were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that we altogether doubted euen of life.

9 Yea, wee received the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God which raiseth the dead.

*a To him be praise and glory eternally. b Most mercifull. c The Lord death comforts us this end and purpose, that we may so much the more surely comfort others. e The mi-series which we suffer for Christ, or which Christ suffereth in us. f Hee denieth that either his afflictions wherewith hee was once afflicted, or the consolations, which hee receiued of God, may iustly be despised, fearing that the Corinthians both might and ought to take great occasion to be confirmed by either of them.
d Although saluation be giuen us freely, yet because there is a way appointed vs wherby we trust to come to it, which is the race of an innocent and upright life, which we must runne, therefore we are to work our saluation. Philippians 3. 12. And because it is God only that of his free good will worketh all things in vs, therefore is hee said to worke the saluation in vs by his owne selfe. In which we must passe seuerall things, after that we haue ouercome all our inuincible enemies. g The weakness that there is not onely not ashamed of his afflictions, but that hee desireth also to haue all men know the greatness of them, and also his decline in them although it bee not yett perished. h I knew not at all what I should do, neither did I see by mans helpe, which way to saue my life. i I was resolved without my life to die.*

10 Who deliuered vs from so great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom we trust, that yee hereafter he will deliuer vs.

11 * So that yee labour together in prayer for vs, 7 that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thanks may be giuen by many persons for vs.

12 * For our reioicing is this, the testimony of our confidence, that in simplicitie and godly purenesse, and not in fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God wee haue had our conseruation in the world, and most of all to youwarde.

13 For wee write * none other things vnto you, then that yee read or els that yee acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the end.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your reioicing, euen as yee are ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue had a double grace.

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth toward Iudea of you.

17 9 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vile lightnesse? or minde I those things which I minde, according to the flesh, that with mee should be, Yea, yea, Nay, nay?

18 * Yea, God is faithful, that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay.

19 * For the Sonne of God, Iesus Christ, who was preached among you by vs, that is, by mee, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was yea.

20 * For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glory of God through * vs.

13 Heareth but the praise of his confidence only to the grace of God through the holy Ghost, and therewithal conclude that they cannot doubt of his faith, and his fellows without doing injury to the Spirit of God, seeing that they themselves know all this to be true.

21 And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs.

22 Who hath also sealed vs, and hath given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 I Now, I call God for a record vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

24 Not that we haue dominion ouer your faith, but we are helpers of your ioy: for by faith ye stand.

25 Now concerning the matter, betweeneth that he came not only to alter his purpose of coming to them, but rather that he came not to them for this cause, that he might not be constrained to deal more sharply with them being present, then he would. 26 As if you were in the danger of mine owne life. 27 He remoueth all suspicion of arrogancie, declaring that he speaketh not as a Lord vnto them, but as a servant appointed of God to comfort them. 28 Hee finisheth the peace of conscience, which God hath anointed of against y^e annuall care, and is the end of the Gospel.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth his not coming vnto them, 2 and proueth reprehending them. 3 He sheweth that such his affliction towards them, 4 that he neuer reioyceth but when a sinner is converted. 5 Perceiving the adulterier (with he commaundeth to be turned up to Satan) to reuolt, he reioyceth that they forgive him. 6 He mentioneth his going into Macedonia.

But I determined this in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in a heauinesse.

2 For if I make you sorie, who is he then that should make me glad, but the same which is made sorie by me?

3 And I wrote this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I should take heauinesse of them of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguist of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that yee should be made sorie, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

5 And if any hath caused sorrow, the same hath not made me sorie, but partly (lest I should more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that hee was rebuked of many.

7 So that now contrariwise yee ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest the same should be swallowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you would give confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might knowe the proofe of you, whether ye would be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for verily if I forgive any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgane I it in the light of Christ.

11 Left Satan should circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christs Gospel, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be vnto God, which alwayes maketh vs to triumph in Christ and make manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

15 For we are vnto God the sweet fauour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them which perish.

16 To the one we are the fauour of death, vnto death, and to the other the fauour of life, vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things?

17 For wee are not as many, which make merchandise of the word of God: but as of finceritie, but as of God in the fight of God speake we in Christ.

reised and detested him, feeling that he preacheth Christ, not only as a man, but as one of them that beleue, but also as iudge of them that continue him. 2 Against he hath away all suspicion of arrogancie, as that in calling that he did, to the vertue of God, whom he seemeth sincerely, and without all respect of flesh, would not make them vnderstand the fauour of the new charter. 3 Chap. 2. 4 We can not haue our faith and our consciences to be surety: and let us seeke a mercie: which is taken from such, which they play the false host with whom they come into their hands.

CHAP. III.

1 He defendeth no other commendation, 2 then their continuing in the faith. 3 Hee a minister, not a seller, but a teacher. 4 Hee sheweth the difference of the Law, and the Gospel, 5 that the brightness of the Law doth rather darken the sight of the light. 6 But the Gospel doth make manifest Gods continuance in vs.

Do we begin to praye our selues againe? or neede we as of some other, Epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

2 Yee are our Epistle, written in our hearts, which is vnderstood and read of all men.

3 In that yee are a manifest, to be the Epistle of Christ, ministered by vs, and written, not with inke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such a trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing as of our selues: but our sufficiency is of God,

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the New Testament, not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministrature of death written with letters & engrauen in stones, was so glorious, so that the children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moses, for the glorie of his hood of Levi, with the ministrerie of the Gospel, and the Apostolicall ministration, which he handleth afterward more fully. 2 This is sufficient to shew, and the glory manifestly may be made of the worth of the fruit of our ministration. 3 In this way we see an answer to the other ministration of a grace. 4 Hee amplifieth his ministration and his excellence, that is to say, the ministrerie of the Gospel, comparing it with the ministrerie of the Law, which hee considereth in the person of Moses, by whom the Law was giuen against whom hee seeth Christ the author of the Gospel. Now this comparison is taken from the very substance of the ministrerie. The Law is as it were a writing of it selfe dead, and without efficacy: but the Gospel new covenant, is it is the very vertue of God it selfe in euerything, and giuing and giuing of men. The Law propounded death, accusing all men of euill, and giuing of death. The Gospel offereth and giueth righteously life and life. 5 The gouernance of the Law reuered for a time to the people. The Gospel ministereth to the end of the world. The Law was what is the glory of it, in comparison of the ministry of the Law. 6 The Law was a shadow of the Gospel. 7 Impressed an inward way, so that the heart was inwardly pleased, that the Apostle speaketh of the euangelium of the Law, the Law of the Law Commandments. 8 The Law was a glory to be kept, and a manifest, which was bodily in Moses, but inwardly in Christ.

countenance (which glory is done away)

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministrie of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of righteousness exceede in glory.

10 For euen that which was glorified was not glorified in this point, That u, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For 1: that which should bee ¹ abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth be glorious.

12 : Seing then that we haue such trust, wee vse great boldnesse of speech.

13 * 4 And we are not as Moses, which put a vail vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the ^m ende of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the olde Testament, which vaine in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day when Moses is red,
the vaile is laid ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheſſe, when their heart ſhal be turned to the Lord, the vaile ſhal be taken away.

17 Now the ⁿ Lord is the * Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord ^{is}, there ^{is} liberty.

18 But we all behold as in a mirrour the glory of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. III.

2 Hee sheweth you hee hath so laboured in preaching the Gospel, 4 that such are men blinded of Satan who doe not perceive the brightness thereof: 7 that the same is carried in many vessels, to, who are subiect to many miseries: 16 and therefore bee exhort ed them by his own examples to bee courageous, 17 and continue this present life.

Therefore, ¹ seeing that we haue this ministerie, as we haue receiued mercie, wee ^a faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the ^b clokes of shame, and walke not in craftines, neither handle wee the word of God ^c deceitfully but in declaration of the trueth, we approue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3. If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the God of this world hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, should not shine vnto them.

53 For we preach not our selves, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selves your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God * is that commanded the light to shine out of darknesse, as he which hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 4 But we haue this treasure in earthen vessels, & that the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

8 Wee are afflicted on euery side, yet are wee not in distresse: we are in doubt, but yet wee despaire not.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10⁶ Euery where wee beare about in our body the dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we which ^k liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our ^l mortall flesh.

12 7 So then death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 ⁸ And because we haue the same ^mspirit of faith, according as it is written, *I beleueed, and therefore haue I spoken, wee also beleuee, and therefore speake.

14 Knowing that he which hath raised vp the Lord Iesus, shall raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 ¶ For all things are for your sakes, ⁿ that that most plenteous grace by the thankgiuing of many may redound to the praise of God.

16 Therefore we faint not ¹⁰ but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is ^o renewed dayly.

17 For our p light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre more excellent and an eternall weight of glory:

18 While wee looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene:
for the things which are seene, are temporall: but the things which are not seene, are eternall.

[illegible]

g He sheweth the Corinthians a picture of a true minister, in his own example, and Titus, and Timotheus, and Silvanus to the end, that (as he purposed from the beginning) he might procure authority to himselfe and his like.

6 Declare and shew instead.

1 Cor. 1. 1.

4 He is full of knowledge, y^e those things which are neither always in the ministers, nor without exception, unless it be according to the affection of the mind, patience onely except, which also is one of the virtues which ought to be always in a good minister.

e In suffering in and from, having no place of sin, but iniquities.

5 Secondly he reckoneth vpon such virtues as are necessary, and ought always to be in them, and whereby as by good armour, all afflict and hindrances may be overcome.

succoured thee : beholde now the accepted time, beholde now the day of saluation.

3 Wee giue no occasion of offence in any thing that our ministry should not bee reprehended.

4 But in all things we bapproue our selues as the ministers of God, + in much patience in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses.

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours.

6 By watchings, by fastings, by purity by knowledge, by long uttering, by kindenesse, by the holy Ghost, by loue vnfeined.

2 * Receiue vs : we haue done wrong to no man : wee haue corrupted no man : wee haue defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation : for I haue said before, that ye are in our hearts, to die and liue together.

4 I vie great boldnesse of speech toward you : I reioyce greatly in you, I am filled with comfort and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on euery side, fightings without, and terrors within.

6 But God that comforteth the debaich, comforted vs at the coming of Titus.

7 And not by his coming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith he was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your seruent mind to me ward, so that I reioiced much more.

8 * For though I made you sorry with a letter I repent not, though I did repent : for I perceiue that the same Epistle made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance : for ye sorrowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 For godly sorrow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of : but the worldly sorrow caueth death.

11 For behold this thing that yee haue beene godly sorry, what great care it hath wrought in you : yea, what clearing of your selues : yea, what indignation : yea, what feare : yea, how great desire : yea, what a zeale : yea, what reuenge : in all things yee haue followed your selues, that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted because yee were comforted : but rather we reioiced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed : but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when he remembereth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

17 And therein telleth complaineth that they do not like in leaning againe their Father.

6 An objection : But thou hast handled vs roughly : the Apollon answered that he felt not this roughness, without griefe.

7 And he addeth moreover, that he is also glad now, that hee had done them to that sorrow, although it was against his will, since it was profitable vnto them for there is sorrow not onely praise worthy, but also necessary, to wit, whereby repentance groweth by certain degrees, for the which repentance he prayeth them highly.

1 Left by overmuch urging them, he should dissuay their tender mindes, 2 he proueth that all that hee saith, 4 pricee of the great good will becom vnto them, 8 and therefore they should not to be offended that he made them sorry, 10 and laughs them to repentance not to be rep need of.

4 He concludeth, that he will only let his miſeries againſt the vaine bragges of the falſe Apoſtles, and therewith alſo reſtifie himſelfe, for that by their importunity, he was contrai- ned to ſpeake ſo much of theſe things as he did: to wit, becauſe that if his Apoſtoliſhip were ſubverted, his doct- rine miſt needs fall.

5 That I might ſee the vertue of Chriſt: more and more: For the weaker that our ſeruaunts are, the more doth Chriſt more appeare in them.

6 I doe not ſo ſeek them, paſſively and with a good heart, but with ſa- tisfaction and plea- ſure in them.

7 Again he marketh the Corin- thians witneſſes of thoſe things whereby God had ſealed his Apoſto- liſhip amongſt them, and againe he declareth by certaine argu- ments, how farre he is from all co- uertheſneſſe, and alſo how he is alſo conſcientious to- wards them.

8 The arguments whereof may well appeare, that I am indeede an Apoſtle of Ieſus Chriſt.

9 Chap. xi. 9. I was not ſouſ- fering by getting my ſharing with mine own hand, that I might not be bur- denſome to you.

10 He putteth a- way another molt grieuous ſlander, to wit, that he did ſubtilly, and by others, make his gaine and proſite of them.

7 He concludeth, that he wretcheth not theſe things vnto them, as though he needed to defend himſelfe, for hee is guilty of nothing: but becauſe it is behouefull for them to doubt nothing of his fidelity who inſtruded them.

for thee: for my power is made perfect through weakneſſe. 4 Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine inſirmities, that the power of Chriſt may dwell in me.

10 Therefore I take *pleaſure in inſirmities, in reproches, in neceſſities, in perſecutions, in anguiſh for Chriſts ſake: for when I am weak, then am I ſtrong.

11 I was a ſoole to boaſt my ſelfe: yee haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene com- mended of you: for in nothing was I inferior vnto the very chiefe Apoſtles, though I be ſet- tling.

12 The ſignes of an Apoſtle were wrought a- mong you with all patience, with ſignes, and wonders, and great works.

13 For what is it, wherein ye were inferior vnto other Churches, * Except that I haue not bin * ſlothfull to your hinderance: forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be ſlothfull to your hinderance: for I ſeeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will moſt gladly beſtow, and will be beſtowed for your fauils, though the more I leaue you, the leſſe I am leaue.

16 But bee it that I charged you not: yet for as much as I was craſtie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I ſent vnto you?

18 I haue deſired Titus, and with him I haue ſent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked we not in the ſelfe ſame ſpirit? walked we not in the ſame ſteps?

19 Again, thinke ye that wee excuſe our ſelues vnto you? wee ſpeake before God in a Chriſt. But we doe all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I feare leſt when I come, I ſhall not find you ſuch as I would, and that I ſhall be found vnto you ſuch as you would not, and leſt there be ſtrife enuying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whiſperings, ſwellings, and diſcord.

21 I feare leſt when I come againe, my God abaſe me among you, and I ſhall bewaile many of them which haue ſinned already, and haue not repented of the vncleanneſſe, and fornication, and wantonneſſe which they haue com- mitted.

7 He concludeth, that he wretcheth not theſe things vnto them, as though he needed to defend himſelfe, for hee is guilty of nothing: but becauſe it is behouefull for them to doubt nothing of his fidelity who inſtruded them.

8 Having confirmed his authority vnto them he rebuketh them ſharply, and threatneth them alſo like an Apoſtle, ſhew- ing that he will not ſpare them hereafter, unleſſe they repent, ſeeing that this is the third time that he hath warned them.

C H A P. XIII.

1 Commending the ſtard time, 2 Hee denounce. h the ſharper vengeance towards them, 3 who haue a perfect knowledge of the power of Chriſt in his Apoſtoliſhip: 4 At long he reſtoreth for their repentance, 5 And ſheweth them propitius.

1 Oe, this is the third time that I come vnto you, * In the mouth of two or three witneſſes ſhall euery word ſtand.

2 I told you before, and tell you before: as though I had bene preſent the ſecond time, ſo write I now being abſent, to them, which hereto- fore haue ſinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not ſpare,

3 Seeing that ye ſeeke experience of Chriſt, that ſpeaketh in mee, which toward you is not weak, but is * mightie in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning his inſirmities, yet liueth hee through the power of God. And we no doubt are weak in him, but wee ſhall liue with him, through the power of God toward you.

5 * Proue your ſelues whether ye are in the faith. examine your ſelues: know yee not your owne ſelues, how that Ieſus Chriſt is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I truſt that ye ſhall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray vnto God that ye doe none euill, not that wee ſhould ſeeme approb'd, but that ye ſhould doe that which is honeſt: though wee be as * reprobates.

8 For we cannot doe any thing againſt the truth, but for the truth.

9 For wee are glad when we are weak, and that ye are ſtrong: this alſo we wiſh for, even your perfection.

10 Therefore write I theſe things being abſent, leſt when I am preſent, I ſhould vie ſharpe- neſſe, according to the power which the Lord hath giuen me, to edification, and not to deſtruction.

11 Finally brethren, ſare ye well: bee perfect: be of good comfort: be of one mind: liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace ſhall be with you.

12 Greete one another with an * holy kiſſe.

13 The grace of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, and the loue of God, and the communion of the holie Ghoſt be with you all, Amen.

The ſecond Epiſtle to the Corinthians writ- ten from Philippi, a citie in Macedonia, and ſent by Titus and Lucas.

ſelues towards their faithfull Apoſtle, apt and willing to bee taught: adding this moreouer, that he paſſeth not for his owne ſake and elimination, ſo that hee may ſerue to their iſtuation, which is the only marke that hee liueth in iudgement.

4 That all things may be in god order amongſt you, and the members of the Church reſtored into their place, whiſh they have ſet out of place. 4 A briefe exhortation, but ſuch as one as comprehendeth all the parts of a Chriſti- an mans life. 5 He ſaluteth them familiarly, and in conſeſſion wiſheth wel vnto them. * 1 Cor. 16. 20.

CHAP. VIII.

Being delivered from the bondage of the Law, 4 by Christ coming, who is the end thereof, 5 it is very absurd to slide back to heggish ceremonies: 12. He calleth them againe thereunto for the pursue of the doctrine of the Gospell, 21 con-firming his discourse with a fine allegorie.

He declareth that by another double similitude, which he said before concerning the keeper & schoolmaster: For he saith, that the Law, (that is, the whole government of Gods house, according to the Law) was it were a time as the protection and overseeing which was for a time, being ended, we should at length come to be able to be left alone, and should live as children, & not as servants.

Moreover hee showeth by the way, that that governance of the Law, was as it were an Abba, and as a certain principle, in comparison of the maturity of the Gospel.
As if he added, be-

In the first place, the common cause of nature, which begate Isaac of Sara a free woman by the virtue of the seed and the will was not only not here, but also perverted to two co-natures, zest was two lions born to Abraham and were of two mothers. The one was made in Sinai, according to which co-nature Abraham's children are accounted to wit, the twelves which feel righteous by the Law, but they are not heirs, nay, they shall at length be they that pericute the true heirs. The other was made in Zion, (to wit, by the sacrifice of Christ) which begate the twelve apostles, who are the true heirs, the holy Gnost, which themselves in the free promise, and by the virtue of the fathers in the faith in heretics, and therefore are the true heirs.

* Gm. 27. 10.

30 But what faith the Scripture ? * Put out the ſervant and her ſonne: for the ſonne of the ſervant ſhall not be heire with the ſonne of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not children of the ſervant, but of the free woman.

32 The children of the bondmaid ſhall not be heires.

CHAP. V.

1 Flaming declared that we came of the free woman, he ſheweth ſervice of that freedom. 13 And how to ſhew we are free, 16 it is necessary to be ſpirit, 19 and we ſhould be free.

Stand faſt therefore in the liberty wherewith Chriſt hath made vs free, and be not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

2 * Beholde, I Paul ſay vnto you, that if ye bee circumciſed, Chriſt ſhall profit you nothing.

3 For I teſtifie againe to euery man, which is circumciſed, that he is bound to keepe the whole Lawe.

4 Ye are * aboliſhed from Chriſt: whoſoever are iuſtified by the Lawe, ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteouſneſſe through faith.

6 For in Ieſus Chriſt neither circumciſion availeth any thing, neither vncircumciſion, but faith which worketh by loue.

7 Ye did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the truth?

8 It is not the perſwaſion of him that calleth you.

9 A little leauen doeth leauen the whole lump.

10 I haue truſt in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwiſe minded: but he that troubleth you, ſhall beare his condemnation, whoſoever he be.

11 And brethren, if I yet preach circumciſion, why doe I yet after perfection? Then is the ſlander of the croſſe aboliſhed.

12 Would to God they were euen cut off, which doe ſo diſquiet you.

13 For brethren, ye haue bene called vnto libertie: 12 onely vſe not your libertie as an occaſion vnto the fleſh, but by loue ſerue one another.

14 For all the Law is fulfilled in one word which is this, Thou ſhalt loue thy neighbour as thy ſelfe.

15 14 Ye bite and deuore one another, take heed leaſt ye be conſumed one of another.

16 Then I ſay, * walke in the Spirit, and ye ſhall not fulfill the luſts of the fleſh.

17 For the fleſh luſteth againſt the Spirit, and the Spirit againſt the fleſh: and theſe are contrary one to another, ſo that ye cannot doe the ſame things that ye would.

18 And if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not vnder the Lawe.

19 Moreover the works of the fleſh are manifeſt, which are adulterie, fornication, vncleanneſſe, wantonneſſe,

20 Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, debate, emulations, wrath, contentions, editions, hereſies, 21 Enuie, murders, drunkenneſſe, gluttonie, and ſuch like, whereof I tell you before, as I alſo haue tolde you before, that they which do ſuch things, ſhall not inherite the Kingdome of God.

22 But the fruits of the Spirit, is loue, ioy peace, long ſuffering, gentleneſſe, goodneſſe, faith, 23 Meekeneſſe, temperancie: 17 againſt ſuch there is no lawe.

24 For they that are Chriſts, haue crucified the fleſh with the affections and the luſts.

25 If we liue in the Spirit, let vs alſo walke in the Spirit.

26 Let vs not be deſirous of vaine glory, prouoking one another, enuying one another.

weakneſſe of the godly, for that they are but in part regenerate 2 but he will ſhew them that they are indeed regenerate by the ſpirit of God, which hath deliuered them from the flauery of ſinne, and ſo of the Law, for ſo farre forth as this is the virtue of faith, that they ſhould not giue themſelves to liuall 1. Rom. 11. 14. 1. For 1. 11. 1. For the fleſh ſhall ſtill be in the regenerate man, but the ſpirit ſhall be ſtronger, although not without great ſtrife, as it is ſayd in the fourth Rom. 7. 16 He leaſt out of particularly, which he ſpoke generally, reckoning vpon ſome chiefe effects of the fleſh and oppoſing them to the fruits of the Spirit, that no man may pretend ignorance. 2 Therefore they ſhall not be the fruits of free will, but of grace, ſo as it is ſayd in the ſpirit of Chriſt, which doeth beget vs againe, and muſt a daughter be the inheritance of our liſe. 1. If we be made iuſt with the quickning Spirit, which caueth vs to diſſimile, and thus to God, for vs ſinne is now dead, that is, by the quickning Spirit. 18 Hee ſaith hee hath exhortations according as he knoweth the Galatians ſubject to diuine wiſe, and ſaith alſo hee ſaith hee hath to take heed of ambition, which vice hath two followers, backbiting and enue, out of which two it cannot be, but many contentions muſt need ariſe.

CHAP. VI.

1 Now hee intreateth particularly of charity towards ſuch as offend, 6 and toward the miniſters of the word, 12 And he ſaith that they ſhall be of the houſhold of faith, 13 Not like ſuch ſuch who haue a commerce ſale of the Lawe, 14 ſhewing in the managling of the fleſh, 14 and againe in the croſſe of Chriſt.

Brethren, * if a man bee ſuddenly taken in any offence, ye which are ſpiritually, reſtore ſuch one with the ſpirit of meekeneſſe, * conſidering thy ſelfe, leſt thou alſo be tempted.

12 The third part of this Epistle ſhewing that the righteouſſe of Chriſtian liberty conſiſteth in this, that being deliuered from the flauery of ſinne and the fleſh, and being obedient to the ſpirit, we ſhall ſerue vnto one another in brotherly affection through loue. 13 He propoundeth the loue of our neighbour, as a mark whereunto all Chriſtians ought to referre all their actions, and thereunto hee citeth the testimony of the Law. 14 The periculus (14) muſt be reſtrained to the conſcience. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.

1 Hee condemneth impudencie, because that braſterly reprehensions ought to be moderated and tempered by the ſpirit of meekeneſſe 4 Through the maner of the fleſh and the world. 5 Which are forbidden by the virtue of the Spirit. 6 Labour is ſet up that their meaning is in them. 7 Thine is a kinde of ſpeech which the Hebrews, ſaying in vnderſtanding, that alſo ſayd they come from God. 8 He toucheth the iore: for they commonly are moſt ſevere judges, which ſet their own iuſtifications.

3 Hee sheweth that this is the end of reprobation, to raise up our brother which is fallen, and not proudly to oppress him. Therefore every one must keepe to haue commendation of his owne life by aprouing himselfe, and not by reprehending others.

4 Christin plaine and flat words, callethe the commendation of chaisty his commendement.

5 1 Cor. 3. 8.

4 A reason, wherefore men ought to haue the great reie upon themselves, because that every man shall be iudged before God according to his owne life, and not by comparing himselfe with other men.

5 It is meete that masters should be found by their scholars, so farre forth as they are able.

6 Of whatsoever hee hath, according to his ability. 1 Cor. 9. 7.

6 Hee commendeth liberality towards the poore, and first of all children, which were not ashamed to pretend this and that, and all because they would not helpe their neighbours, as though they could deeme God: and afterward compareth almes to a spiritual sowing, which shall haue a most plentifull harvest, so that it shall be very profitable, and compareth covetous niggardinesse to a carnall sowing, whereof nothing can be gathered but such things as slide away, and perish by and by.

8 To the commodities of this present life. 2 Thess. 3. 12.

7 Against such as are liberrall at the beginning, but continue not, because the harvest seemeth to be deferred very long, as though the seed time and the harvest were at one instant.

8 They that are of the household of faith, that is, such as are joined with vs in the profession of one felle fame religion, ought to be preferred before all other, yet notwithstanding that our liberty extend to all.

11 ¶ Ye see how large a letter I haue written vnto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised, only because they would not suffer persecution for the krosse of Christ.

13 For they themselves which are circumcised keepe not the Law, but desire to haue you circumcised, that they might reioice in you.

14 ¶ But God forbid that I should reioice, but in the crosse of our Lord Iesus Christ, whereby the world is crucified vnto me, & I vnto y world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither circumcision auaileth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace shall be vpon them, and mercy, and vpon the Israel of God.

17 ¶ From henceforth, let no man put me to businesse for I beare in my body the markes of the Lord Iesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you & spirit, Amen.

9 The fourth and last part of the Epistle, wherein hee returneth to his principall end and purpose: to wit, that the Galatians should not suffer the euillnes to be led out of the way by the false apostles: and he painteth out those false apostles in their colours, reproving them of ambition, as men that do not that which they do, for any affection, and zeale they haue to the Law, but only for this purpose, that they may purchase themselves lauer amongst their own sort, by the circumcision of the Galatians.

6 He setteth a strife stre against him that is keeping of ceremonies.

7 For the preaching of him that was crucified.

8 That they haue entangled you in their law, and yet be harsher on the iourne of circumcision.

10 Hee sheweth not to compare himselfe with them, shewing that on the contrary part hee reioiceth in those afflictions which hee suffereth for Christes sake, and as he is despised of the world, so doth he in like sort esteeme the world as naught: which is the true circumcision of a true Israelite.

11 When I wisheth this word in good sense or part, is sufficient to set a man selfe wholly in a thing, and to content himselfe therewith.

12 I reioice in the same, as I whole praise in God, and not of men, Rom. 2. 19.

11 Continuing true in the metaphor, hee expotheth his milicies and the markes of those stripes which hee beare for Christes sake, against the shate of the outward circumcision, as a true marke of his Apostleship.

10 Markes which are burnt into a mans flesh, as they vied in old time, to marke their seruants that had runne away from them.

11 For it importeth much, whose markes we beare: for the cause maketh the manly, and not the punishment.

12 Taking his farewell of them, hee wisheth them grace, and the Spirit, against the deceits of the false Apostles, which laboured to beat those outward things into their braines.

9 Repeteth your mindes and heauy.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After the salutation, 4 hee insinuateth of Gods free election of God, 5 and adoption. 7. 13 from whence mans saluation floweth, as from the true and naturall fountaine: and because so high a mystery cannot be understood, 16 hee praeth that the full 20 knowledge of Christ, may by Gods be remitted vnto the Ephesians.

Aul: an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God, to the Saints, which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Christ Iesus.

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 ¶ Blessed be God, 3 and the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, 4 which hath blessed vs with all spiritual blessings in heauenly things in Christ,

4 As hee hath chosen vs in d him, before the foundation of the world, 7 that wee should be holy, and without blame before him in loue:

5 ¶ Who hath predestinate vs, to be adopted through Iesus Christ in himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 ¶ To the praise of the glory of his grace, 10 wherewith hee hath made vs freely accepted in his beloued,

7 ¶ By whom wee haue redemption through

6 He declareth the sufficient cause, or by what means God the Father saueh vs in his Sonne: because faith hee, hee chose vs to eternallizing in his Sonne.

7 He expoundeth the next finall cause, which hee makes double, to wit, sanctification, and iustification, whereof hee will speake hereafter. And hereby also two things are to be noted, to wit, that his end of life cannot be separate from the grace of election: and againe, what putentific power is vs, is the gift of God, who hath freely by his mercede chosen vs.

8 Then God did not choose vs, because we were, or otherwise should haue bene holy, but to the end we should be holy.

9 ¶ Being clothed with Christs righteousness, 3 Truth, and sincerity.

8 Another plaine exposition of the efficient cause, and eternall election, whereby God is said to haue chosen vs in Christ, to wit, because he pleased him to appoint vs out when we were not yet borne, whom hee would make to be his children by Iesus Christ: for that there is no reason in re of election to be sought, but in the free mercede of God, neither is faith which God forelaw, the cause of predestination, but the effect.

6 God respecteth nothing, either that prevent vs, or that is to come, but himselfe only.

9 The term of merit and chiefest finall cause is the glory of God the Father, who saueh vs freely in his Sonne.

3 That his boundlesse goodness defendeth vs from all sinne, so as it should be set forth and published.

10 Another finall cause more neerer, is our iustification, whilst that we freely accounted vs for lost in his Sinne.

11 As he expoundeth of the marshall cause, how wee are made acceptable to God in Christ, for hee it only, whose sacrifice by the mercede of God is imputed to vs, for forgiveness of sinnes.

2 The inscription and salutation, whereof we haue spoken in the former Epistles.

1 1 Cor. 1. 2.

2 Thus the definition of the Saints, showing what they are.

1 1 Cor. 1. 3.

2, psal. 1. 3.

2 The first part of the Epistle, wherein hee handleth all the parts of our saluation, propounding the example of the Ephesians, and vsing diuers exhortations, and beginning after his manner with thanksgiving.

3 The efficient cause of our saluation is God, not considered confusedly and generally, but as the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

4 The next finall cause in respect of vs, is our saluation, all things being bestowed vpon vs which are necessarie to our saluation, which kinde of blessing is heauenly and proper to the Elect.

6 16 vs all kinde of gracious and boundlesse goodnes which is heauenly in deeds, and from God only.

1 I wish God our Father grace, 11 from his high throne from above, or because the Saints haue merited grace of him, which belongeth properly to the citizens of heauen.

5 The matter of our saluation is Christ, in whom onely we are redeemed with spiritual blessing and vnto saluation.

7 That hee might shew in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace through his kindefree towards vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by his grace are yee saved through faith, and that not of your felues: it is the gift of God.

9 Not of works, least any man should boast himselfe.

10 For we are his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, which God hath ordered, that we should walke in them.

11 Wherefore remember that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands,

12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, & were aliens from the common wealth of Israel, and were strangers from the covenants of promise, and had no hope, and were without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, ye which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the stoppe of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his flesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandments which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in himselfe, by making peace,

16 And that hee might reconcile both vnto God in one body by his crosse, and by slay hatred thereby,

17 In and came, and preached peace to you which were as afeare off, & to them that were neere.

18 For through him we both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore yee are no more strangers and foreigners but citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God.

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles & Prophets, Iesus Christ him selfe being the chiefe corner stone, 21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord.

22 In whom ye also are built together to bee the habitation of God by the Spirit.

For this cause, I Paul, am the prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is given me to youward,

3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this myserie vnto mee (as I wrote aboue in fewe words,

4 Whereby when yee reade, yee may know mine vnderstanding in the myserie of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reueiled vnto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should be inheritors also, and of the same body and partakers of this promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto mee through the effectual working of his power.

8 Euen vnto mee the least of all Saints is this grace giue, that I should preach among the Gentiles the vniuerse riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the mysteries, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent, that now vnto principalities and powers in heavenly places, might be known by the Church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternall purpose, which he wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord, 12 By whom wee haue boldnes and entrance with confidence, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that yee faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 (Of whom is named the whole familie in heaven and in earth)

16 That he might grant you according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened by his Spirit in the inner man.

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith:

18 That yee, being rooted and grounded in bloue, may be able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the kinde of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that yee may be filled with all fullnesse of God.

20 Vnto him therefore that is able to doe exceeding abundantly aboue all that wee aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in vs,

preaching and hearing of the word: which are needfull not onely to them which are younglings in religion, but euen to the eldest also, that they growing vp more and more by faith in Christ, being confirmed with all spiritual gifts, may be quickened and renewed in the knowledge of that inmeasurable bloue, whereby with God the Father hath loved you in Christ, seeing that the whole familie whereof ye are part is already receiued into heaven, and part yett here on earth, dependeth vpon that adoption of the heavenly Father, in his onely Sonne.

And that wh. he people, which hath but our benedict Father, and that is the Church, which is adopted in Christ. f According to the greatness of his meritt. g Look Rom. 7. 22. b W. erewith God loveth vs, which is the voice of our blessing. i How perfitt that worke of Christ is in euery part. k Which God hath shewed vs in Christ l Which passeth all the capacite of mans wit, to comprehend is fully in his mindes for otherwise who hath the Spirit of God, preceheth somuch (according to the measure that God hath giuen him) as is sufficient to salvation. m So that we haue loudly in vs, whosoever they are require to make vs perfitt with God. a Hee breakeeth forth into a thanksgiving, whereby the Ephesians also may be confirmed to hope for any thing of God.

CHAP. III.

1 He declares that therefore hee suffered many things of the Jewes 2 because hee preached the myserie touching the salvation of the Church, calling it by the name and house of God. 3 The Lord committed the doctrine of salvation, first to the Prophets, and then to the Apostles, the end whereof, and matter as was said, is Christ. Therefore that is in deed the true and Catholique Church, which is builded vpon Christ by the Prophets and Apostles, as a spiritual temple consecrated to God. 4 This is the head of the building, for the foundation: as it is in the heads of builders. 5 So that God is the workman not onely of the foundation, but also of the whole building.

4 So then, Grace that is to say, the gift of God and faith use hande one with another, to which two things are contrary. To be saved by our felues, or by our workes. Therefore what means they which would saye together, that we are saved by contrary nature? 9 He taketh away expressly and namely from our workes the praise of iustification, seeing that the good workes themselves are the effects of grace in vs.

11 He speaketh here of a manner of measuring, sheweth in the workes new of God, what they are, they are of grace. 20 Applying the former doctrine to the Gentiles, he sheweth that they were not onely as the Jewes by nature, but also as an especial sort, strangers and without God: and therefore they ought to much the rather remember that same to great a benefite of God.

20 You were called to other wise then Gentiles, that all the world might witness of your true kinneship.

1 Of the Jewes which were known from you by the markes of the circumcision markes of the covenant. m Hee leggeth first with Christ who was the end of all the promises. n You had no right or title to the common wealth of Israel. f. Rom. 9. 4. 11 Christ is the onely bond of the Jewes and Gentiles, whereby they are reconciled to God. 12 As by the ceremonies and worship appointed by the Law, the Jewes were diuided from the Gentiles, so now Christ, having broken downe the partition wall, ioyneth them both together, both in himselfe, and betwixt themselves, and to God. Whereby it followeth, that whoe soeuer establisheth the ceremonies of the Law, maketh the grace of Christ voyde and offoone effect. * Col. 2. 14. o He alludeth to the sacrifices of the Law, which represented that true and onely Sacrifice. p For hee destroyed death by death, and suffered it as we see the crosse. 13 The preaching of the Gospel, is an effect, small instrument of this grace, common as well to the Jewes as to the Gentiles. q Christ is the gate as it were, by whom wee come to the Father, and the holy Ghost.

14 The conclusions: The Gentiles were taken from the fellowshipp of salvation. And he describeth the excellencie of the Church, calling it by the name and house of God. 15 The Lord committed the doctrine of salvation, first to the Prophets, and then to the Apostles, the end whereof, and matter as was said, is Christ. Therefore that is in deed the true and Catholique Church, which is builded vpon Christ by the Prophets and Apostles, as a spiritual temple consecrated to God. 16 This is the head of the building, for the foundation: as it is in the heads of builders. 17 So that God is the workman not onely of the foundation, but also of the whole building.

1 Hee maintaineth his Apostleship this age, if the decree of the crosse, whereon also he taketh an argument to confirme himselfe, affirming that hee was not onely appointed an Apostle by the mercy of God, but was also particularly appointed to the Gentiles, to call them to the new covenent. 12 Hee sheweth the cause of our saluation: because God had determined it from the beginning, although hee deferred a while the manifestation of that his counsell.

a These words, the prisoner of Iesus Christ, are taken piously, that is to say, Paul was cast in prison, for maintaining the glory of Christ. b He remembereth not that none knew the calling of the Gentiles before, Jewes new of faith, and they that did knowe, as the Prophets, had it reucaled vnto them in word, yett and in deed. c Hee vniuersally calling of the Gentiles, was as inuocare a plaine to the heavenly Angels, where in they might behold the marvellous wisdom of God.

d God neuer had time any way onely, to save men by his it had diuersi session and forms. e Which was before all beginnings. f He teacheth by his owne example, that the effectencie of the doctrine dependeth vpon the grace of God, and therefore wee ought to ioyne prayers with them.

g Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. h Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. i Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. k Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. l Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. m Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. n Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. o Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. p Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. q Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. r Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. s Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. t Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. u Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. v Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. w Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. x Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. y Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ. z Hee sheweth that the grace of God is the cause of our saluation, and that we are made partakers of it by faith in Christ.

These three last Chapters contain precepts of manners. 1 Hee exhorts us to a modesty of life. 2 Hee desires a fresh renewall of heart, & that the church may be built up 3 Hee calls them from the vanity of themselves, as from sin, as and from this world.

and much more for having consideration of the miserable, and gentle behaviour towards all men.

Left, in these vices which he reprehended, they should see light by his admonitions, 5 he scourgeth them by denouncing severe iudgements. 8 and stirreth them forward: 15 Then he descendeth from generall lessons of manners, 21 to the particular sinne of wines 25 and husbands.

Bee yee therefore followers of God, as deare children.

couetousnesse, let it not be once named among you, as it becommeth Saints.

4 Neither filthinesse, neither foolish talking

2 Herefore, my brethren beloued and longed for, my joy and my crowne, so continue in the Lord Iesus, be loued.
3 I pray Eudias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.
4 Yea, and I beseech thee, faithfull yoke fellow, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the booke of liue.
5 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.
6 Let your patient mind be known vnto all men, 5. The Lord is at hand.
7 Be nothing careful, but in all things let your requits be shewed vnto God in prayer and supplication with giuing of thanks.
8 And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall preserve your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.
9 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are lasting liue, Ezechiel calleth in the writing of the house of Israel and the seers of the Lord, Chas. 12. 9. He addeth particular exhortations: and the first is, that the joy of the Philipians be not hindered by any afflictions that the wicked imagine and waite against them. d So as the joy of the world dyeth, offered from our day. 4 The second is, that taking all things in good part, they be cause themselves moderately with all men. e Your quiet and iested mind. 5 The taking away of an obiectiō: We must not be diffident through impatience, seeing that God is at hand to giue vs reuoluntie against all our miseries. 6 The third is, that we be not too careful for any thing, but with true confidence giue God thanks, and craue of him whatsoever we haue need of, that with a quiet conscience we may wholly and with all our hearts labour to our felicity to him. f So David began very oft with thankes, but ended with thanksgiving. 7 That great strength of mind, which God giveth in Christ. 8 Hee addeth the exhortation in the next, that is, in that name, which is the name of the will and afflictions, and in the higher part, whereby we may stand and reason of matters. 9 A generall conclusion that as they haue been taught both in word and example, so they frame their liues to the rule of all holies and righteousness. 1 Whatsoever things are such as doe becometh you, you doe with an holy grating.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care for me bringeth afresh, wherein notwithstanding ye were carefully, but ye lacked opportunitie.
11 I speake not because I want: for I haue learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.
12 And I can be labored, and I can abound: euery where in all things I am instructed, both to be full, and to be hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.
13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of Christ, which strengtheneth me.
14 Notwithstanding ye haue well done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.
15 And ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church communicated with mee, concerning the matter of giuing and receiuing, but ye only.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 After the salutation, 4. he prayeth them the more to make them at vnto him. 7 Hee opposeth the testimony of the doctrine which they heard of Epiphias. 13 Hee maketh h Gods grace on wards them, 20 and sheweth that all the parts of our saluation consist in Christ alone.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
2 To them which are at Colosse: Saints and faithfull brethren in Christ, Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 Wee giue thanks to God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, alway praying for you:
4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Iesus, and of your loue towards all Saints,
5 For the hopes sake, which is laid vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the word of truth, which is the Gospel,
6 Which is come vnto you euen as it is vnto all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day that yee heard and truly knew the grace of God:
7 As we also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

1 Hee commendeth the doctrine that was delivered them by Epaphras, and their readines in receiving it. c Hee continueth the testimony of God to our salvation, but as in Christ Father in whom we are as adopted. d For the glory that is hoped for.

a By the word of God. b Colosse is a used in Phrygia, farre from Hieropolis and Laodicea, as it is said that they bend toward Lycia and Trappolyia.

2 Hee declareth his good will towards them, telling them that they must not kill remaine at one stay, but go on further both in the knowledge of the Gospel, and also in the true vie of it.

3 4 Your spiritual love, or your love which cometh from the Spirit.

4 The gift of continuance is not of vs, but it proceedeth from the vertue of God, which hee doth freely give vs.

5 5 It must not be unwilling, and as it were drawn out of vs, by force, but proceed from a merry and joyful mind.

6 Having ended the preface, hee goeth to the matter itselfe, that is to say, to an excellent description (although it be but short) of whole Christianitie, which is fully divided into three treatises: for first of all hee expoundeth the true doctrine, according to the order of the causes, beginning from this verse to the 21. And from thence hee beginneth to apply the same to the Colossians with di-

8 2 Who hath also declared vnto vs your love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause wee also since the day that wee heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that yee might be fulfilled with knowledge of his will in all wisdom, and spiritual vnderstanding.

10 That yee might walke worthy of the Lord, and please him in all things, being fruitfull in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long suffering with vs ioyfullnesse.

12 Giving thanks vnto the Father which hath made vs meete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in his light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenesse, and hath translated vs into the Kingdome of his deere Sonne,

14 In whom wee haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiveness of sinnes, 15 7 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first begotten of every creature.

16 For by him were all things created which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and invisible: whether they be Kingdomes, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers, all things were created by him, and for him,

17 And hee is before all things, and in him all things consist.

18 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: he is the beginning, * and the first begotten of the dead, that in all things hee might haue the preeminence.

19 * For it pleased the Father, that in him should be all fulnesse dwelt,

20 And through peace made by that blood of his crosse, to reconcile to himselfe through him, through him, I say, * all things both which are in earth, and which are in heauen.

21 And you which were in times past transgressors and enemies, because your mindes were set in enill works, hath he now also reconciled,

22 In that body of his flesh through death, to make you holy and vnblameable, and without fault in his sight,

23 If yee continue grounded and stablished in the faith, and bee not moued away from the hope of the Gospel, whereof yee haue heard, and which hath bene preached to every creature, which is vnder heauen, * whereof I Paul am a minister.

24 Now reioyce I in my sufferings for you, and fulfill the rest of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his bodies sake, which is the Church, *

25 Whereof I am a minister, according to the dispensation of God, which is given me to youward, to fulfill the will of God,

26 * Which is the myserie hid since the world began, and from all ages, but now is made manifest to his Saints,

27 To whom God * would make known what is the riches of his glorious myserie among the Gentiles, which riches is Christ in you, the hope of glory,

28 Whom wee preach, admonishing every man, and teaching every man in * all wisdom, that wee may present every man perfect in Christ Iesus, 29 Whereunto I also labor & strive, according to his working which worketh in me mightily.

the Churches with these examples of patience. 7 For our perfect and communitie. 8 The afflictions of the Church are said to be Christs afflictions. 9 In respect of that fellowship and kinship together; that the body and the head haue the one with the other, not that there is any more neede to haue the Church redeemed, but that Christ strength his power in the body weakness of his, and thus for the comfort of the whole body. 10 He bringeth another proofe of his Apostleship, to wit, that God is the author of it, by whom also hee was appointed peculiarly Apostle of the Gentiles, to the ende that by this meanes that fame might be fulfilled by him, which the Prophets haue tolde of the calling of the Gentiles. 11 Rom 16.25. eph. 3.9. 1 Tim 1.11. 2.1. 1.20. 12 Whom hee cho. eto sensibile vnto himselfe in Christ: moreover hee saith, that the myserie of our redemption was hidden since the world began, except it were revealed vnto a few, who also were taught it extra ordinari. 13 Thus Paul fulfilleth the office of apostle. 14 Hee protesteth, hee doeth faithfully execute his Apostleship in every place, bringing men vnto Christ only through the Lords plentiful blessing of his labours. 15 Perfect and sound wisdom, which hee possesseth in selfe, and shall in the end make them perfect as himselfe is.

CHAP. II.

4 Hee commendeth vs vnto, what serueth without Christ, 11 increasing specially of circumscription, 16 of abstinence from meats, 18 annu of worshipping of Angels. 20 That we are delivered from the traditions of the Law through Christ.

For I would yee knew what great fighting I haue for your sakes, and for them of Iudaea, and for as many as haue not seene my person in the flesh,

2 That their hearts might be comforted, and they knit together in love, and in all riches of the full assurance of vnderstanding, to know the myserie of God, even the Father, and of Christ:

3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, least any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, reioicing and beholding your good order, and your steadfast faith in Christ.

6 As ye haue therefore received Christ Iesus the Lord, so walke in him,

7 Rooted and built in him, and stablished in

6 The power. 7 In that fellowship to our vnto one: thus that fellowship body, that is, a true body.

11 The second treatise of this part of the Epistle treateth hee of the theologicall Colossians, most affect themselves by any meanes to be moved from this doctrine, the way, and declaring that there is nowhere any other true Gospel.

9 To all men: whereby we learn that the Gospel was not that up without the law, but of lawes alone.

13 He purchaseth authority to this doctrine by his Apostleship, and taketh a most force prole thereof, of his afflictions which hee suffereth for Christ his Name to increase the Church with these examples of patience. 7 For our perfect and communitie. 8 The afflictions of the Church are said to be Christs afflictions. 9 In respect of that fellowship and kinship together; that the body and the head haue the one with the other, not that there is any more neede to haue the Church redeemed, but that Christ strength his power in the body weakness of his, and thus for the comfort of the whole body. 10 He bringeth another proofe of his Apostleship, to wit, that God is the author of it, by whom also hee was appointed peculiarly Apostle of the Gentiles, to the ende that by this meanes that fame might be fulfilled by him, which the Prophets haue tolde of the calling of the Gentiles. 11 Rom 16.25. eph. 3.9. 1 Tim 1.11. 2.1. 1.20. 12 Whom hee cho. eto sensibile vnto himselfe in Christ: moreover hee saith, that the myserie of our redemption was hidden since the world began, except it were revealed vnto a few, who also were taught it extra ordinari. 13 Thus Paul fulfilleth the office of apostle. 14 Hee protesteth, hee doeth faithfully execute his Apostleship in every place, bringing men vnto Christ only through the Lords plentiful blessing of his labours. 15 Perfect and sound wisdom, which hee possesseth in selfe, and shall in the end make them perfect as himselfe is.

1 The taking away of an obediencie that hath beene offered to the Colossians, not the Iudaeans, hee did it not of any negligence, but to make all the more carefull for them. 2 The present in law.

3 Hee concludeth thus the summe of the former doctrine, to wit, that the whole summe of true wisdom and most perfect knowledge is contained in Christ only, and that this is the vnto of

ners exhortations, to the 6. verse of the second Chapter. And last of all in the third place, even to the third Chapter, hee relatieth the corruption of true doctrine. The efficient cause of our saluation is the only mercie of God the Father, who maketh vs meete to be partakers of eternall life, deliuering vs from the darkenesse wherein we were borne, and bringing vs to the light of the knowledge of the glory of his Sonne. 6 In that glorious and heavenly Kingdome. 7 Heb. 1.3. 8 Hee firste saith the Angels with glorious manner, that by the compassions of most excellent Christ, we may vnderstand how ferre passeth the excellencie of Christ, in whom only we haue to continue our felicitie, and let not all Angels. 9 Having gloriously declared the excellent dignitie of the person of Christ, hee describeth his office and function, to wit, that hee is that same to the Church, that the head is to the body, that is to say, the prince and gouernour of it, and the very beginning of true life, as who is saying, that from him is the Author of eternall life, so that hee is alone all, in whom only there is most plentiful abundance of all good things, which is poured out upon the Church. 10 Ruel. 1.5. 1. cor. 1.2. 1.2. 11 Who saith againe that hee shall die no more, and whoe shall suffer from death to life by his power. 12 John 1.4. chap. 2.9. 13 Most plentiful abundance of all things pertaining to God.

Now hee teacheth how Christ executed that office which his Father intayned him, to wit, by suffering the death of the crosse (which was ioynd with the curle of God) according to his decree, that by this sacrifice hee might reconcile to his Father all men, as well them which beleued in him to come, and were already vnder this hope gathered into heauen, as them which should upon the earth beleue in him afterward. And thus is illustration described of the Apostle, which is one and the chiefeest part of the benefite of Christ. 14 The whole Church.

Sanctification is another worke of God in vs by Christ, in that hee reformed vs (which hee had God extreme, and were wholly and willingly giuen to him): to his gracious iunior in such sort, that hee therewithall purifieth vs with his holy Spirit, and consecrateth vs to righteousnesse.

4 Hee bringeth all corruptions to three kinds: The first is that, which respecteth vaine and curious speculations, and yet beareth a shew of a certaine subtil wiledome. 5 The second which is manifest by superfluous and vaine and flattereth only vpon outsome and fained inspirations. 6 The third kind was of them which joyined the rudiments of the law, (that is to say, the ceremonies of the Law) with the Gospel. 7 Christes diuinitie and vaine worship which hee called his Church, asd were under a shep-herd. 8 A general con- futation of all cor- ruptions isthis, that that must needs be a false religion, which addeth anything to Christ.

the faith, as y^e haue bene taught, abounding ther- in with thanksgiving: 8 ¶ Beware lest there be anyman that i^s spoyle you through Philosophie, and vaine deceit, 9 through the traditions of men, * according to the * rudiments of the world, 7 and not after Christ. 9 ¶ For I in him * dwelleth * all the fulnesse of the Godhead * bodily. 10 And yee are complete in him, which is the head of all principallitie and power. 11 ¶ In whom also yee are circumcised with * circumcision made without hands, by putting off the * sinful body of the flesh, through the circum- cision of Christ, 12 10 In that yee are * buried with * him, through Baptisme, 11 in whom yee are also raised vp together through the faith of the operation of God, which raised him from the dead. 12 * 12 And you which were dead in finnes, 13 and in the vncircumcision of your flesh, hath hee quickened together with him, forgiving you all your trespasses. 14 And putting off the * hand writing of ordinances that was against vs, which was con- trary to vs, hee euen tooke it out of the way, and fastened it vpon the crosse, 15 And hath spoiled the * Principalities, and Powers, and hath * made a shew of them openly, and hath triumphed over them in the y^e same crosse. 16 ¶ Let no man therefore condemne you in meate and drinke, or in respect of an holy day, or of the new Moone, or of the Sabbath dayes, 17 which are but a shadow of things to come: but the * body is in Christ.

18 ¶ Let no man at his pleasure beare rule o- ver you by * humblenesse of minde, and wor- shipping of Angels, 19 aduancing himselfe in wor- things which hee neuer saw, 18 b rashly putt vp with his fleshly minde, 19 19 And holdeth not the * head, whereof all the body furnished & knit together by ioynts and bands, increaseth with the increasing of God. 20 ¶ Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the ordinance of the world, why * as though yee liued in the world, are yee burdened with tradi- tions? 21 ¶ 21 A, Touch not, Taste not, Handle not. 22 22 Which all perish with the vying, 23 and are a ter the commendments and doctrines of men. 23 ¶ 23 Which things haue in deede a shew of wisdom, in g voluntary religion and humble- nesse of mind, & in b not paring the body, which are things of no value, sith they pertaine to the i fil- ling of the flesh.

16 He disputeth against the first kind of corrup- tion and feth- teth downe the wor- shipping of An- gels for an exam- ple: which kinde of false religion he confuteth, first, this way: because that they which bring in such a worship, attribute that va- to themselves which is proper only vnto God, to wit, authoritie to bind mens consci- ences with reli- gion, although they seeme to bring in these things by humble- nesse of minde.

blewss of minde: for otherwi a handiess is a vertue. For these Angels whippers blawed sack of pride, as was god wrought to God, and vnto vnder meues be- lieff Christ. 17 Secondly, because they raising thau vpon them for oracles, these things which they neither law nor heard, but devised of their owne felues. 18 Thirdly, because these things haue no other ground, wherupon they are built, but only the opinion of men, which please themselves without all measure in their owne vnder- standing. 19 The fourth argument, which is of great weight, because they woules Christ of his dignitie, who only is sufficient both to nourish, and also to increas his whole body. c Christ. d Which encreaseth which connecteth from God. 20 Now last of all he fighteth against the second kind of corruptions, that is to say, against meere superstitions, inuented of men, which partly decerne the simplicity of some with their craftinesse, and partly with very foolish superstitions, and to be laughed at: as when godlinesse, remission of sins, or any such like ver- tue is put in forme certaine kinde of meate, and such like things, which the inten- ders of such rites themselves vnderstand not, because vnder it is not. And hee vseth an argument taken of comparison, if by the death of Christ, who established a newe covenant with his blood, you bee deliuered from those external rites wherewith it pleased the Lord to prepare the world, as it were, to receive the rudiments to that full knowledge of true religion, why would yee bee burdened with traditions I wote not what, as though yee were citizens of this world. that is to say, as though yee depended vpon this life, and earthly things? Now this is the cause why before ver. 8. hee followed another order then hee doeth in the confuta- tion: because hee sheweth there by what degrees false religions came into the world, to wit, beginning first by curious speculations of the wise, after which in proceesse of time succeeded grosse superstition, against which mischiefs the Lord let at length that seruice of the Lawe, which hee abused in like sort: but in the confutation hee began with the abolishing of the Law seruice, that hee might shew by comparison, that those false seruices ought much more to be taken away. As though yee had chosen for your earthly things, and the kingdom of God were not vnto spiri- tual. 21 An imitation in the person of these superstitious men, rightly expressing their nature and vice of speech. 22 Another argument: The spiri- tual and inward Kingdom of God cannot consist in these outward things and such as perish with the vying. 23 The third argument: Because God is not the author of these traditions, and therefore they do not bind the consciences. 24 The tak- ing away of an obiect. These things haue a goodly shew, because men by this meanes, seeme to worship God with a good minde, and humble themselves, and neglect the body, which the most part of men curiously pampre vp and cherish: but yet notwithstanding the things themselves are of no value, for so much as they pertaine not to the things that are spiri- tual and everlasting, but to the nourishment of the flesh. 25 Which seeme indeed to be some exquisite thing, and to wise deuotes as though they came from heauen. 26 Hence I pray the workes of superogation as the Papists terme them, that is to say, needless prayers, as though men performed more than his commandments, and thus was the beginning and the very ground whereon the Monks seruise were brought in. 6 A likely description of Monks. 7 Setting their fleshs in meat and drinke, wherein the Kingdom of God doeth not stand.

CHAP. III.

1 Against earthly exercise, which the false apostles urged 2 he teacheth humbly, 3 and beginneth with the mortifying of the flesh, 8 whence he draweth particular exhortations, 18 and particular duties which depend on all manner calling.

¶ I^f yee then 2 bee * risen with Christ, 3 seeke 4 those things which are above, where Christ is seated, 5 by reason of those vaine exercises, to the due dutie of a Christian life: which is an ordinarie thing with him after hee hath once let downe the ducie to himselfe. 6 Our renewing or new birth, which is wrought in vs by being partakers of the resurrection of Christ is the fountaine of all holinesse, out of which fountaine ariseth all our duties. 7 For me that is partakers of Christ, we are carried in vs into another life where we shall need neither meate nor drinke, for we shall bee like vnto the Angels. 8 The end and mark which all the duties of Christian life throuce at, is to enter into the kingdom of heauen, and to giue our felawes to those things which leade vs thither, that is, to true godlines, and not to those out- ward and corporal things.

2 An action: Because only Christ God and man, is most perfect, and passeth farre above all things, to that whome we hath him, may require nothing more. 1 E^y these words, I shewed a dissolution of the nature, in the word (dwelleth) wote and vnto vs: as saying together of the nature, for that the word of God and man was Christ. 2 The words set downe most perfectly Godhead to be in Christ. 3 The knitting together of God and man in I^ust, uirtue and gift. 9 Now hee dealeth precisely against the third kinde, that is to say, against them which viced the Iewish religion: and first of all, hee denieth that we haue need of the Circumcision of the flesh, leaue that without it, we are circumcised within by the vertue of Christ. * Rom 2.29. p These many words are used to shew what the old man is wot me Paul in other places call the body of finne. 10 The taking away of an obiect: I^f we need not so much as the external signe which our Fathers had, seeing that our Baptisme is a most effectual pledge and witnesse of that inward reitoring and re- newing. * Rom 6.4. Ephes. 1.9. 11 So that all the force of the matter consisteth not from the very deede done, that is to say, in not be- holding of vs into the water by a Ministring, wote vs to be buried with Christ, as the Papists say, that euen in the very deede, we become vnto Christians, sith we connect from the vertue of Christ, for the Apostle addeth the burrowing of Christ and faith, 11 One end of Baptisme is the death and buriall of the old man, and that by the mighty power of God only, whose vertue we lay holde on by faith, in the death and resurrection of Christ. ¶ Trueth, his faith which connecteth from God. * Ephes. 2.1. 12 Another end of Baptisme is, that we which were dead in finne, might obtaine free remission of finnes and eternall life, through faith in Christ who died for vs. 13 A new argument which leeth in these few words, and it is this: Vncircumcision, was no hindrance to you, why youe beinge iustified in Christ should not obtaine life, therefore you need not circumcision to the attainer of saluati- on. 14 Hee teacheth now more generally against the whole seruice of the Law, and sheweth by two reasons that it is abolished: First, to what purpose should hee that hath obtained remission of his finnes in Christ, require those helps of the Law? Secondly, because that if a man doerightly consider those rites, hee shall find that they were in many testimonies of our godlinesse: whereby wee manifestly witnessed as yet by our owne hand writings that wee deserved damnation. There- fore did Christ put out that hand writing by his coming, and fastening into the crosse, triumphed ouer all our enemies, which they power to might. Therefore to what end and purpose should wee now vse those ceremonies, as though we were still guilty of finne, and subiect to the tyrannie of our enemies? * Ephes. 2.15 15 Abolishing ceremonies and ceremonies. * Satan and his angels. 16 As a con- queror made hee a shew of those captiues, and put them to shame. 17 The crosse was a shew of triumph. 18 No conqueror could haue triumphed to glory in his chariot, as Christ did vpon the crosse. 19 The conclusion wherein hee also leaue in remem- berance, as the difference of dayes, and meates, and pouders by new argu- ment that we are bound vnto him, to wit, because those things were fla- gstones of Christ to come, but wee possesse him now exhibited vnto vs. 2 The way as a thing of no value and price, be set forth against bondage.

6. So hee calleth that shew of religion which hee make o'm the former Chapter.

7. A reason taken of the efficient causes and others:
ye are dead as touching the flesh, that is, touching the old nature which seeketh after all transitory things, and so the other side, you have begun to live according to the Spirit, therefore give your felues to spiritual and heavenly, and not to carnall and earthly things.

8. The taking away of an obedience: whiles we are yet in this world, we are subiect to many miseries of this life, for that the life that is in vs, is as we were hidden, yet not withstanding we have the beginning of living offe e and glory, the accomplishment whereof which lieth
now in Christes and in Gods hand, shall be assuredly and manifestly performed in that glorious coming of the Lord.

9. Let not your dead nature be any more effectually in you, but let your living nature be effectually
Now the force of nature is known by the motions, Therefore let the affections of the flesh die in you, and let the contrary motions which are spirituall, live. And hee reckoneth vp a long roule of vices, and their contrary virtues. * Ephes. 2. 3. c. The motions and affections that are in vs, are in this place very properly called members, because that they are all of y^e same nature, and are all of them connected, and are all of them as the body death to the members. * Ephes. 2. 3. c. A definition of our new birth taken of the parts thereof, which are the putting off of the old man, that is to say, of the wickedness which is in vs by nature, and the restoring, and repairing of the new man, that is to say, of pureness which is given vs by grace: but both of them are but begun in vs in this present life, and by certaine degrees finished: the one dying in vs by little and little, and the other comming to the perfection of another life by little and little. 8. Newness of life consisteth in knowledge, which transformeth man to the image of God his Maker, that is to say, to the sincerity and pureness of the whole soule. * Hee speaketh of y^e effect of knowledge. * Hee telleth them againe that the Gospel doeth not respect to those external things, but true iustification and sanctification in Christ only, which have many fruits, and hee reckoneth them vp here: But commedeth the two things especially, to wit, godly concord, and continuall knowledge of Gods word. f. So put on, that you may put off. g. The more tender of fellowes of exceeding compassion. h. Which have and kinde together all the duties that pertaine to man in man. i. Rules and counsell all things.

10. You are joined together into one body through Gods goodness, that you may mutually helpe one another as y^e members. i. By p. Almes hee meaneth in all godly things, which were written upon dauid occasions, and by hymnes, all such as containe the praise of God, and i. spirituall songs, other more peculiar and admirable things which were all in praise of God, but they were made fuller of thankes. 1 cor. 13. 2. Hee call upon the Name of Christ when they do, or doest to Christ in y^e way of adoration. * Ephes. 5. 22. To see goeth from precepts which concerne the whole civill life of man, to precepts pertaining to every mans family, and requirers of wives, subjection in the Lord.

2 Set your affections on things which are a-boue, and not on things which are on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ which is our life, shall appeare, then shall we also appeare with him in glory.

5 Mortifie therefore your members which are on the earth, fornication, vncleanness, the inordinate affection, euill concupiscence, and couetousnesse which is idolatry.

6 For the which things take the wrath of God to cometh on the children of disobedience.

7 Wherein yee also walked once, when ye liued in them.

8 But now put ye away euery one of these things, wrath, anger, maliciousnesse, curled speaking, filthie speaking, out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, y^e seeing that yee have put off the old man with his works,

10 And haue put on the new: which is renewed in e knowledge after the image of him that created him,

11 y^e Where is neither Grecian nor Iewe, Circumcision nor vncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond, free: But Christ is all, and in all things.

12 Now therefore as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on the bowels of mercie, kindness, humblenesse of minde, meeknesse, long suffering:

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man haue a quarrell one to another: euen as Christ forgave us, euen so doe yee.

14 And aboute all these things, put on loue, which is the bond of perfectnesse.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which yee are called in one body, and be ye thankfull.

16 Let the word of God dwell in you plentifully in all wisdom: teaching and admonishing your owne felues in Psalmes, and hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing with a grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatsoever yee shall doe, in word or deed, doe all in the Name of the Lord Iesus, giuing thanks to God, euen the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit your felues vnto your husbands, as it is comely in the Lord.

19 Husbands, loue your wiues, and be not bitter vnto them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for that is well pleasing vnto the Lord.

21 Fathers, prouoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Seruants, bee obedient vnto them that are your masters according to the flesh, in all things, not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God.

23 And whatsoever yee doe, doe it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to men, 24 Knowing that of the Lord yee shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for yee serue the Lord Christ.

25 But hee that doeth wrong, shall receive for the wrong that he hath done, and there is no respect of persons.

ward their children. 14. Of seruants, that fearing God himselfe to whom their obedience is acceptable, they reuerently, faithfully, and from the heart, obey their masters. * Ephes. 6. 5. item 2. 9. 1. pet. 2. 18. p. For that the y^e shall haue duly obeyed your masters, the same shall come that you shall bee made masters of seruants, and then shall you know that of a iustice, which shall bee when you are at the parties of the heavenly inheritance. 15. He requirers of masters, that being in middell how they themselves also shall render an account before that heavenly Lord and Master, which will euery wrongfull doings without any respect of masters or seruants, they shew themselves iust and vpright with equite vnto their seruants.

CHAP. III.

2 Hee returneth to general exhortations, 3 touching prayer and gracious speech, 7 and to exhort with greetings and commendations.

Y^e masters, doe vnto your seruants, that which is iust and equall, knowing that yee also haue a Master in heaven.

2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving.

3 Praying also for vs, that God may open vnto vs the doore of vnterance, to speake the myserie of Christ: wherefore I am also in bonds.

4 That I may vter it, as it becommeth me to speake.

5 Walke wisely toward them that are without, and redeme the season.

6 Let your speech be gracious alwaies, and powdered with salt, that yee may know how to answer every man.

7 Tychicus our beloued brother, and faithful minister, and fellow seruant in the Lord, shall declare vnto you my whole estate.

8 Whom I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose that he might know your state, & might comfort your hearts,

9 With Onesimus a faithful and a beloued brother, who is one of you, They shall shew you of all things here.

10 Aristarchus my prison fellow saluteh you, and Marcus Barnabas cousin (touching whom yee receiued commandments: If he come vnto you, receiue him)

11 And Iesus which is called Iustus, which are of the circumcision. These y^e only are my work-fellowes vnto the kingdom of God, which haue bene vnto my consolation.

12 Epaphras the seruant of Christ, which is one of you, saluteh you, and standeth for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect, and full in all the will of God.

13 For I bare him record, that hee hath great zeal for you, and for them of Laodicea, and them of Hierapolis.

12 He confirmeth them in their afflictions which they suffered of their owne people, because they were afflicted of their owne countrymen, which came aswell (saith he) to the churches of the Iewes, as to them: and therefore they ought to take it as good part.

13 Which Christ hath suffered together.

14 Euen of them which are of the same country, and the same house that you are of.

15 He presenteth an offence which might be taken for that the Iewes especially at one all other persecuted the Gospell. That is none vnto Iustice, seeing they flew Christ himselfe and his prophets, and have hamiled me also.

16 He reuelleteth the utter destruction of the Iewes, lest any man should be moued by their rebellion.

17 For the Iewes would neither enter into the kingdom of God themselves, nor suffer others to enter in.

18 Untill that wickedness of theirs, which they have by me, inuince as it were of their fathers, be growen so great, that the measure of their iniquity be filled. God may come forth to wrath.

19 The iudgement of God being euery which indeed appeares forth after the destruction of the city of Ierusalem, which was: reformed euen out of diuine pronouncement, when it was befel.

20 He meeteth with an obediēt, which he came net to them straight waies being in so great misery. I desired oftentimes (saith he) and say not in me, but I am hindered unne deuours, and therefore I sent Timothy, who faithful companion vnto you, because you are moued dare vnto me.

21 He is kept asunder from you, and as it were comports.

22 The will of God, who calleth his on this condition, to bring them to glory by affliction, is a most true remedy against all afflictions.

23 Because they haue it therefore so well forward, he exhorteth them againe to make an end of the rest of the iourney, seeing that theria all they shall doe him their Apollie great pleasure.

24 For now you can not otherwise shew me safe and in good case, vntill you go forward in religion and faith.

25 Rom. 10. and 15. 2.

26 Paul was content, strayed through the impatience dealing of a enemy, to loose the building which hee had ferre become: And for this cause hee had left Silas and Timothy at Macedonia, and was come to Athens to win.

27 Address to him, that from him backe againe prayeth way. So that hee desireth to see the best outcome, that hee may shew only accomplish his faith and religion, that was as yet imperfect.

12 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in Christ Iesus, because yee hau also offered the same things of your owne countrymen, euen as they haue of the Iewes.

13 Who both killed the Lord Iesus & their own Prophets, & haue persecuted vs away, & God they please not, & are contrary to all men.

16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might be saved, to fulfill their finnes alwaies: for the wrath of God is come on them to the vtmost.

17 Forasmuch, brethren, as we were kept from you for a season, concerning fight, but not in the heart, wee enforced the more to see your face with great desire.

18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at least once or twice) but Satan hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope or ioy, or crowne of reioicing that is not euen you it in the presence of our Lord Iesus Christ at his coming?

20 Yes, ye are our glorie and ioy.

21 There is none vnto Iustice, seeing they flew Christ himselfe and his prophets, and have hamiled me also.

22 The iudgement of God being euery which indeed appeares forth after the destruction of the city of Ierusalem, which was: reformed euen out of diuine pronouncement, when it was befel.

24 For now you can not otherwise shew me safe and in good case, vntill you go forward in religion and faith.

25 Rom. 10. and 15. 2.

26 Paul was content, strayed through the impatience dealing of a enemy, to loose the building which hee had ferre become: And for this cause hee had left Silas and Timothy at Macedonia, and was come to Athens to win.

27 Address to him, that from him backe againe prayeth way. So that hee desireth to see the best outcome, that hee may shew only accomplish his faith and religion, that was as yet imperfect.

CHAP. III.

1 To shew his affection toward them hee sendeth Timothy vnto them: 6 He is to come by the report of their prosperous state 9 that he cannot give sufficient thanks, 11 and therefore hee breaketh out in prayer.

Wherefore since wee could no longer forbear, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone,

2 And haue sent Timothy our brother and minister of God, & our labour fellow in the Gospell of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching faith:

3 That no man should be moued with these afflictions: for ye your selues know that we are appointed therunto.

4 For verily when we were with you, we tolde you before that we should suffer tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and ye know it.

5 Euen for this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent him that I might know of your faith, lest the tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timothyus haue brought vs good tidings of your faith and loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwaies, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you:

7 Therefore brethren, wee had consolation in you in all our affliction and necessity through your faith.

8 For now are wee aliae, if yee stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can wee recompense to God againe for you for all the ioy wherewith we reioice for your fakes before our God.

10 Night and day, praying exceedingly, that we might see your face, and might accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himselfe, euen our father, and our Lord Iesus Christ, guide our iourney vnto you.

12 And the Lord increase you and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as we doe toward you:

13 To make your hearts stable, & vnblameable in holinesse before God euen our Father, at the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ with all his Saints.

14 In charity toward all men, & inward purity of the heart, the accomplishment is deferred to the next coming of Christ: his worke by the same grace, wherewith hee began in vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hee exhorts them 3 to holnesse, 9 and to brotherly loue, 13 He forbiddeth them to forswear after the manner of infidels. 15 Hee speaketh of the glory of our resurrection.

And furthermore we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Iesus, that yee increase more and more, as ye haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to walke and to please God.

2 For ye know what commandements wee gaue you by the Lord Iesus.

3 For this is the will of God, euen your sanctification, and that ye should abstaine from fornication,

4 That euery one of you should know how to possesse his vessel in holinesse and honour, 5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man oppresse or defraude his brother in any matter: for the Lord is auenger of all such things, as we also haue tolde you before-time, and testified,

7 For God hath not called vs vnto vncleannesse, but vnto holinesse.

8 He therefore that despiseth these things, despiseth not man, but God who hath euen giuen you his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, yee neede not that I write vnto you: for yee are taught of God to loue one another.

10 Yea, and that thing verily ye doe vnto all the brethren, which are thoroughout all Macedonia: but we beseech you brethren, that ye increase more and more:

11 And that ye study to be quiet, & to meddle with your owne businesse, and to worke with your owne hands, as we command you:

12 That yee may behaue your selues honestly toward them that are without, and that nothing be lacking vnto you.

13 I would not brethren, haue you ignorant concerning the: which are asleepe, that yee forrow not euen as other which haue no hope.

14 For if we beleene that Iesus is dead, and is risen, euen so them which sleepe in Iesus, will God bring with him.

15 Thirdly he requirith a ready minde to all manner of louing kindeesse and exhorteth them to profite more and more in that vertue.

16 Hee condemneth vnquiet braines, and such as are curious in matters which appertaine not vnto them. 17 Hee rebuketh idleness and slothfulness, which vices whosoever are giuen vnto, fall into other wickednesse, to the great offence of the Church.

18 Third part of the Epistle, which is exhortation among the former exhortations (which hee returneth vnto afterword) wherein hee speaketh of mourning for the dead, and the manner of the resurrection, and of the latter day. 19 We must take heed that we doe not unadvisedly bewaile the dead, that is, as they vie to doe which thinke that they are verily perished.

20 A confirmation: for death is but a sleepe of the body for the benefite of the faithful: whilst the Lord commeth. 21 A reason of the confirmation, for seeing that the head is risen, the members shall also rise: and that by the vertue of God. 22 They are in Christ, which commeth in faith whereby they are graffed into Christ euen to the last breath. 23 We call them, bodies out of their graves, and bring them to life againe.

3 Another part of the Epistle, where in hee speaketh of the doctrine of a Christian life. And he sheweth that the perfection of a Christian life consisteth in two things, to wit, in holiness wherof he will then partake who shall then partake of the Epistle, where in hee speaketh of the doctrine of a Christian life. And he sheweth that the perfection of a Christian life consisteth in two things, to wit, in holiness wherof he will then partake who shall then partake of the Epistle.

1 Diners exhortations, the grounds wherof is this, to be minded of those things which they haue heard of the Apollie.

2 That ye labour to excell more and more, and daily be in your place.

3 Rom. 12. 17. 18.

4 This is the summe of those things which hee deliuereth them, dedicate themselves wholly to God and hee commendeth plaines.

5 All filibuyes through lust, because it is longer contrary to the will of God.

6 Luke 14. 17. 18.

7 Another reason, because it delecteth the body.

8 The third because the Saints are discerned from them which know not God, by honesty and purity.

9 Cor. 6. 8.

10 Secondly, hee reprehendeth all violent oppression, an immoderate desire, and sheweth most severely as the Prophet of God, that God will reuenge such wickednesse.

11 Cor. 1. 2.

12 These commandments which hee gaue you.

13 Iohn 13. 34. and 15. 12.

14 Iohn 8. and 12. 1.

15 Hee condemneth vnquiet braines, and such as are curious in matters which appertaine not vnto them.

16 Hee rebuketh idleness and slothfulness, which vices whosoever are giuen vnto, fall into other wickednesse, to the great offence of the Church.

17 Third part of the Epistle, which is exhortation among the former exhortations (which hee returneth vnto afterword) wherein hee speaketh of mourning for the dead, and the manner of the resurrection, and of the latter day. 18 We must take heed that we doe not unadvisedly bewaile the dead, that is, as they vie to doe which thinke that they are verily perished.

2 He openeth the founaine of all true comfort, to wit, that in afflictions which we suffer of the wicked, for righteousnes sake, we may behold as it were in a glasse the finitions of that iudgement to come, and the end thereof most acceptable to vs, and most thare to his enemies.

3 A proole: God is iust, therefore he will worthily punish the vnjust, and will do away the miseries of his people.

4 He comforteth them alway, by this meane, that the condition both of this present state and the state to come, is common to him with them.

* 1 Thss 4. 16.

5 A most glorious declaration of the second coming of Christ, to be set against all the miseries of the godly, and triumphs of the wicked. 6 There is no knowledge of God vnto saluation, without the Gospel of Christ. 7 The children of God shall be counted by the faith which they haue in the Gospel, which is preached vnto them by the Angells. 8 Seeing that we haue the market before vs, it remaineth that we go vnto it. And we go to it, by certaine degrees of faith: first, the free loue, and good pleasure of God by vertue whereof all other inferior causes cause: from thence proceedeth the free calling to Christ, and from calling, faith, whereupon followeth both the glorifying of Christ in vs, and vs in Christ. 9 By calling he meaneth the very act of calling, but that hath some thing wherein we are called, which is the glory of that heavenly kingdom. 10 Which be deemed long since, early vnto his gracious and mercifull goodness towards you. 11 So then, faith is an excellent work of God in vs: and yet (where plainly that the Apostle leaue nothing free will, to make us checke with Gods working therein, as the Paps, & some.

C H A P. I I.

2 He sheweth that the day of the Lord shall not come, till there be a departure from the faith, 3 and that Antichrist be reuelled, 8 who shall delude the elect about: 15 and sheweth exhorteth to constance.

2 A first thing, carfully to be considered, is that vnchangeable glory, which we shall perleue of Christ, it will be an excellent remedie for vnquiet mourning and impatience, so that neither the glistering of the world, shall allure vs, nor the dreafull sight of the crosse dismay vs. 2 Wee must take heed of false Prophets, especially in this matter, which go about to deceiue, and that for the most part, about three sort: for either they brag of fained propheticall reuelations, or they bring coniectures and reasons of their owne, or vie contemtable writings.

3 By a rames and fales which were proued to be spissual reuelations. 4 Either by word of mouth or by letters written. 5 Either by forged letters of fally flosphes: shall be a thinge to spee cleane contrary to Christs glory, wherein that wicked man shall sit, and transcare all things that appertaine to God, to himselfe, and many shall fall away from God to him. 6 By dealing of one, bee permitted on the body of the pyramy and persecuting Church. 7 All men know who he is that saith becau that up heauen, and open as he please, and tooke vpon him to be Lord and Master aboue all Kings and Princes, before whose Kings and Princes fall downe and worship, counting that Antichrist is a God.

worshipped: 4 so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe that hee is God.

5 I Remembe yee not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

6 And now yee know what whichholdeth that he might be reuiled in his time.

7 For the misterie of iniquitie doeth already worke: 7 onely he which now " whichholdeth, shall tell till he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that wicked man be reuelled, " whom the Lord shall " consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightnesse of his coming,

9 Euen him whole coming is by the effectual working of Satan, with all power, and signes, and lying wonders,

10 And in all deceiueablenesse of vntighteousnesse, among them that perish, because they receiued not the loue of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And therefore God shall send them " strong delusion, that they should beleue lies,

12 That all they might be damned which beleue not the truth, but " had pleasure in vnrigheteousnesse.

13 But wee ought to giue thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloued of the Lord, because that God hath from the beginning chosen you to saluation, through p Sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of truth,

14 Whereunto hee called you by our Gospel, to obtaine the glorie of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 I Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and keepe the instructions, which yee haue bene taught, either by word, or by our Epistle.

16 Now the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, euen the Father, which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs euertlasting consolation and good hope through grace,

17 Comfort your hearts, and stablsh you in euery word and good worke.

i Word for word, that lawfull fellow that is to say, he that shall read Gods Law cleane vnder foote. * 1 Pet. i. 4. k Bring to remembrance. l With this word: for the true kindest of that word are at the mouth, whereby the Lord becometh one as mightie and euertlasting word which shall take his enemies in wonder, as a word without yron rodde. 9 He telleth that Satan will beflow all his might and power, and do all false miracles that hee can to establish that feate, and that with great effe, because the wickednesse of the world doth to defende it yet to, that onely the faithfull shall with stand through his decreit. 10 Which as partly faith, and partly vnto faithfull shall with stand through his decreit. 11 Which as partly faith, and partly vnto faithfull shall with stand through his decreit. 12 The conclusion: It remaineth then, that we continue in the doctrine which was deliuered vnto vs by the mouth and writings of the Apostles, through the free good will of God, which comforteth vs with an vnfaulible word and also in all godlinesse our whole life long.

C H A P. I I I.

1 He desireth vs to further the preaching of the Gospel, with their prayers, 6 and to misseuse themselves, from the which through fallness. 11 and carnestly perseuerance in the same. 14 whom be excludeth from the compaignie of the faithfull.

1 Furthermore, brethren, " pray for vs, that the grace of the Lord may haue free passage, and be glorified, euen as it is with you,

2 And that we may be deliuered from " vnrenewed men: The best of them, that they make prayers for the increafe and free passage of the Gospel, and for the faste of the faithfull ministers of the same. * Ephs. 6. 19. coloss 4. 3. A Which haue more of stee dyne.

rate, modest, haerous, apt to teach.

3 Not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre, but gentle, no fighter, not covetous,

4 One that can rule his owne house honestly, having children vnder obedience with all holinesse.

5 For if any cannot rule his owne house, how shall he care for the Church of God?

6 He may not be a yong scholler, lest he being puffed vp, fall into the condemnation of the deuil.

7 Hee must also be well reported of, even of them which are without, lest he fall into rebuke, and the snare of the deuil.

8 Likewise must Deacons bee graue, not double tongued, not giuen vnto much wine, neither to filthy lucre,

9 Having the mysterie of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let him first be proued, then let them minister, if they be found blamelesse.

11 Likewise their wiues must be honest, not euill speakers, but sober, and faithfull in all things.

12 Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, and such as can rule their children well, and their owne households.

13 For they that haue ministered wel, get themselves a good degree, and a great libertie in the faith, which is in Christ Iesus.

14 These things write I vnto thee, trusting to come very shortly vnto thee.

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest yet know, how thou oughtest to behaue thy selfe in the house of God, which is the Church of the liuing God, the pillar and ground of truth.

16 And without conuersione, great is the mysterie of godlinesse, which vs, God is manifested in the flesh, iustified in the spirit, seene of Angels, preached vnto the Gentiles, beleued on in the world, and receiued vp in glory.

17 Paul purposing to adde many things pertaining to the dayly office of a Pastor, I speak first a word or two concerning his coming to Timothy, that he should be so much the more careful alwayste to know, that hee is occupied in the house of the liuing God, vpon that creature of the truth is kept.

18 There is nothing more excellent then this truth, wheere the Church is the keeper and preserue here amongst men, the ministerie of the word being appointed to that end and purpose: for it teacheth vs, the greatest matters that may be brought out, to wit, that God is become visible in the person of Christ by taking our nature vpon him, whose Maiesty notwithstanding in so great weakness is manifested in many ways, in so much that the sight of it pierced the very Angels, and concluded, he being preached to the Gentiles was receiued of them, and is now made knowne in what weake flesh of Christ, that though he was a weak man, yet all the world knoweth he was, and is God.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hee conuerteth vs well false doctrines, 2 Of marriage, and the chiefe of matters, 7 as also propheticall fables: 8 and conuerteth the gossie exercise, 13 and the daily reading of the Scriptures.

NOW the Spirit speaketh evidently, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, and shall giue heed vnto spirits of error, and doctrines of deuils,

2 Which speake lies through hypocrisie and haue their consciences burned with a hot yron,

3 For they will say as I have said, that they are wise, and yet they are fools, and they will be ashamed of their folly.

4 They will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly.

5 They will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly.

6 They will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly.

7 They will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly.

8 They will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly.

9 They will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly.

10 They will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly, and yet they will be ashamed of their folly.

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstaine from meates 4 which God hath created to bee receiued 5 with giuing thanks of them which beleue and know the truth.

4 7 For every creature of God is good, and nothing ought to be refused, if it be receiued with thanksgiving.

5 8 For it is sanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 9 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister, of Iesus Christ, which hath been nourished vp in the words of faith, and of good doctrine which thou hast continually followed.

7 10 But cast away prophane, and old wines fables, and exercise thy selfe vnto godlinesse.

8 12 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godlinesse is profitable vnto all things, which hath the promise of the life present, and of that that is to come.

9 13 This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthy to be receiued:

10 For therefore wee labour and are rebuked, because we trust in the liuing God, which is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that beleeue.

11 These things warne and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but bee vnto them that beleeue, an ensample, in word, in conversation, in loue, in spirit, in faith and in purenesse.

13 Till I come, giue attendance to reading, to exhortation, and to doctrine.

14 Despis not the gift that is in thee, which was giuen thee by prophesie with the laying on of the hands of the company of the Eldership.

15 These things exercise, and giue thy selfe vnto them, that it may be seene how thou profitest among all men.

16 Take heede vnto thy selfe, and vnto learning: continue therein: for in doing this thou shalt both save thy selfe, and them that heare thee.

17 It is so made pure and holy inuirtue of vs, for that we may vnto it with a good conscience, as presented at the Lords hand.

18 Wee conuince and knowledge of the number of those who are in Christ, because hee receiued that right vnto all that we may of those men with ag of conscience, which wee receive at his hands.

19 Wee make an end of eating and drinking, with thanksgiving, and prayer, and wee make it our most faultless to vs.

20 The conclusion with an exhortation to Timothy, to propound the things diligently vnto the Churches, which he had sucked of the Apostle, even in a manner from the text. 1. Not departing from the fables.

2. Hee teacheth againe true doctrine, not only against that false and Apollitical doctrine, but also against all vaine and curious subtilities.

3. It is not only requisite that the minister of the word be enuied in doctrine, but also that his life be godly and religious.

4. In the true teaching of vs, 12. Godlinesse though it be something to be accounted of, yet it is not outward and sensible of life, which wee can compare with godlinesse, for it profiteth not of it selfe, but through the isto come.

5. Hee teacheth a little from his matter, and sheweth that they which giue themselves to godlinesse, although they are assted and reprobated, are not assted for that cause that other men are, and the end of them both is farre different one from another.

6. For how can God for ake his, which is beautiful, even towards his enemies? And hee willet that this doctrine be well beaten in their hearts.

7. Now hee returneth to that exhortation, shewing which are the true vertues of a Pastor, whereby he may come to be reuerenced, although hee bee but yong, to wit, that speech and life are witness of charitie, sake, faith, and yong, but there is no mention made of the cross, blasse ring, cloake & such other foolish and childish toys.

8. The private exercise of Pastors, is continual reading of the Scriptures, whence out they may draw matter of wholesome doctrine and exhortation, both to themselves and to other.

9. Faith is the hearing and hearing by speaking: and therefore the Ministers of the word are so farre to see themselves and other, for that in them the Lords hand put the words of reconciliation.

10. Hee teacheth an Apollitical rule, for taking away the difference of meats, against that false doctrine.

11. Hee teacheth an Apollitical rule, for taking away the difference of meats, against that false doctrine.

12. Hee teacheth an Apollitical rule, for taking away the difference of meats, against that false doctrine.

11 The taking away of an obedience, it is no disho-nour to the good man of the house, that he hath not in a great house all vessels of one sort & for one service but we must look to this, that we be found vessels prepared for honour.
* Rom. 9. 21.
12 By these words
meaneth the extension of the matter, and not the cause for in that we purge our selves, it is not to be ascribed to any force will that is in vs, but to God who freely & wholly cleanseth vs in word and aneuill will.

20 Notwithstanding in a great house are not onely vessels of gold and siluer, but also of wood and of earth, * and some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.
21 If any man therefore purge himselfe from these, he shall be a vessell vnto honour, sanctified and meete for the Lord, and prepared vnto euery good worke.
22 These also from the lusts of youth, and follow after righteousness, faith, loue, and 14 peace, heart.

23 * And put away foolish and vnlearned questions, knowing that they ingender strife.
24 But the seruant of the Lord must not strue but must be gentle toward all men, apt to teach, suffering the euill.
25 Instructing them with meekenesse that are contrarie minded, prouing if God at any time will giue them repentance, that they may acknowledge the trueth.
26 And come to amendment out of that snare of the deuil, of whom they are taken prisoners to doe his will.

CHAP. III.

* Hee forretheth the dangerous times that are to come, 9 but with the certaine hope of victorie, so hee encourage him to the combat, 14 setting out specially the tryall of sound doctrine.

1 The sentence admonition: Wee may not hope for a Church in this world without corruption: but there shall be a ther great abundance of most wicked men, euen in the very besome of the Church which without danger shall make a shew and a countenance of great holiness and charite.
* 1. Tim. 4. 1.
2 per. 3. 5.
a Which make no account either of right or honestie.
2 We must not dally with such men as resist the truth, not of simple ignorance but of a puerile minde (which thing ap-peareth by their feauties which bee painted out here liuely) but we must rather turne away from them.
* Ekd. 7. 11.
3 He addeth a comfort: The Lord will at length plocke off all their vi-sards. 4 That we be not de-ceiued by such hypocrites we must first see the vertues of the holy seruants of God, and waves followeth the godliness. But we must especially haue fast the doctrine of Iesus. b. Thou thyselfe shewest, not onely what we are faced through faith in Christ was minded and disposed. c. Which in Ps. 119.

T His I know also, that in the * last dayes shall come perillous times.
2 For men shall be louers of their owne selues couetous, boasters, proud, curled speakers, disobedient to parents, vnthankfull, a wholly.
3 Without natural affection, truce breakers, false acusers, intemperate, fierce, no louers at all of them which are good.
4 Traitors, headie, high minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God.
5 Having a shew of godlinesse, but haue denied the power thereof: 2 turne away therefore from such.
6 For of this sort are they which creepe into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with finnes and led with diuers lusts, 7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the acknowledging of the truth.
8 * And as Iannes and Iambres withstood Moses, so doe these also resist the truth, men of corrupt mindes, reprobate concerning the faith.
9 But they shall preuaile no longer, for their madnesse shall be euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.
10 ¶ 4 But thou hast b fully knownen my doctrine, manner of liuing, purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience, 11 Persecutions, and afflictions which came vnto me at Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Listri, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered me.

12 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ
Iesus shall suffer persecution.
13 But the euill men and deceiuers shall waxe
4 worse and worse, deceiuing, and being de-ceiued.
14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and which are committed vnto thee knowing of whom thou hast learned them:
15 And that thou hast knowen the holy Scriptures of a child, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation, through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.
16 * For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teach, to conuince, to correct, and to instruct in righteous-nesse, 17 That the man of God may be absolute, being made perfect vnto all good workes.

CHAP. IIIII.

* Hee chargeth him to preach the Gospel with all diligence, 3 in that miserable time: 6 That hee dooeth u hard at hand, 8 pre-sorbain a conqueror hee maketh hast to a glorious triumph to helpe him the cause why he standeth for Timothy, 11 euen by reason of his present state.

I Charge thee therefore before God, and before the Lord Iesus Christ, which shall iudge the quicke and dead at that his appearing, and in his kingdome,
2 Preach the word: be instant in season, and out of season: improve, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.
3 For the time will come when they will not suffer wholesome doctrine, but hauing their eares itching, shall after their owne lusts get them an heape of teachers,
4 And shall turne their eares from the truth and shall bee giuen vnto fables.
5 3 But watch thou in all things: suffer aduersities: do the worke of an Euangelist: b cause thy ministry to be thoroughly liked of.
6 4 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departing is at hand.
7 I haue fought a good fight, and haue finished my course: I haue kept the faith.
8 For henceforth is laid vp for me the crowne of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Iudge shall giue mee at that day: and not to mee onely, but vnto all them also that loue that his appearing.
9 5 Make speed to come vnto me at once:
10 For Demas hath forsaken mee, and hath embraced this present world, and is departed vnto Thessalonica. Cresens is gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.
11 * Onely Luke is with mee, Take Marke and bring him with thee: for hee is profitable vnto me to minister.
12 And Tychicus haue I sent to Ephesus.
13 The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus when thou comest, bring with thee, and the bookes but especially the parchments.
14 Alexander the coppermith hath done me much euill: the Lord reward him according to his workes.

A VI. a prisoner of Iesus Christ, and our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend, and fellowe helper,

2 And to our deare sister Apphia, & to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I * give thanks to my God, making mention alwayes o thee in my prayers;

5 (When I heare of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, and toward all Saints) is in you through Christ Iesus may be knowne.

7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saintes bowels are comforted.

8 wherefore, though I be very bold in Christ to command thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, euen Paul aged, & euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my sonne * Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in times past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to mee,

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him that is mine owne bowels, as though thou receiuest me. I beseech thee, that thou shouldest receiue him as though he were my selfe, and that thou shouldest receiue him as though he were my selfe, and that thou shouldest receiue him as though he were my selfe.

which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, our his owne house, whose house we are, if we hold fast that confidence and that rejoycing of that hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost saith, * To day if ye will heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the pronouocation, according to the word of the temptation in the wilderness,

9 Where your fathers tempted mee, prouoked me, and law my works fourtie yeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they known my wayes.

11 Therefore I ware in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest, 12 Take heed, brethren, lest at any time there be in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceit of vnbelief.

14 For we are made partakers of Christs, if we keepe vnto the end that beginning, where-with we are vpholden,

15 So long as it is said, To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the pronouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moyses.

17 But with whom was hee displeased fourtie yeeres? Was he not displeased with them that sinned, whose carkeises fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them y obeyed not?

19 So wee feare that they could not enter in, because of vnbelief.

20 Now hee considereth these words, If you shewing that they are spoken and meant of the hearing of faith, against his euer hardening through vnbelief, & the beginning of trust and confidence: and after the manner of the Hebrewes, hee calleth that beginning, which is the cleauest. 1. So long as this voyce, I saith. 2. Num. 14. 37.

CHAP. III.

1. Hee Iohn the baptist with threatening, left them, as in their fathers were, hee depriued of the rest offered vnto them, 21. But that hee, endeauour to enter into it. 24. And so hee becometh to becomen of Christs Priesthood.

Let vs feare therefore, lest at any time by forsaking the promise of entering into his rest, any of you should seeme to be depriued.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospel preached as also vnto them, but the word that they heard, profited not them, because it was not mixed with faith in the word that heard it.

3 For wee which haue beleueed, doe enter into rest, as he said, to the other, * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the workes were finished from the foundation of the world.

1. Hee Iohn the baptist with threatening, left them, as in their fathers were, hee depriued of the rest offered vnto them, 21. But that hee, endeauour to enter into it. 24. And so hee becometh to becomen of Christs Priesthood.

4 For hee spake in a certaine place of the seventh day on this wise, * And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therinto, & they to whom it is first preached, entered not therein for vnbeliefes sake:

7 Againe hee appointed in Dauid a certaine day, by To day, after so long a time, saying as it is said, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Iesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this haue spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, hath also ceased from his owne workes, as God did from his.

11 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is liuely, and mightie in operation, and sharper then any twyed edged sword, and eneth thorow, euen vnto the diuiding asunder of the soule and the spirit, and of the ioynts, and the marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and open vnto his eyes, with whom wee haue to doe.

14 Seeing then that we haue a great hie Priest, which is entered into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs hold fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which can be not touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore go boldly vnto the throne of grace, that wee may receiue mercie, and finde grace to helpe in time of need.

son of Christs Priesthood with Aarons, and declareth euen in the very beginning the marvellous excellencie of this Priesthood, calling him the Sonne of God, and placing him in the seat of God in heauen, plainly and euidently setting him against Aarons Priests, and the transitory tabernacle; which comparison hee setteth forth a word more at large. And let us not forget our hardihood. 6. Let him might seeme by this great glory of our Priest, to stay and stop vs from going vnto him, he addeth straightway after, that he is notwithstanding our brother indeed: as hee proued it also before: and that hee accounteth all our infirmities, is owne, to call vs boldly to him.

CHAP. V.

1. First hee sheweth the access of the hie Priest: 5. Secondly, that Christ is appointed of God to be our hie Priest: 7. and that hee hath all things belonging therunto.

For every high Priest is taken from among men, and is ordeined for men in things pertaining to God, so that hee may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them that are ignorant, and that are called after the order of men.

3 The first part of the second comparison: there as wee are made hie Priests, to the end that feeling the same infirmities in themselves which is in all the rest of the people, they should in themselves and the peoples name offer gifts and sacrifices, which are witness of our faith and repentance. 4. Offering of things without life. 5. Brastes which are not offered really in the sacrifice, but are offered. 6. For and therefore. 7. On that hee is called to be the hie Priest, to the end that hee should be able to becomen of Christs Priesthood.

For that he himselfe beareth about with him a nature subject to the same infirmities and weaknesses.

1. Heb. 13. 12. and 2. 12.

3. The third comparison which is whole. The others are called of God, and so was Christ, but in another order then Aaron.

4. For Christ is called the Sonne, begotten of God, and a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

out of the way, because that he also is compassed with infirmities,

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 3* And no man taketh this honour vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but he that laid vnto him, Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee, and it him.*

6 As hee also in another place speaketh, Thou art a Priest for ever, after the order of Melchisedec,*

7 4 Who in the daies of his flesh did offer vp prayers & supplications, with strong cryings and teares vnto him, that was able to haue him from death, and was also heard in that which he feared.

33 For every one that vseth milke, is inexpert in the word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe.

34 But through meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wits exercised, to discern both good and euill.

5 And haue tasted of the good word of God, and of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they crucified againe to themselves the Sonne of God, and make a mockery of him.

7 3 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbes meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briars, is reprobated, and is neere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perfwaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 5 For God is not vngratefull, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which ye shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministered vnto the Saints, and yet in filth.

11 And wee desire that every one of you shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end,

12 6 That yee be not slouthfull, but followers of the things, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises.

13 7 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he sweare by h. m. selfe,

14 Saying, Surely I will abundantly bless thee, and multiply thee maruailously.*

15 And so after that hee had waited patiently, he enioyed the promises.

16 For men verely sweare by him that is greater then themselves, and an oath for confirmation among them is an end of all strife.

17 So God, willing more abundantly to shew vnto the heires of promise, the steadfastnesse of his counsell, bound himselfe by an oath,

18 That by two immutable things, wherein it is vnpossible that God should lie, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to lay hold vpon that hope, which is set before vs,

19 8 Which hope we haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure and steadfast, and it entreth into that which is within the vaile,

Hee giueth a reason why he said that our high Priest is in the heavenly Sanctuary, and not in the earthly: because, faith he, if he were now on the earth, he could not minister in the earthly Sanctuary: seeing there are yet Leuitical Priests, which are appointed for him, that is to say, to be patterns of that perfect example. And so what purpose should the patterns? (etc.) when the true and original example is present.

* Exod. 25. 40.

Alies 7. 4. 4. He entred into the compassion of the old and transitorie Testament or covenant being but for a time, whereas the Leuitical Priests were mediators with the new, the eternalizing Mediator whereof is Christ, to shew that this is not onely better then that in all respects, but also that was abrogated by him.

7. He proueth by the testimony of Ieremie, that there is a second Testament or covenant, and therefore that the first, was not perished. * Iere. 31. 32. 33. 34. yea, in 1. 2. 7. chap. 10. 16. c. Hee calleth it an house, as if there were one law by the whole kingdom: for whereas the kingdom of David was divided into two factions, the Prophet giueth vs to vnderstand that through the new Testament this shall be united together againe in one. 8. The conclusion: Therefore by the latter and the new, the first and old is taken away, for it could not be called new, if it differed not from the old. And againe, that time is as length taken away, which is subiect to corruption, and therefore imperied.

CHAP. IX

2 Comparing the Sense of the Tabernacle, 10 and the ceremonies of the Law, 11 vnto the truth set out in Christ, 15 hee concludeth that now there is no more neede of another Priest, 24 because Christ himselfe hath sacrificed his duties vnder the new covenant.

A distinction of the first Tabernacle which hee calleth worldly, that is to say, transitorie and earthly into two parts, to wit, into the holy places, and the holiest of all.

3. An earthly and a heavenly, 6 hee callith the second vaile, not because there were two vailes, but because it was like the Sanctuary or the first Tabernacle.

6 The holiest of all, * Num. 17. 10. * 1. King. 8. 9. 2. Chron. 5. 10. * Exod. 25. 22. d. The High Priest call the name of the Ark of the covenant, the Mercy seat, so sayeth the Christian and so follow.

4. 5 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seeing there are Priests that according to the Law offer gifts,

5 Who entred vnto the patterne and shadow of heavenly things, as Moyses was warned by God when hee was about to finish the Tabernacle, * See, said hee, that thou make all things according to the patterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6. 6 But now our high Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, in as much as he is the Mediator of a better Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7. 7 For it that first Testament had bene vnable, no place should haue bene sought for the second.

8. 8 For in rebuking them he saith, * Behold, the daies will come, saith the Lord, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda a new Testament:

9. 9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hand, to lead them out of the land of Egypt: for they continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10. 10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel, After those daies, saith the Lord, I will put my Lawes in their minde, and in their heart will I write them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people,

11 And they shall not teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: For all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12. 12 For I will be mercifull to their vniuersity, and I will remember their finnes and their iniquities no more.

13. 13 In that he saith, a new Testament, he hath abrogate the olde: now that which is disannulled and waxed old, is ready to vanish away.

6. 2 Now then these things were thus ordeined, the Priests went alwaies into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7. 7 But into the second went the high Priest alonce, once euery yeere, not without blood which hee offered for himselfe, and for the ignorances of the people.

8. 8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, whereas yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9. 9 Which was a figure for that present time, wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that could not make holy, concerning the conscience, him that did the seruice,

10. 10 Which onely stood in meats and drinks, and diuers washings, and carnall rights, which were enioyned, vntill the time of reformation.

11. 11 But Christ being come an high Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building,

12. 12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the holy place, and obtained eternall redemption for vs,

13. 13 For if the blood of buls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them, are vncleane, sanctifyeth as touching the purifying of the flesh,

14. 14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, which through the eternal Spirit offered himselfe without fault to God, * purge your consciences from dead works to seruice the liuing God?

15. 15 And for this cause is he the Mediator of

to say, if the worshippers were not purged by them) why then these ceremonies remained, which might be called backe to that spiritual temple, that is to say, to Christ, who should correct all those things at his coming. For that time that figure had to last. 5. Another reason why they could not make cleane the conscience of the worshipper, to wit, because they were outward and carnall or corporal things. 6. For they were as yowwuld say a burden, from which Christ delivered vs. 6. Nowe hee entred into the declaration of the figures, and first of all comparing the Leuitical high Priest with Christ, (that is to say, the figure with the thing it selfe) hee attributeth to Christ, the administration of good things to come, that is, euangelizing, which those carnall things had respect vnto. 7. An other comparison of the first corruptible Tabernacle with the latter, (that is to say, with the humane nature of Christ) which is the true incorruptible Temple of God, whereas the Sonne of God entered as the Leuitical high Priest into the other which was fraille and transitory. 8. By a more excellent and better. 9. Another comparison of the blood of the sacrifices with Christ. The Leuitical high Priest entering by those their holy places into their Sanctuary, offered corruptible blood for one yeere onely: but Christ entred into that holy body of his, entered by it into heauen it selfe, offering his owne most pure blood for an euertlasting redemption: For one selfe same Christ offering both to the high Priest and the Tabernacle, and the sacrifices, and the offerings themselves, as the truth to the figures, for that Christ is both high Priest and Tabernacle and the Sacrifice, yea, all these both truly and for euer. 10. For in this point sacrifice of reconciliation there were two kinds of sacrifice, as to one, as the other a better, or calfe. 11. 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100. 101. 102. 103. 104. 105. 106. 107. 108. 109. 110. 111. 112. 113. 114. 115. 116. 117. 118. 119. 120. 121. 122. 123. 124. 125. 126. 127. 128. 129. 130. 131. 132. 133. 134. 135. 136. 137. 138. 139. 140. 141. 142. 143. 144. 145. 146. 147. 148. 149. 150. 151. 152. 153. 154. 155. 156. 157. 158. 159. 160. 161. 162. 163. 164. 165. 166. 167. 168. 169. 170. 171. 172. 173. 174. 175. 176. 177. 178. 179. 180. 181. 182. 183. 184. 185. 186. 187. 188. 189. 190. 191. 192. 193. 194. 195. 196. 197. 198. 199. 200. 201. 202. 203. 204. 205. 206. 207. 208. 209. 210. 211. 212. 213. 214. 215. 216. 217. 218. 219. 220. 221. 222. 223. 224. 225. 226. 227. 228. 229. 230. 231. 232. 233. 234. 235. 236. 237. 238. 239. 240. 241. 242. 243. 244. 245. 246. 247. 248. 249. 250. 251. 252. 253. 254. 255. 256. 257. 258. 259. 260. 261. 262. 263. 264. 265. 266. 267. 268. 269. 270. 271. 272. 273. 274. 275. 276. 277. 278. 279. 280. 281. 282. 283. 284. 285. 286. 287. 288. 289. 290. 291. 292. 293. 294. 295. 296. 297. 298. 299. 300. 301. 302. 303. 304. 305. 306. 307. 308. 309. 310. 311. 312. 313. 314. 315. 316. 317. 318. 319. 320. 321. 322. 323. 324. 325. 326. 327. 328. 329. 330. 331. 332. 333. 334. 335. 336. 337. 338. 339. 340. 341. 342. 343. 344. 345. 346. 347. 348. 349. 350. 351. 352. 353. 354. 355. 356. 357. 358. 359. 360. 361. 362. 363. 364. 365. 366. 367. 368. 369. 370. 371. 372. 373. 374. 375. 376. 377. 378. 379. 380. 381. 382. 383. 384. 385. 386. 387. 388. 389. 390. 391. 392. 393. 394. 395. 396. 397. 398. 399. 400. 401. 402. 403. 404. 405. 406. 407. 408. 409. 410. 411. 412. 413. 414. 415. 416. 417. 418. 419. 420. 421. 422. 423. 424. 425. 426. 427. 428. 429. 430. 431. 432. 433. 434. 435. 436. 437. 438. 439. 440. 441. 442. 443. 444. 445. 446. 447. 448. 449. 450. 451. 452. 453. 454. 455. 456. 457. 458. 459. 460. 461. 462. 463. 464. 465. 466. 467. 468. 469. 470. 471. 472. 473. 474. 475. 476. 477. 478. 479. 480. 481. 482. 483. 484. 485. 486. 487. 488. 489. 490. 491. 492. 493. 494. 495. 496. 497. 498. 499. 500. 501. 502. 503. 504. 505. 506. 507. 508. 509. 510. 511. 512. 513. 514. 515. 516. 517. 518. 519. 520. 521. 522. 523. 524. 525. 526. 527. 528. 529. 530. 531. 532. 533. 534. 535. 536. 537. 538. 539. 540. 541. 542. 543. 544. 545. 546. 547. 548. 549. 550. 551. 552. 553. 554. 555. 556. 557. 558. 559. 560. 561. 562. 563. 564. 565. 566. 567. 568. 569. 570. 571. 572. 573. 574. 575. 576. 577. 578. 579. 580. 581. 582. 583. 584. 585. 586. 587. 588. 589. 590. 591. 592. 593. 594. 595. 596. 597. 598. 599. 600. 601. 602. 603. 604. 605. 606. 607. 608. 609. 610. 611. 612. 613. 614. 615. 616. 617. 618. 619. 620. 621. 622. 623. 624. 625. 626. 627. 628. 629. 630. 631. 632. 633. 634. 635. 636. 637. 638. 639. 640. 641. 642. 643. 644. 645. 646. 647. 648. 649. 650. 651. 652. 653. 654. 655. 656. 657. 658. 659. 660. 661. 662. 663. 664. 665. 666. 667. 668. 669. 670. 671. 672. 673. 674. 675. 676. 677. 678. 679. 680. 681. 682. 683. 684. 685. 686. 687. 688. 689. 690. 691. 692. 693. 694. 695. 696. 697. 698. 699. 700. 701. 702. 703. 704. 705. 706. 707. 708. 709. 710. 711. 712. 713. 714. 715. 716. 717. 718. 719. 720. 721. 722. 723. 724. 725. 726. 727. 728. 729. 730. 731. 732. 733. 734. 735. 736. 737. 738. 739. 740. 741. 742. 743. 744. 745. 746. 747. 748. 749. 750. 751. 752. 753. 754. 755. 756. 757. 758. 759. 760. 761. 762. 763. 764. 765. 766. 767. 768. 769. 770. 771. 772. 773. 774. 775. 776. 777. 778. 779. 780. 781. 782. 783. 784. 785. 786. 787. 788. 789. 790. 791. 792. 793. 794. 795. 796. 797. 798. 799. 800. 801. 802. 803. 804. 805. 806. 807. 808. 809. 810. 811. 812. 813. 814. 815. 816. 817. 818. 819. 820. 821. 822. 823. 824. 825. 826. 827. 828. 829. 830. 831. 832. 833. 834. 835. 836. 837. 838. 839. 840. 841. 842. 843. 844. 845. 846. 847. 848. 849. 850. 851. 852. 853. 854. 855. 856. 857. 858. 859. 860. 861. 862. 863. 864. 865. 866. 867. 868. 869. 870. 871. 872. 873. 874. 875. 876. 877. 878. 879. 880. 881. 882. 883. 884. 885. 886. 887. 888. 889. 890. 891. 892. 893. 894. 895. 896. 897. 898. 899. 900. 901. 902. 903. 904. 905. 906. 907. 908. 909. 910. 911. 912. 913. 914. 915. 916. 917. 918. 919. 920. 921. 922. 923. 924. 925. 926. 927. 928. 929. 930. 931. 932. 933. 934. 935. 936. 937. 938. 939. 940. 941. 942. 943. 944. 945. 946. 947. 948. 949. 950. 951. 952. 953. 954. 955. 956. 957. 958. 959. 960. 961. 962. 963. 964. 965. 966. 967. 968. 969. 970. 971. 972. 973. 974. 975. 976. 977. 978. 979. 980. 981. 982. 983. 984. 985. 986. 987. 988. 989. 990. 991. 992. 993. 994. 995. 996. 997. 998. 999. 1000.

vnto them after those daies, faith the Lord, I will put my Lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I will write them.

17 And their finnes and iniquities will I remember I no more.

18 Now where remission of theſe things is, there is no more offering for ſinne.

19 ¶ Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Ieſus we may bee bold to enter into the Holy place,

20 By the new andliuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his fleſh:

21 And ſeeing we haue an hie Prielt, which is ouer the houſe of God,

22 Let vs drawe neere with a true heart in aſſurance of faith, our hearts being pure from an euill conſcience,

23 And waſhed in our bodies with ¹ pure water, let vs keepe the profeſſion of our hope, without wauering, (for he is faithfull that promiſed)

24 And let vs conſider one another, to provoke vnto loue, and to good works.

25 Not orlaking the fellowship that we haue among our ſelues, as the manner of ſome is: but let vs exhort one another, ² and that ſo much the more, becauſe yee ſee that the day draweth neere.

26 ¶ For if we ſinne willingly after that we haue receiued and acknowledged that truth, there remaineth no more ſacrifice for finnes,

27 But a fearful looking for of iudgement, and violent fire, which ſhall deuoure the ³ adulteraries.

28 ¶ He that deſpiſeth Moſes Law, dieth without mercy ⁴ vnder two or three winneſſes.

29 Of how much ſorer puniſhment ſuppoſe I ſhall he be worthy, which treadeth vnder foot the Sonne of God, and counteth the blood of the Teſtament as an vnholy thing, wherewith hee was ſanctified, and doth deſpite the Spirit of grace?

30 ¶ For wee know him that hath ſaid, ⁵ Vengeance belongeth vnto me: I will recompence ſaith the Lord. And againe, The Lord ſhall iudge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the liuing God.

32 ¶ Now call to remembrance the daies that are paſſed, in the which after yee had receiued liſſe, ye endured a great fight in afflictions,

33 Partly while ye were made as gafiſ ſtock both by reproches and afflictions, and partly while ye became companions of them which were ſo torſed to and fro.

34 For both yee ſorrowed with mee for my bonds, and ſuffered with ioy the ſpoiling of your goods, knowing in your ſoules how that ye haue in heauen, a better, and an enduring ſubſtance.

35 Caſt not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For yee haue need of patience, that after ye haue done the will of God, yee might receiue the promiſe.

37 For yet a very little while, and he that ſhal come, will come, and will not tarry.

38 ¶ Now the iuſt ſhall liue by faith: but if any withdraw himſelfe, my ſoule ſhall haue no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not they which withdraw our ſelues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conſeruatiſon of the ſoule.

CHAP. XI.

¹ He declareth in the whole chapter, that the Fathers, which from the beginning of the world were approues of God, attained ſaluation by other way then by faith, & that the Iewes may know that by the ſame way they are bound vnto the Fathers in an holy comon.

NOW faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not ſeene.

2 For by it ² our Elders were well reported of.

3 ¶ Through faith wee vnderſtand that the world was ordained by the word of God, fo that the things which wee ſee, are not made of things which did appeare.

4 ¶ By faith Abel ³ offered vnto God a greater ſacrifice then Cain, by ⁴ the which hee obtained winnes that he was righteous, God teſtifying of his giſts: by the which faith alſo hee being dead, yet ſpeaketh.

5 By faith was ⁵ Enoch tranſlated, that hee ſhould not ſee death: neither was he found: for God had tranſlated him: for before he was tranſlated, he was reported of, that he had pleaſed God.

6 But without faith it is vnpoſſible to pleaſe him: for hee that cometh to God, muſt beleue that God is, and that hee is a ⁶ rewarder of them that ſeek him.

7 ¶ By faith ⁷ Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not ſeene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the ſauing of his houſhold, through the which Arke hee condemned the world, and was made heire of the righteousneſſe, which is by faith.

8 ¶ By faith ⁸ Abraham, when hee was called obeyed God, to goe out into a place, which hee ſhould afterward receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he abode in the land of promiſe as in a ſtrange country, as one that dwelt in tents with Iſaac & Jacob heires with him of the ſame promiſe.

10 For he looked for a city hauing a ⁹ foundation, whoſe builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith ¹⁰ Sara alſo receiued ſtrength to conceiue ſeede, and was deliuered of a childe when ſhe was paſt age, becauſe ſhee iudged him faithful which had promiſed.

12 And therefore ſprang thereof one, euen of one which was ¹¹ dead, ſo many as the ſtarrs of the ſkie in multitude, and as the ſand of the Sea ſhore which is innumerable.

13 All theſe died in faith, and receiued not

¹⁶ He commended the excellency of a true faith by the effect, becauſe it is the only way to life, which ſentence he ſereth forth and accompliſheth by ſetting the country againſt it.

¹⁷ An excellent deſcription of faith by the effects becauſe it repreſenteth things which are but yet in hope, and ſeetheth as it were before our eyes things that are inſiſible.

confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a country.

15 And if they had beene mindfull of that country from whence they came out they had leifure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is an heauently: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie.

27 By faith * Abraham offered vp Isaac, when he was * tried, and he that had receiued the promises offered his only begotten sonne.

18 (To whom it was said, * In Isaac shall thy

26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches, then the treasures of Egypt: for hee had respect vnto the recompence of the reward.

CHAP. XII.

1 He doeth not only by the examples of the Fathers raised exhort them to patience and constancy, but also by the example of Christ, 11 That the chastening of God cannot be rightly judged by the common sense of our flesh.

Wherefore, * 1 let vs also, seeing that wee are compassed with so great a cloude of witnesses, cast away euery thing that presseth downe, and the sin that * hangeth so fast on: let vs run with patience the race that is set before vs,

2 * Looking vnto Iesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the * ioy that was set before him, endured the crosse, and despised the shame, and is let at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against sinners, lest ye should be wearied and faint in your mindes:

4 Yee haue not yet resisted vnto blood, stri-ting against sinne.

5 And yee haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children, * My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loweth he chasteneth:
and he scourgeth euery sonne that he receiueth.

7 If yee endure chastening, God offereth himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whom the father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore yee bee without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are yee bastards, and not ionnes.

9 * Moreouer we haue had the fathers of our bodies which corrected vs, and wee gaue them reuerence: should we not much rather bee in subiection vnto the Father of Spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened themselves: for how great is Iesus in comparison of vs, and how farre more gracious things did he suffer then wee? 4 He taketh an argument from the chastening of the Father, to exhort vs to the same. 11
That of all because sinne or that rebellious wickedness of our flesh is by this means checked. 2 Secondly, because they are testimonies of his Fatherly good will toward vs, inasmuch that they themselves were chastened, which cannot abide to be chastened. 3 Thirdly, if all men yeeld this right to fathers, then God we owe this life, that they may rightfully weare out their correction. 4 That we be much more subiect to that our Father, who is the author and finisher of our faith. An amplification of the same argument. 5 That the Fathers haue corrected vs after their fashion, for some fault and transgression of ours, which we cannot but be chastened. 6 Thirdly, if we be chastened, which thing although these our fathers use not presented, yet the end of the matter proueth it.

man be swift to heare, slowe to speake, and slow to wrath.

10 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay a part all filthinesse and superfluity of malitiousnes, and receive with meekenesse the word that is grafted in you which is able to save your souls.

22 * 15 And if ye be doers of the word and not heares only, ¹⁶ deceiving your owne selves.

23 17 For if any heare the word and do it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his ¹⁸ naturall face in a glasse.

24 For when he hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way and forgetteth immediately what manner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect lawe of libertie, and continueth therein, hee not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed in his deed.

26 18 If any man among you seeme religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiveth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 19 Pure religion and undefiled before God, euen the Father is this, to ² visite the fatherlesse, & widowes in their afflictie, and to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

know. ⁴ Hee shalldoe to that man well that to which a contrary that partie is borne againe, the lawe, which is to be beholde in the Law. ⁵ Because, therefore, for works doe the faith. ¹⁸ The third conclusion: The word of God prelibeth a rule not only to doe well, but also to speake well. ¹⁹ The fountain of all braibling and envied speaking, an uncomely thing, therefore, is not to be chosen. ¹⁹ The fourth: the true service of God hath in it charity toward our neighbours (especially such as need others helpe, as the fatherlesse and widowes) and purcheth of life. ² To have care of them, and keepe them as much as we can.

8 But if ye fulfill the royal Law according to the Scripture, which saith, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

9 But if ye regard the persons, yee commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressors.

10 4 For whosoever shall keepe the whole Law, and yet faileth in one point, hee is guilty of all.

11 6 For he that said, Thou shalt not commit adulterie, said also, Thou shalt not kill. Now though thou doest none adulterie, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressor of the Law.

12 7 So speake ye, and lo doe, as they that shall be judged by the law of libertie.

13 For there shall be condemnation mercilesse to him that sheweth not ¹⁴ mercie, and mercy reioyceth against condemnation.

14 8 What availeth it my brethren, though a man faith, he hath faith, when he hath no works?
can that faith save him?

15 9 For if a brother or a sister bee naked and defute of daily food,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace, warme your selves, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee give them not those things which are needfull to the body, what hel-peth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it have no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But one man will say, Thou hast the faith, and I have workes: shew me thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shew thee my faith by my workes.

19 10 Thou beleeuest that there is one God:
thou doest well: the devils also beleeve it, and tremble.

20 11 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne upon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, * Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousness: and hee was called the friend of God.

God, that is like for we should maintain and cherish charity and good will, one towards another, and who doeth not in, shall not ralle of the grace of God.

He that is hard on a neighbor, or selfe helps himselfe, he shall find God an hard and rough task to himselfe againe. 8 The faith which is not well with the lawer, is not touching a true and lively faith. And the proposition of this place is this: Faith which is without workes, is not that faith whereby we are iustified, but an image of faith: we else thinke, they are not ius-tified by faith, which they are not the effects of faith. 9 The first reason taken of a similitude: if a man say to one that is hungry, Fill thy belly, and yet giuest him nothing, this shall not be true charity: so if a man say he beleueeth, and bring forth no workes of his faith, this shall not be a true faith, but a certaine dead thing set out with the name of faith, whereof no man hath to bragge, unless he will openly incurre reprehension, seeing that the cause is vnderstood by the effects. 11 Nay, thus may euery man be true in his pride. 10 Another reason taken of an absurdity: if euery faith were that true faith, whereby we are iustified, the devils should be iustified, for they have that: but yet notwithstanding they tremble, and are not iustified therefore, neither is that faith a true faith. 12 The third reason taken from the example of Abraham, who no doubt had a true faith: but in offering his sonne, shewed himselfe to haue that faith which was not voyde of workes, and therefore hee received a true testimony when it was said, it is to him was imputed to him for righteousness. 13 Woe be to him who is without workes, and found to be ius-tified: for he speaketh not here of the causes of iustification, but what are effects: we may know that a man is iustified * Gen. 22. 10. 11 Was it without and without good workes. 12 Thus the faith was ordered to be true faith, and that 13 workes,
* Then was the Scripture fulfilled, when it is said plainly, how truly it was written of Abraham. * Gen. 15. 6. rom. 4. 3. Gal. 3. 6.

ouerlasting life gi-uen.

The fourth argument. All brawlings and chidings must be eschewed, because they hinder prayers, and the whole service of God whereunto both the husband and the wife

He returneth to common exhortations and commendeth concord

31 Another Argument taken of the happy end of the elect, which is, that Christ hath before both in example and vertue, as one who suffered most precious torments even unto death, although but in one part only of him, to wit, in the flesh, or mans nature: but yet became conqueror by the vertue of his divinity.

32 As though his manhood, for his love, was dead, and his soule felt the torments of death. 22 A secret obiect: Christ in deed might do this, but what is that to vs? yes (saith the Apostle) for Christ hath shewed us this vertue in all ages both to the persecution of the godly, where they were not few and miserable; and to reuenge the rebellion of those daies (when God through his patience appointed a time of repentance to the world) was present not in corporall presence, but by his diuine vertue, preaching repentance. euen by the mouth of Noe himselfe who then prepared the Arke, to those disobedient spirits which are now in prison waiting for the full recompense of their rebellion, and saved those few (that is, eight onely persons) in the water. 1 By the vertue of which Spirit, that is to say, of the diuinity: therefore this word, Spirit, cannot in this place be taken for the soule, which we may say, that Christ was raised vp againe, and quickned by the vertue of his soule. 1 He catcheth them spirits, in respect of his time, not in respect of the time that they were in the flesh. In this word (once) sheweth that there was a furthermost day appointed, and that there were once past, there should be no more. * Gen. 6. 14. mat. 24. 36. 17. 16. 0 Men. 23 A proportionall applying of the former example to the time which followed the coming of Christ: for that preferuatiue of Noe in the waters was a figure of our Baptisme, not as though that materiall water of Baptisme saue vs, as those waters which bare vp the Arke saved Noe, but because Christ in his inward vertue, which the outward Baptisme shadoweth, preferueth vs being washed, so that we may call vpon God with a good conscience. p The conscience being iustified by faith, freely call vpon God. 24 That selfsame vertue, whereby Christ rose againe, and now being caried vp into heauen, hath receiued all power, both at this day defend and preferue vs.

CHAP. III.

1 He bringeth in Christ as an example, and applyeth it 6 to the mortifying of the flesh, especially commending Charity: 12 And sheweth of patience. 17 That it is necessary that correction begin at the Church.

1 Orasmuch¹ as then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same mind, which is, that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne,

2 That he henceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.

3 * For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time past of the life, after the lusts of the Gentiles walking in wantonnes, lusts, drunkennes, in gluttony, drinkings, & in abominable idolatries.

4 3 Wherein it seemeth to them strange, that they run not with them vnto the same excess of riot: therefore speake they euill of you.

5 Which shall giue account to him, that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

6 4 For vnto this purpose was the Gospell to be reuened by the vertue of the holy Ghost, that we may lead the rest of our life which remaineth, after the will of God. 5 So much of this present life as remaineth yet to be followed. * Ephes. 4. 22. 3 By putting vs in minde of the dishonesty of our former life led in the filth of sinne, he calleth vs to earnest repentance. 1 Which he manifestly sheweth the manner of the Gentiles. 3 That wee be not moued by the enemies pesterne and slanderous iudgements of vs, we haue to set against them that last iudgement of God which remaineth for them, for none, whether they be then found liuing, or were dead before, shall escape it. 4 They think it an euill and strange matter. 4 A digression because he made mention of the last general iudgement. And he presenteth an obiect, that seeing Christ came very lately, they may seeme to be excusable which died before. But this the Apostle denieth for (saith he) this selfsame Gospell was preached vnto them also: (for he speaketh vnto the Iewes,) and that to the same end that I now preach it vnto you, to wit, that the flesh being abolished and put away (that is to say, that wicked and naughty corruption which enchaineth men) should be suffered themselves to be governed by the vertue of the Spirit of God.

preached also vnto the dead, that they might be condemned according to men in the flesh, but might liue according to God in the spirit.

7 5 Now the end of all things is at hand. Bee ye therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 6 But about all things haue feruent love among you: * for love shall couer the multitude of finnes.

9 7 Be ye * harberous one to another, without grudging.

10 8 * Let euery man as he hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, * as good disposers of the manifold grace of God.

11 10 If any man speake, let him speake as the words of God. If any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God minnistrh, that God in all things may be glorified through Iesus Christ, to whom is praise and dominion for euer, and euer, Amen.

12 12 Dearely beloved, thinke it not a strange thing concerning the fiery trial, which is among you to proue you as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 13 But reioyce, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings that when his glory shall appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 14 If ye be railed vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glorie and of God resteth vpon you: which on their part is euill spoken of, but on your part is glorified.

15 15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or an euill doer, or as a bushebinder in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behaue.

17 16 For the time is come that iudgement must begin at the house of God. 17 If it first begin at vs what shall the end be of them which obey not the Gospel of God?

bour. * Rom. 12. 6. phil. 1. 14. 9 A reason, because that what gift sooner we haue, we haue receiued it of God vpon this condition, to be his disposers and stewards. 10 He reckoneth vp two kinds of these gifts as chiefly, to wit, the office of teaching in the Church, and the other Ecclesiasticall Iuditions, wherein two things specially are to be observed, to wit, that the pure word of God be taught, and whatsoever is done, be directed to the glorie of God the Father, in Christ, as to the proper mark. 11 Because the cross is ioyned with the sincere profession of Religion, the Apostle first repeateth that which he touched before warning vs not to be troubled at persecutions and afflictions, as a newe and strangethings. 12 As though some new thing had befallen you, which you neuer thought of before. 13 The first reason: Because the Lord meaneth not to consume vs with this fire (as it were) but to purge vs of our dross, and make vs perfect. 13 Another reason: Because the afflictions of the godly and wicked differ very much, and chiefey in three points. First, because the godly communicate with Christ in their afflictions, and therefore shall in their time be partakers also of his glory. * Math. 5. 10. Secondly, because that although the impious be chastised otherwise when in affliction the godly, blasphemous God, yet the godly in that they are so railed vpon, are honoured of God with the true spiritual glory, and their adoption leaied in them by the Spirit of God. 14 The Spirit leaues the gift of the Spirit. 15 The third difference: for the godly are not afflicted for their euill doings, but for righteous cause as Christians: whereby it cometh to passe that the cross, seeing it is a testimonie vnto them of faith and righteousness, minnistrh vnto them not an occasion of sorrow, but of vnpleasable ioy: now the Apostle propoundeth the third difference under the forme of an exhortation. 16 The third reason because the Lord of all the world being especially careful for them of his household, doeth therefore chastise them first of all, yet so that he keepeth a measure in his greatest feruente: And as he hath alwayes vied to doe heretofore, so doeth he now specially when as hee exhibeth of himselfe in person to his Church. 17 Let the godly indeed be offended and flume at that vaine shadow of felicitie of the wicked, as though God were not the gouernour of the world, for that the wicked are in good case, and the godly in euill, the Apostle teacheth by an argument of a comparison of them together, that God doeth not his own will, but nurtureth them vnder the cross: will lengthen his time harden the rebellious and wicked farre otherwise, whom hee hath appointed to vnto destruction. * Prouer. 4. 31.

8 He returneth to his purpose, vying an argument taken from the circumstance of the time, because the last end is at hand, and therefore we must to much the more diligently watch and pray withrute sobriety of minde. 9 He commendeth charity of one toward another, because it doth as it were bury a multitude of finnes, and therefore preceth and maintaineth peace and concord: for they that loue one another, doe easily forgive one another their offences. * 1 Thim. 1. 12.

10 Of all the duties of charity, he commendeth one, namely, which was at that time most necessary, to wit, hospitality, which he will haue to be voluntary and most courteous and bountifull.

11 Rom. 12. 13.

12 He sheweth the vice of charity, to wit, that euery man below that gift which he hath receiued to the profit of his neigh-

18 The conclusion. Seeing the godly are not afflicted by chance, but by the will of God, they ought not to despair, but goe forward, notwithstanding in the way of holmesle and well doing, commending themselves to God, their faithfull Creator, that is to say, their Father.

where shall the vngodly and the sinner appeare?
19 Wherefore let them that after according to the will of God, commit their soules to him in well doing, as vnto a faithfull Creator.

CHAP. V.

1 He warneth the Elders not to surpasse authoritie over the Church, 2 willing the younger sort to bee willing to bee taught, and to be meek. 3 To be sober and watchfull to resist the cruel adversarie.

1 He describeth peculiarly the office of the Elders, that is to say, of them that haue the care of the Church.

2 He sett a pro-fesse touching the circumstance of his owne person:
to wit, that he as their companion communion with them not of matters which hee knoweth not, but wherein he is as well experienced as any, and propoundeth vnto them no other condition, but that which he himselfe hath sustained before them, and doth still take the same paines, and also hath one selfe same hope together with them. 3 The first rule: Hee that is a shepherd, let him feed the flocke. 4 He faith vs, Offer for the quicke and dead, and singe patched shreds in a strange tongue. 5 The second:
Let the shepherd consider, that the flocke is not his, but Gods. 5 The third: Let not the shepherds invade other mens flocks, but let them feed that which God hath committed vnto them. 6 Let the shepherds gouerne the Church with the word and example of godly and unblameable life: not by constraint but willingly, nor for filthie lucre, but of a ready minde: not as lords ouer Gods portion and heritage, but as his ministers. 7 Which is the Christs people. 7 That the shepherds minds bee not overcome either with the wickednesse of men, or their crueltie, he warneth them to cast their eyes continually vpon that chiefe Shepherd, & the crowne which is layd vp for them in heauen. 8 Hee commeth with many peculiar Christian ver-tues, and especially modestie: which admonition all of vs stand in need of, but especially the younger sort, by reason of the vntowardnesse and pride of that age.

The 1 Elders which are among you, 2 I beseech which am also an Elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed,

3 Feed the flocke of God, which dependeth vpon you, 6 caring for it not by constraint, but willingly: nor for filthie lucre, but of a ready minde:

3 Not as though yee were Lords ouer Gods heritage, but that yee may bee ensamples to the flocke.

4 And when that chiefe Shepherd shall appeare, ye shall receiue an incorruptible crowne of glory.

5 Likewise yee younger submit your selues vnto the Elders, and submit your selues euery man one to another: * decke your selues inwardly in lowliness of minde: 9 for * God redireth the proud, and giueeth grace to the humble.

6 Humble * your selues there: 10 vnder the mighty hand of God, that hee may exalte you in due time.

7 * Cast all your care on him: for hee careth for you.

8 11 Be sober, and watch: for * your aduersary the deuil as a roaring lyon walketh about, seeking whom he may deuoure:

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, 12 knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren which are in the world.

10 13 And the God of all grace, which hath called vs vnto his eternall glory by Christ Iesus, after that ye haue suffered a litle, make you perfite, confirme, strengthen, and stablish you.

11 To him bee glory and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 14 By Silvanus a faithfull brother vnto you, as I suppose, haue I written briefly, exhorting and testifying how that this is the true grace of God, wherein ye stand.

13 15 The Church that is at Babylon elected sonne.

tions which Satan stirreth vp, are neither newe nor proper to any one man, but from old and auncient time common to the whole Church, and therefore we must suffer that patiently, wherein wee haue such and so many fellowes of our conflicts and combats. 6 Among your brethren which are dispersed throughout the world.
13 Hee leaeth vp as it were with a scale, the former exhortation with a solemn prayer, againe willing them to aske increase of strength at his hands, of whom they had the beginning, and hope to haue the accomplishment, to wit, of God the Father in Iesus Christ, in whom we are sure of the glory of eternall life. 14 Continuance and perseverance in the doctrine of the Apostles, is the only ground and foundation of Christian strength: Now the surname of the Apostles doth include saluation freely giuen of God, 15 Familiar salutations of Iohn Baptist

CHAP. I.

3 Having spoken of the vngodliness of God, 5 and of the ver-tues of faith 6 Hee exhorteth them to holmesle life, 12 And that his counsell may bee the more steadfast, 14 He warneth that his death was bened. 16 and that his life shall be the power of Christ, which hee ought vnto them.

1 A salutation wherein he giuech them to vnder-stand that hee de-sireth with them as Christs ambassadour, and otherwise agreeeth with them in one selfe same faith which is grounded vpon
the righteousness of Iesus Christ our God and Saviour.

Imon 1 Peter a seruant & an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the 1 righteousness of our God and Saviour Iesus Christ.

2 Grace and peace bee multiplied to you, 2 through the acknowledging of God, and of Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 According as his b diuine power hath gi-uen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto life and godlinesse, through the 4 acknowledging of him that hath called vs vnto glory and vertue.

4 4 Whereby most great and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them yee should be partakers of the e diuine nature, in that ye fled the corruption, which is in the f world through g lust.

5 5 Therefore giue euen all diligence therevnto: h Ioyne moreouer vertue with your faith:
and with vertue, knowledge:

6 6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godlinesse:

the world, (that is, from the wicked lutes which we carie about vs) and are made, after a sort like vnto God himselfe. 6 By the diuine nature, he meaneth not his fuldame of the Goodnes, but the partaking of those graces whereby the image of God is restored in vs. f In m. g For lust is the first of corruption, and hath his first euen more very bowels murtherous parts. 5 Having layd the foundation (that is, having declared the causes of our corruption and especially of our sanctification) now he beginneth to exhort vs to giue our mindes wholly, to the true vnde of this grace.
And hee beginneth with faith without which nothing can please God, and hee warneth vs to haue it full fraught with vertue (that is to say) with god and; only ma-ners) being inuined with the knowledge of Gods will, without which there is either faith nor any true vertue. h Supply and support: or ayre. 6 Hereknoweth vs; certain other principall vertues, wherof some pertaine to the first Table of the Law, others to the 10.

* Rom 13. 10.
9 Because pride leemeth to many,
to bee the way vnto
the glory of this life, the Apostle warneth on the contrary side, that ignorance and shame is the reward of pride, and glory the reward of modestie
* James 4. 6.
* James 4. 10.
10 Because those proud and loose spirits threaten the modest and stle warneth vs to let the power of vanitie of proud men, and to hang wholly vpon his providence.

the power of sireth with them as

Imon 1 Peter a seruant & an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which
haue obtained like precious faith
with vs by the 1 righteousness of our God and Saviour Iesus Christ.

2 Grace and peace bee multiplied to you, 2 through the acknowledging of God, and of Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 According as his b diuine power hath gi-
uen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto life and godlinesse, through the 4 acknowledging of him

1 A salutation wherein he giuech them to vnder-stand that hee desireth with them as Christs ambassadour, and otherwise agreeeth with them in one selfe same faith which is grounded vpon the righteousness of Iesus Christ our God and Saviour.

1 In that God, according to his promise, hee hath himselfe faithfull, and therefore invnto vs. 2 Faith is the acknowledging of God and Christ, from whence all our blessednesse issueth and floweth. 3 Christ receiveth loath himselfe to vs plainly in the Gospel, and that by his onely power, and giuech vs all things which are requisite both to eternall life, wherein hee hath appointed to glorifie, and also to godlinesse, in that hee doeth furnish vs with true vertue. 4 Hee teacheth Christ, to whom hee maketh God, and the only Saviour. Unto salvation. 5 Thou 1 the fountain of true Religion, to be led by Christ to the Father, as it were by the hand.

7 And with godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse: and with brotherly kindnesse, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle, nor vnfruitfull in the acknowledging of our Lord Iesus Christ:

9 For he that hath not these things is blinde, and cannot fee farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if yee doe these things, ye shall neuer fail.

11 For by this means an entring shall be ministered vnto you abundantly into the euertlasting kingdome of our Lord and Sauour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be stablished in the present truth.

13 For I thinke it meet as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance:

14 Seeing I know that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 I will endeavour therefore alwayes, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For we followed not deceiueable fables, when we opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his maiestie:

17 For he receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voyce to him from that excellent Glory, which is my beloved Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holy mount.

19 We haue also a most sure word of the Prophets, to the which ye doe well that yee take heed, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the 1 day dawne, and the day-stare arise in your hearts.

20 So that ye first know this, that no prophetic of the Scripture is of any priuate interpretation.

21 For the prophetic came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

as whereof our Lord Iesus Christ the Sonne of God is author, whose glory the Apostle himselfe both saw and heard. Math. 17. 1. 11 The truth of the Gospel is here by also manifest: in that it agreeth withall with the foretellings of the Prophets. 12 The doctrine of the Apostles dooth not our doctrine of the Prophets, for they confirme each other by each others testimonies, but the Prophets were as capiles which gaue light vnto the blinde, vntill the brightnesse of the Gospel began to shine. 1 A more full and open knowledge then was vnder the shadowes of the Law. m That clearer doctrine of the Gospel. 2 Tim. 3. 16. 13 The Prophets are to be read, but so, that we aske of God the gift of interpretation: for hee that is the author of the writings of the Prophets, is also the interpreter of them. n He taught the Scripture our prophetic together to distinguish true prophetie from false. o For all interpretation cometh from God. p The godly interpreter and his followers. q Inspired of God: and were their motions were in ver. godly order, and not such as were the motions of the prophane iusts. i. i. and so foretellers of things to come.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee first telleth them of false teachers, 3 what wicked teachers and delinquentes hee doth see. 12 Hee comforteth them to bridle beasts. 17 and to walk without water, 20 because they feele to misbrayne men from God to their old falsenesse.

But there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord that hath bought them, and bring vpon themselues swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their destructions, by whom the way of truth shall bee euill spoken of.

3 And through couetousnes shall they with fained words make merchandise of you: whose condemnation long since refteth not, and their destruction slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the Angels that had sinned, but cast them downe into hell, and deliuered them into chaines of darkenesse, to bee kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared he the old world, but saved Noe the eighth person a preacher of righteousness, and brought in the Flood vpon the world of the vngodly.

6 And as turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrie into ashes, condemned them and overthrew them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after should liue vngodly.

7 And deliuered iust Lot vexed with the vncleyn conuersation of the wicked:

8 (For hee being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deeds.)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to reserve the vniust vnto the day of iudgement vnder punishment:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleanness, and despite gouernment, which are bold, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, giue not railing iudgement against them before the Lord.

12 But these as naturall brute beasts, led with sensuality, and made to be taken, and destroyed, speake euill of those things which they know not, and shall perish through their owne corruption.

13 As shall receive the wages of vnrighteousnesse, as they which count it pleasure daily to liue deliciouly. Spots they are and blots, delighting themselues in their deceivings, in feasting with you,

d Bowed them with darthenesse at it were with chaines: and by darkenesse, he meant that most miserable state of life, that is full of sorrow. e Which was before the Flood: not that God made a new world, but because the world seemed new. f Grey. 9. 17. For hee was not for the sake of an husbands and wifes: rather to warne the wicked. Both by word and deed, what worke of God hangeth vpon their heads. g Gen. 1. 9. 14. 15. Which way I sawe hee looked vnto the east. h Hee had a vnderstanding, and being vnderstanding, liued a painfull life. i Hath bene long practising in feasting and deliuering his righte. k Hee goeth to another sort of corrupt men, which notwithstanding are within the bosome of the Church, which are wickedly giue, and do seduciously speake euill of the authoritie of Magistrates, which the Angels themselves that min ster before God, doe not dispraise. l A true and liuely description of the Romish Clergie (as they call it). m Princes and gouernours, hee they neuer so high in authoritie. n Aliter painting out of the same persons, wherein they are com, are to beasts, which are made to feare themselves to destruction, while they giue themselves to fill their bellies: For there is no greater ignorance then is in these men, although they most impudently find fault with those things which they know not, and it shall come to passe that they shall deliuer themselves as beasts, with those pleasures wherewith they are delighted, and dissolution and defile the company of the godly. o Made to the end, to see a propo to whome, for the sake of now willingly cast themselues into satans snare. p Their owne wicked manner shall bring them to destruction. q Or, these teachers. n I mean as by living among the Christians in the city banes, which the Church keepeth, they would seeme by that meanes to bee true members of the Church, yet they are indeed but vnto of the Church.

7 He condemneth those men, as shewing even in their behaviour and countenance an unmerciful lust, as making merchandise of the souls of light persons, as men exercised in all the crates of countenance, to be short, as men that sell themselves for money to errie the Sinner of God after Balsam, as niple, whom the dumbe beastrer, p. 100.

18 For in speaking 9 swelling words of vanity, they beguile with wantonnesse through the lusts of the flesh them that were cleane escaped from them which are wrapped in error.

19 Promising vnto them liberty, & are them felues the * seruants of corruption: to of whomsoever a man is overcome, even vnto the same is he in bondage.

20 * 9 For if they, after they have escaped from the filthinesse of the world, through the acknowledging of the Lord, and of the Saviour Iesus Christ, are yettangled againe therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them then the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have acknowledged the way of righteousness, then after they have acknowledged it, to turne from the holy comandement giuen vnto them.

22 But it is come vnto them according to the true prouerbe, * The dogge is returned to his owne vomit: and the fow that was washed, to the wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee sheweth that he writeth the same thing againe, 2 Because they must often be stirred up, 4 because danger hang over their heads through certain mockers. 8 Therefore hee warneth the goaly that they not after the iniquities of the flesh, 12 appoint the day of the Lord, 14 but that they shoulde be alwayes as hand, 15 in which doctrine hee sheweth that Paul agreeeth with him.

THIS 1 second Epistle I now write vnto you beloved, wherewith I stirre vp, and warne your purminde,

2 To call to remembrance the words, which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, and also the comandement of vs the Apostles of our Lord and Saviour.

3 * 2 This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last daies, * mockers, which will walke after their lusts,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the Fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly know not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water, and by the water, by the word of God.

6 5 Wherefore the world that then was, perished, overflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in flore, and reserved vnto fire against the day of condemnation, and of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 7 Dearely beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, * as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day.

9 8 The Lord of that promise is not slacke (as some men count slackenesse) 9 but is patient toward vs, and * would have no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 10 But the day * of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in which the heuens shall passe away with a noyse, and the elements shall melt with heat, and the earth with the workes that are therein shall be burnt vp.

11 11 Seeing therefore that all these things must bee dissolved, what manner persons ought ye to be in holy conseruation and godlinesse, 12 Looking for, and * halting vpon the coming of that day of God, by the which the heuens being on fire, shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with heate?

13 But wee looke for * new heuens, and a new earth, according to his promise, 1 wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that yee looke for such things, bee diligent that yee may bee found of him in peace, without spot and blamelesse.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, 12 euen as our beloved brother Paul according to the wisdom giuen vnto him wrote vnto you,

16 As one that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: 13 among the which, some things are hard to be vnderstood, which they that are vnlerned and vnstable, wrest, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction,

17 Ye therefore beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware, lest yee be also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ: to him bee glorie both now and for euermore. Amen.

19 19 Hee sheweth that he writeth the same thing againe, 2 Because they must often be stirred up, 4 because danger hang over their heads through certain mockers. 8 Therefore hee warneth the goaly that they not after the iniquities of the flesh, 12 appoint the day of the Lord, 14 but that they shoulde be alwayes as hand, 15 in which doctrine hee sheweth that Paul agreeeth with him.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF IOHN.

CHAP. I.

Hee testifieth that hee brings the eternall word, whereinu life, 5 and lieth: 9 God will be mercifull vnto the faithful, if growng vnder the burden of their finnes, they learne to bee vnto his mercy.

2 (For that life was made manifest, and wee haue seene it, and beare witness, and shew vnto you that eternall life, which was with the Father, and was made manifest vnto vs.)

3 That I say, which we haue seene and heard declare vnto you, that yee may also haue fellowship with vs, and that our fellowship also may be with the Father and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write I vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God is light and in him is no darknesse.

6 If wee say that wee haue fellowship with him, and walke in darknesse, welie, and doe not truly.

7 But if we walke in the light as he is in the light, we haue fellowship one with another, and the blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanse vs from all sinne.

8 5 * If I say that we haue no sinne, we deceive our selues, and t ruth is not in vs.

9 6 * If we acknowledge our finnes, he is faithful and iust, to forgive vs our finnes, & to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnesse.

10 7 If we say wee haue not sinned, wee make him a liar, and his word is not in vs.

2 The vice of this doctrine is this, that all of vs being compled and ioyned together with Christ by faith, might become the Sonnes of God, in which thing they only consisteth all happiness.

3 Now hee entere in into a question, whereby we may vnderstand that we are ioyned together with Christ, to wit, if wee be governed by his light, which is perceived by the ordering of our life. And thus hereafter, God is in himselfe most pure light, therefore hee agreeth with them, which are lightfome, but with them which are darkfome he hath no fellowship. * Iohn 8. 12. 4 God is said to be light of his owne nature, and to be in light, that is to say, that eueryling in nature be light, as Iohn is, and we are said to walke in light, in that the beames of that light doe shine vnto vs in the world. 4 A digression or going from the matter hee is in hand with, to the remission of finnes: for this our sanctification which walke in the light, is a testimony of our ioyning and knitting together with Christ: but because this our light is very dark, we must needs obtayne another benediction in Christ, to wit, that our finnes may be forgiven vs being sprinkled with his blood: and this in conclusion is the propheet and stay of our saluation. * Heb. 9. 28. 1 peter 1. 10. reuel. 1. 5. 1 There is none but needeth this benediction, because there is a none that is not a sinner. 1 Kings 8. 46. 2 chron. 6. 2. psalm 143. 2 This place doeth fully reuele that perfectioun, and works of supererogation which the Papists dream of: so that, Iohn breatheth not that for modestie sake, as some say, but hee saith it is for iudice.

6 Therefore the beginning of saluation is to acknowledge our wickednes, and to require pardon of him who freely forgiveth all finnes because hee hath promised to doe, and he is faithful and iust. 6 so then our saluation hangeth vpon the free promise of God, who because hee is faithful and iust, will performe that which he hath promised. 6 Where are then our merits? for this is our true felicity. 7 A rehearsal of the former sentence, wherein hee condemned all of sinne without exception in so much that if any man perforce himselfe otherwise, hee doeth as much as in him lieth, make the word of God him selfe euill and to no purpose, yee he maketh God aliar: for to what end either in times past needed sacrifices or now Christ and the Gospel, if we be not sinners? 7 They doe not only deceive themselves, but also are blasphemous against God. 8 His doctrine should haue place in us, that is, in our hearts.

CHAP. II.

Hee declareth that Christ is our mediator and advocate, 3 & sheweth that the knowledge of God consisteth in holmes of life, 12 which appertaineth to all sorts, 13 that depend on Christ alone: 15 Thus hauing exhorted them to continue the word, 18 & to giue warning that Antichrist be avoided, 24 and that the knowers shal be found vnto.

1 Little children, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, wee haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust.

2 And he is the reconciler for our finnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the finnes of the whole world.

3 2 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if we keepe his commandments.

4 3 Hee that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 4 But he that keepeth his word, in him is the founte of God perfect indeede: heereby wee know that we are in him.

6 5 Hethat faith he remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke as he hath walked.

7 6 Brethren, I write no new commandment vnto you: but an old commandment, which yee haue had from the beginning: this old commandment is that word, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 7 Again, a new commandment I write vnto you, that which is true in him: & also in you: for the darknes is past, & that true light now shineth.

9 8 Hee that saith that he is in that light, and hateth his brother, is in darknes, vntill this time.

10 9 He that loueth his brother, abideth in that light, and there is no occasion of euill in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darknesse, and walketh in darknesse, and knoweth not whither hee goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 9 Little children, I write vnto you, because your finnes are forgiven you for his Names sake, declaring what it is to walke in the light, to wit, to keepe Gods commandments. Wherby it followeth that holies do not consist in their things which men haue deuised, with in a vaine profession of the Gospel. 4 This must be understood of such a knowledge, as hath faith with it, and not of a common knowledge.

6 For the true knowledge be the fruit. 3 Holiness, that is, a life ordered according to the precept of Gods commandments how weeaker followe they be, is of necessity ioined with faith, that is, with the true knowledge of the Father in the Sonne. 4 He that keepeth Gods commandments, loatheth God indeed. He that loatheth God, is in God, or is ioined together with God. Therefore he that keepeth his commandments, is in him. 5 Wherein we loue God. 6 Hee meaneth our communion with Christ. 5 Methat is one with Christ, must needs be his life, that is, must walke in his steps. 6 The Apostle going about to expound the commandment of charity one toward another, telleth first, that when hee vergeth holiness he bringeth no new trade of lifes: as they vicio doe which desire traditions, one after another, but putteth them in minde of the same lawe which God gaue in the beginning to moyses at that time that God began to giue Lawe to his people.

7 Hee doeth that the doctrine indeed is old, but it is now after a sort new both in respect of Christ, and also of vs: in whom hee through the Gospel, engrauen his Lawe effectually, not in tables of stone, but in our mindes. 6 Which thing to wit, that the Lawe is now of which I write vnto you, is true in him and in you. 8 Now hee cometh to the second Table, that is to charity one towards another, & denieth that that man hath true light in him, or is indeed regenerate and the son of God, which hateth his brother: and such an one wandeth miserably in darknesse brag hee of neuer in great knowledge of God, for that wittingly and willingly hee calleth himselfe headlong into hell. * Chap. 3. 14. 9 Hee returneth againe from sanctification to remission of finnes, because that the reconciliation in Christ is the ground of our saluation, wherupon after that sanctification must be built: as vpon a foundation.

1 Therefore I write vnto you, because you are of this number whom God hath reconciled to himselfe. 1 For his sake make 1 And imitate him namely Christ, do followe one ad other, whether they be in houses or earth.

10 10 If I write vnto you, that ye sinne not, ye deceive your selues, and your brethren: but if ye say that ye haue sinned, ye shall have mercy, and your finnes shall be forgiven you.

11 11 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

12 12 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

13 13 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

14 14 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

15 15 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

16 16 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

17 17 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

18 18 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

19 19 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

20 20 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

21 21 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

22 22 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

23 23 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

24 24 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

25 25 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

26 26 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

27 27 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

28 28 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

29 29 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

30 30 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

31 31 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

32 32 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

33 33 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

34 34 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

35 35 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

36 36 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

37 37 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

38 38 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

39 39 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

40 40 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

41 41 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

42 42 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

43 43 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

44 44 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

45 45 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

46 46 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

47 47 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

48 48 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

49 49 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

50 50 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

51 51 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

52 52 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

53 53 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

54 54 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

55 55 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

56 56 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

57 57 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

58 58 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

59 59 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

60 60 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

61 61 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

62 62 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

63 63 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

64 64 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

65 65 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

66 66 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

67 67 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

68 68 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

69 69 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

70 70 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

71 71 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

72 72 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

73 73 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

74 74 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

75 75 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

76 76 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

77 77 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

78 78 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

79 79 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

80 80 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

81 81 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

82 82 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

83 83 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

84 84 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

85 85 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

86 86 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

87 87 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

88 88 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

89 89 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

90 90 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

91 91 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

92 92 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

93 93 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

94 94 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

95 95 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

96 96 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

97 97 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

98 98 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

99 99 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

100 100 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

101 101 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

107 107 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

108 108 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

109 109 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

110 110 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

111 111 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

112 112 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

113 113 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

114 114 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

115 115 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

116 116 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

117 117 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

118 118 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

119 119 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

120 120 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we deceive our selues, and our brethren: but if we say that we haue sinned, we shall have mercy, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

121 121 Therefore if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust, who shall take away our finnes.

122 122 Therefore if we sinne not, we shall not see our sinne: but if we acknowledge our sinne, we shall see it, and our finnes shall be forgiven us.

123 123 Therefore if we say that we haue not sinned, we make God a liar, and his word is not in us.

124 124 Therefore if we confess our sinne, he is faithful and iust, and will forgive our finnes, and we shall not die.

14 I haue written vnto you fathers, because ye haue known him that is from the beginning.
I haue written vnto you, young men, because yee are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue ouercome that wicked one.

15 14 Loue not this world, neither the things that are in this world. If any man loue this world the^m loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in this world, (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of this world.

17 ¹⁵ And this world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that fulfilleth the will of God abideth euer.

18 ¹⁵ Little children, ¹⁷ it is the last time, 18 and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shal come euen now there are many Antichrists: whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 ¹⁹ They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they should have continued with vs. ²⁰ But this cometh to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

another order, for before we are taught to give glory to the effect in this that followeth, he goeth down to the cause of the effect ousness; therefore that which relates to righteousness, are known because they resemble God the Father.

CHAP. III.

2 Seeing downe the ineffimable glory of this that we are Gods sonnes, 7 be shewes, that our life must be testified by good works, whereof charitie is a manifest token, 19 Of faith. 22 and we are to love God.

Behold, ¹ what loue the Father hath giuen to vs, that we should bee ^b called the sonnes of God: ² for this cause this world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2. 3 Dearly beloned, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it is not made manifest what wee shall be: and we know that when hee shall be made manifest, we shall bee e like him: for wee shall see him^d as he is.

Agreement taken of concupiscence: the deuil is the author of sinne, and therefore he is of the deuil, or is led by the inspiration of the deuil that ferreth him: and if he be de deuil, he is not Gods sonne: for the deuil and God are fo contrary the one to the other, that euen the Sonne of God was sent to destroy the works of the deuil. Therefore on the contrary side, whoeuer resisteth sinne, is the Sonne of God, being borne againe of his spirit as of new feed, in which there is now no necessity hee is now deliuered from the bondage of sinne.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuil: for the deuil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose was made manifest that Sonne of God, that hee might loofe the workes of the deuil.

9 Whoeuer is borne of God sinneth not: for his sinne remaineth in him, neither can hee sinne, because he is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowne, and the children of the deuil: whoeuer doeth not righteousnesse, is not of God, neither hee that loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that yee heard from the beginning, that we should loue one another.

12 Not as Cain which was of that wicked one, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Marueil not my brethren, though this world hate you.

14 Wee know that we are translated from death vnto life, because we loue the brethren: he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whoeuer hateth his brother, is a man- slayer: and ye know that no manslayer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he laide downe his life for vs. therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 And whoeuer hath this p worlds good, and seeth his brother haue need, & shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but indeed and in truth.

19 For thereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our hearts condemne vs, Gods greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, the Spirit of God beareth witness with us, and the Spirit of God beareth witness with us, and the Spirit of God beareth witness with us.

22 The conclusion: by a wicked life they are known which are conuicted by the Spirit of the Deuil: and by a pure life, which are Gods children.

23 Hee beginneth to commend charity towards the brethren, as another marke of the Sonnes of God. The first reason, taken of the authority of God, which giveth the commandement.

then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 And whatsoever we aske, wee receive of him, because wee keepe his commandements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 This is then his commandement, that we beleue in the Name of his sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commandement.

24 For hee that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in vs, euen by that Spirit which hee hath giuen vs.

25 Iohn 6.23 and 17. 2. Iohn 13.24 and 15.10. Spirit of sanctification whereby we are borne anew, and liue vnto God.

CHAP. III.

Having spoken somewhat touching the trying of spirits: 1 For some speake after the world, 5 and Iohn after God. 7 Herein is to be charitie. 11. 19 and by the example of God be borne to brotherly loue.

Dearely beloued, beleue not euery a spirit, but trie the spirits whether they are of God: for many false Prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shall yee know the Spirit of God, Every spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come into the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit that confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the Spirit of Antichrist, of whom yee haue heard, how that he should come, and now already he is in this world.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is hee that is in you, then he that is in this world.

5 They are of ths world, therefore spake they of this world, and this worlde heareth them.

6 We are of God, we see that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God heareth vs not. Hereby know we the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: 7 for loue, cometh of God, and euery one that loueth is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 Hee that loueth not, knoweth not God, for God is loue.

The Spirits of God, which are altogether to be followed from impure spirits which are to be eschewed. 1. Thine spoken by the figure Metonymy, and is as if hee had sayd, Beloued, not eueryone that sayeth that hee hath a gift of the holy Ghost doo the office of a Prophet.

2. Hee giueth a certaine and perpetual rule to know the doctrine of Antichrist by, to wit, if either the diuine or humane nature of Christ, or the true vnting of them together be denied: or if the least rule that may bee, be derogated from his office who is our only King, Prophet, and euertailing his Priest.

3. Hee speaketh simply of the doctrine, and not of the person. 4. The true Messiah. 5. Is true man. 6. Hee comforteth the elect with a most lively hope of victory: but yet so, that he teacheth them that they fight not with their owne verue, but with the verue and power of God.

7. Hee bringeth a reason, why the world receiveth the teachers more willingly, then the true: to wit, because they breathe out nothing but that which is worldly: which is another necesse to know the doctrine of Antichrist by.

8. Hee testifieth vnto them that his doctrine and the doctrine of his fellowes, is the assured word of God, which of necessity we haue boldly to set against all the mouths of the whole world, and thereby discern the truth from falshood.

9. Iohn 8.47. 10. True Prophets, against whom are set false prophets, that is, such as erre themselves, and lead others into error.

11. Hee returneth to the commanding of brotherly loue and charitie. 12. The first reason: Because it is a very diuine thing: and therefore very meet for the sonnes of God: so that whoeuer is voyde of it, can not bee fayde to know of God aight.

13. A confirmation: For it is the nature of God to loue men, whereof we haue a most manifest proofe aboue all other: in that that his only free and infinite good will toward vs, his enemies, be deliuered vnto death not a common man, but that his owne Sonne, yea, his only begotten Sonne to be heard, because we are the sonnes of God, as we neuer had by the gift of sanctification which is proper to the elect.

Math. 23. 23. Iohn 15. 7. and 16. 25 chry. 5. 14. 25 The conclusion: That faith in Christ, and loue one towards another, are things joined together, and therefore the outward testimonies of sanctification must and do answer that inward testimony of the Spirit giuen of Hee mensels euen God.

1. Taking occasion by the name of the Spirit, left loue and charity should be separated from the worship of God which chiefly dependeth of his true knowledge, he returneth to that which he spake in the second Chapter touching the taking heed of Antichrists And he will haue us here to take heed of twofold things, the one is, that seeing there be many false prophets, we do not lightly giue credit to euery man: the other is, that because many men teach false things, we should notwithstanding beleue any, We must obserue a meane, that we may be able to discern the Spirits of God, which are altogether to be followed from impure spirits which are to be eschewed. 1. Thine spoken by the figure Metonymy, and is as if hee had sayd, Beloued, not eueryone that sayeth that hee hath a gift of the holy Ghost doo the office of a Prophet. 2. Hee giueth a certaine and perpetual rule to know the doctrine of Antichrist by, to wit, if either the diuine or humane nature of Christ, or the true vnting of them together be denied: or if the least rule that may bee, be derogated from his office who is our only King, Prophet, and euertailing his Priest. 3. Hee bringeth a reason, why the world receiveth the teachers more willingly, then the true: to wit, because they breathe out nothing but that which is worldly: which is another necesse to know the doctrine of Antichrist by. 8. Hee testifieth vnto them that his doctrine and the doctrine of his fellowes, is the assured word of God, which of necessity we haue boldly to set against all the mouths of the whole world, and thereby discern the truth from falshood. 9. Iohn 8.47. 10. True Prophets, against whom are set false prophets, that is, such as erre themselves, and lead others into error. 11. Hee returneth to the commanding of brotherly loue and charitie. 12. The first reason: Because it is a very diuine thing: and therefore very meet for the sonnes of God: so that whoeuer is voyde of it, can not bee fayde to know of God aight. 13. A confirmation: For it is the nature of God to loue men, whereof we haue a most manifest proofe aboue all other: in that that his only free and infinite good will toward vs, his enemies, be deliuered vnto death not a common man, but that his owne Sonne, yea, his only begotten Sonne to be heard, because we are the sonnes of God, as we neuer had by the gift of sanctification which is proper to the elect. 9 *Heerein that beleue in the Name of that Sonne of God, that ye may know that yee haue eternall life, and that yee may beleue in the Name of that Sonne of God.

14 And this is that assurance that we haue in him, * that if we aske any thing according to his will he heareth vs.

15 And if we know that he heareth vs, whatsoever we aske, we know that we haue the petitions, that we haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne that is not vnto death, let him 1 aske, and he shal giue him life for them that sinne not vnto death. * There is a sinne vnto death, I say not that thou shouldst pray for it,

94 Because we do not reioice if we obtain that which we hope for, the Apostle ioyneeth inuocation or prayer with faith, which he will haue to proceed from faith, and moreouer to be concerned in such sort, that nothing be asked but that which is agreeable to the will of God: and such prayers cannot be waine. Chap. 3.22. 15 We haue to make prayer not only for ourselves, but also for our brethren which doe sinne, that their finnes be vnto them, to death: and yet hee excepteth that sinne, which is neuer forgiven, or the sinne against the holy Ghost, that is to say, any sinne all and willfull falling away from the known truth of the Gospel. 1 This is much as if he said, Let him desire the Lord to forgive him, and hee will forgive him being so desired. * Ioh. 12.31. marke 3.29.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We know that whoeuer is born of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God keepeth himselfe, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 Wee know that we are of God, and this whole world lieth in wickednesse.

20 But we know that that Sonne of God is * come, and hath giuen vs a mind to know him, which is true, and we are in him that is true, that is, in that his Sonne Iesus Christ, the same is that very n God, and that eternall life.

21 Little children keep your selues from idols. Amen.

is to say, made the finnes of God in Christ, and being indwelt with his Spirit, they doe aucter sin, neither are dead y wounded of Satan. 18 Every man must particularly apply to himselfe the generall promises, that we may certainly perfwade our selues, that whereas all the world is by nature lost, we are secretly made the sons of God, by the sending of Iesus Christ his Sonne vnto vs, of whom we are lightened with the knowledge of the true God, and euertlasting life. * Ioh. 2.45. * The doctrine of Christ is most plainly preached y this place. 19 Hee excepteth a plaine precept of taking heed of idols: which hee teacheth against the only true God, that with this seale as it were he might seale vp all the former doctrine.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF IOHN.

1 This Epistle is written to a woman of great renoume, who brought up her children in the feare of God: 6 becauseth she to continue in Christian charitie, 7 that she accompanie not with Antichrist, 8 who auoid them.

HE ELDER to the elect b Lady, and her children, whom I loue in the truth: and not I only, but also all that haue known the truth.

2 For the truths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shall be with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with * truth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in * truth as we haue receiued a commandment of the Father.

5 And now beseech I thee, Lady, (not as writing a new commandment vnto thee, but the same which we had from the beginning) that we * loue one another.

6 Both in loue one toward another which the Lord hath commanded, and also especially in wholeme and sound doctrine, which also is deliuered vnto vs: for the commandment of God is a found and sure foundation both of the rule of manners and of doctrine, and these cannot be separated the one from the other. d According as the truth directeth them. * Iohn 13.12.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF IOHN.

1 Hee commendeth Gaius for his piety, 9 and reprehendeth Diotrophes for his maligne: 10 Hee exhorteth Gaius to continue in well doing: 12 and in the rule commandments De-metrius.

H Elder vnto the beloued Gaius whom I loue in the truth.

B Beloued, I wish chiefly that thou prosperest and farest well as thy loue prospereth.

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came & testified of the truth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the truth.

4 I haue no greater ioy then * thee, that is, to hear that my finnes walke in veritie.

5 Beloued, thou doest b faithfully, whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers,

6 Which bare witness of thy loue before the Churches, whom if thou e bringest on their iour-ney as it becometh according to God, thou shalt doe well.

7 Because that for his Names sake they went forth, and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.

8 Wee therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be 4 helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote vnto the Church, but Diotrophes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueh vs not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will call to your remembrance his deeds which hee doeth, prating against vs with malicious words, and not therewith content, neither hee himselfe receiueh the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.

11 Beloued follow not that which is euill, but that which is good: he that doth well is of God: but he that doeth euill, hath not e seene God.

6 And this is that loue that we should walke after his commandments. This commandment is, that as ye haue heard from the beginning, yee should walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entred into this world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a deceiver and an Antichrist.

8 Looko to your selues, that we loofe not the things which we haue done, but that we may receiue a full reward.

9 Whoeuer transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that continueth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Sonne.

10 If there come any vnto you, and bring not this doctrine, * receiue him not to house, neither bid him God speed.

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his euill deeds. Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet would I not write with paper and ynke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.

12 The finnes of thine elect sister greete thee, Amen.

16 The taking away of an obedi-
on: Indeed all ini-quities comprheended vnder the name of in-butyet we must not despaire therefore, because every sin is not deadly, and without hope of remedie.

13 The summe of this prophesie, that the Apostle must write whatsoever he should see, adding away any thing, as verse 2. Hereof there are two parts: one is a narration of those things which are, that is which then were at that time contained in the second and third Chapters: the other part is of those things which were to come, contained in the rest of this booke. 14 That is, things which were mystical, signified by the particulars of the vision before going. 1 By the Angels he meaneth the Ministers of the Church.

and that last,

18 And am alius, but I was dead: and behold, I am alius for euermore. Amen: and I haue the keyes of hell and of death.

19 1 Write the things which thou hast seene and the things which are, and the things which shall come hereafter.

20 14 The mytery of the seven starres which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlestickes which thou sawest, are the seven Angels of the seven Churches: and the seven candlestickes which thou sawest, are the seven Churches.

15 The things which were mystical, signified by the particulars of the vision before going. 1 By the Angels he meaneth the Ministers of the Church.

CHAP. II.

1 John is commanded to write those things which the Lord knew necessary to the Church of Ephesus. 8 Of the seven Churches. 12 Of Pergamus, 18 and of Thyatira, 25 that they keep those things which they received of the Apostle.

Vnto the Angel of the Church of Ephesus write, 2 These things saith he that holdeth the seven starres in his right hand, and walketh in the mids of the seven golden candlestickes.

3 I know thy workes, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not beare with them which are euill, and hast examined them which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars.

4 And thou wast burdened, and hast patience and for my Names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

5 Neuertheless, I haue somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first loue.

6 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent and doe the first workes: or else I will come against thee shortly, and will remove thy candlesticke out of his place, except thou amend.

7 But this thou hast that thou hatest the workes of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

8 Let him that hath an eare heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches: To him that ouercometh, will I giue to eate of the tree of life which is in the middes of the Paradise of God.

9 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, These things saith he that is first and last, which was dead and is alius.

10 I know thy workes and tribulation, and poyntie (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemie of them, which say they are Iewes, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

11 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: behold, it shall come to passe, that the deuill shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried, and ye shall haue tribulation ten dayes: be thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

12 Let him that hath an eare heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. He that ouercometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

13 And to the Angel of the Church, which is at Pergamus write, Thus saith he which hath that sharpe sword with two edges.

14 I know thy workes, and where thou dwellest, where Satans throne is, and where thou keepst my Name, and hast not denied my faith, euen in those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

15 But I haue a few things against thee, because thou hast them that maintain the doctrine of Balaam, which taught Balaam to put a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

16 Euen so hast thou them that maintain the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

17 Repent thy selfe, or else I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against thee with the sword of my mouth.

18 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. To him that ouercometh, will I giue to eate of the things of the Manna that is hid and will giue him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, sauing he that receiueth it.

19 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things saith the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like fine brasse.

20 I know thy workes and thy loue, and thy seruice and faith, & thy patience, & thy workes, and that they are moe at the last, then at the first.

21 Notwithstanding, I haue a few things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman Iezebel, which calleth herselfe a prophetesse, to teach and to deceiue my seruants, to make them commit fornication and to eat meate sacrificed vnto idoles.

22 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

The Kings of the Asiatians were clauyes reuolunt. 12 The proposition of praise is in this verse, of reprehension in the two following, and of exhortation in the third with a conditional, verse 16. Now this Antipas was the Angel or minister of the Church of Pergamus, as Aretas writeth. The Faith of them of Pergamus is much the more highly commended because they remaine constant euen in the very heat of persecution. 6 Num. 24. 14, and 25. 1. That which is here spoken of things offered to idoles was of the same kind which Paul saith, 1 Cor. 10. 14, 15. Which follow the footsteps of Balaam, and such as are abandoned vnto all filthinesse, as he dwelt in the verse of the same, and is here signified by a note of filthinesse. And thus also the first verse be understood. For this matter of especially Iewes must be consulted withall. 14 The conclusion, that of exhortation as before, and of promise. 2 The church to that person which we read of John 6 and the place we finde in 1 Cor. 10. 14. Aretas writeth, that such time as the church was in the midst of the persecution, or else that such place did not ordaine in this verse, of reprehension. 15 The bread of life, immutability, spiritual, and heavenly, which is kept secretly with God, from before all eternitie. 16 Which is a signe and witness of forgiveness and remission of finnes, of righteousness and true holinesse, and of puritie: vnconspicuous, after that the old man is killed. 17 A figure and testimonie of newnesse of life in righteousness, and true holinesse, by putting on the new man, whom none doth inwardly know, save the spirit of man which is in himselfe, the praise whereof is not often, but of God Rom. 12. 18. The fourth place is vnto the Pastours of Thyatira. The exordium is taken out of the 14 & 15. verses of the first Chapter. 19 The proposition of praise is in this verse, of reprehension, for that they tolerated with them, the doctrine of vngodlinesse, and vnto the conclusion, for that they were of that sort, though they be backe of God, yet represented not verse 21 whereunto is added a more heauie threatening, verse 22 and 23. of a conditional promise, and of exhortation to hold fast the truth, in the two verses following. So the first of the offices of charity which are done to the Saints. 24 By fornication is sometimes in the Scripture idollatrous.

out of the 4. & 16.
verses of the 1.
Chap. Sardis was the name of a certain town, which was in the Kingdome of Lydia keeps their courts.

1 And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Sardis, These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars, 2 I know thy works: for thou hast a name that thou liest, but thou art dead.

2 But awake, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I haue not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore, how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast and repent, 4 If therfore thou wilt not watch, I will come on thee as a thiefe, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come vpon thee.

4 Notwithstanding thou hast a few names yet in Sardis, 5 which haue not defiled their garments: and they shall walke with me in white:
for they are worthy.

5 He that ouercommeth, shall be clothed in white aray, and I will not put out his Name out of the booke of life, but I will confesse his name before my Father, and before his Angels.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare, what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

7 And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is of Philadelphia, These things saith he that is holy and True, which hath the key of David, which openeth and no man shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth.

8 I know thy works: behold I haue set before thee an open doore, & no man can shut it:
for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Behold, I will make me of the Synagoge of Satan, which call themselves Iewes, & are not, but doe lie, behold, I say, I will make them that they shal come & worship before thy feet, and shall know that I haue loued thee.
10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of temptation, which will come vnto all the world, to try them that dwell vpon the earth.
11 Behold I come shortly: hold that which thou hast, that no man take thy crowne.
12 Him that ouercommeth, I will make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and he shall goe no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is the new Ierusalem, which cometh downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.
13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.
14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith Amen, the faithfull and true witness, that beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hote: I would thou werest cold or hote, 16 Therefore because thou art luke warme, and neither cold nor hote, it will come to passe that I shall spew thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou sayest, I am rich, and increafed with goods, and haue need of nothing, & know-est not how thou art wretched and miserable, and poore, and blind, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buy of me gold tryed by the fire, that thou maiest be made rich: and white raiment, that thou maiest be clothed, and that thy filthy nakednesse do not appeare: and anoint thine eyes with eye salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I loue, I rebuke and chasten:
be zealous therefore and amend.

20 Behold, I stand at the doore, and knocke
I: if any man heare my voice, & open the doore,
I will come in vnto him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, I will graunt to sit with me in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and sit with my Father in his throne.

Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

magistral the four beasts 20 and the four & twenty Elders.

After this I looked, and behold, a doore was open in heauen, and the first voice which I al together propheticall, telling these things which were to come as was said before, Chap. 1. 19. This is divided into two hierarchies: one vnto the whole world, vnto the 2. Chapter, and another singler of the Church of God, thence vnto the 3. chapter. And these hierarchies are said to be described in several booke, chap.

2. and 3. Now this verse is as it were a passage from the former part vnto this second: where it is said, that the heauen was opened, that is, that heauenly things were unlocked and that a voice as of a trumpet sounded in heauen to stirre up the Apollie, and call him to the vnderstanding of things to come. The first hierarchy hath two parts: one of the causes of things done, and of this whole Reuelation, in this and the next chapter. Another of the Ades done in the next 4. chapters. The principall causes according to the distinction of persons in the vnto of the diuine essence and according to the economic or dispensation thereof, are two. One the beginning, which none can approach vnto, that is, God the Father, of whom is spoken in this chapter. The other, the Sonne, who is the meane cause, able to be ap-proched vnto, in respect that he is God and man in one Person of whom, Chap. 5.

heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, saying Come vp hither, and I will shew thee things which must be done hereafter.

2 And I immediately I was raised in the spirit, and beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and one sat vpon the throne.

3 And he that sat was to looke vpon, like vnto a iasper stone, and a sardine, and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like to an emerauld.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twentie seats, and vpon the seats I saw foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white rayment, and had on their heads crownes of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings and voices, and there were seven lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a Sea of glasse like vnto chrystall: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne were foure beastes, full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was like a lyon, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Eagle.

8 And the foure beastes had each one of them fixe wings about him, and they were full of eyes within and they cealed not day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Which was, and which is, and which is to come.

19 By his nature, in that he is the Father, most glorious in his owne person, and with his glory overthinning all other things.

20 By his company attending about him in this, as that most high iudge, he is accompanied with the most honourable attendance of Prophets and Apostles, both of the old and new Church, whom Christ hath made to be Priests and Kings, Chap. 1. 6. and 5. 10.

And hath also 7 Angels most ready administrators of his counsels & pleasure vnto all parts of the world, continually watching (in this ver.) working by reason otherwise then by instruments without life, as mentioned, courageous as lions might as bulls, wise as men, swift as eagles, ver. 7. most apt vnto all purposes, as perfected with wings on every part, most piercing of sight, and finally pure, as purified Spirits, always in continual motion, ver. 8.

26 The manner of reuelation, as before, c. 1. to.

27 A description of God the Father, and of his glory in the heavens, framed vnto the manner of men, by his office, nature, company, attending offices, instruments and cuncts that follow afterwards.

28 In this ver. hee is presented in office as a iudge, as Abraham, Gen. 18. which is declared by his throne, as an ensigne of iudgement, and his fitting thereupon.

vpon the throne, a booke written within, and on the backside sealed with seven seales.

2 And I saw a strong Angel which preached with a loude voice, Who is worthy to open the booke, and to loofe the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen nor in earth, neither vnder the earth, was able to open the booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to read the booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders said vnto me, Weepe not: behold, that Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, that roote of David, hath obtained to open the booke, and to loofe the seven seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe, 7 in the mids of the throne, and of the foure beastes, and in the mids of the Elders stood a Lambe, as though he had bene killed, which had seven hornes, and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came, and tooke the booke out of the right hand of him that sat vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the booke, the foure beastes, and the foure and twentie Elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one 10 harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of the Saints.

9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation.

10 And hast made vs vnto our God Kings, and Priests, and we shall reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, & I heard the voice of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes & the Elders, 14 there were 7 ten thousand times ten thousand, & thousand thousands.

12 Saying with a loude voice, Worthy is the Lambe that was killed, to receive power, and ri-gle in heauen above the earth: and another under the earth, as is asister declared, ver. 13.

3 The second part of this chapter, in which is set downe the Reuelation of the Sonne, as before was said. This part concerneth the history of the manner how God prepared S. Iohn to understand this Reuelation in this ver. 4. Secondly the Reuelation of the Sonne himselfe vnto the ver. 5. Thirdly, the accidents of this Reuelation, in the rest of the chapter. The manner how, is here described in two parts, one from without him, by speech in this ver. 6. Another within by opening the eyes of S. Iohn (which before were held): that he might see, in the ver. following. Gen. 4. 6. That is, the most mighty and most approved Prince according to the view of the Hebrew speech. 7 The summe of this Reuelation: Christ the mediator took & opened the booke, ver. 6. 7. Therefore in this Reuelation is described the person of Christ, in this ver. 13. His fact, in the next ver. 14. The person is thus described, Christ, the mediator between God and man, in the eternal word of God, and our redeemer, as the Lambe of God, standing as a flame, and making intercession for vs by the virtue of his everlasting sacrifice, as learned with the Spirit of God, in his own person, that is, with the power & wisdom of God essentially vnto the government of this whole world.

8 The fact of Christ the Mediator, that he came vnto the throne of the Father, and opened it with his hornes, as is said in the Canticles, 12. That he opened it, is first exprest, chap. 6. 1. &c.

9 Now follow in the end, the accidents of the Reuelation, first spoken of: that all the holy Angels, & men did sing vnto him: both the chiefe, ver. 10. & common order of Angels, ver. 11, 12. and of all things created ver. 13. the princes of both sorts agreeing thereto ver. 14. and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 7 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre from heauen, burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the star is called wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 9 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the sunne was smitten, and the third part of the moone, and the third part of the starres, so that the third part of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that is the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 10 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying thorow the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the founds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

14 10 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying thorow the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the founds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first Angel bloweth his trumpet, 3 and bringeth locusts come out. 13 The first Angel bloweth, 16 and bringeth fourth horsemen. 20 and they smite mankind.

1 And the first Angel blew the trumpet, and I saw a starre fall from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was given the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 4 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sunne, and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 5 And there came out of the smoke Locusts vnto the earth, and vnto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 6 And there came out of the smoke Locusts vnto the earth, and vnto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 6 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but only those men which have not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commanded that they should not kill them, but that they should be vexed five moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that cometh of a scorpion, when he hath stung a man.

6 7 Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death, and shall not find it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flie from them.

7 7 And the forme of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared vnto the battell, and on their heads were as it were crownes, like vnto gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the haire of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had habberrions, like vnto habberrions of yron, and the found of their wings was like the found of charets when many horses runne vnto battell.

10 And they had tailles like vnto scorpions, and there were stinges in their tailles, and their power was to hurt men five moneths.

11 8 And they have a king ouer them, which is the Angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greeke hee is named Apollyon, that is, destroying.

12 9 One woe is past, and behold, yet two woes come after this.

13 10 And the first Angel blew the trumpet, and I saw a starre fall from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was given the key of the bottomlesse pit.

7 The third execution vpon the floods and fountaines, that is, vpon all fresh waters, in this verse: the effect whereof is, that many are destroyed with the bitterness of waters, in the verse following.

8 This is spoken by Metaphor, of the name of a moth bite here, and commonly known, which perhaps a man may think of that note the derivation of words had rather expound it adiectionally, for that which by reason of bitterness cannot be drunk, or which maketh the liquor into which it is powred, more bitter than that any man can drink the same.

9 The fourth execution vpon the lightnesse bodies of heauen, which minister vnto this filthy world.

10 A lamentable predition or foretelling of those parts of the diuine execution which are yet behind: which also is a passage vnto the argument of the next Chapter. Of all these things in a manner Christ himselfe expressly foretold in the 11. Chapter of S. Luke, Verse 24. &c. and they are common plagues generally denounced, without particular note of time.

1 The first Angel bloweth his trumpet, 3 and bringeth locusts come out. 13 The first Angel bloweth, 16 and bringeth fourth horsemen. 20 and they smite mankind.

10. The first execution done vpon the world by the tyrannical powers thereof, working in the foure parts of the earth, that is in most excellent manner executing their tyrannous dominion through the whole world, and killing the millions of people with out punishment, which before was not lawfull for them to doe in that sort, as I shewed vpon 4th ver. This narration hath two parts: a commandment from God in the 14 ver. and an execution of the commandment in the verse following.

11. The commandment given by Christ himselfe, who is gouernour ouer all. 6. Hee alloweth to the altar, meaning which blood in the Court which the Priests use, not against the Conscience, having a well borne conscience.

12. As if he should haue said, These things heere to be bound by the power of God, that they could not freely run vpon all men as themselves lust, but were stayed and restrained at the great flood of Euphrates, that is, in their spiritual Babylon (for this is a Periphrasis of the spiritual Babylon, by the limits of the spiritual Babylon long since overthrowen) that they might not commit those foule sinnes, which they would breath after. Now goe to: let those foule Angels, that is, ministers of the wrath of God, in that nation, kill them vpon and giue them the bridle, that is, cutting out of that Babylon of the world, which is the seat of the wicked ones, they may sit vpon all the world, there to rage, and most licenciously to exercise their tyranny, as God hath ordeined. This was done when Gregorie the ninth by publicke authoritie established for law his own Decretals, by which he might lawfully lay frames for the life of simple men. For who is it that feeth not that the lawes Decretals mooued of them are as snares to catch soules withall? Since that time (O good God!) how great slaughters haue there beene? how great massacres? All histories are full of them: and this outrage aboundeth with most horrible and monstrous examples of the same.

13. The execution of the commandment is in two points: one, that those butchers are let loose, that out of their tower of the spiritual Babylon they might with licence runne abroad through all the world, as their multitudes, both most copious, of which a number certaine is named for a number infinite, Ver. 16. and in the multitude by means fully furnished to hide and to hurt, Ver. 17, as being armed with fire, smoke and brimstone, as appeareth in the colour of their armour, which dazzleth the eyes of all men: and haue the strength of Lyons to hurt withall, from which (as out of their mouth) the fierce, smother, and stinking darts of the Pope are shot out, Ver. 18. The other point is, that these butchers haue effected the commandment of God by fraud and violence, in the two verses following.

14. That is, they are harmful euery way: on what part thou couldest thoust tyme band vpon them or they touch thee, they doe hurt. So the former are called Scorpions, Ver. 15. Now remaineth the euent (as I said vpon the first verse) which followed of so many and so grievous iudgements in the most wicked world: namely, an impotent obprobrium of the vngodly in their impietie and vngodly conscience, though they feele themselves most vngodly by the prefixed with the hand of God: for their obprobrium vngodly conscience is shewed in this verse, and their vngodly conscience in the verse following. Hieroboam hath bene the general historie of this to be done vngodly in the whole world: which because it doeth not so much belong to the Church of Christ as herefore, not to expressly distinguishing by certainty of time and other circumstances, but is women, as they say with a light hand. Also there is none other cause why the historie of the fourth Angel is passed ouer in this place, then for that the same more properly apperaineth vnto the historie of the Church. But this is more diligently let out according to the time thereof, Chap. 11. and 16. as shall appere vpon those places. * Pjal. 115. 4. and 135. 15.

15. And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

16. Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, and of the smoke, and of the brimstone, which came out of their mouthes.

17. For their power is in their mouthes, and in their tails: for their tails were like vnto serpents, and had heads wherewith they hurt.

18. And the remnant of the men which were not killed by their plagues, repented not of the workes of their hands, that they should not worship deuils, and idoles of gold, and of silver, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor goe.

19. Also they repented not of their murder, and of their fornicie, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

10 Then the first Angel blew the trumpet, and I heard a voice from the golden altar, which is before God.

14 Saying to the first Angel, which had the trumpet, 12 Loose the four Angels, which are bound in the great riuier Euphrates.

15 And the four Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an hour, at a day, at a month, and at a yeere to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twenty thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, and of the smoke, and of the brimstone, which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouthes, and in their tails: for their tails were like vnto serpents, and had heads wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by their plagues, repented not of the workes of their hands, that they should not worship deuils, and idoles of gold, and of silver, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor goe.

21 Also they repented not of their murder, and of their fornicie, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

22 And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

23 And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

24 And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

25 And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

26 And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

27 And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

And I saw another mightie Angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloud, and the rainebowe vpon his head, and his face was as the sunne, and his feete as pillars of fire.

2 And hee had in his hand a little booke open, and hee put his right foot vpon the sea, and his left on the earth.

3 And cried with a loud voyce, as when a lion roareth: and when hee had cried, seven thunders vttered their voyces.

4 And when the seven thunders had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, Seale vp those things which the seven thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I saw stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And swore by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things that therein are, 5 that a time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the 6 voyce of the seventh Angel, when hee shall begin to blow the trumpet, even the myserie of God shall be finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 7 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto mee againe, and said, Goe, and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the Angel, which standeth vpon the sea, and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and said to him, Giue mee the little booke. And he said vnto mee, Take it, and eat it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall bee in thy mouth as sweet as hony.

10 Then I tooke the little booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as sweet as hony: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 8 And he said vnto mee, Thou must prophesie againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many Kings.

12 And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

13 And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

14 And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

15 And thus I saw the four horses in a vision, and them that sate on them, having fierce habergons, and of Iacynth, and of brimstone, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of Lyons: and out of their mouthes went forth fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

1 Now Saint John passeth vnto the other propheticall historie, which is of the Church of God, as I shewed that this booke should be distinguished, Chap. 4.

2 This storie reacheth hence vnto the two and twentieth Chapter. And this whole Chapter is but a transition from the common historie of the world, vnto that which is particular of the Church. There are in this transition two preparatives, as it were, vnto this Church historie comprised in this whole Chapter. One is the authoritie of Christ revealing his myserie, and calling his seruants vnto the seventh verse. The other is Saint Iohns calling, proper vnto this place, and repeated from before vnto the end of this chapter. Authoritie is giuen vnto this Revelation by the things First, the appearing from heauen in this habite and countenance, strong, ready, glorious, surveying all things by his prouidence and governing them by his omnipotence, verse the first. Secondly, that he brought downe from heauen, clothed with a cloud, and the rainebowe vpon his head, and his face was as the sunne, and his feete as pillars of fire.

2 And hee had in his hand a little booke open, and hee put his right foot vpon the sea, and his left on the earth.

3 And cried with a loud voyce, as when a lion roareth: and when hee had cried, seven thunders vttered their voyces.

4 And when the seven thunders had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, Seale vp those things which the seven thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I saw stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And swore by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things that therein are, 5 that a time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the 6 voyce of the seventh Angel, when hee shall begin to blow the trumpet, even the myserie of God shall be finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

The temple is commanded to be destroyed. 3 The Lord stirred up two witnesses, 7 whom he shall nourish there, 9 and no man hurteth them. 11 God raiseh them alive, 12 and calleth them up to heaven, 13 the wicked are terrified, 15 by the trumpet of the Jewish Angel the resurrection, 18 and judgement is decreed.

The authority of the intended revelation being declared, together with the necessity of the calling which was particularly implied upon Saint John: hereafter followeth the historie of the estate of

Then was given me a reede like unto a rod and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise and mete the Temple of God, and the Altar, and them that worship therein.

But the Court which is without the Temple I cast out, and mete it not, for it is given unto the Gentiles, and the holy cite shall they tread vnder foote, 2 two and fourtie Moneths.

But I will give power vnto my two witnesses. Christ his Church both confiding or warfaring, and overcoming in Christ. For both the true Church of Christ is said to fight which is ally to be called, over the which Antichrist ruleth, Christ leueth overthrowing Antichrist by the spirit of his mouth. And Christ is said to overcome most gloriously until he shall slay the Antichrist by the appearance of his coming, as the Apoll excellently teacheth, 2. Thess. 2. 8. So, this historie hath two parts: One of the state of the Church conflicting with temptations, vnto the 6. Chapter. The other of the state of the Church obtaining victory, these remaine to 10. Chapter. The first part hath two members most comonly distributed into the times, whereof the first concerneth an historie of the Christian Church to 1260. yeeres, what time the Gospel of Christ was it were taken vnto from amongst men into heauen; the second containeth an historie of the same Church vnto the victorie perfected. And these two members are briefly, though distinctly, propounded in this Chapter, but are both of them more at large discouered after in due order. For we vnderstand the state of the Church conflicting out of Chapters 12. and 13. and of the same growing out of afflictions, out of the 14. 15. and 16. Chapters. Neither did Saint Iohn vnawares ioyne together the historie of these two times in this Chapter, because here is spoken of prophesie, which all eoules to be but one iust and immutable in the Church, and which Christ commanded to be continual. The historie of the former time reacheth vnto the 14. verse: the latter is set downe in the rest of this Chapter. In the former are shewed these things the calling of the seruants of God in 4. verses: the conflicts which the Church must vndergoe in their calling, for Christ and his Church, thence vnto the 10. verse, and their resurrection and receiving vp into heauen vnto the 14. verse. In the calling of the seruants of God are mentioned two things: the begetting and setting of the Church in two verses, and the education thereof in two verses. The begetting of the Church is here commended vnto S. Iohn by signe and by speech: the signe is a measuring rod, and the speech a commandement to measure the Temple of God, that is, to reduce the same vnto a new forme: because the Gentiles are already entered into the Temple of Ierusalem, and shall shortly desile and ouerthrow the same vnto the 2. Either that of Ierusalem which was a figure of the Church of Christ, or that heavenly example, whereof verse 10. but the first liketh me better, and the things following doe all agree therunto. The Ierusalem therefore is, Thou seest all things in Gods house, almost from the pishon of Christ to be disordered: and that not onely the cite of Ierusalem but also the court of the Temple is hereby ordered: and the nations, and of prophane men which were Iewes or strangers: and that onely the Temple, that is, the body of the Temple, with the Altar, and a family company of good men which truly worship God, doe now remaine, whom God doth sanctifie and confirme by his presence. Measure therefore this, euen this true Church, or rather the true type of the true Church omitting the rest, and do describe all things from me that the true Church of Christ may be as it were a very little center, and the Church of Antichrist as the circle other center, euerie way in length and breadth compassing about the same, that by way of prophesie thou maist fo declare openly, that the state of the Temple of God and the faithful which worship him, that is, of the Church, is much more streight then the Church of Antichrist. 3 As if he should say, it belongeth nothing vnto thee, to iudge those which are without, 1 Cor. 15. 12. which bee innumerable: looke vnto those of the household only, or vnto those which are within God. 4 He speaketh of the people called the people, which because they were Iewes or strangers, but 6 That is counted to be call out, which in measuring is referred to prophesie. 4 To prophane persons wicked and vnbelievers, adversaries vnto the Church. 5 Or a thousand, two hundred and three score daies, as is said in the next verse: that is a thousand two hundred and threescor yeeres, a day for a yeere, as often in Ezechiel and Daniel, which thing I noted before to 2. The beginning of these thousand two hundred and threescor yeeres, we account from the passion of Christ, whereby (the partition wall being broken downe) we were made of one, Ephes. 2. 14. I say one flocke vnder one Shepherd, Iohn 10. 16 and the end of the yeeres precisely falleth into the Popedom of Boniface the eight, who a little before the end of the yeere of Christ a thousand two hundred threethie foure, entered the Popedom of Rome, in the said 5. Lucie (as Bergomensis faith) having put in persons his predecessors Cor. Anus, whom by fraud, vnder colour of sale, he deuoted: for which cause, that was well said of him, Inuenerunt eum, sed non eum, intrauit in eum, mortuus est ei cor. That is, he entered like a fox, rained like a Lyon, and died like a dogge. For if from a thousand two hundred threethie foure yeeres thou shalt take the age of Christ which he liued on the earth, thou shalt finde there remaineth 1260. yeeres, which are mentioned in this place and many others. 6 I had rather rather it should then illow, the Temple then the cite: for God faith, I will give that Temple, and commit it vnto my two witnesses, that is vnto the Ministers of the word, who are few indeed, weak and contemptible: but yettwee, that is, offish a number as one of them may helpe another, and one confirme the testimony of another vnto all men, this from the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be made good amongst men, 2 Cor. 13. 1.

nesses, and they shall prophesie a thousand two hundred and threescor daies clothed in sackcloth. 4 These are two olive trees, and two candlesticks, standing before the God of the earth.

And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouths, & deuoureth their enemies: for if any man would hurt them, thus must hee be killed.

These haue power to shut heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophesying, and haue power ouer waters to turne them into blood and to limate the earth with all manner plagues, as often as they will.

And when they haue 6 finished their testimony, 11 the beast that cometh out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall 12 ouercome them, and kill them.

And their corpses shall lie in the streets of the great cite, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, 14 where our Lord also was crucified.

And they of the people and kindreds, and tongues, and Gentiles, shall see their corpses 13 three dayes and an halfe, 14 and shall not suffer their carkeis to be put in graues.

And they that dwell vpon the earth, 16 shall reioice ouer them and be glad, and shall send gifts one to another, for these two Prophets 17 vexed them that dwell on the earth.

mightrily heing it telle forth in heauen, earth and the sea, verse 16 as it is described 2. Corinth. 10. according to the promise of Christ, Mark. 6. 17. And this is the second phase (as I said before) of the combats which the seruants of God must needs vndergoe in the executing of their calling, and of the things that follow the same combats. In the combats or conflicts are the e things: to ouercome, in these two verses to be overcome and killed by the fire. After the slaughter follow the things, that the carkeis of the goodly are laid abroad, verse 8. being vnto us, as if it were a matter of feare, together of cursing and bitter excommunications, ver. 9. and that the excommunications are publicly and privately made, verse 10. To this, when they haue pent their thousand two hundred and sixty yeeres, mentioned verse 2. and 3. in publishing their testimony according to their office. E Whithy haue done their mysses. 10 Of which altar, chap. 13. And that beak is the Roman Empire, made long agoe of euill, Ecclesiasticall: the chiefe head whereof was then Boniface the eight, as I said before: who lited vp himselfe in to great arrogancy (saith the author of Faciendum temporum) that he called himselfe Lord of the whole world, as well in temporal causes as in spiritual: There is an extant of that matter, written by the same Boniface most arrogantly, shall I say, or most wickedly, ca. romana sanctum, extra de maiestate & eleuatis; and in six of the Decretals (which is I am the same haue) many things are found of his maiesty. 11 Hee shall in the fourth mount euilly the holy men and parchem to death, that they would and pierce through with euillings both their names and writings. And that this was done to very many goodly men by Boniface and others, the histories do declare, especially since the time that the odious and condemned man amongst the multitude first of the brethren Waldenses or Lugdunenses, then also of the Fratelli, was pretended, that good men might with more approbation be massacred. 12 That is, openly at Rome: where at that time was a most great concoule of people, the yeere of Iubile being then first ordained by Boniface vnto the same eale, in the yeere of Christ a thousand three hundred, example whereof I read chap. 1. Extra de penitentibus & remissionibus. So by one ad he committed double iniury against Christ, both abolishing his truth by the restoring of the type of Iubile, and triumphing ouer his members most wickedly perdition. 13 Religious hate: Now that wee should vnderstand the things of Rome. Saint Iohn himselfe is the euilgout, both after in the fourteenth Chapter almost half throughout, and also in the circumstance now next following, when he faith, it is that great Cite (as Chap. 17. 18. here calleth) and is spiritually termed Sodom and Egypt: and that spiritually (for that must here againe be repeated from before) Christ was there crucified. For the two first appellations signifie spiritual wickednesse: the latter signifieth the shew and pretence of good, that is, of Christian and found religion, Sodom signifieth most licentious impiety and iniustice: Egypt most cruel persection of the people of God: and Ierusalem signifieth the most confident glorying of that cite, as it were in true religion being yett full of falsehood and vngodlike. Now who is ignorant that these things do rather, and more agree vnto Rome, then vnto any other cite? The commendations of the cite of Rome for many yeeres past, are publicly notorious, which are not for me to gather together. This only I will say that he long faile did very well for Rome, who taking his leave the first cryed these verses,

Roma oule, vidi, latui et vixidi: vixit et

Now farewell Rome, I haue thee leene: it was innoce to see:

I will returne when as I meane, baid, harlot, knaue to be.

After a most feruor of meeting and vnterstanding, 16. Namely in the members, as also he said vnto Saul, Acts 9. 15 That is, for three yeeres and a halfe, for so many yeeres Boniface liued after his Iubile, as Bergomensis witnesseth, 16 So much the more shall they by this occasion exercise the idly of their Iubile. 17 The Gospel of Christ, is the affliction of the world, and the misery thereof, the fauour of death vnto those that perish, 2 Cor. 13. 8.

there was added
this also as miraculous, that again, as from heaven, in the fight of all men. This head was Nero the Emperour, in whome the race of the Cæsars fell from the imperiall dignity, and the government of the Common weale was transfused unto others: in whose handes the Empe was to be cured and recovered vnto health, as hee seemed vnto all so much the more deeply rooted and grounded fast, then ever before. And hence followed those effects, which are next spoken of:

First an admiration of certaine power, as it were sacred and diuine, sustaining the Empire and governing it. Secondly the obedience and submission of the whole earth vnto this verie. Thirdly, the adoration of the Dragon, and most wicked worshiping of Beasts confered by the Romain Emperours: Lastly, the adoration of the beaft himselfe, which grew into so great estimation as that both the name and worship of God was given vnto him, verie the fourth. Now there were two causes which brought in the mindes of men this religion: the shewe of excellencie, which bringeth wicth reuerence; and the shewe of power inuincible, which bringeth feare. Who is like (say they) vnto the beaft? Who shall be able to fight with him? 9 The second member containing an historie of the actes of y^e beaft, as I haue verie. The historie of them is concluded in two points, the beginning and the manner of them. The beginning is the gift of the Dragon, who put and inspired into the beaft both his impiety against God, and his inuincible and iniustice against all men, especially against the godly and those that were of the household of faith, verie the first. The manner of the actes or actions done, is of two sortes, both impious in nature and sublimed in the eyes of the pagans. The first was that hee lye vnto the earth, and also most cruel and inhumane in deedes, even such as were done of all raging enemies, and of most insolent and proud conquerors, verie the fourth. 10 Namely his shewes and manner of dealing. As concerning those two and fourtie monthes, these spoken of them before in the twelfth Chapter and second verse. 11 That is, the holy Church, the true house of the liuing God.
12 That is, the godly in general who hid themselves from his cruelty. For this blondie beast furched those holy souls most falsly with innumerable accusations for the Name of Christ, as we read in Iustine Martyr. Tertullian. Arnobius.
Minutius, Eusebius, Angustinus, and others: which example the latter times followed most diligently, in detroying the flocke of Christ: and we in our owne memory haue found by experience, to our incredible griefe. Concerning heare, See the eleuenth Chapter, and the twelfth verse. 13 That is, such as are not from excluding themselves in Christ, as for this it is the Lambe slain of which Chapter the first verse speaketh. The wordes I do with these following in this manner: If these wordes are not written euen from the laying of the foundation of the world, in the look of life of the Lambe slain. And this diffinition is confirmed by a like place hereafter, chap. 7. 8. 14 The conclusion of this speech of the first beaft, consisting of two parts. An exhortation to attentive audience, in this verie: and a foretelling, which partly containeth threatening against the wicked, and partly comforts for those which in patience and faith shall waite for their glorious coming of our Lord and Saviour Christ, verie the tenth. Gen. 9. 6. mat. 26. 32.

6 like a leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a Lyon: 7 and the dragon gaue him his power and his throne, and great authority.

3 8 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, but his deadly wound was heale:
and all the world wondered and followed the beaft.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beaft, and they worshipped the beaft, saying, who is like vnto the beaft!
who is able to warre with him.

5 9 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that he spake great things & blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, 10 to doe two and fourtie monthes.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blasphemie his Name, and his tabernacle, 12 and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to ouercome them, and power was giuen vnto him ouer euery kinred, and tongue, and nation.

8 There ore all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worshipping him, 13 whose names are not written in the booke of life of that Lamb, who was slain from the beginning of the world.

9 14 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie he shall goe into captiuitie: 11 * if any kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: heere is the patience and the faith of the Saints,

11 15 And I behelde another beaft coming out of the earth, 16 which had two hornes like the Lambe, but he spake like the dragon.

12 17 And he did all that the first beaft could do before him, and he caused the earth, and them which dwelt therein, 18 to worshipping the first beaft, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 19 And hee did great wonders, so that hee made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men,

14 And decieued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to do in the sight of the beaft, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the 20 image of the 21 beaft, which had the wound of a sword, and did liue.

15 22 And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beaft, 23 so that the beast in this verie, thus his actes, is the veries following: and the whole speech is concluded in this verie. This beaft is by his deed a Sonne of the earth (as they say) colossary bone, and by little and little in creeping vnto of his abiectione, 16 that is, in the hee fumbled the Lamb (for what is more mild or more humble then to be the servant of be-lievers of God) but in deede hee played the part of the Dragon and of the Wolf, Mat. 23. 15. For euen Satan changed his hande into an Angel of light, 2 Cor. 11. 14. and what should his benefit disciples and servants doe? 17 The historie of the actes of this beaft, containeth in summe three things, hyperbolicke of wittall miracles, and tyrannic: of which the full is noted in this verie, the second in the 3 veries following: the third in the firste and tenth veries. His hyperbolicke is most full of leasg, whereby hee abused both the former beaft and the whole world: in hat abetted hee both by his cunning, as in every by time, made of the former beaft a most miserable ἀνθρώπου oration, viuped all his authority vnto himselfe and multiplying exerciteth the same in the sight and view of him: yet hee caried himselfe so, as if hee honour-d him with most high honour, and did in every truste cause him to be honoured of all men. 18 For vnto this beaft of Rome, which of a ciuill Empe is made an as he is belieued to be giuen diuine honours, and diuine authority: so farre as he is belieued to be giuen diuine Scriptures, which the globe vnto the Decretals declareth by this deathly verie.

Articulo solus, synchomque facit generale, Thasis,

He chngeth the Articles of faith, and giueth authori-tie to general Councils,

Which is spoken of the Papal power. Soche beaft is by birth, foundation, teate, and finally insatiable, ore: onely the Pope hath altered the forme and manner thereof, being himselfe the head both of that tyrannical Empire, and a foot the firste Prophets, for the Empe hath taken vnto himselfe, and thereunto hath added this conning denie. Now these wordes whose deadly wound was cured, are put here for diffinition sake, as also sometimes afterwarde: that euen at that time the godly readers of this prophetic might by this signe be taught to see the things as present as it were laid, that they might adoe this very Empe that now is, whose head was seene in our owne memorie to haue bene cut off, and to be cured again. 19 The second point of the things done by the beaft, is the credit of great wonders or miracles, appertaining to the length of this impiety: of which signes were giuen from above, as is laid, that fire was sent downe from heauen by fallible forerunners in this verie. Others were shewed here below in the sight of the beaft to establish idolatrie, and decieve souls, which parts Iohn lettereth forth, beginning (as they say) at that which is laid, in this manner: First the effect is declared in these wordes, he decieued the inhabitants of the earth. Secondly the common manner of working in two sortes, one of miracles, For the signs that were giuen him to do in the presence of the beaft: the other of the wordes added to figures, & teaching of idolatrie enforced by their signs, Saying vnto the inhabitants of the earth, that they should make an image vnto the beaft, which was dead. Thirdly, a special manner is declared:
quicken that the same both speaketh by his vnto those that doe not seeke counsell of all, and also pronounceth death against all those that doe not obey nor worshipping:
all which things offendments by fallacities through the procurement & inspiration of the Deuill, haue bin effected and wrought in images. The histories of the Popes are full of examples of such miracles, the most of them fained, many aldone by the deuil in images, as of old in the serpent, Gen. 3. 1. By which examples is confirmed, not the authority of the beaft, but the threat of God, & other prophetic. 20
That is, giueth by exchange or change of the number: for the worship of them euer since the second Council of Nice, hath bene ordained in the Church by pub-licke credite, & authorities contrary vnto the law of God. 21 In the Greeke the wordes of the Deuill case, as much to say, as vnto the worship, honour and obeying of the beaft: for by this maintenance of images, this vnto worshipper beaft doth truly profit in the beaft of Rome, of whom long agoe hee receiued them. Wherefore the same is hereafter verie fully called the image of the beaft, for that images haue their beginning from the beaft, and haue their forme from the beaft, and will of the beaft & haue their end and vie fixed in the profit & commoditie of the beaft.
22 And of this miracle of the image of the beaft (thatis which the beaft hath orde-nated to establish idolatrie) which miraculously speaketh & giueth judgment, or rather maraculously, by the brand of the false prophets the Papist bookes are full fraughted, a To giue life as lawer and lambs imitated by wonders that they wrought.

beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand.

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine, which is powdered into the cup of his wrath, and hee shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whoseuer receiue the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of Saints: here are they that keepe the commandmentes of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voice from heauen, saying vnto mee, Write, The dead which die in the Lord, are fully blessed. Euen so saith the Spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their works follow them.

14 ¶ And I looked, and behold, ¹⁰ a white cloud, and vpon the cloud one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, ¹¹ hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a ¹² sharpe sickle.

15 ¶ And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loud voyce to him that sat on the cloude, * Thrust in thy sickle and reape, for the time is come to reape: for the * harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And hee that sat on the cloude, thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 ¶ Then another Angel came out of the Temple, which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the altar, which had power ouer fire, and cryed with a loud cry to him that had the sharpe sickle, and sayd, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, and cut downe the vines of the vineyard of the earth, and cast them into that great winnereffe of the wrath of God.

20 And the winnereffe was troden without the citie, ¹⁵ and blood came out of the winnereffe vnto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and sixe hundred furlongs.

¶ I sawe and rebellious beast and his worshippers in the 15. and 16. chapters. That common kinde, is the calamitie of wraeth spread abroad through the whole earth, and filling all things with blood, and that without respect of any person. This is figured or shadowed out in two types, of the harvest and vintage. Since the time that the light of the Gospel began to shine out, and since prophesie was raised up againe, how horrible warres haue bene kindred in the world: how much humane flesh hath bene thrown to the earth by his diuine reaping? how much blood (alas for woe) hath ouerflown for these hundred yeeres almost! all histories decry our, and this one age (as it were) is now in horrow, by reason of the rage of that sickle which Antichrist callet forth. In this place is the first type, that is, of the harvest. 10 Declaring his fiercenesse by his colour, like vnto that which is in the white or milke cirke of heauen, & that is for the Lord. c By workers, is meant the reward which followeth good workers. 11 At one that shall reape that will, and occupie place of Christ in this miserable execution. 12 That is a most fit and commodious instrument of Execution, destroyed also by hewing and thrusting through, for who may stand against God? 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. Christ giueth a commandment in this place. And the Angel executeth it in the next verse. 21 The other type (as I sayde before 14.) is the vintage: the manner whereof is our with that which went before, if thou except this, that the grape gathering is more exact in seeking out every thing, then is the harvest labour. This is therefore a more grieuous iudgement, both because it succedeth the other, and because it is wider flood, to be executed with great diligence. 15 That is, in ouerflowed very deepe, and very large and wide: the speech is hyperbolical or excefsiue, to signifie the greatnesse of the slaughter. And these be the pleasant fruities for looth, of the contempt of Christ, and delisting of Antichrist rather than him, which the miserable, mad, and blinde would doth at this time reape.

CHAP. XV.

1 The seven Angels hauing the seven last plagues. 3 They then conquered the beast praye God. 6 To the seven Angels, 7 seven vials full of Gods wrath are deliuered.

¶ And I sawe another signe in heauen, great and maruelous, seven ² Angels hauing the seven last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 ¶ And I saw ⁴ as it were a glasie sea, mingled with fire, and ⁵ them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, ⁶ stand at the glasie sea, hauing the harpes of God.

3 And they sung ⁷ the song of Moses the ⁸ seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great and maruelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty: iust and true are thy ⁹ wayes, King of Saints.

4 * Who shall not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name! for thou only art holy, and all nations shall come and worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 ¶ And after that, I looked, and behold, the Temple of the tabernacle of Testimony was open in heauen.

6 And the seven Angels came out of the Temple, which had the ¹⁰ seven plagues, clothed in ¹¹ pure and bright linen, and hauing their breasts ¹² girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the ¹³ foure beasts gaue vnto the seven Angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God which liueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God & of his power, and ¹⁴ no man was able to enter into the Temple, til the seven plagues of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

God, vnto the 4. ver. another the vocation, institution, and confirmation of those iudgements which God hath ordained for the execution of his iudgements in 4. other verses. 4 This part of the vision alludeth vnto the sea or large vessel of braffe in which the Priests washed themselves in the entrance of the Temple: for in the entrance of the heavenly Temple (as it is called ver. 5.) is said to haue bene a sea of glasie, most lightsome and cleare, vnto the commoditie of chiefe mixt with fire, that is, as containing the treasure of the iudgements of God, which he bringeth forth & dispenteth according to his owne pleasure: for out of the former, the Priests were cleayed of old: & out of this the wngodly are destroyed now ch. 4. v. 5. That is the Godly manner of Christ, who shall not giue place euen in miracles vnto that beast: of these be before Chap. 13. 17. & 14. 9. 10. 6. Glorified God, from the particular obseruation of the weapons and instruments of Gods wrath, floating in the sea of glasie. 7 That song of triumph which is Exo. 15. 3. a Song of Moses and of the children of Israel, as it is first forth. Deut. 34. 10. 8 This song hath two parts, one a confession, but particular in this verse, and generally, in the beginning of the next verse: another, a narration of causes belonging to the confession, whereof one kind is eternall in it selfe, & most present vnto the godly in that God is both holy, & alone God, another kind is future and to come in that the eld taken out of the Gentiles (that is, out of the wicked ones and vbelieuing as Chap. 11. 2.) wereto be brought vnto the same fate of hapinesse, by the magnificence of the iudgement of God in the next verse. 9 Praise of 144, 17. b Thy domine. 9 Jer. 10. 7. 9 The second part of the narration (as was noted ver. 2.) wherein first the authoritie of the whole argument and matter thereof is figured by a foretelling type of a temple opened in heauen as Chap. 11. 19. namely that all those things are diuine and of God, that proceede from thence, in this verse. Secondly the administrators or executors, come forth out of the Temple, ver. 6. Thirdly, they are furnished with instruments of the iudgements of God, and weapons fit for the manner of the same iudgements, ver. 7. Finally, they are confirmed by testimonie of the visible glory of God, in the last verse. A like testimonie wherunto was exhibited of old in the law, Exo. 40. 34. 10 To that is, commandments to inflict those seven plagues. Here is the figure called Metonymia. 11 Which was in old time a figure of the kingly or princely dignitie. 12 That is, girding was a figure of diligence, & the girdle of gold was a figure of sincerity, and truthnes in taking in charge the commandmentes of God. 13 Of these before, Chap. 4. 7. 14 None of those seven Angels might returne, till he had performed fully the charge committed vnto him according to the decree of God.

CHAP. XVI.

¶ And 17 the Angels poure out the seven vials of Gods wrath giuen vnto them, and so diuers plagues arise in the world 18 to terrifie the wicked, 19 and them that dwell in the great citie.

Then

1 Now followeth the second part of the history propheticall as I said Chap. 1. and 11. of the four faces of the Church in newen after the last judgment, vnto the first verse of the next chapter, in this are two things briefly declared. The first, the situation, place or place thereof, verse 1. Then her state and condition is the vesties following. Before the state of the Church is described, is set down the state of the whole world, that there shal be a new heaven, and a new earth as Eys 6.7 and 66.12 and 12. Per. 3.2 and 13. This is the seat or place of the Church, in which rightness shall dwell.

* Eys. 65. 17 and 66. 22. Per. 3. 13.

2 The state of this glorious Church is first described generally, vnto the 8. versall then specially & by parts, in verses following. The generall description consisteth in a vision shewed a vision of, vers. 1. & in a speech spoken from heauen in the general the things are common, that the Church is holy, new, the workmanship of God, heavenly, most glorious, the spouse of Christ, and partaker of his glorie in this verse.

3 The Church is described by speech first of an Angel, then of God himselfe in verses. The Angels spoken describing the glory of the Church by the most familiar of cohabitation of God therewith, by communication of all manner good things according to the covenant, in this verse; & by removing or putting far away all euill things in the verse following. * Chap. 7. 12. & 13. & 14. In the speech of God himselfe describing the Church, is first a certaine exordium, or exortation, verse 5. Then followeth a magnificent description of the Church, by the present and future good things of the same, in 3. verses following. In the exordium God challengeeth to himselfe the restoring of all the creatures, of which verse 1. & witnesseth the calling of S. Iohn vnto the writing of these things, in this verse. * Eys. 44. 19. & 45. 17. * Chap. 7. 8. & 21. 13. 5 The description of the Church is of three sorts, by abolishing of old things by the being of present things in God, that is of things eternal; and by the communication of all good things with the godly, verse 8. If so be they shall bring manfully, verse 9. But the reprobate are excluded from thence, vers. 8. & 9. Then followeth a description of the Church, by a transition vnto the particular describing of the heavenly Church by the exordium calling of S. Iohn in this verse and his rapturing vp by the Spirit, in consecration of the church of God in the verse following. 7 Hee maketh the place and lively feast of the Church, shadowed out in a mountain. 8 A typical that Church which is one, ample, or Catholicke, holy celestiall, built of God, in this verse; and glorious in the verse following. This type propounded generally, is after particularly declared, verse 13. &c.

9 A particular description (as I noted, verse 3) of the celestiall Church. First, by the essentiall parts of the same, vnder the similitude of a citie to verse 13. Secondly, by certaine accidents, vnto the end of the chapter. Thirdly, by the effects, in the beginning of the next chapter, the essentiall parts are noted the matter and forme in the whole work: of these the superiories and foundation of the wall are entyre parts (as they vnto be called) which parts are first described in a figure, vnto the 14. ver. and afterward more exactly. To According to the number of the tribes, of which chap. 7. For here the outward part is attributed vnto the old Testament, and the foundation of the new Testament. Hee maketh the Prophets, who are the messengers of God, and watchmen of the Church.

And I saw a new heaven, and a new earth: for the first heaven, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I Iohn saw the holy citie new Hierusalem come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heauen, saying, Beholde, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shall be their God with them.

4 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, neither crying, neither shall there be any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that sate vpon the throne, said, Beholde, I make all things new: and he said vnto me, Write: for these things are faithful and true.

6 And he sayd vnto me, * I t is done, I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end: I will giue to him that is athirst, of the well of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh, shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and hee shall be my Sonne.

8 But the fearful, and vnbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, & all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come: I will shew thee the bride the Lambs wife.

10 And hee carried mee away in the spirit to a great and 17 an high mountain, and he shewed me that great citie, that holy Hierusalem, descending out of heauen from God.

11 Having the glory of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a cristal stone cleare as chrystall.

12 And had a great wall high as an hill, and had 12 twelve gates, and at the gates 12 twelve Angels, & the names written which are the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the East part there were three gates, and on the North side three gates, on the South side three gates, and on the West side three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had 12 twelve foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelve Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reede, to measure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay 4 square, and the length is as large as the breadth of it, and he measured the citie with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof an hundred forty and four cubits, by the measure of man, that is, of the 6 Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of iasper: and the citie was pure golde, like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was iasper: the second of Saphire: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emeraude:

20 The fifth of a Sardonie: the sixth of a Sardius: the seventh of a Chrysolite: the eighth of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaz: the tenth of a Chrysolite: the eleventh of a Iacynth: the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearles, and every gate was of one perle, and the street of the citie pure golde, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 And their citie hath no neede of the Sunne, neither of the Moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 And the people which are saved, shall walke in the light of it, and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour vnto it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut but by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glory and honour of the Gentiles shall be brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none vnclene thing, neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination or lies: but they which are written in the Lambes booke of life.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The river of water of life shewed, 2 and the tree of life: 6. 7 These followeth the conclusion of this prophesie, 8 where Iohn declareth, that the things therein contained are most true, 13 And now the first time repeateth the words, All things come from him, who is the beginning and the end.

And hee shewed me a pure river of water of life, cleare as chrystall, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe:

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river was the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and gaue fruit euery moneth: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale the nations with.

3 And there shall bee no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shall be in it, and his seruantes shall serue him.

The Church are these: the euertlasting grace of God in this verse, the eternall liuing of the godly as chap. 7. the eternall fruits wh. h. the godly bring forth vnto God, themselves & others ver. 2. freedom and immunity from all euill God himselfe taking pleasure in his seruantes, & they likewise in their God, ver. 3. The beholding and sight of God, & feeling of the faithfull from all euertlast, ver. 3. the light of God, and an euertlasting kingdom and glory, ver. 5.

13 That is, foundation stones, according to the number of the gates, as is shewed verse 19.

14 A transition vnto a more exquisite definition of the parts of the Church, by finding out the measure of the same by the Angel that measured them.

15 The measure and forme most equal in 2. verses, 6. A pure square figure hath equal sides, and euertlast, and is free from the Grosse: and by this figure things that are dead, and of continuance, and perfect.

16 He addeth this, because the Angel had the shape of a man.

17 The matter most precious and glittering which the presence of God maketh most glorious.

18 By this, 66. mentioneth the broad place of the citie, * Eys. 40. 19.

19 The second forme of particular description (as I said verse 12) forraigne and outward accidents: which are these, Light from God himselfe, in this verse: glory from men, verse 24. perfect eternitie from all karme, verse 25. Finally light truth and incorruption of glory, (ver. 25) as can beare and abide with it, nothing that is glorious, verse 26.

20 Here is folowed and finished the description of the celestiall Church (as I noted before chap. 3. 12. 13.) by the effects in 5. verses, and then this booke is concluded in the rest of the chapter. The effects proceeding from God, who dwelleth in the

* Ejai. 66. 19.

1 This whole booke is concluded and made vp, by a confirmation, and a salutation. The confirmation hath three places: The words of the Angel vnto the 15. verse, the words of Christ: vers. 16. 17. and the obtestation made by Saint Iohn from diuine authority, thence vnto the 20. verse. By the speech of the Angel: this prophesie is confirmed, vnto the 8. verse, and then he speaketh of the vfe of this booke in the verses following. The prophesie is hith confirmed by the Angel from the nature thereof, that it is infallible and true. Secondly from the nature of the efficacie cause, both principall which is God, and instrumentall, which is the Angel, in this verse. Thirdly, from the promises of God concerning his coming to effect all these things, and concerning our saluation, ver. 7. Fourthly, from the testification of S. Iohn himselfe, ver. 8. The rest of the speech of the Angel tending to the same end S. Iohn interrupted, or brake off by his vnadvised act of worshipping him, in the same verse, which the Angel forbidding, teacheth him that oration must be giuen onely to him, but onely to God: as for himselfe, that he is of such nature and office, as he may not be adored: which thing also was in like manner done, chap. 26. 10. * Chap. 19. 10. 3 The Angel returneth vnto his former speech: in which he teacheth the vfe of this booke, both towards our felicitie in this, and the next verse, and in respect of God for declaration of his truth, thence vnto the 15. verse. 4 That is, propound this prophesie openly vnto all, and conceale no part of it. The contrary whereunto is commended, Ejai. 8. 6. and Dan. 8. 26 5 An obiection preuented. But there will be some that will abuse this occasion vnto euill, and will wrest this Scripture vnto their own destruction, as Peter saith, What then? saith the Angel, the mysteries of God must not therefore be concealed, which it hath pleased him to communicate vnto vs. Let them be hurtfull vnto others, let such bee more and more vile in themselves, whom this Scripture doeth not please: yet others shall be further conformed thereby vnto righteousness, and true holinesse. The care and reformation of these may not be neglected, because of the voluntarie and malicious offence of others.

4 And they shall see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheades.

5 * And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the Sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 2 And hee said vnto mee, These wordes are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angell to shew vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is hee that keepeth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke.

8 And I am Iohn, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, * I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angell which shewed me these things.

9 But he said vnto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worship God.

10 3 And he said vnto me, 4 Seale not the wordes of the prophesie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 5 He that is vniust, let him be vniust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 6 And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, * to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they, that doe his Commandments, 7 that their right may be in the tree of life, & may enter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without these dogges and enchanters, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loueth or maketh lies.

16 8 I Iesus haue sent mine Angell, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the root and the generation of Dauid, and the bright morning Starre.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come: and let him that is athirst, come: and let whosoever will, take of the water of life freely.

18 9 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke, If any man shall add vnto these things, God shall add vnto him the plagues which are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the booke of this prophesie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, and from those things which are written in this booke.

20 10 He which testifieth these things, faith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Euen so, come Lord Iesus.

21 11 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ bee with you all, Amen.

12 6 And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, * to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they, that doe his Commandments, 7 that their right may be in the tree of life, & may enter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without these dogges and enchanters, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loueth or maketh lies.

16 8 I Iesus haue sent mine Angell, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the root and the generation of Dauid, and the bright morning Starre.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come: and let him that is athirst, come: and let whosoever will, take of the water of life freely.

18 9 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke, If any man shall add vnto these things, God shall add vnto him the plagues which are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the booke of this prophesie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, and from those things which are written in this booke.

20 10 He which testifieth these things, faith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Euen so, come Lord Iesus.

21 11 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ bee with you all, Amen.

25 15 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ bee with you all, Amen.

26 16 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ bee with you all, Amen.

27 17 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ bee with you all, Amen.

28 18 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ bee with you all, Amen.

Also (saith God by the Angel) though there should be no vfe of this booke vnto men: yet it shall be of this vfe vnto me, that it is a witness of my truth vnto my glory, who will come shortly to reigne and execute iust judgement, in this vessel who haue taught carnal these things haue their being in me, in the 13. verse, and haue denounced blessednesse vnto my seruants in my Church, verse 14. & reprobation vnto the vngodly, verse 15. * Rom. 2. 6. * Chap. 1. 8. and 21. 6. 16. 41. 44. and 44. 6. 7 The blessednesse of the godly, set downe by their title and interest thereunto & their fruit in the same, 8 The 2 place of confirmation (as I said verse 6) is the speech of Christ testifying the vocation of S. Iohn, and the authority of his calling and testimony, both from the condition of his owne person being God and man, in whom all the promises of God are Yea and Amen. 2 Cor. 12. 0. and also from the testification of other persons, by the acclamation of the holy Ghost, who here is at it were an honorable assisstant of the marriage of the Church as the spouse & of euery of the godly as members: and finally from the thing present, that of their owne knowledge & accord they are called forth vnto the participation of the good things of God, verse 17. * Ejai. 55. 2. 9 The obtestation of S. Iohn himselfe who by a most holy prayer, calleth Christ to take vengeance of them, verse 6. and is the end almost of euery Epistle, which we with vnto the Church, and to all the holy and elect members thereof in Christ Iesus our Lord, vntill his coming to iudgement, Come Lord Iesus and do it. Amen, againe Amen.

A brieft

A brieft Table of the interpretation of the proper names which are chiefly found in the Old Testament, where the first number signifieth the Chapter, the second the Verle.

WHereas the wickednesse of time, and the blindness of the former age hath bene such that all things altogether haue bene abused and corrupted, so that the very right names of diuers of the holy men named in the Scriptures, haue bene forgotten, and now seeme strange vnto vs, and the names of infants, that should euer haue some godly aduersements in them, and should be memorials and markes of the children of God receiued into his household, haue bene hereby also changed and made the signes and badges of idolatrie and heathenish impietie: we haue now set forth this Table of the Names that be most vsed in the Olde Testament, with their interpretations, as the Hebrew importeth, partly to call backe the godly from that abuse, when they shall knowe the true names of the godly Fathers, and what they signifie, that their children now named after them, may haue testimonies by their verie names, that they are within that faithfull familie, that wold their doings had euer God before their eyes, and that they are bound by these their names to serue God from their infancy, and haue occasion to praise him for his workes wrought in them, and their fathers, but chiefly to restore the names to their integritie, where by many places of the Scriptures and secret mysteries of the holy Ghost shall better be vnderstood. We haue medled rarely with the Greeke names, because their interpretation is vncertaine, and many of them are corrupted from their originall, as we may also see these Hebrew names set in the margin of this Table, which haue bene corrupted by the Grecians. Now for the other Hebrew names that are not here interpreted, let not the diligent Reader bee carefull: for hee shall finde them in places most conuenient amongst the annotations: at least for so many as may seeme to make for any edification, and vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

The Golden number.

THe Golden number is so called, because it was written in the Kalender with letters of Gold, right at that day whereon the Moone changed: and it is the space of 19. yeeres, in the which the Moone returneth to the selfe same day of the Sunne: and therefore it is also called the Cycle of the Moone, in the which the Solstices and Equinoxials doe returne to all one point in the Zodiacke.

To finde it every yeere, you must adde one yeere to the yeere of Christ (for Christ was borne one yeere of the 19. already past) then divide the whole by 19. and that which resteth, is the Golden number for that yeere: if there be no surpluse, it is then 19.

Note that the Golden number and Dominicall letter doeth change every yeere the first day of January. Note also that the yeere of our Lord beginneth the xxv. day of March, the same day supposed to be the first day upon which the world was created, and the day when Christ was conceived in the wombe of the Virgin Mary.

THE BOOKE OF COMMON

prayer, and adminstration of the Sacraments.

¶ The order where Morning and Euening prayer

(shall bee vied and sayd.)

¶ The Morning and Euening prayer shall be vsed in the accustomed place of the Church, Chappell, or Chancel, except it shall be otherwise determined by the Ordinarie of the place, and the Chancel: shall remaine as they haue done in times past.

¶ And here is to be noted, that the Minister at the time of the Communion, and as all other times, in his ministracion, shall vse such Ornaments in the Church, as were in vse by authoritie of Parliament, in the second yeere of the reigne of King Edward the sixth, according to the Act of Parliament, in that case made and provided.

¶ An order for Morning Prayer dayly throughout the yeere.

¶ At the beginning both of Morning prayer, and likewise of Euening prayer, the Minister (shall reade with a lowd voyce some one of these Sentences of the Scriptures that follow: And then hee shall say that which is written after the sayd sentences.

Exek. 18, 21
22.

A* what time soeuer a sinner doeth repent him of his sinne from the bottome of his heart, I will put all his wickednesse out of my remembrance, saith the Lord.

* I doe know mine owne wickednesse, and my sionne is alway against me.

Psal. 51, 3.

* Turne thy face away from our sinnes (O Lord) and blot out all our offences.

Psal. 51, 9.

* A sorrowfull spirit is a sacrifice to God: despoile not (O Lord) humble and contrite hearts.

Psal. 51, 17.

* Rent your hearts and not your garments, and turne to the Lord your God, because he is gentle and mercifull, he is patient, and of much mercie, and such a one that is sorry for thy afflictions.

Isa. 2, 13.

* To thee (O Lord God) belongeth mercie and forgiveness, for we haue gone away from thee, and haue not hearkened to thy voice, whereby we might walke in thy Lawes which thou hast appointed for vs.

Dan. 9, 9, 10.

* Correct vs (O Lord) and yet in thy iudgement: not in thy fury, lest wee should bee consumed and brought to nothing.

Isa. 10, 24.

* Amend your liues, for the kingdome of God is at hand.

Psal. 6, 1.

* I will goe to my father, and say to him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen and against thee: I am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

Matth. 3, 2.

* Enter not into iudgement with thy seruants, O Lord: for no flesh is righteous in thy sight.

Luke 15, 18, 39.

* If we say that we haue no sinne, wee decciue our selues: and there is no truth in vs.

1. Ioh. 1, 4, 3.
1. Ioh. 1, 8.

Dearely beloued brethren the Scripture moueth vs in sundry places, to acknowledge and confesse our manifold sins and wickednes, and that we should not dissemble nor make the before the face Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confesse them with an humble, lowly, penitent and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same by his infinite goodnesse & mercy. And although we ought at a times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble & meet together, to render thanks for his great benefites that we haue receiued at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to heare his most holy word, and to aske those things that be requisite & necessary, as well for the body as the soule. Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as be here present, to accompany mee with a pure heart and humble voice vnto the Throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me,

¶ A general confession to bee said of the whole Congregation after the Minister kneeling.

Almighty and most mercifull Father, wee haue erred & strayed from thy waies like lost sheepe: wee haue followed too much the deuires and desires of our owne hearts: wee haue offended against thy holy Lawes: wee haue left vndone those things which wee ought to haue done, and wee haue done those things which we ought not to haue done: and there is no health in vs: but thou, O Lord, haue mercy vpon vs miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faults: Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared vnto mankind in Christ Iesu our Lord: and grant, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter liue a godly, righteous and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The absolution or remission of sinnes to be pronounced by the Minister alone.

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which desirest not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turne from his wickednes, and liue, and hath giuen power and commandement to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people being penitent, the absolution and remission of their finnes, hee pardoneth and absolveth all them which truly repent, and vnfeignedly beleue his holy Gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant vs true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we doe at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternall ioy, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

The people shall answer,

Amen.

Then shall the Minister begin the Lords prayer with a lowd voyce.

Our Father which art in Heauen, halowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heauen. Giue vs this day our dayly bread. And forgive vs our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against vs. And lead vs not into temptation. But deliue vs from euill. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answer,

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praye.

Minister,

O God make speede to saue vs.

Answer,

O Lord make haste to helpe vs.

Minister,

Glory be to the Father, and to the &c.

A

Praise

Prayse yee the Lord,

¶ Then shall be said or sung this Psalm following.

O Come, let vs sing vnto the Lord: let vs heartily reioyce in the strength of our saluation, Let vs come before his presence with thankiuing: and shew our selues glad in him with Psalmes.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great King aboue all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hilles is his alfo.

The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the drie land.

O come, let vs worship and fall down: and kneele before the Lord our maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his hands.

To day if wee will hear his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness.

When your father tempted me: prouoed mee, and saw my works.

Fortie yeeres long was I grieved with this generation, & said: it is a people that doe erre in their hearts, for they haue not known my wayes.

Vnto whom I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning is now, &c.

¶ Then shall follow certaine Psalmes in order as they bee accepted in a Table made for that purpose excepted therbe proper Psalmes appointed for the day, And at the end of euery Psalm throughout the yeere, and likewise in the end of Benedicite, Benedicite, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis shall be repeated.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Then shall be read two Lessons distinctly with aloud voyce, that the people may heare. The first of the old Testament, the second of the New, like as they bee appointed in the Kalender, except there bee proper Lessons assigned for that day: the Minister that readeth the Lesson, standing, and turning himselfe, as he may best be heard of all such as be present. And before euery Lesson, the Minister shall say thus, The first, second, third, or fourth Chapter of Genesis, or Exodus, Matthew, Marke, or other like, as is appointed in the Kalender. And in the end of euery Chapter, he shall say, Here endeth such a Chapter of such a Booke.

And (to the end the people may the better heare) in such places where they doe sing, there shall the Lessons be sung in a plaine tune, after the manner of disputation reading, and likewise the Epistle and Gospel.

After the first Lesson, shall follow Te Deum laudamus in English daily through the whole yeere.

WE prayse thee, O God: we knowledge thee to be the Lord.

All y^e earth doth worship thee: y^e Father euertlasting. To thee all Angels cry aloud: the heauens and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin & Seraphin: continually do cry. Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabboth. Heauen & earth are full of the Maiesie of thy glory. The glorious company of the Apostles: praise thee. The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: praise thee. The uoble army of Martyrs: praise thee. The holy Church throughout all the world: doth knowledge thee.

The Father: of an infinite maiesie.

Thy honourable: true, and onely Sonne,

Allo the holy Ghost: the Comforter.

Thou art the King of glory: O Christ,

Thou art the euertlasting Sonne: of the Father.

When thou tookest vpon thee to deliuer man: thou diddest not abhorre the Virgins wombe.

When thou hadst ouercome the sharpnesse of death: thou didst open the kingdome of heauen to all beleeuers.

Thou sittest on the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father.

We beleue that thou shalt come: to be our Iudge. We therefore pray thee helpe thy seruants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbred with thy Saints: in glory euertlasting.

O Lord saue thy people: and blesse thine heritage. Gouerne them: and lift them vp for euer.

Day by day: we magnifie thee.

And we worship thy Name: euert world wout end. Vouchsafe, O Lord: to keepe vs this day without sinne.

O Lord haue mercy vpon vs: haue mercie vpon vs.

O Lord let thy mercy lighten vpon vs: as our trust is in thee.

O Lord in thee haue I trusted: let me neuer be confounded.

Or this Canticle, Benedicite omnia opera Domini.

O All ye workes of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and magnifie him for euer.

O ye Angels of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and magnifie him for euer.

O ye mountaines and hilles, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and magnifie him for euer.

O all ye greene things vpon the earth, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and magnifie him for euer.

O ye welles, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and magnifie him for euer.

O ye seas and floods, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and magnifie him for euer.

O ye whales, and all that moue in the waters, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and magnifie him for euer.

O all ye foules of the aire, blesse ye the Lord : praise him, and magnifie him for euer.
 O all ye beasts and cattell, blesse ye the Lord : praise him, and magnifie him for euer.
 O ye children of men, blesse ye the Lord : praise him and magnifie him for euer
 O let Israel blesse the Lord : praise him and magnifie him for euer.
 O ye Bricks of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord : praise him, and magnifie him for euer.
 O ye seruants of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord : praise him, and magnifie him for euer.
 O ye spirits and soules of the righteous, blesse ye the Lord : praise him, and magnifie him for euer.
 O ye holy and humble men of heart, blesse ye the Lord : praise him, and magnifie him for euer.
 O Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, blesse ye the Lord : praise him, and magnifie him for euer.

And after the second Lesson, shall be used and said Benedictus Dominus Deus Israel, in English, as followeth.

Benedictus, Lutke 1. 68.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel : for he hath visited and redeemed his people.
 And hath raised vp a mighty saluation for vs : in the house of his seruant Dauid.
 As hee spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets : which haue been since the world began.
 That we should be saved from our enemies : and from the hands of all that hate vs.
 To performe the mercie promised to our forefathers : and to remember his holy couenant.
 To performe the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham : that he would giue vs.
 That wee, being deliuered out of the hands of our enemies : might serue him without feare.
 In holinesse and righteousnesse before him : all the dayes of our life.
 And thou child shalt be called the Prophet of the highest : for thou shalt goe before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes.
 To giue knowledge of saluation vnto his people : for the remission of their finnes.
 Through the tender mercie of our God : whereby the day spring from an high hath visited vs.
 To giue light to them that sit in darkenesse : and in the shadow of death : and to guide our feete into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.
 As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Or this C. Psalme. Iubilate.

Iubilate Deo.

O Be ioyfull in the Lord, all ye lands : serue the Lord with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a Song.
 Be ye sure that the Lord hee is God : it is hee that hath made vs, and not we our selues, we are his people and the sheepe of his pasture.
 O goe your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise : bee thankfull vnto him, and speake good of his Name.
 For the Lord is gracious, his mercie is euermore lasting : & his truth endureth from generation to generation.
 Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.
 As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

This shall be said the Creed by the Minister and the people, standing.

I beleue in God the Father Almighty, maker of heauen and earth And in Iesus Christ his only Son our Lord, which was conceived by the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgin Mary, suffered vnder Ponce Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, he descended into hell, the third day he rose againe from the dead, he ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence shall he come to iudge the quick and the dead, I beleue in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholike Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of finnes, the resurrection of the body, and the life euermore lasting, Amen.

And after that these prayers following, as well at Evening prayer, as at morning prayer, all devoutly kneeling. The Minister first pronouncing with a lowde voyce.
 The Lord be with you.

Answer.

And with thy spirit.

Minister.

¶ Let vs pray.

Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

Christ haue mercie vpon vs.

Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

Then the Minister, Clerkes, and people shall say the Lords prayer in English, with a lowd voyce.

Our Father which art in heauen, &c.

Then the Minister standing vp shall say.

O Lord shew thy mercie vpon vs.

Answer.

And grant vs thy saluation.

Minister.

O Lord saue the King.

Answer.

And mercifully heare vs when we call vpon thee.

Minister.

Endue thy Ministers with righteousness.

Answer.

And make thy chosen people ioyfull.

Minister.

O Lord saue thy people.

Answer.

And blesse thine inheritance.

Minister.

Giue peace in our time, O Lord.

Answer.

Because there is none other that fighteth for vs, but onely thou, O God.

Minister.

O God make cleane our hearts within vs.

Answer.

And take not thine holy Spirit from vs.

Then shall follow three Collects. The first of the day, which shall be the same that is appointed at the Communion. The second, for peace. The third, for grace to liue well. And the two last Collects shall neuer altar, but daily be said at Morning prayer, throughout all the yeere as followeth.

The second Collect for peace.

O God which art author of peace, & loue of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternall life, whose seruice is perfect freedome : defend vs thy humble seruants in all assaults of our enemies, that we surely trusting in thy defence, may not lose the power of any aduersaries, through the might of Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

The third Collect for grace.

O Lord our heauenly Father, Almighty and euermore lasting God, which hast safely brought vs to the beginning of this day, defend vs in the same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sinne, neither runne into any kind of danger, but that all our doings may be ordered by thy gouernance, to doe alwayes that is righteous in thy sight, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

¶ An order for Euening prayer throughout the whole yeere.

Then shall the Minister say.

Vr Father which art in Heauen, &c.

Then likewise he shall say.

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answer.

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Minister.

G, God make speede to saue vs.

Answer.

O Lord make haste to helpe vs.

Minister.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Prayle ye the Lord.

Then Psalmes in order as they be appointed in the Table for Psalms, except there be proper Psalms appointed for that day. Then a Lesson of the Olde Testament, as it is appointed likewise in the Kalender, except there be proper Lesson: appointed for that day. After that Magnificat in English, as followeth.

MY soule doth magnifie the Lord: and my spirit hath reioyced in God my Sauour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his handmaiden.

For behod from hencefoorth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holily is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that feare him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arme: hee hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hart.

Hee hath put downe the mighty from their seate: and hath exalted the humble and meeke.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

Heremembring his mercie, hath holpen his seruante Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham, and his seed for euer.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne: and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and euer shall be: world without end.

Or the 98. Psalm.

O Sing vnto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marueilous things.

With his own right hand, and with his holy arme: hath he gotten himselfe the victory.

The Lord declared his saluation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

He hath remembered his mercie and trueth toward the house of Israel: and all the ends of the world haue seen the saluation of our God.

Shew your selues ioyfull vnto the Lord all ye lands: sing, reioyce and giue thanks.

Prayle the Lord vpon the harpe: sing to the harpe with a Psalme of thanksgiving.

With trumpets also and Shawmes: O shew your selues ioyfull before the Lord the King.

Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world and they that dwell therein.

Let the floods clap their hands and let the hills be ioyfull together before the Lord: for hee is come to iudge the earth.

With righteousness shall he iudge the world: and the people with equity.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Then a Lesson of the new Testament, and after that Nunc dimittis in English, as followeth.

Lord now lettest thou thy seruant depart in peace:

For mine eyes haue seen: thy saluation.

Which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people.

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to bee the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Or this Psalme.

God be merciful vnto vs, and blesse vs: and shew vs the light of his countenance, and be merciful vnto vs.

That thy way may be knownen vpon the earth: thy sauing health among all nations.

Let the people prayse thee, O God: yea, let all the people prayse thee.

O let the nations reioyce & be glad: for thou shalt iudge the folke righteously, and gouerne the nations vpon earth.

Let the people prayse thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, euen our owne God shall giue vs his blessing.

God shall blesse vs: and all the ends of the world shall feare him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Then shall follow the Creede, with other prayers as it before appointed at Morning prayer after Benediculus, and with three Collects: First, o the day: Second, for peace. Third, for ayde against all perils, as hereafter followeth, which two last Collects shall bee daily sayd, at Euening prayer without alteration.

The second Collect at Euening prayer.

O God from whom all ioy desies, all good conuulsions and all iust workes doe proceed: giue vnto thy seruants that peace which the world cannot giue that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments and also that by thee, wee being defended from the feare of our enemies, may passe our time in rest and quietnes, through the merits of Iesus Christ our Sauour, Amen.

The third Collect for ayde against all perils.

Lighten our darkenesse, wee beseech thee, O Lord, and by thy great mercie defend vs from all perils and dangers of this night, for the loue of thy only Sonne our Sauour Iesus Christ, Amen.

In the feasts of Christmas, the Epiphanie, S. Matthias, Easter, the Ascension, Pentecost, S. Iohn Baptiste, S. James, S. Bartholomew, S. Matthew, S. Simon, and Iude, S. Andrew, and Trinitie Sunday, shall bee sung or sayd vnto diuinity after Benediculus, the confession of our Christian faith.

Whofoeuer will be faued: before all things it is neceffary that he hold the Catholike faith.

Which faith except eury one doe keepe holy and vndefiled: without doubt he fhall periff euerlaftingly.

And the Catholike faith is this: that wee worfhip one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Vnity.

Neither confounding the perfons: nor diuiding the fubftance.

For there is one perfon of the Father, another of the Sonne; and another of the holy Ghoft.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghoft, is all one: the glory equal, the Maiefty coeternall.

Such as the Father is, fuch is the Sonne: and fuch is the holy Ghoft.

The Father vncreate, the Sonne vncreate: and the holy Ghoft vncreate.

The Father incomprehensible, the Sonne incomprehensible: and the holy Ghoft incomprehensible.

The Father eternall, the Sonne eternall: and the holy Ghoft eternall.

And yet they are not three eternals: but one eternal.

As alfo there be not three incomprehensibles, nor three vncreated: but one vncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewife the Father is Almighty, the Sonne Almighty: and the holy Ghoft Almighty.

And yet they are not three Almighties: but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Sonne is God: and the holy Ghoft is God.

And yet they are not three Gods: but one God.

So likewife the Father is Lord, the Sonne Lord: and the holy Ghoft Lord.

And yet not three Lords: but one Lord.

For like as we be compelled by the Chriftian verity: to acknowledge eury perfon by himfelfe to be God and Lord.

So are we forbidden by the Catholike Religion: to fay there be three Gods or three Lords.

The Father is made of none: neither created nor begotten.

The Sonne is of the Father alone: not made, nor created, but begotten.

The holy Ghoft is of the Father, & of the Son: neither made nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers, one Son, not three Sons: one holy Ghoft, not three holy Ghofts.

And in this Trinitie none is afore or after other, none is greater or leffe than another.

But the whole three perfons be coeternal together: and eoequal.

So that in all things as is aforefaid: the Vnity in Trinity, & the Trinity in Vnity is to be worfhipped.

Hetherfore that will be faued: muft thus thinke of the Trinitie.

Furthermore it is neceffary to euerlafting faluation: that he alfo beleue rightly in the incarnation of our Lord Iefus Chrift.

For the right faith is, that we beleue and confeffe that our Lord Iefus Chrift, the Sonne of God, is God and man.

God of the fubftance of the Father, begotten before the worlds: and man of the fubftance of his mother, borne in the world.

Perfe& God and perfe& man of a reafonable foule: and humane flefh fubftanting.

Equall to the Father as touching the Godhead: and inferiour to the Father touching his manhood.

Who although he be God and man: yet he is not two, but one Chrift.

One, not by conuerfion of the Godhead into flefh; but by taking of the manhood into God.

One altogether, not by confufion of fubftance: but by vnyty of perfon.

For as the reafonable foule and flefh is one man: fo God and man is one Chrift.

Who fuffered for our faluation, defcended into heil: rofe againe the third day from the dead.

Hee afcended into heaven, hee fiteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almighty: from whence he fhall come to iudge the quicke and the dead.

At whofe coming all men fhall rife againe with their bodie: and fhall giue account for their own works.

And they that haue done good fhall go into life euerlafting: and they that haue done euill, into euerlafting fire.

This is the Catholike faith, which except a man beleue faithfully, he cannot be faued.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Thus endeth the order of Morning and Evening prayer throughout the whole yeere.

Here followeth the Letany, to be ufed vpon Sundayer, Wedneſdayes, and Fridayer, and at other times: when it fhall be commaunded by the Ordinary.

O God the Father of heauen: haue mercie vpon vs miſerable finners.

O God the Father of heauen, &c.

O God the Sonne redeemer of the world: haue mercie vpon vs miſerable finners.

O God the Sonne, &c.

O God the holy Ghoft, proceeding from the Father and the Son: haue mercie vpon vs miſerable finners.

O God the holy Ghoft, &c.

O holy, bleſſed and glorious Trinitie, three perfons and one God: haue mercie vpon vs miſerable finners.

O holy, bleſſed, and glorious Trinitie, &c.

Remember not Lord our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeance of our finnes: ſpare vs good Lord, ſpare thy people whom thou haſt redeemed with thy moſt precious blood, and be not angry with vs for euer.

Spare vs good Lord.

From all euill and miſchiefe, from finne, from the crafts and aſaunts of the deuill, from thy wrath, and from euerlaſting damnation.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

From all blindneſſe of heart, from pride, vaine glory, and hypocriſie, from enuie, hatred, and malice, and all vncharitable ſſe.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

From fornication, and all other deadly ſin, & from all the deceits of the world, the fleſh and the deuill.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

From lightning and tempeſt, from plague, peſtilence and famine, from battell, and murder, and from ſudden death.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

From all ſedition and priuie conſpiracie, from all falſe doctrine and hereſie from hardneſſe of heart, and contempt of thy word and commandement.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

By the myſtery of thy holy incarnation: by thy holy natiuity and circumciſion, by thy Baptiſme, faſting and temptation.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

By thine agony and bloody ſweate, by thy croſſe and paſſion, by thy precious death and buriall, by thy glorious glorious resurrection and ascension, and by the coming of the holy Ghost,

Good Lord deliver vs.

In all time of our tribulation, in all time of our wealth, in the hour of death, & in the day of judgement,

Good Lord deliver vs.

We sinners doe beseech thee to heare vs (O Lord God) and that it may please thee to rule and gouerne thy holy Church vniuersally in the right way.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

That it may please thee to keepe and strengthen in the true worshipping of thee, in righteousnesse and holinesse of life, thy seruant Iames our most gracious King and Gouvernour.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to rule his heart in thy faith, feare and loue, and that hee may euermore haue assistance in thee, and euer seeke thy honour and glory.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to be his defender and keeper, giuing him the victory ouer all his enemies.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to blesse and preserue our gracious Queene Anne, Prince Charles, Fredericke the Prince Elector Palatine, and the Lady Elizabeth his wife.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, Pastors and ministers of the Church, with true knowledge and vnderstanding of thy word, and that both by their preaching and liuing, they may set it forth and shew it accordingly.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to endue the Lords of the Counsell, and all the Nobilitie, with grace, wisdom, and vnderstanding.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to blesse and keepe the Magistrates, giuing them grace to execute iustice, and to maintaine troeth;

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to blesse and keepe all thy people.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to giue to all nations vniuersal peace and concord.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to giue vs an heart to loue and dread thee, and diligently to liue after thy Commandements.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to giue to all thy people increase of grace, to heare merckly thy word, and to receiue it with pure affection, and to bring forth the fruits of the Spirit.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to bring into the way of truth, all such as haue erred and are deceived.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to strengthen such as doe stand, and to comfort and helpe the weake hearted, and to raile vp them that fall, & finally to beat down Satan vnder our feete.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to succour, helpe and comfort all that be in danger, necessitie and tribulation.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to preserue all that trauell by land or by water, all women labouring of child, afflicted persons and yong children, and to shew thy pitie vpon all prisoners and captiues.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

That it may please thee to defend and prouide for the fatherlesse children and widows, and all that be desolate and oppressed.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to haue mercy vpon all men.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to forgie our enemies persecuters and slanderers, and to turne their hearts.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to giue and preserue to our vse the kindly fruits of the earth, so as in due time we may enioy them.

We beseech thee, &c.

That it may please thee to giue vs true repentance, to forgie vs all our sins, negligences and ignorances, and to endue vs with the grace of thy holy Spirit to amend our liues according to thy holy word.

We beseech thee, &c.

Sonne of God: we beseech thee to heare vs.

Sonne of God we beseech thee to heare vs.

Neither reward vs after our iniquities.

¶ Let vs pray.

O God merci vll Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowfull, mercifully assist our prayers y we make before thee in all our troubles and aduersities, whensoever they oppress vs: and graciously heare vs, that these euils which the craft & subtilty of the deuil, or man worketh ag ainst vs, be brought to nought, & by the prouidence of thy goodnesse they may be dispersed, that we thy seruants being hurt by no persecutions, may euermore giue thanks vnto thee in thy holy Church, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

O Lord arise, helpe vs, and deliuer vs for thy Names sake.

O God, we haue heard with our eares, & our fathers haue declared vnto vs the noble work that thou didst in their dayes, and in the old time before them.

O Lord arise, helpe vs, and deliuer vs for thine honour.

As we doe put our truſt in thee.

¶ Let vs pray.

W E humbly beſeech thee, O Father, mercifully to looke vpon our inſinities, and for the glory of thy Names ſake, turne from vs all thoſe euils, that wee moſt righteouſly haue deſerued: and graunt that in all our troubles wee may put our whole truſt and confidence in thy mercie, & euermore ſerue thee in holineſſe and pureneſſe of liuing, to thy honour and glory, through our only Mediatour and Aduocate Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

A prayer for the Kings Maieſtie.

O Lord our heavenly Father high & mighty, King of kings, Lord of lords, the only ruler of princes, which doelt from thy throne behold all the dwellers vpon earth, moſt heartily we beſeech thee with thy fauour to behold our moſt gracious ſouereigne lord King Iames, and to replemiſh him with the grace of thy holy Spirit: that he may alway incline to thy will and walke in thy way, endue him plentifully with heauenly gifts, grant him in health and wealch long to liue, ſtrengthen him, that he may vanquiſh and overcome all his enemies, and finally after this life, he may attaine euerlaſting ioy and felicitie, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

A prayer for the Queene and Prince, and other the King and Queenes children.

Almighty God, which haſt promiſed to be a Father of chine elect, and of their ſeed, we humbly beſeech thee to bleſſe our gracious Queene Anne, Prince Charles, Frederike the Prince Elektor Palatine, and the Lady Elizabeth his wife: endue them with thy holy Spirit, enrich them with thy heauenly grace, proſper them with all happineſſe, and bring them to chine euerlaſting kingdome, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

Almighty & euerlaſting God, which only workeſt great maruells, ſend down vpo our Biſhops and Curats, & all Congregacions committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace, & that they may truly pleaſe thee, powre vpon them the continual dew of thy bleſſing: grant this (O Lord) for the honour of our Aduocate and Mediator Ieſus Chriſt, Amen.

A prayer of Chryſoſtome.

Almighty God, which haſt giuen vs grace at this time with one accord, to make our common ſuplications vnto thee: & doelt promiſe that when two or three be gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requiſts: fulfill now, O Lord, the deſires and petitions of thy ſeruants, as may be moſt expedient for them, granting vs in this world knowledge of thy trueth, and in the world to come liue euerlaſting.

The grace of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, and the loue of God, and the ſellowſhip of the holy Ghoſt, be with vs all euermore. Amen.

¶ For Raine, if the time require.

O God heavenly Father, which by thy Son Ieſus Chriſt haſt promiſed to al them ſeeke thy kingdome & the righteouſnes therof, al things neceſſary to their bodily ſuſtenance, ſend vs we beſeech thee, in this our neceſſity, ſuch moderate raine & ſhowres, that we may receiue the fruits of the earth to our comfort, & to thy honour, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

For ſure weather.

O Lord God which for the ſinne of man diſt once drown all the world, except eight perſons, & afterwards of thy great mercie diſt promiſe neuer to deſtroy it ſo again: we humbly beſeech thee, that although we for our iniquities haue worthily deſerued this plague of raine and waters, yet vpon our true repentance thou wilt ſend vs ſuch weather, whereby we may receiue the fruits of the earth in due ſeaſon, and learne both by thy puniſhment to amend our liues, and for thy clemencie to giue thee praiſe and glory, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

In the time of dearth and famine.

O God heavenly Father, whole giſt it is that the raine doth fall, the earth is fruitful, beaſts increaſe, & ſiſhes do multiply: behold we beſeech thee, the afflictions of thy people, and grant that the ſcarcity, and dearth (which we doe now moſt iuſtly iuſter for our inquiry) may through thy goodneſſe be mercifully turned into cheapneſſe and plenty, for the loue of Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, to whom with thee and the holy Ghoſt, be praiſe for euer, Amen.

In the time of warre.

O Almighty God, King of all kings, and gouernor of all things, whole power no creature is able to reſiſt, to whom it belongeth iuſtly to puniſh ſinners, and to be merciful vnto them that truly repent: I ſue and deliuer vs (wee humbly beſeech thee) from the hands of our enemies, abate their pride, allwaie their malice, and conſound their deuices, that we being armed with thy defence, may bee preſerued euermore from all perils, to gloriſie thee which art the onely giuer of all victory, through the merits of thy onely Sonne Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

In the time of any common plague, or ſickneſſe.

O Almighty God, which in thy wrath in the time of king David, diſt ſlay with the plague of peſtilence threeſcore and ten thouſand, & yet remembering thy mercy diſt ſaue the reſt: haue pity vpon vs miſerable ſinners, that now are viſited with great ſickneſſe and mortality, that like as thou diſt then commaund thine Angel to ceſſe from puniſhing, ſo it may now pleaſe thee to withdraw from vs this plague & grievous ſickneſſe, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

O God, whole nature and property is euer to haue mercie and to forgiue, receiue our humble petitions: and though wee be tied and bound with the chaine of our ſinnes, yet let the pitifulnes of thy great mercie looſe vs, for the honour of Ieſus Chriſts ſake, our Mediatour and Aduocate, Amen.

O God our heavenly Father, who by thy gracious providence doelt cauſe the former & the later raine to deſcend vpon the earth, that it may bring forth fruit for the vie of man: wee giue thee humble thanks, that it hath pleaſed thee in our greateſt neceſſity, to ſend vs at the laſt a ioyfull raine vpon thine inheritance, and to reſreſh it when it was drie, to the great comfort of vs thy vnworthy ſeruants, and to the glory of thy holy Name, through thy mercies in Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

A thankſgiving for ſaue weather.

O Lord God, who haſt iuſtly humbled vs by thy late plague of immoderate raine and waters, and in thy mercie haſt relieved and comforted our ſoules by this ſeaſonable and bleſſed change of weather, wee praiſe and gloriſie thy holy Name for this thy mercie, and will alwaies declare thy louing kindneſſe from generation to generation, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

A thankſgiving for plenty.

O Moſt Merciful Father, which of thy gracious goodneſſe haſt heard the deuout prayers of thy Church, & turned our dearth & ſcarcity, into cheapneſſe and plenty: Wee giue thee humble thanks for this thy ſpecial bounty, beſeeching thee to continue this this thy louing kindeſſe vnto vs, that our land may yeeld vs her fruits of increaſe, to thy glory and our comfort, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

¶ A thankſgiving for peace and victorie.

O Almighty God, which art a ſtrong tower of de-lence vnto thy ſeruants, againſt the face of their enemies: we yeeld thee praife and thankſgiving for our deliuerance from theſe great and apparant dangers, wherewith we were compaſſed: we acknowledge at thy goodneſſe, that we were not deliuered ouer as a pray vnto them, beſeeching thee ſtil to continue ſuch thy mercie toward vs, that all the world may know that thou art our Sauour and mighty Deliuereſer, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

¶ A thankſgiving for deliuerance from the plague.

O Lord God, which haſt wounded vs for our ſins and conſumed vs for our tranſgreſſions by thy late heauy and dreadful viſitation, and now in the midſt of iudgement remembering mercie, haſt redeemed our ſoules from the lawes of death: we offer vnto thy fatherly goodneſſe, our ſelues, our ſoules and bodies, which thou haſt deliuered, to be a liuing ſacrifice vnto thee, alwayes praifing and magnifying thy mercies in the middeſt of the congregation, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

Or this.

WE humbly acknowledge before thee (O moſt mercifull Father) that all the puniſhments which are threatned in the Law, might iuſtly haue fallen vpon vs, by reaſon of our manifold tranſgreſſions and hardneſſe of heart: yet ſeeing it hath pleaſed thee of thy tender mercy, vpon our weake and vnwor-thy humiliation, to aſſwage the noyſome peſtilence, wherewith we lately haue been ſore: ſſified, & to re-ſtore the voice of ioy & health into our dwelling, We offer vnto thy diuine Maieſty the ſacrifice of praye and thankſgiving, lauding and magnifying thy glorious Name for ſuch thy preſeruation and providence ouer vs, through Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, Amen.

The order for the administration of the Lords Supper, or holy Communion.

Om any as intend to be partakers of the holy Communion, shall signify their names to the Curate ouer night, or else in the morning before the beginning of Morning prayer, or immediately after.

And if any of those be an open and notorious swilluer, so that the Congregation by him is offended, or haue done any wrong to his neighbours by word or deed: the Curate hauing knowledge thereof, shall call him, and aduertise him in any wise, not to presume to the Lords Table, untill he haue openly declared himselfe to haue truly repented and amended his former naughty life, that the Congregation may thereby bee satisfied, which afore were offended, and that he haue recompensed the parties whom he hath done wrong vnto, or at the least, declare himselfe to be in full purpose so to doe, as soone as he conveniently may.

The same order shall the Curate vse with those betwixt whom he perceiveth malice and hatred to reigne, not suffering them to be partakers of the Lords Table, untill he know them to be reconciled, and if one of the parties be at variance, bee content to forgive from the bottome of his heart, all that the other hath trespassed against him, and to make amends for that he himselfe hath offended, and the other partie will not be persuaded to a godly unity, but remaine still in his forwardnesse and malice: the Minister in that case ought to admit the penitent person to the holy Communion, and not him that is obstinate.

The Table at the Communion time, hauing a faire whitelinnen cloth vpon it, shall stand in the body of the Church, or in the Chancel, where Morning and Evening prayer be appointed to be said, And the Priest standing at the North side of the Table, shall say the Lords prayer, with this Collect following,

The Communion.

Imighty God, vnto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidde, cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy holy Spirit, that wee may perfectly loue thee, and worthy magnifie thy holy

Name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister rebearse distinctly all the tenne
Commandements, and the people kneeling, shall after euery Commandement, aske Gods mercy, for their transgressions of the same, after this sort.

Minister.

God spake these words and said, I am the Lord thy God, thou shalt haue none other Gods but mee.

People.

People.
Lord haue mercy vpon vs, and write all these thy Lawes in our hearts, wee beseech thee.

¶ Then shall follow the Collect of the day, with one of these two Collects following for the King, the Minister standing vp, and saying.

¶ Let vs pray.
Almighty God, whose kingdom is euerlasting and power infinite, haue mercy vpon the whole Congregation, & for rule the heart of thy chosen seruants lames, our king and gouernour, that he (knowing whose minister he is) may aboue all things lecke thy honour and glory, and that he his subiects (duly considering whose authoritie he hath) may faithfully serue, honor, and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed word & ordinance, through Iesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the holy Ghost, liueth and reigne, euer one God world without end, Amen.

Almighty and euerlasting God, we be taught by thy holy word, that the hearts of kings are in thy rule & gouernance, and thou dost despise & turne them as it seemeth best to thy godly wisdom: wee humbly beseech thee, to dispose and gouerne the heart of lames thy seruant our King and gouernour, that in all his thoughts, words and works, he may euer seeke by honour and glory, and study to preferre thy people committed to his charge, in wealth, peace, and godlinesse: Grant this O merciful Father, for thy deare Sonnes sake Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Immediately after the Collects, the ministers shall read the Epistle, beginning thus.

The Epistle written in this Chapter of

¶ And the Epistle ended, he shall say the Gospel, beginning thus

The Gospel written in the Chapter of

¶ And the Epistle and Gospel being ended, shall bee said the Creed.

I beleue in one God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible, and invisible: and in one Lord Iesus Christ, the only begotten Sonne of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made, who forvs man, and for our saluation, came downe from heaven and was incarnate by the holy Ghost of the Virgine Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for vs vnder Pontius Pilate. Hee suffered and was buried, & the third day he rose againe according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come againe with glory to iudge both the quicke and the dead: whose kingdom shall haue none end. And I beleue in the holy Ghost the Lord and giuer of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Sonne, who with the Father and the Sonne together is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the Prophets. And I beleue one Catholike and Apostolike Church. I acknowledge one Baptisme for the remission of sinnes And I looke for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

After the Creed, if there be no Sermon, shall follow one of the Homilies already set forth, or hereafter to be set forth by common authority.

After such Sermon Homily, or exhortation, the Curate shall declare vnto the people, whether there be any holy daies or fasting daies the week following, and earnestly exhort them to remember the poore, saying or one more of these sentences following, as he thinketh most convenient by his discretion.

tences following, as he thinketh most convenient by his discretion.

* Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorifie your Father which is in heauen.

Mat. 5. 16.

* Lay not vp for your selues treasure vpon the earth where the rust and moth doth corrupt, and where theues breake through and steale: but lay vp for your selues treasure in heauen, where neither rust nor moth doth corrupt, and where theues do not breake thorow and steale.

Matth. 6. 19. 20.

* Whatsoeuer ye would that men should doe vnto you, euen so do vnto them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

Matth. 7. 12

* Not euery one that saith vnto mee, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heauen: but hee that doeth the will of my Father which is in heauen.

Matth. 7. 21.

* Zache stood forth and said vnto the Lord, Behold I Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore, and if I haue done any wrong to any man, I restore foure folde.

Luke 19. 8.

* Who goeth a warfare at any time of his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? Or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

1. Cor. 9. 7.

* If we haue sowne vnto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reape your worldly things?

1. Cor. 9. 11.

* Doe ye not know that they which minister about holy things, liue of the sacrifice? and they which wait of the altar, are partakers with the altar? Euen so hath the Lord also ordeined, that they which preach the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel.

1. Cor. 9. 13. 14.

* He that soweth little, shall reape little: and he that soweth plenteously, shall reape plenteously. Let euery man doe according as he is disposed in his heart, not grudging, or of necessity, for God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

2. Cor. 9. 6. 7.

* Let him that is taught in the word, minister vnto him that teacheth, in all good things. Be not deceived, God is not mocked: For whatsoeuer a man soweth that shall he reape.

Gal. 6. 6. 7.

* While we haue time, let vs do good vnto al men, & specially vnto the which are of the household of faith.

Gal. 6. 10.

* Godlines is great riches, if a man be content with that he hath: for we brought nothing into the world, neither may we cary any thing out.

1. Tim. 6. 6. 7

* Charge them which are rich in this world, that they be ready to giue, and glad to distribute, laying vp in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may attaine eternall life.

1. Tim. 6. 17. 18. and 19.

* God is not vnrighteous, that he wil forget your works, and labor that proceedeth of loue: which loue ye haue shewed for his Names sake, which haue ministered vnto the Saints, and yet doe minister.

Heb. 6. 10.

* To do good and to distribute: to forget not, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

Heb. 13. 1. 6.

* Who so hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shuteth vp his compassion from him: how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

1. Joh. 3. 17.

* Giue almes of thy goods, and turne neuer thy face from any poore man: and then the face of the Lord shall not be turned away from thee.

Tob. 4. 7.

* Be mercifull as thy power. If thou hast much, giue plenteously. If thou hast little, doe thy diligence gladiely: to giue of that little: for so gatherest thou thy selfe a good reward in the day of necessity.

Tob. 4. 8. 9.

* Hee that hath pittie vpon the poore, lendeth vnto the Lord: and looke what he layeth out, it shall be paid him againe.

Prou. 19. 17.

* Blessed is the man that provideth for the sick and needy: the Lord shall deliuer him in the time of trouble.

T/ sal. 41. 1.

¶ Then shall the Churchwardens, or some other by them appointed, gather the donation of the people, and put the same into the poore man's box, and vpon the offering dayes appointed, every man and woman shall pay to the Curate, the due and accustomed offerings. After which done the Priest shall say,

¶ Let vs pray for the whole state of Christs Church militant here in earth,

If there be no almes given to the poore, then shall the words (of accepting our almes) be left out vsaid.

Almighty and euersubduing God, which by thy holy Apostles haue taught vs to make prayers and supplications, and to giue thanks for all men: we humbly beseech thee most mercifully (to accept our almes and) to receiue these our prayers, which we offer vnto thy diuine Maiestie, beseeching thee to inspire continually the vniuersall Church with the spirit of truth, vntity and concord: & grant that all they that do confess thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy word, and liue in vntity and godly loue. We beseech thee also to saue and defend all Christian kings, princes, and gouernours, and specially thy seruant Iames our King, that vnder him we may be godly and quietly gouerned: and grant vnto his whole counsell, and to all that be put in authority vnder him, that they may truly and indifferently minister iustice, to the punishment of wickednes and vice, and to maintenance of Gods true Religion and vertue. Giue grace (O heauenly Father) to all Bishops, Pastors, and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and liuely word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy sacraments: and to all thy people: giue thy heauenly grace, and specially to this congregation here present, that with meek heart and due reuerence, they may here and receiue thy holy word, truly seruing thee in holinesse and righteousnesse all the dayes of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodness. O Lord, to comfort and succour all them which in this transitory life be in trouble, sorrow, need, sicknesse, or any other aduersitie: grant this, O Father, for Iesus Christs sake our onely Mediatour and Advocate Amen.

¶ Then shall follow this exhortation at certaine times, when the Curate shall see the people negligent to come to the holy Communion.

Wecome together at this time (dearely beloved brethren) to feed at the Lords Supper, vnto the which in Gods behalfe I bid you all that be here present, and beseech you for the Lords Iesus Christs sake, that ye will not refuse to come thereto, being so lovingly called and bidden of God himselfe. Ye know how grievous and vnkinde a thing it is, when a man hath prepared a rich feast, decked his table with all kinde of prouision, so that there lacketh nothing but the guests to sit downe, and yet they which bee called (without any cause) most vnthankfully refuse to come. Which of you in such a case would not be moued? Who would not thinke a great iniury & wrong done vnto him? Wherefore most dearely beloved in Christ, take ye good heed, lest ye withdrawing your selues from this holy Supper prouoke Gods indignation against you. It is an easie matter for a man to say, I will not communicate, because I am otherwise letted with worldly businesse: but such excuses bee not so easily accepted and allowed before God. If any man say, I am a grieuous sinner, and therefore am afraid to come: Wherefore then doe ye not repent and amend? When God callteth you, be you not ashamed to say, you will not come? When you should returne to God, will you excuse your selfe, and say that you be not ready? Consider earnestly with your selues, how little such fained excuses shall auail before God. They that refused the feast in the Gospel, because they had bought a Farme, or would try their yokes of oxen, or because they were married, were not so excused, but counted vnworthy of the heauenly feast. I for my part am here present, and according to mine office, I bid you in the Name of God, I call you in Christs behalfe, I exhort you as you loue your own saluacion, that ye will be partakers of this holy Communion. And as the Sonne of God did vouchsafe to yeele vp his soule by death vpon the Crosse for your health: euen so it is your duty to receiue the Communion together in the remembrance of his death, as hee himselfe commanded. Now if you will in no wise thus do, consider with your selues how great iniury you doe vnto God, and how fore punishment hangeth ouer your heads for the same. And whereas you offend God so fore in refusing this holy banquet: I admonish, exhort and beseech you, that vnto this vnkindnesse ye will not add any more: which thing ye shall doe, if ye stand by as gazers and lookers on them that doe communicate, and bee not partakers of the same your selues. For what thing can this be accounted else, then a further contempt, and vnkindnesse vnto God? Truly it is a great vnthankfulness to lay nay, when ye be called: but the fault is much greater, when men stand by and yet will neither eat nor drinke this holy Communion with other. I pray you what can this bee else but euen to haue the mysteries of Christ in derision? It is said vnto all, Take ye, and eate, take and drinke ye all of this, doe this in remembrance of me. With what face then, or with what countenance shall ye heare these words? What will this be else, but a neglecting, a despising, and mocking of the Testament of Christ? Wherefore rather then ye should so do, depart you hence, and giue place to them that be godly disposed. But when you depart, I beseech you ynderstand with your selues from whom you depart. Ye depart from the Lords Table, ye depart from your brethren, and from the banquet of most heauenly foodes. These things if ye earnestly consider, ye shall by Gods grace returne to a better mind. For the obtaining whereof we shall make our humble petitions, while we shall receiue the holy Communion.

¶ And sometime shall this be said also, at the discretion of the Curate.

Dearely beloved, so far as our duty is to render to Almighty God our heauenly Father, most hearty thanks, for that hee hath giuen his Sonne our Sauiour Iesus Christ, not only to die for vs, but also to be our spiritual food and sustenance, as it is declared vnto vs, as wel by Gods word, as by the holy Sacraments of his blest body & blood, the which being so comfortable a thing to them which receiue it worthily, & so dangerous to them if we presume to receiue it vnworthily. My duty is to exhort you to consider the dignity of the holy mystery, & the great peril of the vnworthy receiuing thereof, and so to search & examine your own consciences as you should come holy and cleane to a most godly & heauenly Feast, so that in no wise you come but in the marriage garment: required of God in holy Scripture, and so come & be receiued, as worthy partakers of such an heauenly table, the way & meanes thereto, is: First to examine your liues and conuersation, by the rule of Gods commandments, and when in fewer ye shall perceiue your selues to haue offended, either by will, word, or dede, there bewaile your owne sinfull liues, and confesse your selues to Almighty God, with full purpose of amendment of life. And if ye shall perceiue your offences to be such, as be not only against God, but also against your neighbors: then ye shall reconcile your selues, felues vnto them, ready to make restitution and satisfaction, according to the vttermost of your powers, for all iniuries and wrongs done by you to any other, and likewise being ready to forgive other that haue offended you as you would haue forgiveness of your offence at Gods hand: For otherwise the receiving of the holy Communion, doth nothing else but encrease your damnation. And because it is requisite that no man should come to the holy Communion, but with a full trust in Gods mercy, and with a quiet conscience: therefore if there be any of you, which by the meanes afore said, cannot quiet his owne conscience, but requireth further comfort or counsell, then let him come to me, or some other discreet and learned Minister of Gods word, and open his griefe, that he may receive such godly counsel, aduise and comfort, as his conscience may be relieved, and that by the ministry of Gods word he may receive comfort, and the benefite of absolution, to the quiting of his conscience, and auoyding of all scruple and doubtfulness.

Dearely beloued in the Lord, ye f^r mind to come to the holy Communion of the body & blood of our Sauour Christ, must consider what Saint Paul writeth to f^r Corinth aⁿ, how he exhorteth all persons diligently to try & examine themselves, before they presume to eate of that bread, and drinke of that cup. For as the benefite is great, if with a true penitent heart & liuely faith we receive that holy Sacrament: (For then we spiritually eate the flesh of Christ, and drinke his blood, then we dwell in Christ, and Christ in vs: we be one with Christ, and Christ with vs:) So is the danger great, if we receive the same vnworthily. For then we be guilty of f^r body & blood of Christ our Sauour, we eat and drinke our owne damnation, not considering the Lords body: We kindle Gods wrath against vs: we prouoke him to plague vs with diuers diseases, and sundry kindes of death. Therefore if any of you be a blasphemer of God, an hinderer or slanderer of his word, an adulterer, or be in malice, or enuie, or in any other grieuous crime, be wailer your sin, and come not to this holy Table, lest after the taking of f^r holy Sacrament, the deuil enter into you, as he entered into Iudas, & fil you full of all iniquities, and bring you to destruction both of body & soule, Iudge therefore your felues (brethren) that ye be not iudged of the Lord. Repent you truly for your sins past: haue a liuely and steadfast faith in Christ our Sauour. Amend your liues, & be in perfect charity with all men: so that you be meet partakers of those holy mysteries. And about all things, ye must giue most humble and hearty thanks to God the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost, for the redemption of f^r world by the death & passion of our Sauour Christ both God and man, who did humble himselfe vnto the death vpon the crosse for vs miserable sinners, which lay in darkness and shadow of death, that he might make vs the children of God, and exalt vs to everlasting life: And to the end that we should aⁿ way merite the exceeding great loue of our master and onely Sauour Iesus Christ, thus dying for vs, & the innumerable benefites which by his precious blood shedding he hath obtained to vs: he hath instituted an ordained holy mysteries, as pledges of his loue, & continual remembrance of his death, to our great & endless comfort. To him therefore with the Father & the holy Ghost let vs giue (as we are most bounden) continual thanks, submitting our felues wholly to his holy will and pleasure, and studying to serue him in true holiness and righteousness all the daies of our life. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say vnto them that come to receive the holy Communion.

You that doe truly & earnestly repent you of your finnes & be in loue and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from hence forth in his holy wayes: draw neere, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort, make ye our humble confession to Almighty God, before this congregation: here gather ed together in his holy Name, meekely kneeling vpon your knees.

¶ Then shall this generall confession be made in the name of all those that are minded to receive the holy Communion, either by one of them, or else by the Minister himselfe, all kneeling humbly vpon their knees.

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Iesus Christ maker of all things, Iudge of all men, we know ledge and bewaile our manifold sins and wickednes, which we fro time to time most grievously haue committed, by thought, word and deed, against thy diuine Maiesty: prouoking most iustly thy wrath and indignation against vs: we doe earnestly repent, and bee heartily sorry for these our misdoings: there is remembrance of them is grievous vnto vs: the burthen of them is intollerable. Haue mercy vpon vs, haue mercy vpon vs, most mercifull Father, for thy Sonne our Lord Iesus Christs sake, forgiue vs all that is past, and grant that we may euer hereafter serue and please thee in newnes of life, to the honour and glory of thy Name through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister, or the B(b)ishop (being present) stand up, and turning himselfe to the people, say thus.

Almighty God our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of finnes, to all them which with hearty repentance and true faith turne vnto him: haue mercy vpon you, pardon and deliuer you from all your finnes, confirme and strengthen you in all goodnesse, and bring you to everlasting life, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Minister also say.

Here what comfortable words our Sauour Christ saith to all that truly turne to him.

* Come vnto me all ye that trauaile, and be heauy laden, and I will refresh you. * So God loued the world, that he gaue his onely begotten Sonne, so that ead that al that beleue in him should not perish, but haue life euerl sting.

Heare also what S. Paul saith.

* This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Iesus Christ came into the world to saue sinners.

Here also what S. Iohn saith.

* If any man sinne we haue an aduocate with the Father, Iesus Christ the righteous, and hee is the propitiation for our finnes.

¶ After which the Minister shall proceede, saying, Lift vp your hearts.

Answer.
We lift them vp vnto the Lord.

Minister.
Let vs giue thanks vnto our Lord God.

Answer.

Mat. 11. 28.
Iohn 3. 16.

1. Tim. 1. 15.

1. Ioh. 2. 1, 2

Answer.

It is meet and right for us to doe.

Minister.

It is very meete, right, and our bounden duty that we should at all times, and in all places giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty euertlasting God.

¶ Here shall follow the proper Preface, according to the times, if there be any specially appointed: or else immediately shall follow. Thereto with Angels, and Archangels, &c.

¶ Proper prefaces.

Vpon Christmas day and seven dayes after.

BEcause thou diddest giue Iesus Christ thine only Sonne to bee borne as this day for vs, who by the operation of the Holy Ghost was made very man, of the substance of the Virgin Mary his Mother, and that without spot of sinne, to make vs cleane from all sin, Therefore with Angels, &c.

Vpon Easter day and seven dayes after.

BUt chiefly are we bound to praise thee for the glorious resurrection of thy Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord: for he is the very Paschall Lambe, which was offered for vs, and hath taken away the sinne of the world, who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life againe, hath restored to vs euertlasting life, Therefore with Angels, &c.

Vpon Ascension day and seven dayes after.

THrough thy most deare beloved Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord, who after his most glorious resurrection openly appeared to all his Apostles, and in their sight ascended vp into heauen, to prepare a place for vs, that where he is, thither might we also ascend, and reigne with him in glory. Therefore, &c.

Vpon Whitsunday and sixe dayes after.

THrough Iesus Christ our Lord, according to whose most iuste promise the holy Ghost came down this day from heaue, with a sudden great sound as it had bene a mighty wind, in the likeness of fiery tongues lighting vpon the Apostles, to teach them, and to lead them to all truth, giuing them both the gift of diuers languages, and also boldnes with feruent zeale constantly to preach the Gospel vnto all nations, whereby we are brought out of darkness and error, into the cleare light, and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Sonne Iesus Christ. Therefore, &c.

Vpon the Feast of Trinity onely.

IT is very meete, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places giue thanks to thee, O Lord Almighty, & euertlasting God, which art one God, one Lord, not one only person, but three persons in one substance. For that which we beleue of the glory of the Father, the same we beleue of the Sonne and of the holy Ghost, without any difference or inequality. Therefore with Angels, &c.

After which Prefaces shall follow immediately.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heauen, we laud and magnifie thy glorious Name, euermore praying thee, and saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts. Heauen and earth are full of thy glory. Glory beo thee, O Lord most High.

¶ Then shall the Minister kneeling downe at Godsbord, say in the name of all them that shall receive the Communion, this prayer following.

WE doe not presume to come to this thy Table, (O merciful Lord) trulling in our owne righteousnesse, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We bee not worthy so much as to gather vp the crumbs vnder thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whole property is alway to haue mercy: grant vs therefore gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy deare Sonne Iesus Christ, and to drinke his blood, that our sinfull bodies may be made cleane by his body, and our soules washed through his most precious blood, and that we may euermore dwell in him, and he in vs. Amen.

Then the Minister standing vp shall say as followeth.

Almighty God our heavenly Father, which of thy tender mercy didst giue thine only Son Iesus Christ, to suffer death vpon the crosse for our redemption who made there (by his one oblation of himselfe once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the finnes of the whole world, and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command vs to continue a perpetuall memory of that his precious death, vntill his coming againe, Heare vs, O mercifull Father, we beseech thee, and grant that we receiuing thesely creatures of bread and wine, according to thy Sonne our Sauour Iesus Christs holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed body & blood, who in the same night that he was betrayed tooke bread, and when hee had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat this is my body which is giuen for you, doe this in remembrance of me. Likewise after Supper he tooke the cup, and when hee had giuen thanks, he gaue it to them, saying, Drinke ye al of this, for this is my blood of the new Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for remission of finnes: doe this as oft as yee shall drinke it, in remembrance of me.

¶ Then shall the Minister first receive the Communion in both kinds himselfe, and next deliuer it to the other Ministers (if any be there present) that they may heape the chiefe Minister, and after to the people in their hands, kneeling. And when he deliuereth the bread he shall say.

The body of our Lord Iesus Christ, which was giuen for thee, preserve thy body and soule into euertlasting life: and take and eat this in remembrance that Christ dyed for thee, and feed on him in thine heart by faith with thank giuing.

¶ And the Minister that deliuereth the cup, shall say.

The blood of our Lord Iesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soule into euertlasting life: and drinke this in remembrance that Christs blood was shed for thee and be thankfull.

¶ Then shall the Minister say the Lords prayer, the people repeating after him every petition. After shall bee said as followeth.

O Lord and heavenly Father, wee thy humble seruants entirely desire thy Fatherly goodness, mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise & thank giuing most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the merits and death of thy Sonne Iesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and all thy whole Church may obtaine remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present vnto thee, O Lord, our selues, our soules, and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and liuely sacrifice vnto thee, humbly beseeching thee, that all wee which bee partakers of this holy Communion, may bee filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction. And although we be vnworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer vnto thee any sacrifice: yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and seruice, not weighing our merites, but pardoning our offences, through Iesus Christ our Lord, by whom and with whom, in the vnticity of the holy Ghost, all honour and glory be vnto thee, O Father Almighty, world without ende. Amen.

Or this.

Almighty and euertlasting God, we most heartily thanke thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed vs, which haue duely receiued these holy Mysteries, with the spiritual foode of the most precious body and blood of thy Sonne our Saviour Iesus Christ, and dost assure vs thereby of thy fauour and goodnesse towards vs, & that we be very members in corporate in the mystical body, which is the blessed company of all faithful people, and bee also heires through hope of thy euertlasting kingdom, by the merites of the most precious death and passion of thy deare Sonne: wee now most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, to assist vs with thy grace, & wee may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for vs to walke in, through Iesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without ende, Amen.

¶ Then shall be said or sung.

Glorie bee to God on high, and in earth peace, good will toward men. We praise thee, we blisse thee, we worship thee, we glorifie thee, we giue thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God heavenly King, God the Father Almighty, O Lord the only begotten Sonne Iesus Christ, O Lord God, Lambe of God, Sonne of the Father, that takest away the sinnes of the world haue mercie vpon vs. Thou that takest away the sinnes of the world, haue mercie vpon vs. Thou that takest away the sinnes of the world, receive our prayers, Thou that sitest at the right hand of God the Father, haue mercy vpon vs: for thou only art holy thou only art the Lord, thou only O Christ, with the holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father, Amen.

¶ Then the Minister or the Bishop, if he be present, shall let them depart with this blessing.

The peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, keepe your hearts and minds in the knowledge and loue of God, and of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost be amongst you, and remaine with you alwayes, Amen.

Vpon the holy dayes (if there be no Communion) shall be said all that is appointed at the Communion, vntill the end of the Homily, concluding with the generall prayer (for the whole estate of Christs Church militant here in earth) and one or more of these Collects before rehearsed, as occasion shall serue.

And there shall be no celebration of the Lords Supper, except there be a good number to Communicate with the Minister according to his discretion.

And if there be not aboue twentie persons in the parish of discretion to receive the Communion, yet there shall be no Communion, except foure or v. rece at the least Communicate with the Minister.

And in Cathedrall or Collegiat Churches, where be many Ministers and Deacons, they shall all receive the Communion with the Minister euer Sunday at the least, except they haue a reasonable cause to the contrary.

And to take away the superstition which any person hath or might haue in the Bread and Wine: it shall suffice that the Bread be such as is vsuall to be eaten at the Table with other meates, but the best and purest wheat Bread that conveniently may be gotten. And if any of the Bread or Wine remaine, the Curate shall haue it to his owne vse.

For Bread and Wine for the Communion, shall be provided by the Curate and Churchwardens, at the charges of the Parish, and the Parish shall be discharged of such summes of money or other duties, which hitherto they haue payed for the same by order of their houses euer Sunday.

And note that euer Parishioner shall Communicate at the least thre times in the yere, of which Easter to bee one, and shall also receive the Sacraments, and other Rites, according to the order in this Booke appointed. And yearly at Easter euer Parishioner shall reckon with his Parson, Vicar, or Curate, or his or their Deputie or Deputies, and pay to them or him all Ecclesiasticall duties, accustomedly due then and at that time to be payed.

¶ Collects to be said after the Offertory, when there is no Communion, euer such day one. And the same may be said also as o't as occasion shall serue, after the Collects either of Morning and Evening prayer, Communion, or Lectury, by the discretion of the Minister.

Assist vs mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of thy seruants toward the attainment of euertlasting saluation, that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may euer bee defended by thy most gracious and ready helpe, through Christ our Lord, Amen.

O Almighty Lord and euertlasting God, vouchsafe we beseech thee, to direct, sanctifie, and gouerne, both our hearts and bodies in the wayes of thy lawes, and in the workes of thy commandements, that through thy most mighty protection, both here and euer, we may be preserved in body and soule, through our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ, Amen.

Grant wee beseech thee Almighty God, that the words which wee haue heard this day with our outward eares, may through thy grace bee so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in vs the fruit of good liuing, to the honour and praise of thy Name, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Preuent vs, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious fauour, and further vs with thy continual helpe, that in all our workes begun, continued and ended in thee, wee may glorifie thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercie obtaine euertlasting life, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Almighty God & fountaines of all wisdom, which knowest our necessities before we aske, and our ignorance in asking, we beseech thee to haue compassion vpon our infirmities, and those things which for our vnworthinesse wee dare not, and for our blindness wee cannot aske, vouchsafe to giue vs for the worthinesse of thy son Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Almighty God, which hast promised to heare the petitions of them that aske in thy Sonnes Name, we beseech thee mercifully to incline thine eares to vs, that haue made now our prayers & supplications vnto thee, and grant that those things which we haue faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the reliefe of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

The administration of Baptisme to be vsed in the Church.

IT appeareth by ancient writers that the Sacrament of Baptisme in the old time was not commonly vsused, but at two times in the yeare. At Easter and Whitsonside. At which times it was openly vsused in the presence of all the Congregation: Which custome now being grown out of vs (although it cannot for many considerations bee well restored againe) it is thought good to follow the same, as nere as conueniently may be. Wherefore the people are to be admonished, that it is most conuenient that Baptisme should not bee vsused but upon Sundayes and other holy dayes, when the most number of people may come together, as well for that the Congregation there present may reioyce the receiving of them that be newly baptized into the number of Christs Church, as also because the Baptisme of Infants, euery man present may be put in remembrance of his owne profession made to God in his Baptisme. For which cause also it is expedient that Baptisme be vsused in the English tongue, Nevertheless (if necessity so require) children may at all times be baptized at home.

When there are children to be baptized upon the Sunday or holy day, the Parents shall giue knowledge ouer night, or in the morning afore the beginning of Morning prayer, to the Curate. And then the Godfathers, Godmothers and people with the children, must be ready at the Font, either immediately after the last Lesson at Morning prayer, or else immediately after the last Lesson at Evening prayer, as the Curate by his discretion shall appoint. And then standing there, the Minister shall aske whether the children be baptized, or no. If they answer, No: then shall the Minister say thus,

DEARELY beloued, forasmuch as all men be conceived and borne in sinne, and that our Sauour Christ faith, None can enter into the kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and borne anew of water and of the holy Ghost: I beseech you to call vpon God our Father, through our Lord Iesus Christ, that of his bountie: us mercy hee will grant to these children that thing which by nature they cannot haue, that they may be baptized with water and the holy Ghost, and receiued into Christs holy Church, and be made liuely members of the same.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

¶ Let vs pray,

Almighty and euermlasting God, which of thy great mercy diddest saue Noe and his family in the Arke from perishing by water, and also didst safely lead the children of Israel thy people through the red sea, figuring thereby thy holy baptisme, and by the baptisme of thy welbeloued Sonne Iesus Christ, didst sanctifie the flood Iordan, and all other waters, to the mysticall washing away of sinne: Wee beseech thee for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully looke vpon these children, sanctifie them, and wash them with the holy Ghost, that they being delivered from thy wrath, may be receiued into the Ark of Christs Church, and being stedfast in faith, ioyfull through hope, and rooted in charitie, may so passe the waues of this troublesome world, that finally they may come to the land of euermlasting life, there to reigne with thee world without end, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Almighty and immorall God, the aid of all that need, the helper of all that flee to thee for succor, the life of them that beleue, & the resurrection of the dead: wee call vpon thee for these Infants, that they comming to thy holy Baptisme, may receiue remission of their sinne: by spirituall regeneration. Receiue them: O Lord as thou hast promised by thy welbeloued Sonne, saying, Aske, and you shall haue, seeke, and you shall find, knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you. So giue now vnto vs that aske: let vs that seeke, since: open the gate vnto vs that knocke, that these Infants may ioy the euermlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the euermlasting kingdom, which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

¶ Here the words of the Gospel written by S. Marke in the tenth Chapter.

AT a certaine time they brought children to Christ that he should touch them. And his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Iesus saw it, he was displeased, and said vnto them, Suffer little children to come vnto me, and forbid them not, for to such belongeth the kingdom of God. Verely I say vnto you, whosoever doeth not receiue the kingdom of God as a little Child, he shall not enter therein. And when he had taken them vp in his armes he put his hands vpon them and blessed them.

Mat. 10. 13.

¶ After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this briefe exhortation vpon the words of the Gospel

FRIENDS, you heare in this Gospel the words of our Sauour Christ, that hee commanded the children to be brought vnto him, how hee blamed those that would haue kept them from him, how hee exhorted all men to follow their innocency. You perceiue how by his outward gesture and deed, he declared his good will toward them: For he embraced them in his armes, he laid his hands vpon them, & blessed them. Doubte ye not therefore, but earnestly beleuee that he will likewise fauourably receiue these present Infants, that he will embrace them with the armes of his mercy, that hee will giue vnto them the blessing of eternall life, & make them partakers of his euermlasting kingdom. Wherefore we being thus perswaded of the good will of our heavenly Father toward these Infants, declared by his Sonne Iesus Christ, and nothing doubting but that hee fauorably alloweth this charitable worke of ours in bringing these children to his holy Baptisme: let vs faithfully and deuoutly giue thanks vnto him, and say.

Almighty and euertlasting God, heavenly Father, wee giue thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call vs to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirme this faith in vs euermore: giue thy holy spirit to these infants, that they may be borne againe, and bee made heires of euertlasting saluation, through our Lord Iesus Christ, who liueth and reigneth with thee and the holy spirit, now and for euermore, Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall speake vnto the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wise.

Welbeloued friends, ye haue brought these children here to be baptized, ye haue prayed that our Lord Iesus Christ would vouchsafe to receiue them, to lay his hands vpon them, to blessethem, to release them of their finnes, to giue them the Kingdome of heauen, and euertlasting life. Ye haue heard also that our Lord Iesus Christ hath promised in his Gospel, to grant all these things that ye haue prayed for: which promise, he for his part will most surely keepe and performe. Wherefore after this promise made by Christ, these infants must also faithfully for their part promise by you that be their sureties, that they will forsake the deuill and all his workes, and constantly beleue Gods holy word, and obediently keepe his Commandements.

¶ Then shall the Minister demand of the Godfathers and Godmothers on this wise.

Doest thou forsake the deuill all his workes, the vaine pompe, and glory of the world, with all couetous desires of the same, the carnall desires of the flesh, so that thou wilt not follow nor be led by them?

Answer.

I forsake them all.

Minister.

Doest thou beleue in God the Father Almighty, maker of heauen and earth? And in Iesus Christ his only begotten Son our Lord? And that he was conceived by the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgin Mary, that he suffered vnder pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, that he went down into hell, and also did rise againe the third day, that he ascended into heauen and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, and from thence shall come againe at the end of the world to iudge the quicke & the dead? And doest thou beleue in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholike Church the Communion of Saints, the remission of finnes, the resurrection of the flesh, and euertlasting life after death?

Answer.

All this I stedfastly beleue.

Minister.

Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?

Answer.

That is my desire.

¶ Then shall the Minister say.

O Mercifull God, grant that the old Adam in these children may be so buried, that the new man may be raised vp in them. Amen.

Grant that all carnall affections may die in them, and that all things belonging to the spirit, may liue and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may haue power and strength to haue victory and to triumph against the deuill, the world and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to thee by our office & ministry, may also be indued with heavenly vertues, and euertlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who doest liue, and gouerne all things world without end. Amen.

Almighty euertlasting God, whose most dearly beloued Son Iesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our finnes, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood, & giue commandement to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in the Name of the Father, and the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost: we beseech thee, the supplications of thy congregation, and grant that all thy seruants which shall be baptized in this water, may receiue the fullnesse of thy grace, and euer remaine in the number of thy faithful & elect children, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

¶ Then shall the Minister take the child in his hands, and aske the name: and naming the child, shall dip it in the water, so as be discreetly and warily done, saying,

NI baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ And if the child be weak, it shall suffice to poure water vpon it, saying the vnsaid words.

NI baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall make a crosse vpon the chilles forehead, saying,

WE receiue this child into the Congregation of Christs flocke, and doe signe him with the signe of the crosse, in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confesse the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight vnder his banner against sinne, the world & the deuill, and to continue Christs faithful souldier, and seruant vnto his liues end. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say.

Seeing now, dearly beloued brethren, that these children be regenerate, and grafted into the body of Christs Congregation, lets giue thanks vnto God for these benefits, and with one accord make our prayers vnto Almighty God, that they may lead the rest of their life according to this beginning.

¶ Then shall he say,

Our Father which art in heauen, &c.

¶ Then shall the Minister say.

WE yelde thee hearty thanks, most mercifull Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this infant with thy holy spirit, to receiue him for thine owne child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Congregation: And humbly wee beseech thee to graunt, that he being dead vnto sinne, and liuing vnto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may crucifie the old man and vicerly with it, olish the whole body of sinne, that as hee is made partaker of the death of thy Sonne, so hee may be partaker of his resurrection: so that finally, with the residue of thy holy Congregation, he may bee inheritor of thine euertlasting kingdome, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ At the last end the Ministers calling the Godfathers and Godmothers together, shall say this exhortation following.

Forasmuch as these children haue promised by you to forsake the deuill & all his workes, to beleue in God, & to serue him: you must remember yt is your parts and duties to see that these infants be taught, so soone as they shall be able to learne what a solemne view,

vow, promise, and profession they haue made by you. And that they may know these things the better, yee shall call vpon them to heare sermons, and chiefly you shall prouide that they may leaue the Creed, the Lords prayer, & the ten Commandments in the English tongue, & al other things which a Christian man ought to know & beleue to his soules health, & that these children may be ventuously brought vp to leade

a godly & a Christian life, remembering alwayes that Baptisme doth represent vnto vs our profission, which is to follow the example of our anour Christ, and to be made like vnto him, that as he died & rose againe for vs, so should we which are baptized, die from sin, and rise againe vnto righteousness, continually mortifying all our euill and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and goodlikenesse of living.

The Minister shall command that the children be brought to the Bishop, to be confirmed of him, soe one as they can say with their owne tongues, the Articles of the Faith, the Lords prayer, and the ten Commandments, and be further instructed in the Catechisme set forth for that purpose, according as it is there expressed.

¶ Of them that are to be baptized in private houses in time of necessitie, by the Minister of the Parish, or any other lawfull Minister that can be procured.

His Pastours and Curates shall often admonish the people, that they deferre not the Baptisme of infants any longer then the Sunday or other holy day next after the child be borne, vntill vpon a great and reasonable cause declared to the Curate, and by him approved.

And also they shall warne them, that without great cause and necessitie, they procure not their children to be baptized at home in their houses. And when great need it all cometh them so to doe, then Baptisme shall be administered in this fashion.

First let the lawfull Minister and them that be present call vpon God for his grace, and say the Lords prayer, if the time will suffer. And if the child being named by some one that is present, the said lawfull Minister shall dip it in water, or pour water vpon it, saying these words,

I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

And let them not doubt, but that the child so baptized, is lawfully and sufficiently baptized, and ought not to be baptized againe. But yett neuerthe lesse, if the child which is after this sort baptized, doe after a while, it is expedient that he be brought into the Church, to the intent, that if the Priest or Minister of the same Parish did himselfe baptize that child, the Congregation may see certifi- cation of the true forme of Baptisme which was priuately before vsed. Or if the child were baptized by any other lawfull Minister, that then the Minister of the Parish, where the child was borne or christened, shall examine and trie, whether the child be lawfully baptized or no. In which case if thise that bring any child to the Church, doe as we see that the same child is already baptized, then shall the Minister examine them further, saying,

By whom was the child baptized?

who was present when the child was baptized?

And because some things, essentiall to this Sacrament, may happen to be omitted through feare or haste in such times of extremitie: therefore I demand further of you,

With what mater was the child baptized?

With what words was the child baptized?

Whether thinke you the child to be lawfully and perfectly baptized?

¶ And if the Minister shall finde by the answers of such as bring the child, that all things were done as they ought to be: then shall hee not christen the child againe, but shall receive him as one of the flocke of the true Christian people, saying thus.

I Certifie you, that in this case all is well done. and according vnto due order, concerning the baptizing of this child, which being borne in original sin, and in the wrath of God, is now by the lauer of regeneration in baptisme receiued into the number of the children of God, and heires of euertlasting life. For our Lord Iesus Christ doeth not denie his grace and mercie vnto such infants, but most lovingly doth call them vnto him, as the holy Gospel doth witness to our comfort on this wise.

At a certaine time they brought children to Christ that he should touch them. And his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Iesus saw it, hee was displeased, and said vnto them, Suffer little children to come vnto me, and forbid them not, for to such belongeth the Kingdome of God. Verily I say vnto you, whosoever eth not receiue the Kingdome of God as a little child, hee shall not enter therein. And when he had taken them vp in his armes, he put his hands vpon them, and blessed them.

Mat. 10. 13.

¶ After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this exhortation vpon the words of the Gospel.

Friends, you heare in this Gospel the words of our Sauour Christ, that he commanded the childre to be brought vnto him, how hee blamed those that would haue kept them from him, how hee exhorted al men to follow their innocencie. Ye perceiue how by his outward gesture & deed he declared his good wil toward them, For he embraced them in his armes, hee laid his hands vpon them, & blessed the. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly beleue that he hath likewise fauorably receiued this preter infant, that he hath embraced him with the armes of his mercy, that hee hath giuen vnto him the blessing of eternal life, and made him partaker of his euertlasting kingdome. Wherefore we being thus persuaded of the good will of our heavenly Father, declared by his Sonne Iesus Christ toward this infant, let vs faithfully and devoutly giue thanks vnto him, and say the prayer which the Lord himselfe himself taught, and in declaration of xy faith, let vs recite the Articles contained in our Creede.

¶ Here the Minister with the Godfathers and Godmothers, shall say.

¶ Our Father which art in heauen, &c.

¶ Then shall the Priest demand the name of the child, which being by the Godfathers and Godmothers pronounced, the Minister shall say.

Doest thou in the name of this child, forsake the deuill and all his workes, the vaine pompe, and glory of the world, with all the couetous desires of the same, the carnall desires of the flesh, and not to follow and be led by them?

Answers.

I forsake them all?

Minister.

Doest thou in the name of this child profess this faith to beleue in God the Father Almighty, maker of heauen and earth? And in Iesus Christ his only begotten Sonne our Lord? And that he was conceived by the holy Ghost, borne of the virgine Mary, that he suffered vnder Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried: that he went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day, that he ascended into heauen, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, and from thence he shall come againe at the end of the world to iudge the quicke & the dead? And doe you in his name beleue in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholique Church, the Communion of Saints, the remission of finnes, resurrection, and euermore liue after death?

Answer.

All this I Reddfully beleue.

Let vs pray.

Almighty and euermore liue God, heavenly Father, wee giue thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call vs to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge and confirme this faith in vs euermore: giue thy holy spirit to this infant, that he being borne againe, and being made heire of euermore liue saluation, through our Lord Iesus Christ, may continue thy seruant, and attaine thy promise, through the same our Lord Iesus Christ thy Sonne, who liueth and reigneth with thee in the vnitie of the same, holy spirit euermore. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister make this exhortation to the Godfathers and Godmothers.

¶ Or as much as this child hath promised by you to forsake the deuill and all his workes, to beleue in God, and to serue him: you must remember that it is your part and due tie to see that this infant be taught, so soone as hee shall be able to learne, what a solemne vow, promise, & profession he hath made by you. And that he may know the things the better, ye shall call vpon him to heare sermons, & chiefly ye shall provide that he may learne the Creede, the Lords prayer, and the ten Commandements in the English tongue, and al other things which a Christian man ought to know and beleue to his soules health, and that this child may be vertuously brought vp, to leade a godly and a Christian life, remembering alway that Baptisme doth represent vnto vs our redemption, which is to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and be made like vnto him, that as hee dyed and rose againe for vs, so should we which are baptized, die to our sinne, and rise againe vnto righte conscience, continually mortifying all our euill and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all vertue and godlinesse of liuing.

And so forth as in Publique Baptisme,

¶ But if they which bring the infants to the Church, doe make such vncertaine answers to the Priests questions, as that it cannot appeare that the child was baptized with water, In the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost, (which are essentiall parts of Baptisme) then let the Priest baptize it in forme aboue written, concerning publike Baptisme, (saying that at the dipping of the child in the Font, hee shall vse this forme of wordes.

If thou bee not already baptized, N. I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

The order of Confirmation, or laying on of hands vpon children baptized, and able to render an account of their faith according to the Catechisme following.

To the ende that Confirmation may be ministered to the more edifying of such as shall receiue it, (according to Saint Pauls doctrine, who teacheth that all things should be done in the Church, to the edification of the same) it is thought good that none hereafter shall be confirmed, but such as can say in their mother tongue the Article of the faith, the Lords prayer, and the ten Commandements, and can also answer to such questions of this short Catechisme, as the Bishop (or such as hee shall appoint) shall by his discretion appoynt him. And this order is most convenient to be observed for diuers considerations.

First, because that when children come to the yeeres of discretion, and haue learned what their Godfathers and Godmothers promised for them in Baptisme, they may then themselves with their owne mouth, and with their owne consent, openly before the Church, ratifie and confirme the same, and also promise that by the grace of God, they will euermore endeuor themselves faithfully to observe and keepe such things, as they by their owne mouth and confession haue assented vnto.

Secondly, forasmuch as confirmation is ministered vnto them that be baptized, that by imposition of hands and prayer they may receiue strength and defence against all temptations to sinne, and the assaults of the world and the deuill, it is most meete to be ministered when children come to that age, that partly by the frailtie of their owne selfe, partly by the assaults of the world and the deuill, they begin to be in danger to fall into sundry kinds of sinne.

Thirdly, for that it is agreeable with the vsage of the Church in times past, whereby it was ordained that Confirmation should be ministered to them that were of perfect age, that they being instructed in Christs religion, should openly profess their owne faith, and promise to be obedient vnto the will of God.

And

And that no man shall thinke that any detrimēt shall come to the children by deferring of their Confirmation, let shall know for truth, that it is certaine by Gods word, that children being baptized, haue all things necessary for their saluation, and be undoubtedly saved,

A Catechisme, that is to say, An instruction to be learned of euery childe, before he be brought to be confirmed by the Bishop.

Question.
Hath is your name?

Answer.

N. or M.

Question.

Who gaue you this name?

Answer.

My Godfathers and Godmothers in my baptisme, wherein I was made a member of Christ, the childe of God, and an inheritor of the kingdome of heauen.

Question.

What did your Godfathers and Godmothers then for you?

Answer.

They did promise & vow three things in my name, First, that I should forsake the deuill & all his works, the pompe, and vanitie of the wicked world, and all the sinfull lusts of the flesh. Secondly that I should beleue all the Articles of the Christian faith. And thirdly, that I should keep Gods holy wil and commandments, and walke in the same all the dayes of my life.

Question.

Doeſt thou not thinke that thou art bound to beleue and to doe as they haue promised for thee?

Answer.

Yes verily: and by Gods helpe so I will. And I heartily thanke our heavenly Father, that he hath called me to this state of saluation, through Iesus Christ our Sauiour. And I pray God to giue mee his grace, that I may continue in the same vnto my liues end.

Question.

Rehearse the Articles of thy belief.

Answer.

I beleue in God the Father Almighty, maker of heauen and earth. And in Iesus Christ his onely Sonne our Lord, which was conceived by the holy Ghost, borne of the virgin Mary, suffered vnder Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, he descended into hel, the third day he rose againe from y dead, he ascended into heauen, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence hee shall come to iudge the quick and the dead I beleue in the holy Ghost, the holy Catholique Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sinnes, the resurrection of the bodie, and the life euerslasting. Amen.

Question.

What doeſt thou chiefly learne in these Articles of thy belief?

Answer.

First, I learne to beleue in God the Father, who hath made me and all the world.

Secondly, in God the Sonne, who hath redeemed me and all mankind.

Thirdly in God the holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the elect people of God.

Question.

You saide that your Godfathers and Godmothers did promise for you, that you should keep Gods commandments, Tell me how many there be.

Answer.

Tenne.

Question.

Which be they?

Answer.

The same which God spake in the xx. Chapter of Exodus, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which haue brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

i. Thou shalt haue none other Gods but me.

ii. Thou shalt not make to thy selfe any graven image, nor the likenes of any thing that is in heauen above, nor in the earth beneath, nor in the water vnder the earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them: For I the Lord thy God am a ielous God, and visit the sinnes of the fathers vpon the children, vnto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and shewe mercy vnto thousandes in them, that loue me, and keepe my commandments.

iii. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord will not hold him guiltles, that taketh his Name in vaine.

iiii. Remember that thou keepe holy the Sabbath day. Sixe dayes shalt thou labour and doe all that thou hast to doe: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt doe no manner of worke, thou and thy son, and thy daughter, thy manservant and thy maidservant, thy catle, and the stranger that is within thy gates: for in sixe dayes the Lord made heauen and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day, wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

v. Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy dayes may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

vi. Thou shalt doe no murder.

vii. Thou shalt not commit adulterie.

viii. Thou shalt not steal.

ix. Thou shalt not beare false witness against thy neighbour.

x. Thou shalt not couet thy neighbours house, thou shalt not couet thy neighbours wife, nor his seruant, nor his matie, nor his oxe, nor his asse, nor any thing that is his.

Question.

What doeſt thou chiefly learne by these commandments?

Answer.

I learne two things: My duty towards God, and my duty towards my neighbour.

Question.

What is thydutie towards God?

Answer.

My dutie towards God, is to beleue in him, to feare him, & to loue him with al my heart, with al my mind, with al my soule, and with al my strength. To worship him, to giue him thanks, to put my whole trust in him, to cal vpon him to honor his holy Name and his word, & to serue him truly all the dayes of my life.

Question.

Question.

What is thy duty toward thy neighbour?

Answer.

My duty towards my neighbour is to love him as my selfe, and to doe all men as I would they should doe vnto me. To love, honour, & succour my father and mother. To honour and obey the King and his Ministers. To submit my selfe to all my gouernours, teachers, spiritual pastors, and masters. To order my selfe lowly and reuerently, to all my betters. To hurt no body by word or deed. To be true and iust in all my dealing. To beare no malice nor hatred in my heart. To keep my hands from picking and stealing, and my tongue from euill speaking, lying, and flandering. To keep my body in temperance, sobriety, and chastity. Not to couet nor desire other mens goods, but to learne and labour truly to get mine owne liuing and to doe my duty in that state of life, vnto the which it shall please God to call me.

Question.

My good child, know this, that thou art notable to doe these things of thy selfe, nor to walke in the commandments of God, and to serue him, without his speciall grace, which thou must learne at all times to call for by diligent prayer. Let me heare therefore if thou canst say the Lords prayer.

Answer.

Our Father which art in heauen. Halowed be thy Name. Thy kingdome come. Thy wil be done in earth, as it is in heauen. Giue vs this day our daily bread. And forgie vs our trespases, as wee forgie them that trespasse against vs. And leade vs not into temptation, But deliuer vs from euill. Amen.

Question.

What desirest thou of God in this prayer?

Answer.

I desire my Lord God our heavenly Father, who is the giuer of all goodnesse, to send his grace vnto me, and vnto all people, that we may worship him, serue him, & obey him as we ought to doe. And I pray vnto God, that hee will send vs all things that be needfull both for our soules and bodies. And that hee will be mercifull vnto vs, and forgie vs our finnes, and that it will please him to saue and defend vs in all dangers, ghostly and bodily, and that hee will keepe vs from all sinne and wickednesse, and from our ghostly enemies, and from euerlasting death. And this I trust he will doe of his mercy and goodnesse, through our Lord Iesus Christ. And therefore I say Amen, So be it.

Question.

How many Sacraments hath Christ ordayned in his Church?

Answer.

Two onely as generally necessary for saluation, that is to say, Baptisme and the Supper of the Lord.

Question.

What meanest thou by this word Sacrament?

Answer.

I meane an outward and visible signe, of an inward and spirituall grace giuen vnto vs, ordained by Christ himselfe, as a meane whereby wee receiue the same, and a pledge to assure vs thereof.

Question.

How many parts be there in a Sacrament?

Answer.

Two: The outward visible Signe, and the inward Spirituall grace.

Question.

What is the outward visible signe, or forme in Baptisme?

Answer.

Water: wherein the person baptized is dipped, or sprinkled with it. In the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost.

Question.

What is the inward and spirituall grace?

Answer.

A death vnto sinne, and a new birth vnto righteousness. For being by nature borne in sinne, and the children of wrath, we are hereby made the children of Grace.

Question.

What is required of persons to be baptized?

Answer.

Repentance, whereby they forsake sinne: and Faith, whereby they stedfastly beleue the promises of God, made to them in that Sacrament.

Question.

Why then are infants baptized, when by reason of their tender age, they cannot performe them?

Answer.

Yes: they doe performe them by their Sureties, who promise and vow them both, in their names: which when they come to age, themselves are bound to performe.

Question.

Why was the Sacrament of the Lords Supper ordained?

Answer.

For the continual remembrance of the Sacrifice of the death of Christ, and the benefits which wee receiue thereby.

Question.

What is the outward part or signe of the Lords Supper?

Answer.

Bread and Wine which the Lord hath commanded to be receiued.

Question.

What is the inward part, or thing signified?

Answer.

The Body and Blood of Christ, which are verily and indeed, taken and receiued of the faithfull in the Lords Supper.

Question.

What are the benefits, whereof wee are partakers thereby?

Answer.

The strengthening and refreshing of our soules by the Body and Blood of Christ, as our bodies are by the Bread and Wine.

Question.

What is required of them, which come to the Lords Supper?

Answer.

To examine themselves whether they repent them truly of their former finnes, stedfastly purposing to leade a new life: haue a lively faith in Gods mercie through Christ, with a thankfull remembrance of his death, and be in charitie with all men.

¶ So soone as the children can say in their mother tongue the Articles of the faith, the Lords prayer, and the nine Commandments, and also can answer to such questions of this short Catechisme, as the Bishop (or such as be shall appoint) shall by his discretion oppose them in: then shall they be brought to the Bishop by one that shall be his Godfather or Godmother, that every childe may haue a witness of his confirmation. And the Bishop shall confirme them on this wise.

 And let our crye come vnto thee.

Let vs pray.

Almightie and euerliuing God, who hast vouchsafed to regenerate these thy seruants by water and the holy Ghost, and hast giuen vnto them forgiveness of all their finnes: strengthen them we beseech thee, O Lord, with the holy Ghost the Comforter, and dayly increale in them thy manifold gifts of grace, the spirit of wisdom and vnderstanding, the spirit of counsaile and Ghostly strength, the spirit of knowledge and true godinesse, and fulfill them (O Lord) with the spirit of thy holy feare, Amen.

¶ Then the Bishop shall lay his hand vpon euery childe severally, saying,

Defend, O Lord, this childe with thy heauenly grace, that he may continue thine for euer, and dayly increale in thy holy Spirit more and more, vntill he come vnto thy euerlasting kingdome, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Bishop say,

Let vs pray.

Almightie and euerliuing God, which makest vs both to will, and to doe those things that be good and acceptable vnto thy Maiestie, we make our humble supplications vnto thee for these children, vpon whom (after the example of the holy Apostles) we haue laid our hands, to certifie them (by this Signe) of thy fauour and gracious goodnesse toward them: let thy Fatherly hand, we beseech thee, euer be ouer them: let thy holy Spirit be euer with them, and so leade them in the knowledge and obedience of thy Word, that in the end they may obtaine the euerlasting life, through our Lord Iesus Christ, who with thee and the holy Ghost liueth and reigneth one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ Then the Bishop shall blesse the children, saying thus,

THe blessing of God almightie, the Father, the Sonne, and the holy Ghost, be vpon you, and remaine with you for euer. Amen.

The Curate of euery Parish, or some other at his appointment shall diligently vpon Sundayes and Holydayes, halfe an houre before Evening prayer, openly in the Church, visitell and examine so many children of his Parish sent vnto him, as the time will serue, and as hee shall thinke conuenient, in some part of this Catechisme.

And all Fathers, Mothers, Masters, and Dames, shall cause their children, seruants and prentises (which haue not learned their Catechisme) to come to the Church at the time appointed, and obediently to heare and be ordered by the Curate, vntill such times as they haue learned all that is here appointed for them to learne. And whensoever the Bishop shall giue knowledge for children to be brought before him to any conuenient place for their confirmation, then shall the Curate of euery Parish, either bring or send in writing the names of all those children of his Parish, which can say the Article of the Faith, the Lords prayer, and the ten commandments, and also how many of them can answer to the other questions contained in this Catechisme.

And there shall none be admitted to the holy Communion, vntill such time as he can say this Catechisme, and be confirmed.

The forme of solemnization of Matrimonic.

First, the Banes must be asked three severall Sundayes, or Holy dayes, in the time of Service, the people being present, after the accustomed manner.

And if the persons that would be married dwell in diuers Parishes, the Banes must be asked in both Parishes: and the Curate of the one Parish shall not solemnize Matrimonic betwixt them, without a Certificate of the Banes being thrice asked from the Curate of the other Parish.

At the day appointed for solemnization of Matrimonic, the persons to be married, shall come into the body of the Church, with their friends and neighbours, and there the Priest shall say thus,

IDearly beloved friends, we are gathered together heere in the sight of God, and in the face of his congregation, to ioine together this man and this woman in holy Matrimonic, which is an honorable estate, instituted of God in Paradise, in the time of mans innocence, signifying vnto vs the mysticall vnion that is betwixt Christ and his Church: which holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with his presence and first miracle that he wrought in Cana of Galilee, and is commended of S. Paule to be honourable among all men, and therefore is not to be enterprised nor taken in hand vnadvisedly, lightly, or wantonly, to satisfie mens carnall lusts and appetites, like brute beasts that haue no vnderstanding, but reuerently, discretely, aduisedly, soberly, and in the feare of God, duly considering the causes for which Matrimonic was ordeined. One was, the procreation of children, to be brought vp in the feare and nurture of the Lord, and praise of God. Secondly, it was ordeined for a remedie against sinne, and to auoid fornication, that such persons as haue not the gift of continencie, might marrie, and keepe themselves vn-defiled members of Christs body. Thirdly, for the mutual socie'tie, helpe and comfort that the one ought to haue of the other, both in prosperity and aduersity: into the which holy estate these two persons present come now to be ioyned. Therefore if any man can shew any iust cause why they may not lawfully be ioyned together, let him now speake, or els hereafter for euer hold his peace.

¶ And

¶ And also speaking to the persons that shall be married, he shall say.

I Require & charge you, (as you will answer at the dreadfull day of iudgment, when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed) that neither of you doe know any impediment why yemay not be lawfully ioyned together in Matrimony that yee confesse it. For beye well assured, that so many as be coupled together otherwise then Gods word doth allow, are not ioyned together by God, neither is their Matrimony lawfull.

¶ At which day of marriage, if any man doe allege and declare any impediment, why they may not be coupled together in Matrimony by Gods Law, or the Lawes of this Realme, and will be bound, and iustice sent for to him to the parties, or else put in a cession to the full value of such charges as the persons to be married doe susteine, to prove his allegation, then the solemnization must be deferred vnto such time as the truth be tried. If no impediment be alleged, then shall the Curate say vnto the man.

N wilt thou haue this woman to thy wedded wife, to liue together after Gods ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou loue her, comfort her, honour, and keepe her in sicknes and in health, and forsaking all other, keepe thee onely to her, so long as you both shall liue?

The man shall answer.

I will.

Then shall the Minister say to the woman.

N wilt thou haue this man to thy wedded husband, to liue together after Gods ordinance, in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou obey him, and serue him, loue honour, and keepe him in sicknes and in health, and forsaking all other, keepe thee onely vnto him, so long as you both shall liue?

The woman shall answer.

I will.

Then shall the Minister say.

Who giueth this woman to be married to this man?

¶ And the Minister receiving the woman at her fathers or friends hands, shall cause the man to take the woman by the right hand, and say vnto her, thus.

I, N. take thee N. to my wedded wife, to haue and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sicknesse and in health, to loue, and to cherish, till death vs depart, according to Gods holy ordinance: and thereto I plight thee my troth.

¶ Then shall they loose their hands, and the woman, taking againe the man by the right hand, shall say,

I, N. take thee N. to my wedded husband, to haue and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sicknesse and in health, to loue, cherish, and to obey, till death vs depart, according to Gods holy ordinance: and thereto I giue thee my troth.

¶ Then shall they againe loose their hands, and the man shall giue vnto the woman a Ring, laying the same vpon the bookes, with the accustomed deuotio to the Minister and Clerke. And the Minister taking the Ring, shall deliver it vnto the man to put it vpon the fourth finger of the womans left hand. And the man taught by the Minister shall say.

With this Ring I thee wedde, with my body I thee worship, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow: In the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then the man leaving the Ring vpon the fourth finger of the womans left hand, the Minister shall say.

¶ Let vs pray.

O Eternal God. creator and preseruer of all mankind, giuer of all spiritual grace, the autour of eueralasting life, send thy blessing vpon these thy seruants, this man and this woman, whom we blesse in thy Name, that as Isaac and Rebecca liued faithfully together, so these persons may surely perseuer and keepe the vowe and couenant betwene them made (whereof this Ring giuen and receiued is a token and pledge) and may euer remaine in perfect loue & peace together, and liue according vnto thy Lawes, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister ioine their right hands together, and say.

Those whom God hath ioyned together, let no man put asunder.

¶ Then shall the Minister speake vnto the people.

Forasmuch as N. and N. haue consented together in holy wedlocke, and haue witnessd the same before God and this company, and therefore haue giuen, and pledged their troth either to other, and haue declared the same by giuing and receiuing of a Ring, & by ioining of hands, I pronounce that they be man and wife together. In the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, and of the holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ And the Minister shall adde this blessing.

God the Father, God the Sonne, God the holy Ghost, blesse preserve, and keepe you, the Lord mercifully with his fauour looke vpon you, and so fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace, that you may so liue together in this life, that in the world to come ye may haue life eueralasting. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister or Clerke going to the Lords Table, shall say or sing this Psalm following.

Beati omnes. Psal. 128.

Blessed are all they that feare the Lord: and walke in his wayes.

For thou shalt eate the labour of thy hands: O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

Thy wife shall bee as the fruitfull Vine: vpon the wallies of thine house.

Thy children like the Olive branches: round about thy table.

Lee, thus shall the man be blessed: that feareth the Lord.

The Lord from out of Sion shall so blesse thee: that thou shalt see Hierusalem in prosperitie all thy life long.

Yea. that thou shalt see thy childrens children: and peace vpon Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Or this Psalm

God be merciful vnto vs, and blesse vs: and shew vs the light of his countenance, and be merciful vnto vs.

That thy way may bee knownen vpon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people prayse thee, O God: yea, let all the people prayse thee.

O let the nations reioyce & be glad: for thou shalt iudge the folke righteously, and gouerne the nations vpon the earth.

Let the people prayse thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, euen our owne God shall giue vs his blessing.

God shall blesse vs: and all the ends of the world shall feare him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Sonne: and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and euer shall be: world without end. Amen.

¶ The

Domus misericordie. Psal. 67.

¶ The Psalm ended, and the man and the woman kneeling before the Lords Table, the Minister standing at the Table, and turning his face toward them, shall say.

Lord haue mercy vpon vs.

Answer.

Christ haue mercy vpon vs,

Minister.

Lord haue mercy vpon vs.

Our Father which art in heauen, &c.

¶ And leade vs not into temptation,

Answer.

But deliuer vs from all euill. Amen.

Minister.

O Lord saue thy seruant, and thy handmaid.

Answer.

Which put their trust in thee.

Minister.

O Lord send them helpe from thy holy place.

Answer.

And euermore defend them.

Minister.

Be vnto them a towre of strength,

Answer.

From the face of thy enemy.

Minister.

O Lord heare our prayer,

Answer.

And let our cry come vnto thee.

Minister.

O God of Abraham, God of Ishac, God of Iacob, bleesse these thy seruants, and sowe the seed of eternall life in their mindes, that whatsoever in thy holy word they shall profitably learne, they may indeed fulfill the same. Look, O Lord, mercifully vpon them from heauen and bleesse them. And as thou diddest send thy blessing vpon Abraham, and Sara to their great comfort: so ouervale to send thy blessing vpon these thy seruants, that they obeying thy will, and alwayes being in safetie vnder thy protection may abide in thy loue vnto their liues ende, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

¶ This prayer next following shall be omitted, where the woman is past childbirth.

O Mercifull Lord, and heauenly Father, by whose gracious gift mankind is increased: we beseech thee alif with thy blessing these two persons, that they may both be fruitfull in procreation of children, and also liue together so long in godly loue & honesty, that they may see their childrens children, vnto the third and fourth generation, vnto thy praise and honour, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

O God, which by thy mighty power hast made all things of nought, which also (after other things set in order) diddest appoint that out of man (created after thine own image and similitude) woman should take her beginning, and knitting them together, diddest teach, that it should neuer be lawfull to put asunder those, whom thou by Matrimony hast made one: O God, which hast consecrated the state of Matrimony to such an excellent myserie, that in it is signified and represented the spirittuall marriage and vnitie betwix Christ and his Church: looke mercifully vpon these thy seruants, that both this man may loue his wife, according to thy Word, as Christ did loue his spouse the Church, who gaue himselfe for it, to use an cherishing it euen as his owne flesh: and also that this woman may be louing and amiable to her husband as Rachel, wife as Rebecca, faithfull and obedient as Sara, and in all quietnesse forietie and peace, be a follower of holy and godly matrons, O Lord bleesse them both, and graunt them to perse-thy euerlasting kingdome, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Then shall the Minister say.

Almighty God, which at the beginning did create our iust parents Adam and Eue, and did sanctifie and ioine them together in marriage, powere vpon you the riches of his grace, sanctifie and bleesse you that ye may please him both in body and soule, and liue together in holy loue vnto your liues end, Amen.

¶ Then shall beginne the Communion. And after the Gospel shall be saide a Sermon, wherein ordinarily (so eue as where is any marriage) the office of man and wife shall bee declared, according to holy Scripture. Or if there be no Sermon, the Minister shall reade this at followeth.

All ye which be married, or which intend to take the holy state of Matrimonie vpon you, heare what holy Scripture doeth say as touching the dutie of husband to his wife, and wives toward their husband.

S. Paul in his Epistle to the Ephesians the fifth Chapter, doth giue this commandment to all married men, Yee husband, loue your wives, euen as Christ loued the Church, & hath giuen himselfe for it, to sanctifie it purging it in the fountaine of water through the word, that he might make it vnto himselfe a glorious Congregation, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it should be holy & blameles. So men are bound to loue their owne wives as their owne bodies. Hee that loueth his owne wife, loueth himselfe: For neuer did any man hate his owne flesh, but nourisheth & cheriseth it, euen as the Lord doeth the Congregation for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones, for this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall be ioyned vnto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This misterie is great, but I speake of Christ and of the Congregation. Neuerthelesse, let euery one of you so loue his owne wife, euen as himselfe.

Likewise the same S. Paul, writing to the Colossians, speaketh thus to all men that be married: Yee men loue your wives, and be not bitter vnto them.

Heare also what S. Peter the Apostle of Christ, which was himselfe a married man saith vnto all men that are married: Ye husband, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giuing honor vnto the wife as vnto the weaker vessel, and as hee is together of the grace of life, so that your prayer be not hindered.

Hitherto ye haue heard the duty of the husband toward the wife. Now likewise yee wives, heare and learne your duties toward your husbands: euen as it is displayed forth in holy Scripture.

S. Paul (in the forenamed Epistle to the Ephesians) teacheth you thusen: Let women submit your selues vnto your owne husband, as vnto the Lord. For the husband is the wiues head, euen as Christ is the head of the Church, and he is also the Saviour of the whole body.

Therfore as the Church or Congregation is subiect vnto Christ: so likewise let the wives also bee in subiection vnto their own husbands in all things. And againe he saith, Let the wife reuerence her husband. And (in his Epistle to the Colossians) S. Paul giueth you this short lesson. Ye wives submit your selues vnto your owne husband, as it is conuenient in the Lord.

S. Peter also doeth instruct you very goodly, thus saying: Let wives be subiect to their owne husbands, so that if any obey not the Word, they may be wonne without the Word, by the conuersion of the wiues, while they behold your chaste conuersation coupled with feare. Whole apparell let it not be outward, with broided haire, and trimming about with gold, either in putting on of gorgeous apparell: but let the hidden man which is in the heart, be without all corruption, so that the spirit bee milde and quiet, which is a precious thing in the sight of God. For after this manner (in the old time) did the holy women which trusted in God, apparell themselves, being subiect to their owne husbandes, as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord, whose daughters ye are made, doing well, and not being dismayed with any feare.

¶ The new married persons (the same day of their marriage) must receive the holy Communion.

¶ The order for the visitation of the sicke.

¶ The Minister entering into the sicke persons house shall say:
Peace be in this house, and to all that dwell in it.

¶ When he cometh into the sicke persons presence, he shall say kneeling downe.

Remembert not Lord our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers. Spare vs good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with vs for euer.

Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

Christ haue mercie vpon vs.

Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

Answer.

But deliuer vs from euill. Amen.

Minister.

O Lord saue thy seruant.

Answer.

Which putteth his trust in thee.

Minister.

Send him helpe from thy holy place.

Answer.

And euer more mightily defend him.

Answer.

Let the enemy haue none aduantage of him.

Answer.

Nor the wicked approach to hurt him.

Minister.

Be vnto him, O Lord, a strong towre.

Answer.

From the face of his enemy.

Minister.

O Lord heare our prayers.

Answer.

And let our cry come vnto thee.

Minister.

O Lord looke downe from heauen, behold, visite and relieue this thy seruant, looke vpon him with the eyes of thy mercie, giue him comfort & sure confidence in thee, defend him from the danger of the enemy and keepe him in perpetuall peace and safetie, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear vs Almighty and most mercifull God and Saviour, extend thy accustomed goodnesse to this thy seruant which is grieved with sicknesse: visite him O Lord, as thou diddest visite Peters wives mother, and the Capraines seruant. So visite and restore vnto this sicke person his former health (if it be thy will) or else giue him grace so to take thy visitation, that after this painefull life ended, he may dwell with thee in life euerlasting. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister exhort the sicke person after this forme, or ether like.

Dearely beloved, know this that Almighty God is the Lord of life and death, and ouer all things to them pertaining, as youth, strength, health, age, weakenesse and sickenes. Wherefore, whatsoever your sickenes is, know you certainly that it is Gods visitation. And for what cause soeuer this sickenesse is sent vnto you, whether it be to try your patience for the example of other, and that your faith may be found in the day of the Lord, laudable, glorious, and honorably, to the increase of glory and endless felicitie, or else it be sent vnto you to correct and amend in you whatsoever doeth offend the eyes of your heavenly Father: know you certainly, that if you truly repent you of your sinnes, and beare your sickenesse patiently, trusting in Gods mercy, for his deare Sonne Iesus Christs sake, and render vnto him humble thanks for his Fatherly visitation, submitting your selfe wholly to his will, it shall turne to your profit, and helpe you forward in the right way that leaeth vnto euerlasting life.

¶ If the person visited be very sicke, then the Curate may end his exhortation in this place.

Take therefore in good worth the chastisement of the Lord. For whom the Lord loueth, hee chastiseth, yea, as Saint Paul saith, hee scourgeth euery sonne which hee receiueth. If yee endure chastisement, hee offereth himselfe vnto you, as vnto his own child. What sonne is he that the father chastiseth not? If yee be not vnder correction (whereof true children are partakers) then are yee bastards and not children. Therefore, seeing that when our carnall fathers doe correct vs, we truly obey him: seeing that we not now much rather be obedient to our spirituall Father, and so liue? and they for a few dayes doe chastise vs, after their owne pleasure. But hee doe chastise vs for our profit, to the intent he may make vs partakers of his holines. These words (good brother) are Gods words and written in holy Scripture for our comfort and instruction, that we should patiently and with thanksgiving, beare our heavenly Fathers corrections, whensoever by any manner of aduersitie it shall please his gracious goodnesse to visite vs. And here should bee no greater comfort to Christian persons, then to be made like vnto Christ, by suffering patiently aduersities troubles, & sickneses. For he himselfe went not vp to ioy, but first he suffered paine, hee reed not into his glory, before hee was crucified: So truly our way to eternall ioy is to suffer here with Christ, & our doore to enter into eternall life is, gladly to die with Christ, that we may rise againe from death, and dwell with him in euerlasting life. Now therefore taking your sicknesse, which is thus proffered for ye up, patiently, I exhort you in the Name of God, to remember the profession which you made vnto God in your baptism. And forasmuch as after this life there is account to be giuen vnto the righteous Iudge, of whom all must be iudged without respect of persons: I require you to examine your selfe, and your state, both toward God and man, that accusing and condemning your selfe for your own faults, ye may find mercy at your heavenly Fathers hand for Christs sake, and not be accused and condemned in that fearefull iudgement. Therefore I shall shortly rehearse the Articles of our Faith.

Faith, that you may know whether you doe beleue as a Christian man should, or no.

Here the Minister shall rehearse the Articles of the faith, saying thus,

Doeſt thou beleue in God the Father Almighty? (and so forth as it is in Baptisme)

Then shall the Minister examine whether he be in charity with all the world, exhorting him to forsue from the bottom of his heart all persons that haue offended him, and if he haue offended other, to aske them forgiveness, & where he hath done iniury or wrong to any man, that he make amends to the uttermost of his power. And if he haue not afore disposed of his goods, let him then make his will, and also declare his debts, what he oweth, and what is owing vnto him, for discharging of his conscience, and quietnes of his Executors. But men must be oft admonished, that they set an order for their temporall goods and lands, when they bee in health.

These words before rehearsed, may be said before the Minister begin his prayer, as he shall see cause.

The Minister may not forget, nor omit to moue the sicke person, & that most earnestly to liberality toward the poore.

Here shall the sicke person make a speciall confession, if he feele his conscience troubled with any weighty matter. After which confession, the Minister shall absolve him after thus sort,

OVr Lord Iesus Christ, who hath left power to his Church to absolve all sinners which truly repent and beleue in him, of his great mercie forgive thee thine offences, and by his authority committed to me, I absolve thee from all thy finnes, in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, & of the holy Ghost. Amen.

And then the Minister shall say this Collect following.

¶ Let vs pray.

O Most mercifull God, which according to the multitude of thy mercies, doeſt to put away the sins of those which truly repent, that thou rememberest them no more, open thine eye of mercy vpon this thy seruant, who most earnestly desireth pardon and forgiveness. Renew in him (most louing Father) whatsoeuer hath been decayed by the fraud and malice of the deuil, or by his owne carnal will and frailnesse: preserve and continue this sicke member in the vnitie of the Church, consider his contrition, accept his teares, assuage his paine, as shall be seen to thee most expedient for him. And forasmuch as hee putteth his full trust only in thy mercy, impute not vnto him his former finnes, but take him vnto thy fauour, through the merits of thy most dearly beloued Son Iesus Christ. Amen.

Then shall the Minister say this Psalm.

IN thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust, let me neuer be put to confusion: but rid me, and deliuer me in thy righteousness, incline thine eare vnto me, and fauoure me. Be thou my strong hold, whereunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to helpe me, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

Deliuere mee, O my God, out of the hand of the vn-godly: mee of the hand of synners, of the vnrighteous and cruel man. For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope euen from my youth.

Through thee haue I been holden vpon euer since I was borne: thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe: my praise shall alway be of thee,

I am become as it were a monster vnto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

O let my mouth bee filled with thy praise: (that I may sing of thy glory) and honour all the day long.

Cast me not away in the time of age: forsake mee not when my strength faileth me.

For mine enemies speake against mee, and they that lay wait for my soule, take their counsell together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliuer him.

Goe not farre from me, O God: my God haste thee to helpe me.

Let them be confounded and perishe that are against my soule: let them bee couered with shame and dishonour, that seeke to doe me euill.

As for mee, I will patiently abide alway: and will praye thee more and more.

My mouth shall dayly speake of thy righteousness and saluation: for I know no end, thereof.

I will goe forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousness onely.

Thou O God, hast taught me, from my youth vp vntill now: therefore will I tell of thy wondrous works.

Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray headed: vntill I haue shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

Thy righteousness, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou hast done, O God, who is like vnto thee?

O what great troubles and aduersities hast thou shewed me: & yet didst thou turne and refresh me: yea, and broughtst me from the depth of the earth again.

Thou hast brought me to great honour: and comforted me on euery side.

Therefore will I praye thee and thy faithfulness (O God) playing vpon an instrument of musick: vnto thee will I sing vpon the harpe, O thou holy One of Israel.

My lips will be as mine when I sing vnto thee: and so will my soule whom thou hast deliuered.

My tongue also shall talke of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded and brought vnto shame that seeke to doe me euill.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, &c.

Adding thus,

O Sauour of the world, saue vs, which by thy Crosse and precious blood hast redeemed vs, helpe vs we beseech thee, O God.

Then shall the Minister say,

THe Almighty Lord, which is a most strong towre to all them that put their trust in him, to who all things in heauen, in earth, & vnder the earth do bow and obey, be now and euermore thy defence, & make thee knowe and feele, that there is none other name vnder heauen giuen to man, in whom, and through whom thou mayest receiue health and saluation, but onely the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ. Amen.

¶ The Communion of the sicke.

FOrasmuch as all mortal men be subiect to many sudden perils, diseases, and sicknesses, and euery vn certaine what time they shall depart out of this life: therefore to the intent they may be alwayes in a readinesse to die whensoever it shall please Almighty God to call them, the Curates shall diligently from time to time, but specially in the plague time exhort their parishioners to the oft receiuing (in the Church) of the holy Communion of the bodie and blood of our Sauour Christ: which if they do, they shall haue no cause in their sudden visitation to be vnquiet for lacke of the same.

At the buriall of the dead.

But if the sicke person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receive the Communion in his house, then he must give knowledge over night, or els early in the morning to the Curate: signifying also how many hee is appointed to communicate with him. And having a convenient place in the sicke mans house, where the Curate may reverently minister, and a good number to receive the Communion with the sicke person, with all things necessary for the same, hee shall there minister the holy Communion.

The Collect.

Almightie everliving God, maker of mankinde, which doest correct those whom thou doest love, & chastest every one whom thou doest receive: we beseech thee to have mercie upon this thy servant, visited with thy hand, and to grant that he may take his sickenes patiently, and recover his bodily health (if it be thy gracious will) and whensoever his soule shall depart from the body, it may be without spot presented unto thee, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

My sonne, despise not the correction of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him, For whom the Lord loveth, him he correcteth: yea, and he scourgeth every sonne whom he receiveth.

The Gospel.

Verely, verely I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and beleueeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into damnation, but passeth from death to life.

At the time of the distribution of the holy Sacrament, the Priest shall first receive the Communion himselfe, and after minister unto them that be appointed to communicate with the sicke.

But if a man either by reason of extremity of sicknesse, or for want of warning in due time to the Curate, or for lacke of company to receive with him, or by any other just impediment, do not receive the Sacrament of Christs body and blood: then the Curate shall instruct him, that if hee doe truly repent him of his sinnes, and stedfastly believe that Iesus Christ hath suffered death upon the Crosse for him, and shed his blood for his redemption, earnestly remembering the benefits he hath thereby, and giving him hearty thanks therefore, he doth eat and drinke the body and blood of our Saviour Christ profitably to his soules health, although he doe not receive the Sacrament with his mouth.

When the sicke person is visited, and receiveth the holy Communion all at one time, then the Priest for more expedition, shall cut off the forme of the visitation at the Psalme (In thee O Lord, have I put my trust) and goe straight to the Communion.

In the time of Plague, Swarte, or such other like contagious times of sicknesse, or diseases, when none of the parish or neighbours can be gotten to communicate with the sicke in their houses, for feare of the infection, upon special request of the diseased, the Minister may alone communicate with him.

The order for the buriall of the dead.

The Minister meeting the corps at the Church stile, shall say, or els the Minister and Clerkes shall sing, and so goe either unto the Church, or towards the grave.

Am the Resurrection and the life (saith the Lord) he that beleueeth in mee, yea, though hee were dead, yet shall hee live. And whosoever lieth and beleueeth in me, shall not die for ever.

I know that my redeemer lieth, and that I shall rille out of the earth in the last day, and shall be covered againe with my skin; and shall see God in my flesh: yea, and I my selfe shall behold him, not with other men, but with these same eyes.

Where brought nothing into this world, neither may we carry any thing out of this world. The Lord giueth, and the Lord taketh away, Euen as it pleaseth the Lord to commaeth things to passe: Blessed be the Name of the Lord.

When they come to the grave, while the corps is made ready to be layd into the earth, the minister shall say, or the minister and the Clerkes shall sing.

Man that is borne of a woman, hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He commaeth vp and is cut downe like a flowre: he fleeth as it were a shadow, & neuer continueth in one stay. In the midst of life, we be in death: of whom may we seeke for succour but of thee, O Lord, who for our finnes iustly art displeased? Yet O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy & most mercifull Saviour, deliver vs not into the bitter paines of eternal death. Thou knowest Lord y secrets of our hearts, shut not vp thy mercifull eyes to our prayers: But spare vs Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and mercifull Saviour, thou most worthy Iudge eternall, suffer vs not at our last houre for any paines of death to fall fro thee,

Then while the earth shall be cast upon the body, by some banding by the Minister shall say.

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his great mercy, to take unto himselfe the soule of our deare brother here departed, we therefore commit his body to the ground, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, in sure and certaine hope of resurrection to eternal life, through our Lord Iesus Christ, who shall change our vile body that it may be like to his glorious body, according to the mighty working whereby he is able to subdue all things to himselfe.

Then shall be sung or said.

I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, From henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord: euen to saith the Spirit, that they rest from their labours.

Reu. 14. 13.

Then shall follow this Lesson taken out of the 15. Chapter to the Corinthians, the first Epistle.

Christ is risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that sleepe. For by a man came death, and by a man came the resurrection of the dead. For as by Adam all die, euen so by Christ shall all be made alive, but every man in his owne order. The first is Christ, then they that are Christs at his coming. Then cometh the end when he hath deliuered vp the kingdom to God the Father, when hee hath put down all rule, and all authority, and power. For he must reigne till he hath put all his enemies vnder his feete. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. For hee hath put all things vnder his feete. But when he saith, All things are put vnder him, it is manifest that he is excepted which hath put all things vnder him. When all things are subdued unto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe bee subiect vnto him.

1. Cor. 15. 20

him that put all things vnder him, that God may bee all in all. Els what do they which are baptized out of the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptized out of them? yea, and why stand we alway then in iopardy? By our reioicing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die dayly. That I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus after the manner of men, what advantage it meit the dead rise not againe? Let vs eate and drinke, for to morrow we shall die. Be not deceiued, euill words corrupt good manners. Awaketruly out of sleepe, and sinne not. For some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame. But some man will say, How rise the dead? With what body shall they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest, is not quicked except it die. And what sowest thou? thou sowest not the bodie that shall be, but bare corne, as of wheate, or some other: but God giueth it a body at his pleasure, to euery seede his owne body. All flesh is not one manner of flesh: but there is one manner of flesh or men, another manner of flesh of beasts, another of fishes: another of birds. There are also celestiall bodies, and there are bodies terrestriall. But the glory of the celestiall is one, and the glory of the terrestriall is another. There is one manner of glory of the Sunne, another glory of the Moone, and another of the Starres. For one Starre differeth from another in glory: so is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it riseth againe in incorruption: it is sown in dishonour, it riseth againe in honour: it is sown in weaknesse, it riseth againe in power. It is sown a naturall body, it riseth againe a spirituall body. There is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall bodie an it is also written, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule, and the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. Howbeit that is not first which is spirituall, but that which is naturall, and then that which is spirituall. The first man is of the earth earthly: the second man is the Lord from heauen, heauenly. As is the earthly, such are they that bee earthly. And as is the heauenly such are they that are heauenly. And as wee haue borne the image of the earth, so shall we beare the image of the heauenly. This say I brethren that flesh and blood cannot inherite the kingdome of God neither doth corruption inherite incorruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery, we shall not all sleepe, but we shall all be changed, and that in a moment in the twinkling of an eye, by the last trump. For the trump shall blow and the dead shall rise incorruptible, and wee shall be changed: for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortall must put on immortallitie. When this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on im-mortalitie, then shall be brought to passe the saying: that is written, Death is swallowed vp into victory: Death where is thy sting? tell where is thy victory? The sting of death is sinne, and the strength of sinne is the Lawe: but thanks bee vnto God, which hath giuen vs victory through our Lord Iesus Christ. Therefore my deare brethren, be ye stedfast and vnmoueable, alwayes rich in the worke of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know how that your labour is not in vaine in the Lord.

The Lesson ended, the Minister shall say,

Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

Christ haue mercy vpon vs,

Lord haue mercie vpon vs.

¶ Our Father which art in heauen, &c.

And leade vs not into temptation, &c.

Answer

But deliuer vs from euill, Amen.

Minister.

Almighty God, with whom doeth liue the spirit of them that depart hence in the Lord, and in whom the soules of them that be elected, after they be deliuered from the burden of the flesh, bee in ioy and felicitie: Wee giue thee hearty thanks for that thou hast pleased thee to deliuer this N. our brother, out of the miseries of this sinful world, beseeching thee that it may please thee of thy gracious goodnesse, shortly to accomplish the number of thine elect, and to hasten thy kingdome, that we with this our brother, and all other departed in the true faith of thy holy Name, may haue our perfect consummation and blisse, both in body and soule, in thy eternall and euertlasting glory. Amen.

The Collect.

O Mercifull God, the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life, in whom whosoever beleueth shall liue, though he die, and whosoever liueth, and beleueth in him, shall not die eternally, who also taught vs (by his holy Apostle Paul) not to be glory, as men without hope, for them that sleepe in him: wee meekly beleeue thee, O Father, to raise vs vp from the death of sinne vnto the life of righteousnesse, that when we shall depart this life we may rest in him, as our hope is this our brother doeth: and that at the generall resurrection in the last day wee may be found acceptable in thy sight, and receiue that blessing which thy welbeloued Sonne shall then pronounce to all that loue and feare thee saying, Come ye blessed children of my Father, receiue the kingdome prepared for you from the beginning of the world. Grant this, we beseech thee, O mercifull Father, through Iesus Christ our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

¶ The thanksgiuing of women after childbirth, commonly called The Churching of women.

¶ The woman shall come into the Church, and there shall kysse downe in some conuenient place, nigh vnto the place where the Table standeth, and the Priest standing by her shall say these words or such like, as the case shall require.

Orasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God of his goodnesse to giue you safe deliuerance, and hath preferred you in the great danger of childbirth, yee shall therefore giue hearty thanks vnto God, and pray.

Then shall the Priest say thus Psalme.

I haue lifted vp mine eyes vnto the hill: from whence cometh my helpe.

My helpe cometh euen from the Lord: which hath made heauen and earth.

He will not suffer thy foote to be moued: and he that keepeth thee will not sleepe.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleepe.

The Lord himselfe is thy Keeper: the Lord is thy defence vpon thy right hand.

So that the Sunne shall not burne thee by day:

¶ Let vs pray.

O Almighty God which hast deliuered this woman thy seruante from the great paine and perill of child birth: grant we beseech thee most mercifull Father, that shee through thy helpe, may both faithfully liue, and walke in her vocation, according to thy will in this life present, and also may be partaker of euerlasting glory in the life to come, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

The woman that commeth to giue her thanks, must offer her accustomed offerings: and if there be a Communion it is comenient that she receive the holy Communion.

¶ A Commination against finners, with certaine prayers to be vsed diuerstimes in the yeere,

After Morning prayer, the people being called together by the ringing of a Bell, and assembled in the Church, the English Leetany shall be said after the accustomed manner: which ended the Minister shall goe into the pulpit, and say thus.

Brethren, in the Primitiue Church there was a godly discipline, that at the beginning of Lent such persons as were notorious finners, were put to open penance, & punished in this world, that their soules might be faued in the day of the Lord: & that other admonished by their example, might be the more afraid to offend.

In the stead whereof, vntill the said discipline may be restored again (which thing is much to be wished) it is thought good, that at this time in your presence should be read the general sentences of Gods cursing against impenitent finners, gathered out of the 27. Chapter of Deuteronomie, and other places of Scripture and that ye should answer to euery sentence, Amen: to the intent that you being admonished of the great indignation of God against finners, may the rather bee called to earnest and true repentance, and may walke more warily in these dangerous dayes, fleeing from such vices, for the which yee asfume with your owne mouthes the curse of God to be due.

Cursed is the man that maketh any carved or molten image, an abomination to the Lord, the worke of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place to worship it.

And the people shall answer and say,

Amen.

Minister.

Cursed is he that curseth his father and mother.

Mat. 25. 33, 34. ¶ Then shall they all kneele vpon their knees, and the Minister and Clarke kneeling (where they are accustomed to say the Letany,) shall say this Psalm.

¶ Miserere mei Deus.

HAue mercie vpon mee, O God, after thy great goodnesse: according to the multitude of thy mercies doe away mine offences.

Wash mee thoroughly from my wickednesse: and cleanse me from my sinne.

For I knowlege my faults: and my sinne is euer before mee.

Against thee onely haue I sinned, and done this euill in thy sight: that thou mightest bee iustified in thy saying, and cleare when thou art iudged.

Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: and in sinne hath my mother conceiued me.

But loe, thou requirest truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to vnderstand wisdom secretly.

Thou shalt purge mee with hyssop, and I shall be cleane: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter then snow.

Thou shalt make me heare of ioy and gladnes: that the bones which thou hast broken, may reioyce.

Turne thy face from my finnes: and put out all my misdeeds.

Make me a cleane heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy Spirit from me.

O giue mee the comfort of thy helpe againe: and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

Then shall I teach thy wayes vnto the wicked: and sinners shall be converted vnto thee.

Deliver me from blood guiltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my heath: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteounesse.

Thou shalt open my lips (O Lord): my mouth shall shew thy praise.

For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I giue it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offering;

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart (O God) wilt thou not despise.

O bee fauourable and gracious vnto Sion: build thou the wall of Iherusalem.

Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteounesse, with the burnt offerings and oblations: then shall they offer yong bullocks vpon thine altar.

that thou hast made, which wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turne from sinne, and be saued: mercifully forgie vs our trespasses, receiue and comfort vs which be grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins: thy propertie is to haue mercie, to thee onely it appertaineth to forgie sins. Spare vs therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed: enter not into iudgement with thy seruants, which be vile earth, and miserable sinners: but so turne thine ire from vs, which meekely knowledge our vilnesse, and truly repent vs of our faults: so make haste to helpe vs in this world, that wee may euer liue with thee in the world to come, through Iesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

¶ Then shall the people say this that followeth, after the Minister.

T Vine thou vs, O good Lord, and so shall wee be turned: be fauourable, O Lord, be fauourable to thy people, which turne to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying: for thou art a mercifull God, full of compassion, long suffering, and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserue punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest vpon mercie Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion, Heare vs, O Lord, for thy mercie is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies looke vpon vs.

The Psalmes of Dauid, of that Translati- on, which is commonly used in the Churches.

Morning
prayer.

Beatus vir qui non abiit. Psal. 1.

Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsell of the vngodly, nor stand in the way of sinners: and hath not sit in the seat of the scornfull.

2 But his delight is in the Law of the Lord: and in his Law will he exercise himselfe day and night,

3 And he shalbe like a tree planted by the water side: that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

4 His lease also shal not wither: and looke what he doeth, it shall prosper.

5 As for the vngodly, it is not so with them: but they are like the chaffe which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

6 Therefore the vngodly shal not be able to stand in the Iudgement: neither the sinners in the Congregation of the righteous,

7 But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: and the way of the vngodly shall perish.

Quare fremuerunt. Psal. 2.

Why doe the heathen so furiously rage together: & why doe the people imagine a vaine thing?

2 The kings of the earth stand vp, and the rulers take counsell together against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

3 Let vs brake their bonds asunder: and cast away their cords from vs.

4 He that dwelleth in heauen shal laugh them to scorn: the Lord shal haue them in derision.

5 Then shall hee speake vnto them in his wrath: and vexe them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet haue I set my king: vpon my holy hill of Sion.

7 I will preach the Law, whereof the Lord hath said vnto me: Thou art my Sonne, this day haue I begotten thee.

8 Desire of me, and I shall giue thee the heathen for thine inheritance: and the vttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt bruite them with a rod of yron: and breake them in peeces like a potters vessell.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be learned ye that are Iudges of the earth.

11 Serue the Lord in feare: and reioyce vnto him with reuerence.

12 Kisse the Son, lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the right way: if his wrath be kindled (yea but a little) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Domine quid. Psal. 3.

Lord how are they increased that trouble me: many are they that rise against me.

2 Many onethere be that say of my soule: there is no helpe for him in his God.

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defender: thou art my worship, and the lifter vp of my head.

4 I did call vpon the Lord with my voyce: and he heare me out of his holy hill.

5 I lay me downe and slept, and rose vp againe: for the Lord sustained me.

6 I wil not be afraid for ten thousands of people: that haue set themselves against me round about.

7 Vp Lord, and helpe me, O my God: for thou smitest all mine enemies: vpon the cheeke bone, thou hast broken the teeth of the vngodly.

8 Saluation belongeth vnto the Lord: and thy blessing is vpon the people.

Cum inuocarem. Psal. 4.

Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: for thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble, haue mercie vpon me, and hearken vnto my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long wil ye blaspHEME mine honour: and haue such pleasure in vanity, and seeke after leasing?

3 Know this also that the Lord hath chosen to himselfe the man that is godly: when I call vpon the Lord, he will heare me.

4 Stand in awe and sinne not: commune with your owne heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

5 Offer the sacrifice of righteousness: and put your trust in the Lord.

6 There be many that say: who will shew vs any good?

7 Lord lift thou vp: the light of thy countenance vpon vs.

8 Thou hast put gladnes in mine heart: since the time that their corne and wine and oyle increased.

9 I will lay me downe in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou Lord only that makst me dwell in safety.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. 5.

Ponder my words, O Lord: consider my meditation.

2 O hearken thou vnto the voice of my calling, my King & my God: for vnto thee will I make my prayer.

3 My voyce shalt thou heare beimes, O Lord: early in the morning will I direct my prayer vnto thee, and will looke vp.

4 For thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wickednesse: neither shalt any euill dwell with thee.

5 Such as be foolish shall not stand in thy sight: for thou hatest all them that work vanity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speake leasing: the Lord will abhorre both the bloodthirsty and deceitfull man.

7 But as for mee, I will come into thy house, euery vpon the multitude of thy mercies: and in thy feare will I worship toward thy holy Temple.

8 Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies: make thy way plaine before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in his mouth: their inward parts are very wickednesse.

10 Their throat is an open sepulchre, they flatter with their tongue.

11 Destroy thou them, O God, let them perish through their owne imaginations: cast them out in the multitude of their vngodlinesse, for they haue rebelled against thee.

12 And let all them that put their trust in thee, reioyce: they shall euer be giuing of thanks, because thou defendest them, they that loue thy Name shalbe ioyfull in thee.

13 For thou, Lord, wilt giue thy blessing vnto the righteous: and with thy fauourable kindnesse wilt thou defend him as with a shield.

Domine ne in fure. Psal. 6.

O Lord rebuke mee not in thine indignation: neither chasten me in thy displeasure.

2 Haue mercie vpon me, O Lord, for I am weake: O Lord heale me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soule is also more troubled: but Lord how long wilt thou punish me?

Evening
prayer.

4 Turne thee, O Lord, and deliuer my soule: Oh saue me for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death no man remembreth thee: and who will giue thankes in the pit?

6 I am weary of my groning, euery night wash I my bed: and water my couch with my teares.

7 My beauty is gone for very trouble: and worne away because of all mine enemies.

8 Away from me al ye that worke vanity: for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receiue my prayer.

10 All mine enemies shall be confounded & sore vexed: they shall be turned back, & put to shame suddenly.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. 7.

O Lord my God, in thee haue I put my trust: saue me fro all them that persecute me & deliuer me.

2 Left he deuoure my soule like a Lion, and teare it in pieces: while there is none to helpe.

3 O Lord my God, if I haue done any such thing or if there be any wickednes in my hands.

4 If I haue rewarded euill vnto him that dealt friendly with me: yea, I haue deliuered him that without any cause is mine enemy.

5 Then let mine enemy persecute my soule, and take me: yea, let him tread my life downe vpon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Stand vp, O Lord, in thy wrath, and lift vp thy selfe: because of the indignation of mine enemies, arise vp for me in judgement that thou hast commanded.

7 And to shall the congregation of the people come about thee: for their sakes therefore lift vp thy selfe againe.

8 The Lord shall iudge the people, giue sentence with me, O Lord: according to my righteounes, and according to the innocencie that is in me.

9 O let the wickednesse of the vngodly come to an end: but guide thou the iust.

10 For the righteous God: trieth the very hearts and reins.

11 My helpe cometh of God: which preferueth them that are true of heart.

12 God is a righteous iudge, strong and patient: and Ged is prouoked euery day.

13 If a man will not turne, he wil whet his sword: he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

14 Hee hath prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordeineth his arrows against the perfecters.

15 Behold, he trauaileth with mischief: he hath conceived sorrow, and brought forth vngodlines.

16 He hath grauen and digged vp a pit: and is fallen himselfe into the destruction y he made for other.

17 For his trauell that come vpon his owne head: and his wickednes shall fall on his owne pate.

18 I wil giue thanks vnto the Lord, according to his righteounes: and will praye the Name of the Lord the most High.

Domine Dominus. Psal. 8.

O Lord our gouernour, how excellent is thy Name in all the world: thou that hast set thy glory about the heauens!

2 Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordeined strength, because of thine enemies, thou mightest still the enemy and the auenger.

3 For I will consider the heauens, euen the works of thy fingers: the Moone and the stars which thou hast ordained.

4 What is man that thou art mind'ul of him: and the sonne of man that thou visitest him?

5 Thou madest him lower then the Angels: to crowne him with glory and worship.

6 Thou makest him to haue dominion of the works of thy hands: and thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete.

7 All sheep and oxen: yea, & the beasts of the field.

8 The foules of the ayre, and the fishes of the Sea: & what soeuer walketh thorow the paths of the seas.

9 O Lord our gouernour: how excellent is thy Name in all the world!

Confitebor tibi. Psal. 9.

I Will giue thankes vnto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will speake of all thy marueilous works. Morning prayer.

2 I wil be glad & reioyce in thee: yea, my songs wil I make of thy Name, O thou most High.

3 While mine enemies are driuen backe: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause: thou art set in the Throne that iudgeth right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, & destroyed the vngodly: thou hast put out their name for euer & euer.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: euen as the cities which thou hast destroyed, their memoriall is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shall endure for euer: he hath also prepared his seat for iudgement.

8 For he shall iudge the world in righteounes: and minister true iudgement vnto the people.

9 The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed: euen a refuge in due time of trouble.

10 And they that know thy Name, wil put their trust in thee: for thou Lord hast neuer failed them that seeke thee.

11 O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Sion: shew the people of his doings.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaints of the poore.

13 Haue mercie vpon mee, O Lord, consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate mee: thou that liftest me vp from the gates of death.

14 That I may shew al thy praises within the ports of the daughter of Sion: I wil reioyce in thy saluation.

15 The heathen are sunke downe in the pit that they made: in the same net which they hid priuily is their foote taken.

16 The Lord is knowne to execute iudgement: the vngodly is trapped in the works of his owne hands.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the people that forget God.

18 For the poore shall not alway be forgotten: the patient abiding of the meeke shall not perish for euer.

19 Vp Lord, and let not man haue the vpper hand: let the heathen be iudged in thy sight.

20 Put them in feare (O Lord) that the heathen may know themselves to be but men.

Ut quid Domine. Psal. 10.

Why standest thou so farre off (O Lord): & hidest thy face in the needfull time of trouble?

2 The vngodly for his owne lust doeth persecute the poore: let them be taken in the crafty wilnes that they haue imagined.

3 For the vngodly hath made boast of his owne hearts desire: and speaketh good of the couetous whom God abhorreth.

4 The vngodly is so prond, that he careth not for God: neither is God in all his thoughts.

5 His wayes are alwayes grievous: thy iudgements are farre aboue our of his sight, and therefore desiet he all his enemies.

6 For he hath said in his heart, I shall neuer be be cast downe: there shall no harme happen vnto me.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, deceit and fraude: vnder his tongue is vngodlinesse and vanitie.

8 He sitteth lurking in the cheeuish corners of the streets: and in priuily in his lurking dens doth he murder the innocent, his eyes are set against the poore.

9 For he lieth waiting secretly, even as a lion lurketh he in his denne: that he may rauish the poore.

10 Hee doth rauish the poore: when hee getteth him into his net.

11 He falleth downe and humbleth himselfe: that the congregation of the poore may fall into the hand of his captaines.

12 He hath said in his heart, Tush, God hath forgotten: he hideth away his face, & he will neuer see it.

13 Arise (O Lord God) and lift vp thy hand: forget not the poore.

14 Wherefore should the wicked blaspheme God: while he doth say in his heart, Tush, thou God carest not for it?

15 Surely thou hast seene it: for thou beholdest vngodlinesse and wrong.

16 That thou mayest take the matter into thy hand: the poore committeth himselfe vnto thee, for thou art the helper of the friendlesse.

17 Breake thou the power of the vngodly & malicious: take away his vngodlinesse, & thou shalt finde none.

18 The Lord is King for euer and euer: and the heauen are perished out of the land.

19 Lord thou hast heard the desire of the poore: thou preparest their heart, & thine ear hearkeneth thereto.

20 To helpe the fatherlesse, and poore vnto their right: that the man of the earth be no more exalted against them.

In Domino confido. Psalm. 11.

IN the Lord put I my trust: how say you then to my soule, that the should flee as a bird vnto the hill?

2 For loe, the vngodly bend their bow, and make ready their arrows within the quiver: that they may priuily shooote at them which are true of heart.

3 For the foundations will be cast downe: and what hath the righteous done?

4 The Lord is in his holy Temple: the Lords seat is in heauen.

5 His eyes consider the poore: and his eye liddes tryeth the children of men.

6 The Lord alloweth the righteous: but the vngodly, and him that delighteth in wickednesse doth his soule abhorre.

7 Vpon the vngodly he shall raine snares, fire, and brimstone, storme and tempest: this shall bee their portion to drinke.

8 For the righteous Lord loueth righteousness: his countenance will behold the thing that is iust.

Saluum me fac. Psalm. 12.

Help me Lord, for there is not one godly man left: for the faithfull are diminished from among the children of men.

2 They talke of vantage euery one with his neighbour: they doe but flatter with their lips, and dissemble with their double heart.

3 The Lord shall root out all deceitfull lips: and the tongue that speaketh proude things.

4 Which haue said, with our tongue wee will preuaile: wee are they that ought to speake, who is Lord ouer vs?

5 Now for the comfortles troubles sake of the needie: and because of the deepe sighing of the poore.

6 I will vp (saith the Lord:) and will help euery one from him that swellth against him, and will set them at rest:

7 The words of the Lord are pure words, euen as the silver which from the earth is tryed, and purified seven times in the fire.

8 Thou shalt keepe them, O Lord: thou shalt preserve him from this generation for euer.

9 The vngodly walke on euery side: when they are exalted, the children of men are put to rebuke.

Vsquequo Domine. Psalm. 13.

How long wilt thou forget me (O Lord) for euer: how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I seeke counsell in my soule, and be so vexed in my heart: how long shall mine enemies triumph ouer me?

3 Consider and heare me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, that I sleepe not in death.

4 Left mine enemy say, I haue preuailed against him: for if I be cast downe, they that trouble me will reioyce at it.

5 But my trust is in thy mercy: and my heart is ioyfull in thy saluation.

6 I will sing of the Lord, because hee hath dealt so lovingly with me: yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord, most high.

Dixit insipiens. Psalm. 14.

THe fool hath said in his heart there is no God.

2 They are corrupt and become abominable in their doings: there is not one that doeth good (no not one.)

3 The Lord looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men: to see if there were any that would vnderstand and seeke after God:

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

5 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues haue they deceived: the poylon of Aspes is vnder their lips.

6 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: their feet are swift to shed blood.

7 Destruction and vnhappinesse is in their waies: and the way of peace haue they not knowne, there is no feare of God before their eyes.

8 Haue they no knowledge, that they are all such workers of mischief: eating vp my people as it were bread?

9 And call not vpon the Lord, there were they brought in great feare (euen where no feare was): for God is in the generation of the righteous.

10 As for you, ye haue made a mocke at the counsaile of the poore: because hee putteth his trust in the Lord.

11 Who shall giue saluation vnto Israel out of Sin: when the Lord turneth the captiuitie of his people, then shall Iacob reioyce, and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quis habitabit? Psalm. 15.

Lord who shall dwell in thy Tabernacle: or who shall rest vpon thy holy hill?

2 Euen hee that leadeth an vncorrupt life: and doeth the thing that is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.

3 Hee that hath vsed no deceite in his tongue, nor done euill to his neighbour: and hath not slandered his neighbours.

4 He that setteth not by himselfe, but is lowly in his owne eyes: and maketh much of them that feare the Lord.

5 He that sweareth vnto his neighbour, and disappointeth him not: though it were to his own hindrance.

6 Hee that hath not giuen his money vpon vsu-ries

rie: nor taken reward against the innocent.

7 Who fo doeth these things: shall neuer fall.

Confirma me. Psal. 16.

PReferue me, O God: for in thee haue I put my trust.

2 O my soule, thou hast saide vnto the Lord: thou art my God, my goods are nothing vnto thee.

3 All my delight is vpon the Saints that are in the earth: and vpon such as excell in vertue.

4 But they that runne after another god: shall haue great trouble.

5 Their drinke offerings of blood wil I not offer: neither make mention of their names within my lips.

6 The Lord himselfe is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou shalt maintaine my lot.

7 The lot is fallen vnto me in a faire ground: yea, I haue a goodly heritage.

8 I wil chanke the Lord for giuing me warning: my reines also chasten me in the night season.

9 I haue set God alwayes before mee: for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.

10 Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glorie reioyced: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

11 For why? thou shalt not leaue my soule in hel: neither shalt thou suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

12 Thou shalt shew mee the pathes of life, in thy presence is the fullnesse of ioy: and at thy right hand there is pleasure for euermore.

Exaudi Domine iustitiam. Pal. 17.

Hear the right, O Lord, consider my complaint: and hearken vnto my prayer: that goeth not out offained lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence: and let thine eyes looke vpon the thing that is equall.

3 Thou hast proued and visited mine heart in the night season, thou hast tryed mee, and shalt finde no wickednesse in me: for I am vterly purposed, that my mouth shall not offend.

4 Because of mens workes that are done against the words of my lips: I haue kept me from the waies of the destroyer.

5 O hold thou vp my goings in the pathes: that my footsteps slip not.

6 I haue called vpon thee, O God, for thou shalt heare me: encline thine eare to me, and hearken vnto my words.

7 Shew thy marueilous louing kindnesse, thou that art the Sauour of them which put their trust in thee: for such as resist thy right hand.

8 Keepe me as the apple of an eye: hide me vnder the shadow of thy wings.

9 For in the vngodly that trouble me: mine enemies compasse mee round about to take away my soule.

10 They are inclosed in their owne fat: and their mouth speaketh proude things.

11 They lie waiting in our way on euery side: turning their eyes downe to the ground.

12 Like as a Lion that is greedie of his pray: and as it were a Lions whelp lurking in secret places.

13 Vp Lord, disappoint him, and cast him downe: deliuer my soule from the vngodly, which is a sword of thine.

14 From the men of thine hand, O Lord, from the men, I say, and from the euill world: which haue their portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thy hid Treasure.

15 They haue children at their desire: and leaue the rest of their substance for their babes.

16 But as for mee, I will beholde thy presence in righteoussesse: and when I walke vp after thy likeness, I shall be satisfied with it.

Diligam te. Psal. 18.

I Will loue thee (O Lord) my strength, the Lord is my stony rocke and my defence: my Sauour, my God, and my might, in whome I will trust, my buckler, the horn also of my saluation, & my refuge.

2 I will call vpon the Lord, which is worthy to be praised: fo shall I be safe from mine enemies.

3 The furrowes of death compassed me: and the overflowings of vngodlinesse made me afraide.

4 The paine of hell came about me: the snares of death ouertooke me.

5 In my trouble I will call vpon the Lord: and complaine vnto my God.

6 So shall he heare my voice out of his holy Temple: and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter euen into his eares.

7 The earth trembled and quaked: the very foundations also of the hills shooke and were remooued, because he was wroth.

8 There went a smoke out of his presence: and a consuming fire out of his mouth, so that coales were kindled at it.

9 He bowed the heavens also and came downe: and it was darke vnder his feet.

10 He rode vpon the cherubims and did flie: he came flying vpon the wings of the winde.

11 He made darkenesse his secret place: his Paulion round about him, with darke water, and thicke cloudes to couer him.

12 At the brightnesse of his presence his cloudes remooued: hailestones and coales of fire.

13 The Lord also thundred out of heauen, and the highest gaue his thunder: hailestones and coales of fire.

14 He sent out his arrowes and scattered them: he cast forth lightnings, and destroyed them.

15 The springs of waters were seene, and the foundations of the round world were discouered at thy chiding, O Lord: at the blasting of the breath of thy displeasure.

16 He shall send downe from the high to fetch me: and shall take me out of many waters.

17 He shall deliuer me from my strongest enemy, and from them which hate me: for they are too mighty for me.

18 They preuented me in the day of my trouble: but the Lord was my vpholder.

19 He brought me forth also into a place of libertie: he brought me forth, euen because he had a fauor vnto me.

20 The Lord shall reward me after my righteous dealing: according to the cleannesse of my hands shall he recompence me.

21 Because I haue kept the wayes of the Lord: and haue not forsaken my God, as the wicked doth.

22 For I haue an eie vnto all his Lawes: and will not cast out his Commandments from me.

23 I was also vn corrupt before him: and eschewed mine owne wickednesse.

24 Therefore shall the Lord reward mee after my righteous dealing: and according vnto the cleannesse of my hands in his eyesight.

25 With the holy, thou shalt be holy: and with a perfect man thou shalt be perfect.

26 With the cleane, thou shalt bee cleane: and with the froward, thou shalt learne frowardnesse.

27 For thou shalt saue the people that are in aduer-tritic

fitie: & shalt bring downe his high looks of the proud.

28 Thou also shalt light my candle: the Lord my God shall make my darknesse to be light.

29 For in thee I shall discomfit an host of men: and with the help of my God, I shall leape ouer the wall.

30 The way of God is an vndefiled way: the word of the Lord also is tryed in the fire: he is the defender of all them that put their trust in him.

31 For who is God but the Lord: or who hath any strength except our God?

32 It is God that girdeth mee with strength of warre: and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like Harts feet: and setteth me vp on high.

34 He teacheth my hands to fight: & mine armes shall breake euen a bow of Steele.

35 Thou hast giuen mee the defence of thy saluation: thy right hand also shall hold mee vp, and thy louing correction shall make me great.

36 Thou shalt make me enough vnder me for to goe: that my footsteps shall not slide.

37 I will follow vpon mine enemies, and overtake them: neither will I turne againe till I haue destroyed them.

38 I will smite them, that they shall not bee able to stand: but fall vnder my feet.

39 Thou hast girded mee with strength vnto the battell: thou shalt throw downe mine enemies vnder me.

40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turne their backs vpon me: and I shall destroy them that hate me.

41 They shall cry but there shall be none to helpe them: yea, euen vnto the Lord shall they cry, but hee shall not heare them.

42 I will beat them as small as the dust before the wind: I will cast them out as the clay in the streets.

43 Thou shalt deliuer me from the strivings of the people: and thou shalt make me the head of the heathen.

44 A people whom I haue not known: shall serue mee.

45 As soone as they heare of mee, they shall obey me: but the strange children shall dissemble with me.

46 The strange children shall faile: and be afraid out of their prisons.

47 The Lord liueth, and blessed bee my strong helper: and praised be the God of my saluation.

48 Euen the God, which seeth that I bee auenged: and subdueth the people vnto me.

49 It is he that deliuereth me from my (cruell) enemies, and setteth me vp aboue mine aduersaries: thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

50 For this cause will I giue thanks vnto thee (O Lord) among the Gentiles: and sing praises vnto thy Name.

51 Great prosperity giueth he vnto his King: and sheweth louing kindnesse vnto Dauid his annointed, and vnto his seed for euermore.

Celestianant. Psal. 19.

THe heauens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handy worke.

2 One day telleth another: and one night certifieth another.

3 There is neither speech nor language: but their voyces are heard among them.

4 Their sound is goate out into all lands: and their words vnto the ends of the world.

5 In them hath he set a tabernacle for the Sunne: which commeth forth as a bridegome out of his chamber, and reioyeth as a Giant to run his course.

6 It goeth forth from the vttermost part of the heauen, and runneth about vnto the end of it againe: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The Lawe of the Lord is an vndefiled Law, conuerting the soule: the testimonie of the Lord is sure, and giueth wisdom vnto the simple.

8 The statutes of the Lord are right, and reioyce the heart: The Commandement of the Lord is pure, and giueth light vnto the eyes.

9 The feare of the Lord is cleane, and endureth for euer: the iudgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they then gold, yea, then much fine gold: sweeter also then hony, and the honeycombe.

11 Moreouer by them is thy seruant taught: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how oft he offendeth: O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

13 Keepe thy seruant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion ouer me: so shall I be vndefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart: be alway acceptable in thy sight.

15 O Lord: my strength and my redeemer, Exaudiat te Dominus. Psal. 20.

THe Lord heare thee in the day of trouble: the Name of the God of Iacob defend thee.

2 Send thee helpe from the Sanctuary: and strengthen thee out of Zion.

3 Remember all thy offerings: and accept thy burnt sacrifice.

4 Grant thee thy hearts desire: and fulfill all thy minde.

5 We will reioyce in thy saluation, and triumph in the Name of the Lord our God: the Lord performe all thy petitions.

6 Now know I that the Lord helpeth his annointed, and will heare him from his holy heauen: euen with the whole some strength of his right hand.

7 Some put their trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the Name of the Lord our God.

8 They are brought downe and fallen: but we are risen and stand vpright.

9 Saue Lord, and heare vs, O King of heauen: when we call vpon thee.

Dominus in virtute. Psal. 21.

THe King shall reioyce in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy saluation.

2 Thou hast giuen him his hearts desire: and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3 For thou shalt preuent him with the blessings of goodnesse: and shalt set a crowne of pure gold vpon his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gauest him a long life: euen for euer and euer.

5 His honour is great in thy saluation: glory and great worship shalt thou lay vpon him.

6 For thou shalt giue him euermlasting felicity: and make him glad with the ioy of thy Countenance.

7 And why? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord: and in the mercy of the most Highest, he shall not miscarie.

8 All thine enemies shall seele thine hand: thy right hand shall find out them that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt makethem like a ferie ouer in time of thy wrath: the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou root out of the earth: and his seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended mischief against thee: and imagined such a device as they are not able to performe.

12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight: and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make ready against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted Lord in thine owne strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. 22.

MY God, my God (looke vpon mee) why hast thou forsaken mee: and art so farre from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

2 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest.

3 And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel.

4 Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou diddest deliuer them.

5 They called vpon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But as for mee, I am a worme, and no man: a very scorne of men, and the outcast of the people.

7 All they that see me, laugh me to scorne: they shoote out their lips, and shake their heads, saying,

8 He trusted in God, that hee would deliuer him: let him deliuer him, if he will haue him.

9 But thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe: thou wast my hope when I hanged yet vpon my mothers breasts.

10 I haue beene left vnto thee euer since I was borne: thou art my God euen from my mothers wombe.

11 O goe not from me, for trouble is hard at hand: and there is none to helpe me.

12 Many oxen are come about mee: fat bulles of Balan clofe mein on euery side.

13 They gape vpon me with their mouthes: as it were a ramping and roaring Lion.

14 I am powred out like water, and all my bones are out of ioynt: my heart aile in the midst of my bodie is euen like melting waxe.

15 My strength is dried vp like a potheard, and my tongue cleaueth to my gummes: and thou shalt bring me into the dust of death.

16 For (many) dogs are come about me: and the counsell of the wicked layeth siege against me.

17 They pearced my hands and my feet, I may tell all my bones: they stand staring & looking vpon me.

18 They part my garments among them: and cast lots vpon my vesture.

19 But be not thou farre from mee, O Lord: thou art my succour, haste thee to helpe me.

20 Deliuer my soule from the word: my darling from the power of the dogges.

21 Saue mee from the lions mouth: thou hast heard me from among the hornes of the Unicorne.

22 I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren: in the middelt of the Congregation will I praise thee.

23 O praise the Lord ye that feare him: magnifie him all ye of the seed of Iacob, and feare him all yee seed of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the low estate of the poore, he hath not hid his face from him: but when he called vnto him, he heard him.

25 My praise is of the in the great Congregation: my vowes will I performe in the sight of them that feare him.

26 The poore shall eat and be satisfied: they that seeke after the Lord shall praise him, your heart shall liue for euer, 27 All the ends of the world shall remember themselves, and be turned vnto the Lord: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.

28 For the kingdome is the Lords: and hee is the gouernour among the people.

29 All such as bee lat vpon earth: haue eaten and worshipped.

30 All they that goe downe into the dust, shall kneele before him: and no man hath quickned his owne soule.

31 My seed shall serue him: they shall be counted vnto the Lord for a generation.

32 They shall come, and the heauens shall declare his righteoufnesse: vnto a people that shall be borne, whom the Lord hath made.

Dominus regit me. Psal. 23.

THe Lord is my shepheard: therefore can I lacke nothing.

2 He shall feede me in a greene pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

3 He shall conuert my soule: and bring me forth in the pathes of righteoufnesse for his Names sake.

4 Yea, though I walke through the valley of the shadow of death, I will feare no euill: for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staffe comfort me.

5 Thou shalt prepare a table before mee against them that trouble mee: thou hast anointed my head with oyle, and my cup shall be full.

6 But thy louing kindnesse and mercie shall follow me all the dayes of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for euer.

Dominus terra. Psal. 24.

THe earth is the Lords, and all that therein is: the compasse of the world, and they that dwell therein.

Morning prayer.

2 For he hath founded it vpon the seas: and prepared it vpon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend vnto the hill of the Lord: or who shall rise vp in his holy place?

4 Euen hee that hath cleane hands, and a pure heart: and that hath not lift vp his minde vnto vanitie, nor sworne to deceiue his neighbour.

5 Hee shall receiue the blessing from the Lord: and righteoufnesse from the God of his saluation.

6 This is the generation of them that seeke him: euen of them that seeke thy face, O Iacob.

7 Lift vp your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift vp yee euerlasting doores: and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is the King of glory? it is the Lord strong and mightie, euen the Lord mightie in battell.

9 Lift vp your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift vp yee euerlasting doores: and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is the King of glory: euen the Lord of hostes, he is the King of glorie.

Ad te Domine. Psal. 25.

VNto thee, O Lord, wil I lift vp my soule, my God, I haue put my trust in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph ouer me.

2 For all they that hope in thee, shall not be ashamed: but such as transgreffe without a cause, shall be put to confusion.

3 Shew me thy wayes, O Lord: and teach me thy pathes.

4 Leade me forth in thy trueth, and learne me: for thou art the God of my saluation, in thee hath bin my hope all the day long.

5 Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies: and thy louing kindnesse which hath bin euer of olde.

6 Oh, remember not the finnes and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercy thinke thou vpon me (O Lord) for thy goodnesse.

7 Gracious and righteous is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

8 Them that be meeke shall he guide in iudgment: and such as be gentle, them shall he learne his way.

9 All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth vnto such as keep his Couenant, and his testimonies.

10 For thy Names sake, O Lord: be mercifull vnto my sinne, for it is great.

11 What man is hee that feareth the Lord: him shall he teach in the way that he shall chuse.

12 His soule shall dwell at ease: and his seed shall inherite the land.

13 The secret of the Lord is among them that feare him: and he shall shew them his Couenant.

14 Mine eyes are euer looking vnto the Lord: for he shall plucke my feet out of the net.

15 Turne thee vnto me, and haue mercy vpon me: for I am desolate and in misery.

16 The sorrowes of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my trouble.

17 Looke vpon mine aduersitie & miserie: and forgive me all my sinne.

18 Consider mine enemies how many they are: and they beare a tyrannous hate against me.

19 O keepe my soule, and deliuer me: let mee not be confounded, for I haue put my trust in thee.

20 Let perfectnesse and righteous dealing waite vpon me: for my hope hath bene in thee.

21 Deliuer Israel, O God: out of all his troubles.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. 26.

BE thou my Iudge, O Lord, for I haue walked innocently: my trust hath bene also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.

2 Examine me, O Lord, and prouoe mee: try out my reines and my heart.

3 For thy louing kindnesse is euer before mine eyes: and I will walke in thy truth.

4 I haue not dwelt with vaine persons: neither will I haue fellowship with the deceitfull.

5 I haue hated the Congregation of the wicked: and will not sit among the vngodly.

6 I will wash my hands in innocencie, O Lord: and so will I goe to thine altar.

7 That I may shew the voice of thankes-giuing: and tell of all thy wonderous workes.

8 Lord, I haue loued the habitation of thy house: and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

9 O hat not vp my soule with the sinners: nor my life with the bloodthirstie.

10 In whose hands is wickednesse: and their right hands are full of gifts.

11 But as for me, I will walke innocently. O Lord deliuer me, and be mercifull vnto me.

12 My foot standeth right: I will praise the Lord in the Congregations.

Domineus illuminatio. Psal. 27.

THE Lord is my light and my saluation, whome then shall I feare: the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked (euen mine enemies and my foes) came vpon me to eate vp my flesh: they stumbled and fell.

3 Though an hoste of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid: and though there rose vp warre against me, yet will I put my trust in him.

4 One thing haue I desired of the Lord, which I will require: euen that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the dayes of my life, to behold the faire beautie of the Lord, and to visite his Temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his Tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and let me vp vpon a rocke of stone.

6 And now shall hee lift vp mine head: about mine enemies round about me.

7 Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladnesse: I will sing & speake praises vnto the Lord.

8 Hearken vnto my voice, O Lord, when I cry vnto thee: haue mercy vpon me, and heare me.

9 Mine heart hath talked of thee, seeke yee my face: thy face will I seeke.

10 O hide not thy face from me: nor cast thy seruant away in thy displeasure.

11 Thou hast benee my succour: leaue mee not, neither forsake me: O God of my saluation.

12 When my father and my mother forsake mee: the Lord taketh me vp.

13 Teach me thy way, O Lord: and lead me in the right way, because of mine enemies.

14 Deliuer me not ouer into the will of mine aduersaries: for there are false witnessers risen vp against me, and such as speake wrong.

15 I should vtterly haue fainted: but that I beleeue verily to see the goodnesse of the Lord in the land of the liuing.

16 O tary thou the Lords leisure: be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart, and put thou thy trust in the Lord.

Ad te Domine. Psal. 28.

VVnto thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: thinke no scorn of mee, lest if thou make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that go downe into the pit.

2 Heare the voice of my humble petitions when I cry vnto thee: when I holde vp my hands toward the Mercie seat of thy holy Temple.

3 O plucke mee not away (neither destroy mee) with the vngodly and wicked doers: which speake friendly to their neighbours: but imagine mischief in their hearts.

4 Reward them according to their deedes: and according to the wickednes of their own inventions.

5 Recompence them after the worke of their hands: pay them that they haue deserved.

6 For they regard not in their minde the workes of the Lord, nor the operation of his hands: therefore shall he breake them downe, and not build them vp.

7 Praise be the Lord: for he hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.

8 The Lord is my strength and my shield, my heart hath trusted in him & I am helped: therefore my heart daunceth for ioy, and in my long will I praise him.

9 The Lord is my strength: and he is the whole some defence of his anoynted.

10 O saue thy people, & giue thy blessing vnto thine inheritance: feed them, and let them vp for euer.

Afferte Domino. Psal. 29.

Ring vnto the Lord (O ye mightie) bring young Drums vnto the Lord: ascribe vnto the Lord worship and strength.

2 Giue the Lord the honour due vnto his Name: worship the Lord with holy worship.

3 It is the Lord that commandeth the waters: it is the glorious God that maketh the thunder.

4 It is the Lord that ruleth the Sea, the voyce of the Lord is mightie in operation: the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

5 The voyce of the Lord breaketh the Cedar trees: yea, the Lord breaketh the Cedars of Libanus.

6 He made them also to skip like a calfe: Libanus also and Syron like a yong Vnicorne.

7 The voice of the Lord quicketh the flames of fire, the voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness: yea, the Lord shaketh the wilderness of Cades.

8 The voyce of the Lord maketh the Hindes to bring forth yong, and discouereth the thicke bushes: in his Temple doct. euery man speake of his honour.

9 The Lord sitteth aboute the water flood: and the Lord remaineth a King for euer.

10 The Lord shall giue strength vnto his people: the Lord shall giue his people the blessing of peace.

Exaltabo te Domine. P. sal. 30.

I Will magnifie thee, O Lord, for thou hast let mee vp: and not made my foes to triumph ouer me.

2 O Lord my God, I cryed vnto thee: and thou hast healed me.

3 Thou Lord hast brought my soule out of hel: thou hast kept my life from the that goe downe to the pit.

4 Sing praises vnto the Lord (O ye Saints of his:) and giue thanks to him for a remembrance of his holinesse.

5 For his wrath endureth but the twinkling of an eye, and in his pleasure is life: heauinesse may endure for a night, but ioy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperitie I said, I shall neuer be remoued: thou Lord of thy goodnesse hadst made my hill so strong.

7 Thou diddest turne thy face (from me:) and I was troubled.

8 Then cryed I vnto thee, O Lord: and gate mee vnto the Lord right humbly.

9 What profite is there in my blood: when I goe downe to the pit?

10 Shall the dust giue shanks vnto thee: or shall it declare thy truth?

11 Heare, O Lord, and haue mercy vpon me: Lord be thou my helper.

12 Thou hast turned my heauinesse into ioy: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladnesse.

13 Therefore shall euery good man sing of thy praise without ceasing: O my God, I wil giue thanks vnto thee for euer.

In te Domine speravi. P. sal. 31.

IN thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust, let me neuer be put to confusion: deliuer me in thy righteousness.

2 Bow downe thine eare to me: make haste to deliuer me.

3 And be thou my strong rock, and the house of defence: that thou mayest save me.

4 For thou art my strong rocke, and my castle: be thou also my guide, and lead me for thy Names sake.

5 Draw me out of the net that they haue laid priuily for me: for thou art my strength.

6 Into thy hands I commend my spirit: for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth.

7 I haue hated them that hold of superstitious vanities: and my trust hath bene in the Lord.

8 I wil be glad, and reioyce in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble, & hast known my soule in aduersities.

9 Thou hast not shut mee vp into the hand of the enemy: but hast let my feet in a large roome.

10 Haue mercy vpon mee, O Lord, for I am in trouble: and mine eye is consumed for very heauinesse, yea, my soule and my body.

11 For my life is waxen olde with heauinesse: and my yeeres with mourning.

12 My strength faileth me, because of mine iniquitie: and my bones are consumed.

13 I became a reproofe among all mine enemies, but specially among my neighbors: and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me, and they that did see me without, conueyed themselves from me.

14 I am cleane forgotten, as a dead man out of minde: I am become like a broken vessel.

15 For I haue heard the blaphemy of the multitude: and feare is on euery side, while they conspire together against mee, and take their counsell to take away my life.

16 But my hope hath bene in thee, O Lord: I haue said, Thou art my God.

17 My time is in thy hand, deliuer me from the hand of mine enemies: and from them that persecute me.

18 Shew thy seruant the light of thy countenance: and saue me for thy mercies sake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I haue called vpon thee: let the vngodly be put to confusion, and be put to silence in the grave.

20 Let the lying lips be put to silence: which cruelly, disdainfully, and despitefully speake against the righteous.

21 O how plentifull is thy goodnesse, which thou hast laide vp for them that feare thee: and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, euen before the sonnes of men.

22 Thou shalt hide them priuily by thine owne presence, from the prouoking of all men: thou shalt keepe them secretly in thy Tabernacle from the strife of tongues.

23 Thanks be to the Lord: for hee hath shewed me marvellous great kindnesse in a strong Citie.

24 And when I made haste, I said: I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes.

25 Neuertheless, thou heardest the voyce of my prayer: when I cryed vnto thee.

26 O how the Lord alye his Saints: for the Lord preferueth them that are faithfull, and plenteously rewardeth the proud doer.

27 Be strong, and he shall establish your heart: all ye that put your trust in the Lord.

Beati quorum. P. sal. 32.

Blessed is hee whose vnrightheousnesse is forgiven: and whose sinne is couered.

2 Blessed is the man, vnto whom the Lord impureth no sin: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 For while I held my tongue: my bones consumed away through my dayly complaining.

4 For thy hand is heauy vpon mee day and nights and my moysture is like the drought in Summer.

5 I will knowledge my sinne vnto thee: and mine vnrightheousnesse haue I not hid.

6 I said, I will confesse my finnes vnto the Lord: and so thou forgavest the wickednesse of my sinne.

7 For this shall euery one that is godly make his prayer vnto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: but in the great water floods they shall not come nigh him.

8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compasse me about with songs of deliuerance.

9 I wil enforme thee, & teach thee in every way wherein thou shalt goe: and I will guide thee with mine eye.

10 Be ye not like to horse and mule, which haue no vnderstanding: whose mouthes must be holden with bit and bridle, lest they fall vpon thee.

11 Great plagues remaine for the vngodly: but who so putteth his trust in the Lord mercy embraceth him on euery side.

12 Be glad, O ye righteous, and reioyce in the Lord: and be ioyfull all ye that are true of heart.

Exultate in Domino. Psal. 33.

Reioyce in the Lord, O yee righteous: for it becometh well the iust to be thankfull.

2 Praise the Lord with Harpe: sing Psalmes vnto him with the Lute and instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing vnto the Lord a new song: sing prayles Iustly (vnto him) with a good courage.

4 For the word of the Lord is true: and all his workes are faithfull.

5 Hee loueth righteousness and iudgement: the earth is full of the goodnesse of the Lord.

6 By the word of the Lord were the heauens made: and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the Sea together, as it were vpon an heape: and layeth vp the deepe as in a treasure house.

8 Let all the earth feare the Lord: stand in awe of him al ye that dwell in the world.

9 For he sapeake, and it was done. hee commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The Lord bringeth the counsell of the he: then to nought: and maketh the deuices of the people to bee of none effect, y and cisteth out the counleis of Princes.

11 The counsell of the Lord shall endure for euer: and the thoughts of his heart from generation to generation.

12 Blessed are the people whose God is the Lord Iehou: and blessed are the folke that hee hath chosen to him to be his inheritance.

13 The Lord looked downe from heauen, & beheld all the children of men: from the habitation of his dwelling he considereth all the that dwell in earth.

14 Hee fashioneth all the hearts of them: and vnderstandeth all their workes.

15 There is no king that can be saued by the multitude of an hoste: neither is any mighty man deliuered by much strength.

16 An horse is counted but a vaine thing to saue a man: neither shall hee deliuer any man by his great strength.

17 Behold, the eye of the Lord is vpon them that feare him: and vpon them that put their trust in his mercie.

18 To deliuer their soules from death: and to feed them in the time of death.

19 Our soule hath patiently taried for the Lord: for he is our helpe and our shield.

20 For our heart shall reioyce in him: because wee haue hoped in his holy Name.

21 Let thy mercifull kindnesse (O Lord) be vpon vs: like as we doe put our trust in thee.

Benedicam Domino. Pal. 34.

I Will alway giue thanks vnto the Lord: his praise shall euer be in my mouth

2 My soule shall make her boast of the Lord: the humble shall heare thereof and be glad.

3 O praise the Lord with mee: and let vs magnifie his Name together.

4 I fought the Lord, and he heard me: yea, he deliuered me out of all my feare.

5 They had an eye vnto him, and were lightned: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 Loe, the poore cryeth, and the Lord heareth him: yea, and saueh him out of all his troubles.

7 The Angel of the Lord tarieth round about them that feare him: and deliuereth them.

8 O taste and see how gracious the Lord is: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O feare the Lord ye that be his Saints: for they that feare him, lacke nothing.

10 The lions doe lacke, and suffer hunger: but they which seeke the Lord, shall want no manner of thing that is good.

11 Come ye children, and hearken vnto me: I will teach you the feare of the Lord.

12 What man is he that lusteth to liue, and would faine see good dayes: keepe thy tongue from euill, and thy lips that they speake no guile.

13 Elchew euill, and do good: seeke peace, & ensee it.

14 The eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous: and his eares are open vnto their prayers.

15 The countenance of the Lord is against them that doe euill: to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.

16 The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth them: and deliuereth them out of all their troubles.

17 The Lord is nigh vnto them that are of a contrite hart: & will saue such as be of an humble spirit.

18 Great are the troubles of the righteous: but the Lord deliuereth him out of all.

19 He keepeth all his bones: so that not one of them is broken.

20 But misfortune shall slay the vngodly: and they that hate the righteous, shall be desolate.

21 The Lord deliuereth the soules of his seruants: and all they that put their trust in him, shall not be destitute.

Iudica Domine. Psal. 35.

Plead thou my cause, O Lord, with them that strue with me: and fight thou against them that fight against me.

2 Lay hand vpon the shield and buckler: and stand vp to helpe me.

3 Bring forth the speare, and stop the way against them that persecute mee: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backe, and brought to confusion, that imagine mischief for me.

5 Let them bee as the duff before the winde: and the Angel of the Lord, scatter them.

6 Let their way be darke and slippery: and let the Angel of the Lord persecute them.

7 For they haue priuily laid their net to destroy me without a cause: yea, euen without a cause haue they made a pit for my soule.

8 Let a sudden destruction come vpon him vnawares, and his net that hee hath laid priuily, catch himselfe: that he may fall into his owne mischief.

9 And my soule, be ioyfull in the Lord: it shall reioyce in his saluation.

10 All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like vnto thee, which deliuereth the poore from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poore and him that is in miserie, from him that spoileth him.

11 False witnesse did lie vp: they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me euill for good: to the great discomfort of my soule.

13 Neuertheless, when they were sicke, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soule with fasting: and my prayer shall turne into mine owne bosome.

14 I behaued my selfe as though it had beene my friend, or my brother: I went heauily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine aduersitie they reioyced, and gathered them together: yea, the very abjects came together against me vnawares, making mowes at mee, and ceased not.

16 With the flatterers were busie mockers: which gnawed vpon me with their teeth.

Morning prayer.

17 Lord, how long wilt thou looke vpon this: O deliuer my soule from the calamities which they bring on me, and my darling from the Lions.

18 So will I giue thee thanks in the great Congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

19 O let not them that are mine enemies triumph ouer me vngodly: neither let them winke with their eyes that hate me without a cause.

20 And why? their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitfull words against them that are quiet in the land.

21 They gaped on mee with their mouthes, and said: Fie on thee, fie on thee, we saw it with our eyes.

22 This thou hast fene, O Lord: holde not thy tongue then, goe not farre from me O Lord.

23 Awake and stand vp to iudge my quarrell: avenge thou my cause, my God and my Lord.

24 Iudge me, O Lord my God, according to thy righteounesse: and let them not triumph ouer me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, There, there, so would we haue it: neither let them, say, We haue deuoured him.

26 Let them be put to confusion and shamed together that reioyce at my trouble: let them be clothed with rebuke and dishonour that boast themselves against me.

27 Let them bee glad and reioyce that fauour my righteous dealing: yea, let them say alway, Blessed be the Lord, which hath pleasure in the prosperitie of his seruant.

28 And as for my tongue, it shall bee talking of thy righteounesse: and of thy praise all the day long.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. 36.

MY heart sheweth mee the wickednesse of the vngodly: that there is no feare of God before his eyes.

1 For he scattereth himselfe in his owne sight: vntill his abominable sinne be found out.

2 The words of his mouth are vnrighteous, and full of deceit: he hath left off to behaue himselfe wisely, and to doe good.

3 He imagineth mischief vpon his bed, and hath set himselfe in no good way: neither doth he abhorre any thing that is euill.

4 Thy mercy, (O Lord) reacheth vnto the heauens: and thy faithfullnesse vnto the cloudes.

5 Thy righteounesse standeth like the strong mountaines: thy iudgements are like the great deepe.

6 Thou Lord shalt saue both man and beast: how excellent is thy mercy, O God, & the children of men shall put their trust vnder the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be satisfied with the plenteounesse of thy house: and thou shalt giue them drinke of thy pleasures, as out of the riuier.

9 For with thee is the well of life: and in thy light shall wee see light.

10 O continue forth thy louing kindnes vnto them that know thee: and thy righteounesse vnto them that are true of heart.

11 O let not the foot of pride come against mee: and let not the hand of the vngodly cast me downe.

12 There are they fallen (all) that worke wickednes: they are cast downe, & shall not be able to stand.

Noli amulari. Psal. 37.

FRet not thy selfe, because of the vngodly: neither be thou enuious against the euill doers.

2 For they shall soone bee cut downe like the grasse: and be withered euen as the greene herbe.

3 Put thou thy trust in the Lord, and bee doing good: dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thou in the Lord: and hee shall giue thee thy hearts desire.

5 Commit thy way vnto the Lord, and put thy trust in him: and he shall bring it to passe.

6 Hee shall make thy righteounesse as cleare as the light: and thy iust dealing as the noone day.

7 Hold thee still in the Lord, and abide patiently vpon him: but grieve not thy selfe at him whose way doeth prosper, against the man that doth after euill counsailes.

8 Leau off from wrath, and let goe displeasure: fret not thy selfe, els shall thou be moued to doe euill.

9 Wicked doers shall be rooted out: and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shall inherite the land.

10 Yet a little while, and the vngodly shall be cleane gone: thou shalt looke after his place, and hee shall be away.

11 But the meeke spirited shall possesse the earth: and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.

12 The vngodly seeketh counsell against the iust: and gnasheth vpon him with his teeth.

13 The Lord shall laugh him to scorn: for hee hath seene that his day is comming.

14 The vngodly haue drawn out the sword, and haue bent their bow: to cast downe the poore and needy, and to slay such as be of a right conuersation.

15 Their sword shall goe through their owne heart: and their bow shall be broken.

16 A small thing that the righteous hath: is better then great riches of the vngodly.

17 For the armes of the vngodly shall be broken: and the Lord vpholdeth the righteous.

18 The Lord knoweth the dayes of the godly: and their inheritance shall endure for euer.

19 They shall not bee confounded in the perilous time: and in the dayes of death they shall haue enough.

20 As for the vngodly, they shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall consume as the fat of the Lambes: yea, euen as the smoke shall they consume away.

21 The vngodly borroweth, and payeth not againes: but the righteous is mercifull and liberall.

22 Such as be blessed of God shall possesse the land: and they that be cursed of him shall be rooted out.

23 The Lord ordereth a good mans going: and maketh his way acceptable to himselfe.

24 Though hee fall, he shall not be cast away: for the Lord vpholdeth him with his hand.

25 I haue bene yong and now am olde: and yet saw I neuer the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging their bread.

26 The righteous is euer mercifull, and lendeth: and his seed is blessed.

27 Flee from euill, and doe the thing that is good: and dwell for euermore.

28 For the Lord loveth the thing that is right: he forsaketh not his that be godly, but they are preferred for euer.

29 The righteous shall be punished: as for the seed of the vngodly, it shall be rooted out.

30 The righteous shall inherite the land: and dwell therein for euer.

31 The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom: and his tongue will be talking of iudgment.

32 The Lord of his God is in his heart: and his goings shall not slide.

33 The vngodly seeeth the righteous: and seeketh occasion to slay him.

34 The Lord will not leaue him in his hand: nor condemne him when he is iudged.

35 Hope thou in the Lord, and keepe his way, & he shall promote thee that thou shalt possesse the land: when the vngodly shall perish, thou shalt see it.

36 I my teile haue seene the vngodly in great power: and flourishing like a greene Bay tree.

37 And I went by, and loe, he was gone: I sought him, but his place could no where be found.

38 Keepe innocence, and take heed vnto the thing that is right: for that shall bring a man peace at the last.

39 As for the transgressors they shall perish together: and the end of the vngodly is, they shall be rooted out at the last.

40 But the saluation of the righteous commeth of the Lord: which is also their strength in the time of trouble.

41 And the Lord shall stand by them, & saue them: he shall deliuer them from the vngodly, and shall saue them, because they put their trust in him.

Dominus in sinu suo. Psal. 38.

Put mee not to rebuke (O Lord) in thine anger: neither chasten me in thy heauy displeasure.

2 For thine arrowes stick fast in mee: and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no health in my flesh, because of thy displeasure: neither is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my sinne.

4 For my wickednesses are gone ouer my head: and are like a sore burden too heauy for me to beare.

5 My wounds stinke, and are corrupt: through my foolishnesse.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and miserie: that I goe mourning all the day long.

7 For my loines are filled with a sore disease: and there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble and sore smitten: I haue roared for the very disquietnesse of my heart.

9 Lord, thou knowest all my desire: and my groining is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength hath failed me: and the sight of mine eyes is gone from me.

11 My louers and my neighbors did stand looking vpon my trouble: and my kinsmen stood a farre off.

12 They also that sought after my life, laid snares for me: and they that went about to do me euil, talked of wickednesse, and imagined deceit all the day long.

13 As for me, I was like a deafe man, and heard not: and as one that is dumbe, which doeth not open his mouth.

14 I became euen as a man that heareth not: and in whole mouth are no reproofes.

15 For in thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust: thou shalt answer for me, O Lord, my God.

16 I haue required that they (euen mine enemies) should not triumph ouer me: for when my foot slipped, they reioyced greatly against me.

17 And I truly am set in the plague: and my heaviness is euer in my sight.

18 For I will confesse my wickednesse: and bee forie for my sinne.

19 But mine enemies liue and are mighty: and they that hate me wrongfully are many in number.

20 They also that reward euil for good, are against me: because I follow the thing that is good.

21 For sake me not, O Lord my God: be not thou farre from me.

22 Hastee thee to helpe me: O Lord God, my saluation.

Dei Custodiam. Psal. 39.

Isaid, I will take heed to my waies: that I offend not in my tongue,

2 I will keepe my mouth (as it were with a bridle:) while the vngodly is in my sight.

3 I held my tongue, and spake nothing: I kept silence, yea euen from good words, but it was paine and grieueto me.

4 My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing, the fire kindled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.

5 Lord, let me know mine end, and the number of my dayes: that I may be certified how long I haue to liue.

6 Behold, thou hast made my dayes as it were a span long: and mine age is euen as nothing in respect of thee, and verily euery man liuing is altogether vanity.

7 For man walketh in a vaine shadow, and disquieteth himselfe in vaine: he heapeth vp riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

8 And now Lord, what is my hope: truly my hope is euen in thee.

9 Deliuer mee from all mine offences: and make me not a rebuke vnto the foolish.

10 I became dumbe and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doing.

11 Take thy plague away from me: I am euen consumed by the meanes of thy heauy hand.

12 When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sinne, thou makest his beauty to consume away like as it were a moth fretting a garment: euery man therefore is but vanity.

13 Heare my prayer, O Lord, and with thine eares consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my reares.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as all my fathers were.

15 Oh spare mee a litle, that I may recouer my strength: before I goe hence, and be no more seene, Expectans expectans. Psal. 40.

Iwaited patiently for the Lord: and he inclined vnto me, and heard my calling.

2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the myre and clay: and set my feet vpon the rocke, and ordered my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth: euen a thanksgiving vnto our God.

4 Many shall see it, and feare: and shall put their trust in the Lord.

5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lord: and turned not vnto the proude, and so such as goe about with lies.

6 O Lord my God: great are thy wonderous works which thou hast done: like as be also thy thoughts which are to vsward, and yet there is no man that ordereth them vnto thee.

7 If I would declare them, and speake of them: they should be more then I am able to expresse.

8 Sacrifice and meate offering thou wouldest not haue: but mine eares hast thou opened.

9 Burnt offerings and sacrifice for sinne hast thou not required: then said I, Loe, I come.

10 In the volume of the booke it is written of me, that I should fulfill thy will. O my God: I am content to do it, yea, thy law is within my heart.

11 I haue declared thy righteousness in the great congregation: loe, I will not reframe my lips, O Lord, and that thou knowest.

12 I haue not hid thy righteousness within my heart: my talking hath bene of thy truth, and of thy saluation.

13 I haue not kept backe thy louing mercy and truth: from the great congregation.

14 Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me: O Lord:

Morning
prayer.

Lord: let thy louing kindnesse and thy truth alway preferre me.

15 For innumerable troubles are come about mee, my finnes haue taken such hold vpon mee, that I am not able to looke vp: yea, they are mo in number then the haire of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

16 O Lord, let it bee thy pleasure to deliuer mee: make haste (O Lord) to help me.

17 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seeke after my soule to destroy it: let them be driuen backward and put to rebuke that with me enill.

18 Let them be desolate and rewarded with shame, that say vnto me: Fie vpon thee, fie vpon thee.

19 Let all those that seeke thee, be ioyfull and glad in thee: and let such as loue thy saluation, say alway, The Lord be praised.

20 As for me I am poore and needy: but the Lord careth for me.

21 Thou art my helper and Redemer: make no long tarrying, O my God.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. 41.

Blessed is he that considereth the poore (and needie:) the Lord shall deliuer him in the time of trouble.

2 The Lord preferre him and keepe him aliuie, that hee may be blessed vpon earth: and deliuer not thou him into the will of his enemies.

3 The Lord comfort him when he lieth sick vpon his bed: make thou all his bed in his sickenesse.

4 I said, I ord be mercifull vnto me: heale my soule, for I haue sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speake euill of me: when shall he die, and his name perishe?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: and his heart conceiueeth falsehood within himselfe, and when he cometh forth, he telleth it.

7 All mine enemies whisper together against me: euen against me doe they imagine this euill.

8 Let the sentence of guiltinesse proceede against him: and now that he lyeth, let him rise vp no more.

9 Yea, euen mine owne familiar friend whom I trusted: which did also eate of my bread, hath layd great wait for me.

10 But bee thou mercifull vnto me, O Lord: raise thou me vp againe, and I shall reward them.

11 By this I know thou fauourest me: that mine enemies doeth not triumph against me.

12 And when I am in my health, thou vpholdest me: and shalt see me before thy face for euer.

13 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: world without end. Amen.

Quasi madmedium. Psal. 42.

Like as the Hart desireth the water brookes: so longeth my soule after thee, O God.

2 My soule is athirst for God, yea, euen for the liuing God: when shall I come to appeare before the presence of God?

3 My teares haue bin my meate day & night: while they daily say vnto me, Where is now thy God?

4 Now when I thinke thereupon, I powre out my heart by my selfe: for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the house of God.

5 In the voice of praise and thanksgiving: among such as keepe holy day.

6 Why art thou so full of heavinesse, (O my soule:) and why art thou so disquieted within me?

7 Put thy trust in God: for I will yet giue him thanks for the helpe of his countenance.

8 My God, my soule is vexed within me: therefore will I remember thee, concerning the land of Jordan, and the little hill of Hermon.

9 One deepe calleth another, because of the noyse of the water pipes: all thy waues and stormes are gone ouer me.

10 The Lord hath graunted his louing kindnesse on the day time: and in the night season did I sing of him, and made my prayer vnto the God of my life.

11 I will say vnto the God of my strength, why hast thou forgotten me: why goe I thus heauily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

12 My bones are smitten asunder, as with a sword: while mine enemies (that trouble me) cast me in the teeth.

13 Namely, while they say dayly vnto mee: where is now thy God?

14 Why art thou so vexed, O my soule: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

15 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet thanke him which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Ludica me Deus. Pal. 43.

Give sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the vngodly people: O deliuer me from the deceitfull and wicked man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put mee from thee: and why goe I so heauily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

3 O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may leade me: and bring me vnto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

4 And that I may goe vnto the altar of God: euen vnto the God of my ioy & gladnesse: & vpon the Harp will I giue thanks vnto thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou so heauie, O my soule: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

6 O put thy trust in God: for I will yet giue him thanks, which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Deus audis. Psal. 44.

Wee haue heard with our eares, O God, our fathers haue told vs: what thou hast done in their time of old.

2 How thou hast driuen out the Heathen with thy hand, and planted them in: how thou hast destroyed the nations, and cast them out.

3 For they gate not the land in possession through their own sword: neither was it their owne arme that helped them.

4 But thy right hand and thine arme, and the light of thy countenance: because thou haddest a fauour vnto them.

5 Thou art my King, (O God:) send helpe vnto Jacob.

6 Through thee will we ouerthrow our enemies: and in thy Name will we tread them vnder that rise vp against vs.

7 For I will not trust in my bow: it is not my sword that shall helpe me.

8 But it is thou that sauest vs from our enemies: and putteth them to confusion that hate vs.

9 Wee make our boast of God all day long: and will praise thy Name for euer.

10 But now thou art farre off, and putteth vs to confusion: and goeth not forth with our armies.

11 Thou makest vs to turne our backs vpon our enemies: so that they which hate vs, spoile our goods.

12 Thou sellest vs to be eaten vp like sheepe: and hast scattered vs among the Heathen.

13 Thou sellest thy people for naught: and takest no money for them.

14 Thou makest vs to be rebuked of our neighbours: to be laughed to scorn, and had in derision of them that are round about vs.

15 Thou makest vs to be a by-word among the heathen: and that the people shake their heads at vs.

16 My confusion is dayly before mee: and the shame of my face hath couered me.

17 For the voice of the slanderer and blasphemers: for the enemie and auenger.

18 And though all this be come vpon vs, yet doe we not forget thee: nor behaue our selues frowardly in thy covenant.

19 Our heart is not turned backe: neither our steps gone out of thy way.

20 No not when thou hast smitten vs into the place of Dragons: and couered vs with the shadow of death.

21 If wee haue forgotten the Name of our God, and holden vp our hands to any strange god: shall not God search it out? for he knoweth the very secrets of the heart.

22 For thy sake also are we killed all the day long: and are counted as sheepe appointed to be slaine.

23 Vp Lord, why sleepest thou: awake, and be not aslent from vs for euer.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face: and forgettest our miserie and trouble?

25 For our soules is brought low euen vnto the dust: our belly cleaueth vnto the ground.

26 Arise and helpe vs: and deliuer vs for thy mercies sake.

Exultauit cor meum. Psal. 45.

MY heart is inditing of a good matter: I speake of the things which I haue made vnto the King.

2 My tongue is the pen: of a ready writer.

3 Thou art fairer then the children of men: full of grace are thy lips, because God hath blessed thee for euer.

4 Gird thee with thy sword vpon thy thigh, O thou most mighty: according to thy worship and renowne.

5 Good lucke haue thou with thine honour: ride on, because of the word of truth, of meeknesse, and righteousness, and thy right hand shall teach thee terribler things.

6 Thy arrows are very sharpe, and the people shall be subdued vnto thee: euen in the midst among the Kings enemies.

7 Thy seate (O God) endureth for euer: the scepter of thy kingdome is a right scepter.

8 Thou hast loued righteousness, and hated iniquitie: wherefore God (euen thy God) hath anointed thee with the oyle of gladnesse at about thy fellowes.

9 All thy garments smell of Myrrhe, Aloes, and Cassia: out of the luoric palaces, whereby they haue made thee glad.

10 Kings daughters were among thy honourable women: vpon thy right hand did stand the Queene in a vesture of golde (wrought about with diuers colours.)

11 Hearken (O daughter) and consider, encline thine eare: forget also thine owne people, and thy fathers house.

12 So shall the king haue pleasure in thy beautie: for he is thy Lord (God) and worship thou him.

13 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift: like as the rich also among the people shall make their supplication before thee.

14 The kings daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

15 She shall be brought vnto the King in raiment of needle worke: the virgins that be her fellowes shall beare her company, and shall be brought vnto thee.

16 With ioy and gladnesse shall they be brought: and shall enter into the Kings palace.

17 In Read of thy fathers thou shalt haue children: whom thou mayest make princes in all lands.

18 I will remember thy Name from one generation vnto another: therefore shall the people giue thanks vnto thee world with out end.

Deus noster refugium. Psal. 46.

GOD is our hope and strength: a very present helpe in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not feare though the earth be moued: and though the hills be caried into the midst of the Sea,

3 Though the waters thereof rage and swell: and though the mountains shake at the tempest of fame

4 The riuers of the flood thereof shall make glad the citie of God, the holy place of the tabernacle of the most highest.

5 God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed: God shall helpe her, and that night early

6 The heathen make much ado, and the kingdomes are moued: but God hath shewed his voyce, and the earth shall melt away.

7 The Lord of hosts is with vs: the God of Iacob is our refuge.

8 O come hither, & behold the works of the Lord: what destruction he hath brought vpon the earth.

9 He maketh warres to cease in all the world: he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the speare in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

10 Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the Heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The Lord of hosts is with vs: the God of Iacob is our refuge.

Omnes gentes plaudite. Psal. 47.

O Clape your hands together, (all yee people:) O sing vnto God with the voyce of melody.

2 For the Lord is high, and to be feared: hee is the great king vpon all the earth.

3 Hee shall subdue the people vnder vs: and the nations vnder our feete.

4 Hee shall chuse out an heritage for vs: euen the worship of Iacob whom he loued.

5 God is gone vp with a merry noyse: and the Lord with the sound of the trumpe.

6 O sing praises, sing praises vnto our King.

7 For God is the King of all the earth: sing yee praises with vnderstanding.

8 God reigneth ouer the heathen: God sitteth vpon his holy seate.

9 The princes of the people are ioyned vnto the people of the God of Abraham: for God (which is very high exalted) doeth defend the earth as it were with a shield.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. 48.

GREAT is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the Citie of our God, euen vpon his holy hill.

2 The hill of Zion is a faile place, and the ioy of the whole earth: vpon the North side lieth the Citie of the great King, God is well known in her palaces, as a sure refuge.

3 For loe, the Kings of the earth: are gathered and gone by together.

4 They maruelled to see such things: they were astonished, and suddenly cast downe.

5 Feare came there vpon them, and sorrow: as vpon a woman in her trauaile

6 Thou shalt breake the ships of the sea: through the East winde.

7 Like as we haue heard, so haue we seene in the City of the Lord of hosts, in the City of our God: God vpholdeth the same for euer.

8 Wee waite for thy louing kindnesse (O God :) in the middes of thy Temple.

9 O God according vnto thy Name, so is thy praise vnto the worlds end: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

10 Let the mount Sion reioyce, and the daughters of Iuda be glad: because of thy iudgements.

11 Walke about Sion, and go round about her: and tell the towres thereof.

12 Marke well her bulwarkes, set vp her houses: that ye may tell them that come after.

13 For this God is our God for euer and euer: he shall be our guide vnto death.

Andie hæc omnes. Psal. 49.

O Heare ye this al ye people: ponder it with your eares all ye that dwell in the world.

2 High and low, rich and poore: one with another.

3 My mouth shall speake of wisdom: and my heart shall muse of vnderstanding.

4 I will incline mine eare to the parable, and shew my darke speech vpon the Harpe.

5 Wherefore should I feare? in the daies of wickednesse: and when the wickednesse of my beeles compasseth me round about?

6 There be some that put their trust in their goods: and boast themselues in the multitude of their riches.

7 But no man may deliuer his brother: nor make agreement vnto God for him.

8 For it cost more to redeeme their soules: so that he must let that alone for euer.

9 Yea, though he liue long: and see not the graue.

10 For he seeth that wise men also dye, and perish together as well as the ignorant and foolish, and leaue their riches for other.

11 And yet they thinke that their houses shall continue for euer: & that their dwelling places shall endure from one generation to another, and call the lands after their own names.

12 Neuertheless man will not abide in honour: seeing he may be compared vnto the beasts that perish, this is the way of them.

13 This is their foolishnesse: and their posterity praise their saying.

14 They lie in the hell like sheep, death gnaweth vpon them, and the righteous that haue domination ouer them in the morning: their beauty shall consume in the sepulchre out of their dwelling.

15 But God hath deliuered my soule from the place of hell: for he shall receiue me.

16 Benot thou afraid though one be made rich: or if the glory of his house be increased.

17 For he shall cary nothing away with him when he dyeth, neither shall his pompe follow him.

18 For while he liued, he counted himselfe a happy man: and so long as thou dost wel vnto thy selfe, men will speake good of thee.

19 He shall follow the generation of his fathers: and shall neuer see light.

20 Man being in honor, hath no vnderstanding: but is compared vnto the beasts that perish.

Diuersorum. Psal. 50.

The Lord, euen the most mighty God hath spoken: and called the world from the rising vp of the sun, vnto the going downe thereof.

2 Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beauty.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: there shall go before him a consuming fire, & a mightie tempest shall be stirred vp round about him.

4 He shall call the heaven from aboue: and the earth, that he may iudge his people.

5 Gather my Saints together vnto mee: those that haue made a couenant with me, with sacrifice.

6 And the heauens shall declare his righteousness: for God is iudge himselfe.

7 Heare, O my people, and I will speake: I my selfe will tell thee against thee, O Israel, for I am God, euen thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt offerings: because they were not alway before me.

9 I will take no bullocke out of thine house: nor hee goates out of thy foldes.

10 For all the beasts of the Forrest are mine: and so are the cattels vpon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowles vpon the Mountaines: and the wilde beasts of the field are in my sight.

12 If I bee hungry, I will not tell thee: for the whole world is mine, and all that is therein.

13 Thinkest thou that I will eate Bulls flesh: and drinke the blood of goates?

14 Offer vnto God thanksgiving: and pay thy vows vnto the most high.

15 And call vpon mee in the time of trouble: so will I heare thee, and thou shalt praile me.

16 But vnto the vngodly said God: Why dost thou preach n y lawes, and takest my couenant in thy mouth?

17 Where as thou hatest to be reformed: and hast cast my words behind thee.

18 When thou sawest a thiefe, thou contentedst vnto him: and I haue bene partaker with the adulterers.

19 Thou hast let thy mouth speake wickednesse: and with thy tongue thou hast let forth deceit.

20 Thou satelst and spakest against thy brother: yea, and thou hast slandered thine owne mothers son.

21 Thee I haue chastised thou done, and I keld my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly that I am euen such a one as thy selfe: but I will reprove thee, and let before thee the things that thou hast done.

22 O consider this ye that forget God: lest I pluck you away, and there be none to deliuer you.

23 Who so offerech me thanks and praise, he honoureth mee: and to him that ordereth his conuersation right, will I shew the saluation of God.

Miserere mei Deus, Psal. 51.

HAue mercy vpon mee, O God, after thy great goodnesse: according to the multitude of thy mercies doe away mine offences.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my wickednesse: and cleanse me from my sinne.

3 For I knowledgemy faults: and my sinne is euer before me.

4 Against thee only haue I sinned, and done this euill in thy sight: that thou mightest be iustified in thy saying, and cleare when thou art iudged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: and in sinne hath my mother conceived me.

6 But loe, thou requirest truth in the inward parts: and shalt make me to vnderstand wisdom secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssope, and I shall be cleane: thou shalt wash mee, and I shall bee whiter then snow.

8 Thou shalt make me heare of ioy and gladnesse: that the bones which thou hast broken may reioyce.

9 Turne thy face from my finnes: and put out all my misdeeds.

10 Make

10 Make mee a cleane heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy Spirit from me.

12 O giue mee the comfort of thy helpe againe: and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

13 Then shal I teach thy wayes vnto the wicked: and sinners shall be conuerted vnto thee.

14 Deliuere mee from blood guiltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shall sing of thy righteounesse.

15 Thou shalt open my lips (O Lord:) my mouth shall shew thy praise.

16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I giue it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offering.

17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart (O God) shalt thou not despise.

18 O be fauourable and gracious vnto Sion: build thou the walles of Ierusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteounesse, with the burnt offerings and oblations: then shal they offer yong bullocks vpon thine altar.

Quid gloriaris. Psal. 52.

WHy boastest thou thy selfe, thou tyrant: that thou canst doe mischief?

2 Whereas the goodnesse of God: endureth yet daily.

3 Thy tongue imagineth wickednesse: and with lies thou cuttest like a sharpe rasor.

4 Thou hast loued vnrighteounesse more then goodnesse: and to talke of lies more then righteounesse.

5 Thou hast loued to speake all words that may doe hurt: O thou false tongue.

6 Therefore shall God destroy thee for euer: hee shall take thee, and plucke thee out of thy dwelling, and root thee out of the land of the liuing.

7 The righteous also shall see this, and feare: and shall laugh him to scorn.

8 Loe, this is the man that tooke not God for his strength: but trusted vnto the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himselfe in his wickednesse.

9 As for mee I am like a greene Oliue tree in the house of God: my trust is in the tender mercy of God for euer and euer.

10 I will alwayes giue thanks vnto thee for that thou hast done: and I will hope in thy Name, for thy Saints like it well.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. 53.

THe foolish body hath said in his heare: there is no God.

2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickednes: there is none that doth good.

3 God looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men: to see if there were any that would vnderstand and seeke after God.

4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether become abominable: there is none that doeth good, nor one.

5 Are they not without vnderstanding that worke wickednesse: eating vp my people as if they would eat bread? they haue not called vpon God.

6 They were afraid where no feare was: for God hath broken the bones of them that besieged thee, thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath despised them.

7 Oh that the saluation were giuen vnto Israel out of Sion: oh that the Lord would deliuer his people out of captiuitie.

8 Then should Iacob reioyce: and Israel should be right glad.

Dens in Nomine. Psal. 54.

SAue mee, O God, for thy Names sake: and auenge me in thy strength.

2 Heare my prayer, O God: and hearken vnto the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers are risen vp against me: and tyrants (which haue not God before their eyes) seeke after my soule.

4 Beholde, God is mine helper: the Lord is with them that vphold my soule.

5 Hee shall reward euill vnto mine enemies: destroy thou them in thy truth.

6 An offering of a free heart will I giue thee, and praise thy Name (O Lord) because it is so comfortable.

7 For he hath deliuered me out of all my troubles: and mine eye hath seene his desire vpon mine enemies.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. 55.

HEare my prayer, O God: and hide not thy selfe from my petition.

2 Take heede vnto mee, and heare me: how I mourne in my prayer, and am vexed.

3 The enemy cryeth so, and the vngodly cometh on so fast: for they are minded to doe me some mischief, so maliciously are they set against me.

4 My heart is disquieted within mee: and the feare of death is fallen vpon me.

5 Fearfulnesse and trembling are come vpon me: and an horrible dread hath ouerwhelmed me.

6 And I said, O that I had wings like a doue: for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

7 Loe, then would I get me away farre off: and remaine in the wilderness.

8 I would make haste to escape: because of the stormie winde and tempest.

9 Destroy their tongues, (O Lord) and diuide them: for I haue helped vnrighteounesse and strife in the citie.

10 Day and night they goe about within the wals thereof, mischief also and sorrow are in the middes of it.

11 Wickednesse is therein: deceit, and guile goe not out of their streets.

12 For it is not an open enemy that hath done me this dishonour: for then I could haue borne it.

13 Neither was it mine aduersarie that did magnifie himselfe against mee: for then (peraduenture) I would haue hid my selfe from him.

14 But it was euen thou my companion: my guide, and mine owne familiar friend.

15 We tooke sweet counsell together: and walked in the house of God as friends.

16 Let death come hastily vpon them, & let them goe downe quicke into hell: for wickednesse is in their dwellings, and among them.

17 As for me, I will call vpon God: and the Lord shall saue me.

18 In the euening and morning, and at noone day will I pray, and that instantly: and he shal heare my voice.

19 It is hee that hath deliuered my soule in peace, from the battell that was against me: for there were many with me.

20 Yea, euen God that endureth for euer, shal heare me, and bring them down: for they wil not turne nor feare God.

21 He laid his hands vpon such as be at peace with him: and he brake his Covenant.

22 The words of his mouth were softer then butter hauing warre in his heart: his words were smoother then oyle, and yet they be very swords,

23 O cait thy burthen vpon the Lord, and he shall mounthe thee: and shall not suffer the righteous to fall for euer.

24 And as for them: thou, O God, shalt bring them into the pit of destruction.

25 The bloodthirsty and deceitfull men shall not line out halfe their dayes: neuerthelesse, thy trust shall be in thee, O Lord.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal. 56.

BE mercifull vnto me, O God, for man goeth about to deuoure me: hee is daily fighting, and troubling me.

2 Mine enemies are daily in hand to swallow me vp: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most highest.

3 Neuerthelesse, though I am sometime afraid: yet put I my trust in thee.

4 I will praise God because of his word: I haue put my trust in God, and will not feare what flesh can doe vnto me.

5 They dayly mistake my words: all that they imagine, is to doe me euill.

6 They hold all together, and keepe themselves close: and marke my steps, when they lay wait for my foule.

7 Shall they escape for their wickednesse: thou (O God) in thy displeasure shalt cast them downe.

8 Thou tellest my flittings, put my teares into thy bottell: are not these things noted in thy booke?

9 Whensoeuer I call vpon thee, then shall mine enemies be put to flight: this I know, for God is on my side.

10 In Gods word will I reioyce: in the Lordes word will I comfort me.

11 Yea, in God haue I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can doe vnto me.

12 Vnto thee (O God) will I pay my vowes: vnto thee will I giue thanks.

13 For thou hast deliuered my soule from death: and my feete from falling: that I may walke before God in the light of the liuing.

Miserere mei Deus. Psal. 57.

BE mercifull vnto me, O God, be mercifull vnto me, for my soule trusteth in thee: and vnder the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge vntill this tyranny be ouerpast.

2 I will call vnto the most high God: euen vnto the God that shall performe the cause which I haue in hand.

3 He shall send from heauen: and saue mee from the reproofe of him that would eat me vp.

4 God shall fend forth his mercy and trueth: my soules among Lions.

5 And I lie euen among the children of men (that are set on fire:) whose teeth are speares and arrowes, and their tongue a sharpe sword.

6 Set vp thy selfe, O God, about the heauens: and thy glory about all the earth.

7 They haue laid a net for my feet: and pressed downe my soule: they haue digged a pit before me, and are fallen into the middes of it themselves.

8 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and giue praise.

9 Awake vp my glory, awake Lute and Harp: I my selfe will awake rightearely.

10 I will giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, among the people: and I will sing vnto thee among the nations.

11 For the greatnesse of thy mercy reacheth vnto the heauens: and thy trueth vnto the clouds.

12 Set vp thy selfe, O God, about the heauens: and thy glory about all the earth.

Super uocatus. Psal. 58.

ARe your mindes set vpon righteousnesse, O ye congregation: and doe ye iudge the thing that is right, O ye sonnes of men?

2 Yea, ye imagine mischief in your heart vpon the earth: and your hands deale with wickednesse.

3 The vngodly are froward euen from their mothers wombe: as loone as they be borne, they go astray and speake lyes.

4 They are as venomous as the poison of a serpent: euen like the deafe Adder that stoppeth her cares.

5 Which refuseth to heare the voice of the charmer: charme he neuer so wisely.

6 Breake their teeth (O God) in their mouthes, smite the law bones of the Lions, O Lord: let them fall away like water that runneth apace, and when they shoot their arrowes, let them be rooted out.

7 Let them consume away like a snail, and bee like the vntimely fruit of a woman: and let them not see the Sunne.

8 O euer your pots be made hote with thornes: so let indignation vex him, euen as a thing that is raw.

9 The righteous shall reioyce when he seeth the vengeance: hee shall wash his footstaps in the blood of the vngodly.

10 So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: doubtlesse there is a God that iudgeth the earth.

Exipe me de inimicis. Psal. 59.

Deliuer me from mine enemies (O God): defend me from them that rise vp against me.

2 O deliuer mee from the wicked doers: and laue me from the bloodthirsty men.

3 For loe, they lie waiting for my soule: the mightie men are gathered against mee, without any offence or fault of me, O Lord.

4 They runne and prepare themselves without my fault: arise thou therefore to helpe mee, and behold.

5 Stand vp (O Lord God of hostes) thou God of Israel, to visite all the heathen: and be not mercifull vnto them that offend of malicious wickednesse.

6 They goe to and fro in the euening: they grin like a dogge, and runne about thorow the citie.

7 Beholde, they speake with their mouth, and swords are in their lips: for who doth heare?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt haue them in diuision, and thou shalt laugh all the heathen to scorre.

9 My strength will I ascribe vnto thee: for thou art the God of my refuge.

10 God sheweth mee his goodnesse plenteously: and God shall let me see my desire vpon mine enemies.

11 Slay them not, lett my people forget it: but scatter them abroad among the people, and put them downe, O Lord, our defence.

12 For the sinne of their mouth, and for the words of their lippes, they shall be taken in their pride: and why? their preaching is of cursing and lies.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, consume them, that they may perish: and know that it is God which ruleth in Iacob, and vnto the ends of the world.

14 And in the euening they will returne grinning like a dogge, and will goe about the citie.

15 They will runne here and there for meat: and grudge if they be not satisfied.

Morning
prayer.

Evening
prayer.

16 As for me, I will sing of thy power, & wil praise thy mercy betimes in the morning: for thou hast bin my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

17 Vnto thee (O my strength) will I sing: for thou, O God, art my refuge, and my mercifull God.
Deus repulisti nos. Psal. 60.

O God, thou hast cast vs out, and scattered vs abroad: thou hast also bene displeased, O turne thee vnto vs againe.

2 Thou hast moued the land, and diuided it: heale the sores thereof, for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people heauy things: thou hast giuen vs a drinke of deadly wine.

4 Thou hast giuen a token for such as feare thee: that they may triumph because of the truth.

5 Therefore were thy beloued deliuered: helpe me with thy right hand, and heare me.

6 God hath spoken in his holinesse, I will reioyce and diuide Sichem: and mete out the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine: Ephraim also is the strength of my head, Iuda is my lawgiuer.

8 Moab is my washpot, ouer Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia be thou glad of me.

9 Who will lead me into the strong Citie: who will bring me into Edom?

10 Hast thou not cast vs out, O God: wilt thou not thou O God, goe out with our hostes?

11 O be thou our helpe in trouble: for vaine is the helpe of man.

12 Through God shall we doe great acts: for it is he that shall tread downe our enemies.
Exaudi Deus. Psal. 61.

Hear me crying, O God: giue eare vnto my prayer.

2 From the ends of the earth wil I call vnto thee: when my heart is in heauinesse.

3 Offer me vp vpon the rock that is higher then I: for thou hast bene my hope, and a strong towre for me against the enemy.

4 I will dwell in thy Tabernacle for euer: and my trust shall be vnder the covering of thy wings.

5 For thou O Lord, hast heard my desires: and hast giue an heritage vnto those that feare thy name.

6 Thou shalt grant the King a long life: that his yeeres may endure throughout all generations.

7 Hee shall dwell before God for euer: O prepare thy louing mercy and faithfulness, that they may preferue him.

8 So wil I alwaies sing praise vnto thy Name: that I may dayly performe my vowes.
Nonne Deo Psal. 62.

My soule truly waiteth still vpon God: for of him cometh my saluation.

2 He verily is my strength and my saluation: hee is my defence, so that I shall not greatly fall.

3 How long wil ye imagine mischief against euery man: yee shall be slaine all the sort of you, yea, as a tottering wall shall ye be, and like a broken hedge.

4 Their deuce is onely how to put him out whom God will exalt: their delight is in lies, they giue good words with their mouth, but curse with their heart.

5 Neuertheless my soule, wait thou stil vpon God: for my hope is in him.

6 Hee truly is my strength and my saluation: hee is my defence, so that I shall not fall.

7 In God is my health and my glory: the rocke of my might, and in God is my trust.

8 O put your trust in him alway (ye people:) powre out your hearts before him, for God is our hope,

9 As for the children of men, they are but vaine: the children of men are deceitfull vpon the weights, they are altogether lighter then vanity it selfe.

10 O truit not in wrong and robbery, giue not your selues vnto vanity: if riches increate, let not your heart vpon them.

11 God spake once and twice: I haue also heard the same, that power belongeth vnto God.

12 And that thou Lord art mercifull: for thou rewardest euery man accordng to his worke.
Deus Deus, mus Psal. 63.

O God thou art my God: earily will I seeke thee.

2 My soule thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee: in a barren and dry land, where no water is.

3 Thus haue I looked for thee in holinesse: that I might behold thy power and glory.

4 For thy louing kindnesse is better then the life it selfe: my lips shall praise thee.

5 As long as I liue will I magnifie thee on this manner: and lift vp my hands in thy Name.

6 My soule shall be satisfied euen as it were with marrow and fatnesse: when my mouth praiseth thee with ioyfull lips.

7 Haue I not remembered thee in my bed: and thought vpon thee when I was waking?

8 Because thou hast bene my helper: therefore vnder the shadow of thy wings will I reioyce.

9 My soule hangeth vpon thee: thy right hand hath vpholden me.

10 These alio that seeke the hurt of my soule: they shall goe vnder the earth.

11 Let them fall vpon the edge of the sword: that they may be a portion for foxes.

12 But the King shall reioyce in God, all they also that sweare by him shall be commended: for the mouth of them that speake lies shall be flopped.
Exaudi Deus. Psal. 64.

Hear me voyce, O God, in my prayer: preferue my life from feare of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the gathering together of the forward: and from the insurrection of wicked doers.

3 Which haue whet their tongue like a sword: and shoot out their arrowes, euen bitter words.

4 That they may priuily shoot at him which is perfect: suddenly doe they hit him, and feare not.

5 They courage themselves in mischief: and commune among themselves how they may lay snares, and say that no man shall see them.

6 They imagine wickednesse and practise it: that they keepe secret among themselves, euery man in the deepe of his heart.

7 But God shall suddenly shoote at them with a swift arrow: that they shall be wounded.

8 Yea, their owne tongues shall make them fall: in so much that who so seeth them, shall laugh them to scorn.

9 And all men that see it shall say, This hath God done: for they shall perceiue that it is his worke.

10 The righteous alio reioice in the Lord, and put his trust in him: and all they that are true of heart shall be glad.
Tedest hymnus. Psal. 65.

Thou O God, art praised in Sion: and vnto thee shall the voyce be performed in Hierusalem.

2 Thou that hearest the prayer: vnto thee shall all flesh come.

3 My misdeeds preuaile against me: O be thou mercifull vnto our sinnes.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou chocest, & receivest vnto thee: he shall dwell in thy Court, and shall be be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, euen of thy holy Temple.

5 Thou shalt shew vs wonderfull things in thy righteousnesse, O God of our saluation: thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remaine in the broad Sea.

6 Which in his strength fasteth the mountaynes: and is girded about with power.

7 Which stilleth the raging of the Sea: and the noise of his waves, and the madnesse of his people.

8 They also that dwell in the vtremost parts of the earth, shall be afraid at thy tokens: thou that makest the outgoings of the Morning and Euening to praise thee.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and blestest it: thou makest it very plenteous.

10 The riuier of God is full of water: thou preparest their corne, for God thou prouidest for the earth.

11 Thou waterest their furrowes, thou sendest raine into the little valleys thereof: thou makest it soft with the drops of raine, and blestest the increase thereof.

12 Thou crownest the yeere with thy goodnesse: and thy clouds drop fatnesse.

13 They shall droppe vpon the dwellings of the wilderness: and the little hilles shall reioyce on euery side.

14 The folds shall bee full of sheepe: the valleys also shall stand so thicke with corne, that they shall laugh and sing.

Tribulate Deo. Psal. 66.

O Be ioyfull in God all ye Lands: sing praises vnto the honor of his Name, make his praise to be glorious.

2 Say vnto God, O how wonderfull art thou in thy workes: through the greatnesse of thy power shall thine enemies be found liars vnto thee.

3 For all the world shall worship thee: sing of thee, and praise thy Name.

4 O come hither, and behold the workes of God: how wonderfull hee is in his doing toward the children of men.

5 Hee turned the Sea into dry land: so that they went through the water on foot, there did we reioyce thereof.

6 Hee ruleth with his power for euer, his eyes behold the people: and such as will not beleue, shall not be able to exalt themselves.

7 O praise our God (ye people:) and make the voyce of his praise to be heard.

8 Which holdeth our soule in life: and suffereth not our feet to slip.

9 For thou (O God) hast proued vs: thou also hast tryed vs, like as siluer is tryed.

10 Thou broughtest vs into the snare: and laydest trouble vpon our loynes.

11 Thou sufferedst men to ride ouer our heads: we went through fire and water, and thou broughtest vs out into a wealthy place.

12 I will goe into thy house with burnt offerings: and will pay thee my voyces which I promised with my lippes, and spake with my mouth when I was in trouble.

13 I will offer vnto thee fat burnt sacrifices, with the incense of Rammes: I will offer bullockes and goates.

14 O come hither & hearken, all ye that feare God: and I will tell you what he hath done for my soule.

15 I called vnto him with my mouth: and gaue him praises with my tongue.

16 If I incline vnto wickednesse with mine heart: the Lord will not heare me.

17 But God hath heard mee: and considered the voyce of my prayer.

18 Praised be God, which hath not cast out my prayer: nor turned his mercy from me.

Deus miseratur. Psal. 67.

God be mercifull vnto vs, and blese vs: and shew vs the light of his countenance, and be mercifull vnto vs.

2 That thy way may be knowne vpon earth: thy sauing health among all nations.

3 Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

4 O let the nations reioyce and be glad: for thou shalt iudge the folk righteously, and gouerne the nations vpon earth.

5 Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

6 Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: & God, euen our own God shall giue vs his blessing.

7 God shall blese vs: and all the ends of the world shall feare him.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. 68.

Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

2 Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drie them away: and like as waxe melteth at the fire, so let the vngodly perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad and reioyce before God: let them also be merrie and ioyfull.

4 O sing vnto God, and sing praises vnto his Name: magnifie him that rideth vpon the heauens as it were vpon an horse, praise him in his Name, yea, and reioyce before him.

5 Hee is a father of the fatherlesse, and defendeth the cause of the widowes: euen God in his holy habitation.

6 Hee is the God that maketh men to bee of one minde in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captiuitie: but letteth the rinnagates continue in scarcenesse.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people, when thou wentest through the wilderness.

8 The earth shooke, and the heauens dropped at the presence of God: euen as Sinai also was moued at the presence of God, which is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sentest a gracious raine vpon thine inheritance: and refreshedst it when it was wearie.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell therein: for thou, O God, hast of thy goodnesse prepared for the poore.

11 The Lord gaue the word: great was the company of the preachers.

12 Kings with their armies did flee, and were discomfited: and they of the household diuided the spoile.

13 Though ye haue lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a Dove: that is couered with silver wings, and her feathers like gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings for their sake: then were they as white as snow in Salmon.

15 As the hill of Basan, is to Gods hill: euen an high hill, as the hill of Basan.

16 Why hop ye so ye high hills? this is Gods hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell: yea, the Lord will abide in it for euer.

17 The chariots of God are twentie thousand, euen thousands of Angels: and the Lord is among them, as in the holy place of Sinai.

18 Thou art gone vp on high, thou hast led captiuitie captiue, and receiued gifts for men: yea, euen for thy enemies, that the Lord God may dwell among them.

19 Praised

Morning
prayer.

19 Praised be the Lord daily: euen the God which helpeth vs, and poweth his benefits vpon vs.

20 He is our God, euen y^e God of whom cometh saluation: God is the Lord by whom we escape death.

21 God shall wound the head of his enemies: and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his wickednesse.

22 The Lord hath said, I will bring my people againe as I did from Babel: mine owne will I bring againe, as I did sometime from the deepe of the Sea.

23 that thy soueraine may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogs may be red through the same.

24 It is well, O God, how thou goest: how thou may God and King goest in the Sanctuary.

25 The fingers go before, the minstrels follow after: in the midst are the Damoels playing with the timbrels.

26 Giue thanks, O Israel, vnto God the Lord in the congregations: from the ground of the heart.

27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the Princes of Iuda their counsell: the Princes of Zabulon, and the Princes of Nephthali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee: stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in vs.

29 For thy Temples sake at Ierusalem: so shall Kings bring presents vnto thee.

30 When the company of the spearmen, & multitude of the mighty, are scattered abroad among the beasts of the people: (so that they humbly bring pieces of silver) and when hee hath scattered the people that delight in warre.

31 Then shall princes come out of Egypt: the Mo-rians land shall soon stretch out her hands vnto God.

32 Sing vnto God, O y^e kingdoms of the earth: O sing praises vnto the Lord.

33 Which sitteth in the heauens ouer all from the beginning: loe, he doeth send out his voyce, yea, and that a mighty voyce.

34 Ascribe ye the power to God ouer Israel: his worship and strength is in the cloudes.

35 O God, wonderful art thou in thy holy places: euen the God of Israel, he will giue strength & power vnto his people, blessed be God.

Salomon ms. far. Psal. 69.

SAUE me, O God: for the waters are come in, euen vnto my soule.

2 I flicke fast in the deepe myre where no ground is: I am come into deepe waters, so that the floods runne ouer me.

3 I am weary of crying, my throat is dry: my sight faileth me for waiting to long vpon my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause, are more then the haire of my head: they that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guiltlesse, are mighty.

5 I payed them the things that I neuer tooke: God thou knowest my simplicitie, and my faults are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seeke thee, be confounded through me. O Lord God of Israel

7 And why? for thy sake haue I suffred reproofe: shame hath couered my face.

8 I am become a stranger vnto my brethren: euen an aliant vnto my mothers children.

9 For the zeale of thy house hath eueneaten me: & the rebukes of them y^e rebuked thee, are fall^e vpon me.

10 I wept and chastened my selfe with fasting: and that was turned to my reproofe.

11 I put on sackcloth also: & they iested vpon me.

12 They that sit in the gate speake against me: and the drunkards make songs vpon me.

13 But Lord, I make my prayer vnto thee: in an acceptable time.

14 Heare me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercie: euen in the truth of thy saluation.

15 Take me out of the myre that I sinkenot: oh let me be deliuered from them that hate me, and out of the deepe waters.

16 Let not the water flood drowne me, neither let the deepe swallow me vp: and let not the pit shut her mouth vpon me.

17 Heare mee, O Lord, for thy louing kindnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto mee, according to the multitude of thy mercies.

18 And hide not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: oh haste thee, and heare me.

19 Draw nigh vnto my soule, and saue it: oh deliuer me, because of mine enemies.

20 Thou hast known my reproofe, my shame and my dishonour: mine aduersaries are all in thy sight.

21 Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heauines: I looked for some to haue pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

22 They gaue me gall to eate: and when I was thirsty, they gaue me vinegar to drinke.

23 Let their table be made a snare to take themselves withal: & let the things (that should haue bin for their wealth) be vnto them an occasion of falling.

24 Let their eyes be blinded that they see not: and euer bow downe their backs.

25 Powre out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathfull displeasure take hold of them.

26 Let their habitation be void: and no man to dwell in their tents.

27 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten: and they talke how they may vex them whom thou hast wounded.

28 Let them fall from one wickednesse to another: and not come into thy righteousnesse.

29 Let them be wiped out of the booke of the liuing: and not be written among the righteous.

30 As for me, when I am poore and in heauinesse: thy helpe (O God) shall hit me vp.

31 I will praise the Name of God with a song: and magnifie it with thanksgiving.

32 This also shall please the Lord: better then a bullocke that hath hornes and hooves.

33 The humble shall consider this and be glad: seeke ye after God, and your soule shall liue.

34 For the Lord heareth the poore: and despiseth not his prisoners.

35 Let heauen and earth praise him: the Sea, and all that mooueth therein.

36 For God will saue Sion, and build the cities of Iuda that men may dwell there, & haue it in possession.

37 The posterity also of his seruants shall inherite it: and they that loue his Name shall dwell therein.

Deu. in adiutorium. Psal. 70.

HASTE thee, O God, to deliuer me: make haste to helpe me, O Lord.

2 Let them bee ashamed and confounded, that seeke after my soule: let them bee turned backward and put to confusion that wish me euill.

3 Let them (for their reward) bee soone brought to shame: that crie ouer me, There, there.

4 But let all those that seeke thee, be ioyfull and glad in thee: and let all such as delight in thy saluation, say alway, The Lord be praised.

5 As for me, I am poore and in misery: haste thee vnto me, (O God.)

6 Thou art my helper and my redeemer: O Lord make no long taryng.

*In te Domine speraui. Psal. 71.*Morning
prayer.

In thee, O Lord, haue I put my trust, let me neuer be put to confusion: but rid me, and deliuer me in thy righteousness, encline thine eare vnto me, and saue me.

2 Be thou my strong hold, wherunto I may alway resort: thou hast promised to helpe me, for thou art my house of defence, and my castle.

3 Deliuer me, O my God, out of the hand of the vngodly: out of the hand of y^e vnrigheteous & cruel man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope euen from my youth.

5 Through thee haue I been holden vp euer since I was borne: thou art he that took me out of my mothers wombe, my praise shall be alway of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monster vnto many: but my sure trust is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: (that I may sing of thy glory) and honour all the day long.

8 Cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

9 For mine enemies speake against me, and they that lay wait for my soule, take their counsell together, saying: God hath forsaken him, persecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliuer him.

10 Go not farre from me, O God: my God haste thee to helpe me.

11 Let them be confounded and perish that are against my soule: let them be couered with shame and dishonour, that seek to doe me euill.

12 As for me, I will patiently abide alway: and will praye thee more and more.

13 My mouth shall dayly speake of thy righteousness and saluation: for I know no end thereof.

14 I will go forth in the strength of the Lord God: and will make mention of thy righteousness only.

15 Thou, O God, hast taught me, from my youth vp vntill now: therefore will I tel of thy wondrous works.

16 Forsake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray headed: vntill I haue shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteousness, O God, is very high: and great things are they that thou hast done, O God, who is like vnto thee?

18 O what great troubles and aduersities hast thou shewed me, & yet didst thou urne and refresh me: yea, and broughtest me from the deepe of the earth again.

19 Thou hast brought me to great honor: & comforted me on euery side.

20 Therefore will I praye thee and thy faithfulness (O God) playing vpon an instrument of musick: vnto thee will I sing vpon the harpe, O thou holy One of Israel.

21 My lips will bee faine when I sing vnto thee: and so will my soule whom thou hast deliuered.

22 My tongue also shall talke of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded & brought vnto shame that seek to doe me euill.

Deus iudicium. Psal. 72.

Give the King thy iudgements (O God): and thy righteousness vnto the Kings sonne.

2 Then shall he iudge the people according vnto right: and defend the poore.

3 The mountaines also shall bring peace: and the little hills righteousness vnto the people.

4 He shall keepe the simple folke by their right: defend children of the poore, & punish the wrong doer.

5 They shall feare thee as long as the Sunne and Moone endureth: from one generation to another.

6 He shall come downe like the raine into a fleece of woll: euen as the drops that water the earth.

7 In his time shall the righteous flourish: yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the Moone endureth.

8 His dominion shall bee also from the one sea to the other: and from the flood vnto the worlds end.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall kneele before him: his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tharsis & of the yles shall giue presents: the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

11 All kings shall fall downe before him: all nations shall doe him seruice.

12 For he shall deliuer the poore when he crieth: the needy also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall be fauourable to the simple and needy: and shall preserve the soules of the poore.

14 He shall deliuer their soule from falsehood and wrong: and deare shall their blood be in his sight.

15 He shall liue, and vnto him shall be giuen of the gold of Arabia: prayer shall be made euer vnto him, and dayly shall he be praised.

16 There shall bee an heape of corne in the earth high vpon the hills: his fruit shall shake like Libanus, and shall be green in the city, like grasse vpon the earth.

17 His Name shall endure for euer, his Name shall remaine vnder the Sun among the posterities: which shall be blessed through him, and all the heathen shall praise him.

18 Blessed be the Lord God, euen the God of Israel: which onely doth wondrous things.

19 And blessed bee the Name of his Maiestie for euer: and all the earth shall be filled with his Maiestie. Amen. Amen.

Quam bonus Israel. Psal. 73.

Truly God is louing vnto Israel: euen vnto such as are of a cleane heart.

2 Neuertheles, my feete were almost gone; my treadings had welnigh sliped.

3 And why? I was grieued at the wicked: I doe also see the vngodly in such prosperity.

4 For they are in no perill of death: but are lusty and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folke: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they bee so holden with pride: and ouerwhelmed with cruelty.

7 Their eyes swell with fatnesse: and they doe euen what they lust.

8 They corrupt other, and speake of wicked blasphemy: their talking is against the most highest.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth vnto heauen: and their tongue goeth through the world.

10 Therefore fall the people vnto them: and there-out sucke they no small advantage.

11 Tush (say they) how should God perceiue it: is there knowledge in the most highest?

12 Lo, these are the vngodly, these prosper in the world, and these haue riches in possession: and I said, Then haue I cleansed my heart in vaine, and washed mine hands in innocencie.

13 All the day long haue I been punished: and chastened euery morning.

14 Yea, and I had almost said: men as they: but lo, then should I haue condemned the generation of thy children.

15 Then thought I to vnderstand this: but it was too hard for me.

16 Vntill I went into the Sanctuary of God: then vnderstood I the end of these men.

17 Namely, how thou dost let them in slippery places: and castest them downe, and destroyest them.

18 Oh, how suddenly dost they consume: perish, and come to a fearefull end.

Yea,

Evening
prayer.

19 Yea, euen like as a dream which one awaketh: to shal thou make their image to vanish out of the city.
 20 Thus my heart was grieved: and it went euen through my reins.
 21 So foolish was I and ignorant: euen as it were a beast before thee.
 22 Neuerthelesse I am alwayes by thee: for thou hast holden me by my right hand.
 23 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel: and after that receiue me with glory.
 24 Whom haue I in heauen but thee: and there is none vpon earth that I desire in coparison of thee.
 25 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart and my portion for euer.
 26 For lo, they forsake thee shal perish: thou hast destroyed all them that comit fornication against thee.
 27 But it is good for me to hold me fast by God, to put my trust in the Lord God: and to speake of all thy works (in the gates of the daughter of Sion.)

Vergid Deus. Psal. 74.

O God wherefore art thou absent from vs so long: why is thy wrath to hot against the sheepe of thy pasture?

2 O thinke vpon thy Congregation: whom thou hast purchased and redeemed of old.

3 Thinke vpon the tribe of thine inheritance: and mount Sion wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 Lift vp thy feete, that thou mayest vtterly destroy euery enemy: which hath done euill in thy Sanctuary.

5 Thine aduersaries roare in the midst of thy congregations: and set vp their banners for tokens.

6 Hee that hewed timber afore out of the thicke trees: was known to bring it to an excellent worke.

7 But now they breake downe all the carued worke thereof: with axes and hammers.

8 They haue set fire vpon thy holy places: and haue defiled the dwelling place of thy Name, euen vnto the ground.

9 Yea, they said in their hearts, Let vs make haucke of them altogether: thus haue they burnt vp all the houses of God in the land.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one Prophet more: nor one is there among vs that vnderstandeth any more.

11 O God, how long shall the aduersary doe this dishonour: how long shall the enemy blaspheme thy Name for euer?

12 Why withdrawest thou thy hand: why pluckest not thou thy right hand out of thy bosome to consume the enemy?

13 For God is my King of old: the helpe that is done vpon earth he doeth himselfe.

14 Thou didst diuide the sea through thy power: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

15 Thou smotest the heads of Leviathan in pieces: and gauest him to be meate for the people in the wilderness.

16 Thou broughtest out fountains, and waters out of the hard rocks: thou driedst vp mighty waters.

17 The day is thine, and the night is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the Sunne.

18 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made Summer and Winter.

19 Remember this, O Lord, how the enemy hath rebuked: and how the foolish people haue blasphemed thy Name.

20 O deliuer not the soule of the Turtle doue vnto the multitude of the enemies: and forget not the congregation of the poore for euer.

21 Look vpon the Covenant: for all the earth is full of darkenesse, and cruell habitations.

22 Oh let not the simple goe away ashamed: but let the poore and needy giue praise vnto thy Name.

23 Arise, O God, maintaine thine owne cause: remember how the foolish man blasphemeth thee daily.

24 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the presumption of them that hate thee, increaseth euer more and more.

Confitebimur tibi, Psal. 75.

Vnto thee (O God) doe we giue thanks: yea, vnto thee doe we giue thanks.

2 Thy Name also is to high: and that doe thy wonderous workes declare.

3 When I receiue the Congregation: I shal iudge according vnto right.

4 The earth is weake, and all the inhabitants thereof: I beare vp the pillars of it.

5 I said vnto the fooles, Deale not so madly: and to the vngodly set not vp your horne.

6 Set not vp your horne on high: and speake not with a stiffe necke.

7 For promotion cometh neither from the East nor from the West: nor yet from the South.

8 And why? God is the Iudge: he putteth down one, and setteth vp another.

9 For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full mixt, and he powreth out of the same.

10 As for the dregs thereof: all the vngodly of the earth shal drinke them and sucke them out.

11 But I will talke of the God of Iacob: and praise him for euer.

12 All the horns of the vngodly also wil I breake: and the hornes of the righteous shall be exalted.

Notum in Iudea, Psal. 76.

In Iury is God knownen: his Name is great in Israel.

2 At Salem is his Tabernacle: and his dwelling in Sion.

3 There brake hee the arrowes of the bowe: the shield, the sword, and the battell.

4 Thou art of more honour and might: then the hilles of the rockes.

5 The proud are robbed, they haue slept their sleep: and all the men (whose handes were mighty) haue found nothing.

6 At thy rebuke (O God of Iacob) both the charret and horse are fallen.

7 Thou, euen thou art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when thou art angry?

8 Thou didst cause thy iudgements to bee heard from beauen: the earth trembled and was still.

9 When God arose to iudgement: and to helpe all the meeke vpon earth.

10 The fiercenesse of man shall turne to thy praise: and the fiercenesse of them shalt thou reframe.

11 Promise vnto the Lord your God, and keepe it all ye that be round about him: bring presents vnto him that ought to be feared.

12 Hee shall reframe the spirit of princes: and is wonderful among the Kings of the earth.

Voce mea ad Dominum, Psal. 77.

I will cry vnto God with my voice: euen vnto God I will cry with my voice, and he shall hearken vnto mee.

2 In the time of my trouble I sought the Lord: my fore ran, and ceased not, in the night when my soule refused comfort.

3 When I am in heauinesse, I will thinke vpon God: when my heart is vexed I will complaine.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am feeble feeble that I cannot speake.

Morning prayer.

5 I haue considered the dayes of old: and the yeeres that are past.

6 I call to remembrance my song: & in the night I commune with mine owne heart, and teach out my spirits.

7 Will the Lord abate himselfe for euer: and will he be no more intreated?

8 Is his mercie cleane gone for euer: and is his promise come vnto an end for euer more?

9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious: and will he shut vp his louing kindnesse in displeasure?

10 And I said, It is mine owne infirmite: but I will remember the yeeres of the right hand of the most High ft

11 I will remember the workes of the Lord: and call to mind thy wonders of old time,

12 I will thinke also of all thy workes: and my talking shall be of thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God is holy: who is so great a God (as our God)?

14 Thou art the God that doth wonders: and hast declared thy power among the people.

15 Thou hast mightily deliuered thy people: euen the tonnes of Iacob and Ioseph.

16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters sawe thee, and were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

17 The clouds powred out water, the ayre thundered: and thine arrowes went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was heard round about: the lightnings shone vpon the ground, the earth was moued and shooke withall.

19 Thy way is in the Sea, & thy paths in the great waters: and thy footsteps are not known.

20 Thou leddest thy people like sheepe: by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Ascendite popule. Psal. 78.

HEARE my Lawe, O my people: incline your eares vnto the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will declare hard sentences of old.

3 Which we haue heard and known: and such as our fathers haue told vs.

4 That wee should not hide them from the children of the generations to come: but to shew the honor of the Lord, his mighty and wonderfull workes that he hath done.

5 Hee made a covenant with Iacob, and gaue Israel a Law: which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children.

6 That their posterity may knowe it: and the children which were yet vnborne.

7 To the intent that when they came vp: they might shew their children the same.

8 That they might put their trust in God: and not to forget the workes of God, but to keepe his commandements.

9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithlesse and stubborne generation: a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleaueth not steadfastly vnto God.

10 Like as the children of Ephraim which being harnessed and carying bowes, turned themselves backe in the day of battell.

11 They kept not the Couenant of God: and would not walke in his Law.

12 But forgate what he had done: and the wonderfull workes that he had shewed for them.

13 Marueilous things did he in the sight of our forefathers in the land of Egypt: euen in the land of Zoan.

14 He diuided the Sea, and let them goe through:

he made the waters to stand on an heape,

15 In the day time also he led them with a cloud: and all the night through with a light of fire.

16 He claue the hard rocks in the wilderness: and gaue them drinke thereof, as it had beene out of the great depth.

17 He brought waters out of the stony rocke: so that it gushed out like the riuers.

18 Yet for all this they sinned more against him: and prouoked the most high in the wilderness.

19 They tempted God in their hearts: and required meate for their lust.

20 They spake against God also, saying: Shall God prepare a table in the wilderness?

21 He smote the stony rocke indeed, that the water gushed out, and the streames flowed withall: but can he giue bread also, or prouide flesh for his people?

22 When the Lord heard this, hee was wroth: so the fire was kindled in Iacob, and there came vp heauied displeasure against Israel.

23 Because they beleued not in God: and put not their trust in his helpe.

24 So he commanded the cloudes aboue, and opened the doores of heauen.

25 He rained downe Manna also vpon them for to eate: and gaue them foode from heauen.

26 So man did eate Angels food: for he sent them meate enough.

27 Hee caused the East wind to blow vnder heauen: and through his power hee brought in the Southwest wind.

28 Hee rained flesh vpon them as thicke as dust: and feathered fowles like as the sand of the sea.

29 He let it fall among their tents: euen round about their habitation.

30 So they did eate and were well filled, for hee gaue them their owne desire: they were not disappointed of their lust.

31 But whilest the meat was yet in their mouthes, the heauy wrath of God came vpon them, and slew the wealthiest of them: yea, and smote downe the chosen men that were in Israel.

32 But for all this they sinned yet more: and beleued not his wonderous workes.

33 Therefore their dayes did he consume in vanity: and their yeeres in trouble.

34 When he slew them, they sought him: and turned them early, and enquire after God.

35 And they remembered that God was their strength: and that the high God was their redeemer.

36 Neuertheles, they did but flatter him with their mouth: and dissembled with him in their tongue.

37 For their heart was not whole with him: neither continued they stedfast in his Couenant.

38 But hee was so mercifull, that hee forgave their misdeedes: and destroyed them not.

39 Yea, many a time turned hee his wrath away: and would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise.

40 For he considered that they were but flesh: and that they were euen a wind that passeth away, and cometh not againe.

41 Many a time did they prouoke him in the wilderness: and grieved him in the desert.

42 They turned backe, & tempted God: and moued the holy one in Israel.

43 They thought not of his hand: and of the day when he deliuered them from the hand of the enemy.

44 How hee had wrought his miracles in Egypt: and his wonders in the field of Zoan.

45 He turned their waters into blood: so that they might not drinke of the riuers.

46 Hee sent lice among them, and deuoured them vp: and frogs to destroy them.

47 He gaue their fruit vnto the Caterpillar: and their labour vnto the grasshopper.

48 Hee destroyed their vines with hailestones:
and their mulberry trees with frost.

49 He smote their cattell all with hailestones:
and their flocks with hot thunders bolts.

50 He call vpon them the vniuersities of his wrath, anger, displeasure and trouble: and sent euill angels among them.

51 He made a way to his indignation, and spared not their soules from death: but gaue their life ouer to the pestilence.

52 And smote all the first borne in Egypt: the most principall and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham.

53 But as for his owne people, he led them forth like sheepe: and caried them in the wilderness like a flocke.

54 He brought them out safely that they should not fear: and ouerwhelmed their enemies with the sea.

55 And brought them within the borders of his Sanctuary: euen to his mountaine which he purchased with his right hand.

56 He callt out the heathen also before the: causd their land to be diuided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

57 So they tempted and displeased the most High
God: and kept not his testimonies.

58 But turned their backs, and fell away like their forefathers: starting asid like a broken bow.

59 For they grieved him with their hill altars:
and prouoked him to displeasure with their images.

60 When God heard this, he was wroth: & tooke fore displeasure at Israel.

61 So that he forsooke the tabernacle in Silo: euen
the tent that he had pitched among them.

62 He deliuered their power into captiuitie: and their beauty into the enemies hand.

63 He gaue his people ouer also vnto the sword:
and was wroth with his inheritance.

64 The fire consumed their yong men: and their maidens were not giuen to marriage.

65 Their Priests were slaine with the sword: and there were no widowes to make lamentation.

66 So the Lord awaked as one out of sleepe: and like a giant refreshed with wine.

67 He smote his enemies in the hinder parts: and put them to a perpetual shame.

68 He refused the tabernacle of Ioseph: and chose not the tribe of Egraim.

69 But chose the tribe of Iuda: euen the hill of Sion, which he loued.

70 And: there he builded his Temple on high: and laid the foundation of it like the ground which hee hath made continual y.

71 Hee chose Dauid also his seruant: and tooke him away from the shepfields.

72 As he was following the Ewes great with yong ones, he tooke him that he might feed Iacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

73 So he fed them with a faithfull and true heart:
and ruled them prudently with all his power.

Deus uenerunt. Psal. 79.

O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance: thy holy Temple haue they defiled, and made Hierusalem an heape of stones.

2 The dead bodies of thy seruants haue they giuen to be meate vnto the foules of the ayre: and the flesh of thy Saints vnto the beasts of the land

3 Their blood haue they shed like water on euery side of Hierusalem: & there was no man to bury them.

4 We are become an open shame to our enemies:
a very scorne and derision vnto them that are round about vs.

5 Lord how long wilt thou be angry: shal thy ie-louise burne like fire for ever?

6 Powre out thine indignation vpon the heathen that haue not knowen thee: and vpon the kingdons that haue not called vpon thy Name.

7 For they haue deuoured Iacob: and layd waste his dwelling place.

8 O remember not our old finnes, but haue mercy
vpon vs, & that soon for we are come to great misery.

9 Helpe vs, O God of our saluation, for the glory of thy Name: O deliuer vs, and be mercifull vnto our lmes for thy Names sake.

10 Wherefore do the heathen say: Where is now their God?

11 O let the vengeance of thy seruants blood that is shed: be openly shewed vpon y^e heathen in our fight

12 O let the sorrowfull sighing of the prisoners come before thee: according to the greatnes of thy power, preferue thou those that are appointed to die.

13 And for the blasphemie wherewith our neighbours haue blasphemed thee: reward thou them, (O Lord) fesen Iud to their bosome.

14 So we that be thy people & sheepe of thy pasture, shal giue thee thanks for ever: & wil alway be shew-ing forth thy praise from generation to generation,

Queregu Israel. Psal. 80.

Hear O thou shepherd of Israel, thou that ledest Ioseph like a sheepe: shew thy selfe also thou that sittest vpon the Cherubims.

2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasse: stirre vp thy strength, and come and helpe vs.

3 Turne vs againe, O God: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

4 O Lord God of hostes: how long wilt thou be angry with hy: people that prayeth?

5 Thou feedest them with the bread of heauen, and giuist them plenteousnesse of tears to drinke.

6 Thou hast made vs a very strite vnto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh vs to scorne.

7 Turne vs againe, thou God of hostes: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou madest fountaine for it: when it had taken roote, it filled the land.

10 The hilles were couered with the shadow of it:
& the boughs thereof were like y^e goodly Cedar trees.

11 She stretched out her branches vnto the sea:
and her boughes vnto the riuer.

12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedge:
that all they that goe by plucke off her grapes?

13 The wild Bore out of the wood doth reote it vp: and the wild beasts of the field deuoure it.

14 Turne thee againe thou God of hostes, looke downe from heauen: behold, and visiteth this vine.

15 And the place of the vineyard that thy right hand hath planted: and the branch that thou madest so strong for thy selfe.

16 It is burnt with fire, and cut downe: and they shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let thy hand bee vpon the man of thy right hand: and vpon the sonne of man whom thou madest so strong for thine owne selfe.

18 And so will not we goe backe from thee: O let vs liue, and we shall call vpon thy Name.

19 Turne vs againe, O Lord God of hostes: shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

Exultate

Exultate Deo. Psal. 81.

Sing wee merrily vnto God our strength: make a cheerefull noyle vnto the God of Iacob.

2 Take the Psalme, bring thither the Tabret: the merrie Harpe with the Lute.

3 Blow vp the trumpeter in the new Moone: euen in the time appointed, & vpon our solemne feast day.

4 For this was made a statute for Israel: and a law of the God of Iacob.

5 This hee ordained in Ioseph for a testimonie: when he came out of the land of Egypt, & had heard a strange language.

6 I eased his shoulder from the burthen: and his hands were deliuered from making of the pots.

7 Thou calledst vpon me in troubles, and I deliuered thee: and heard thee what time as the storme fell vpon thee.

8 I prouoed thee also: at the waters of strife.

9 Heare, O my people, and I will assure thee, O Israel: if thou wilt hearken vnto me,

10 There shall no strange god be in thee: neither shalt thou worship any other god.

11 I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I shall fill it.

12 But my people would not heare my voyce: and Israel would not obey me.

13 So I gaue them vp vnto their own hearts lust: and let them follow their owne imaginations.

14 O that my people would haue hearkened vnto me: for if Israel had walked in my wayes.

15 I should soone haue put downe their enemies: and turned my hand against their aduertaries.

16 The haters of the Lord should haue been found lyars: but their time should haue endured for euer.

17 Hee should haue led them also with the finest wheate flour: and with hony out of the stony rocke should I haue satisfied thee.

Deus Iteus. Psal. 82.

God standeth in the congregation of princes: he is a iudge amongst gods.

2 How long will yee giue wrong iudgement: and accept the persons of the vngodly?

3 Defend the poore and fatherlesse: see that such as be in need and necessity, haue right.

4 Deliuer the outcast and poore: saue them from the hand of the vngodly.

5 They will not be learned, nor vnderstand, but walke on still in darkenesse: all the foundations of the earth be out of course.

6 I haue said, Ye are gods: and ye all are children of the most Highest.

7 But ye shall die like men: and fall like one of the princes.

8 Arise, O God, and iudge thou the earth: for thou shalt take all heathen to thine inheritance.

Deus quis similis. Psal. 83.

Hold nor thy tongue, O God, keepe not still silence: refrain not thy selfe, O God.

2 For loe, thine enemies make a murmuring: and they that hate thee, haue lifted vp their head.

3 They haue imagined craftily against thy people: and taken counsell against thy secret ones.

4 They haue sayd, Come, and let vs roote them out: that they be no more a people: and that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they haue cast their heads together with one consent: and are confederate against thee.

6 The tabernacles of the Edomites, and the Ishmaelites: the Moabites and Hagarenes.

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalech: the Philistines, with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 Affur also is ioyned vnto them: and haue holpen the children of Lot.

9 But doe thou to them as vnto the Madianites: vnto Sifera, and vnto Iabin, at the brooke of Kilon.

10 Which perished at Endor, and became as the dung of the earth.

11 Make them & their Princes like Oreb and Zeb: yea, make all their Princes like as Zeba & Salmanna.

12 Which say, Let vs take to our selues the houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like vnto a wheele: and as the stubble before the winde.

14 Like as the fire that burneth vp the wood: and as the flame that consumeth the mountaynes.

15 Persecute them euen so with thy tempest: and make them afraid with thy storme.

16 Make their faces ashamed, O Lord: that they may seeke thy Name.

17 Let them be confounded and vexed euer more and more: let them be put to shame and perish.

18 And they shall know that thou (whose name is Ichouah:) art only the most highest ouer all y^e earth.

Quam dilectus. Psal. 84.

O How amiable are thy dwellings: thou Lord of hostes?

2 My soule hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh reioyce in the liuing God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her yong: euen thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praising thee.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are thy wayes.

6 Which going through the vale of misery, vie it for a well: and the pooles are filled with water.

7 They wil go from strength to strength: & vnto the God of gods appeareth euery one of the in Zion.

8 O Lord God of hosts, heare my prayer: hearken O God of Iacob.

9 Behold, O God, our defender: and looke vpon the face of thine Anointed.

10 For one day in thy courts: is better then a thousand.

11 I had rather be a doore keeper in the house of my God: then to dwell in the tents of vngodly men.

12 For the Lord God is a light and defence: the Lord wil giue grace and worship, and no good thing shall he withhold from them that liue a godly life.

13 O Lord God of hostes: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

Benedixisti Domine. Psal. 85.

Lord, thou art become gracious vnto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Iacob.

2 Thou hast forgotten the offence of thy people: and couered all their sinnes.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure: and turned thy selfe from thy wrathfull indignation.

4 Turne vs then, O God our Saviour: and let thine anger cease from vs.

5 Wilt thou be displeased at vs for euer: and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another?

6 Wilt thou not turne againe and quicken vs: that thy people may reioyce in thee?

7 Shew vs thy mercy, O Lord: and grant vs thy saluation.

8 I wil hearken what the Lord God will say concerning me: for he shall speake peace vnto his people, and to his Saints that they turne not againe.

9 For

9 For his fuluation is nigh them that feare him: that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and trueth are met together: righteousness and peace haue killed each other.

11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth: and righteousness hath looked downe from heauen.

12 Yea, the Lord shall shew louing kindeesse: and our land shall giue her increase.

13 Righteousnesse shall goe before him: and he shall direct his going in the way.

Psalm Domini. Psal. 86.

Bow downe thine eare, O Lord, and heare mee: for I am poore and in misery.

2 Preseue thou my soule, for I am holy. my God, saue thy seruant, that putteth his trust in thee.

3 Be mercifull vnto mee, O Lord: for I will call dayly vpon thee.

4 Comfort the soule of thy seruant: for vnto thee (O Lord) doe I lift vp my soule.

5 For thou, Lord, art good and gracious: and of great mercie vnto them that call vpon thee.

6 Giue eare Lord vnto my prayer: & ponde the voyce of my humble desires.

7 In the time of my trouble I will call vpon thee: for thou hearest me.

8 Among the gods there is none like vnto thee (O Lord:) there is not one that can doe as thou doest.

9 All nations who thou hast made, shall come and worship thee, O Lord: and shall glorifie thy Name.

10 For thou art great, & doest wonderful things: thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walke in thy trueth: O knit my heart vnto thee, that I may feare thy Name.

12 I will thanke thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and will praefie thy Name for euermore.

13 For great is thy mercie toward mee: and thou hast deliuered my soule from the nethermost hell.

14 O God, the proud are risen against mee: and the congregations of naughty men haue fought after my soule, and haue not fer thee before their eyes.

15 But thou (O Lord God) art full of compassion & mercy: long suffering, plenteous in goodnes: & true.

16 O vnto thee then vnto me, and haue mercy vpon me: giue thy strength vnto thy seruant, and help the sonne of thine handmaid.

17 Shew some good:oken vpon me for good, that they which hate me may see it: and be a blamed, because thou Lord hast holpen me, and comforted me.

Fundamenta eius. Psal. 87.

Her foundations are vpon the holy hills: the Lord loueth the gates of Sion, more then all the dwellings of Iacob.

2 Very excellent things are spoken of thee: thou Citie of God.

3 I will thinke vpon Rahab and Babylon: with them that know me.

4 Behold ye the Philistines also: & they of Tyre, with the Morians, for there was he borne.

5 And of Sion it shall be reported, that hee was borne in her: and the most high shall establish her.

6 The Lord shall rehearse it: when he writeth vp the people that he was borne there.

7 The singers also and trumpeters shall hee rehearse: all my fresh springs shall be in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. 88.

O Lord God of my saluation, I haue cried day and night before thee: O let my prayer enter into thy presence, encline thine eare vnto my calling.

2 For my soule is full of trouble: and my life draweth nigh vnto hell.

3 I am counted as one of them that goe downe into the pit: and I haue bene euen as a man that hath no strength.

4 Free among the dead, like vnto them that be wounded and lie in the graue: which bee out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hand.

5 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit: in a place of darkenesse, and in the deepe.

6 Thine indignation lieth hard vpon me: and thou hast vexed me with all thy stormes.

7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance faile from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.

8 I am lo fast in prison: that I cannot get forth.

9 My sight faileth for very trouble: Lord, I haue called dayly vpon thee, I haue stretched out mine hands vnto thee.

10 Doest thou shew wonders among the dead: or shall the dead rise vp againe and praise thee?

11 Shall thy louing kindeesse bee shewed in the graue: or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall thy wonderful workes be known in the darke: and thy righteousness in the land where all things are forgotten?

13 Vnto thee haue I cried, O Lord: and early shall my prayer come before thee.

14 Lord, why abhorrest thou my soule: and hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am in misery, and like vnto him that is at the point to die: (euen from my youth vp) thy terrors haue I suffered with a troubled minde.

16 Thy wrathfull displeasure goeth ouer me: and the feare of thee hath vndone me.

17 They came round about mee dayly like waters: and compassed me together on euery side.

18 My louers and friends hast thou put away from me: and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

Miserere Domini. Psal. 89.

MY long shall be alway of the louing kindeesse of the Lord: with my mouth will I euer be shewing thy trueth, from one generation to another.

2 For I haue said, Mercy shall be set vp for euer: thy trueth shall thou establish in the heauens.

3 I haue made a couenant with my chosen: I haue sworn vnto Dauid my seruant.

4 Thy seede will I establish for euer: and set vp thy throne from one generation to another.

5 O Lord, the very heauens shall praise thy wonderful workes: and thy trueth in the Congregation of the Saints.

6 For who is he among the cloudes: that shall be compared vnto the Lord?

7 And what is hee among the gods: that shall be like vnto the Lord?

8 God is very greatly to be feared in the counsell of the Saints: and to be had in reuerence of all them that are about him.

9 O Lord God of hosts, who is like vnto thee: thy trueth (most mightie Lord) is on euery side.

10 Thou wast the raging of the Sea: thou stillest the waues thereof when they arise.

11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, and destroyed it: thou hast scattered thine enemies aroud with thy mighty arme.

12 The heathens are thine, the earth also is thine: thou hast laid the foundation of the round world, and all that therein is.

13 Thou hast made the North and the South: Tabor and Hermon shall reioyce in thy Name.

14 Thou hast a mightie arme: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

85 Righteous

15 Righteousnes and equity is the habitation of thy leace: mercy and trueth shall goe before thy face.
 16 Blessed is the people (O Lord) that can reioyce in thee: they shall walke in y light of thy countenance.
 17 Their delight shall be daily in thy Name: and in thy righteousness shall they make their boalt.
 18 For thou art the glory of thy strength: and in thy louing kindnes thou shalt lift vp our hornes.
 19 For the Lord is our defence: the holy One of Israel is our King.
 20 Thou spakest sometimes in visions vnto thy Saints, and saiest: I haue laid heape vpon one that is mighty, I haue exalted one chosen out of y people.
 21 I haue found Dauid my seruant: with my holy oyle haue I anointed him.
 22 My hand shall hold him fast: and mine arme shall strengthen him.
 23 The enemy shall not bee able to doe him violence: the sonne of wickednesse shall not hurt him.
 24 I shall smite down his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.
 25 My truth also and my mercy shall be with him: and in my Name shall his horne be exalted.
 26 I will set his dominion also in the sea: and his right hand in the floods.
 27 He shall call me, Thou art my Father: my God and my strong saluation.
 28 And I will make him my first borne: higher then the kings of the earth.
 29 My mercy will I keepe for him for euermore: and my Couenant shall stand fast with him.
 30 His seede also will I make to endure for euer: as his throne as the dayes of heauen.
 31 But if his children forsake my law: and walke not in my iudgements.
 32 If they breake my statutes, and keepe not my Commandements: I will visit their offences with the rod, and their inne with scourges.
 33 Neuertheless, my louing kindnesse will I not utterly take from him: nor suffer my truth to faile.
 34 My Couenant will I not breake, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips: I haue sworn once by my Holinesse, that I will not faile Dauid.
 35 His seed shall endure for euer: and his seate is like as the Sunne before me.
 36 He shall stand fast for euermore as the Moone: and as the faithfull witness in heauen.
 37 But thou hast abhorred and forsaken thine anointed: and art displeased at him.
 38 Thou hast broken the couenant of thy seruants: and cast his crowne to the ground.
 39 Thou hast ouerthrowen all his hedges: and broken downe his strong holds.
 40 All they that goe by spoyle him: and he is become a rebuke to his neighbours.
 41 Thou hast set vp the right hand of his enemies: and made all his aduersaries to reioyce.
 42 Thou hast taken away the edge of his sword: and giuest him not victory in the battell.
 43 Thou hast put out his glory: & cast his throne downe to the ground.
 44 The dayes of his youth hast thou shortened: and covered him with dishonour.
 45 Lord, how long wilt thou hide thy selfe, for euer: and shall thy wrath burne like fire?
 46 O remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men for nought?
 47 What man is he that liueth, & shall not see death: and shall he deliuer his soule from the hand of hell?
 48 Lord, where are thy old louing kindneses: which thou swairst vnto Dauid in thy truth.

49 Remember (Lord) the rebuke that thy seruants haue: & how I doe beare in my bosome the rebukes of many people.

50 Where with thine enemies haue blasphemed thee, and slandered the footsteps of thine anointed: praised be the Lord for euermore, Amen, Amen.

Domine refugium Psal 90.

Lord, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.

2 Before the mountaines were brought forth, or euer the earth and the world were made: thou art God from euerlasting and world without end.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction: againe thou sayest, Come againe ye children of men.

4 For a thousand yeeres in thy sight, are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

5 As soone as thou scatterest them, they are euen as a sleepe: and fade away suddenly like the grasie.

6 In the morning it is greene, & groweth vp: but in the evening it is cut down, dried vp and withered.

7 For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afraid at thy wrathfull indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee: and our secret finnes in the sight of thy countenance.

9 For when thou art angry, all our dayes are gone: we bring our yeeres to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

10 The dayes of our age are threescore yeeres and ten, and though men be so strong, that they come to fourescore yeeres: yet is their strength then but labor and sorrow, so soone passeth it away, & we are gone.

11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath: euen thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 O teach vs to number our dayes: that we may apply our hearts vnto wisdom.

13 Turne thee againe (O Lord) at the last: and be gracious vnto thy seruants.

14 O satisfie vs with thy mercy, and that soone: so shall we reioyce and be glad all the dayes of our life.

15 Comfort vs againe, now after the time that thou hast plagued vs: and for the yeeres wherein wee haue suffered aduersity.

16 Shew thy seruants thy worke: and their children thy glory.

17 And the glorious maiesty of the Lord our God be vpon vs: prosper thou the worke of our hands vpon vs, O prosper thou our handie worke.

Qui habitat. Psal 91.

Who dwelleth vnder the defence of the most High: shall abide vnder the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say vnto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my strong hold: my God, in him will I trust.

3 For hee shall deliuer thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noysome pestilence.

4 He shall defend thee vnder his wings, and thou shalt be safe vnder his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day.

6 For the pestilence that walketh in darkenesse: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noone day.

7 A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold: and see the reward of the vngodly.

9 For thou Lord art my hope: thou hast set thine house of defence very high.

10 There shall no euill happen vnto thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall giue his Angels charge over thee: to to keepe thee in all thy wayes.

12 They shall beare thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foote againſt a ſtone.

13 Thou ſhalt go vpon the Lion & Adder: thou tread vnder thy feet.

14 Becauſe he hath ſet his loue vpon me, therefore ſhall I deliuer him: I ſhall ſet him vp becauſe he hath known my Name.

15 He ſhall call vpon me, and I will heare him: yea, I am with him in trouble, I will deliuer him and bring him to honour.

16 With long life will I ſatiſſie him: and ſhew him my ſaluation.

Bonum eſt conſideri. Pſal. 92.

IT is a good thing to giue thanks vnto the Lord: and to ſing praifes vnto thy Name: O moſt Higheſt.

2 To tell of thy louing kindeſſe early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night ſeaſon.

3 Vpon an inſtrument of ten ſtrings, and vpon the Lute: vpon a lowd inſtrument, and vpon the harpe.

4 For thou Lord haſt made me glad through thy workes: and I will reioyce in giuing praife for the operations of thy hands.

5 O Lord, how glorious are thy workes: and thy thoughts are very deepe.

6 An vnwiſe man doth not well conſider this: and a fool doth not vnderſtand it.

7 When the vngodly are Greene as the graſſe, and when all the workers of wickedneſſe doe flouriſh: then ſhall they be deſtroyed for euer, but thou Lord art the moſt Higheſt for euermore.

8 For loe, thine enemies (O Lord) loe thine enemies ſhall periſh: and all the workers of wickedneſſe ſhall be deſtroyed.

9 But my horne ſhall be exalted like the horne of an Vnicorne: for I am anointed with freſh oyle.

10 Mine eye alſo ſhall ſee his luſt of mine enemies: and mine eare ſhall heare his deſire of the wicked that riſe vp againſt me.

11 The righteous ſhall flouriſh like a Palme tree: and ſhall ſpread abroad like a Cedar in Libanus.

12 Such as bee planted in the houſe of the Lord: ſhall flouriſh in the courts (of the houſe) of our God.

13 They alſo ſhall bring forth more fruit in their age: and ſhall beſet and well liking.

14 That they may ſhewe how true the Lord my ſtrength is: and that there is no vnrighteouſneſſe in him.

Dominus regnabit. Pſal. 93.

THe Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparell: the Lord hath put on his apparell, and girded himſelfe with ſtrength.

2 Hee hath made the round world to ſure: that it cannot be mooued.

3 Euer ſince the world began hath thy ſeat bene prepared: thou art from euerlaſting.

4 The floods are riſen (O Lord) the floods haue liſt vp their voyce: the floods liſt vp their waues.

5 The waues of the ſea are mighty and rage horribly: but yett the Lord that dwelleth on high is mightier.

6 Thy teſtimonies, O Lord, are very ſure: holineſſe becommeth thine houſe for euer.

Domus Vltionum. Pſal. 94.

O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth: thou God to whom vengeance belongeth ſhew thy ſelfe.

2 Ariſe thou Iudge of the world: and reward the proud after their deſeruing.

3 Lord how long ſhall the vngodly; how long ſhall the vngodly triumph?

4 How long ſhall all wicked doers ſpeake to diſdaineſſe: and make ſuch proud boaiſting?

5 They ſmite downe thy people, O Lord: and trouble thine heritage.

6 They murder the widow and the ſtranger: and put the fatherleſſe to death.

7 And yett they ſay, Tuſh, the Lord ſhall not ſee: neither ſhall the God of Iacob regard it.

8 Take heede ye vnwiſe among the people: O yee fooles, when will ye vnderſtand?

9 Hee that planted the eare, ſhall hee not heare: or he that made the eye ſhall hee not ſee?

10 Or he that nurtereth the Heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, ſhall hee not be puniſh?

11 The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man: that they are but vaine.

12 Bleſſed is the man whom thou chaſteſteſt (O Lord:) and teacheſt him in thy law.

13 That thou maieſt giue him patience in time of aduerſitie: vntill the pit be digged vp for the vngodly.

14 For the Lord will not fail his people: neither will he forſake his inheritance.

15 Vntill righteouſneſſe turne againe vnto judgement: all ſuch as be true in heart ſhall follow it.

16 Who will riſe vp with me againſt the wicked: or who will take my part againſt the euill doers?

17 If the Lord had not helped me: it had not failed but my ſoule had bene put to ſilence.

18 But when I ſaid, my foote hath ſlipped: thy mercy (O Lord) held me vp.

19 In the multitude of the ſorrowes that I had in my heart: thy comforts haue reſreſhed my ſoule.

20 Wilt thou haue any thing to do with the ſchoole of wickedneſſe: which imagineth miſchiefe as a law?

21 They gather them together againſt the ſoule of the righteous: and condemne the innocent blood.

22 But the Lord is my refuge: and my God is the ſtrength of my confidence.

23 Hee ſhall recompence them their wickedneſſe, and deſtroy them in their owne malice: yea the Lord our God ſhall deſtroy them.

Venite, exultemus. Pſal. 95.

O Come, let vs ſing vnto the Lord: let vs heartily reioyce in the ſtrength of our ſaluation.

2 Let vs come before his preſence with thankſgiuing: and ſhew our felues glad in him with Pſalmes.

3 For the Lord is a great God: and a great King aboue all gods.

4 In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the ſtrength of the hilles is his alſo.

5 The ſea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the drie land.

6 O come, let vs worſhip & fall down: and kneele before the Lord our maker.

7 For he is the Lord our God: & we are the people of his paſture, and the ſheepe of his hands.

8 To day if ye will heare his voice, harden not your hearts: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderneſſe.

9 When your father tempted me: proued me, and ſaw my workes.

10 For tie yeres long was I grieued with this generation, and ſaid: it is a people that doe erre in their hearts, for they haue not known my wayes.

11 Vnto whom I ſware in my wrath: that they ſhould not enter into my reſt.

reling of his saluation from day to day.

3 Declare his honour vnto the heathen: and his wonders vnto all the people.

4 For the Lord his great, and I cannot worthily be praised: he is more to be feared then all gods.

5 As for all the gods of the heathen they bee but idoles: but it is the Lord that made the heauens.

6 Glory and worship are before him: power and honour are in his sanctuary.

7 Ascribe vnto the Lord (O ye kindreds of the people:) ascribe vnto the Lord worship and power.

8 Ascribe vnto the Lord the honour due vnto his Name: bring presents, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holinesse: let the whole earth stand in awe of him.

10 Tell it out among the heathen, that the Lord is King: and that it is he which hath made the round world to fast that it cannot be moued, and how that he shall iudge the people righteously.

11 Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth bee glad: let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is.

12 Let the field be ioyfull, & all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood reioyce before the Lord.

13 For he commeth, for hee commeth to iudge the earth: and with righteousnesse to iudge the world, and the people with his truth.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. 97.

THe Lord is King, the earth may bee glad thereof: yea, the multitude of the yles may be glad thereof.

2 Cloudes and darkenesse are round about him: righteousnesse and iudgement are the habitation of his seat.

3 There shall goe a fire before him: and burne vp his enemies on every side.

4 His lightnings gaue shine vnto the world: the earth saw it, and was afraid.

5 The his melted like waxe at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heauens haue declared his righteousnesse: and all the people haue seene his glory.

7 Confounded bee all they that worship carued images, and that delight in vaine gods: worship him all ye gods.

8 Sion heard of it, and reioyced: and the daughters of Iuda were glad because of thy iudgements, O Lord.

9 For thou Lord art higher then all that are in the earth: thou art exalted faire above all gods.

10 O yee that loue the Lord, see that yee hate the thing which is euill: the Lord preferueth the foules of his Saints, he shall deliuer them from the hand of the vngodly.

11 There is sprung vp a light for the righteous: and ioyfull gladnesse for such as bee well hearted.

12 Reioyce in the Lord yee righteous: and giue thanks for a remembrance of his holinesse.

Cantate Domino. Psal. 98.

OSing vnto the Lord a new song: for hee hath done maruillous things.

2 With his owne right hand, and with his holy arme: hath he gotten him selfe the victory.

3 The Lord declared his saluation: his righteousnesse hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

4 Hee hath remembered his mercy and truth toward the house of Israel: and at the ends of the world haue seene the saluation of our God.

5 Shewy our selues ioyfull vnto the Lord, all ye Ians: sing, reioyce, and giue thanks.

6 Praise the Lord vpon the Harpe: sing to the Harpe with a Psalm of thanksgiving.

7 With Trumpets also and Shawmes: O shewe your selues ioyfull before the Lord the King.

8 Let the See make a noise, and all that therein is: the round world, and they that dwell therein.

9 Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be ioyfull together before the Lord for he is come to iudge the earth.

10 With righteousnesse shall he iudge the world: and the people with equite.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. 99.

THe Lord is King, bee the people neuer so vnpatient: hee sitteth betweene the Cherubims, bee the earth neuer so requier.

2 The Lord is great in Sion: and high aboue all people.

3 They shall giue thanks vnto thy Name: which is great, wonderfull and holy.

4 The King pouer loueth iudgement, thou hast prepared equite: thou hast executed iudgement and righteousnesse in Iacob.

5 O magnifie the Lord our God: and fall downe before his footstool, for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his Priests, and Samuel among such as call vpon his Name: the called vpon the Lord, and he heard them.

7 He spake vnto them out of the cloudie pillar: for they kept his testimonies, & the law he gaue them.

8 Thou heardest them (O Lord our God:) thou forgavest them, O God, and punishedst their owne inuentions.

9 O magnifie the Lord our God, and worship him, vpon his holy hill: for the Lord our God is holy.

Subilate Deo. Psal. 100.

OBe ioyfull in the Lord, all yee lads: serue the Lord with gladnesse, and come before his presence with a song.

2 Be ye sure that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made vs, and not we our selues, we are his people and the sheepe of his pasture.

3 O goe your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankfull vnto him, and speake good of his Name.

4 For the Lord is gracious, his mercie is euerslasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Misericordiam & iudicium. Psal. 101.

MY long shall bee of mercy and iudgement: vnto thee, O Lord, will I sing.

2 O let me haue vnderstanding in the way of godlinesse.

3 When wilt thou come vnto me: I will walke in my house with a perfect heart.

4 I will take no wicked thing in hand, I hate the fins of vnfaithfulnesse: there shall no such cleaue vnto me.

5 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

6 Who so piouly slandereth his neighbour: him will I destroy.

7 Who so hath also a proude looke, and high stomacke: I will not suffer him.

8 Mine eyes looke vnto such as be faithfull in the land: that they may dwell with me.

9 Who so leadeth a godly life he shall be my seruant.

10 There shall no deceitfull person dwell in my house: he that telleth lies, shall not tary in my sight.

11 I shall soone destroy all the vngodly that are in the land: that I may roote out all wicked doers from the Citie of the Lord.

Domine exaudi. Psal. 102.

HEare my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come vnto thee.

Morning prayer.

a Hide

2 Hide not thy face from mee in the time of my trouble: encline thine eares vnto me when I call, O heare me, and that right soone.

3 For my dayes are consumed away like smoke: and my bones are burnt vp as it were a firebrand.

4 My heart is smitten downe, and withered like grasse: so that I forget to eate my bread.

5 For the voyce of my growning: my bones will scarce cleaue to my flesh.

6 I am become like a Pelicane in the wildernesse: and like an Owle that is in the desert.

7 I haue watched, and am euen as it were a sparrow: that sitteth alone vpon the housetop.

8 Mine enemies teile me all the day long: & they that are mad vpon me, are sorne together against me.

9 For I haue eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drinke with weeping.

10 And that because of thine indignation & wrath: for thou hast taken me vp, and cast me downe.

11 My dayes are gone like a shadow: and I am withered like grasse.

12 But thou O Lord shalt endure for euer: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise and haue mercy vpon Sion: for it is time that thou haue mercy vpon her, yea, the time is come.

14 And whye thy seruants thinke vpon her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heauen shall feare thy Name, O Lord: and all the Kings of the earth thy baselie.

16 When the Lord shall build vp Sion: and when his glory shall appeare.

17 When hee turneth him vnto the prayer of the poore destitute, and despiseth not their desire.

18 This shall be written for those that came after: and people which shall be borne, shall praise the Lord.

19 For he hath looked down from his Sanctuary: out of the heauen did the Lord behold the earth.

20 That he might heare the mournings of such as be in captiuitie: and deliuer the children appointed vnto death.

21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion: and his worship at Hierusalem.

22 When the people are gathered together: and the kingdomes also to serue the Lord.

23 He brought downe my strength in my iourney: and thorned my dayes.

24 But I said, O my God: take mee not away in the middle of mine age: as for thy yeeres, they endure throughout all generations.

25 Thou Lord in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heauens are the worke of thy hands.

26 They shall perishe, but thou shalt endure: they all shall waxe old as doeth a garment.

27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

28 The children of thy seruants shall continue: and their seede shall stand fast in thy sight.

Benedic anima. Psal. 103.

PRaise the Lord, O my soule: and all that is within me, praise his holy Name.

2 Praise the Lord, O my soule: and forget not all his benefits.

3 Which forgiveth all thy sinne: and healeth all thine infirmities.

4 Which saucth thy life from destruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and louing kindeesse.

5 Which satisfieth thy mouth with good things: making thee yong and lusty as an Eagle.

6 The Lord executeth righteousnesse and iudgement: for all them that are oppressed with wrong.

7 Hee shewed his wayes vnto Moyses: his workes vnto the children of Israel.

8 The Lord is full of compassion and mercy: long suffering, and of great goodnesse.

9 He will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for euer.

10 He hath not dealt with vs after our finnes: nor rewarded vs according to our wickednesse.

11 For looke how high the heauen is in comparison of the earth: so great is his mercy alio toward them that feare him.

12 Looke how wide also the East is from the West: so farre hath he set our finnes from vs.

13 Yea, like as a father pitieth his owne children: euen so is the Lord mercifull vnto them that feare him.

14 For he knoweth wherof wee be made: he remembereth that we are but dust.

15 The daies of man are but as grasse: for hee flourisheth as a flower of the field.

16 For as soone as the winde goeth ouer it, it is gone: and the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercifull goodnesse of the Lord endureth for euer and euer, vpon them that feare him: and his righteousness vpon childrens children.

18 Euen vpon such as keepe his Couenant: and thinke vpon his commandements to doe them.

19 The Lord hath prepared his seat in heauen: and his kingdome ruleth ouer all.

20 O praise the Lord, ye Angels of his, ye that excell in strength: ye that fulfill his Commandement, and hearken vnto the voyce of his words.

21 O praise the Lord al ye his kofls: yee seruants of his that see his pleasure.

22 O speake good of the Lord al ye works of his, in all places of his dominion praise thou the Lord, O my soule.

Benedic anima mea. Psal. 104.

PRAISE the Lord, O my soule: O Lord my God, thou art become exceeding glorious: thou art clothed with Maiestie and honour.

2 Thou deckst thy selfe with light as it were with a garment: and spreadest out the heauens like a curtaine.

3 Which layeth the beames of his chamber in the waters: and maketh the cloudes his charter, and walketh vpon the wings of the winde.

4 He maketh his Angels spirits: and his ministers a flaming fire.

5 He laid the foundations of the earth: that it neuer should moue at any time.

6 Thou coverest it with the deepe like as with a garment: the waters stand in the hills.

7 At thy rebuke they flee: at the voyce of thy thunder they are afraid.

8 They goe vp as high as the hills, and downe to the valleys beneath: euen vnto the place which thou hast appointed for them.

9 Thou hast set them their bounds, which they shall not passe: neither turne againe to couer the earth.

10 He sendeth the springs into the rivers: which runne among the hills.

11 All beastes of the field drinke thereof: and the wilde Ases quench their thirst.

12 Beside them shall the foules of the ayre haue their habitation: and fling among the banches.

13 He watereth the hills from aboue: the earth is filled with the fruit of thy works.

14 He bringeth forth grasse for the cattel: & greene herbe for the seruice of men.

15 That he may bring foode out of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the heart of man: and oyle to make him a cheerful countenance, & bread to strengthen mans heart.

16 The trees of the Lord also are full of sap: euen the Cedars of Libanus which he hath planted.

17 Wherein the birds make their nests: and the Firre trees are a dwelling for the Stork.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild Goats: and so are the stonier rocks for the Conies.

19 Hee appointed the Moone for certaine seasons: and the Sunne knoweth his going downe.

20 Thou makest darknesse, that it may be night: wherein all the beasts of the Forrest doe moue.

21 The Lions roaring after their pray: doe seeke their meate at God.

22 The Sunne ariseth, and they get them away together: and lay them downe in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth to his worke, and to his labour: vntill the evening.

24 O Lord, how manifold are thy workes: in wisdom hast thou made them all, the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is the great and wide sea also: wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There goe the ships & there is that Leviathan: whom thou hast made to take his pasture therein.

27 These waite all vpon thee: that thou mayest giue them meate in due season.

28 When thou giuest it them, they gather it: and when thou openest thy hand, they are filled with good.

29 When thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: when thou takest away their breath, they die, and are turned againe to their dust.

30 When thou letteth thy breath goe forth, they shall be made: & thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

31 The glorious Maiesie of the Lord shall endure for euer: the Lord shall reioyce in his workes.

32 The earth shall tremble at the looke of him: if he doe but touch the hills, they shall smoke.

33 I will sing vnto the Lord as long as I liue: I will praise my God, while I haue my being.

34 And so shall my words please him: my ioy shall be in the Lord.

35 As for sinners, they shall be consumed out of the earth, & the vngodly shall come to an end: praise thou the Lord, O my soule praise the Lord.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. 105.

O Give thanks vnto the Lord, and call vpon his Name: tell the people what things hee hath done.

2 O let your songs be of him, and praise him: and let your talking be of all his wonderous workes.

3 Reioyce in his holy name: let the heart of them reioyce that seeke the Lord.

4 Seek the Lord and his strength: seeke his face euermore.

5 Remember the marueilous workes that hee hath done: his wonders and the iudgements of his mouth.

6 O yee seed of Abraham his seruants: yee children of Jacob his chosen.

7 Hee is the Lord our God: his iudgements are in all the world.

8 Hee hath bene alwayes mindfull of his Couenant: and promise: that he made to a thousand generations.

9 Euen the Couenant that hee made with Abraham: and the oath that he sware vnto Ishaac.

10 And appointed the same vnto Iakob for a Law: and so Israel for an euermlasting Testament.

11 Saying, Vnto thee will I giue the land of Chanaan: the lot of your inheritance.

12 When there were yet but a few of them: and they strangers in the land.

13 What time as they went from one Nation to another: from one kingdome to another people.

14 He suffered no man to doe them wrong: but re- pproved euery King for their sakes.

15 Touch not mine Anointed, & doe my Prophets no harme.

16 Moreouer he called for a dearth vpon the land: and destroyed all the prouision of bread.

17 But he had sent a man before them: euen Ioseph: which was sold to be a bondseruant.

18 Whose feet they hurt in the stocks: the yron entred into his soule.

19 Vntill the time came that his cause was knowne: the word of the Lord tried him.

20 The King lent and deliuered him: the Prince of the people let him goe free.

21 Hee made him Lord also of his house: and Ruler of all his substance.

22 That he might enforme his Princes after his will: and teach his Senators wisdom.

23 Israel also came into Egypt: and Jacob was a stranger in a land of Ham.

24 And hee encreased his people exceedingly: and made them stronger then their enemies.

25 Whose heart turned so that they hated his people: and dealt vntruly with his seruants.

26 Then sent hee Moses his seruant: and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 And these shewed his tokens among them: and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darknesse, and it was dark: and they were not obedient vnto his word.

29 He turned their waters into blood: and slewed their fish.

30 Their land brought forth frogges: yea, euen in their kings chambers.

31 Hee spake the word, and there came all manner of flies: and lice in all their quarters.

32 He gaue them hailestones for raine: and flames of fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also and figge trees: and destroyed the trees that were in their coasts.

34 He spake the word, & the grasshoppers came, and caterpillars innumerable: and did eat vp all the grasse in their land, and deuoured the fruit of their ground.

35 He smote all the first borne in their land: euen the chiefe of all their strength.

36 He brought them forth also with silver & gold: there was not one feeble person among the tribes.

37 Egypt was glad at their departing: for they were afraid of them.

38 He spread out a cloud to be a couering: and fire to giue light in the night season.

39 At their desire he brought quailles: and he filled them with the bread of heauen.

40 Hee opened the rock of fons, and the waters flowed out: so that riuers ran in dry places.

41 For why? he remembered his holy promise: and Abraham his seruant.

42 And he brought forth his people with ioy: and his chosen with gladnesse.

43 And gaue them the lands of the Heathen: and they tooke the labours of the people in possession.

44 That they might keepe his statutes: and obserue his lawes.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. 106.

O Give thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercie endureth for euer.

Morning

a Who

Evening
prayer.

2 Who can expresse the noble actes of the Lord Lord: or shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that alway keepe Iudgement: and doe righteously.

4 Remember me, O Lord, according to the fauor that thou bearest vnto thy people: O visit me with thy saluation.

5 That I may see the felicity of thy Chosen: and reioice in the gladnesse of thy people, and giue thanks with thine inheritance.

6 We haue sinned with our fathers: we haue done amisse, and dealt wickedly.

7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, neither kept they thy great goodnes in remembrance: but were disobedient at the sea, euen at the red Sea.

8 Neuerthelesse, hee helped them for his Names sake: that he might make his power to be knownen.

9 He rebuked the red sea also, and it was dried vp: so he led them thorow the deepe, as thorow a wilderness.

10 And he saued them from the aduersaries hand: and deliuered them from the hand of the enemy.

11 As for those that troubled them, the waters ouerwhelmed them: there was not one of them left.

12 Then beleued they his words: and sang praise vnto him.

13 But within a while they forgot his works: and would not abide his counsaile.

14 But lust came vpon them in the wilderness: and they tempted God in the desert.

15 And hee gaue them their desire: and sent leanness withall into their soule.

16 They angered Moses also in the Tents: and Aaron the Saint of the Lord.

17 So the earth opened, & swallowed vp Dathan: and covered the congregation of Abiram.

18 And the fire was kindled in their company: the flame burnt vp the vngodly.

19 They made a calfe in Horeb: and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they turned their glory: into the similitude of a calfe that eateth hay.

21 And they forgate God their Sauour: which had done so great things in Egypt.

22 Wonderous works in the land of Ham: and fearefull things by the red Sea.

23 So he said he would haue destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the gap: to turne away his wrathfull indignation, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they thought scorne of that pleasant land: and gaue no credence vnto his word.

25 But murmured in their Tents: and hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Lord.

26 Then lift he vp his hand against them: to overthrow them in the wilderness.

27 To cast out their seed among the Nations: and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They ioyned themselves vnto Baal Peor: and ate the offerings of the dead.

29 Thus they prouoked him to anger with their owne inuentions: and the plague was great among them.

30 Then stood vp Phinees and prayed: and so the plague ceased.

31 And that was counted vnto him for righteousnesse: among all posterities for euermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife: so that he punished Moses for their sakes.

33 Because they prouoked his spirit: so that hee spake vnadvisedly with his lips.

34 Neither destroyed they the heathen: as the Lord commanded them.

35 But were mingled among the heathen: and learned their workes.

36 In so much that they worshipped their idoles, which turned to their owne decay: yea, they offered their sonnes and daughters vnto deuils.

37 And shed innocent blood: euen the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they offered vnto the idoles of Chanaan, and the land was defiled with blood.

38 Thus were they stained with their owne workes: and went a whoring with their owne inuentions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people: inasmuch that hee abhorred his owne inheritance.

40 And hee gaue them ouer into the hand of the Heathen: and they that hated them, were lords ouer them.

41 Their enemies oppressed them: and had them in subiection.

42 Many a time did he deliuer them: but they rebelled against him with their owne inuentions, and were brought downe in their wickednesse.

43 Neuerthelesse, when he saw their aduersitie, he heard their complaint.

44 He thought vpon his covenant: & pitied them according vnto the multitude of his mercies: yea, he made all those that had them away captiue to pity them.

45 Deliuer vs (O Lord our God) & gather vs from among the heathen: that we may giue thanks vnto thy holy Name, and make our boast of thy praise.

46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, from everlasting, and world without end: and let all the people say, Amen.

Confitemini Domino, Psal. 107.

O Giue thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.

2 Let them giue thanks, who the Lord hath redeemed: and deliuered from the hand of the enemy.

3 And gathered them out of the lands from the east & from the West, from the North, & from the South.

4 They went astray in the wilderness out of the way: and found no citie to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty: their soule fainted in them.

6 So they cryed vnto the Lord in their troubles: and he deliuered them from their distresse.

7 Hee led them forth by the right way: that they might goe to the citie where they dwelt.

8 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

9 For he satisfieth the empty soule: and filleth the hungry soule with goodnesse.

10 Such as sit in darkenesse and in the shadowe of death, being fast bound in miserie and yron.

11 Because they rebelled against the words of the Lord: & lightly regarded his counsell of the most High.

12 Hee also brought downe their heart through heavinesse: they fell downe, and there was none to helpe them vp.

13 So when they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

14 For he brought them out of darknesse, and out of the shadow of death, & brake their bonds in sunder.

15 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

16 For he hath broken the gates of brasie: and smitten the barres of yron in sunder.

17 Foolish men are plagued for their offence: and

Morning prayer.

because of their wickednesse.

18 Their soules abhorred all manner of meat: and they were euen hard at deaths doore.

19 So when they cried vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

20 Hee sent his word and healed them: and they were sau'd from their destruction.

21 O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men.

22 That they would offer vnto him the sacrifice of thanksgiuing: and tell out his works with gladnesse.

23 They that goe downe to the Sea in ships: and occupie their businesse in great waters.

24 These men see the works of the Lord: and his wonders in the deepe.

25 For at his word the stormy wind ariseth: which lifteth vp the waves thereof.

26 They are caried vp to the heauen, and downe againe to the deepe: their soule melteth away because of the trouble.

27 They reele to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and are at their wits end.

28 So when they cry vnto the Lord in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their distresse.

29 For he maketh the storme to cease: so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad, because they bee at rest: and so hee bringeth them to the haueu where they would bee.

31 O that men wou'd therefore praise the Lord for his goodnesse: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

32 That they would exalt him also in the Congregation of the people: and praise him in the seat of the Elders.

33 Which turneth the floods into a wilder nesse: and dryeth vp the water springs.

34 A fruitfull land maketh he barren: for the wickednesse of them that dwell therein.

35 Again hee maketh the wilder nesse a standing water: and water springs of a dry ground.

36 And there hee seareth the hungry: that they may build them a city to dwell in.

37 That they may sow their land, and plant vineyards: to yeld them fruits of increase.

38 Hee blesteth them, so that they multiply exceedingly: and suffereth not their cattell to decrease.

39 And againe, when they are ministred & brought lowe: through oppression, through any plague or trouble.

40 Though hee suffer them to bee euill intreated: through tyrants: and let them wander out of the way in the wilder nesse.

41 Yet helpeth he the poore out of misery: and maketh him householde like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous will consider this, and reioyce: and the mouth of all wickednesse shall be stopped.

43 Who so is wise, will ponder these things: and they shall vnderstand the louing kindnes of the Lord.

Paratum cor meum. Psal. 108.

O God, my heart is ready (my heart is ready:) I will sing and giue praise with the best member that I haue.

2 Awake thou Lute and Harpe: I my selfe will awake rightearely.

3 I will giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing praises vnto thee among the Nations.

4 For thy mercie is greater then the heauens: and thy trueth reacheth vnto the cloudes.

5 Set vp thy selfe (O God) aboute the heauens: and thy glory aboute all the earth.

6 That thy beloued may be deliuered: let thy right hand saue them, and heare thou me.

7 God hath spoken in his holinesse: I will reioyce therefore and diuide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine, and Manasse is mine: Ephraim also is the strenght of my head.

9 Iuda is my Lawgiuer, Moab is my washpot: ouer Edom will I cast out my shoe, vpon the Philistines will I triumph.

10 Who will leade me into the strong Citie: and who will bring me into Edom?

11 Hast not thou forsaken vs, O God: and wilt not thou, God, goe forth with our hosts?

12 O helpe vs against the enemy: for vaine is the helpe of man.

13 Through God we shall doe great acts: and it is he that shall tread downe our enemies.

Deus laudam. Psal. 109.

Hold not thy tongue, O God of my praise: for the mouth of the vngodly, yea, and the mouth of the deceitfull is opened vpon me.

2 And they haue spoken against mee with false tongues: they compassed me about also with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.

3 For the loue that I had vnto them, loe they take now my cōtrary part: but I giue my selfe vnto praiier.

4 Thus haue they rewarded me euil for good: and hatred for my good will.

5 Set thou an vngodly man to be ruler ouer him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

6 When sentence is giuen vpon him, let him bee condemned: and let his prayer be turned into sinne.

7 Let his dayes be few: and let another take his office.

8 Let his children bee fatherlesse: and his wife a widow.

9 Let his children be vagabonds, and begge their bread: let them seeke it also out of desolate places.

10 Let the extortioner consume all that hee hath: and let the stranger spoile his labour.

11 Let there bee no man to pitie him: nor to haue compassion vpon his fatherlesse children.

12 Let his posteritie be destroyed: and in the next generation let his name be cleane put out.

13 Let the wickednesse of his fathers be had in remembrance in the sight of the Lord: and let not the sinnen of his mother be done away.

14 Let them alway be before the Lord: that he may roote out the memoriall of them from off the earth.

15 And that because his mind was not to do good: but persecuted the poore helpelesse man: that he might slay him that was vntoed at the heart.

16 His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen vnto him: hee leued not blessing, therefore shall it bee farre from him.

17 He clothed himselfe with cursing like as with a rayment: and it shall come into his bowels like water, and like oyle into his bones.

18 Let it be vnto him as the cloake that hee hath vpon him: and as the girdle that he is alway girded withall.

19 Let it thus happen from the Lord vnto mine enemies: & to those that speake euil against my soule.

20 But deale thou with me (O Lord God) according vnto thy Name: for sweet is thy mercy.

21 O deliuer me, for I am helpelesse and poore: and my heart is wounded within me.

21 I goe hence like the shadow that departeth: and am driuen away as the grasshopper.

22 My knees are weak through fasting: my flesh is dried vp for want of fatnesse.

23 I became also a rebuke vnto them: they that looked vpon me, shaked their heads.

24 Helpe me (O Lord my God:) O saue me according to thy mercy.

25 And they shall know how that this is thy hand: and that thou Lord hast done it.

26 Though they curse, yet blesse thou: and let them be confounded that rise vp against me, but let thy servants reioyce.

27 Let mine aduersaries bee clothed with shame: and let them couer themselves with their own confusion, as with a cloake.

28 As for mee, I will giue great thanks vnto the Lord with my mouth: and praise him among the multitude.

29 For he hath stand at the right hand of the poore: to saue his soules from vnrighteous iudges.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. 110.

THe Lord said vnto my Lord: Sit thou on my right hand, vntill I make thine enemies thy foote stooles.

2 The Lord shall send the rod of thy power out of Zion: bee thou ruler enen in the mids among thine enemies.

3 In the day of thy power shall the people offer thee free will offerings with an holy worship: the dew of thy birth is as the wombe of the morning.

4 The Lord ware, and will not repent: thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedech.

5 The Lord vpon thy right hand: shall wound euery kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall iudge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies: and smite in sunder the heads vpon diuers countreys.

7 He shall drinke of the brooke in the way: therefore shall he lift vp his head.

Consolaberis tibi. Psal. 111.

IWill giue thanks vnto the Lord with my whole heart: secretly among the faithfull, and in the Congregation.

2 The workes of the Lord are great: sought out of all them that haue pleasure therein.

3 His worke is worthy to be praised and had in honour: and his righteousness endureth for euer.

4 The mercifull and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous workes: that they ought to be had in remembrance.

5 He hath giuen meate vnto them that feare him: he shall euer be mindfull of his Couenant.

6 He hath shewed his people y power of his workes: that he may giue them the heritage of the Heathen.

7 The workes of his hands are veritie and judgement: all his Commandements are true.

8 They stand fast for euer and euer: and are done in truth and equitie.

9 Hee sent redemption vnto his people: hee hath commanded his Couenant for euer, holy & reuerent is his Name.

10 The feare of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good vnderstanding haue all they that doe thereafter, the praise of it endureth for euer.

Beatus vir. Psal. 112.

Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord: he hath great delight in his Commandements.

2 His seed shall be mighty vpon earth: the generation of the faithfull shall be blessed.

3 Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for euer.

4 Vnto the godly there ariseth vp light in the darkness: he is mercifull, louing, and righteous.

5 A good man is mercifull, and lendeth: and will giue his words with discretion.

6 For he shall neuer be moued: and the righteous shall be had in an euermouring remembrance.

7 He will not be afraid for any euil tidings: for his heart standeth fast, and belongeth in the Lord.

8 His heart is stablished, and will not shrink: vntill he see his desire vpon his enemies.

9 He hath dispersed abroad, & giuen to the poore: and his righteousness remaineth for euer, his hope shall be exalted with honour.

10 The vngodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him: he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away, the desire of the vngodly shall perish.

Laudate pueri. Psal. 113.

Praise the Lord (ye seruants:) O praise the Name of the Lord

2 Blessed be the Name of the Lord from this time forth for euermore.

3 The Lords Name is praised: from the rising vp of the Sunne, vnto the going downe of the same.

4 The Lord is high aboue all Heathen: and his glory aboue the heauens.

5 Who is like vnto the Lord our God, that hath his dwelling so high: and yet humbleth himselfe to behold the things that are in heauen and earth?

6 Hee taketh vp the simple out of the dust: and lifteth the poore out of the mire.

7 That he may set him vp with the Princes: euen with the Princes of his people.

8 Hee maketh the barren woman to keepe house: and to be a joyfull mother of children.

In exitu Israel. Psal. 114.

When Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Iacob from among the strange people.

2 Iuda was his Sanctuary: and Israel his dominion.

3 The Sea sawe that and fled: Iorden was driuen backe.

4 The mountaines skipped like rammes: and the little hilles like yong sheepe.

5 What aileth thee, O thou Sea, that thou fleddest: and thou Iordan, that thou wast driuen backe?

6 Yee mountaines that ye skipped like Rammes: and ye little hills like yong sheepe?

7 Tremble thou earth at the presence of the Lord: at the presence of the God of Iacob.

8 Which turned the hard rocke into a springing well, and the flint stone into a springing well.

Non nobis Domine. Psal. 115.

Not vnto vs, O Lord, not vnto vs but vnto thy Name giue the praise: for thy louing mercy, and for thy truthes sake.

2 Wherefore shall the heathen say: Where is now their God?

3 As for our God, hee is in heauen: hee hath done whatsoever pleased him.

4 Their idoles are siluer and gold: euen the worke of mens hands.

5 They haue mouthes and speake not: eyes haue they, and see not.

6 They haue eares and heare not: noses haue they, and smell not.

7 They haue handes and handle not, feete haue they, and walk not: neither speake they through their throat.

8 They that make them are like vnto them : and fo are all (uch as put their trust in them.

9 But thou house of Israel, trust thou in the Lord: he is their succour and defence.

10 Ye house of Aaron, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.

11 Yee that feare the Lord, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper and defender.

12 The Lord hath bin mindfull of vs, and he shall blesse vs: euen he shall blesse the house of Israel, hee shall blesse the house of Aaron.

13 Hee shall blesse them that feare the Lord, both small and great.

14 The Lord shall increase you more and more: you and your children.

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord: which made heauen and earth.

16 All the whole heauens are the Lords: the earth hath he giuen to the children of men.

17 The dead praiseen not thee, O Lord: neither all all they goe downe into the silence.

18 But wee will praise the Lord, from this time forth for euermore. Praise the Lord.

Dil ex quoniam, Psal. 116.

I Am well pleased: that the Lord hath heard the voyce of my prayer.

2 That hee hath inclined his eare vnto mee: therefore will I call vpon him as long as I liue.

3 The snares of death compassed me round about: and the paines of hell gate hold vpon me.

4 I shall finde trouble and heauinesse, and I shall call vpon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beseech thee deliuer my soule.

5 Gracious is the Lord and righteous: yea, our God is mercifull.

6 The Lord preferueth the simple: I was in miserie, and he helped me.

7 Turne againe then vnto thy rest, O my soule: for the Lord hath rewarded thee.

8 And why? thou hast deliuered my soule from death: mine eyes from teares, and my feete from falling.

9 I will walke before the Lord in the land of the liuing.

10 I beleueed, and therefore will I speake, but I was foretroubled: I faide in my haste, All men are lyars.

11 What reward shall I giue vnto the Lord: for all the benefiits that he hath done vnto me?

12 I will receiue the cup of saluation: and call vpon the Name of the Lord.

13 I will pay my vowes now in the presence of all his people: right deare in the sight of the Lord, is the death of his Saints.

14 Behold (O Lord) how that I am thy seruant: I am thy seruant, and the sonne of thine handmaide, thou hast broken my bonds in sunder.

15 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiuing: and will call vpon the name of the Lord.

16 I will pay my vowes vnto the Lord, in the sight of all his people in the courts of the Lords house, euen in the middes of thee, O Hierusalem, Praise the Lord.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 117.

O Praise the Lord all ye heathen: praise him all yee nations.

2 For his mercifull kindnesse is euer more & more toward vs: and the truth of the Lord endureth for euer, Praise ye the Lord.

Confitemini Domino, Psal. 118.

O Giue thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: because his mercy endureth for euer.

2 Let Israel now confesse that he is gracious: and that his mercy endureth for euer.

3 Let the house of Aaron now confesse: that his mercie endureth for euer.

4 Yea, let them now that feare the Lord, confesse: that his mercy endureth for euer.

5 I called vpon the Lord in trouble: and the Lord heard me at large.

6 The Lord is on my side: I will not feare what man doeth vnto me.

7 The Lord taketh my part with them that helpe mee: therefore shall I see my desire vpon mine enemies.

8 It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in man.

9 It is better to trust in the Lord: then to put any confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed me round about: but in the Name of the Lord will I destroy them.

11 They kept me in on euery side, they kept me in (I say) on euery side: but in the name of the Lord will I destroy them.

12 They came about me like bees, and are extinguiſhed as the fire among the thornes: for in the Name of the Lord I will destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust fore at me, that I might fall: but the Lord was my helpe.

14 The Lord is my strength and my song: and is become my saluation.

15 The voice of my ioy & health is in the dwellings of the righteous: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to passe.

16 The right hand of the Lord hath the preheminnence: the right hand of the Lord bringeth mightie things to passe.

17 I will not die but liue: and declare the workes of the Lord.

18 The Lord hath chastened and corrected mee: but he hath not giuen me ouer vnto death.

19 Open mee the gates of righteousness: that I may get into them, and giue thanks vnto the Lord.

20 This is the gate of the Lord: the righteous shall enter into it.

21 I will thanke thee, for thou hast heard me: and art become my saluation.

22 The same stone which the builders refused: is become the head stone in the corner.

23 This is the Lords doing: and it is maruillous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will reioyce and be glad in it.

25 Helpe me now, O Lord: O Lord O Lord send vs now prosperitie.

26 Blessed bee hee that commeth in the Name of the Lord: we haue wished you good lucke, ye that be of the house of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord which hath shewed vs light: bind the sacrifice with cords, yea, euen vnto the horns of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will thanke thee: thou art my God, and I will praise thee.

29 O giue thanks vnto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.

Beati immaculati, Psal. 119.

Blessed are those that are vndeliled in the way: and walke in the law of the Lord.

2 Blessed are they that keepe his testimonies: and seeke him with their whole heart.

3 For they which doe no wickednesse: walke in his wayes.

4 Thou

Morning
prayer.

Evening
prayer.

- 4 Thou hast charged: that wee shall diligently keepethy commandments.
 5 O that my wayes were made so direct: that I might keepethy statutes.
 6 So shall I not be confounded: while I haue respect vnto all thy commandments.
 7 I will thanke thee with an vnfeined heart: when I shall haue learned the iudgements of thy righteousness.
 8 I will keepethy ceremonies: O forsake me not utterly.

In que corriget.

WHerewith shall a yong man cleanse his way: euen by ruling himselfe after thy word.
 2 With my whole heart haue I sought thee: O let me not goe wrong out of thy commandments.
 3 Thy words haue I hid within my heart: that I should not sinne against thee.
 4 Blessed art thou, O Lord: O teach me thy statutes.
 5 With my lips haue I bene telling: of all the iudgements of thy mouth.
 6 I haue had as great delight in the way of thy testimonies: as in all manner of riches.
 7 I will talke of thy commandments: and haue respect vnto thy wayes.
 8 My delight shall be in thy statutes: and I will not forget thy word.

Retribue sermo tuo.

O Doe well vnto thy seruant: that I may liue, and keepethy word.
 2 Open thou mine eyes: that I may see the wonderful things of thy Law.
 3 I am a stranger vpon earth: O hide not thy commandments from me.
 4 My soule breaketh out for the very seruent desire: that it hath alway vnto thy iudgements.
 5 Thou hast rebuked the proud: and cursed are they that doe erre from thy commandments.
 6 O turne from me shame and rebuke: for I haue kept thy testimonies.
 7 Princes also did sit and speake against me: but thy seruant is occupied in thy statutes.
 8 For thy testimonies are my delight: and my counsellors.

Adhæsit pavimento.

My soule cleaueth to the dust: O quicken thou me according to thy word.
 2 I haue knowledged my wayes, and thou heardst me: O teach me thy statutes.
 3 Make me to vnderstand the way of thy commandments: & so shall I talke of thy wonderful works.
 4 My soule melteth away for very heavinesse: comfort thou me according vnto thy word.
 5 Take from me the way of lying: and cause thou me to make much of thy Law.
 6 I haue chosen the way of truth: and thy iudgements haue I laid before me.
 7 I haue sticken vnto thy testimonies: O Lord, confound me not.
 8 I will runne the way of thy commandments: when thou hast set my heart at liberty.

Legem pone.

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes: and I shall keepethy word to the end.
 2 Giue me vnderstanding and I shall keepethy Law: yea, I shall keepethy word with my whole heart.
 3 Make me to goe in the path of thy commandments: for therein is my desire.
 4 Incline my heart vnto thy testimonies: and not to couetousnesse.

Morning
prayer.

- 5 O turne away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity: and quicken thou me in thy way.
 6 O Establish thy word in thy seruant: that I may feare thee.
 7 Take away the rebuke that I am afraid of: for thy iudgements are good.
 8 Behold, my delight is in thy commandments: O quicken me in thy righteousness.
Et veniat super me.

Let thy louing mercy come also vnto me, O Lord: Leuen thy saluation, according vnto thy word.
 2 So shall I make answer vnto my blasphemers: for my trust is in thy word.
 3 O take not the word of thy truth vnto the end of my mouth: for my hope is in thy iudgements.
 4 So shall I alway keepethy Law: yea, for euer and euer.
 5 And I will walke at libertie: for I seeke thy commandments.
 6 I will speake of thy testimonies also, euen before Kings: and will not be ashamed.
 7 And my delight shall be in thy commandments: which I haue loued.
 8 My hands also will I lift vp vnto thy commandments, which I haue loued: and my study shall be in thy statutes.

Memor esto verbi tui.

O Thinke vpo thy seruant, as concerning thy words: wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust.
 2 The same is my comfort in my trouble: for thy word hath quickened me.
 3 The proud haue had me exceedingly in derision: yet haue I not shrinken from thy Law.
 4 For I remembered thine euerslasting iudgments, O Lord: and received comfort.
 5 I am horribly afraid, for the vngodly that forsakethy Law.
 6 Thy statutes haue bene my songs: in the house of my pilgrimage.
 7 I haue thought vpon thy Name O Lord, in the night season: and haue kept thy Law.
 8 This I had: because I kept thy commandments.

Portio mea Domine.

Thou art my portion, O Lord: I haue promised to keepethy Law.
 2 I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole heart: O be mercifull vnto me according to thy word.
 3 I called mine owne wayes to remembrance: and turned my feet vnto thy testimonies.
 4 I made haste, and prolonged not the time to keepethy commandments.
 5 The congregation of the vngodly haue robbed me: but I haue not forgotten thy Law.
 6 At midnight I will rise to giue thanks vnto thee: because of thy righteous iudgements.
 7 I am a companion of all them that feare thee: and keepethy commandments.
 8 The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: O teach me thy statutes.

Bonitatem fecisti.

O Lord, thou hast dealt graciously with thy seruant: according vnto thy word.
 2 O let me be true vnderstanding and knowledge: for I haue beleueed thy commandments.
 3 Before I was troubled, I went wrong: but now haue I kept thy word.
 4 Thou art good and gracious: O teach me thy statutes.
 5 The proud haue imagined a lie against me: but I will keepethy commandments with my whole heart.

6. Their

Evening
prayer.

6 Their heart is as fat as brawne: but my delight hath bene in thy Law.
7 It is good for me that I haue bene in trouble:
that I may learne thy statutes.
8 The Law of thy mouth is dearer vnto me then thousands of gold and filuer.

Manus tue fecerunt me.

Thy hands haue made me and fashioned me: O giue mee vnderstanding that I may learne thy commandements.

2 They that feare thee will be glad when they see mee: because I haue put my trust in thy word.

3 I knew (O Lord) that thy iudgements are right:
and that thou of very faithfullnes halt caused me to be troubled.

4 O let thy mercifull kindnesse be my comfort:
according to thy word vnto thy seruant.

5 O let thy louing mercies come vnto me, that I may liue: for thy Law is my delight.

6 Let the proud be confounded, for they go wickedly about to destroy me: but I will be occupied in thy commandements.

7 Let such as feare thee, and haue knownen thy testimonies: be turned vnto me.

8 O let my heart be found in thy statutes: that I be not ashamed.

Deficit anima mea.

My soule hath longed for thy saluation: and I haue a good hope because of thy word.

2 Mine eyes long fore for thy word: saying, O when wilt thou comfort me?

3 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke: yet doe I not forget thy statutes.

4 How many are the dayes of thy seruant: when wilt thou be auenged of them that persecute me?

5 The proud haue digged pits for me: which are not after thy Law.

6 All thy commandements are true: they persecute me falsely, O be thou my helpe.

7 They had almost made an end of me vpon earth:
but I forooke not thy commandements.

8 O quicken mee after thy louing kindnesse: and so shall I keepe the testimonies of thy mouth.

In aeternum Domine.

O Lord thy word: endureth for euer in heauen.

2 Thy truth also remaineth from one generation to another: thou hast laid the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.

3 They continue this day according to thine ordinance: for all things serue thee.

4 If my delight had not bene in thy Law: I should haue perished in my trouble.

5 I will neuer forget thy commandements: for with them thou hast quickned me.

6 I am thine, oh laue me: for I haue sought thy commandements.

7 The vngodly laid waite for me to destroy me:
but I will confider thy testimonies.

8 I see that all things come to an ende: but thy commandement is exceeding broad.

Quomodo dilexi.

Ord, what loue haue I vnto thy Law: all the day long is my study in it.

2 Thou through thy commandements hast made me wiser then mine enemies: for they are euer with me.

3 I haue more vnderstanding then my teachers:
for thy testimonies are my study.

4 I am wiser then the aged: because I keepe thy commandements.

5 I haue refrained my feet from euery euill way:
that I may keepe thy word.

6 I haue not shrunke from thy iudgements: for thou teachest me.

7 O how sweet art thy words vnto my throat:
yea, sweeter then hony vnto my mouth.

8 Through thy commandements I get vnderstand-ing: therefore I hate all wicked wayes.

Lucerna pedibus meis.

Thy word is a lantern vnto my feet: and a light vnto my pathes.

2 I haue worne and am stedfastly purposed: to keepe thy righteous iudgements.

3 I am troubled about measure: quicken me (O Lord) according to thy word.

4 Let the free will offerings of my mouth please thee, O Lord: and teach me thy iudgements.

5 My soule is alway in my hand: yet doe I not forget thy Law.

6 The vngodly haue laid a snare for me: but yet
I swared not from thy commandements.

7 Thy testimonies haue I claimed as mine heritage for euer: & why? they are my very ioy of my heart.

8 I haue applied my heart to fulfill thy statutes alway: euen vnto the end.

Iniquis odio habui.

I hate them that imagine euill things: but thy lawe doe I loue.

2 Thou art my defence and shield: and my trust is in thy word.

3 Away from me ye wicked: I will keepe the com-mandements of my God.

4 O stablish me according vnto thy word, that I may liue: and let me not be disappointed of my hope.

5 Hold thou me vp and I shall be safe: yea, my delight shall be euer in thy statutes.

6 Thou hast troden downe all them that depart from thy statutes: for they imagine but deceit.

7 Thou puttest away all the vngodly of the earth like drosse: therefore I loue thy testimonies.

8 My flesh trembleth for feare of thee: and I am afraid of thy iudgements.

Et cuncti iudicium.

Deale with the thing that is lawfull and right: O giue me not ouer vnto mine oppressors.

2 Make thou thy seruant to delight in that which is good: that the proud doe me no wrong.

3 Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy health: and for the word of thy lighteousnes.

4 O deale with thy seruant according vnto thy louing mercy: and teach me thy statutes.

5 I am thy seruant, O grant mee vnderstanding:
that I may know thy testimonies.

6 It is time for thee Lord, to lay to thine hands: for they haue destroyed thy Law.

7 For I loue thy commandements: aboue gold and precious stone.

8 Therefore hold I straight all thy Commandements: and all lawes I vterly abhorre.

Moralia.

Thy testimonies are wonderfull: therfore doth my soule keepe them.

2 When thy word goeth forth: it giueth light and vnderstanding to the simple.

3 I opened my mouth and drew in my breath: for my delight was in thy commandements.

4 O looke thou vpon me, and be mercifull vnto me:
as thou vset to doe vnto those that loue thy Name.

5 Order my steps in thy word: and so shall no wickednesse haue dominion ouer me.

6 O deliuct me from the wrongfull dealings of men: and so shall I keepe thy commandements.

7 Shew the light of thy countenance vpon thy seruants:

Morning
prayer.

servant: and teach me thy statutes,

8 Mine eyes gush out with water: because men keepe not thy Law.

Influit es Domine.

Righteous art thou, O Lord: and true is thy judgement.

2 The Testimonies that thou hast commanded: are exceeding righteous and true.

3 My zeale hath even consumed me: because mine enemies haue forgotten thy words.

4 Thy word is tryed to the vettermost: and thy seruant loeeth it.

5 I am small, and of no reputation: yet doe I not forget thy commandements.

6 Thy righteousness is an euerslasting righteousness: and thy Law is the trueth.

7 Trouble and heaviness haue taken hold vpon me: yet is my delight in thy commandements.

8 The righteousness of thy testimonies is euerslasting: O graunt me vnderstanding, and I shall liue.

Clamasti in toto corde meo.

I call with my whole heart: heare mee, O Lord, I will keepe thy statutes.

2 Yea, euen vpon thee doe I call: helpe me, and I shall keepe thy testimonies.

3 Early in the morning doe I cry vnto thee: for in thy word is my trust.

4 Mine eyes preuent the night watches: that I might be occupied in thy words.

5 Heare my voice, O Lord, according vnto thy louing kindnesse: quicken mee according as thou art wont.

6 They draw nigh that of malice persecute mee: and are faile from thy Law.

7 Be thou nigh at hand, O Lord: for all thy commandements are true.

8 As concerning thy testimonies, I haue known long since: that thou hast grounded them for euer.

Vide humilitatem.

O Consider mine aduersity, and deliuer mee: for I doe not forget thy Law.

2 Auenge thou my cause, and deliuer me: quicken me according vnto thy word.

3 Health is far from the vngodly: for they regard not thy statutes.

4 Great is thy mercy, O Lord: quicken mee as thou art wont.

5 Many there are that trouble me, and persecute me: yet doe I not fwarre from the testimonies.

6 It grieueth mee when I see the transgressors: because they keepe not thy Law.

7 Consider, O Lord, how I loue thy commandements: O quicken mee according to thy louing kindnesse.

8 Thy word is true from euerslasting: all the iudgements of thy righteousness endure for euermore.

Principes persecuti sunt.

Princes haue persecuted mee without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy words.

2 I am as glad of thy word: as one that findeth great spoiles.

3 As for lies, I haue and abhorre them: but thy Law doe I loue.

4 Seven times a day doe I praise thee: because of thy righteous iudgements.

5 Great is the peace that they haue which loue thy law: and they are not offended at it.

6 Lord, I haue looked for thy saving health: and done after thy commandements.

7 My soule hath kept thy testimonies: and loved them exceedingly.

*Evening
prayer.*

8 I haue kept thy commandements and testimonies: for all my wayes are before thee.

Appropinquat deprecatio.

Let my complaint come before thee, O Lord: giue me vnde standing according to thy word.

2 Let my supplication come before thee: deliuer me according to thy word.

3 My lips shall speake of thy praise: when thou hast taught me thy statutes.

4 Yea, my tongue shall sing of thy word: for all thy commandements are righteous.

5 Let thine hand helpe me: for I haue chosen thy commandements.

6 I haue longed for thy saving health, O Lord: and in thy Law is my delight.

7 O let my soule liue, and it shall praise thee: and thy iudgements shall helpe me.

8 I haue gone astray like a sheepe that is lost: Oh seeke thy seruant, for I doe not forget thy commandements.

Ad Dominum. Psal. 120.

When I was in trouble, I called vpon the Lord: and hee heard me.

2 Deliuer my soule, O Lord, from lying tyts: and from a deceitfull tongue.

3 What reward shall be giuen or done vnto thee, thou false tongue: euen mighty and sharpe arrows, with hot burning coales.

4 Woe is me that I am constrained to dwell with Mesch: and to haue mine habitation among the tents of Cedar.

5 My soule hath long dwelt among them: that be enemies vnto peace.

6 I labour for peace, but when I speake vnto them therof: they makethem ready to battell.

Letamusculos Psal. 121.

I will lift vp mine eyes vnto the hills: from whence I commeth my helpe.

2 My helpe commeth euen from the Lord: which hath made heauen and earth.

3 He will not suffer thy foote to be mooued: and he that keepeth thee will not sleepe.

4 Behold, hee that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleepe.

5 The Lord himselfe is thy keeper: the Lord is thy defence vpon thy right hand.

6 So that the Sunne shall not burne thee by day: neither the Moone by night.

7 The Lord shall preferre thee from all euill: yea, it is euen he that shall keepeth thy soule.

8 The Lord shall preferre thy going out and thy coming in: from this time forth for euer.

Letamus sum. Psal. 122.

I was glad when they said vnto me: we will goe into the house of the Lord.

2 Our feet shall stand in thy getes: O Ierusalem: Ierusalem is builded as a citie: that is at vnkyn in it selfe.

3 For thither the tribes doe vp, euen the tribes of the Lord: to testifie vnto Israel, to giue thanks vnto the Name of the Lord.

4 For there is the seate of iudgement: euen the seate of the house of David.

5 O pray for the peace of Ierusalem: they shall prosper that loue thee.

6 Peace be within thy walles: and plenteousnesse within thy palaces.

7 For my brethren and companions sakes: I will wish thee prosperitie.

8 Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God: I will seeke to doe thee good.

*Morning
prayer.*

Ad te leuauis oculos meos. Psal. 123.

VNto thee lift I vp mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heauens.

2 Behold, euen as the eyes of seruants looke vnto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden vnto the hand of her mistresse: euen so our eyes waite vpon the Lord our God, vntill he haue mercy vpon vs.

3 Haue mercy vpon vs, O Lord, haue mercy vpon vs: for we are vterly despised.

4 Our soule is filled with the scornfull reproofe of the wealthy: and with the despitefullnesse of the proud.

Nisi quia Dominus. Psal. 124.

IF the Lord himselfe had not bene on our side (now may Israel say:) if the Lord himselfe had not been on our side, when men rose vp against vs.

2 They had swallowed vs vp quick: when they were so wrathfully displeased at vs.

3 Yea, the waters had drowned vs: and the streame had gone ouer our soule.

4 The deepe waters of the proude: had gone ouer our soule.

5 But prayed be the Lord: which hath not giuen vs ouer for a pray vnto their teeth.

6 Our soule is escaped euen as a bird out of the snare of the fowler: the snare is broken and wee are deliuered.

7 Our helpe standeth in the Name of the Lord: which hath made heauen and earth.

Qui confidunt. Psal. 125.

THEY that put their trust in the Lord shall be euen as the mount Sion: which may not be remoued, but standeth fast for euer.

2 The hills stand about Ierusalem: euen so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for euermore.

3 For the rod of the vngodly commeth not into the lot of the righteous: lest the righteous put their hand vnto wickednesse.

4 Doe well, O Lord vnto those that be good and true heart.

5 As for such as turne backe vnto their own wickednesse: the Lord shall lead them forth with the euill doers: but peace shall be vpon Israel.

Inconuertendo. Psal. 126.

WHEN the Lord turned againe y captiuitie of Sion: then were we like vnto them that dreame

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter: and our tongue with ioy.

3 Then said they among the Heathen: the Lord hath done great things for them.

4 Yea, the Lord hath done great things for vs alreadie: whereof we reioyce.

5 Turne our captiuitie, O Lord: as the riuers in the South.

6 They that sow in teares: shall reape in ioy.

7 Hee that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good seed: shall doubtlesse come againe with ioy, and bring his sheaves with him.

Nisi Dominus. Psal. 127.

EXCEPT the Lord build the house: their labour is but lost that build it.

2 Except the Lord keep the citie: the watchman waketh but in vaine.

3 It is but lost labour that ye haste to rise vp early, and so late take rest, and eate the bread of carelesnesse: for so he giueth his beloued sleepe.

4 Lo, children and the fruit of thy wombe: are an heritage and gift that commeth of the Lord.

5 Like as the arrows in the hand of the Giant: euen so are the yong children.

6 Happy is the man that hath his quier full of them: they shall not be ashamed when they speake with their enemies in the gate.

Beati omnes. Psal. 128.

BLESSED are all they that feare the Lord: and walke in his wayes.

2 For thou shalt eate the labours of thine hands: O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

3 Thy wife shall bee as the fruitfull Vine: vpon the wallies of thy house.

4 Thy children like the Oliue brances: round about thy Table.

5 Lo, thus shall the man be blessed: that feareth the Lord.

6 The Lord shal out of Sion shal fo blesse thee: that thou shalt see Ierusalem in prosperitie al thy life long.

7 Yea that thou shalt see thy children children: and peace vpon Israel.

Sape expugnauerunt. Psal. 129.

MANY a time haue they fought against mee from my youth vp: (may Israel now say.)

2 Yea, many a time haue they vexed mee from my youth vp: but they haue not preuailed against mee.

3 The plowers plowed vpon my backe: and made long furrowes.

4 But the righteous Lord: hath hewen the snares of the vngodly in pieces.

5 Let them be confounded and turned backward: as many as haue euill will at Sion.

6 Let them be euen as the graffe growing vpon the house tops: which withereth afore it be plucked vp.

7 Where: the mower filleteth not his hand: neither hee that bindeth vp the sheaves his bosome.

8 So that they which goe by, say not so much as the Lord prosper you: we wish you good lucke in the Name of the Lord.

Deprofundis. Psal. 130.

OVt of the deepe haue I called vnto thee (O Lord:) Lord heare my voyce.

2 Oh, let thine eares consider well: the voyce of my complaint.

3 If thou Lord wilt be extreme to marke what is done amisse: Oh Lord, who may abide it?

4 For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared:

5 I looke for the Lord, my soule doth waite for him: in his word is my trust.

6 My soule fleeth vnto the Lord: before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch.

7 O Israel trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: & with him is plenteous redemption.

8 And he shall redeeme Israel: from all his finnes.

Domine non est. Psal. 131.

LORD, I am not high minded: I haue no proude lookes.

2 I doe not exercise my selfe in great matters: which are too high for me.

3 But I refrain my soule, and keep it low, like as a childe that is weaned from his mother: yea, my soule is euen as a weaned childe.

4 O Israel trust in the Lord: from this time forth for euermore.

Memento Domine. Psal. 132.

LORD remember David: and all his trouble.

2 How he sware vnto the Lord: and vowed a vow vnto the Almighty God of Iacob.

3 I will not come within the tabernacle of my house: nor clime vp into my bed.

4 I will not suffer mine eyes to sleepe, nor mine eyelids to slumber: neither the temples of my head to take any rest.

5 Vntill I finde out a place for the Temple of the Lord: an habitation for the mighty God of Iacob.

6 Loee, wee heard of the same at Euphrata: and found it in the wood.

7 We will go into his Tabernacle: and fall low on our knees before his footstool.

8 Arise, O Lord, into thy resting place: thou and the Aske of thy strength.

9 Let thy Priests be clothed with righteousness: and let thy Saints sing with ioyfulness.

10 For thy servant Dauid sake: turne not away the presence of thine anoynted.

11 The Lord hath made a faithfull oath vnto Dauid: and he shall not shrinke from it.

12 Of the fruit of thy body: shall I set vpon thy seat.

13 If thy children wil keepe my couenant and my testimonies: that I shall learne them: their children also shall sit vpon thy seat for euermore.

14 For the Lord hath chosen Sion to be an habitation for himselfe: he hath longed for her.

15 This shall bee my rest for euer: heere will I dwell, for I haue a delight therein.

16 I will blesse her vitayles with increase: and will sause her poore with bread.

17 I will decke her Priests with health: and her Saints shall reioyce and sing.

18 There shall I make the horne of Dauid to flourish: I haue ordained a lanterne for mine anoynted.

19 As for his enemies, I shall clothe them with shame: but vpon himselfe shall his crowne flourish.

Eccen quoniam bonum. Psal. 133.

BEhold, how good and ioyfull a thing it is: brethren to dwell together in vnity.

2 It is like the precious oymnt vpon the head, that ranne downe vnto the beard: euen vnto Aarons beard, and went downe to the skirts of his clothing.

3 Like as the dew of Hermon: which fell vpon the hill of Sion.

4 For thereto the Lord promised his blessing: and life for euermore.

Eccenunc. Psal. 134.

BEhold (now) praise the Lord: all yee seruants of the Lord.

2 Ye that by night stand in the house of the Lord: euen in the courts of the house of our God.

3 Lift vp your hands in the Sanctuary: and praise the Lord.

4 The Lord that made heauen and earth: giue thee blessing out of Sion.

Laudate nomen. Psal. 135.

O Praise the Lord, laud yee the Name of the Lord: praise it, O ye seruants of the Lord.

2 Ye that stand in the house of the Lord: in the courts of the house of our God.

3 O praise the Lord, for the Lord is gracious: O sing prayes vnto his Name, for it is lowely.

4 For why? the Lord hath chosen Iacob vnto himselfe: and Israel for his owne possession.

5 For I know that the Lord is great: and that our Lord is aboue all gods.

6 Whatsoeuer the Lord pleased, that did he in heauen and in earth: and in the sea, & in all deepe places.

7 He bringeth forth the cloudes from the ends of the world: and sendeth forth lighteninges with the raine, bringing the winds out of his treasures.

8 He smote the first borne in Egypt: both of man and beast.

9 He hath sent tokens and wonders into the mids of thee, O thou land of Egypt: vpon Pharaoh and all his seruants.

10 He smote diuers nations: & slew mighty kings.

11 Schon king of the Amorites, and Og the king of Basan: and all the kingdomes of Chanaan.

12 And gaue their land to be an heritage: euen an heritage vnto Israel his people.

13 Thy Name O Lord, endureth for euer: so doth thy memorial, O Lord, from one generation to another.

14 For the Lord will auenge his people: and be gracious vnto his seruants.

15 As for the images of the Heathen, they are but silver and gold: the worke of mens hands.

16 They haue mouthes, and speake not: eyes haue they, but they see not.

17 They haue eares, and yet they heare not: neither is there any breath in their mouthes.

18 They that makethem, are like vnto them: and so are all they that put their trust in them.

19 Praise the Lord, ye house of Israel: praise the Lord, ye house of Aaron.

20 Praise the Lord, ye house of Levi: ye that feare the Lord, praise the Lord.

21 Praised be the Lord out of Sion: which dwelleth at Ierusalem.

Confitemini. Psal. 136.

O Giue thanks vnto the Lord, for hee is gracious: and his mercy endureth for euer.

2 O giue thanks vnto the God of all gods: for his mercy endureth for euer.

3 O thanke the Lord of all lords: for his mercie endureth for euer.

4 Which only doth great wonders: for his mercie endureth for euer.

5 Which by his excellent wisdom made the heauens: for his mercy endureth for euer.

6 Which laid out the earth about the waters: for his mercy endureth for euer.

7 Which hath made great lights: for his mercie endureth for euer.

8 The Sunne to rule the day: for his mercy endureth for euer.

9 The Moone and the Starres to gouerne the night: for his mercy endureth for euer.

10 Which smote Egypt with their first borne: for his mercy endureth for euer.

11 And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth for euer.

12 With a mighty hand and stretched out arme: for his mercy endureth for euer.

13 Which diuided the red sea in two parts: for his mercy endureth for euer.

14 And made Israel to go through the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for euer.

15 But as for Pharaoh and his host, he ouerthrew them in the red sea: for his mercy endureth for euer.

16 Which led his people through the wilderness: for his mercy endureth for euer.

17 Which smote great Kings: for his mercy endureth for euer.

18 Yea, and slew mighty kings: for his mercy endureth for euer.

19 Schon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for euer.

20 And Og the king of Basan: for his mercy endureth for euer.

21 And gaue away their land for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for euer.

22 Euen for an heritage vnto Israel his seruants: for his mercy endureth for euer.

23 Which remember vs when wee were in trouble: for his mercy endureth for euer.

24 And hath deliuered vs from our enemies: for his his mercy endureth for euer.

15 Which giueth food to all flesh : for his mercy endureth for euer.

16 O giue thanks vnto the God of heauen: for his mercy endureth for euer.

17 O giue thanks vnto the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for euer.

Superflumina. Psal. 137.

Dy the waters of Babylon we fate downe and wept: When we remembred (thee) O Sion.

2 As for our harpes, wee hanged them vp: vpon the trees that are therein.

3 For they that led vs away captiue, required of vs then a song and melodie in our heauens: sing vs one of the songs of Sion.

4 How shal we sing y Lords songs in a strange land.

5 If I forget thee, O Ierusalem: let my right hand forget her cunning.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleaue to the roofof my mouth: yea, if I preferre not Ierusalem in my mirth.

7 Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Ierusalem: how they said, Downe with it, downe with it, euen to the ground.

8 O daughter of Babylon, wastd thy misery: yea, happy shal he be y rewardd thee as thou hast serued vs.

9 Blessed shal he be that taketh thy children: and throweth them against the stones.

Consolator tibi. Psal. 138.

I Wil giue thanks vnto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: euen before y gods will sing praise vnto thee. I will worship toward thy holy temple, & praise thy Name, because of thy louing kindnes & truth: for thou hast magnified thy name, & thy word aboue all things.

3 When I called vpon thee, thou heardest me: and enduedst my soule with much strength.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord: for they haue heard the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea they shall sing in the wayes of the Lord: that great is the glory of the Lord.

6 For though the Lord be high, yet hath hee respect vnto the lowly: as for the proud, hee beholdeth them as a ree.

7 Though I walke in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand vpon the furiousnesse of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall saue me.

8 The Lord shall make good his louing kindnes toward me: yea, thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for euer, despite not then the works of thine owne hands.

Domine probasti. Psal. 139.

O Lord thou hast searched me out, and known me: thou knowest my downe sitting, and mine vprising, thou vnderstandest my thoughts long before.

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed: and spiest out all my wayes.

3 For loe, there is not a word in my tongue: but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

4 Thou hast fashioned mee behind and before: and laid thine hand vpon me.

5 Such knowledge is too wonderfull and excellent for me: I cannot attaine vnto it.

6 Whither shall I goe then from thy Spirit: or whither shall I goe then from thy presence?

7 If I clime vp in o heauen, thou art there: if I goe downe to hell, thou art there also.

8 If I take the wings of the morning: and remaine in the vitermost parts of the Sea.

9 Euen then also shalt thy hand lead me: and thy right hand shall hold me.

Morning
prayer.

10 If I say, Peradventure the darkenesse shall couer me: then shall my might be turned to day.

11 Yea, the darkenesse is no darkenesse with thee: but the night is as cleare as the day: the darkenes and light (to thee) are both alike.

12 For my reins are thine: thou hast couered me in my mothers wombe.

13 I will giue thanks vnto thee, for I am fearefully and wonderfully made: maruelous are thy works, and that my soule knoweth right well.

14 My bones are not hid from thee: though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

15 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being vnperfect: & in thy booke were all my members written.

16 Which day by day were fashioned: when as yet there was none of them.

17 How deare are thy counsels vnto me, O God: O how great is the summe of them?

18 If I tell them, they are moe in number then the sand: when I awake vp, I am present with thee.

19 Wilt not thou slay the wicked, O God: depart from me, ye blood-thirstie men.

20 For they speake vnrighteously against thee: and thine enemies take thy Name in vaine.

21 Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee: and am not I grieved with those that rise vp against thee?

22 Yea, I hate them right sore: euen as though they were mine enemies.

23 Trie me, O God, and seeke the ground of my heart: proue me, and examine my thoughts.

24 Locke well if there be any way of wickednesse in me: and leade me in the way euerslasting.

Eripe me Domine. Psal. 140.

Deliver me, O Lord, from the euill man: and preserve me from the wicked man.

2 Which imagine mischief in their hearts: and stirre vp strife all the day long.

3 They haue sharpened their tongues like a serpent: Adders poyson is vnder their lips.

4 Keepe mee, O Lord, from the hands of the vngodly: preserve mee from the wicked men which are purposed to ouerthrow my goings.

5 The proud haue laid a snare for mee, and spread a net abroad with cordes: yea, and set trappes in my way.

6 I said vnto the Lord, Thou art my God: heare the voyce of my prayers, O Lord.

7 O Lord God, thou strength of my health: thou hast couered my head in the day of battell.

8 Let not the vngodly haue his desire, O Lord: let not his mischieuous imagination prosper, lest they be too proud.

9 Let the mischief of their owne lippes fall vpon the head of them: that compasse me about.

10 Let hote burning coales fall vpon them: let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they neuer rise vp againe.

11 A man full of wordes shall not prosper vpon the earth: euill shall hunt the wicked person to ouerthrow him.

12 Sure I am that the Lord will auenge the poore: and maintaine the cause of the helpelesse.

13 The righteous also shall giue thanks vnto thy Name: and the iust shall continue in thy sight.

Domine clamavi. Psal. 141.

Lord, I call vpon thee, hast thee vnto me: and consider my voyce, when I cry vnto thee.

2 Let my prayer bee set forth in thy sight, as the incense: and let the lifting vp of my hands be an euening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch (O Lord) before my mouth: and keepe the doore of my lips.

4 O let not mine heart be inclined to any euill thing: let me not be occupied in vngodly works, with the men that worke wickednesse, lest I eate of such things as please them.

5 Let the righteous rather smite me friendly: and reprove me.

6 But let not their precious balmes breake mine head: yea, I will pray yet against their wickednesse,

7 Let their iudges be ouerthrowen in stony places: that they may heare my words, for they are sweet.

8 Our bones lie scattered before the pit: like as when one breaketh & heweth wood vpon the earth,

9 But mine eyes looke vpon thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soule,

10 Keepe me from the snare which they haue laid for me: and from the traps of the wicked doers.

11 Let the vngodly fall into their owne nets together: and let me euer escape them.

Vocet mea ad Dominum. Psal. 142.

I Cryed vnto the Lord with my voice: yea, euen vnto the Lord did I make my supplication,

2 I powered out my complaints before him: and shewed him of my trouble,

3 When my spirit was in heavines, thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked, haue they pryncially laid a snare for me.

4 I looked alio vpon my right hand: and saw there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee vnto: and no man cared for my soule.

6 I cryed vnto thee, O Lord, and said: Thou art my hope and my portion in the land of the liuing.

7 Consider my complaint: for I am brought very low.

8 O deliuer me from my persecutors: for they are too strong for me.

9 Bring my soule out of prison, that I may giue thanks vnto thy Name: which thing if thou wilt grant me, then shall the righteous resort vnto my company.

Dominici audi. Psal. 143.

HEare my prayer, O Lord, and consider my desire: hearken vnto mee for thy truth and righteousness sake,

2 And enter not into iudgment with thy seruants: for in thy sight shall no man liuing be iustified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soule, he hath smitten my life down to the ground: he hath laid me in the darknesse, as the men that haue bin dead,

4 Therefore is my spirit vexed within me: and my heart within me is desolate.

5 Yet doe I remember the time past. I muse vpon all thy workes: yea, I exercise my selfe in the workes of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands vnto thee: my soule gapeth vnto thee as a thinsland.

7 Heare me, O Lord, and that soone, for my spirit waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me: lest I be like vnto them that see downe into the pit.

8 O let me heare thy louing kindnesse betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust: shew thou me thy way that I should walk in for I lift vp my soule vnto thee.

9 Deliuer mee, O Lord, from mine enemies: for I flee vnto thee to hide me.

10 Teach me to doeth the thing that pleasest thee, for thou art my God: let thy louing spirit leade me forth into the land of righteousness.

11 Quickene me, O Lord, for thy Names sake: & for thy righteousness sake bring my soule out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodness lay mine enemies: and destroy all them that vex my soule, for I am thy seruant.

Benedictus Dominus. Psal. 144.

Blessed be the Lord my strength: which teacheth my hands to warre, and my fingers to fight.

2 My hope and my fortresse, my castle and defender, my defender, in whom I trust: which subdeth my people that is vnder me.

3 Lord, what is man that thou hast such respect vnto him: or the Son of man? thou forgettest him?

4 Man is like a thing of nought: his time passeth away like a shadow.

5 Bow thy heauens, O Lord, and come downe: touch the mountaines, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth thy lightening, and teare them: shoot out thine arrows, and consume them.

7 Send down thine hand from aboue: deliuer me and take me out of the great waters, from the hand of strange children.

8 Whole mouth talketh of vanitie: and their right hand is a right hand of wickednesse.

9 I will sing a new song vnto thee, O God: and sing praises vnto thee vpon a ten stringed Lute.

10 Thou hast giuen victorie vnto kings: and hast deliuered David thy seruant from the perill of the sword.

11 Save me & deliuer me from the hand of strange children: whole mouth talketh of vanitie, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquity.

12 That our sonnes may grow vp as the yong plants: and that our daughters may be as the polished corners of the Temple.

13 That our garners may be full and pleteous with all manner of store: that our sheepe may bring forth thousands, and ten thousands in our streets.

14 That our oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no decay: no leading into captivity, and no complaining in our streets.

15 Happy are the people that be in such a case: yea, blessed are they people which haue the Lord for their God.

Exalabote Deus. Psal. 145.

I Will magnifiethee, O God, my King: and I will praise thy Name for euer and euer.

2 Euery day will I giue thanks vnto thee: and praise thy Name for euer and euer.

3 Great is the Lord, and maruelous worthy to be prayed: there is no end of his greatness.

4 One generation shall praise thy workes vnto another: and declare thy power.

5 As for mee, I will be talking of thy worship: thy glory, thy praise, and wonderous workes.

6 So that men shall speake of the might of thy maruelous acts: and I will also tell of thy greatness.

7 The memorial of thine abundant kindnesse: shall be shewed: and men shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious and mercifull: long suffering, and of great goodnesse.

9 The Lord is louing vnto euery man: and his mercy is ouer all his workes.

10 All thy workes praise thee, O Lord: and thy Saints giue thanks vnto thee.

11 They shew the glory of thy kingdome: and talke of thy power.

12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightnesse of thy Kingdome: might be known vnto men.

13 Thy kingdome is an everlasting kingdome: and thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.

14 The Lord vpholdeth all such as fall: and lifte h vp all those that be downe.

15 The eyes of all looke vpon thee, O Lord: and thou giueth them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things liuing with righteousness.

Morning
Prayer.

Evening
Prayer.

17 The Lord is righteous in all his wayes: and holy in all his workes.
 18 The Lord is high vnto all them that call vpon him: yea, all such as call vpon faithfully.
 19 He will fulfill the desire of them that feare him: he also will heare their cry and will helpe them.
 20 The Lord preferueth all them that loue him: but scattereth abroad all the vngodly.
 21 My mouth shall speake the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh giue thanks vnto his holy Name for euer and euer.

Lauda anima mea. Psal. 146.

Praise the Lord, O my soule, while I liue will I praise the Lord: yea, as long as I haue any being, I will sing prayes vnto my God.

2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man: for there is no helpe in them.
 3 For when the breath of man goeth forth, he shall turne agayne to his earth: and then all his thoughts perish.

4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Iacob for his helpe: and whose hope is in the Lord his God.

5 Which made heauen and earth, the sea and all that therein is: which keepeth his promise for euer.

6 Which helpeth them to right that suffer wrong: which feedeth the hungry.

7 The Lord looseth men out of prison: the Lord giueth sight to the blinde.

8 The Lord helpeth them that are fallen: the Lord careth for the righteous.

9 The Lord careth for the strangers; he defendeth the fatherlesse and widow: as for the way of the vngodly, he turneth it vnder downe.

10 The Lord thy God, O Syon, shall beking for euermore: and throughout all generations.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 147.

O praise the Lord, for it is a good thing to sing prayes vnto our God: yea, a ioyfull and pleasant thing it is to be thankfull.

2 The Lord doth build vp Ierusalem: and gather together the outcasts of Israel.

3 Hee healeth those that are broken in heart: and giueth medicine to heale their sickenesse.

4 He telleth the number of the Starres: and calleth them all by their names.

5 Great is our Lord, and great is his power: yea, and his wisdom is infinite.

6 The Lord letteth vp the meeke: and bringeth the vngodly downe to the ground.

7 O sing vnto the Lord with thanksgiuing: sing praises vpon the harpe vnto our God.

8 Which couereth the heauen with cloudes, and prepareth raine for the earth: and maketh the grasse to grow vpon the mountaines, and herbe for the vse of men.

9 Which giueth fodder vnto the cattell: and feedeth the yong rauens that call vpon him.

10 He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse: neither delighteth he in any mans legs.

11 But the Lords delight is in them that feare him: and put their trust in his mercy.

12 Praise the Lord, O Ierusalem: praise thy God, O Syon.

13 For he hath made fast the barres of thy gates: and hath blessed all children within thee.

14 Hee maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the flower of wheat.

15 Hee sendeth forth his commandement vpon earth: and his word runneth very swiftly.

16 He giueth snow like wooll: and scattereth the hoare frost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his yce like morfels, who is able to abide his frost?

18 He sendeth out his word and melteth them: he bloweth with his wind, and the waters flow.

19 Hee sheweth his word vnto Iacob: his statutes and ordinances vnto Israel.

20 He hath not dealt with any nation: neither haue the heathen knowledge of his Lawes.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 148.

O Praise the Lord of heauen: praise him in the height.

2 Praise him all yee Angles of his: praise him all his hoste.

3 Praise him Sunne and Moone: praise him all yee starres and lighte.

4 Praise him all yee heauens: and yce waters that be aboute the heauens.

5 Let them praise the Name of the Lord: for hee spake the word, and they were made, he commanded, and they were created.

6 He hath made them fast for euer and euer: hee hath giuen them a Law which shall not be broken.

7 Praise the Lord on earth: yee dragons and all deapes.

8 Fire and haile, snow and vapours: winde and storme, fulfilling his word.

9 Mountaines and all hilles: fruitfull trees and all Cedars.

10 Beasts and all cattell: wormes and feathered foules.

11 Kings of the earth, and all people: Princes, and all iudges of the world.

12 Yong men and maidens, old men and children, praise the Name of the Lord: for his Name onely is excellent, and his praise aboute heauen and earth.

13 Hee shall exalt the borne of his people, all his Saints shall praise him: euen the children of Israel, euen the people that serueth him.

Cantate Domino. Psal. 149.

O Sing vnto the Lord a new song: let the Congregation of Saints praise him.

2 Let Israel reioyce in him that made him: and let the children of Sion be ioyfull in their King.

3 Let them praise his Name in the dance: let them sing praises vnto him with Tabret and Harpe.

4 For the Lord hath pleasure in his people: and helpeth the meeke hearted.

5 Let the Saints be ioyfull with glory: let them reioyce in their beds.

6 Let the praises of God be in their mouth: and a two edged sword in their hands.

7 To bee auenged of the heathen: and to rebuke the people.

8 To binde their kings in chaines: and their Nobles with linkes of yron.

9 That they may be auenged of them, as it is written: such honour haue all his Saints.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 150.

O Praise God in his holinesse: praise him in the firmament of his power.

2 Praise him in his noble actes: praise him according to his excellent greatnesse.

3 Praise him in the sound of the trumpet: praise him vpon the Lute and Harpe.

4 Praise him in the Cymbals and dances: praise him vpon the strings and pipe.

5 Praise him vpon the well tuned Cymbals: praise him vpon the lowd Cymbals.

6 Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord.

¶ A prayer containing the duty of every true Christian.

Most mighty God, mercifull and louing Father, I wretched sinner come vnto thee in the Name of thy dearely beloued Sonne Iesus Christ, my onely Sauour and Redeemer: and most humbly beseech thee for his sake, to be mercifull vnto me, and to cast all my finnes out of thy sight and remembrance, through the merits of his bloody death and passion.

Powe vpon mee, (O Lord) thy holy Spirit of wisdom and grace: Gouverne and lead me by thy holy Word, that it may bee a lantern vnto my feete, and a light vnto my steps. Shewe thy mercy vnto me, and so lighten the naturall blindnes and darkenesse of my heart through thy grace, that I may daily be renewed by the same Spirit and grace. By the which (O Lord) purge the grossenes of my hearing & vnderstanding, that I may profitably read, heare, and vnderstand, thy word and heauenly wil, beleuee and practise the same in my life and conuersation, and euermore hold fast that blessed hope of euertlasting life.

Mortifie and kill all vice in me, that my life may expresse my faith in thee: mercifully heare the humble suite of thy seruante, and grant mee thy peace all my dayes: graciously pardon mine infirmities, and defend me in all dangers of body, goods, & name: but chiefly my soule, against all assaults, temptations, acculations, subtil baits and sleights of that old enemy of mankind, Satan that roaring Lion, euer seeking whom he may deuoure.

And here (O Lord) I prostrate, with most humble mind, craue of thy diuine Maiesty to be mercifull vnto the vniuersall Church of thy Son Christ: And especially according to my bounden duty, beseech thee for his sake to blesse, saue and defend the principall member thereof, thy seruante our most deare and Soueraigne Lord King Iames, increase in his royall heart true faith, godly zeale, & loue of the same: And grant him victory ouer all his enemies, a long prosperous and honourable life vpon earth, a blessed end, and life euertlasting.

Moreover, O Lord, grant vnto thy maiesties most honourable Counsellours, and every other member of this thy Church of England, that they and we in our seuerall callings, may truly & godly serue thee, Plant in our hearts true feare and honour of thy Name, obedience to our Prince, and loue to our neighbours: Increase in vs true Faith and Religion: Replenish our minds with all goodnes, and of thy great mercy keepe vs in the same till the end of our liues: giue vnto vs a godly zeale in prayer, true humility in prosperitie, perfect patience in aduersity, and continual ioy in the holy Ghost.

And lastly, I commend vnto thy Fatherly protection, all that thou hast giuen me, as wife, children, and seruants: Aide me, O Lord, that I may gouerne, nourish, and bring them vp in thy feare and seruite. And forasmuch as in this world I must alwayes be at war and strife, not with one sort of enemies, but with an infinite number: not onely with flesh and blood, but with the deuil which is the Prince of darknes, & with wicked men, executors of his most damnable will, grant me therefore thy grace, that being armed with thy defence, I may stand in this battell with an invincible constancie against all corruption, which I am compassed with on every side, vntill such time as I having ended the combat which during this life I must susteine, in the end I may attaine to thy heauenly cit, which is prepared for me, & all thine elect, through Christ our Lord and onely Sauour, Amen.

¶ Certaine godly prayers for sundry times.

Munday.

Almighty God the Father of mercy, and God of all comfort, which onely forguest sinners: giue vnto vs our finnes, good Lord, forgive vnto vs our finnes, that by the multitude of thy mercies they may be couered, and not imputed vnto vs, and by the operation of the holy Ghost we may haue power and strength hereafter to resist sin, by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Tuesday.

O Lord God, which despisest not a contrite heart, and forgettest not the sins and wickednesse of a sinner in what houre soeuer hee doth mourne & lament his old maner of liuing: grant vnto vs (O Lord) true contrition of heart, that we may vehemently despise our sinful life past, and wholly be conuerted vnto thee by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Wednesday.

O Mercifull Father, by whose power and strength we may overcome our enemies both bodily and ghostly: grant vnto vs, O Lord, that according to our promise made in our baptisme, we may overcome the chiefe enemies of our soule, that is, the desires of the world, the pleasures of the flesh, and the suggestions of the wicked spirit: and to after leade our liues in holinesse and righteousness, that wee may serue thee in spirit and truth, and that by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Thursday.

O Almighty and euertlasting God, which ner onely giuett every good & perfect gift, but also increasest those gifts that thou hast giuen: we most humbly beseech thee (mercifull God) to increase in vs the gift of faith, that we may truly beleuee in thee, and in thy promise made vnto vs: and that neither by our negligence, nor infirmities of the flesh, nor by grievousnesse of temptation, neither by the subtil craftes & assaults of the deuil, wee be driuen from faith in the blood of our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Friday.

Grant vnto vs, O mercifull God, (we most heartily beseech thee) knowledge and true vnderstanding of thy word, that a ignorance expelled, we may know what thy will and pleasure is in all things, and how to doe our duties, and truly to walke in our vocation: & that also we may expresse in our liuing those things that we doe knowe, that we be not onely knowers of thy word, good Lord, but also bee workers of the same, by our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Saturday.

O Almighty God, which hast prepared euertlasting life to all those that bee thy faithfull seruants: grant vnto vs, Lord, sure hope of the life euertlasting, that we being in this miserable world, may haue some taste and feeling of it in our hearts, and that not by our deservings, but by the merits and deservings of our Sauour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

F

O mercifull

O Mercifull God our only aide, succour & strength at all times: grant vnto vs, O Lord, that in the time of prosperitie we be not proud, & to forget thee, but that with our whole heart and strength we may cleaue vnto thee, and in the time of aduersity that we fall not into infidelity and desperation, but that alwayes with a constant faith, we may call for helpe vnto thee: grant this, O Lord, for our aduocates sake, and Saviour Iesus Christ, Amen.

~ Sunday.

O Almighty and mercifull Lord, which giuest vnto thy elect people the holy Ghost, as a iure pledge of thy heavenly kingdome: Grant vnto vs, O Lord, thy holy spirit, that hee may beare witness with our spirit, that we be thy children, and heires of thy kingdome, and that by the operation of this spirit, wee may kill all carnall lusts, vnlawfull pleasures, concupiscences, euill affections, contrary vnto thy will, by our Saviour and Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

A prayer for trust in God.

The beginning of the sal of man, was trust in himselfe. The beginning of the restoring of man, was distrust in himselfe, and trust in God. O most gracious and most wise guide our Saviour Christ, which doest lead them by right way to immortal blessednes, which truly and vntainedly trusting in thee, commit themselves to thee: Grant vs, that like as we be blinde and feeble indeed, so we may take and repute our selues, that we presume not of our selues, to see to our selues, but so far to see, that alway we may haue thee before our eyes, to follow thee being our guide, to be ready at thy call most obediently, and to commit our selues wholly vnto thee, that thou which onely knowest the way, mayest lead vs the same way vnto our heavenly desires: to see thee with the Father and the holy Ghost, be glory for euer, Amen.

¶ A generall confession of sinnes to be saide euery Morning.

Almighty God our heavenly Father, I confesse and acknowledge, that I am a miserable and a wretched sinner, & haue manifold waies most grievously transgressed thy most godly commandements through wicked thoughts, vngodly lusts, sinfull words and deeds committed all my whole life. In sinne am I borne and conceived, and there is no goodnesse in me, in as much as if thou shouldst enter into thy narrow iudgement with me, iudging me according vnto the same, I were neuer able to suffer and abide it, but must needs perish and be damned for euer: So little helpe, comfort, or succour, is there either in me, or in any other creature. Onely this is my comfort (O heavenly father) that thou didst not spare thy onely deare beloued Sonne, but diddest giue him vp vnto the most bitter, and most vile and slanderous death of the crosse for me, that hee might for pay the ransom for my sinnes, satisfie thy iudgement, still and pacifie thy wrath, reconcile me againe vnto thee, and purchase me thy grace and fauour, and euertlasting life. Wherefore through the merit of his most bitter death and passion, and through his innocent bloodshedding, I beseech thee, O heavenly Father, that thou wilt vouchsafe to be gracious & mercifull vnto me, to forgive and pardon me of all my sins, to lighten my heart with thy holy spirit, to renew, confirme, and strengthen me with a right and perfect faith, & to inflame me in loue toward thee & my neighbour, that I may henceforth with a willing and glad heart walke as it becometh mee, in thy most godly commandements, and to glorifie and praise thee euertlastingly. And also that I may with a free conscience and quiet heart, in all manner of temptations, afflictions, or necessities & euen in the very pangs of death, cry boldly and merrily vnto thee, and say, I beleue in God the Father almighty maker of heauen and earth, and in Iesus Christ, &c. But, O Lord God heavenly Father, to comfort my selfe in affliction and temptation with these Articles of the Christian faith, it is not in my power, for faith is thy gift: and forasmuch as thou wilt be prayd vnto, and called vpon for it, I come vnto thee, to pray and beseech thee, both for that and for all other my necessities, euen as thy deare beloued Sonne our Saviour Iesus Christ himselfe hath taught vs. And from the very bottome of my heart I cry and say, Our Father which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name, &c.

Prayers to be said in the Morning.

O Mercifull Lord God, heavenly Father, I tender most high laudes praise, and thanks vnto thee, that thou hast preferred me both this night, and all the times and daies of my life hitherto vnder thy protection, and hast suffered me to liue vntill this present houre. And I beseech thee heartily, that thou wilt vouchsafe to receiue me this day, and the residue of my whole life, from henceforth into thy tuition, ruling and governing me with thy holy Spirit, that al manner of darkenesse, of mit beliefe, infidelity and of carnall lusts and affections may be vterly chased and driuen out of my heart, and that I may be iustified and saved both body and soule through a right and perfect faith and to walke in the light of thy most godly truth, to thy glory and praise, and to the profit & furtherance of my neighbour, through Iesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, Amen.

All possible thanks that we are able, we render vnto thee, O Lord Iesus Christ, for that thou hast willed this night past, to be prosperous vnto vs: and we beseech thee likewise to prosper all this same day vnto vs for thy glory, and for the healeth of our soule, and that thou which art the true Light, not knowing any going downe, and which art the Sonne eternall, giuing life, food and gladnes vnto all things, vouchsafe to shine into our mindes, that wee may not any where stumble to fall into any sinne, but through thy good guiding and conducting, come to the life euertlasting, Amen.

O Lord Iesus Christ, which art the true Sonne of God, euermore rising, & neuer going downe, which by thy most wholeome appearing and sight, dost bring forth, preserve, nourish & refresh all things as well that are in heauen, as also that are on earth: we beseech thee mercifully & fauorably to shine into our hearts, that the night and darknesse of sinnes, and the mists of errors on euery siderie away, thou brightly thinning within our hearts, we may all our life space go without any stumbling or offence, & may decetly and firmly walke (as in the day time) being pure and cleane from the works of darkenesse, and abounding in all good works which God hath prepared for vs to walke in, which with the Father and with the holy Ghost liuest and reignest for euer and euer. Amen.

O God

O God and Lord Iesus Christ, thou knowest, yea, and hast also taught vs how great the infirmity and weaknesse of man is, and how certaine a thing it is that it can do nothing without thy good helpe. If man trust to himselfe, it cannot be auoyded, but that he must runne headlong, and fall into a thousand vndoings and mischiefs. O our Father, haue thou pity and compassion vpon the weaknesse of vs thy children, bee thou prest and ready to helpe vs, alwayes shewing thy mercy vpon vs, and prospering whatsoever we godly go about, so that thou giuing vs light, we may see what things are truly good indeed: thou encouraging vs, we may haue an earnest desire to the same: and thou being our guide, we may come where to obtaine them: for we haue nothing but mistrust in our selues, do yeeld and commit our selues full and wholly vnto thee alone, which workett all things in all creatures, to thy honour and glory. So be it.

A prayer against temptation.

O Lord Iesus Christ, the onely stay and fence of our mortal state, our onely hope, our onely saluation, our glory, and our triumph, who in the flesh (which thou hadst for our onely cause taken vpon thee) diddest suffer thy selfe to bee tempted of Satan, and who onely and alone of all men diddest vterly overcome and vanquish sin, death, the world, the deuill, and all the kingdomes of hell: and whatsoever thou hast overcome, for our behoofe it is that thou hast recommended: neither hath it bene thy will to haue any of thy seruants to keepe battell, or fight with any of the foresaid euils, but of purpose to reward vs with a crowne of the more glory for it. And to the intent that thou mightest likewise overthrow Satan in thy members, as thou haddest afore done in thine owne person, giue thou (we beseech thee) vnto vs thy soldiers (O Lion most victorious of the tribe of Iuda) strength against the roaring Lyon, which continually wandreth to and fro, seeking whom hee may deuore. Thou being that same Serpent, the true giuer of health and life, that wast alwaies on high vpon a tree, giue vnto vs thy filly ones, wilnesse against the deceitfull awaiting of the most subtille Serpent. Thou being a Lamb as white as snow, the vanquisher of Satans tyranny, giue vnto vs thy little sheepe the strength and vertue of thy Spirit, that being in our owne selues weakke and feeble, and in thee strong and valiant, we may withstand and overcome all assaults of the deuill, so that our ghostly enemy may not glory on vs, but being conquered through thee, we may giue thanks to thy mercy, which neuer leauest them destitute that put their trust in thee, who liuest and reignest God for euer without end. Amen.

A prayer for the obtaining of wisdom.

O God of our teachers, and Lord of mercy, thou that hast made all things with thy word, & ordered man through thy wisdom, that he should haue dominion over creatures which thou hast made, that hee should order the world according to equity & righteousness, & execute iudgment with a true heart: giue me wisdom, which is euer about thy seate, and put me not from among thy children: for I thy seruant and sonne of thy handmaide, am a feeble person, of a short time, and too young to the vnderstanding of thy iudgement and lawe: yea, though an man bee neuer perfected among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom be not with him, he shall be nothing worth. O send thy wisdom out of thy holy heauens, and from the throne of thy Maiesty, that he may be with me, and labour with me, that I may know what is acceptable in thy sight, for thee knowest and vnderstandeth all things, and the shall condukt meright soberly in thy works, and preferre me in her power, so that my workes be acceptable. Amen.

A prayer against worldly carelesnesse.

O Most deare and tender Father, our defender and nourisher, indue vs with thy grace that wee may cast off the great blindnesse of our minds, and carelesnesse of worldly things, and may put our whole stouy and care in keeping of thy holy Law, and that we may labour and trauaile for our necessities in this life, like the birds of the ayre, and the Lillies of the field without care. For thou hast promised to be carefull for vs, and hast commanded that vpon thee wee should cast all our care: which liuest and reignest world without end, Amen.

A prayer necessary for all persons.

O Merciful God, I a wretched sinner reknowledge my self bound to keepe thy holy comandements, but yet vnablen to performe them, & to be accepted for trust without the righteousnes of Iesus Christ thy onely Sonne, who hath perfectly fulfilled thy Law, to iustifie all men that beleeue and trust in him. Therefore grant me grace, I beseech thee, to be occupied in doing of good works, which thou comandest in holy Scripture, all the dayes of my life, to thy glory, and yet to trust onely in thy mercy, and in Christs merits, to bee purged from my sins, and not in my good workes, be they neuer so many. Giue mee grace to loue thy holy word feruently, to search the Scriptures diligently, to reade them humbly to vnderstand them truly, to liue after them effectually. Order my life so O Lord, that it may be alway acceptable vnto thee. Giue me grace not to reioyce in any thing that displeaeth thee, but euermore to delight in those things that please thee, be they neuer so contrary to my desires. Teach me so to pray that my petitions may be graciously heard of thee. Keepe me vpright among diuersities of opinions and iudgements in the world, that I neuer swaue from thy truth taught in holy Scripture. In sparingitie, O Lord, faueme, that I woe not proud. In aduersity helpe me, that I neither dilpaire nor blasphem thy holy Name, but taking it patiently, to giue thee thanks, and trust to bee deliuered after thy pleasure. When I happen to fall into sinne through frailtie, I beseech thee to worke true repentance in my heart, that I may bee forie without desperation, trust in thy mercy without presumption, that I may amend my life, and become truly religious without hypocrisie, lowly in heart without faining, faithfull and trustie without deceit, merry without lightnesse, sad without mistrust, sober without slouthfulness, content with mine owne without couetousnesse, to rell my neighbour his faults charitably without dissimulation, to instruct my household in thy laws truly, to obey our King and all governors vnder him vnfaignedly to receiue all lawes and common ordinances (which disgaiteeth not from thy holy word) obediently, to pay euery man that which I owe vnto him truly, to backbite no man, nor slander my neighbour secretly, and to abhorre all vice, louing all goodnesse earnestly. O Lord grant me thus to doe, for the glory of thy holy Name, Amen.

A prayer for patience in trouble.

How hast thou (O Lord) stumbled and plucked me downe? dare now vneaths make my prayers vn-to thee, for thou art angry w me, but not without my deserting. Certainly I haue sinned. Lord I confesse it: I will not denie it: but oh my God, pardon my trespasses, releas my debts, render now thy grace againe vnto me, stoppe my wounds, for I am all to plagued and and beaten: yet Lord this notwithstanding I abide patiently, & give mine attendance on thee continually waiting for reliefe at thy hand, and that not without kill, for I haue receiued a toké of thy fauour and grace toward me, I meane thy word of promise concerning Christ, who for me was offered on the Crosse for a ransom, a sacrifice and price for my finnes: wherefore according to that thy promise, defend me Lord by thy right hand, and giue a gracious care to my requests, for all mans stayes are but vaine. Beate downe therefore mine enemies thine owne selfe with thy power, which art my onely ayder and protector, O Lord God Almighty. Amen.

¶ A Prayer to be said at night going to bed.

O Mercifull Lord God heauenly Father, whether wee sleepe or wake, liue or die, wee are alwayes thine. Wherefore I beseech thee heartily, that thou wilt vouchsafe to take care and charge of me, and not to suffer me to perish in the works of darkenes, but to kindle the light of thy countenance in my heart, that thy godly knowledge may daily increase in me through a right & pure faith, & that I may alwayes be found to walke and liue after thy will and pleasure, through Iesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

O Lord Iesus, which art the onely health of all men liuing, & the euerlasting life of them which die in faith: I wretched sinner giue and submit my selfe wholly vnto thy most blessed wil. And being sure that the thing cannot perish which is committed vnto thy mercy, willingly now I leaue this fraile & wicked flesh in hope of the resurrection, which in better wise shall restore it to me againe. I beseech thee, most mercifull Lord Iesus Christ, that thou wilt by thy grace make strong my soule against all temptation, and that thou wilt couer and defend mee with the buckler of thy mercy against all the assaults of the deuill I see and knowledge that there is in my selfe no hope of saluation, but all my confidence, hope, and trust is in thy mercifull goodnes. I haue no merits nor good works which I may alledge before thee. O finnes and euill workes (alas) I see a great heape, but through thy mercy I trust to be in the number of them to whom thou wilt not impute their finnes, but take and accept me for righteous & iust, and to be the inheritor of euerlasting life. Thou mercifull Lord wast borne for my sake, thou didst suffer both hunger and thirst for my sake, thou didst preach and teach, thou didst pray and fast for my sake, thou didst al good works and deeds for my sake, thou sufferedst most grievous paines and torments for my sake. And finally thou gauest thy most precious body to die, and thy blood to be shed on the Crosse for my sake. Now most mercifull Saviour, let all these things profit me, which thou freely hast giuen me, that hast giuen thy selfe for me, Let thy blood cleanse and wash away the spots and foulness of my finnes. Let thy righteousness hide and couer mine variegatedness. Let the merits of thy passion and blood, be the satisfaction for my sins. Giue me Lord thy grace, that my faith and saluation in thy blood wauer not in mee, but be euer firme and constant, that the hope of thy mercy and life euerlasting neuer decay in me, that charitie waxe not cold in me. Finally, that the weakness of my flesh bee not ouercome with the feare of death. Grant me mercifull Saviour, that when death hath shut vp the eyes of my body, yet that the eyes of my soule may still behold and looke vpon thee, that when death hath taken away the vse of my tongue and speech, yet that my heart may cry and say vnto thee, In manus tuas Domine, commendo spiritum meum, (that is to say) O Lord, into thy hands I giue and commit my soule: Domine Iesu accipe spiritum meum: Lord Iesu receiue my soule vnto thee, Amen.

Ome holy Ghost eter-

nall God: proceeding from aboue, both from the Father and the Sonne, the God of peace and loue. Vifit our minds, and into vs thy heauenly grace inspire, that in all truth and godlinesse we may haue true desire.

Thou art the very Comforter in all woe and distresse:The heauenly gift of God most high, which no tongue can expresse.The fountaine and the liuely spring of ioy celestiall:The fire so bright, the loue so cleare, and vnction spirituall.Thou in thy gifts art manifold, whereby Christs Church doth stand:In faithfull hearts writing thy Law
the finger of Gods hand.According to thy promise made, thou giuest speech of grace:That through thy helpe the praise of God may stand in euery place.

O holy Ghost into our mindes

send downe thy heauenly light:

Kindle our hearts with feruent loue, to serue God day and night.Strength and stablish all our weaknesse so feeble and so fraile,That neyther flesh, the world, nor diuell, against vs doe preuaile.Put backe our enemies farre from vs, and grant vs to obtaine:Peace in our hearts with God and man, without grudge or disdain.And grant O Lord, that thou being our leader and our guide:We may eschew the snares of sinne, and from thee neuer slide.To vs such plenty of thy grace, good Lord grant we thee pray:That thou maist be our comforter at the last dreadfull day.

Of all strife and dissention

O Lord dissolve the bands:

And make the knots of peace and loue, throughout all Christian Lands.

Graunt vs O Lord, through thee to know the Father most of might:
That of his deere beloved sonne,
we may attaine the sight.
And that with perfect faith also,
we may acknowledge thee:
The spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons three.

Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the sonne equall:
And to the holy spirit also,
one God coeternall.
And pray we that thy onely Sonne, vouchsafe his spirit to send,
To all that doe professe his name,
vnto the worlds end.

The humble suite of a Sinner.

O Lord of whom I doe depend, behold my carefull heart, And when thy will and pleasure is, releafe me of my smart. Thou feelt my sorrowes what they are, my grieffe is knowne to thee: And there is none that can remoue or take the same from me.

But onely thou whose aide I craue, whose mercy still is prest:
To ease all those that come to thee,
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou seest my relesse eyes,
my teares and grieuous grone:
Attend vnto my suite O Lord, marke well my plaint and moene.

For sinne hath so enclosed me, and compast me about,
That I am now remedilesse,
if mercy helpe not out:
For mortall man cannot expresse,
or mitigate this paine:
But euen thy Christ my Lord, and God, which for my sinne was slaine.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortall eye:

Venite exultemus.

Yet doe thy Saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though sinne doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy Saints,
doe now behold the same :
So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to praise thy name.

But while I liue here in this vaile, where sinners doe frequent, Assist me euer with thy grace,
my sinnes still to lament.

Left that I tread in sinners trace,
and giue them my consent,
To dwell with them in wickednesse;
where to nature is bent.

Onely thy grace must be my stay, left that I fall downe flat :
And being downe, then of my selfe, cannot recouer that.

Wherefore, this is yet once againe,
my suite and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sinnes,
that I in thee may rest.

Then shall my heart, my tongue and voice,
be instruments of praise,
And in the Church and house of Saints, sing Psalmes to thee alwaies.

Venite exultemus. Psal. xcvi.

Sing this as the Benedicte.

○ Come and let vs now reioyce,
And sing vnto the Lord,
And to our onely Saviour :
Also with one accord.

O let vs come before his face,
With inward reuerence ;
Confessing all our former sinnes,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefits,
Alway distributing.
Wherefore to him right ioyfully,
In Psalmes now let vs sing :

And that because that God alone,
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke aboue all other Gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake,
At any time or tide :
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.

And with his louing countenance
He looketh euery where :
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountaines farre and neere.

The sea and all that is therein
Are his, for he them made :
And eke his hand hath fashioned,
The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him,
And downe before him fall,
And let vs kneele before the Lord,
The which hath made vs all.

Te Deum.

He is our God, our Lord and King,
And we his people are :
His flockes and sheepe of his pasture,
On whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will heare his voice,
Yet harden not your heart,
As in their bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wilderness :
A great and grievous crime.

Whereas your Fathers tempted me,
And tried me euery way :
They proued me and saw my workes,
What I could doe or say.

These forty yeeres I haue beene grieved,
With all this generation :
And euermore I said they erred
In their imagination.

Wherewith their hearts were sore cumbered
Long time and many daies, Wherefore I know assuredly,
They haue not knowne my waies.

To whom I in my anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my ioy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria patriæ.

All laud and praise be to the Lord,
O that of might art most :
To God the Father, and the Sonne,
And to the holy Ghost.

As it in the beginning was,
For euer heretofore,
And is now at this present time,
And shall be euermore.

The song of S. Ambrose, called, Te Deum.

VV

E praise thee God, we knowledge thee, the onely Lord to be, and as eternal

Father all, the earth doth worship thee :

To thee all Angels cry, the heavens, and all the powers therein, To thee Cherub and Seraphin, to cry they doe not lin.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabbath Lord the God, Through heauen & earth thy praise is spread,
and glory all abroad.

The Apostles glorious company
yeeld praises vnto thee:
The Prophets goodly fellowship praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious hoast of Martyrs sound thy praise:
The holy Church throughout the world,
doth knowledge thee alwayes.
Father of endlesse Maiestie
they doe acknowledge thee, Thy Christ, thine honourable, true, and onely sonne to be.

The holy Ghost the Comforter, of glory thou art King.
O Christ and of the Father art
the sonne euerlasting.
When sinfull mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore,
To be inclos'd in virgins wombe thou diddest not abhorre.

When thou hadst ouercome of death the sharpe and cruell might, Thou heauens kingdome didst set ope to each beleeuing wight.
In glory of the Father thou doest sit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our Iudge,
our cause to vnderstand.

Lord helpe thy seruants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood:
And in eternall glory set them with thy Saints so good.
O Lord doe thou thy people saue, blesse thine inheritance:
Lord gouerne them, and Lord doe thou for euer them aduance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end Adore thy holy name, O Lord, vouchsafe vs to defend From sinne this day. Haue mercy Lord, haue mercy on vs all:
And on vs as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.

O Lord I haue reposed all my confidence in thee:
Put to confounding shame therefore,
Lord let me neuer be.

The song of the three children,

blesse thou the Lord, &c.

The song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

T He onely Lord of Israel be praised euermore: For through his visitation and mercy kept in store, His people now he hath redeem'd, that long hath beene in thrall: And spread abroad his saving health vpon his seruants all.

In Dauids house his seruant true,
According to his minde:
And also his annoynted Kings,
As we in Scripture finde.
As by his holy Prophets all,
Oft times he did declare:
The which were since the world began,
His wayes for to prepare.

That we might be deliuered
From those that make debate:
Our enemies, and from the hands,
Of all that doe vs hate.
The mercies which he promised
Our Fathers, to fulfill:
And thinke vpon his euenant made
According to his will.

And also to performe his oath,
Which he before had sworne
To Abraham our Father deare,
For vs that were forlorne.
That he would giue himselfe for vs,
And vs from bondage bring,
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serue our heauenly King.

And that without all manner feare,
And eke in rightcoufnesse:
And also for to lead our liues
In stedfast holinesse.

And thou O childe which now art borne,
And of the Lord elect,
Shalt be the Prophet of the highest,
His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt goe before his face
For to prepare his wayes:
And also for to teach his will
And pleasure all thy dayes.

To giue them knowledge how that their saluation is neere:
And that remission of their sinnes
Is through his mercy meere.

Whereby the Day-spring from on high
Is come vs for to visit:
And those for to illuminate,
Which doe in darknesse sit.
To lighten those that shadowed be
With death and eke opprest:
And also for to guide their feet
The way to peace and rest.

The Song of the blessed Mary, called Magnificat.

MY soule doth magnifie the Lord, my spirit eke euermore, Reioyeth in the Lord my God, which is my Sauour. And why because he did regard, and gaue respect vnto, So base estate of his handmaid and let the mighty goe.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for euermore
Shall me right blessed call.

Because he hath me magnified
Which is the Lord of might:
Whose name be euer sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth enflame,
Throughout all generations,
To such as feare his name.

He shewed strength with his great arme,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations
That they bare in their heart.

He hath put downe the mighty ones
From their supernall seat:
And did exalt the meeke in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.

The hungry he replenished
With all things that were good:
And through his power he made the rich
Oft times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
His mercy euery deale,
Hath holpen vp assistant His seruant Israel.

According to his promise made To Abraham before.
And to his seede successiue,
To stand for euermore.

The Song of Simeon, called, Nunc dimittis.

long before, which now is come into the world, of mercy bringing store.

Thou sufferest thy seruant now,
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy word,
Which lighteneth my heart :
Because mine eies which thou hast made,
To giue my body light :
Haue now beheld thy sauing health
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully hast fer,
Of thine abundant grace ;
In open sight and visible,
Before all peoples face.

The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Sathan ouerquell :
And eke to be the glory of Thy people Israell.

The Symbole or Creed of Athanasius, called, Quicumque uult.

tion will attaine, the Catholike Beliefe faith vntlesse he holy keep & vndefiledly :

sure to die.

The Catholike beliefe is this,
that God we worship one In Trinity, and Trinity in vinity alone.

So as we neither doe confound
the persons of the three.

Nor yet the substance whole of one,
in sunder parted be :

One person of the father is,
another of the sonne :
Another person proper of the holy Ghost alone.
Of father, sonne and holy Ghost,
but one the Godhead is :
Like glory coeternall eke,
the Maieslie likewise.

Such as the father is, such is the sonne in each degree :
And such also we doe beleue
the holy Ghost to be.
Vncreate is the father, and vncreate is the sonne :
The holy Ghost vncreate so, vncreate is each one.

Incomprehensible father is,
incomprehensible sonne :
And comprehensible also is,
the holy Ghost of none.
The father is eternall, and the sonne eternall so :
And in like sort eternall is,
the holy Ghost also.

And yet though we beleue that each of these eternall be ;
Yet there but one eternall is,
and not eternals three.
As ne incomprehensible we,
ne yet vncreate three.
But one incomprehensible, one vncreate hold to be.

Almighty so the Father is,
the sonne almighty so :
And in like sort almighty is,
the holy Ghost also.
And albeit that euery one,
of these almighty be :
Yet there but one almighty is,
and not almighties three.

The father God is, God the sonne, God holy Ghost also :
Yet there are not three Gods in all,
but one God and no moe :
So likewise Lord the father is,
and Lord also the sonne,
And Lord the holy Ghost, yet are there not three Lords but one.

For as we are compelde to grant
by Christian verity :
Each of the persons by himselfe, both God and Lord to be.
So Catholike Religion,
forbiddech vs alway,
That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three to say.

Of none the father is ne made,
ne create nor begot :
The sonne is of the father, not create, ne made, but got.
The holy Ghost is of them both the father and the sonne :
Ne made, ne create, nor begot,
but doth proceede alone.

So we one Father hold not three,
one Sonne also not three :
One holy Ghost alone, and not three holy Ghosts to be.
None in this Trinitie before, nor after other is,
Ne greater any then the rest,
ne lesser is likewise.

But every one among themselves,
of all the persons three,
Together coeternall all,
and all coequal be :
So vnity in trinity,
as said it is before,
And trinity in vnity,
in all things we adore.

Therefore what man soeuer that saluation will attaine :
This faith touching the trinity,
of force we must retaine,
And needfull to eternall life,
it is that euery wight :
Of the incarnating of Christ
our Lord, belecue aright.

For this the right faith is, that we belecue and eke doe know, That Christ our Lord the Sonne of God, is God and man also :
God of his fathers substance got before the world began,
And of his mothers substance borne,
in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man,
in one, one Iesus Christ,
That doth of reasonable soules,
and humane flesh subsist.
Touching his Godhead equall with, his father God is he,
Touching his manhood lower then,
his father in degree.

Who though he be both very God,
and very man also :
Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.
One not by turning of Godhead, into the flesh of man :
But by taking manhood to God,
this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of the substance into one,
But onely by the vnity,
that is one person.
For as the reasonable soule,
and flesh but one man is.
So in one person God and man, is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffered for to saue vs all,
to hell he did descend :
The third day rose againe from death,
to heauen he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God,
the Almighty, father there.
From thence to iudge the quicke and dead,
again he shall reire.

At whose returne all men shall rise, with bodies new restorde :

And of their owne workes they shall giue account vnto the Lord.
And they into eternall life shall goe, that haue done well, Who haue done ill, shall goe into eternall fire to dwell.

This is the Catholike beliefe, who doth not faithfully beleue the same, without all doubt, he saved cannot be.
To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore,
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be euermore.

The Lamentation of a Sinner. M.

Lord turne not away thy face, from him that lieth prostrate, Lamenting fore his sinfull life, before thy mercy gate, which gate thou openest wide to those, that doe lament their sin. Shut not that gate against me Lord, but let me enter in.

And call me not to mine accounts,
How I haue liued here :
For then I know night well O Lord,
How vile I shall appeare :
I need not to confesse my life,
I am sure thou canst tell :
What I haue beene, and what I am,
I know thou knowest it well.

O Lord thou knowest what things be past,
And eke the things that be,
Thou knowest also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee :
Before the heauens and earth were made Thou knowest what things were then :
As all things else that hath beene since,
Among the Sonnes of men.

And can the things that I haue done,
Be hidden from thee then ?
Nay, nay thou knowest them all O Lord,
Where they were done and when :
Wherefore with teares I come to thee,
To beg and to intreat :

The Lords Prayer.

Euen as the Child that hath done euill,
And feareth to be beat :

So come I to thy mercy gate
Where mercy doth abound,
Requiring mercy for my sinne,
To heale my deadly wound.

O Lord I neede not to reapeate,
What I doe beg or craue :
Thou know'st, O Lord, before I aske,
The thing that I would haue.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I aske,
This is the totall summe :
For mercy Lord is all my suite,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lords Prayer, or Pater Noster.

O

Vr Father which in heauen art, Lord hallowed be thy name, thy Kingdome come, thy will be done in earth, euen as the same in heauen is. 2. Giue vs O Lord our daily bread this day. As we forgiue our debtors, so forgiue our debts we pray. Into temptation lead vs not, from euill make vs free: For kingdome, power and glory thine, both now and euer be.

the house wherein thou did'st in thraldome liue a slave: None other Gods at al before my presence shalt thou haue.

No maner grauen image shalt thou make at all to be :

Nor any figure like by thee, shall counterfeited be.

Or any thing in heauen aboue,
nor in the earth below :

Nor in the waters beneath the earth,
to them thou shalt not bow,

Nor shalt thou serue. The Lord thy God,

To thousands of such as me loue,
and my precepts obey :

The name thou of thy Lord thy God.
in vaine shalt neuer vie :

For him that takes his name in vaine,
the Lord will not excuse.

Remember that thou holy keepe,
the sacred Sabbath day :

Sixe daies thou labour shalt and doe,
thy needfull workes alway.

The seuenth day is set by the Lord,
thy God to rest vpon ;

No worke then shalt thou doe in it,
ne thou, nor yet thy sonne;

Thy daughter, seruant, nor handmaid, thine Oxe nor yet thine Asse :

Nor stranger that within thy gates,
hath his abiding place :

For in sixe daies God heauen and earth, and all therein did make :

And after those his rest he did vpon the seuenth day take.

Wherefore he blest the day that he for resting did ordaine :

And sacred to himselfe alone, appointed to remaine.

Yield honour to thy parents that, prolongd thy daies may be :

thy God hath given thee :

Thou shalt not murder: thou shalt not commit adultery :

Thou shalt not steale, nor witnesse false against thy neighbour be.

Thou shalt not couet house that to thy neighbour doth belong :

Ne couet shalt in hauing of his wife to doe him wrong.

The Complaint of a Sinner.

Nor his man-feruant, nor his maide:
Nor oxe, nor asse of his,
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

The Complaint of a Sinner, who cra-ueth of Christ, to be kept vnder his mercie.

VV
Here righteousnesse doth say, Lord for my sinfull part. In wrath thou shouldst me pay, Vengeance for my defart, I can it nor deny, but needs I must confesse, how that continually, thy lawes I doe transgresse, thy lawes I doe transgresse.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend.
Then all thy stocke shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who liueth here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sinnes not in thy sight,
Full oft and euery day?

The Scripture plaine tels me
The righteous man offendeth
Seuen times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath dependeth.
So that the righteous man,
Doth walke in no such path,
But he fall'th now and then
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so stands,
That euen the man right wise
Fall'th oft in sinfull bands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise.
Lord I that am vniust,
And righteousnesse none haue,
Wherto then shall I trust,
My sinfull soule to saue?

But truly to that post,
Wherto I cleaue and shall,
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
And mitigate thy moode,
Or else we perish all,
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare,
No drop of blood in thee,
But that thou didst not spare,
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet,

Psalme I.

So moist my heart do drie.
That I with sinne repeat,
May liue and sinne may die.

That being mortified,
This sinne of mine in me:
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I neuer fall.
Into such mortall sinne,
That my foes infernall,
Reioyce my death therein.

But vouchsafe me to keepe
From those infernall foes,
And from that lake so deepe,
Whereas no mercie growes.
And I shall sing the songs,
Confirmed with the iust,
That vnto thee belongs,
Which art mine onely trust.

THE PSALMES of DAVID.

Beatus vir. Psal. I. T.S.

This Psalme is set first, as a Preface, to exhort all godly men to studie and meditate the heavenly wisdomme: for they are blessed that so doe, but the wicked contemners thereof as length shall come to misery.

H E man is blest that hath not bent, to wicked read his care: nor led his life as sinners do, nor sate in scorners chaire. 2. But in the Law of God the Lord doth set his whole delight: And in that Law doth exercise himselfe both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that growes fast by the riuer side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit,
in her due time and tide.
Whose lease shall neuer fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Euen so all things shall prosper well that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the vngodly men,
they shall be nothing so:

But as the dust which from the earth
the winde drue to and fro.
5 Therefore shall not the wicked men in iudgement stand vpright:
Nor yet the sinners with the iust, shall come in place or fight.

6 For why? the way of godly men
vnto the Lord is knowne:
And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be ouerthrowne.

Quare fremuerunt? Psal. ij. T. S.

David reioyceth, that albei enemies and worldly power rage, God will aduance his kingdome, euen to the farthest end of the world. Therefore hee exhorteth Princes humbly to submit themselves vnder the same. Herein is signified Christ and his Kingdome.

Sing this as the 1. Psalme.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise?
what rage was in their braine?
Why did the Iewish people muse, seeing all is but vaine?

2 The Kings and rulers of the earth conspire, and are all bent, Against the Lord and Christ his Sonne, which he among vs sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let vs reiect the yoke.

4 But he that in the heauen dwells their doings w'll deride:
And make them all as mocking stockes throughout the world fo wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say to them vpon a day:
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say:
6 I haue annointed him my King,
vpon my holy hill:
I will therefore, Lord, preach thy lawes, and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himselfe did say to me I wot:
Thou art my deare and onely Sonne, to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will giue to thee,
as heyres at thy request:
The ends an' coasts of all the earth,
by thee shall be possesse.

9 Thou shalt them bruiſe euen with a mace,
as men vnder foot trod:
And as the potters sheards shall breake them with an iron rod.

10 Now yee, O Kings and rulers all,
be wise thereto: e and learn'd:
By whom the matter of the world be iudged and discern'd.

11 See that ye feare the Lord aboue in trembling, and in feare:
See that with reuerence yee reioyce to him in like manner.

12 See that ye kilde and eke embrace his blessed Sonne I say:
Left in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid way.

13 If once his wrath neuer so small,
shall kindle in his breist:
Oh then all they that trust in Christ shall happy be and blest.

Domine quid? Psal. iij. T. S.

David driuen out of his Kingdome by his son Absolon, is greatly tormented in his minde for his sin. Therefore he calleth vpon God, and is bold in his promises, against the terror loth of enemies and present death. Then he reioyceth for the victory giuen to him and the Church, ouer their enemies.

Lord how are my foes increast, which vexe me more and more? 1. They kill mine heart when as they say, God can him nor reſore. But thou O Lord, art my defence, when I am hard beſet: My worship and mine honour both, and thou holdst vp mine head.

4 Then with my voyce vpon the Lord,
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill did heare me by and by.

5 I laid me downe, and quietly
I slept and roſe againe:
For why? I know assuredly the Lord will me ſustaine.

6 If ten thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be affraid:
For thou art still my Lord, my God,
my Sauour and mine aide.

7 Riſe vp therefore, ſaue me my God,
for now to thee I call:
For thou haſt broke the cheekes and teeth of theſe wicked men all.

8 Salvation onely doth belong to thee O Lord aboue:
Thou doſt beſtow vpon thy folke thy bleſſing and thy loue.

Cum inuocarem. Psal. iij. T. S.

David perſecuted by Saul, calleth vpon God, with aſſured truſt, reſproueth his enemies for reſiſting his dominion, and preferreth the ſauiour of God before all treaſure.

Sing this as the 1. Psalme.

O God that art my righteousneſſe,
Lord heare me when I call:
Thou haſt ſet me at liberty when

- when I was bound and thrall.
 1 Haue mercy Lord therefore on me,
 and grant me my request:
 For vnto thee vncessantlly to cry I will not rest.
 3 O mortall men how long will ye, my glory thus despise?
 Why wander ye in vanities,
 and follow after lyes?
 4 Know ye that good and godly men,
 the Lord doth take and chuse:
 And when to him I make my plaint
 he doth me not refuse.
 5 Sinne not but stand in awe therefore,
 examine well your heart:
 And in your chamber quietly see you your selues conuert.
 6 Offer to God the sacrifice of righteousness, I say:
 And looke that in the liuing Lord
 you put your trust alway.
 7 The greater sort craue worldly goods,
 and riches doe embrace:
 But Lord grant vs thy countenance,
 thy fauour and thy grace.
 8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart more ioyfull and more glad,
 Then they that of their corne and wine, full great increase haue had.
 9 In peace therefore lye downe will I, taking my rest and sleepe:
 For thou onely wilt me O Lord, alone in safety keepe.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v. T. S.

Dauid persecuted by Doeg and Achitophel, Sauls flatterers, calleth vpon God to punish their malice. Then assured of successe, he receiueth comfort.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

- INcline thine eare vnto my word,
 O Lord my plaint consider:
 2 And heare my voyce, my King, my God,
 to thee I make my prayer.
 3 Heare me betime, Lord tarry not,
 for I will haue respect
 My prayer early in the morne to thee for to direct.
 4 And I will trust through patience,
 in thee my God alone:
 That art not pleased with wickednesse,
 and ill with thee dwels none.
 5 And in thy sight shall neuer stand these furious fooles, O Lord:
 Vaine workers of iniquitie thou hast alwayes abhord.
 6 The lyers and the flatterers, thou shalt destroy them than:
 And God will hate the bloud-thirstie,
 and the deceitfull man.
 7 Therefore will I come to thy house, trusting vpon thy grace:
 And reuerently will worship thee, toward thy holy place.
 8 Lord lead me in thy righteousness,
 for to confound my foes:

- And eke the wayes that I shall walke,
 before my face disclose.
 9 For in their mouthes there is no truth, their hearts are foule and vaine:
 Their throat an open sepulchre, their tongues doe glofe and faine.
 10 Destroy their false conspiracies, that they may come to nought:
 Subuert them in their heapes of sinne;
 which haue rebellion wrought.
 11 But those that put their trust in thee,
 let them be glad alwayes:
 And render thanks for thy defence,
 and giue thy name the praise.
 12 For thou with fauour wilt increase the iust and righteous still:
 And with thy grace as with a shield, defend him from all ill.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. vj. T. S.

Dauid for his finnes felt Gods hand, and conceiued the horror of euermoring death. Therefore he desireth forgiveness, and not to dye in Gods indignation: then sodainly feeling Gods mercy, he rebuketh his enemies, who reioiced at his affliction.

Sing this as the 1. Psalme.

- Lord in thy wrath reprove me not,
 though I deserue thine ire:
 Nor yet correct me in thy rage,
 O Lord I thee desire:
 2 For I am weake, therefore O Lord, of mercy me forbear:
 And heale me Lord, for why I thou knowest,
 my bones doe quake for feare.
 3 My soule is troubled very fore,
 and vexed vehemently:
 But Lord how long wilt thou delay to cure my misery?
 4 Lord turne thee to thy wonted grace, my silly soule vp take:
 O saue me not for my deserts,
 but for thy mercies sake.
 5 For why I no man among the dead remembreth thee one whit.
 Or who shall worship thee O Lord,
 in the infernall pit?
 6 So grievous is my plaint and moane, that I waxe wondrous faint:
 All the night long I wash my bed with teares of my complaint.
 7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old with anguish of my heart:
 For feare of those that be my foes,
 and would my soule subuert.
 8 But now away from me all ye,
 that worke iniquitie:
 For why I the Lord hath heard the voyce of my complaint and cry.
 9 He heard not onely the request,
 and prayer of my heart:
 But it receiued at my hand,
 and tooke it in good part.
 10 And now my foes that vexed me
 the Lord will soone defame:
 And sodainly confound them all,
 to their rebuke and shame.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. vij. T.S.

David falsely accused by Chush Sauls kinsman, calleth God to be his defender. First, for that his conscience did not accuse him of any euill towards Saul. Next that it toucheth Gods glory to award sentence against the wicked. And so vpon Gods mercies and promises he waxeth bold, threatening that it shall fall vpon their necks, that which his enemies purposed for others.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

O Lord my God, I put my trust, and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliuer me.

2 Left like a Lion they me teare, and rent in pieces small:
Whilist there is none to succour me,
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right:
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight:

4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distresse,
Which me pursude most cruelly,
and hated me causelesse:

5 Then let my foes pursue my soule, and eke my life downe thrust Vnto the earth, and also lay maine honour in the dust

6 Start vp, O Lord, now in thy wrath, and put my order to paine:
Performe thy kingdome promised,
to me which wrong sustaine.

7 Then shall great nations come to thee, and know thee by this thing:
If thou declare for loue of them thy selfe as Lord and King.

8 And thou that art of all men Iudge,
O Lord now iudge thou me
According to thy righteousnesse, and mine integrity.

The second part.

9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the iust mans guide:
By whom the secrets of all hearts are searched and descride.

10 I take mine helpe to come of God,
in all my griefe and smart:
That doth preferre all those that be of pure and perfect heart.

11 The iust man and the wicked both
God iudgeth by his power:
So that he feeleth his mighty hand
euen every day and houre.

12 Except he change his minde, I die, for euen as he should smite:
He whets his sword, his bow he bends, ayming where he may hit.

13 And doth prepare his mortall darts, his arrowes keene and sharpe:
For them that doe me persecute, whiles he doth mischief warpe.

14 But loe, though he in trauell be of his diuellish fore cast:
And of his mischief once conceined, yet brings forth nought at last.

15 He digs a ditch, and delues it deepe,
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he shall fall into the pit,
that he digd vp for other.

16 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt of him in whom it bred:
And all the mischief that he wrought shall fall vpon his head,

17 I will giue thanks to God therefore,
that iudgeth righteously:
And with my song will praise the name,
of him that is most hie.

Domine Deus noster. Psal. viij. T.S.

The Prophet considering the excellent liberality, and fatherly prouidence of God towards man, whom hee made as it were a God ouer all his works, giueth thanks, and is astonished with the admiration of the same.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

O God our Lord how wonderfull, are thy workes euer where:
Whose fame surmounts in dignity,
about the heauens cleare.

2 Euen by the mouthes of sucking babes, thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in these babes thy might is scene,
thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I see the heauens high,
the workes of thine owne hand:
The Sunne, the Moone, and all the Starres,
in order as they stand.

4 What thing is man, Lord, thinke I then,
that thou dost him remember:
Or what is mans posterity, that thou dost him consider:

5 For thou hast made him little lesse,
then Angels in degree:
And thou hast crowned him also with glory and dignity.

6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be Lord of all thy workes of wonder:
And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keepe them vnder.

7 As sheepe, and neate, and all beasts else, that in the fields doe feede:
8 Fowles of the aire, fish of the sea,
and all that therein breed.

9 Therefore must I say once againe,
O God that art our Lord:
How famous and how wonderfull, are thy workes through the world.

Confitebor tibi Domine. Psal. ix. T.S.

David giuing thanks for his manifold victories re-ceiued, desireth the same vromed helpe againe, against his new enemies, and their malicious ar-rogancie to be destroyed.

Sing this as the 4. Psalme.

With heart and mouth vnto thee, Lord,
will I sing laud and praise:
And speake of all thy wondrous workes,
and them declare alwaies.

2 I will be glad and much reioyce,
in thee O Lord most hie:
And make my songs extoll thy name,
about the starrie skie.

- 3 For that my foes are dinen backe, and turned vnto flight :
They fall downe flat, and are destroyd by thy great force and might.
- 4 Thou hast reuenged all my wrong,
my griefe and all my grudge :
Thou dost with iustice heare my cause,
most like a righteous Iudge.
- 5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folke, and wicked to confound :
That afterward the memory of them cannot be found.
- 6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch, and all their townes destroyd :
Thou hast their fame with them defac'd, through all the world so wide.
- 7 Know thou that he which is aboue, for euennore shall raigne :
And in the seat of equity,
true iudgement will maintaine.
- 8 With iustice he will keepe and guide;
the world and euery wight :
And so will yeeld with equity,
to euery man his right,
- 9 He is Protector of the poore, what time they be oppress'd :
He is in all aduersitie,
their refuge and their rest :
- 10 All they that know thy holy Name,
therefore shall trust in thee :
For thou forsakest not their suite,
in their necessitie.

The second part.

- 11 Sing Psalmes therefore vnto the Lord,
that dwells in Sion hill : Publish among all Nations his noble acts and will.
- 12 For he is mindfull of the blood of those that be oppress'd.
Forgetting not the afflicted heart, that seekes to him for rest.
- 13 Haue mercy Lord on me poore wretch, whose enemies still remaine :
Which from the gates of death art wont to raise me vp againe.
- 14 In Sion that I may set forth thy praise with heart and voice :
And that in thy saluation Lord,
my soule may still reioyce.
- 15 The heathen sticke fast in the pit, that they themselves prepare :
And in the net that they did set,
their owne feet fast are snarede.
- 16 God sheweth his iudgements which were for euery man to marke : (good, When as ye see the wicked man lie trapt in his owne warke.
- 17 The wicked, and the sinfull men
goe downe to hell for euer :
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
- 18 But sure the Lord will not forget the poore mans griefe and paine :
The patient people neuer looke for helpe of God in vaine.
- 19 O Lord arise, lest men prauaile that be of worldly might.

And let the heathen folke receiue their iudgement in thy sight.

20 Lord, strike such terrour, feare and dread into the hearts of them,
That they may know assuredly they be but mortall men.

Vt quid Domine. Psal. x. T. S.

Hee complaineth of all the wrongs which worldly men vs: because of their prosperity, who therefore without all feare of God, thinke they may doe all things vncontrolled. He calleth for remisdies against such, and is comforted with the hope thereof.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

- What is the cause, that thou, O Lord,
art now so farre from thine :
And keepest close thy countenance,
from vs this troublous time :
- 2 The poore doe perish by the proud,
and wicked mens desire :
Let them be taken in the craft, that they themselves conspire.
- 3 For in the lust of their owne heart,
e'vn godly doth delight :
So doth the wicked praise himselfe, and doth the Lord despise.
- 4 He is so proud, that right and wrong he setteth all apart :
Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he :
for thus he thinks in heart.
- 5 Because his waies doe prosper still,
he doth thy lawes neglect :
And with a blast doth puffe against such as would him correct.
- 6 Tush, tush, saith he, I haue no dread, least mine estate should change :
And why ? for all aduersity to him is very strange.
- 7 His mouth is full of cursednesse, of fraud, deceit, and guile :
Vnder his tongue doth mischief sit,
and trauell all the while.
- 8 He lieth hid in waies and holes,
to slay the innocent :
Against the poore that passe him by,
his cruell cies are bent.
- 9 And like a Lion priuily, lies lurking in his den :
(If he may snare them in his net)
to spoile poore simple men.
- 10 And for the nonce full craftily
he croucheth downe, I say :
11 So are great heapes of poore men made,
by his strong power, his pray.
- The second part.*
- 12 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore may I be bold :
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
- 13 Arise, O Lord, O God in whom the poore mans hope doth rest :
Lift vp thine hand, forget not Lord,
the poore that be oppress'd.
- 14 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord dost thou not abhorre it

To heare the wicked in their hearts say, Tush, thou carest not for it.
15 But thou seest all their wickednesse, and well dost vnderstand :
16 That friendlesse and poore fatherlesse are left into thy hand.
17 Of wicked and malicious men, then breake the power for euer :
That they wich their iniquitie may perill all together.
18 The Lord shall raigne for euermore, as King and God alone :
And he will chafe the heathen folke,
out of his land each one.
19 Thou hearest (O Lord) the poore mens their prayers and request : (plaint, Their hearts thou wilt confirme vtill thine eares to heare be prest.
20 To iudge the poore and fatherlesse, and helpe them to their right :
That they may be no more oppress with men of worldly might.

In Domino. Psal. xj. T. S.

This Psalme sheweth first what assaults of temptation and anguish of minde he sustained in persecution. Next, he reioyeth that God sent him succour in necessitie, declaring his iustice as well in governing the good and wicked men, as the whole world.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

True in God : how dare ye then say thus my soule vtill, Flee hence as fast as any fowle and hide you in your hill :
1 Behold the wicked bend their bowes,
and make their arrowes prest,
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and hamelesse brest.
3 Of worldly hope all stayes were shrunked, and clearly brought to nought :
Alas, the iust and righteous man,
what euill hath he wrought :
4 But he that in his temple is,
most holy and most hie :
And in the heauens hath his seare of royall maiestie,
The poore and simple mans estate
considereth in his minde :
And searcheth out full narrowly the manners of mankinde.
5 And with a chearefull countenance the righteous man will vse :
But in his heart he doth abhorre
all such as mischief vse.
6 And on the sinners casteth snares,
as thicke as any raine :
Fire and brimstone, and whirle-windes thicke, appointed for their paine.
7 Ye see then how a righteous God doth righteousness embrace :
And to the iust and vpright man
shewes forth his pleasant face,

Saluum me fac. Psal. xij. T. S.

The Prophet seeing the miserable decay of all good order, desirith God speedily to send reformation, Then comforted with the assurance of Gods helpe and promises, comforteth that when all orders are most corrupted, then God will deliuer his.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

Help Lord, for good and godly men
doe perill and decay :
And faith and truth from worldly men,
is parted cleane away.
2 Who so doth with his neighbour talke, his talke is all but vaine.
For euery man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and faine.
3 But flattering and deceifull lips,
and tongues that be so stout,
To speake proud words, & make great brags,
the Lord soone cuts them out.
4 For they say still, we will preuaile, our tongues shall vs extoll :
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speake,
what Lord shall vs controll :
5 But for the great complaint and crye of poore and men oppress :
Arise will I, now faith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.
6 Gods word is like to silver pure, that from the earth is tride :
And hath no lesse then seauen times in fire beene purified.

7 Now since thy promise is to helpe,
Lord keepe thy promise then :
And saue vs now and euermore from this ill kinde of men.
8 For now this wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold,
When vanitie with mortall men
so highly is extold.

Vique quo Domine. Psal. xij. T. S.

David as it were overcome with afflictions, flyeth to God his onely refuge, and encouraged through Gods promises, bee conceiueh confidence against the extreme horrors of death.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

How long wilt thou forget me Lord :
shall I ne'er be remembered ?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended :
2 In heart and minde how long shall I with care tormented be :
How long eke shall my deadly foe
thus triumph ouer me :
3 Behold me now O Lord my God, and heare me sore oppress :
Lighen mine eyes, lest that I sleepe,
as one by death possesse.
4 Lest thus mine enemie say to me,
behold I doe preuaile :
Lest they also which hate my soule
reioyce to see me quiale.
5 But from thy mercies and goodnesse
my hope shall neuer start :
In thy reliefe and sauing health, right glad shall be mine heart.
I will giue thanks vnto the Lord,
and praises to him sing :
6 Because he hath heard my request, and granted my wishing.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. xiiij. T. S.

He describeth the wickednesse of men, so growne to such licentiousnesse, that God was brought to utter contempt, for which albeit he was greatly grieved, yet perswaded that God would redresse it, he is comforted.

T Here is no God, as foolish men affirme in their mad mood : Their drifts are all corrupt and vaine, not one of them doth good. The Lord beheld from heauen high the whole race of mankind : And saw not one that sought indeed the living God to finde.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt, and truly there was none ;

That in the world did any good,
I say there was not one.

4 Is all their iudgement so far lost, that all worke mischief still :
Eating my people euen as bread,

not one to seeke Gods will :

5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great feare on them shall fall :

For God doth loue the righteous men,
and will maintaine them all.

6 Yee mocke the doings of the poore, to their reproach and shame :

Because they put their trust in God,
and call vpon his name.

7 But who shall giue thy people health, and when wilt thou fulfill

The promise made to Israel
from out of Sion hill :

8 Euen when thou shalt restore againe such as were captiue lad :

Then Iacob shall therein reioyce,
and Israel shall beglad.

Domine quis ? Psal. xv. T. S.

Here is taught why God chose the Iewes his peculiar people, and placed his temple among them, which was, that they by liuing uprightly, might witness, that they were his holy speciall people.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.
O Lord within thy tabernacle who shall inhabit still :

Or whom wilt thou receiue to dwell
in thy most holy hill :

3 The man whose life is vncorrupt, whose workes are iust and straight :

Whose heart doth thinke the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit.

3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill in body, goods, or name :

Nor willingly doth moue false tales which might impair the same.

4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men :

But those that loue and feare the Lord
he maketh much of them.

5 His oath and all his promises that keepeth faithfully :

Although he make his couenant so, that he doth lose thereby.

6 That putteth not to vsury his money and his coyne :

Ne for to hurt the innocent, doth bribe or else purloine.

7 Who so doth all things as you see,
that here is to be done,

Shall neuer perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conserua me. Psal. xvj. T. S.

David praith to God for succour, not for his workes but for his faiths sake, protesting that hee baseth all idleness, taking God onely for his comfort and felicity, who suffereth him to lacke nothing.

Sing this as the 14. Psalme.

L Ord keepe me, for I trust in thee,
and doe confesse indeed,

Thou art my God, and of my goods
O Lord thou hast no neede.

2 I giue my goods vnto the Saints
that in the world doe dwell :

And namely to the faithfull stocke in vertue that excell.

3 They shall heape sorrowes on their heads which runne as they were mad

To offer to the Idoll Gods :
alas it is too bad.

4 As for their bloudy sacrifice, and offerings of that fort :

I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

5 For why : the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance :

And thou arte that dost maintaine my rent, my lot, my chance.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beautie did excell :

Mine heritage assigne to me
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thanke the Lord, that caused me to vnderstand the right :

For by this means my secret thoughts doe teach me euery night.

8 I set the Lord still in my sight, and trust him ouer all :

For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

- 7 Wherefore my heart and tongue also,
doe both reioyce together :
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.
3 Thou wilt not leaue my soule in graue,
(for Lord thou louest me)
Nor yet wilt giue thy holy one corruption for to see.
11 But wilt teach me the way to life, for all treasure and store
Of perfect ioy are in thy face, and power for euermore.

Exaudi Domine. Psal. xvij. T. S.

Here he complaineth to God of the cruel pride and arrogancy of Saul, who aged without any cause, therefore he desireth God to reuenge his innocencie, and deliuer him.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

- O Lord giue care to my iust cause, attend when I complaine :
And heare the prayer that I put forth with lips that doe not faine.
2 And let the iudgement of my cause
proceede alwaies from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and cleare
this my simplicitie.
3 Thou hast well tride me in the night,
and yet couldst nothing finde,
That I haue spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.
4 As for the workes of wicked men,
and paths peruerse and ill,
For loue of thy most holy word,
I haue refrained still.
5 Then in the paths that be most pure,
stay me Lord and preserue:
That from the way wherein I walke
my steps may neuer swerue.
6 For I doe call to thee O Lord, surely thou wilt me aide :
Then heare my prayer, and weigh right well
the words that I haue said.
7 O thou the Saviour of all them that put their trust in thee:
Declare thy strength on them that spurne against thy Maiestie.
8 O keepe me Lord, as thou wouldst keepe
the apple of thine eye:
And vnder couert of thy wings defend me secretly.

The second part.

- 9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me annoy:
And from my foes that goe about my soule for to destroy.
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
so full and eke so fat:
That in their pride they doe not spare to speake they care not what.
11 They lie in waite where I should passe, with craft me to confound:
And musing mischiefs in their mindes,
to cast me on the ground.

- 12 Much like a Lion greedily, that would his prey embrace :
Or lurking like a Lions whelp within some secret place.
13 Vp Lord, with haste preuent my foe,
and cast him at my feet:
Sauce thou my soule from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.
14 Deliuer me Lord by thy power, out of these tyrants hands :
Which now so long time rained haue,
and kept vs in their bands.
15 I meane from worldly men, to whom all worldly goods are rise:
That haue no hope or part of ioy,
but in this present life.
16 Thou of thy store their bellies fillst with pleasures to their minde :
Their children haue enough, and leaue to theirs the rest behinde.
17 But I shall with pure conscience, behold thy gracious face :
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

Diligam te Domine. Psal. xvij. T. S.

Dauid giueth thanks, entering into his kingdome, extolling the marvellous graces of God in his preseruatiou : wherein is the image of Christs Kingdome, which shal conquere through Christs by the unspeakable loue of God, though all the world resist.

O God my strength & fortitude, of force I must loue thee: Thou art my ca-file and defence in my necessitie. 2. My God, my rocke, in whom I trust, the worker of my wealth: My refuge, buckler and my shield, the horne of all my health.

- 3 When I sing laud vnto the Lord,
most worthy to be seru'd:
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preseru'd.
4 The pangs of death did compasse me,
and bound me euery where:
The flowing waues of wickednesse did put me in great feare.
5 The slie and subtil snares of hell were round about me set:

And for my death there was prepar'd a deadly trapping net.

6 I thus beset with paine and griefe, did pray to God for grace :

And he forthwith did heare my plaint
out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power, that in his wrath,
he made the earth to quake :

Yea, the foundation of the mount of Basan for to shake.

8 And from his nostrils came a smoake,
when kindled was his ire :

And from his mouth came kindled coales
of hot consuming fire.

9 The Lord descended from aboue, and bowed the heauens hie :

And vnderneath his feet he cast
the darknesse of the skie.

10 On Cherubs and on Cherubins full royally he rode :

And on the wings of all the windes came flying all abroad.

The second part.

11 And like a den most darke he made his hid and secret place :

With waters blacke, and ayrie clouds, enuironed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face in brightnesse shall appeare :

The clouds consume, and in their stead,
come haile and coales of fire.

13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts, disperse them here and there :

And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great feare.

14 Lord at thy wrath and threatenings, and at thy chiding cheare,

The springs and the foundations of all the world appeare.

15 And from aboue the Lord sent downe, to fetch me from below :

And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me ouerflow.

16 And me deliuered from my foes, that would haue made me thrall :

Yea, from such foes as were too strong for me to deale withall.

17 They did preuent me to oppresse, in time of my great griefe :

But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and reliefe.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free :

And kept me safe, because he had a fauour vnto me.

19 And as I was an innocent, so did he me regard :

And to the cleannesse of my hands
he gaue me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his wayes, and in his paths haue trod :

And haue not wauered wickedly against the Lord my God.

The third part.

21 But euermore I haue respect to his law and decree :

His statutes and commandements
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and cleane, and vncorrupt, appear'd before his face :

And did refraine from wickednesse,
and sinne in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I haue done aright :

And to the cleannesse of my hands,
appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord with him that holy is wilt thou be holy to :

And with the good and vertuous man, right vertuously wilt doe.

25 And to the louing and elect thy loue thou wilt referue :

And thou wilt vse the wicked men,
as wicked men deserue.

26 For thou dost saue the simple folke,
in trouble when they lie :

And doest bring downe the countenance of them that looke full hie.

27 The Lord will light my candle so, that it shall shine full bright :

The Lord my God will make alse
my darknesse to be light.

28 For by thy helpe an host of men discomfit Lord I shall :

By thee I scale and ouerleape
the strength of any wall.

29 Vnsported are the wayes of God,
his word is purely tride :

He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.

30 For who is God except the Lord ?
for other there is none :

Or else who is omnipotent sauius our God alone ?

The fourth part.

31 The Lord that girdeth me with strength, is he that I doe meane :

That all the wayes wherein I walke doth euermore keepe cleane.

32 That made my feet like to the Harts,
in swiftnesse of my pace :

And for my suretie brought me forth into an open place.

33 He did in order put my hands,
to battell and to fight :

To breake in sunder lars of brasie
he gaue my arme the might.

34 Thou teachest me thy sauius health, thy right hand is my tower :

Thy loue and familiaritie doth still increase my power.

35 And vnder me thou makest plaine
the way where I should walke :

So that my feet shall neuer slip,
nor stumble at a balke.

36 And fiercely I pursue and take my foes that me annoy :

And from the field doe not returne till they be all despoild.

37 So I suppress and wound my foes, that they can rise no more :

For at my feet they fall downe flat,
I strike them all so sore :
38 For thou doest gird me with thy strength to warre in such a wise :
That they be all scattered abroad that vp against me rise.
39 Lord thou hast put into my hands,
my mortall enemies yoke :
And all my foes thou doest deuide,
in sunder with thy stroke :
40 They call'd for helpe, but none gaue care,
nor helpt them with reliefe :
Yea, to the Lord they call'd for helpe, yet heard he not their griefe.

The fifth part.

41 And still like dust before the wind,
I driue them vnder feet :
And sweepe them out like filthy clay,
that sucketh in the street.
42 Thou keep'st me from seditious folke that still in strife be led :
And thou dost of the heathen folke,
appoint me to be head.
43 A people strange to me vnknowne, and yet they shall me serue :
And at the first obey my word,
whereas mine owne will swerue.
44 I shall be irkesome to mine owne,
they will not see my light :
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.
45 But blessed be the liuing Lord,
most worthy of all praise :
That is my rocke and sauing health, praised be he alwaies.
46 For God it is that gaue me power reuenged for to be :
And with his holy word subdude
the people vnto me.
47 And from my foe deliuered me, and set me higher then those :
That cruell and vngodly were,
and vp against me rose :
48 And for this cause O Lord my God, to thee giue thanks I shall :
And sing out praises to thy name,
among the Gentiles all.
49 Thou gauest great prosperitie, vnto the King I say :
To Dauid thine annointed King, and to his seed for aye.

Cœli enarrant. Psal. xix. T.S.

His mouth the faithfull to glorifie God by the workmanship, proportion, and ornaments of the heavens, and by the law wherein God is reuol-uted familiarly to his chosen people.

Sing this as the 14. Psalm.

The heavens and the firmament,
doe wondrously declare :
The glory of God omnipotent,
his workes and what they are.
3 The wondrous workes of God appeare, by euery daies successe :
The nights likewise which their race run,
the selfe same thing expresse.

3 There is no language, tongue or speech,
where their sound is not heard :
In all the earth and coasts thereof,
their knowledge is conferrd.
4 In them the Lord made for the Sunne,
a place of great renoune :
Who like a Bridegroom ready trimde doth from his chamber come.
5 And as a valiant Champion, who for to get a prise :
With ioy doth haste to take in hand, some noble enterprise.
6 And all the skie from end to end, he compasseth about :
Nothing can hide it from his heate,
but he will finde it out.
7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his couenant sure :
Conuerting soules and making wise
the simple and obscure.
8 Iust are the Lords commandments, and glad both heart and minde :
His precepts pure and giueth light to eyes that be full blinde.
9 The feare of God is excellent, and doth endure for euer ;
The iudgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.
10 And more to be imbrac'd alwaies, then fined gold I say ;
The hony and the hony combe, are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy seruant is forwar'd, to haue God in regard ;
And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward.
12 But Lord what earthly man doth know,
the errors of his life :
Then cleanse my soule from secret sinnes,
which are in me most rife.
13 And keepe me that presumptuous sinnes preuaile not ouer me :
And then shall I be innocent and great offences flee.
14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one :
For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

Exaudite Deus. Psal. xx. T. S.

The people pray to God to heare their King, and receiue his sacrifice, which hee offered before hee went to battell against the Ammonites, declaring that the heathen put their trust in horses, but they trust onely in his name : Wherefore the oiber shall fall, but the King and his people shall stand.

Sing this as the 14. Psalm.

In trouble and aduersitie, the Lord God heare thee still :
The maiestie of Iacobs God, defend thee from all ill.
2 And send thee from his holy place his helpe at euery need.
And so in sion stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed,

- 3 Remembring well the sacrifice,
that now to him is done,
And to receiue right thankfully thy burnt offrings each one :
- 4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant vnto thee :
And all thy counsell and deuice full well performe may he.
- 5 We shall reioyce when thou vs sauest,
and our banners display ;
Vnto the Lord which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.
- 6 The Lord will his annointed saue,
I know well by his grace :
And send him health by his right hand,
out of his holy place.
- 7 In chariots some put confidence, and some in horses trust :
But we remember God our Lord, that keepeth promise iust.
- 8 They fall downe flat, but we doe rise,
and stand vp stedfastly :
Now saue and helpe vs Lord and King,
on thee when we doe crie.

Domine in virtute. Psal.xxj. T.S.

David in the person of the people praised God for the victory given them against the Syrians and Ammonites. Sam. 21. when hee was crowned with the crowne of the king of Ammon. 2. Sam. 12. and indued with the manifold blessings of God.

Lord how ioyfull is the King in thy strength and thy power : How veh-mently doth he reioyce in thee his Sauour : 2. For thou hast giuen vnto him his godly hearts desire ; To him nothing hast thou denide, of that he did require.

- 3 Thou didst preuent him with thy gifts,
and blessings manifold :
And thou hast set vpon his head,
a crowne of perfect gold.
- 4 And when he asked life of thee, thereof thou mad'st him sure,
To haue long life, yea such a life,
as euer should endure.
- 5 Great is his glory by thy helpe,
thy benefits and aide :
Great worship and great honour both,

- thou hast vpon him laid :
- 6 Thou shalt giue him felicity,
that neuer shall decay :
And with thy cheerefull countenance,
wilt comfort him alway.
- 7 For why : the King doth strongly trust in God for to preuaile :
Therefore his goodnesse and his grace,
will not that he shall quail :
- 8 But let thine enemies feeble thy force, and those that thee withstand :
Finde out thy foes and let them feeble,
the power of thy right hand.
- 9 And like an Ouen burne them Lord
in fiery flame and fume :
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
- 10 And thou wilt root out of the earth,
their fruit that should encrease,
And from the number of thy folke,
their seed shall end and cease.
- 11 For why : much mischief they doe muse, against thy holy name :
Yet did they faile, and had no power,
for to performe the same.
- 12 But as a marke thou shalt them set,
in a most open place :
And charge thy bow-strings readily against thine enemies face.
- 13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore,
in thy strength euery houre :
So shall we sing right solemnely, praising thy might and power.

Deus Deus meus. Psal.xxij. T.S.

David complaineth of his desperate extremities and declareth whereby hee recovereth himselfe from temptation. Vnder his person Christ is figured.

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

- God my God wherefore doest thou forsake me vriterly ?
And helpst not when I doe make,
my great complaint and crie :
- 2 To thee my God euen all day long,
I doe both crie and call :
I cease not all the night, and yet thou hearest not at all.
- 3 Euen thou that in thy sanctuary, and holy place doest dwell :
Thou art the comfort and the ioy,
and glory of Israel.
- 4 And he in whom our fathers old,
had all their hope for euer,
And when they put their trust in thee,
so didst thou them deliuer.
- 5 They were deliuered euer when they called on thy name :
And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.
- 6 But now I am become a worme,
more like then any man :
An outcast whom the people scorne, with all the sight they can.
- 7 And me despise, as they behold me walking on the way :

They grin, they mow, they nod their heads,
and in this wise they say :

8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his fauour and his loue :
Let him redeeme and help him now,
his power if he will proue.

9 But Lord, out of my mothers wombe
I came by thy behest :
Thou didst preferre me still in hope,
while I did sucke her brest.
10 I was committed from my birth,
with thee to haue aboad :
Since I was in my mothers :
thou hast bene euer my God.

The second part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from mee,
in this my wretched griefe :
Since I haue none to be my helpe,
my succour and reliefe.
12 So many buls doe compass me, that be full strong of head :
Yea, buls so far, as though they had in Basan field bene fed.
13 They gape vpon me greedily, as though they would me slay :
Much like a Lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.
14 But I drop downe as water shed,
my ioynts in sunder breake :
15 My heart doth in my body melt like waxe against the heat.
16 And like a potheard drieth my strength, my tongue it cleaueth fast vnto my iawes, and I am brought to dust of death at last.
17 And many dogs doe compass me,
and wicked counsell eke Conspire against me curfedly, they pierce my hands and feet.
18 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones haue told :
Yet still vpon me did they looke,
and still they me beheld.
19 My garments they diuided eke in parts among them all :
And for my coat they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.
20 Therefore I pray thee be not farre from me at my great neede :
But rather sith thou art my strength,
to help me Lord make speede.
21 And from the sword Lord saue my soule by thy might and thy power :
22 And keepe my soule, thy darling deare from dogs that would deuoure.
23 And from the Lions mouth that would me all in sunder shiuer :
And from the hornes of Vnicornes
Lord safely me deliuer.
24 And I shal' to my brethren all thy maiestie record :
And in thy Church shall praise the name of thee the liuing Lord.

The third part.

25 All yee that feare him praise the Lord,
thou Iacob honour him :

And all yee house of Israel, with reuerence worship him.

26 For he despiseth not the poore, he turneth not awry
His countenance when they doe call,
but granteth to their crye.

27 Among the flocke that feare the Lord
I will therefore proclaime Thy praise, and keepe thy promise made for setting forth thy name.
28 The poore shall eate, and be suffic'd, and those that doe their deuer
To know the Lord and praise his name, their hearts shall liue for euer.

29 All coasts of earth shall praise the Lord, and turne to him for grace :
The heathen folke shall worship him before his blessed face.
30 The kingdome of the heathen folke the Lord shall haue therefore :
And hee shall be their gouernour, and King for euermore.

31 The rich men of his goodly gifts shall feede and taste also :
And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.
32 And all that shall goe downe to dust,
of life by him must taste :
My feede shall serue and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.

33 My feede shall plainly shew to them that shall be borne hereafter,
His iustice and his righteoufnesse,
and all his workes of wonder.

Dominus regit. Psal. xxij. W. W.

David hauing tryed Gods manifold mercies diuers sines, gathereth a sururance that God will continue his goodnesse for euer.

Sing this as the 21. Psalm.

THE Lord is onely my support,
and he that doth me feede:
How can I then lacke any thing
whereof I stand in neede :

2 He doth me fold in coats most safe :
the tender grasse fast by :
And after driues me to the streames, that runne most pleasantly.

3 And when I feelee my selfe neare lost, then doth he me home take,
Conducting me in the right pathes, euen for his owne name sake.
And though I were euen at deaths doore,
yet would I feare none ill :
For with thy rod and shepheards crooke
I am comforted still.

5 Thou hast my table richly deckt in despight of my foe :
Thou hast my head with balme refresht,
my cup doth ouerflow.

6 And finally while breath doth last, thy grace shall me defend :
And in the house of God will I my life for euer spend.

Another of the same by Th. Stern.

Sing this as the 21. Psalm.

- MY shepheard is the liuing Lord,
nothing therefore I neede:
In pastures faire, with waters calme
he sets me for to feede.
- 2 He did conuert and glad my soule, and brought my minde in frame:
To walke in paths of righteousnesse,
for his most holy name.
- 3 Yea, though I walke in vale of death,
yet will I feare none ill:
Thy rod, thy staffe doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.
- 4 And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt O Lord fill full my cup,
and eke annoint my head.
- 5 Through all my life thy fauour is so frankly shewed to me:
That in thy house for euermore my dwelling place shall be.

Domini est terra. Psal. xxiiij. I. H.

The grace of God being now vttered in the temple more glorious then before in the tabernacle. Da-uid with exclamation stretcheth forth the honour thereof, mouing the consideration of the eternall mansions prepared in heauen, whereof this was a figure.

Sing this as the 21. Psalm.

- THe earth is all the Lords, with all her store and furniture:
Yea, his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.
- 2 For he hath fastly founded it,
about the sea to stand:
And laid alow the liquid founts,
to flow beneath the land.
- 3 For who is he, O Lord, that shall ascend into thy hill:
And passe into thy holy place,
there to continue still.
- 4 Whose hands are harnesse, and whose no spot there doth defile: (heart,
His soule not set on vanitie, who hath not sworne to guile.
- 5 Him that is such a one, the Lord shall place in blisseful plight:
And God his God and Saviour, shall yeeld to him his right.
- 6 This is the brood of traellers in seeking of his grace:
As Iacob did the Israelites, in that time of his race.
- 7 Ye Princes open your gates, stand open
the euermolting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.
- 8 What is the King of glorious state:
the strong and mightie Lord:
The mightie Lord in battell rout,
and triall of the sword.
- 9 Ye Princes open your gates, stand open
the euermolting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.

- 10 What is the King of glorious state:
the Lord of hostis he is:
The Kingdome and the royaltie of glorious state is his.

Ad te Domine. Psal. xxv. T. S.

Dauid grieved at his sinne and malicious enemies, most frequently prayeth for forgiveness, especially of such finnes as he committed in his youth.

Lift mine hart to thee, my God and guide most iust: Now suffer me to take no shame, for in thee doe I trust. Let not my foes reioyce, nor make a scorn of mee:

And let them not be ouerthrowne, that put their trust in thee.

- 3 But shame shall them befall, which harme them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right waies vnto me Lord discerne.
- 4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour, on thee I waite alway.
- 5 Thy mercies manifold
I pray thee Lord remember:
And eke thy pittie plentifull, for they haue bene for euer.
- 6 Remember not the faults,
and frailtie of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I haue bene of thy truth.
- Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercie finde:
But of thine owne benignitie
Lord haue me in thy minde.
- 7 His mercie is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach and such as goe astride.
- 8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keepe:
He will direct in all his waies
the lowly and the meeke.
- 9 For all the waies of God are truth and mercie both,
To them that keepe his testament,
the witness of his troth.

- 10 Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord I thee intreat:
To grant me pardon for my sinne,
for it is wondrous great.
- 11 Who so doth feare the Lord,
the Lord doth him direct:
To leade his life in such a way,
as he doth best accept.
- 12 His soule shall euermore,
in goodnesse dwell and stand:
His seede and his posterity, inherit shall the land;
- 13 All those that feare the Lord,
know his secret intent:
And vnto them he doth declare, his Will and Testament.
- 14 Mine eyes and eke my heart,
to him I will aduance:
That pluckt my feet out of the snare,
of sinne and ignorance:
- 15 With mercie me behold,
to thee I make my mone:
For I am poore and desolate, and comfortlesse alone.
- 16 The troubles of my heart,
are multiplied indeed: Bring me out of this miserie, necessitie and need.
- 17 Behold my pouertrie,
mine anguish and my paine;
Remit my sinne and mine offence,
and make me cleane againe.
- 18 O Lord behold my foes,
how they doe still increase:
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that faine would liue in peace,
- 19 Preferue and keepe my soule,
and eke deliuer me:
And let me not be ouerthrowne,
because I trust in thee.
- 20 Let my simple purenesse, me from mine enemies shend,
Because I looke as one of thine, that thou shouldst me defend:
- 21 Deliuer Lord thy folke, and send them some reliefe.
I meane thy chosen Israel, from all their paine and griefe.

Iudicame Dom. Psal.xxvj. I. H.

David intireously oppressed and helpless, yet assured of his integrity to Saul, calleth God to defend him causelesse afflicted, when he desireth to be in the company of the faithfull in the congregation of God, when he was banished by Saul, promising godly life, open praises, thanks, giuing and sacrifice for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 14. Psalm.

- Lord be my iudge, and thou shalt see,
my pathes be right and plaine:
I trust in God, and hope that he,
will strength me to remaine.
- 2 Proue me my God I thee desire,
my waies to search and trie:
As men doe proue their gold with fire,
my reines and heart eptic.

- 3 Thy goodnesse laid before my face,
I durst behold alwaies:
For of thy ruth I tread the trace,
and will doe all my daies.
- 4 I doe not lust to haue or vse, with men whose deeds are vaine:
To come in house I doe refuse,
with the deceitfull traine.
- 5 I much abhorre the wicked sort,
their deeds I doe despise:
I doe not once to them resort, that hurtfull things deuise.
- 6 My hands I wash and doe proceed,
in works to walke vp right:
Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer therein sight.
- 7 That I may speake and preach the praise,
that doth belong to thee:
And so declare how wondrous waies, thou hast beene good to me.
- 8 O Lord thy house I loue most deare,
to me it doth excell:
I haue delight and would be neere,
whereas thy grace doth dwell.
- 9 O shut not vp my soule with them,
in sinne that take their fill:
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seeke much loud to spill.
- 10 Whose hands are heape with craft & guile their lips thereof are full,
And their right hand with wrench and wile, for bribes both pluck and pull.
- 11 But I in righteousness intend,
my time and daies to serue:
Haue mercy Lord and me defend,
so that I doe not swarue.
- 12 My foot is staid for all assaies,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God will I giue praise,
in all the peoples sight.

Dominus illum. Psal.xxvij. I. H.

David deliuered from great perill, giueth thanks, wherein we see his constant faith against the assaults of all enemies, and the end why he desireth to liue, and to be deliuered: Then he exhorteth to faith, and to attend vpon the Lord.

Sing this as the 18. Psalm.

- THe Lord is both my health and sight, shall man make me dismayd:
Sith God doth giue me strength and might,
why should I be afraid?
- 2 While that my foes with all their strength begin with me to braue:
And thinke to eate me ye, at length themselves haue caught the fall.
- 3 Though they in campe against me lie,
my heart is not afraid;
In battell fight if they will trie,
I trust in God for aid.
- 4 One thing of God I doe require,
that he will not denie:
For which I pray and will desire, till he to me apply.
- 5 That I within his holy place,
my life throughout may dwell,

To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well :
In time of dread he shall me hide,
within his place most pure,
And keepe me secret by his side,
as on a rocke most sure.
At length I know the Lords good grace, shall make me strong and stout :
My foes to foile and cleane deface, that compasse me about.
Therefore within his house will I,
giue sacrifice of praise :
With Psalmes and Songs I will apply, to laud the Lord alwaies.

The second part.

Lord heare the voyce of my request,
for which to thee I call :
Haue mercy Lord on me oppressd, and send me helpe withall.
My heart doth knowledge vnto thee,
I sue to haue thy grace :
Then seeke my face say'it thou to me,
Lord I will seeke thy face.
In wrath turne not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide :
Thou art my helpe till to this day,
be still my God and guide.
My parents both their sonne forsooke, and cast me off at large :
And then the Lord himselfe yet tooke, of me the care and charge.
Teach me, O Lord the way to thee,
and leade me on forth-right :
For feare of such as watch for me, to trap me if they might.
Doe not betake me to the will,
of them that be my foes :
For thy surname against me still,
false witness to depose.
My heart would faint, but that in me
this hope is fixed fast :
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see,
in life that aye shall last.
Trust still in God whose whole thou art,
his will abide thou must :
And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him doe trust.

Ad te Domine. Psal. xxviii. T.S.

Being in fcare and persiuener to see God dishonoured by wicked men, hee crieth for vengeance against them, and being assured that God hath heard him, he commendeth all the faithfull to his tuition.

Sing this as the 21. Psalm.

Thou art O Lord my strength and stay,
the succour which I craue : Neglect me not lest I be like to them that goe to graue.
The voyce of thy suppliant heare,
that vnto thee doth crye,
When I lift vp my hands vnto thy holy Arke most hie.
Repute me not among the sort,
of wicked and peruer :
That speake right faire vnto their friends,
and thinke full ill in heart,
According to their handy worke,

as they deserue indeed :
And after their inuentions,
let them receiue their meed.
For they regard nothing Gods word,
his law, ne yet his lore :
Therefore he will them and their seed, destroy for euermore.
To render thanks vnto the Lord,
how great a cause haue I :
My voice, my prayer and my complaint,
that heard so willingly.
He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distresse,
My hope, my health, my hearts reliefe,
my song shall him confesse.
He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist :
The health and the saluation,
of his elect by Christ.
Thy people and thy heritage,
Lord blesse, guide, and preserue :
Increase them Lord and rule their hearts,
that they may neuer sweene.

Afferte Domino. Psal. xxix. T.S.

Dauid exhorteth Princes, (who for the most part thinke there is no God) at the least to feare him for the thunders and tempests; for feare whereof all creatures tremble. And albeit it threatneth sinners; yet it moueth him to praise his name.

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

Giue to the Lord ye Potentates, ye rulers of the world,
Giue ye all praise, honour and strength,
vnto the liuing Lord.
Giue honour to his holy name,
and honour him alone :
Worship him in his maiestie, within his holy throne.
His voice doth rule the waters all,
euen as himselfe doth please,
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and gouernes all the seas.
The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent :
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.
The voice of God doth rend and breake,
the Cedar trees so long :
The Cedar trees of Libanus, which are most high and strong.
And makes them leape like a calfe,
or else the Unicorne :
Not onely trees but mountaines great,
whereon the trees are borne.
His voice diuides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness :
It makes the desert quake for feare, that called is Cades.
It makes the Hinds for feare to calue, and makes the couert plaine :
Then in his temple euery man,
his glory doth proclaime.
The Lord was set about the foulds, ruling the raging sea :
So shall he raigne as Lord and King,
for euer and for aye.

11 The Lord will giue his people power,
in vertue to encrease :
The Lord will blesse his chosen folke, with euerslasting peace.

Exaltabte Domine. Psal. xxx. T. S.

When Dauid should dedicate his house to the Lord, he fell extreme sicke, without all hope of life, and therefore after recovery he thanketh God, exhorting others to doe the like, and to learne by him that God is rather mercifull then seuer towards his, also that aduersity is so daime : Then he prayeth and promisseth to praise God for ever.

LL laud and praise with heart and voyce, O Lord I giue to thee : which didst not make my foes reioyce, but hast exalted me, 2. O Lord my God to thee I ride, in all my paine and griefe. Thou gauest an care & didst prouide to ease me with reliefe.

3 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back my soule, from hell to saue :

Thou didst reuiue when strength did lack,
and kep't me from the graue.

4 Sing praise ye Saints that proue and see the goodnesse of the Lord,

In memory of his maiestie,
reioyce with one accord :

5 For why ? his anger but a space doth last and flake againe :

But in his fauour and his grace,
alwaies doth life remaine.

Though gripes of griefe and pangs full sore, shall lodge with vs all night :

The Lord to ioy shall vs restore,
before the day be light.

6 When I enioy'd this world at will,
thus would I boast and say :

Tush, I am sure to feele none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.

7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace, hast sent me strength and aid :

But when thou turn'dst away thy face,
my minde was sore dismayd.

8 Wherefore againe yet did I crie, to thee O Lord of might :

My God with plaints I did apply, and pray'd both day and night.

9 What gaine is in my bloud said I,
if death destroy my daies ?

Doth dust declare thy maiestie ?
or yet thy truth doth praise ?

13 Wherefore my God some pittie take,
O Lord I thee desire :

Doe not this simple soule forsake ;
of helpe I thee require.

11 Then didst thou turne my griefe and woe into a cheerefull voice :

The mourning weed thou tookest me fro,
and mad'st me to reioice.

12 Wherefore my soule vncessantlly, shall sing vnto thy praise,

My Lord my God, to thee will I, giue laud and thanks alwaies.

In te Domine speraui. Psal xxxj. T. S.

Dauid deliuered from great danger, sheweth first what meditations hee had by the power of faith, when death was before his eyes, and how the fa-uour of God alwaies is ready to thest that feare him. He exhorteth the faithfull to trust in God, because he preserueth them.

Sing this as the 18. Psalm.

O Lord I put my trust in thee, let nothing worke me shame.

As thou art iust deliuer me,
and set me quite from blame.

2 Heare me O Lord and that anone, to helpe me make good speed.

Be thou my rocke and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.

3 For why ? as stones thy strength is tride, thou art my fort and tower :

For thy names sake be thou my guide,
and leade me in thy power.

4 Plucke forth my feet out of the snare, which they for me haue laid :

Thou art my strength, and all my care is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit my spirit, which is thy due .

For why ? thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.

6 I hate such folke as will not part,
from things to be abhord :

When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy ioy,
I fee it doth excell :

Thou testt when ought would me annoy,
and knowest my soule full well.

8 Thou hast not left me in their hand,
that would me ouercharge :

But thou hast set me out of band,
to walke abroad at large.

The second part.

9 Great griefe O Lord doth me assaile, some pittie on me take :

Mine eyes waxe dim, my sight doth faile,
my wombe for woe doth ake.

10 My life is worne with griefe and paine,
my yeares in woe are paite.

My strength is gone and through dislaine,
my bones corrupt and wall.

11 Among my foes I am a scorne, my friends are all dismayd ;

My neighbours and my kinsmen borne,
to see me are afraid.

- 12 As men once dead are out of minde,
so am I now forgot :
As small effect in me they finde,
as in a broken pot.
- 13 I heard the brags of all the rout, their threats my minde did fray :
How they conspird, and went about,
to take my life away.
- 14 But Lord I trust in thee for aide,
not to be over-trod :
For I confesse and still haue said,
thou art my Lord my God.
- 15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord is in thy hand :
Defend me from the wrach and rage,
of them that me withstand.
- 16 To me thy seruant Lord expresse, and shew thy iofull face :
And saue me Lord for thy goodnesse, thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

- 17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call,
But let the wicked beare their shame,
and in the graue to fall.
- 18 O how great good hast thou in store,
laid vp full safe for them,
That feare and trust in thee therefore,
before the sonnes of men.
- 19 Thy presence shall them fence and guide from all proud brags and wrongs :
Within thy place thou shalt them hide,
from all the strife of tongues.
- 20 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd, on me his grace so farre :
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a towne of warr.
- 21 This did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppress'd :
Loe I was cleane cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.
- 22 Ye Saints loue ye the Lord I say,
the faithfull he doth guide :
And to the proud he will repay,
according to their pride.
- 23 Be strong and God shall stay your heart,
be bold and haue a lust :
For sure the Lord will take your part,
such ye in him doe trust.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxij. T.S.

David punished with grieuous sicknesses for his sins, counteth them happy to whom God doth not impute their transgressions, and after that hee had confessed his finnes, and obtained pardon, he exhorteth the wicked men to liue godly, and the good to reioyce.

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

- THe man is blest whose wickednesse,
the Lord hath cleane remitted,
And he whose sinne and wretchednesse, is hid and also conered.
- 2 And blest is he, to whom the Lord,
imputeth not his sinne :
Which in his heart hath hid no guile, nor fraud is found therein.

- 3 For whilst that I kept close my sinne,
in silence and constraint :
My bones did weare and wast away,
with daily mone and plaint.
- 4 For night and day thy hand on me,
so grievous was and smart.
That all my blood and humours moist,
to drinnesse did conuart.
- 5 I did therefore confesse my fault, and all my finnes discover :
Then thou O Lord didst me forgieue, and all my finnes passe ouer.
- 6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seeke thee in due time :
So that the floods of water great,
shall haue no power on him.
- 7 When trouble and aduersitie, doe compasse me about :
Thou art my refuge and my ioy,
and thou dost rid me out.
- 8 Come hither and I shall thee teach,
how thou shalt walke aright,
And will thee guide as I my selfe, haue learn'd by prooffe and sight.
- 9 Be not so rude and ignorant,
as is the horse and mule :
Whose mouth without a reyne or bit,
from harme thou canst not rule.
- 10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefe sustaine :
But vnto him that trusts in God,
his goodnesse shall remaine.
- 11 Be merrie therefore in the Lord,
ye iust lift vp your voyce :
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke reioyce.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxij. T.S.

Hee exhorteth good men to praise God for creating and gouerning all things, and his faithfull promise, for scattering the counsell of the wicked, teaching that no creature preserueth any man but onely his mercy.

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

- YE righteous in the Lord reioyce,
it is a seemely sight :
That vpright men with thankfull voyce, should praise the Lord of might.
- 2 Praise ye the Lord with harpe and song,
in Psalmes and pleasant things :
With Lute and instrument among,
that soundeth with ten strings.
- 3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage giue him praise :
For why his word is euer true,
his workes and all his waies.
- 4 To iudgement, equitie and right,
he hath a great good will,
And with his gifts he doth delight,
the earth throughout to fill.
- 6 For by the word of God alone,
the heauens all were wrought,
Their hostes and powers euery one,
his breath to passe hath brought.
- 7 The waters great gathered hath he,
on heapes within the shore,
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

- 1 All men on earth, both least and most,
feare God, and keepe his Law:
Ye that inhabite in each coast,
dread him, and stand in awe.
2 What he commanded wrought it was,
at once with present speede:
What he doth will is brought to passe with full effect indeede.
3 The counsels of the Nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude,
of their deuise and thought.
4 But his decrees continue still,
they neuer slacke nor swage:
The motions of his minde and will take place in euery age.

The second part.

- 12 And blest are they to whom the Lord,
as God and guide is knowne:
Whom he doth chuse of meere accord to take them as his owne.
13 The Lord from heauen cast his sight on men mortall by birth: 14 Considering from his seat of might the dwellers on the earth.
15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought mans heart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought and working of the same.
16 A King that trulleth in his hoast shall nought preuaile at length:
The man that of his might doth boast shall faile for all his strength.
17 The troopes of horse-men eke shall faile, their sturdie steeds shall sterue:
The strength of horse shall not preuaile
the rider to preferue.
18 But loe the eyes of God intend,
and watch, to aide the iust:
With such as feare him to offend,
and on his goodnesse trust.
19 That he of death and great distresse, may see their soule from deade:
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed.
20 Wherefore our soules doe still depend on God our strength and stay:
He is our shield, vs to defend,
and driue all darts away.
21 Our soule in God hath ioy and game, reioycing in his might:
For why is in his most holy name
we hope and much delight.
22 Therefore let thy goodnesse O Lord, still present with vs be:
As we alwaies with one accord,
doe onely trust in thee.

Benedicam Dom. Psal. xxxiiij. T.S.

*David having escaped Achis (1 Sam. 21) praiseth
God for his deliuerance, giueth others example to trust in God, to feare and serue him, who defendeth the godly with his Angels, and viscerly deliueareth the wicked from their sinnes.*

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

I Will giue laud and honour both vnto the Lord alwaies:

- And eke my mouth for euermore shall speake vnto his praise.
2 I doe delight to laud the Lord in soule, and eke in voice:
That humble men and mortified may heare, and to reioyce.
3 Therefore see that ye magnifie with me the liuing Lord:
And let vs now exalt his name, together with one accord.
4 For I my selfe besought the Lord,
he answered me againe:
And me deliuered incontinent from all my feare and paine.
5 Who so they be that him behold, shall see his light most cleare:
Their countenance shall not be dasht,
they neede it not to feare.
6 This fillie wretch for some reliefe vnto the Lord did call:
Who did him heare without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.
7 The Angell of the Lord doth pitch his tents in euery place:
To saue all such as feare the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
8 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and iust:
O happy man that maketh him his onely stay and trust.

- 9 Feare ye the Lord, ye holy ones,
about all earthly thing:
For they that feare the liuing Lord are sure to lacke nothing.
10 The Lions shall be hunger-bit, and pin'd with famine much:
But as for them that feare the Lord no lacke shall be to such.

The second part.

- 11 Come neare therefore my children deare,
and to my words giue care:
I shall you teach the perfect way
how ye the Lord should feare.
12 Who is the man that would liue long,
and lead a blessed life:
13 See thou refraine thy tongue and lips from all deceit and strife.
14 Turne backe thy face from doing ill,
and doe the godly deed:
Inquire for peace and righteousness,
and follow it with speed.
15 For why is the eyes of God about vpon the iust are bent:
His cares likewise doe heare the plaint of the poore innocent.
16 But he doth frowne and bend the browes
vpon the wicked traine:
And cuts away the memorie that should of them remaine.
17 But when the iust doe call and crie,
the Lord doth heare them so,
That out of paine and miserie forthwith he lets them goe.
18 The Lord is kinde, and straight at hand,
to such as be contrite:

The second part.

He saues also the sorrowfull, the meeke and poore in spirit.
19 Full many be the miseries that righteous men doe suffer :
But out of all aduersities
the Lord doth them deliuer.

20 The Lord doth so preferue and keepe his very bones alway,
That not so much as one of them
doth perishe and decay.

21 The sinne shall slay the wicked man, which he himselfe hath wrought :
And such as hate the righteous man shall soone be brought to nought.

22 But they that serue the liuing Lord,
the Lord doth saue them found :
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. xxxv. I. H.

Saith flatterers persecuted David, who prayeth for revenge, that his innocency may be declared, and that such as take his part may reioyce, for which he promisseth to magnifie Gods name at the dayes of his life.

Sing this as the humble suit of a Sinner.

LOrd plead my cause against my foes, confound their force and might :
Fight on my part against all those that seeke with me to fight.

2 Lay hand vpon the speare and shield, thy selfe in armour dresse :
Stand vp for me, and fight the field,
to keepe me from distresse.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand :
That thou vnto my soule maist say,
loe I thy helpe at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke and blame, that seeke my soule to spill :
Let them turne backe and fle with shame,
that thinke to worke me ill.

5 Let them disperse and fle abroad,
as winde doth driue the dust :
And that the Angell of our God, their might away may thrust.

6 Let all their waves be void of light, and slipperie like to fall :
And send thine Angell with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why & without my fault they haue in secret set their gin :
And for no cause haue digd a caue to catch my soule therein.

8 When they thinke least, and haue no care,
O Lord destroy them all :
Let them be trapt in their owne snare,
and in their mischiefe fall :

9 And let my soule, my heart, and voice,
in God haue ioy and wealth :
That in the Lord I may reioyce, and in his sauing health.

10 And then my bones shall speake and say,
my parts shall all agree :
O Lord though they doe seeme full gay,
what man is like to thee ?

11 Thou didst defend the weake from them that are both stout and strong :
And rid the poore from wicked men,
that spoile and doe them wrong.

12 My cruell foes against my rise, to witnesse things vntrue :
And to accuse me they deuise,
of what I neuer knewe.

13 Where I to them did owe good will,
they quite me with disdain :
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soule doth fore complain.

14 When they were sick I mourn'd therefore, and clad my selfe with sacke :
With fasting I did faint full fore,
to pray I was not slacke.

15 As they had beene my brethren deare,
I did my selfe behaue :
As one that maketh wofull cheare about his mothers graue.

16 But they at my disease did ioy, and gather on a rout :
Yea, abie& slaues at me did toy, with mockes and cheekes full stout.

17 The belly-gods, and flattering traine, that all good things diuide :
At me did grin with great disdain, and plucke their mouthes aside.

18 Lord, when wilt thou amend this geare ?
why dost thou stay and pause ?
O rid my soule, mine onely deare, out of the Lions clawes.

19 And then I will giue thanks to thee, before thy Church alwaies .
And whereas most of people be,
there will I shew thy praise.

20 Let not my foes preuaile on me,
which hate me for no fault :
Nor yet to winke or turne their eye,
that causelesse me assault.

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they thinke or say ;
their talke is all vntrue :
They still consult, and would betray all those that peace eniue.

22 With open mouthes they runne at me,
they gape, they laugh, they scorne :
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see the thing that we desire.

23 But Lord thou seest what waies they take, cease not this geare to mend :
Be not farr off, nor me forsake,
as men that faile their friend.

24 Awake, arise, and stirre abroad, defend me in my right :
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God, and aide me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God set me free :
And let not them their pride expresse,
nor triumph ouer me.

26 Let not their hearts reioice and crie;
there, there, this geare goes trim :
Nor giue them cause to say on high,
we haue our will on him,

27 Confound them with rebuke and shame, that ioy when I doe mourne :
And pay them home with spite and blame,
that brag at me with scorne.
28 Let them be glad and eke reioyce, which loue mine vpright way.
And they all times with heart and voice,
shall praise the Lord and say, 29 Great is the Lord and doth excell, for why : he doth delight
To see his seruantes prosper well, that is his pleasant sight.
30 Wherefore my tongue I will apply, thy righteoufnesse to praise :
Vnto the Lord my God will I, sing laud and thanks alwaies.

Dixit iniustus. Psal. xxxvj. I. H.

Dauid vexed by the wicked, complaneth of their malice, but considering Gods great mercy to all creatures, specially towards his children, by faith thereof, he is comforted and assured of his deliuerance.

Sing this as the humble suite of a sinner.

THE wicked with his workes vnjust, doth thus perwade his heart,
That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his feare is set a part.
2 Yet doth he ioy in his estate, to walke as he began :
So long till he deserue the hate,
of God and eke of man.
3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught, his tongue no truth doth tell Yet at no hand will he be taught, which way he may doe well.
4 When he should sleep then doth he muse his mischiefe to fulfill :
No wicked waies doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.
5 But Lord thy goodnesse doth ascend, about the heauens high :
So doth thy truth it selfe extend,
vnto the cloudy skie.
6 Much more then hills so hie and steepe,
thy iustice is exprest :
Thy iudgements like to seas most deepe, thou fauest both man and beast.
7 Thy mercy is about all things,
O God it doth excell :
In trust whereof as in thy wings,
the sonnes of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed, with plenty at their will .
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.
9 For why : the well of life so pure,
doth ouerflow from thee :
And in thy light we are full sure,
the lasting light to see.
10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart.
Thy righteoufnesse declare and shew,
to men of vpright heart.
11 Let not the proud on me preuaile
O Lord of thy good grace :

Nor let the wicked me assaile, to throw me out of place.

12 But they in their deuise shall fall, that wicked workes maintaine :
They shall be ouerthrowne with all,
and neuer rise againe.

Noli emulari. Psal. xxxvj. W. W.

Because the godly should not be daunted to see wicked men prosper, Dauid sheweth that all things shall be granted euen with hearts desire to them that loue and feare God : but the wicked, albeith they flourish for a time, shall at length perishe.

Sing this as the 23. Ps. lue.

GRudge not to see the wicked men in wealth to flourish still ;
Nor yet enuie such as to fill haue bent and set their will.
2 For as greene grasse and flourishing herbes are cut and wither away :
So shall their great prosperity,
soone passe, fade and decay.
3 Trust thou therefore in God alone, to doe well giue thy minde :
So shalt thou haue the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt finde.
4 In God set all thy hearts delight, and looke what thou wouldest haue,
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou needst it not to craue.
5 Cast both thy selfe and thine affaires, on God with perfect trust :
And thou shalt see with patience,
the effect both sure and iust.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will cleare as the light :
So that the Sunne euen at noone daies, shall not shine halfe so bright.
7 Be still therefore and stedfastly, on God see thou wait then,
Not shrinking for the prosperous state,
of lewd and wicked men.
8 Shake off despight, enuie and hate,
at least in any wise,
Their wicked steps auoid and flee,
and follow not their guise.
9 For euery wicked man will God, destroy both more or lesse.
But such as trust in God are sure,
the land for to possesse.
10 Watch but a while and thou shalt see no more the wicked traine :
No not so much as house or place,
where once they did remaine.

The second part.

1: But mercifull and humble men,
enioy shall sea and land :
In rest and peace they shall reioyce, for nought shall them withstand, 12 The lewd men and malicious, against the iust conspire :
They gnash their teeth at him as men which doe his bane desire.
13 But while that lewd men thus doe thinke
the Lord laughs them to scorne.
For why : he seeth their terme approach,
when they shall sigh and mourne :

- 14 The wicked haue their ſword our drawne their bow eke haue they bent :
To ouerthrow and kill the poore,
as they the right way went.
- 15 But the ſame ſword ſhall pierce their hartes which was to kill the iuſt :
Likewiſe the bow ſhall breake in ſhiuers,
wherein they put their truſt.
- 16 Doubtleſſe the iuſt mans poore eſtate, is better a great deale more,
Then all theſe lewd and worldly mens,
rich pompe and heaped ſtore.
- 17 For be their power neuer ſo ſtrong,
God will it ouerthrow :
Where contrary he doth preferue
the humble men and low :
- 18 He ſeech by his great providence,
the good mans trade and way.
And will giue them inheritance, which neuer ſhall decay.
- 19 They ſhall not be diſcouraged,
when ſome are hard beſtad :
When other ſhall be hunger bit, they ſhall be clad and fed.
- 20 For whoſoeuer wicked is,
and enemie to the Lord :
ſhall quaille, yea melt euen as lambes greaſe, or ſmoke that flies abroad.

The third part.

- 21 Behold the wicked borroweth much,
and neuer payeth againe :
Whereas the iuſt by liberall gifts,
make many glad and ſaine.
- 22 For they whom God doth bleſſe, ſhall haue
the land for heritage,
And they whom he doth curſe likewiſe,
ſhall periſh in his rage.
- 23 The Lord the iuſt mans cauſe doth guide, and giues him good ſucceſſe
To euery thing he takes in hand, he ſendeth good addreſſe.
- 24 Though that he fall, yet is he ſure,
not vtterly to quaille.
Becauſe the Lord ſtretcheth out his hand at need, and doth not faile.
- 25 I haue bene young and now am old,
yet did I neuer lee,
The iuſt man left, nor yet his ſeede to beg for miſery.
- 26 But giues alwaies moſt liberally, and lends whereas is neede,
His children and poſterity, receiue of God their meede.
- 27 Flie vice therefore and wickedneſſe, and vertue doe embrace :
So God ſhall grant thee long to haue, on earth a dwelling place.
- 28 For God ſo loueth equity, and ſheweth to his ſuch grace,
That he preferues them euermore,
but ſtroyes the wicked race.
- 29 Whereas the good and godly men, inherit ſhall the land:
Hauing as Lords all things therein,
in their owne power and hand.
- 30 The iuſt mans mouth doth euer ſpeake,
of matters wiſe and bie :

His tongue doth talke to edifie, with truth and equity.

- 31 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth ſtill abide :
So that whereas euer he goe or walke,
his foot can neuer ſlide.
- 32 The wicked like a rauening wolfe,
the iuſt man doth beſet :
By all meanes ſeeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

- 33 Though he ſhould fall into his hands,
yet God would ſuccour ſend,
Though men againſt him ſentence giue,
God will him yet defend.
- 34 Waite thou on God and keepe his way,
he ſhall preferue thee then :
The earth to rule, and thou ſhalt ſee deſtroy'd theſe wicked men.
- 35 The wicked haue I ſcene moſt ſtrong, and placed in high degree :
Flourishing in all wealth and ſtore,
as doth the Lawrell tree.
- 36 But ſodainly he paſſeth away,
and loe he was quite gone :
Then I him ſought but could ſcarce finde,
the place where dwelt ſuch one.
- 37 Marke and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increaſe :
For the iuſt man ſhall haue at length, great ioy with reſt and peace.
- 38 As for tranſgreſſours woe to them, deſtroy'd they ſhall all be :
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich poſterity.
- 39 But the ſaluation of the iuſt,
doth come from God above,
Who in their trouble ſends them aide,
of his meere grace and loue.
- 40 God doth him helpe, ſaue and deliuer, from lewd men and vniuſt.
And ſtill will ſaue them while that they in him doe put their truſt.

Domine ne in furore. Pſal xxxviij. I. H.

*Dauid ſick of ſome grievous diſeaſe, acknowledgeth himſelfe to be chaſtiſed of the Lord for his ſins :
and therefore prayeth God to turne away his wrath; but in the end with firme confidence commending his cauſe to God, hopeth for ſpeedie helpe at his hand.*

Sing this as the humble ſuite of a ſinner.

- PVt me not to rebuke (O Lord)
in thy provoked ire : Ne in thy heauie wrath (O Lord) correc& me I deſire.
- 2 Thine arrowes doe ſticke faſt in me,
thy hand doth preſſe me fore :
And in my fleſh no health at all,
appeareth any more.
- 3 And all this is by reaſon of thy wrath that I am in :
Nor any reſt is in my bones,
by reaſon of my ſinne.
- 4 For loe my wicked doings Lord,
aboue my head are gone :
A greater loaden then I can beare, they lie me fore vpon.

- 5 My wounds stincke and are festered sore,
as loathsome for to seee:
Which all through mine owne foolishnesse betideth vnto me.
6 And I in carefull wise am brought in trouble and distresse:
That I goe wailing all the day
my dolorfull heauinesse.
7 My loynes are fill'd with sore disease, my flesh hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am, and broken sore,
I roare for griefe of heart.
9 Thou know'st Lord my desire, my groanes are open in thy sight:
10 My hart doth pant, my strength hath faild, mine eyes haue lost their light.
11 My louers and my wonted friends stand looking on my woe:
And eke my kinsmen farre away are me departed fro.
12 They that did seeke my life laid snares, and they that sought the way To doe me hurt, spake lies, and thought on treason all the day.

The second part.

- 13 But as a deafe man I became,
that cannot heare at all:
14 And as one dumbe that opens not his mouth to speake withall.
15 For all my confidence O Lord is wholly set on thee:
16 O Lord, thou Lord that art my God, thou shalt giue care to me.
17 This did I erane, that they my foes triumph not ouer mee:
For when my foot did slip, then they did ioy my fall to seee.
And truly I poore wretch am set in place a wofull wight:
And eke my grievous heauinesse is euer in my sight.
18 For while that I my wickednesse in humble wise confesse:
And while I for my sinfull deedes
my sorrowes doe expresse.
19 My foes doe still remaine aliue, and mighty are also:
And they that hate me wrongfully in number hugely grow.
20 They stand against me that my good,
with euill doe repay:
Because that good and honest things
I doe ensue alway.
21 For sake me not my Lord my God,
be thou not farre away:
Haste me to helpe, my Lord my God,
my safety and my stay.

Dixi custodiam. Psal. xxxix. I. H.

David being determined silence, yet brast forth into word, that he would not, through his bitter griefe. For hee maketh certaine requests which taste of mans infirmities, yet mixed with many prayers, and all to shew a minde wonderfully troubled, that it might appeare how he did strive mightily against death and desperation.

Since this is the humble suite of a Sinner.

I said I will looke to my wayes:
for feare I should goe wrong:

- I will take heede all times that I offend not in my tongue.
2 As with a bit I will keepe fast my mouth with force and might:
Not once to whisper all the while the wicked are in sight.
3 I held my tongue, and spake no word, but kept me close and still:
Yea from good talke I did refraine,
but sore against my will.
4 My heart waxt hot within my breast, with musing, thought, and doubt:
Which did increase and stire the fire,
at last these words burst out.
5 Lord number out my life and dayes, which yet I haue not past:
So that I may be certified how long my life shall last.
6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life,
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing vnto thee,
so vaine is euery man.
7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth in vaine himselfe annoy:
In getting goods, and cannot tell who shall the same ioy.
8 Now Lord sith things this wise doe frame,
what helpe doe I desire?
Of truth my helpe doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

- 9 From all the finnes that I haue done
Lord quicke me out of hand:
And make me not a scorner to fooles that nothing vnderstand.
10 I was as dumbe, and to complaine
no trouble might me moue:
Because I knew it was thy worke,
my patience for to proue.
11 Lord, take from me thy scourge & plague
I can them not withstand:
I faint and pine away for feare of thy most heauy hand.
12 When thou for sinne dost man rebuke
he waxeth woe and wan:
As doth a cloath that moths haue fret,
so vaine a thing is man.
13 Lord heare my suite, and giue good heed, regard my teares that fall:
I sojourne like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.
14 O spare a little, giue me space
my strength for to restore:
Before I goe away from hence,
and shall be seene no more.

Expectans expectavi. Psal. xl. I. H.

David deliuered from great danger, doth magnifie
God therefore, and commendeth his providence towards all mankind. Then he promiseth to giue himselfe wholly to Gods seruice, and declareth how God is truly worshipped, afterward he giueth thanks, and hauing complained of his enmi-nies he calleth for aide and succour.

Sing this as the 35. Psalme.

I waited long, and sought the Lord, and patiently did beare
At length to me he did accord,

- my voice and cry to heare.
- 2 He pluckt me from the lake so deepe,
out of the mire and clay :
And on a rocke did set my feet,
and he did guide my way.
- 3 To me he taught a Psalm of praise,
which I must shew abroad :
And sing new songs of thanks alwaies, vnto the Lord our God.
- 4 When all the folke these things shall see,
as people much afraid :
Then they vnto the Lord will flee, and trust vpon his aid.
- 5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remaine :
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor such as lye and faine.
- 6 For Lord my God thy wondrous deedes in greatnesse farre doe passe : Thy fauour towards vs exceeds all things that cuer was.
- 7 When I intend, and doe deuise thy workes abroad to shew:
To such a reckoning they doe rise, thereof no end I know.
- 8 Burnt offerings thou delightst not in,
I know thy whole desire :
With sacrifice to purge his sinne, thou dost no man require,
- 6 Meat offerings and sacrifice, thou wouldst not haue at all :
But thou O Lord hast open made mine eares to heare withall.
- 10 But then said I, behold and looke,
I come a meane to be :
For in the volume of thy Booke,
thus is it said of me;
- 11 That I O God should doe thy minde, which thing doth like me well :
For in my heart thy Law I finde, fast placed there to dwell.
- 12 Thy iustice and thy righteousness
in great resorts I tell :
Behold my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord thou knowst full well.
- The second part.*
- 13 I haue not hid within my breast thy goodnesse as by stealth :
But I declare and haue exprest, thy truth and sauing health.
- 14 I keepe not close thy louing minde, that no man should it know :
The trust that in thy truth I finde, to all the Church I shew.
- For I with mischiefes many one am sore beset about :
My sinnes increase, and so come on,
I cannot spie them out.
- 15 For why in number they exceede
the hayres vpon my head :
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.
- 16 With speede send helpe, and set me free,
O Lord I thee require :
Make haste with aide to succour me,
O Lord at my desire.

- 17 Let them sustaine rebuke and shame,
that seeke my soule to spill :
Drive backe my foes, and them defame that wish and would me ill.
- 18 For their ill feates doe them deserue, that would deface my name :
Alwaies at me they raile and crye, sic on him, sic for shame.
- 19 Let them in thee haue ioy and wealth,
that seeke to thee alwaies :
That those that loue thy sauing health,
may say, to God be praise.
- 20 But as for me, I am but poore, opprest, and brought full low :
Yet thou O Lord, wilt me restore to health full well I know :
- 21 For why in thou art my hope and trust,
my refuge, helpe, and stay :
Wherefore my God, as thou art iust, with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xlj. T.S.

Dauid grievously afflicted, blesteth them that pity his case, complaining of faithlesse friends, such as Judas, Ioh. 15. Then he giueth thanks for Gods mercy, in chastising him gently, not suffering his enemies to triumph.

He man is blest that careful is, the needy to consider: For in the season perilous, the Lord will him deliue. 2. The Lord will make him safe and found, and happy in the land: And he will not deliue him into his enemies hand.

- 3 And in his bed when he lies sicke, the Lord will him restore :
And thou O Lord wilt turne to health his sicknesse and his fore.
- 4 Then in my sicknesse thus say I,
haue mercie Lord on me :
And heale my soule, which is full woe that I offended thee.
- 5 Mine enemies wisht me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say :
When shall he die, that all his name may vanish quite away :
- 6 And when they come to visit me,
they aske if I doe well :
But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.
- 7 They bite their lips, and whisper so,
as though they would me charme :

And cast their fetches how to trap me with some mortall harme.
8 Some grievous fiene hath brought him to this sicknesse say they plaine:
He is so low that without doubt rise can he not againe.
9 The man also that I did trust, with me did vse deceit:
Who at my table ate my bread,
the same for me laid wait.
10 Have mercy Lord on me therefore,
and let me be preferred:
That I may render vnto them,
the things they haue deserued.
11 By this I know assuredly,
I am beloued of thee:
When that mine enemies haue no cause to triumph ouer me.
12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy preience place assign'd,
where I shall dwell for aye.
13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised euermore:
Euen so be it, Lord will I say, euen so be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xliij. I.H.

David is grieved that through persecution he could not be present in the congregation, professing his presence in heart, albeit in body separate: as lest hee shew eth, that notwithstanding these sorrows and thoughts, yet hee continually put-teth his confidence in the Lord.

Sing this as the 35. Psalme.

LIke as the Hart doth breathe and bray
the wellspring to obaine:
So doth my soule desire alway with thee Lord to remaine.
3 My soule doth thirst, and would draw neare
the liuing God of might:
Oh when shall I come and appeare in presence of his sight?
3 The teares all times are my repast, which from mine eyes doe slide:
When wicked men crie out so fast,
where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas, what griefe is this to thinke what freedome once I had:
Therefore my soule as at pits brinke
most heauie is and sad.
When I did march in good aray,
furnished with my traine, Vnto the temple was our way,
with songs and hearts mostaine.
5 My heart why art thou sad alwaies,
and frettst thus in my brest?
Trust still in God, for him to praise
I hold it euer best.
By him I haue succour at need against all paine and griefe:
He is my God which with all speede will haste to send reliefe.
6 And thus my soule within me Lord doth faint to thinke vpon
The land of Iordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

7 One griefe another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice:
The fouds of euill that doe fall,
runne ouer me with noise.
8 Yet I by day sele thy goodnesse, and helpe at all assaies:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the liuing God to praise.
9 I am perswaded thus to say to him with pure pretence:
O Lord, thou art my guide and stay,
my rocke, and my defence.
Why doe I then in pensiuenesse hanging the head thus walke?
While that mine enemies me oppresse and vex me with their talke.
10 For why? they vex me inward parts,
with pangs to be abhor'd:
When they crie out with stubborn hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So soone why dost thou faint and quail,
my soule, with paine oppress?
With thoughts why dost thy selfe assaile,
so sore within my brest?
12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwaies, and thou the time shalt see,
To giue him thanks with loud and praise,
for health restor'd to thee.

Iudicame Dom. Psal. xliij. T.S.

He prayeth to be deliuered from them which conspire with Absolon, to the end that he might ioy-fully praise God in his holy congregation.

Sing this as the 35. Psalme.

IVdge and reuenge my cause O Lord, from them that euill be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliuer me.
3 For of my strength thou art the God
why puttst thou me thee fro?
And why walke I so heauily oppressed with my foe.
3 Send out thy light, and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.
4 Then shall I to the Altar goe of God my ioy and cheare:
And on my Harpe giue thanks to thee,
O God my God most deare.
5 Why art thou then so sad my soule,
and frettst thus in my brest?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it alwaies best.
6 By him I haue deliuerance against all paine and griefe:
He is my God, which doth alway at need send me reliefe.

Deus auribus. Psal. xliij. T.S.

A most earnest prayer made in the name of the faithfull in persecution. for sustaining the quarrels of Gods word, as in Paul, Rom. 8.

O Vre eares haue heard our fathers tell,
C
and

and recurrently record, The wondrous works that thou haſt done in alder time (O Lord.)

2. How thou didſt caſt the Gentiles out, and ſtroid them with ſtrong hand: Planting our fathers in their place, and gau't to them their land.

3 They conquer'd not by ſword, nor ſtrength,
the land of thy beſeſt:

But by thy hand, thine arme, and grace:
becauſe thou loueſt them beſt.

4 Thou art my King, O God, that holpe
Iacob in ſundry wiſe:

5 Led with thy power, we threw downe ſuch
as did againſt vs riſe.

6 I truſted not in bow, ne ſword,
they could not ſaue me ſound:

7 Thou kept'ſt vs from our enemies rage, thou didſt our foes confound.

8 And ſtill we boalt of thee our God,
and praiſe thy holy name:

9 Yet now thou goeſt not with our hoſt,
but leaueſt vs to ſhame.

10 Thou mad'ſt vs flee before our foes,
and ſo were ouer-trod:

Our enemies rob'd and ſpoil'd our goods,
while we were ſperſt abroad.

11 Thou haſt vs given to our foes
as ſheepe for to be ſlaine:

Among the heathen euery where ſcattered we doe remaine.

12 Thy people thou haſt ſold like ſlaues,
and as a thing of nought:

For profit none thou haſt thereby,
no gaine at all was fought.

13 And to our neighbours thou haſt made of vs a laughing ſtocke:

And they that round about vs dwell,
at vs doe grin and mocke.

The ſecond part.

14 Thus we ſerue for none other uſe,
but for a common talke:

They mock, they ſcorn, they nod their heads,
where euer they goe or walke:

15 I am aſham'd continually, to heare theſe wicked men:

Yea, ſo I bluſh that all my face with red is couered then.

16 For why? we heare ſuch ſlandrous words, ſuch falſe reports and lies:

That death it is to ſee their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries,

17 For all this we forget not thee,
nor yet thy covenant breake:

18 We turne not backe our hearts from thee,
nor yet thy path ſortake.

19 Yet thou haſt trod vs downe to duſt, where dens of Dragons be:

And conered vs with ſhade of death and great aduerſitie.

20 If we had our Gods name forgot;
and helpe of Idols fought:

21 Would not God then haue tride this out for he doth know our thought.

22 Nay, nay, for thy names ſake O Lord, alwaies are we ſlaine thus:

As ſheepe vnto the ſhambles ſent, right ſo they deale with vs.

23 Vp Lord, why ſleepeſt thou & awake, and leaue vs not for all:

24 Why hideſt thou thy countenance, and doſt forget our thrall?

25 For downe to duſt our ſoule is brought,
and we now at laſt caſt:

Our belly like as it were glude, vnto the ground cleaues faſt.

26 Riſe vp therefore for our defence, and helpe vs Lord at neede:

We thee beſeech of thy goodneſſe, to reſcue vs with ſpeede.

Eruſtauit cor meum. Pſal. xlv. I.H.

Salomon his maiesty, honor, strength, beauty, riches and power are praised, his marriage with the Egyptian and beathen woman is bleſt, if that ſhe renounce her people and countrey, and giue her ſelfe wholly to her husband. Here is figured the wonderful maiesty and increaſe of Chriſts kingdome, and the Church his Spouſe, now taken of the Gentiles.

Sing this as the 25. Pſalme.

My heart doth take in hand
ſome godly ſong to ſing:
The praiſe that I ſhall ſhew therein pertaineth to the King.
My tongue ſhall be as quicke,
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any Scribe that vſeth faſt to write.

2 O faireſt of all men,
thy ſpeech is pleaſant pure:
For God hath bleſſed thee with gifts
for euer to endure.

3 About thee gird thy ſword,
O Prince of might elect:
With honour, glory, and renowne, thy perſon pure is deckt.

4 Go forth with godly ſpeede, in meekneſſe, truth, and right:
And thy right hand ſhall thee inſtruct in workes of dreadfull might.

5 Thine arrowes ſharpe and keene, their hearts ſo fore ſhall ſting:
That folke ſhall fall, and kneele to thee,
yea, all thy foes O King.

6 Thy royall ſeate O Lord, for euer ſhall remaine:
Be cauſe the ſcepter of thy Realme doth righteousness maintaine.

 7 Because thou louest the right and dost the ill detest:
 God euen thy God hath nointed thee,
 with ioy about the rest.
 8 With mirrhe and saoures sweet, thy clothes are all bespred:
 When thou dost from thy palace passe, therein to make thee glad, 9 Kings daughters doe attend,
 in fine and rich array:
 At thy right hand the Queene doth stand,
 in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

10 O daughter take good heed, encline and giue good eare;
 Thou must forget thy kindred all,
 and fathers house most deare:
 11 Then shall the King desire, thy i beauty faire and trim,
 For why? he is the Lord thy God,
 and thou must worship him.
 12 The daughters then of Tirc, with gifts full rich to see;
 And all the wealthy of the land, shall make thy suite to thee.
 13 The daughter of the King, is glorious to behold:
 Within her closet she doth sit,
 all deckt with beaten gold.
 14 In robes well wrought with needle,
 and many a pleasant thing:
 With Virgins faire on her to wait,
 she commeth to the King.
 15 Thus are they brought with ioy and mirth on euery side:
 Into the palace of the King,
 and there they doe abide.
 16 In stead of parents left,
 (O Queene thy chance so stands)
 Thou shalt haue sounes whom thou maist set,
 as Princes in all lands.
 17 Wherefore thy holy name,
 all ages shall record:
 Thy people shall giue thanks to thee,
 for euermore O Lord.

Deus nostrum. Psal. xlvj. I. H.

A song of thanksgiving for the deliuerance of Ierusalem, after Senacherib with his armie was driven away, or some other like sicardie & marneious deliuerance, by the mighty hand of God, whereby this Prophet commending this great benefit, doth exhort the faithfull to giue themselves wholly into the hands of God, doubting nothing but that vnder his protection, they shall be safe against all the assaults of their enemies.

T He Lord is our defence and aide, the strength whereby we stand: when we with woe are much dismayd, he is our helpe at hand. 2. Though th'earth remoue, we will not feare, though hills so high and sleepe, be thrust and hurled heare and there, within the sea so deepe.

3 No though the waues doe rage so fore, that all the bankes it spils:
 And though it overflow the shore,
 and beate downe mighty hills.
 4 For one faire flood doth send abroad,
 his pleasant streames apace:
 To fresh the Citie of our God,
 and wash his holy place.
 5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
 she can no whit decay:
 All things against her that rebell,
 the Lord will truely slay.
 6 The hearthen folke the kingdomes feare,
 the people make a noise:
 The earth doth melt and not appeare,
 when God puts forth his voice.
 7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
 to vs he hath an eie,
 Our hope of health with all our heart,
 on Iacobs God doth lie.
 8 Come neare and see with mind & thought the working of our God:
 What wonders he himselfe hath wrought,
 through all the earth abroad.
 9 By him all warres are hushd and gone, which countries did conspire,
 Their bowes he brake and speares each one,
 their Chariots burnt with fire:
 10 Leau off their force (saith he) and know
 I am a God most stout:
 Among the hearthen high and low,
 and all the earth throughout.
 11 The Lord of hosts doth vs defend,
 he is our strength and tower,
 On Iacobs God doe we depend,
 and on his might and power.

Omnes Gentes. Psal. xlvij. I. H.

An exhortation to worship God for his mercies towards Iacobs posterity. Herin is prophesied the kingdome of Christ in the time of the Gospall.

Sing this as the 46. Psalm.

YE people all with one accord,
 clap hands and cke reioyce:
 Be glad and sing vnto the Lord,
 with sweet and pleasant voice.
 2 For he the Lord and dreadfull is,
 with wonders manifold:
 A mighty King he is also,
 in all the earth extold.

2 The people he ſhall make to be,
 vnto our bondage thrall:
 And vnderneath our feet he ſhall,
 the nations make to fall.
 4 For vs the heritage he choſe, which we poſſeſſe alone:
 The flouriſhing worſhip of Iacob, his welbeloued one.
 6 Our God aſcendeth vp on hie, with ioy and pleaſant noiſe:
 The Lord goeth vp about the ſkie, with trumpets royall voice.
 8 Sing praifes to our God, ſing praife, ſing praifes to our King:
 7 For God is King of all the earth,
 all ſkilfull praifes ſing.
 9 God on the heathen raignes, and ſits
 vpon his holy throne:
 9 The Princes of the people haue, them ioyned every one,
 To Abrahams people, for our God which is exalted hie:
 As with a buckler doth defend,
 the earth continually.

Magnus Dom. Pſal. xlviii. I.H.

Thankes are giuen to God for the notable deli-uerance of Ieruſalem from the hands of many kings, the eſtate whereof is praized, for that God is preſent at all times to defend it: this Pſalme ſeemeth to be made in the time of Ahaſ, Iſa-phat, Aſa, or Ezechias, for then chiefly was the Citie by forraine Princes aſſaulted.

Sing this as the 46. Pſalme.

Great is the Lord, and with great praife,
 to be aduanced ſtill:
 Within the Citie of our God,
 vpon his holy hill.
 2 Mount Sion is a pleaſant place,
 it gladdeth all the land:
 The Citie of the mighty King,
 on her North ſide doth ſtand.
 3 Within the Pallaces thereof,
 God is a refuge knowne:
 For loe the Kings are gathered, and together eke are gone.
 4 But when they did behold it ſo, they wondred, and they were Aſtonied much, and ſodainly, were driuen backe with feare.
 5 Great terrors then on them doe fall,
 for very woe they crye:
 As doth a woman when ſhe ſhall, goe trauell by and by.
 6 As thou with Eaſterne winde the ſhips, vpon the ſea doſt breake:
 So they were ſtaid, and euen as we heard our fathers ſpeake.
 7 Loe in the Citie of our God,
 we ſaw as it was tould:
 Yea in the Citie which our God,
 for euer will vphold.
 8 O Lord we wait and doe attend, on thy good help and grace,
 For which we doe all times attend within thy holy place.

9 O Lord according to thy name, for euer is thy praife:
 And thy right hand O Lord is full of righteouſneſſe alwaies.
 10 Let for thy iudgement Sion mount, fulfilled be with ioyes:
 And eke of Iuda grant O Lord,
 the daughters to reioyce.
 11 Goe walke about all Sion hill,
 yea round about her goe:
 And tell the towers that thereupon are builded on a row.
 12 And marke ye well her bulwarks all,
 behold her towers there:
 That ye may tell thereof to them,
 that after ſhall be here.
 13 For this God is our God, our God for euermore is he:
 Yea and vnto the death alſo, our guider ſhall he be.

Audite hæc. Pſal. xlix. I.H.

*Gods ſpirit moueth the conſideration of mans life.
 ſhewing that the wealthie are not happieſt, but noteth how all things are ruled by Gods proudence, who as he iudgeth theſe worldly miſers to euerlaſting torment, ſo hee preſerueth hi, and will reward them in the day of reſurrection.*
 1 Theſ. i.

Sing this as the 46. Pſalme.

ALL people hearken and giue care,
 to that that I ſhall tell:
 2 Both high and low, both rich and poore,
 that in the world doe dwell.
 3 For why ſ my mouth ſhall make diſcourſe, of many things right wiſe:
 In vnderſtanding ſhall my heart,
 his studie exerciſe.
 4 I will encline mine eares to know,
 the parable ſo darke:
 And open all the doubtfull ſpeech,
 in metre on my harpe.
 5 Why ſhould I feare afflictions, or any carefull toiles:
 Or elſe my foes which at my heeles,
 are preſt my life to ſpoile:
 6 For as for ſuch as riches haue, wherein their truſt is moſt:
 And they which of their treaſures great,
 themſelues doe brag and boſt.
 7 There is not one of them that can,
 his brothers death redeeme:
 Or that can giue a price to God,
 ſufficient for him.
 8 It is too great a price to pay,
 none can thereto attaine, 9 Or that he might his life prolong,
 or not in graue remaine.
 10 They ſee wiſe men as well as fooles, ſubiect vnto deaths bands:
 And being dead, ſtrangers poſſeſſe their goods, their rents, their lands.
 11 Their care is to build houſes faire, and to determine ſure
 To make their name right great on earth,
 for euer to endure.
 12 Yea ſhall no man alwaies enioy, high honour, wealth, and reſt,

But shall at length taste of deaths cup,
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

13 And though they trie their foolishnesse to be most lewd and vaine:

Their children yet approue their talke,
and in like sinne remaine.

14 As sheepe into the fould are brought,
so shall they into graue:
Death shall them eate, and in that day,
the iust shall Lordship haue.

Their image and their royall port shall fade and quire decay:
When as from house to pit they passe with woe and well-away.

15 But God shall surely preferue me from death and endlesse paine:
Because he will of his good grace
my soule receiue againe.

16 If any man waxe wondrous rich, feare not I say therefore:

Although the glory of his house encreaseth more and more.

17 For when he dyeth, of all these things nothing shall he receiue:
His glory will not follow him,
his pompe will take her leaue.

18 Yet in this life he takes himselfe
the happiest vnder Sunne:
And others likewise flatter him,
and say all is well done.

19 And presuppose he liue as long as did his fathers old:
Yet must he needes at length giue place,
and be brought to deaths fould.

20 Thus man to honour God hath call'd, yet doth he not consider:
But like brute beasts so doth he liue, which turne to dust and powder.

Deus Deorum. Psal. L. W. W.

He prophesieth that God will call all nations by the Gospel, and require no other sacrifice of his people, but confession of his benefits, and thanksgiving; and how he detesteth all such as seeme zealous of ceremonies, and not of the pure word of God onely.

He mighty God th'eternall hath thus spoke, And all the world he wil call and prouoke, Euen from the East, and so forth to the West. 2. From toward Sion which place him liketh best: God will appeare in beauty most excellent. 3. Our God will come before that long time be spent.

Deuouring fire
shall goe before his face,

A great tempest shall round about him trace.

4 Then shall he call the earth and heauens bright, To iudge his folke
with equitie and right.

5 Saying, goe to,
and now my Saints assemblé:
My peace they keepe,
their gifts doe not dissemble.

6 The heauens shall declare his righteousness:

For God is iudge of all things more and lesse.

7 Heare my people,
for I will now reueale:

Lift Israell,
I will thee nought conceale;

Thy God, thy God am I, and will not blame thee,

8 For giuing not all manner offerings to me.

9 I haue no neede to take of thee at all Goats of thy fould, or Calfe out of thy stall:

10 For all the beasts are mine within the woods;

On thousand hills
Cartell are mine owne goods.

11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountaines:

All beasts are mine that haunt the fields and fountaines.

12 Hungry if I were
I would not thee it tell:

For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.

13 Eate I the flesh of great buls and bullocks:

Or drinke the bloud of Goates, and of the flockes:

14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving:

And pay thy vowes
vnto God euerliuing.

15 Call vpon me when troubled thou shalt be:

Then will I helpe,
and thou shalt honour me.

16 To the wicked
thus saith th'eternall God;

Why dost thou preach
my lawes and hefts abroad?

Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,

17 And hat'st to be by discipline reformed.

My words I say,
thou dost reiect and hate :

18 If that thou see a theefe, as with thy mate, Thou runn'st with him and so your prey doe seeke :

And are all one with bawds and ruffians eke.

19 Thou giu'st thy selfe to backbite and to slander, And how thy tongue
deceiueth it's a wonder.

20 Thou sitt'st musing
thy brother how to blame,
And how to put thy mother's sonne to shame.

21 These things thou distift, and whilst I held my tongue Thou distift me iudge, because I staid so long,

Like to thy selfe :
yet though I keepe long silence,
Once shalt thou feele of thy wrongs iust recompence.

22 Consider this ye that forget the Lord:
And feare not when he threatneth with his word;
Left without helpe
I spoyle you as a prey.

23 But he that thankes
ofterh, praiseth me aye, Saith the Lord God:
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
Gods sauing health to embrace.

Another of the same by J.H.

THe God of Gods, the Lord, hath call'd the earth by name :
From where the Sunne doth rise, vnto
the setting of the same.

2 From Sion his faire place, his glory bright and cleare :
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appeare.

3 Our God shall come in haste, to speake he shall not doubt :
Before him shall the fire waste, and tempest round about.

4 The heauens from on hie
the earth below likewise :
He will call forth to iudge and trie his folke he doth deuise.

5 Bring forth my Saints (saith he) my faithfull stocke so deare :
Which are in bond and league with me,
my Law to loue and feare.

6 And when these things are tride
the heauens shall record :
That God is iust, and all must bide
the iudgement of the Lord.

7 My people O giue heede,
Israel to thee I crie :
I am thy God, thy helpe at neede, thou canst it not denie.

8 I doe not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is slacke :
Thou offerest daily vnto me much more then I doe lacke.

9 Think'st thou that I doe neede thy cattell young or old ?
Or else desire so much to feede on Goates out of thy fold ?

10 Nay, all the beasts are mine,
in woods that eate their fils .
And thousands more of neate and kine that runne wilde on the hills.

The second part.

11 The birds that build on high in hills, and out of sight :
And beasts that in the fields doe lye, are subiect to my might.

12 Then though I hungred sore,
what neede I ought of thine :
Sich that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine ?

13 To buls flesh haue I minde, to eate it, dost thou thinke ?
Or such a sweetnesse doe I finde
the bloud of Goates to drinke ?

14 Giue to the Lord his praise, with thanks to him apply :
And see thou pay thy vowes alwayes
vnto the God most hie.

15 Then seeke and call to me, when ought would worke thee blame :
And I will sure deliuer thee, that thou maist praise my name.

16 But to the wicked traine, which talke of God each day :
And yet their workes are foule and vaine,
to them the Lord will say ;

17 With what a face dar'st thou my word once speake or name ?
Why doth thy talke my Law allow ?
thy deedes denie the same.

18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art so slacke :
My word the which thou dost pretend,
is cast behinde thy backe.

The third part.

19 When thou a theefe dost see by theft to liue in wealth :
With him thou runst, and dost agree likewise to thriue by stealth.

20 When thou dost them behold, that wiles and maids defile :
Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold, to leade that life most vile.

21 Thy lips thou dost apply to slander and defame :
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lye, and still doth vse the same.

32 Thou studi'st to requite, thy friends to thee to requite,
With slander thou would'st needs defile,
thy mothers sonne most deere,

33 Hereat while I doe winke, as though I did not see:
Thou goest on still, and so dost thinke,
that I am like to thee:

34 But sure I will not let,
to strike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sinne.

35 Marke this I yon require, that haue not God in minde:
Left when I plague you in mine ire,
your helpe be farre to finde, 36 He that doth giue to me,
the sacrifice of praise Doth please me well, and he shall see,
to walke in godly waies.

Miserere mei. Psal. LJ. W.W.

David was smitten by the prophet Nathan for his great offences, and acknowledged the same to God, protesting his naturall corruption, wherefore he prayeth God to forgive his sin, and renew in him his holy spirit promising that hee will not be without full of those great graces. Finally, fearing least God would punish the whole Church for his fault, he requesteth that he would rather increase his grace to others the same.

Lord consider my distresse and now with speed some pittie take, My sins deface, my faults redresse, good Lord for thy great mercies sake. 1. Wash mee O Lord, and make me cleane, from this vniust & shauall act, and purifie yet once againe my hainous crime and bloody fact.

3 Remorse and sorrow doth constraîne, me to acknowledge mine excess:
My sinnes alas doe still remaine, before my face without release.

4 For thee alone I haue offended, committing euill in thy sight,

And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy iudgements iust and right.

5 It is too manifest alas, that first I was conceived in sinne:
Yea of mother so borne was,
and yet vile wretch remaine therein.

6 Also behold Lord thou dost loue,
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wicked doing from aboute, thou hast reueal'd me to conuert.

7 If thou with soap purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glasse,
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whiteesse shall I passe.

8 Therefore O Lord I beseech thee send,
that inwardly I may finde grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swag'd for my trespass.

9 Turne backe thy face and frowning ire,
for I haue felt enough thy hand:
And purge my finnes I thee desire,
which doe in number passe the sand.

10 Make new my heart within my brest, and I amcit to thy holy will:
Thy constant spirit in me let rest, which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirit and grace, which may from dangers me defend.

12 Restore me to those ioyes againe, which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirit retaine, which vnto thee may firme my minde.

13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall sie sinne.
14 O God that of my health art Lord, forgiue me this my bloodie vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord,
to sing thy mercies and iustice.

15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue vntie,
O Lord which art the onely key:
And then my mouth shall testifie,
thy wondrous works and praise alway.
16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would haue offered many one:
But thou esteemest them of no price,
and therein pleasure takest none.

17 The heauie heart, the minde oppress,
O Lord thou neuer dost reioice:
And to speake truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice the effect.
18 Lord vnto Sion turne thy face, powre out thy mercy on thy hill,
And on Ierusalem thy grace, build vp the walls and loue it fill.

19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings, of peace and righteousness I say:
Yea calues and many other things,
vpon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same by T.S.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

- HAue mercy on me God after,
thy great abundant grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
doe thou my finnes deface.
- 2 Yea, wash me more from mine offence, and cleanse me from my sinne,
For I doe know my faults, and still my finnes are in mine eyne.
- 3 Against thee, thee alone I haue offended in this case:
And euill haue I done before the presence of thy face.
- 4 That in the things that thou dost say,
vpright thou maist be tride:
And eke in iudgement that the doome
may passe vpon thy side.
- 5 Behold in wickednesse my kinde,
and shape I did receiue:
And loe my sinfull mother eke,
in sinne did me conceiue.
- 6 But loe the truth in inward parts,
is pleasant vnto thee:
And secrets of thy wisdom thou,
reuealed hast to me.
- 7 With Ilope Lord besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so:
Yea, wash thou me, and so shall I,
be whiter than the snow.
- 8 Of ioy and gladnesse make thou me,
to heare the pleasant voyce:
That to the bruised bone, which thou hast broken may reioyce.
- 9 From the beholding of my finnes,
Lord turne away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickednesse, doe vtterly deface.
- 10 O God create in me a heart, vnspotted in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels Lord,
renue a stabled sprite.
- 11 Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take thy holy spirit away:
The comforts of thy sauing helpe, giue me againe I pray.
- 12 With thy free spirit establish me, and I will teach therefore Sinners thy waies, and wicked shall, be turn'd vnto thy lore.

The second part.

- 13 O God that art my God of health,
from bloud deliuer me:
That praises of thy righteousness,
my tongue may sing to thee.
- 14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
doe thou O Lord vnloose:
The praises of thy maiestie,
my mouth shall so disclose.
- 15 I would haue offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt offerings,
I know thou wilt not be:
- 16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice,
delightfull in Gods eyes.

A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilt not despise.

- 17 In thy good will deale gently Lord,
to Sion, and withall: Graunt that of thy Ierusalem, vpreard may be the wall.
- 18 Burnt offerings, gifts, and sacrifice, of iustice in that day:
Thou shalt accept, and Calues they shall vpon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris? Psal. Lij. I.H.

David describeth the arrogant tyrannie of Daeg Sauls chiefe shepheard, who by falsi surmises caused Abimelech and the Priests to be slaine, hee propheseth his destruction, encourageth the faithfull to trust in God, who must sharply reuengeth him, and vndereth thanks for his deliue-rance. Herein is liuely set forth the kingdome of Antichrist.

Hy dost thou tyrant boast abroad thy wicked works to praise: Dost thou not know there is a God, whose mercies last alwaies: 2. Why doth thy minde yet still de-uise such wicked wiles to warp: Thy tongue

vntrue in forging lies, is like a rasor sharpe.

- 3 On mischief why settst thou thy minde,
and wilt not walke vpright:
Thou hast more lust false tales to finde,
then bring the truth to light.
- 4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief, blood and wrong:
Thy lips haue learn'd the flattering stile,
O false deceitfull tongue.

- 5 Therefore shall God for euer confound and plucke thee from thy place:
Thy seed root out from off the ground,
and so shall thee deface.
- 6 The iust when they behold thy fall,
with feare will praise the Lord,
And in reproach of thee withall,
cry out with one accord,

- 7 Behold the man that would not take,
the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his God did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.
- 8 But I an Ollue fresh and Greene, will spring and spread abroad:

For why I my trust all times hath beene
vpon the liuing God.

For this therefore will I giue praise, to thee with heart and voyce :
I will set forth thy name alwaies, wherein thy Saints reioyce.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. Lijj. T.S.

Dauid describeth the crooked nature, cruelty and punishment of the wicked, when they looke not for it, and desireth the deliuerance of the godly, that they may reioyce together.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

The foolish man in that which he,
within his heart hath said,
That there is any God at all,
hath vtterly denaid.

They are corrupt, and they also,
a haynous worke haue wrought :
Among them all there is not one,
of good that worketh ought.

The Lord lookt downe on sons of men,
from heauen all abroad,
To see if any were that would be wise, and seeke for God.

They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all :
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

Doe not all wicked workers know, that they doe feed vpon,
My people as they feed on bread,
the Lord they call not on.

Enen there they were afraid, and stood,
with trembling all dismayd :
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

For God his bones, that thee besieg'd, hath scattered all abroad :
Thou hast confounded them, for they reioiced are of God.

O Lord giue thou thy people health, and thou O Lord fulfill :
Thy promise made to Isracell,
from out of Sion hill.

When God his people shall restore,
that east was captiue lad.
Then Iacob shall therein reioyce,
and Isracell shall be glad.

Deus in nomine. Psal. Liiij. I.H.

Dauid in great danger through Ziphians, calleth vpon God to destroy his enemies, promising sacrifice for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

God saue me for thy holy name,
and for thy goodnesse sake :
Vnto the strength Lord of the same,
I doe my cause betake.

Regard O Lord, and giue an care to me when I doe pray, Bow downe thy selfe to me and heare,
the words that I doe say.

For strangers vp against me rise, and tyrants vex me still,

Which haue not God before their eies,
they seeke my soule to spill.

But loe, my God doth giue me aide,
the Lord is straight at hand :
With them by whom my soule is staid,
the Lord doth euer stand.

With plagues repay againe all those,
for me that lie in waite :

And in thy truth destroy my foes,
with their owne snare and baite.

An offering of free heart and will,
then I to thee shall make :
And praise thy name, for therein still great comfort I doe take.

O Lord at length doe set me free,
from them that craft conspire :
And now mine eies with ioy doe see,
on them my hearts desire.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lv. I.H.

Dauid in great distresse, complaineth of Sauts cruelty, and falshood of his familiar acquaintance, effectually mouing the Lord to pity him. Then assured of deliuerance, he setteth forth the grace of God, as if he had already obtained his request.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

O God giue care, and doe apply,
to heare me when I pray :
And when to thee I call and cry, hide not thy face away.

Take heed to me, graunt my request,
and answer me againe :
With plaints I pray, full sore oppress, great griefe doth me constraîne.

Because my foes with threats and cries,
oppresse me through despight :
And so the wicked fort likewise,
to vex me haue delight.

For they in counsell doe conspire, to charge me with some ill :
So with their hasty wrath and ire,
they doe pursue me still.

My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my brest :
The terrors and the dread of Death,
doth worke me much vnrest.

Such dreadfull feare on me doth fall,
that I therewith doe quake :
Such horror whelmeth me withall, that I no shift can make.

But I doe say, who will giue me
the swift and pleasant wings,
Of some faire doue that I may flie,
and rest me from these things :

Loe then I would goe farre away,
to flie I would not cease :
And I would hide my selfe and stay,
in some great wildernesse.

I would be gone in all the hast,
and not abide behinde :

That I were quite and ouerpast, these blasts of boisterous winde.

Deuide them Lord, and from them pull,
their diuclish double tongue :
For I haue spide their Citie full,
of rapine, strife and wrong.

11 Which things both night & day through-did close her as a wall; (out In midst of her is mischief stout, and sorrow eke withall.
12 Her priuie parts are wicked plaine, her deeds are much too vile:
And in her streets there doth remaine,
all craftie fraud and guile.

The second part.

13 If that my foes did seeke my shame,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies check and blame,
some where I could me hide:
14 But thou it was my fellow deare, which friendship didst pretend:
And didst my secret counsell heare,
as my familiar friend.
15 With whom I had delight to talke,
in secret and abroad:
And we together oft did walke,
within the house of God.
16 Let death in hast vpon them fall,
and send them quick to hell:
Formischiefie raigneth in their hall,
and parlour where they dwell.
17 But I vnto my God doe crie, to him for helpe I flee:
The Lord doth heare me by and by,
and he doth succour me.
18 At morning, noone, and euening tide,
vnto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly haue cride,
he doth not say me nay.
19 To peace he shall restore me yet, though warres be neere at hand:
Although the number be full great,
that would against me stand.
20 The Lord that first and last doth raigne,
both now and euermore.
Will heare when I to him complaine, and punish them full fore.
21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turne will once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor doe not feare the Lord.
22 Vpon their friends they laid their hands, which were in couenant knit:
Of friendship to neglect the bands,
they passe or care no whit.
23 While they haue war within their hearts,
as butter are their words:
Although their words were smooth as oile,
they cut as sharpe as swords.
24 Cast thou thy care vpon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee:
For in no wise will he accord,
the iust in thrall to see.
25 But God shall cast them deepe in pit, that thirst for blood alwaies:
He will no guilefull man permit,
to liue out halfe his daies.
26 Though such be quite destroy'd and gone,
in thee O Lord I trust:
I shall depend thy grace vpon, with all my heart and lust.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lvi. I. H.

David being brought to Achish the King of Gath, 1 Sam. 21. 12. complaineth of his enemies, de-mandeth succour, trusteth in God, and promisseth to performe his vow, which was to praise God in his Church.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAue mercy Lord on me I pray,
for man would me deuoure:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each houre.
2 Mine enemies dayly enterprife, to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.
3 When they would make me most afraid with boasts and brags of pride:
I trust in thee alone for aide,
by thee will I abide:
4 Gods promise I doe minde and praise,
O Lord I stick to thee:
I doe not care at all assaies,
what man can doe to me.
5 What things I either did or spake, they wrest them at their will:
And all the counsell that they take,
is how to worke me ill.
6 They all consent themselues to hide, close watch for me to lay:
They spie my paches, and snares haue laid,
to take my life away.
7 Shall they thus scape on mischief set thou God on them wilt frowne:
For in his wrath he doth not let,
to throw whole kingdoms downe.
8 Thou seest how oft they make me see,
and on my teares dost looke:
Reserue them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy booke.
9 When I doe call vpon thy name,
my foes away doe start:
I well perceiue it by the same,
that God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:
With ioy I will declare abroad,
the promise of the Lord.
11 I trust in God and yet I say,
as I before began:
The Lord he is my helpe and stay,
I doe not care for man.
12 I will performe with heart so free,
to God my vowes alwaies:
And I (O Lord) all times to thee, will offer thanks and praise.
13 My soule from death thou dost defend,
and keepst my feet vpright:
That I before thee may ascend, with such as liue in light.

Miserere mei. Psal. Lviij. I. H.

David in the desert of Ziph, betrayed by the inhabitants, and in the same came with Saul, calleth so God, with full confidence that hee will per-forme his promise, and shew his glory in heauen, and in earth, against his cruell enemies, therefore he reuendeth land and praise.

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

Take pity for thy promise sake,
haue mercy Lord on mee:
For why i my soule doth her betake
vnto the helpe of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy wings
I let my selfe full fast:
Till mischiefe, malice, and like things,
be gone and oerpast.
3 I call vpon the God most high,
to whom I sticke and stand:
I meane the God that will stand by the cause I haue in hand.
4 From heauen he hath sent his aide, to saue me from their spite:
That to deuoure me haue assaid,
his mercie, truth, and right.
5 I lead my life with Lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell, that set like flames of fire.
6 Their teeth are speeres and arrowes long,
as sharpe as I haue seene:
They wound and cut with their quick tongue like swords and weapons keene.
7 Set vp and shew thy selfe O God,
aboue the heauens bright:
Exalt thy praise in earth abroad,
thy maiestie and might.
8 They lay their nets, and doe prepare a priuie caue and pit:
Wherein they thinke my soule to snare,
but they are fallen in it.
9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to ioy alwayes:
My heart I say doth well accord to sing his laud and praise.
10 Awake my ioy, awake I say,
my lute, my harpe, and string:
For I my selfe before the day will rise, reioyce, and sing.
11 Among the people I will tell the goodnesse of my God:
And shew his praise that doth excell,
in heathen lands abroad.
12 His mercie doth extend as farre
as heauens all are hie:
His truth as high as any starre, that shineth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy selfe O God,
aboue the heauens bright:
Extoll thy praise on earth abroad,
thy maiestie and might.

Si vere vique. Psal. Lviij. I.H.

Hee describeth his malicious enemies, Sauls flatterers, who secretly and openly sought his destruction, from whom he appealed to Gods iudgment, shewing that the iust shall reioyce at the punishment of the wicked, to Gods glory.

Sing this as the 48. Psalme.

Ye rulers which are put in trust to iudge of wrong and right:
Be all your iudgements true and iust, not knowing neede or might:
2 Nay, in your hearts ye marke and muse in mischiefe to consent.

And where ye should true iustice vse, your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked sort from their birth-day
haue erred on this wise:
And from their mothers wombe alway
haue vsed craft and lies.

4 In them the poyson and the breath of Serpents doe appeare:
Yea, like the Adder that is deafe and fast doth stop her eare,

5 Because she will not heare the voyce of one that channeth well:
No though he were the chiefe of choise,
and did therein excell.
6 O God breake thou their teeth at once, within their mouthes throughout:
The tuskes that in their great chaw-bones,
like Lions whelpes hang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as water runs soorth right:
The shafts that they doe shoot in hast,
let them be broke in sight:

8 As Snailles doe waste within the shell, and vnto slime doe turne:
As one before his time that fell,
and neuer saw the Sunne.

9 Before the thornes that now are young to bushes big shall grow:
The stormes of anger waxing strong,
shall take them ere they know.

10 The iust shall ioy, it doth them good that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in blood of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth and tell that good men haue reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell, that iustice doth regard.

Eripe me. Psal. Lix. I.H.

David in great danger of Saul, who sent to slay him in his bed, declareth his innocencie, and their fury, praying God to destroy all malicious sinners, who live for a time to vex his people: but in the end consume in his wrath, to Gods glory. For this he singeth praise to God, assured of his mercies.

S Endaide and saue mee from my foes, O Lord I pray to thee: Defend and keepe me from all these, that rise and strue with mee. 2. O Lord preferue me from those men, whose doings are not good: And for me sure and safe from them that still thirst after blood.

3 For loe they waite my soule to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea, for no fault that I did make:

I neuer did them ill.

4 They runne, and doe themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise, and saue me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hostes of Israel arise and strike all lands:

And pittie none that doe rebell,
and in their mischiefe stands.

6 At night they stirre and seeke about,
as hounds they howle and grin:
And all the Citie cleane throughout,
from place to place they runne.

7 They speake of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are swords:
They greed my death, and then would say, what? none doth heare our words.

8 But Lord thou hast their wayes espyde, and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folke thou shalt deride,
and mocke them to their face.

9 The strength that doth my foes withstand,
O Lord doth come of thee:
My God he is my helpe at hand,
a fort of fence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case such as my heart doth will.

The second parte.

11 Destroy them not at once O God, lest it from minde doe fall:
But with thy strength driue them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill words & truthlesse tongues, confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths, with lyes and wrong,
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath O Lord, that nought of them remaine:
That men may know throughout the world that Iacobs God doth raigne.

14 At cussing they returne apace,
as dogs they grin and crie:
Throughout the streetes in euery place,
they runne about and spie.

15 They seeke about for meate I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 For I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnesse I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God,
at neede in all assaies.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me staid,
O Lord I sing to thee:
Thou art my fort, my fence, and aid,
a louing God to mee.

Deus repulisti Psal. Lx. I. H.

Dauid now king ouer Iudah, after many victories, sheweth by euident signes, that God elected him King, assuring the people, that God will prosper them if they approve the same. After he prayeth vnto God to finish that he had begun.

Sing this as the 59. Psalme.

O Lord, thou didst vs cleane forsake, and scatter'd it vs abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take:
returne to vs O God.

2 Thy might did moue the land so sore,
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereof O Lord restore;
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heauy chance thou plaguest thus the people that are thine:
And thou hast giuen vnto vs
a drinke of deadly wine.

4 But yet to such as feare thy name
a token shall ensue:
That they might triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keepe and saue thy folke that fauour thee:
That they thy helpe at hand may haue,
O Lord grant this to mee.

6 The Lord did speake from his owne place,
this was his ioyfull tale:
I will diuide Sichein by pace,
and mete out Succoth vale.

7 Gilead is giuen to my hand,
Manasses mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my Law doth Iuda guide.

8 In Moab I will wash my feete, ouer Edom throw my shooe:
And thou Palestine ought'st to seeke,
for fauour me vnto.

9 But who will bring me at this tide,
vnto the Citie strong:
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I goe not wrong.

10 Wilt thou O God which didst forsake, thy flocke, their land and coasts:
Our warres in hand thou wouldest not take,
nor walke among our hostes.

11 Giue aide O Lord, and vs relieue, from them that vs disdaine:
The helpe that hostes of men can giue,
it is but all in vaine.

12 But through our God we shall haue might to take great things in hand:
He will tread downe, and put to flight all those that vs withstand.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lxj. I. H.

Whether hee were in danger of the Ammonites, or pursued of Absolon, here hee cryeth to be deliuered, and confirmed with his kingdome, promising perpetuall praises.

Sing

Sing this as the 59. Psalme.

Regard O Lord, for I complaine, and make my suit to thee,
Let not my words returne in vaine,
but giue an eare to me.
From off the coasts and vtmost parts,
of all the earth abroad
In griefe and anguish of my heart,
I crie to thee O God.

Vpon the rock of thy great power,
my wofull minde repose:
Thou art my hope, my fort, and tower,
my fence against my foes.
For euen thy tents I lust to dwell,
for euer to endure:
Vnder thy wings I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.

The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:
With goodly gifts doth he reward,
all them that feare his name.
The king shall he in health maintaine,
and so prolong his daies:
That he from age to age shall raigne,
for euermore alwaies.

That he may haue a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye:
O let thy mercy, trueth, and grace, defend him from decay.
Then shall I sing for euer still,
with praise vnto thy name:
That all my vowes I may fulfill,
and dayly pay the same.

Nonne Deo. Psal. Lxij. I.H.

Dauid declareth by his example and the nature of God, that he and all people must trust in God alone, seeing that al without God goes to naught, who only is of power to saue, and that he rewar-deth man according to his workes.

Sing this as the 59. Psalme.

My soule to God shall giue good heed,
and him alone attend:
For why? my health and hope to speed,
doth whole on him depend.
For he alone is my defence,
my rocke, my health and aide:
He is my stay, that no pretence, shall make me much dismayd.
O wicked folke how long will ye use craft? sure you must fall,
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
Whom God doth loue, ye seeke alwaies,
to put him to the worse,
Ye loue to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth ourse.
Yet still my soule doth whole depend,
on God my chiefe desire:
From all ill feates me to defend,
none but him I require.
He is my rocke, my strength and tower,
my health is of his grace:
He doth support me, that no power can moue me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my soules desire and lust:
My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is mine onely trust.
8 Oh haue your hope in him alway,
ye folke with one accord:
Powre out your hearts to him and say,
our trust is in the Lord.
9 The sonnes of men deceitfull are,
on ballance but a slight;
With things most vile doe them compare,
for they can keepe no weight.
10 Trust not in wrong, robbery or stealth,
let vaine delights be gone:
Though goods well got flow in with wealth,
set not your hearts thereon.
11 The Lord long sith one thing did tell, which here to minde I call;
He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.
12 And that thou Lord art good and kinde, thy mercy doth exceed:
So that all sorts with thee shall finde,
according to their meed.

Deus Deus meus. Psal. Lxij. I.H.

Dauid after his danger of Ziph, giueth God thanks for his wonderfull deliuerance, in whose mercies hee trusteth euen in the midst of misery, prophesying the destruction of Gods enemies, and contrariwise happinesse to all them that trust in the Lord. 1 Sam. 3.

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

O God my God I watch betime, to come to thee in hast:
For why? my soule and body both,
doe thirst of thee to tast.
2 And in this barren wildernesse, where waters there are none:
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.
3 That I might see yet once againe, thy glory, strength and might,
As I was wont it to behold, within thy temple bright.
4 For why? thy mercies farre surmount,
this life and wretched daies:
My lips therefore shall giue to thee,
due honour, laud and praise.
5 And whilst I liue I will not faile, to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift vp,
my hands when I doe pray.
6 My soule is fill'd as with marrow, which is both fat and sweet,
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs,
as are for thee most meet.
7 When as in bed I think on thee, and eke all the night tide:
For vnder couert of thy wings,
thou art my ioyfull guide.
8 My soule doth surely sticke to thee,
thy right hand is my power, 9 And those that seeke my life to stroy, them death shall soone deuoure.

- 10 The sword shall them deuoure each one,
their carcases shall feede
The hungry foxes which doe runne, their prey to seeke at need.
11 The King and all men shall reioyce, that doe professe Gods word:
For liars mouthes shall then be stoppt, which haue the truth disturbd.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lxiiij. I. H.

Dauid prayeth against the false reporters and slanderers, hee declareth their punishment and destruction, to the comfort of the iust, and the glory of God.

Sing this as the 18. Psalme.

- O Lord vnto my voice giue care,
with plaints when I doe pray:
And rid my life and soule from dread, off foes that threat to slay.
2 Defend me from that sort of men, which in deceits doe lurke:
And from the frowning face of them,
that all ill seates doe worke.
3 Who whet their tongues as we haue seene men whet and sharpe their swords:
They shoot abroad their arrowes keene,
I imagine most bitter words.
4 With priuie sleights shoot they their shafts
the vpright man to hit:
The iust vniware to hit by craft,
they care or feare no whit.
5 A wicked worke they haue decreed, in counsell thus they erie:
To vse deceit let vs not dread,
what? who can it espie?
6 What waies to hurt they talke and muse,
all times within their heart:
They all consult what feare to vse,
each doth inuent his part.
7 But yet all this shall not auail,
when they thinke least vpon:
God with his dart shall sure assault,
and wound them euery one.
8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withall, shall worke themselues such blame:
That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.
9 Then all that see shall know right well,
that God the thing hath wrought:
And praise his wittie workes, and tell what he to passe hath brought.
10 Yet shall the iust in God reioyce, still trusting in his might:
So shall they ioy with minde and voice, whose heart is pure and right.

Te dect hymnus. Psal. Lxv. I. H.

A thanksgiving vnto God by the faithfull, who are signified by Sion and Ierusalem, for the chusing, preservation, and gouernance of them, and for the plentifull blessings poured forth vpon all the earth.

Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

- Thy praise alone (O Lord) doth raigne,
in Sion thine owne hill.
Their vowes to thee they doe maintaine, and their benefitts fullfill.
2 For that thou dost their prayers heare, and dost thereto agree.

Thy people all both farre and neere, with trust shall come to thee.

- 3 Our wicked life so farre exceeds,
that we should fall therein:
But Lord forgie our great misdeeds, and purge vs from our sinne.
4 The man is blest whom thou dost chuse, within thy courts to dwell:
Thy house and temple he shall vse, with pleasures that excell.
5 Of thy great iustice heare vs God,
our health of thee doth rise:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coasts likewise.
6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compait with thy power:
Thou mak'st the Mountaines strong & stout,
to stand in euery shower.
7 The swelling seas thou dost assuage, and make their streames full still:
Thou dost retrain the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.
8 The folke that dwell full farre on earth, shall dread thy signes to see:
Which morne and euening in great mirth,
doe passe with praise to thee.
9 When that the earth is chopt and dry, and thirsteth more and more:
Then with thy drops thou dost apply,
and much increase her store.
The flood of God doth ouerflow, and so doth cause to spring:
The seed and corne which men doe sow,
for he doth guide the thing.
10 With wet thou dost her furrowes fill, whereby her clods doe fall:
Thy drops on her thou dost distill, and blesse her fruit withall.
12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good grace, with faire and pleasant crop:
Thy clouds distill their dew apace, great plenty they doe drop.
12 Whereby the desert shall begin, full great increase to bring:
The little hills shall ioy therein, much fruit in them shall spring.
13 In places plaine the flocks shall feed,
and couer all the earth:
The vales with corne shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

Iubilare Deo. Psal. Lxvj. I. H.

Hee exhorteth to praise the Lord in his wonderfull works, hee sets forth the power of God to affray rebels, and sheweth Gods mercy to Israel, to awake all men to heare and praise his name.

Sing this as the 18. Psalme.

- YE men on earth in God reioyce, with praise set forth his name:
2 Extoll his might with heart and voice,
giue glory to the same.
3 How wonderfull (O Lord) say ye,
in all thy workes thou art:
Thy foes for feare doe seeke to thee,
full fore against their heart.
4 All men that dwell the earth throughout,
doe praise the name of God,

The laud thereof the world about is shew'd and set abroad:
5 All folke come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought: Marke well the wondrous workes that he for man to passe hath brought.

6 He laid the sea like heapes on hie, therein a way they had:
On foot to passe both faire and drie, whereof their hearts were glad.

7 His might doth rule the world alway, his eyes all things behold:

And such as would him disobey, by him shall be controul'd.

8 Ye people give vnto our God due laud and thanks alwaies:

With ioyfull voyce declare abroad,
and sing vnto him praise.

9 Which doth endue our soules with life,
and it preferue withall:

He stablisheth our feet, so that no strife can make vs slip or fall.

10 The Lord doth proue our deeds with fire,
if that they will abide:

As workemen doe when they desire to haue their mettals tride.

11 Although thou suffer vs so long in prison to be call:

And there with chaines and fetters strong to lye in bondage fast.

The second part.

12 Although I say thou suffer men on vs to ride and raigne:

Though we through fire and water runne of very griefe and paine.

Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace dispose it to the best:

And bringst vs out into a place to liue in wealth and rest.

13 Vnto thy house resort I will,
to offer and to pray:

And there I will my selfe apply
my vowes to thee to pay.

14 The vowes that with my mouth I spake
in all my griefe and smart:

The vowes I say which I did make in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt offerings I will giue to thee of Oxen fat and Rams:

None other sacrifice shall be,
of Bullockes, Goates and Lambs.

16 Come forth and harken here full soone,
all yee that feare the Lord:

What he for my poore soule hath done,
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call vpon his grace,
this mouth to him doth crie:
And thou my tongue make speede apace,
to praise him by and by.

18 But if I feele my heart within,
in wicked workes reioyce:

Or if I haue delight to sinne
God will not heare my voice.

19 But surely God my voice hath heard, and what I doe require:

My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.

20 All praise to him that hath not put,
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me shut, which I did euer finde.

Deus miscreator. Psal. Lxvij. I. H.

A sweet prayer for all the faithfull to obtaine the fauour of God, and to be lightned with his con-sentance, to the end that his wayes & iudgements may be knowne throughout the earth: a reioycing that God is the gouernour of all nations.

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

HAVE mercy on vs Lord,
and grant to vs thy grace:

To shew to vs doe thou accord
the brightnesse of thy face.

2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:

And all the nations on a row may see thy saning health.

3 Let all the world O God,
giue praise vnto thy name:

O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.

4 Throughout the world so wide,
let all reioyce with mirth:

For thou with truth and right dost guide the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world O God,
giue praise vnto thy name:

O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.

6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall:

And then our God the God of peace, shall blesse vs eke withall.

7 God shall vs blesse I say,
and then both farre and neere,

The folke throughout the earth alway, of him shall stand in feare.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. Lxvij. T. S.

*David expresth the wonderfull mercies of God towards his people, who by all meanes and most strange sort, declareth himselfe vnto them. Gods Church therefore by reason of his promiss, grace and victories, doth excell all verdy things:
wherefore all men are moued to praise God for euer.*

- 3 But righteous men before the Lord,
shall heartily reioyce :
They shall be glad, and merrie all,
and chearefull in their voice.
- 4 Sing praise, sing praise vnto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie :
Extoll the name of Iah our God, and him doe magnifie.
- 5 The same is he that is aboue
within his holy place :
That father is of fatherlesse, and iudge of widowes case.
- 6 Houses he giues, and issue both,
vnto the comfortlesse .
He bringeth bond-men out of thrall, and rebels to distresse.
- 7 When thou didst march before thy folke, the Egyptians from among :
And brought'st them through the wilderness, which was both wide and long.
- 8 The earth did quake, the rain pour'd down, heard were great claps of thunder :
The mount Sinai shooke in such sort,
as it would cleaue in sunder.
- 9 Thine heritage with drops of raine abundantly was washt :
And ifso be it barren wakt,
by thee it was refresht.
- 10 Thy chosen flocke doth there remaine, thou hast prepar'd that place :
And for the poore thou dost prouide of thine especiall grace.

The second part.

- 11 God will giue women causes iust to magnifie his name :
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase brute and fame.
- 12 And puissant Kings for all their power, shall flie, and take the foile :
And women which remaine at home,
shall helpe to part the spoile.
- 13 And though ye were as blacke as pots,
your hew shall passe the Doue : Whose wings and feathers seeme to haue silver and gold aboue.
- 14 When in this land God shall triumph
ouer Kings both hie and low :
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.
- 15 Though Basan be a fruitfull hill, and in height others passe :
Yet Sion Gods most holy hill doth farre excell in grace.
- 16 Why brag ye thus, ye hils most hie, and leape for pride together :
The hill of Sion God doth loue, and there will dwell for euer.
- 17 Gods armie is two millions of warriours good and strong :

- The Lord also in Sinai is present them among.
18 Thou didst O Lord ascend on high,
and captiue led them all,
Which in time past thy chosen flocke
in prison kept and thrall.
- Thou mad'st them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine,
Thou didst subdue that they might dwell in thy temple diuine.
- 19 Now praised be the Lord, for that he poures on vs such grace :
From day to day he is the God of our health and solace.

The third part.

- 20 He is the God from whom alone,
saluation commeth plaine :
He is the God, by whom I scape all dangers, death, and paine.
- 21 Thus God will wound his enemies head, and breake the hayrie scalpe
Of those that in their wickednesse continually doe walke.
- 22 From Basan will I bring said he my people and my sheepe :
And all mine owne, as I haue done from danger of the deepe.
- 23 And make them dip their feet in blood of those that hate thy name :
And dogs shall haue their tongues imbrued with licking of the same.
- 24 All men haue scene how thou O God, thine enemies dost desace :
And how thou goest as God and King,
into thine holy place :
- 25 The fingers goe before with ioy, the minstrels follow after :
And in the midst the damfels play,
with timbrell and with taber.
- 26 Now in the congregation,
(O Israel) praise the Lord :
And Jacobs whole posteritie, giue thanks with one accord.
- 27 Their chiefe was little Benjamin,
but Iuda made their boast :
With Zabulon and Neptalim, which dwell about their coast.
- 28 As God hath giuen power to thee,
so Lord make firme and sure
The thing that thou hast wrought in vs,
for euer to endure.
- 29 And in thy temple gifts will wee giue vnto thee O Lord :
For thine vnto Ierusalem, sure promise made by word.

The fourth part.

- Yea, and strange Kings to vs subdued, shall doe like in those dayes :
I meane to thee they shall present their gifts of laud and praise.
- 30 He shall destroy the speare-mens rancks, their calues and buls of might :
And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as loue to fight.
- 31 Then shall the Lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring :

The Moores most blacke shall stretch their vnto their Lord and King. (hands)

33 Therefore ye kingdomes of the earth
giue praise vnto the Lord :

Sing Psalmes to God with one consert, thereto let all accord.

34 Who though he ride, and euer hath,
about the heauens bright :

Yet by the fearefull thunder claps men may well know his might.

35 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascriber to God on hie :

Whose might and power doth faire extend about the cloudy skie.

36 O God thy holinesse and power is dread for euermore :

The God of Israel giues vs strength, praised be God therefore.

Saluum me fac. Psal. Lix. I. H.

Christ and his elect are figured in Davids zeale & anguish, the malicious cruelty of whose enemies and their punishment, Iudas and such traitors noteth, who are accused : then gathereth hee courage in afflictions, and offereth prayes to God, which are more acceptable then all sacrifices. Finally, he doth promke all creatures to praises, prophesying of the kingdome of Christ and building of Iuda, where all the faithfull and their seede shall dwell for euer.

S Aue me O God, and that with speed, the waters flow full fast. So nigh my soule doe they proceed, that I am sore agast. I sticke full deepe in filth and clay, whereas I feele

no ground : I fall into such fouds I say, that I am like be drown'd.

3 With crying oft I faint and quail,

my throat is hoarse and drie :

With looking vp my sight doth faile,
for helpe of God on hie.

4 My foes that guiltlesse doe oppresse my soule, with hate are led :

In number sure they are no lesse,
then hayres are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me sore, they prosper and are glad :

They doe compell me to restore the things I neuer had.

6 What I haue done for want of wit, thou Lord all times canst tell :

And all the faulces that I commit to thee are knowne full well.

7 O God of hostis, defend and stay all these that trust in thee :

Let no man doubt or shrink away for ought that chanceth me.

8 It is for thee and for thy sake that I doe beare this blame :

In spight of thee they would me make to hide my face for shame.

9 My mothers' sonnes, my brethren all for sake me on a row :

And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.

10 Vnto thy house such zeale I beare, that it doth pine me much :

Their checkes and taunts at thee to heare
my very heart doth grutch.

The second part.

11 Though I doe fast my flesh to chaste, yea, if I weepe and mone :

Yet in my teeth this gear is cast,
they passe not thereupon.

12 If I for griefe and paine of heart, in sack-cloth vse to walke :

Then they anon will it peruerre, thereof they iest and talke.

13 Both high and low, and all the throng that sit within the gate :

They haue me euer in their tongue,
of me they talke and praise.

14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chiefe pastime

To seeke which wayes to worke me spighte, of me they sing and rime.

15 But thee the while O Lord I pray, that when it pleasest thee,

For thy great truth thou wilt alway send downe thine aide to mee.

16 Plucke thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning doe me keepe :

From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deepe.

17 Left with the waues I should be drown'd, and depth my soule deuoure :

And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.

18 O Lord of hostis to me giue care,
as thou art good and kinde :

And as thy mercy is most deare,
Lord haue me in thy minde.

19 And doe not from thy seruant hide,
nor turne thy face away :

I am oppress'd on euery side,
with haste giue care I say.

20 O Lord vnto my soule draw nie,
the same with aide repose :

Because of their great tyrannie,
acquite me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame thou know'st, and thou canst tell :

For those that seeke and worke the same,
thou seest them all full well.

22 When they with brags doe break my hart,
I seeke for helpe anon :

But finde no friends to ease my smart,
to comfort me not one.

22 But in my meate they gaue me gall, too cruell for to thinke:

And gaue me in my thirst withall strong vinegar to drinke.

23 Lord turne their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein:
And when they thinke full well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

24 And let their eyes be darke and blinde, that they may nothing see:
Bow downe their backe, and doe them binde in thraldome for to be.

25 Poure out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
take hold vpon them all.

26 As desert dry their house disgrace, their off-spring eke expell:
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tents doe dwell.

27 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lye full fore:
And if that thou dost wound the same,
they seeke to hurt him more.

28 Then let them heape vp mischief still,
sich they are all peruert:
That of thy fauour and good will they neuer haue no part.

29 And dash them cleane out of the booke of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their names they neuer looke in number of the iust.

The fourth part.

30 Though I (O Lord) with woe and griefe, haue beene full fore oppress:
Thy helpe shall giue me such reliefe, that all shall be redrest.

31 That I may giue thy name the praise, and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwayes, with hearty thanks among.

32 Which is more pleasant vnto thee, such minde thy grace hath borne:
Then eyther Oxe or Calfe can be that hath both hoofe and horn.

33 When simple folke doe this behold,
it shall reioyce them sure:
All yee that seeke the Lord, behold,
your life for aye shall dure.

34 For why? the Lord of hostes doth heare
the poore when they complaine:
His prisoners are to him full deare,
he doth them not disdain.

35 Wherefore the skie and earth below,
the sea with floud and streame,
His praise they it all declare and shew,
with all that liue in them.

36 For sure our God will Sion saue, and Iudaes Cities build:
Much folke possession there shall haue,
her streets shall all be filld.

37 His seruants seede shall keepe the same all ages out of minde:

And there all they that loue his name
a dwelling place shall finde.

Deus in adiuto. Psal. Lxx. I. H.

Hee prayeth to be right speedily deliuered, his enemies to be ashamed, and all that seeke the Lord to be comforted.

Sing this as the 73. Psalm.

O God to me take heede, of help I thee require:

O Lord of hostes with haste make speed, helpe, helpe, I thee desire.

2 With shame confound them all,
that seeke my soule to spill:
Rebuke them backe with blame to fall,
that thinke and wish me ill.

3 Confound them that apply, and seeke to worke me shame:
And at my harme doe laugh and cry,
so, so, there goeth the game.

4 But let them ioyfull be in thee with ioy and wealth:
Which onely trust and seeke to thee,
and to thy sauing health.

5 That they may say alwayes,
in mirth and one accord:
All glory, honour, laud, and praise be giuen to thee O Lord.

6 But I am weake and poore, come Lord, thine aide I lacke:
Thou art my stay and helpe, therefore make speed and be not slacke.

In te Domine. Psal. Lxxj. I. H.

Hee prayeth in faith, established by promise, and confirmed by the worke of God from his youth, to be deliuered from his wicked and cruell sonne Absolon, with his confederacie, promising to be thankfull therefore.

Sing this as the 69. Psalm.

MY Lord my God in all distresse,
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soule oppress,
nor once take hold on me:

2 As thou art iust defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Giue care, and to my suite accord,
and send me helpe at need.

3 Be thou my rocke, to whom I may for aide all times resort:
Thy promise is to helpe alway, thou art my fence and fort.

4 Saue me my God from wicked men, and from their strength and power:
From folke vniust, and eke from them,
that cruelly denoure.

5 Thou art the stay, wherein I trust,
thou Lord of hostes art hee:
Yea, from my youth I had a lust,
still to depend on thee.

6 Thou hast me kept euen from my birth, and I through thee was borne:
Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth,
both euening and at morne.

7 As to a monster seldome scene, much folke about me throng:
But thou art now, and still hast beene

my fence and aide so strong.
 8 Wherefore my mouth no time shall lack,
 thy glory and thy praise:
 And eke my tongue shall not be slack,
 to honour thee alwaies.
 9 Refuse me not O Lord I say, when age my limbs doth take:
 And when my strength doth waste away,
 doe not my soule forsake.
 10 Among themselves my foes enquire,
 to take me through deceit:
 And they against me doe conspire, that for my soule laid wait.

The second part.

11 Lay hand and take him now they said,
 for God from him is gone:
 Dispatch him quite, for to his aide,
 I wis there commeth none.
 12 Doe not absent thy selfe away,
 O Lord, when need shall be:
 But that in time of griefe thou mayst
 in hast giue helpe to me.
 13 With shame confound and ouerthrow,
 all those that seeke my life:
 Oppresse them with rebuke also,
 that faine would worke me strife.
 14 But I will patiently abide,
 thy helpe at all affaires,
 Still more and more each time and tide,
 I will set forth thy praise.
 15 My mouth thy iustice shall record, that daily helpe doth send:
 But of thy benefits O Lord,
 I know no count nor end.
 16 Yet I will goe and seeke forth one,
 with thy good helpe O God:
 The sauing health of thee alone,
 to shew and set abroad.

17 For of my youth thou tookst the care, and dost instruct me still:
 Therefore thy wonders to declare,
 I haue great minde and will.
 18 And as in youth from wanton rage, thou didst me keepe and stay, Forsake me not vnto mine age,
 and till my head be gray.

The third part.

19 That I thy strength and might may shew to them that now be heere:
 And that our seed thy power may know,
 hereafter many a yeere.
 20 O Lord thy iustice doth exceed, thy doings all may see:
 Thy workes are wonderfull indeed,
 oh who is like to thee?
 21 Thou madst me feeble affliction sore,
 and yet thou didst me saue:
 Yea, thou didst helpe and me restore,
 and tookst me from the graue.
 22 And thou mine honour dost encrease,
 my dignitie maintaine:
 Yea, thou dost make all strife to cease,
 and comfortst me againe.
 23 Therefore thy faithfullnesse to praise,
 I will both lute and sing:
 My harpe shall sound thy laud alwaies,
 O Israels holy King.

24 My mouth shall ioy with pleasant voyce,
 when I shall sing to thee:
 And eke my soule shall much reioyce,
 for thou hast made me free.
 25 My tongue thy vprightnesse shall sound, and speake it daily still:
 For griefe and shame doe them confound, that sought to worke me ill.

Deus iudicium. Psal. Lxxij. I.H.

Gods kingdome by Christ is represented by Salomon, vnder whom shall be righteousnesse, peace and felicitie, vnto whom all kings and nations shall doe homage, whose name and power shall endure for euer.

 Ord giue thy iudgements to the King, therein instruct him well: And with his son that princely thing, Lord let thy iustice dwell

 1. That he may gouerne vprightly, and rule thy folke aright. And so defend through equity, the poore that haue no might.

3 And let the mountaines that are high,
 vnto their folke giue peace,
 And eke the little hills apply,
 in iustice to increase:
 4 That he may helpe the weak and poore with aide, and make them strong:
 And eke destroy for euermore
 all those that doe them wrong.
 5 And then from age to age shall thy regard and feare thy might:
 So long as Sunne shall shine by day,
 or else the Moone by night.
 6 Lord make the King vnto the iust, like raine to fields new mowne:
 And like to drops that lay the dust,
 and fresh the land new sowne.
 7 The iust shall flourish in his time,
 and all shall be at peace:
 Vntill the moone shall leaue to prime,
 waste, change, and to increase.
 8 He shall be Lord of Sea and land, from shore to shore throughout,
 And from the fouds within the land,
 through all the earth about.
 9 The people that in desert dwell, shall kneele to him full thick:

And all his enemies that rebell,
the earth and dust shall lick.
10 The Lords of all the Iles thereby, great gifts to him shall bring :
The Kings of Saba and Araby, giue many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All Kings shall seeke with one accord,
in his good grace to stand :
And all the people of the world,
shall serue him at his hand.
12 For he the needie fort doth saue, that vnto him doe call :
And eke the simple folke that haue
no helpe of man at all.
13 He taketh pitie on the poore, that are with need oppress :
He doth preferne them euermore, and brings their soule to rest.
14 He shall redeeme their life from dread, from fraud, from wrong, from might.
And eke the bloud that they shall bleed,
is precious in his sight.
15 But he shall liue, and they shall bring to him of Sabas gold :
He shall be honoured as a King,
and daily be extold.
16 The mighty mountaines of his land,
of corne heall beare such throng :
That it like Cedar trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.

17 Their Cities eke full well shall speed, the fruits thereof shall passe :
In plenty it shall fare exceede, and spring as greene as grasse.
18 For euer they shall praise his name,
while that the sunne is light :
And thinke them happy through the same,
all folke shall bleffe his might.
19 Praise ye the Lord of hoasts and sing, to Israels God each one :
For he doth euery wondrous thing,
yea, he himselfe alone.
20 And blessed be his holy Name,
all times eternally,
That all the earth may praise the same,
Amen, Amen say I.

Quam bonus Deus. Psa. Lxxiiij. T.S.

Dauid teacheth that neither the prosperity of the vngodly, nor the affliction of the good ought to discourage Gods children, but rather moue them to consider Gods prouidence, and to reuerence his iudgements, for that the wicked vanishest away like smoke, and the godly enter into life euerslasting, in hope and rest hee resigneth himselfe to Gods hands.

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

HOW euer it be, yet God is good,
and kinde to Israel :
And to all such as safely keepe their conscience pure and well.
2 Yet like a foole I almost slippe,
my feete began to slide :
And ere I wist euen at a pinch,
my steps awry gangside.
3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudg'd and did disdain :

That wicked men all things should haue, without turmoile or paine.

4 They neuer suffer pangs nor griefe,
as if death should them smite :
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and euer in good plight.

5 And free from all aduersity,
when other men be shent :
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.

6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chaine :
And are euen wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdain.

7 They are so fed that euen for fat, their eies oft times out-start :
And as for worldly goods they haue,
more then can with their heart.

8 Their life is most licentious, boasting much of the wrong
Which they haue done to simple men, and euer pride among.

9 The heauens and the liuing Lord, they spare not to blaspheme :
And prate they doe of worldly things,
no wight they doe esteeme.

10 The people of God oft times turne backe, to see their prosperous state :
And almost drinke the selfe same cup,
and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God say they, should know or vnderstand
These worldly things, since wicked men be Lords of sea and land :

12 For we may see how wicked men, in riches still increase :
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and liue in rest and peace.

13 Then why doe I from wickednesse, my fantasie restraîne ?
And wash my hands with innocents, and cleanse my heart in vaine ?

14 And suffer scourges every day,
as subiect to all blame :
And euery morning from my youth,
sustaine rebuke and shame :

15 And I had almost said as they,
misliking mine estate :
But that I should thy children iudge,
as folke vnfortunate.

16 Then I bethought me how I might,
this matter vnderstand :
But yet the labour was too great for me to take in hand.

17 Vntill the time I went vnto thy holy place, and then,
I vnderstood right perfectly,
the end of all these men.

18 And namely, how thou testest them,
vpon a slipperie place :
And at thy pleasure and thy will,
thou dost them all deface.

19 Then shall men muse at that strange sight,
to see how sodainely,
They are destroy'd, dispatcht, consumed,
and dead so horribly.

20 Much like a dreame when one awakes, so shall their wealth decay:

Their famous names in all mens sight, shall ebbe and passe away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
my minde was much opprest:

22 So fond was I and ignorant, and in this point a beast.

23 Yet neuertheless by my right hand,
thou hold'st me euer fast:

24 And with thy counsell dost me guide to glory at the last.

25 What thing is there that I can wish,
but thee in heauen aboue:
And in the earth there is no thing like thee that I can loue.

26 My flesh and eke my heart doth faile,
but God doth faile me neuer:

For of my heart God is the strength,
my portion eke for euer.

27 And loe, all such as thee forsake, thou shalt destroy each one:

And those that trust in any thing,
sauiug in thee alone.

28 Therefore will I draw neare to God, and euer with him dwell:

In God alone I put my trust,
his wonders I will tell.

Vt quid Deus? Psal. Lxxiiij. I. H.

A complaint of the destruction of the Church and true Religion, vnder the name of Sion, and the Altars destroyed. But trusting in the might and free mercies of God by his covenant, he requirerh helpe and succour, to the glory of his name, the saluation of his poore afflicted seruants, and the confusion of his proud enemies.

Sing this as the 72. Psalme.

Why art thou Lord so long from vs,
in all this danger deepe?

Why doth thine anger kinde thus at thine owne pasture sheepe?

2 Lord call the people to thy thought which haue bene thine so long:

The which thou hast redeem'd and brought from bondage fore and strong.

Haue minde I say, and thinke vpon,
remember it full well:

Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.

3 Lift vp thy foot, and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:

Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.

4 Amid the congregations all thy enemies roare O God:

They set as signes on euery wall their banners spai'd abroad.

5 As men with axes hew downe trees, that on the hills doe grow:

So shine the bills and swords of these,
within thy temple now.

6 The feeling saw'd, the carued boards,
the goodly grauen stones,

With axes, hammers, bills, and swords,
they beat them downe at once.

7 Thy places they consume with flame, and eke in all this toile

The house appointed to thy name, they raze downe to the soile.

8 And thus they said within their heart, dispatch them out of hand:

Then burnt they vp in euery place,
Gods houses through the land.

9 Yet thou no signe of help dost send,
our Prophets all are gone:

To tell when this our plague shall end
among vs there is none.

10 When wilt thou Lord once end this shame and cease thine enemies strong?

Shall they alway blaspheme thy name,
and raile on thee so long?

11 Why dost with-draw thy hand abacke, and hide it in thy lap?

O plucke it out, and be not slacke to giue thy foes a rap.

The second part.

12 O God thou art my King and Lord,
and euermore hast bene:

Yea, thy good grace throughout the world,
for our good helpe hath seene.

13 The seas that are so deepe and dead,
thy might did make them dry.

And thou didst breake the serpents head,
that he therein did die.

14 Yea, thou didst breake the head so great of Whales that are so fell:

And gau'st them to thy folke to eate,
that in the deserts dwell.

15 Thou mad'st a spring with streames to rise from rocks both hard and hie:

And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deepe riuers to be drie.

16 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they were begun:

Thou set'st to serue vs with their shine
the light and eke the Sunne.

17 Thou dost appoint the ends and coasts of the earth about:

Both summer heates, and winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

18 Thinke on O Lord, no time forget thy foes that thee defame:

And how the foolish folke are set to raile vpon thy name.

29 O let no cruell beast deuoure
the Turtle that is true:

Forget not alwayes in thy power
the poore that much doe rue.

20 Regard thy covenant, and behold thy foes possesse the land:

All sad and darke, forworne and old,
our realme as now doth stand.

21 Let not the simple goe away with disappointed shame:

But let the poore and needy aye,
giue praise vnto thy name.

22 Rise Lord, let be by thee maintain'd the cause that is thine owne:

Remember how that thou blasphem'd art by the foolish one:

23 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presuming hie,

Is more and more increas'd of those,
that hate thee spightfully.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. Lxxv. N.

The faithfull praise the Lord, who shall come as iudge at his time, when the wicked shall drinke the cup of his wrath, but the righteous shall be exalted to honour.

Sing this as the 45. Psalm.

- Vnto thee God we will giue thanks,
we will giue thanks to thee :
Sith thy name is so neare, declare thy wondrous workes will we.
2 I will vprightly iudge, when get conuenient time I may :
The earth is weak, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.
3 I did to the mad people say,
deale not so furiously :
And vnto the vagodly ones, set not your hornes on high.
4 I said vnto them, set not vp your raised hornes on hie :
And see that you doe with stiffe necke,
not speake presumptuously.
5 For neither from the Easterne part nor from the Westerne side :
Nor from forsaken wildernesse, protection doth proceede.
6 For why : the Lord our God he is the righteous Iudge alone :
He putteth downe the one, and sets another in the throne.
7 For why ? a cup of mighty wine is in the hand of God :
And all the mighty wine therein
himselke doth poure abroad.
8 As for the lees and filthy dregs, that doe remaine of it :
The wicked of the earth shall drinke,
and sucke them euery whit.
9 But I will talke of God I say, of Iacobs God therefore :
And will not cease to celebrate his praise for euermore.
10 In sunder breake the hornes of all vngodly men will I :
But then the hornes of righteous men shall be exalted hie.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore :
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be euermore.

In Iudea. Psal. Lxxvj. I. H.

Here is described the power of God, and care for the defence of his people, by the destruction of Senacheribs army, for which the faithfull are exhorted to be thankfull.

Sing this as the 66. Psalm.

- T O all that now in Iurie dwell
the Lord is clearely knowne :
His name is great in Irael
a people of his owne.
2 At Salem he his tents hath pight, to tarry there a space :
In Sion eke he hath delight, to make his dwelling place.
3 And there he beake both shaft and bow,
one sword, the speare and shield :

And brake the ray to ouerthrow,
in battell on the field.

- 4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Then in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountaines hie.
5 But now the proud are spoild through thee, and they are fallen on sleepe :
Through men of warre no helpe can be,
themselves they could not keepe.
6 At thy rebuke O Iacobs God, when thou didst them reprove :
As halfe asleepe their chariots stood,
no horseman once did moue.
7 For thou art dreadfull Lord indeede, what man the courage hath To bide thy sight, and doth not dread when thou art in thy wrath :
8 When thou dost make thy iudgments heard from heauen full the ground :
Then all the earth full fore afraid,
in silence shall be found.
9 And that when thou O God dost stand, in iudgement for to speake :
To saue th' afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.
10 The fury that in man doth raigne, shall turne vnto thy praise :
Hereafter Lord doe thou restraine their wrath and threats alwaies.
11 Make vov'es and pay them to your God, ye folke that nigh him be :
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.
12 For he doth take both life and might from Princes great of birth :
And full of terriour is his sight,
to all the Kings on earth.

Voce mea ad. Psal. Lxxvij. I. H.

David rehearseth his great afflictions and grievous temptations, whereby he is driven to consider his former conu'ssion, and the course of Gods workes in the preservation of his seruants, and so he confirmeth his faith against these temptations.

I With my voice to God doe crie, with heart and hearty cheare : My voice to God I lift on hie, and hee my suite doth heare. In time of grieve I sought to God, by night no rest I tooke : But stretcht my hands to him abroad

abroad, my soule comfort forooke.

3 When I to thinke on God endend, my trouble then is more :
I spake but could not make an end,
my breath was stopt so fore.
4 Thou holdst mine eies alwaies from rest,
that I alwaies awake :
With feare am I so fore opprest,
my speech doth me forsake.
5 The daies of old in minde I cast, and oft did thinke vpon
The times and ages that are past, full many yeeres agone.
6 By night my songs I call to minde, once made thy praise to shew :
And with my heart much talke I finde,
my spirits doe search to know.
7 Will God said I, at once for all, cast off his people thus :
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly vnto vs ?
8 What is his goodnesse cleane decayd, for euer and a day ?
Or is his promise now delaid ?
and doth his truth decay ?
9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold ?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to withhold ?
10 At last I said, my weakenesse is the cause of this mistrust :
Gods mighty hand can helpe all this,
and change it when he list.

The second part.

11 I will regard and thinke vpon :
the working of the Lord,
Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly will record.
12 Yea, all his workes I will declare,
and what he did deuise :
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsell wise.
13 Thy workes O Lord are all ypright, and holy all abroad :
What one hath strength to match the might of thee O Lord our Gods ?
14 Thou art a God that oft dost shew thy wonders euery houre :
And so dost make thy people know,
thy vertue and thy power.
15 And thine owne folke thou dost defend with strength and stretched arme :
The sonnes of Iacob that descend, and Iosephs seed from harme.
16 The waters Lord perceined thee,
the waters saw thee well :
And they for feare aside did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.
The clouds that were both thicke and blacke did raine full plenteously :
The thunder in the aire did cracke,
thy shafts abroad did sic, 17 The thunder in the aire was heard,
the lightnings from above :

18 With flashes great made them asfeard, the earth did quake and moue.
19 Thy waies within the sea doe lie,
thy pathes in waters deepe :
Yet none can there thy steps espie, nor know thy pathes to keepe.
20 Thou leadest thy folke vpon the land,
as sheepe on euery side,
Through Moses and through Aarons hand,
thou didst them safely guide.
Attendite populi. Psal. Lxxviij. T. S.

He sheweth how God of his mercy chose his Church of the posterity of Abraham, casting in their teeth the rebellion of their fathers, that their children might acknowledge Gods free mercies, and be ashamed of their puerile ancestors. The holy Ghost hath comprehended as it were the summe of all Gods benefits, that the grosse people might see in few words the effect of the whole hystorie.

Tend my people to my law, and to my words incline. 2. My mouth shall speake strange parables, and sentences diuine. 3. Which we our selues haue heard and leard, euen of our Fathers old, and which for our instruction

our Fathers haue vs told.

4 Because we should not keepe it close, from them that should come after :
Who should Gods power to their race praise,
and all his workes of wonder.
5 To Iacob he commandement gaue,
how Israel should liue :
Willing our Fathers should the same vnto their children giue.
6 That they and their posterity, which were not sprung vp tho :
Should haue the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also,
7 That they may haue the better hope in God that is aboue,
And not forget to keepe his lawes,
and his precepts in loue.
8 Not being as our Fathers were,
rebelling in Gods sight :
And would not frame their wicked hearts to know their God aright.

How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoile :
 Shooting their darts the day of warre,
 and yet they tooke the foile :
 For why they did not keepe with God,
 the couenant that was made :
 Nor yet would walke or leade their liues,
 according to his trade.
 But put into obliuion, his counsell and his will :
 And all his works most magnifiquē, which he declared still.

The second part.

What wonders to our forefathers,
 did he himselve disclose :
 In Egypt land within the field,
 that called is Thancoe :
 He did diuide and cut the sea,
 that they might passe at once :
 And made the water stand as still,
 as doth an heape of stones.
 He led them secret in a cloud
 by day, when it was bright :
 And in the night when darke it was,
 with fire he gaue them light.
 He brake the rocke in wilderness,
 and gaue the people drinke,
 As plentifull as when the deepes doe flow vp to the brinke.

He drew out riuers out of rocks, that were both dry and hard :
 Of such abundance that no floods,
 to them might be comparde.
 Yet for all this against the Lord,
 their sinne they did increafe :
 And stirred him that is most hie,
 to wrath in wilderness.
 They tempted him within their hearts,
 like people of mistrust :
 Requiring such a kinde of meate,
 as serued to their lust, Saying with murmuration,
 in their vnfaithfulnesse,
 What can this God prepare for vs,
 a feast in wilderness :
 Behold he strake the stonie rocke, and floods forth-wid did flow :
 But can he now giue to his folke, both bread and flesh also :
 When God heard this he waxed wroth,
 with Iacob and his seed.
 So did his indignation on Israel proceed.

The third part.

Because they did not faithfully beleue, and hope that he Could alwaies helpe and succour them in their necessity.
 Wherefore he did command the clouds, forthwith they brake in funder :
 And rained downe Manna for them to eat,
 a food of mickle wonder.
 When earthly men with Angels food, were fed at their request :
 He bad the East winde blow away,
 and brought in the South-west.
 And rain'd downe flesh as thick as dust,

and fowle as thicke as sand :
 Which he did cast amidst the place, where all their tents did stand.
 Then did they eate exceedingly,
 and all men had their fill,
 Yet more and more they did desire,
 to serue their lusts and wils.
 But as the meate was in their mouthes,
 his wrath vpon them fell :
 And slew the flower of all their youth,
 and choise of Israel,
 Yet fell they to their wonted sinne,
 and still they did him grieve,
 For all the wonders that he wrought,
 they would him not beleue.
 Their daies therefore he shortened,
 and made their honour vaine :
 Their yeeres did waste and passe away, with terrour and with paine.
 But euer when he plagued them, they sought him by and by :
 Remembring then he was their strength,
 their helpe and God most hie.
 Though in their mouthes they did but and flatter with the Lord : (glose,
 And with their tongues and in their hearts, dissembled euery word.

The fourth part.

For why their hearts was nothing bent to him, nor to his trade :
 Nor yet to keepe nor to performe,
 the couenant that was made.
 Yet was he still so mercifull,
 when they deserued to die :
 That he forgave them their misdeeds,
 and would not them destroy.
 Yea many a time he turn'd his wrath,
 and did himselve aduise :
 And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
 Considering that they were but flesh,
 and euen as a winde,
 That passeth away, and cannot well
 returne by his owne kinde.
 How oftentimes in wilderness,
 did they the Lord prouoke :
 How did they moue and stirre the Lord,
 to plague them with his stroke :
 Yet did they turne againe to sinne,
 and tempted God oft-soone :
 Prescribing to the holy Lord,
 what things they would haue done.
 Not thinking of his hand and powre, nor of the day when he Deliuered them out of the hands, of the fierce enimie.
 Nor how he wrought his miracles,
 as they themselues beheld In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.
 Nor how he turned by his power,
 their waters into blood,
 That no man might receiue his drinke
 at riuier nor at flood.
 Nor how he sent them swarmes of flies,
 which did them fore annoy.

And kild their country full of frogs, which did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

46 Nor how he did commit their fruits
vnto the Caterpillar :

And all the labour of their hands,
he gaue to the Grasshopper.

47 With hailestones he destroyed their vines,
so that they were all lost :

And not so much as wilde figge trees,
but he consumed with froit.

48 And yet with hailestones once againe,
the Lord their cattell smote :

And all their flocks and herds likewise, with thunderbolts full hot.

49 He cast vpon them in his ire, and in his fury strong :

Displeasure, wrath, and euill spirits, to trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way, and spared not the least :

But gaue vnto the pestilence,
the man and eke the beast.

51 He strake also the first borne all, that vp in Egypt came :

And all the chiefe of men and beasts,
within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for all his owne deare folke,
he did preserve and keepe.

And carried them through wilderness,
euen like a flocke of sheepe.

53 Without all feare, both safe and sound,
he brought them out of thrall :

Whereas their foes with rage of seas, were overwhelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the coasts,
of his owne holy land :

Euen to the mount which he had got,
by his strong arme and hand.

55 And there cast out the heathen folke, and did their land diuide :

And in their tents he set the tribes of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this their God most hie, they stir'd and tempted still :

And would not keepe his testament, nor yet obey his will.

57 But as their fathers turned backe,
euen so they went astray,

Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip, and start a way.

The sixth part.

58 And grieved him with their hill altars, with offerings and with fire,

And with their Idols vehemently, prouoked him to ire.

59 Therewith his wrath began againe, to kindle in his breast :

The naughtinesse of Israel,
he did so much detest.

60 Then he forsooke the tabernacle of Silo, where he was Right conuersant with earthly men, euen as his dwelling place.

61 Then suffered he his might and power,
in bondage for to stand :

And gaue the honour of his Arke, into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword,
wroth with his heritage :

63 The young men were deuour'd with fire, maides had no marriage.

64 And with the sword the Priests also, did perish euery one :

And not a widow left aliue, their death for to bemoene.

65 And then the Lord began to wake, like one that slepe a time :

And as a valiant man of warre, refreshed after wine.

66 With Emrods in the hinder parts, he strake his enemies all :

And put them then vnto a shame,
that was perpetuall.

67 Then he the tent and tabernacle, of Ioseph did refuse :

As for the tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.

68 But chose the tribe of Iehuda, whereas he thought to dwell :

Euen the noble mount Sion, which he did loue so well.

69 Whereas he did his temple build,
both sumptuously and sure :

Like as the earth, which he hath made
for euer to endure.

70 Then chose he Dauid him to serue,
his people for to keepe :

Whom he tooke vp and brought away,
euen from the folds of sheepe.

71 As he did follow the Ewes with young,
the Lord did him aduance :

To feed his people Israel,
and his inheritance.

72 Then Dauid with a faithfull heart, his flocke and charge did feed :

And prudently with all his power,
did gouerne them indeed.

Deus venerunt. Psal. Lxxix. I. H.

The Israelites complaine to God for the calamitie that they suffered, when Antiochus destroyed their Temple and Citie, desiring ayde against his tyrannie, lest God and religion should be condemned by the heathen, who should see them forsaken and perish.

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

O Lord the Gentiles doe invade, thine heritage to spoile.

Ierusalem an heape is made,
thy Temple they defile.

2 The bodies of thy Saints most deare abroad to birds they cast :

The flesh of such as doe thee feare,
the beasts deuoure and waste.

3 Their blood throughout Ierusalem,
as water spilt they haue,

So that there is not one of them,
to lay their dead in graue.

4 Thus are we made a laughing stocke, almost the world throughout :

The enemies at vs iest and mocke, which dwell our coast about.

5 Wilt thou O Lord thus in thine ire, against vs euer fume ?

And

Lute so sweet, on euery pleasant string.

3 Blow as it were in the new Moone, with Trumpets of the best :
As it is vsed to be done
at any solemne feast.
4 For this is vnto Israel a statute and a trade :
A law that must be kept full well which Iacobs God hath made.
5 This clause with Ioseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came :
That as a witness all his seede should still obserue the same.
6 When God I say had thus prepar'd to bring him from that land :
Whereas the speech which he had heard
he did not vnderstand.
7 I from his shoulders tooke faith he,
the burden cleane away :
And from the furnace quit him free,
from burning bricke of clay.
8 When thou in griefe didst cry and call
I holpe thee by and by :
And I did answere thee withall in thunder secretly.
9 Yea, at the waters of discord,
I did thee tempt and proue :
Whereas the goodnesse of the Lord with muttering thou didst moue.
10 Heare O my folke, O Israel, and I assure it thee :
Regard and marke my words full well,
if thou wilt cleaue to me.

The second part.

11 Thou shalt no God in thee reuerse of any land abroad :
Nor in no wife to bow or serue
a strange and foraine God.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I from Egypt set thee free :
Then aske of me abundantly,
and I will giue it thee.
13 And yet my people would not heare
my voice, when that I spake :
Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.
14 Then did I leaue them to their will,
in hardnesse of their heart :

To walke in their owne counsell still,
themselues they might peruerse, 15 O that my people would haue heard the words that I did say :
And eke that Israel would regard to walke within my way.
16 How soone would I confound their foes, and bring them downe full low :
And turne my hand vpon all those that would them ouerthrow :
17 And they that at the Lord doe rage, as flauers should seeke him till :
But of his folke the time and age should flourish euer still.
18 I would haue fed them with the crop and finest of the wheate :
And made the rocke with hony drop,
that they their filis should eate.

Deus stetit. Psal. Lxxxij. I.H.

Dauid declaring God to be present with Iudges and Magistrates, reprehendeth their partialitie and vrighteous iudgements, and exhorteth them to doe iustice, but seeing no amendment, he desireth God to execute iustice himselfe.

Sing this as the 77. Psalm.

AMid the praise with men of might,
the Lord himselte did stand :
To plead the cause of truth and right,
with Iudges of the land.
2 How long, said he, will you proceede, false iudgement to award :
And haue respect for loue of meede,
the wicked to regard :
3 Whereas of due you should defend the fatherlesse and weake :
And when the poore man doth contend in iudgement iustly speake.
4 If ye be wise, defend the cause of poore men in their right :
And rid the needy from the clauies of tyrants force and might.
5 But nothing will they know or learne,
in vaine to them I talke :
They will not see, or ought discerne
but still in darknesse walke.
For loe euen now the time is come that all things fall to nought :
And likewise lawes both all and some,
for gaine are sold and bought.
6 I had decreed it in my sight,
as Gods to take you all :
And children to the most of might for loue I did you call.
7 But notwithstanding ye shall dye
as men, and so decay :
O tyrants I shall you destroy,
and plucke you quite away.
8 Vp Lord, and let thy strength be knowne, and iudge the world with might :
For why : all nations are thine owne,
to take them as thy right.

Deus quis similis? Psal. Lxxxij. I.H.

The Israelites pray the Lord to deliuer them from their enemies both at home and far off : also that all such wicked people be stricken with his stormy tempests that they may know his power.

Sing

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

Do not O God reſtraine thy tongue,
in ſilence doe not ſtay:
With-held not Lord thy ſelfe ſo long,
nor make no more delay.
For why? behold thy foes, and ſee
how they doe rage and crie:
And thoſe that beare an hate to thee hold vp their heads on high.

3 Againſt thy folke they uſe deceit, and craftily enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait their counſell doth conſpire.
4 Come on, ſay they, let vs expell,
and plucke theſe folke away:
So that the name of Iſrael may utterly decay.

5 They all conſpire within their hearts
how they may thee withſtand: Againſt the Lord to take a part they are in league and band.
6 The tents of all the Idomites,
the Iſmaelites alſo:
The Haggarens, and Moabites, with diuers others moe.

7 Geball with Ammon, and likewiſe doth Awelecke conſpire:
The Philiftims againſt thee riſe, with them that dwell at Tſire.
8 And Aſſur eke is well apaid,
with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid to Lots poſteritie.
9 As thou didſt to the Madianites, ſo ſerue them Lord each one:
As to Siſer, and to Iabin, beſide the brooke Kiſon.
10 Whom thou in Endor didſt deſtroy, and waſte them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open fight.

The ſecond part.

11 Make them now and their Lords appeare like Zeb and Oreb than:
As Zeba and Zalmana were,
the Kings of Madian.
12 Which ſaid, let vs throughout the land in all the coaſts abroad, Poſſeſſe and take into our hand
the faire houſes of God.
13 Turne them O God with ſtormes as faſt as wheeles that haue no ſtay:
Or like the chaſſe which men doe caſt with windes to flie away.
14 Like as the fire with rage and ſume,
the mighty forreſts ſpils:
And as the flame doth quire conſume
the mountaines and the hills.
15 So let the tempeſt of thy wrath
vpon their neckes be laid:
And of thy ſtormy wrath and ſhower
Lord make them all afraid.
16 Lord bring them all I thee deſire to ſuch rebuke and ſhame:
That it may cauſe them to enquire,
and learne to ſeek thy name.

17 And let them euenmore daily to ſhame and ſlander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie to periſh eke withall.

18 That they may know and ſeele full well, that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou doſt excell and raigne throughout the world.

Quam dilecta? Pal. Lxxxiiij. I.H.

Dauid exiled his country, deſireth ardently to returne to Gods Tabernacle, and aſſembly of the Saints, to praife God: then hee praifeſh the courage of the people that paſſe the wilderneſſe, to aſſemble themſelues in Sion.

Sing this as the 69. Psalme.

How pleaſant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hoaſts to me:
The Tabernacles of thy grace,
how pleaſant Lord they be:
2 My ſoule doth long full fore to goe into thy Courts abroad:
My heart doth luſt, my fleſh alſo
in thee the liuing Lord.

3 The Sparrowes finde a roome to reſt, and ſane themſelues from wrong:
And eke the Swallow hath a neſt wherein to keepe her yong.
4 Theſe birds full nigh thine Altar may haue place to ſit and ſing:
O Lord of hoaſts, thou art I ſay,
my God and eke my King.

5 O they be bleſſed that may dwell within thy houſe alwayes:
For they all times thy ſaſts doe tell,
and euer giue thee praife.

6 Yea, happy ſurelikewiſe are they,
whoſe ſtay and ſtrength thou art:
Which to thy houſe doe minde the way,
and ſeek it in their heart.

7 As they goe through the vale of reares they digge vp fountaines ſtill:
That as a ſpring it all appeares, and thou their pits doſt fill.

8 From ſtrength to ſtrength they walke full no faintneſſe there ſhall be: (faſt, And ſo the God of Gods at laſt in Sion they doe ſee.

9 O Lord of hoaſts to me giue heede, and heare when I doe pray:
And let it through thine cares proceede,
O Iacobs Gods I ſay.

10 O Lord our ſhield, of thy good grace regard and ſo draw neare: Regard I ſay, behold the face of thine annointed deare.

11 For why? within thy Courts one day is better to abide:
Then other-where to keepe or ſtay
a thouſand dayes beſide.

12 Much rather would I keepe a dore within the houſe of God, Then in the tents of wickedneſſe to ſettle mine abroad.

13 For God the Lord light and defence, will grace and worſhip giue:
And no good thing will he with-hold from them that purely liue.

14 O Lord of hostes that man is blest, and happy sure is he :
That is periwaded in his best,
to trust all times in thee.

Bene dixisti Deo. Psal. Lxxxv. 1.H.

Because God withdrew not his rod from his Church after the returne from Babilon, first they put him in minde, that he should not leave the work of his grace imperfect, and complaine of their long affliction: Then they reioyce in hope of promised deliverance, which was a figure of Christs kingdome, under which should be perfect felicity.

Sing this as the 81. Psalm.

Thou hast beene mercifull indeed,
O Lord vnto thy land :
For thou restorest Iacob's seed,
from thralldome out of band.
2 The wicked waies that they were in,
thou didst them cleane remit :
And thou didst hide thy peoples sinne,
full close thou coueredst it.
3 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage, that all thy wrath was gone :
And so didst turne thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.
4 O God of health, doe now conuert thy people vnto thee :
Put all thy wrath from vs apart,
and angry cease to be.
5 Why shall thine anger neuer end,
but still proceed on vs ?
And shall thy wrath it self extend,
vpon all ages thus ?
6 Wilt thou not rather turne therefore, and quicken vs, that we
And all thy folke may euermore, be glad and ioy in thee ?
7 O Lord on vs doe thou declare, thy goodnesse to our wealth :
Shew forth to vs and doe not spare, thine aide and sauing health.
8 I will hearken what God saith, for he speakes to his people peace :
And to his Saints that neuer they,
returne to foolishnesse.
9 For why ? his helpe is still at hand, to such as doe him feare :
Whereby great glory in the land shall dwell and flourish there.
10 For truth and mercy there shall meete,
in one to take their place :
And peace shall iustice with kisse greet,
and there they shall embrace, 11 As truth from earth shall spring apace,
and flourish pleasantly :
So righteousness shall heau her face,
and looke from heauen hie.
12 Yea, God himselfe doth take in hand, to giue vs each good thing :
And through the crasis of all the land,
the earth her fruits shall bring.
13 Before his face shall iustice goe, much like a guide or way :
He shall direct his steps also,
and keepe them in the way.

Inclina Dom. Psal. Lxxxvj. 1.H.

David sore afflicted, prayeth earnestly for deliue-rance, sometimes rehearsing his miseries and mercies received, desiring also to be instructed of the Lord, that hee may feare and glorifie his name.
He complaineth also of his aduersaries, and requreth to be delivered from them.

Sing this as the 81. Psalm.

Lord bow thine eare to my request, and heare me by and by :
With grievous paine and griefe oppress,
full poore and weake am I.
2 Preserue my soule, because my waies, and doings holy be :
And saue thy seruant, O my Lord, that puts his trust in thee.
3 Thy mercy Lord on me expresse, defend me eke withall :
For through the day I doe not cease,
on thee to cry and call.
4 Comfort O Lord thy seruants soule, that now with paine is pinde :
For vnto thee Lord I extoll, and lift my soule and minde.
5 For thou art good and bountifull, thy gifts of grace are free :
And eke thy mercie plentifull,
to all that call on thee.
6 O Lord likewise when I doe pray, regard and giue an eare :
Marke well the words that I doe say,
and all my prayers heare.
7 In time when trouble doth me moue, to thee I doe complaine :
For why ? I know and well doe proue, thou answerest me againe.
8 Among the Gods (O Lord) is none, with thee to be compare :
And none can doe as thou alone,
the like hath not beene heard.

The second part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all, which thou didst make and frame :
Before thy face on knees will fall,
and glorifie thy name.
10 For why ? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine owne.
Thou workest wonders still in fight,
for thou art God alone.
11 O teach me Lord the way, and I shall in thy truth proceed :
O ioyne my heart to thee so nie,
that I thy name may dread.
12 To thee my God will I giue praise, with all my heart O Lord :
And glorifie thy name alwaies, for euer through the world.
13 For why ? thy mercie shewed to me is great, and dorth excell :
Thou sett'st my soule at liberty,
out from the lower hell.
14 O Lord, the proud against me rise, and heapes of men of might,
That seeke my soule, and in no wise,
will haue thee in their sight.
15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meeke, full slacke and slow to wrath :

Thy

Thy goodaesse is full great, and eke thy truth no measure hath.
16 O turne to me, and mercy grant, thy strength to me apply :
O helpe, and saue thine owne seruante,
thy handmaids sonne am I.
17 On me some signe of fauour show, that all my foes may see :
And be ashamed, because Lord thou dost helpe and comfort me.

Fundamentum eius. Psal. Lxxxvij. I. H.

The holy Ghost promisseth that the Church as yet in misery after the captiuitie of Babylon, should be restored to great excellencie, so that nothing should be more comfortable then to be numbered among the members thereof.

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

THE Citie shall full well endure, her ground worke still doth stay :
Vpon the holy hill full sure,
it can no time decay.

2 God loues the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide,
He loues them more then all the rest, of Jacobs tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be,
in Sion and abroad :
Great things I say are said of thee, thou Citie of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye, and beare in minde the same,
And Babylon shall eke apply, and learne to know my name.

5 Loe Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopie likewise,
A people old full long agoe, were borne, and there did rise.
6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that diuers men of fame,
Haue there sprung vp, and the high God hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall,
through Gods deuise appeare :
Of Sion that the chiefe of all had his beginning there.

8 Their trumpeters with such as sing, therein great plenty be :
My fountaines and my pleasant springs,
are compass all in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. Lxxxvij. I. H.

The faithfull soule afflicted by sickness, persecution, aduersity, and as it were left of God without any consolation: yet call on God by faith, and strive against desperation.

Ord God of health the hope and stay thou art alone to me, I call and cry throughout the day, and all the night to thee,

2. O let my prayers soone ascend, vnto chy sight on hie : Encline thine care, O Lord

entend, and harken to my crie.

3 For why? my soule with woe is filld, and doth in trouble dwell :
My life and breath almost doth yeeld,
and draweth nie to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them,
that in the pit doe fall :
And made as one among those mea, that haue no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead and free from things that here remaine :
It were more ease for me to be,
with them the which were flaine ;
As those that lie in graue I say,
whom thou hast cleane forgot :
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regardit them not.

6 Yea, like to one shut vp full sure,
within the lower pit,
In places darke and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

7 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise, full sore on me doth lie :
And all thy stormes against me rise,
my soule to vex and trie.

8 Thou puttst my friends farre off from me, and makest them hate me sore :

I am shut vp in prison fast, and can come forth no more.

9 My sight doth faile through grieve & wo,
I call to thee O God Throughout the day, my hands also to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

10 Doeest thou vnto the dead declare, thy wondrous works of fame ?
Shall dead to life againe repaire, and praise thee for the same ?

11 Or shall thy louing kindnesse Lord, be preached in the graue ?
Or shall with them that are destitoe, thy truth her honour haue ?

12 Shall they that lie in darke full low,
of all thy wonders wor ?
Or there shall they thy iustice know, where all things are forgot ?

13 But I O Lord to thee alway, doe crie and call apace :
My prayer eke ere it be day, shall come before thy face.

14 Why dost thou Lord abhorre my soule, in grieve that seeketh thee ?
And now O Lord why dost thou hide, thy face away from me ?

15 I am afflic't as dying still,
from youth this many a yeere,

Thy terrours which doe vex me ill with troubled minde I beare.

16 The furies of thy wrathfull rage
full fore vpon me fall :

Thy terrours eke doe not assuage,
but me oppresse withall.

17 All day they compass me about as water at the tide :

And all at once with streames full stout beset me on each side.

18 Thou settest farre from me my friends, and louers euery one :

Yea, and mine old acquaintance all out of my sight are gone.

Miserecordias. Psal. Lxxxix. I. H.

David praisth God for his covenant made betweene him and his elect by Iesus Christ: then he complains of the desolation of his kingdome, so that the promise seemed to be broken. Finally, he prayeth to be deliuered from afflictions, mentioning the shortnesse of mans life, and confirming himselfe by Gods promises.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme.

TO sing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall neuer spare :

And with my mouth from age to age,
thy truth I will declare.

2 For I haue said, that mercy shall for euermore remaine :

In that thou dost the heauens stay thy truth appeareth plaine.

3 To mine elect, saith God, I made a souenant and behest :

My seruant David to perswade,
I swore and did protest.

4 Thy seed for euer I will Ray, and stablish it full fast :

And still vphold thy throne alway, from age to age to last.

5 The heauens shew with ioy and mirth, thy wondrous workes, O Lord :

Thy Saints within thy Church on earth, thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equall then in all the clouds abroad :

Among the sonnes of all the Gods
what one is like our God :

7 God in assembly of the Saines is greatly to be dread :

And ouer all that dwell about,
in terrour to be had.

8 Lord God of hosts in all the world,
what one is like to thee :

On euery side most mighty Lord thy truth is seene to be.

9 The raging sea by thine aduise, thou rulest at thy will :

And when the waues thereof arise, thou mak'st them calme and still.

10 And Egypt thou Lord hast subdu'd, and thou hast it destroid :

Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arme, hast scattered all abroad.

The second part.

11 The heauens are thine, and still haue been likewise the earth and land :

The world with all that is therein,
thou foundest with thy hand.

12 Both North & South, with East & West, thy selfe didst make and frame :

Both Tabor Mount, and eke Hermon, reioyce and praise thy name.

13 Thine arme is strong and full of power,
all might therein doth lye :

The strength of thy right hand each houre,
thou listest vp on hie.

14 In righteousnesse and equitie, thou hast thy seate and place :

Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and goe before thy face.

15 That folke is blest that knoweth aright
thy present power O God :

For in the fauour of thy sight
they walke full safe abroad.

16 For in thy name throughout the day,
they ioy and much reioyce :

And through thy righteousness haue they a pleasant fame and noise.

17 For why ? their glory, strength and aide in thee alone doth lie :

Thy goodnesse eke that hath vs saide, shall lift our horse on hie.

18 Our strength that doth defend vs well,
the Lord to vs doth bring :

The holy one of Israel
he is our guide and King.

19 Sometime thy will vnto thy Saines in visions thou didst show :

And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy minde to make them know.

A man of might I haue erect your King and guide to be :

And set him vp whom I elect, among the folke to me.

The third part.

20 My seruant David I appointe, whom I haue searched out :

And with my holy oyle anoint him King of all the rout.

21 For why ? my hand is ready still with him for to remaine :

And with mine arme also I will him strengthen and sustaine.

22 The enemies shall not him oppresse,
they shall him not deuoure :

Ne yet the sonnes of wickednesse,
on him shall haue no power.

23 His foes likewise I will destroy,
before his face in sight :

And those that hate him I will plague, and strike them with my might.

24 My truth and mercy eke withall, shall still vpon him lie :

And in my name his horne eke shall be lifted vp on hie.

25 His kingdome I will set to be vpon the sea and land :

And eke the running foulds shall he embrace with his right hand.

26 He shall depend with all his heart on me, and thus shall say :

My Father and my God thou art,
my rocke of health and stay.

And to thy name O thou most high,
to sing with one accord.
2 To shew the kindnesse of the Lord
betime ere day be light:
And eke declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.
3 Vpon ten stringed instruments, on Lute and Harpe so sweet:
With all the mirth you can inuent,
of instruments most meet.
4 For thou hast made me reioyce in things so wrought by thee:
And I haue ioy in heart and voyce thy handy workes to see.
5 O Lord, how glorious and how great are all thy workes so stout:
So deeply are thy counsels set:
that none can try them out.
6 The man vnwise hath not the wit this geare to passe to bring:
And all such fooles are nothing fit to vnderstand this thing.
7 When so the wicked at their will,
as grassie doe spring full fast:
They when they flourish in their ill for euer shall be waste.
8 But thou art mighty Lord most high, yea, thou dost raigne therefore:
In every time eternally,
both now and euermore.
9 For why? O Lord, behold and see, behold thy foes I say:
How all that worke iniquitie shall perish and decay.
10 But thou like as an Vnicorne, shalt lift my horne on hie:
With freih and new prepared oyle, thine oynted King am I.
11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame:
Of all that vp against me rise,
mine eare shall heare the same.
12 The iust shall flourish vp on hie,
as Date trees bud and blow:
And as the Cedars multiply in Libanus that grow.
13 For they are planted in the place and dwelling of our God:
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.
14 And in their age much fruit shall bring,
both fat and well besene:
And pleasantly both bud and spring,
with boughes and branches greene.
15 To shew that God is good and iust, and vpriight in his will:
He is my rocke, my hope and trust,
in him there is nont ill.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xCiiij. I. H.

He praiseth the power of God, in the creation of the world, and beateth downe all people which lift themselves against his Maiesty, and promoueth to consider his premises.

Sing this as the 77. Psalm.

The Lord as King aloft doth raigne,
in glory goodly dight:

And he to shew his strength and maine hath girt himselfe with might.
2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made,
and shaped it so fare:
No might can make it moue or fade,
at stay it doth endure.
3 Ere that the world was made or wrought,
thy seate was set before:
Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou hast bene euermore.
4 The floods O Lord, the floods doe rise, they roare and make a noyse:
The floods (I say) did enterprife, and lifted vp their voyce.
5 Yea, though the stormes arise in sight, though seas doe rage and swell:
The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.
6 And looke what promise he doth make his houshold to defend,
For iust and true they shall it take all times without an end.

Deus ultionum. Psal. xCiiij. I. H.

He prayeth God against the violence of tyrants, and comforteth the afflicted, by the good issue of their afflictions, and by the ruine of the wicked.

Sing this as the 78. Psalm.

O Lord thou dost reuenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee:
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong, declare that all may see.
2 Set forth thy telfe, for thou of right
the earth dost iudge and guide:
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.
3 How long shall wicked men beare sway, with lifting vp their voyce?
How long shall wicked men I say,
thus triumph and reioyce?
4 How long shall they with brags burst out, and proudly prate their fill?
Shall they reioyce which be stout, whose workes are euer ill?
5 Thy flocke O Lord, thine heritage, they spoile and vex full sore:
Against thy people they doe rage still daily more and more.
6 The widowes which are comfortlesse, and strangers they destroy:
They slay the children fatherlesse, and none doth put them by.
7 And when they take these things in hand
this talke they haue of thee:
Can Iacobs God this vnderstand?
tush no, he cannot see.
8 O folke vnwise and people rade, some knowledge now discern:
Ye fooles among the multitude,
at length begin to learne.
9 The Lord which made the eare of man,
he needes of right must heare:
He made the eyne, all things must than before his sight appeare.
10 The Lord doth all the world correct, and make them vnderstand:
Shall he not then your deeds detect?
how can ye scape his hand?

The ſecond part.

- 11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of man his heart he ſeeth full plaine :
- The Lord I ſay mens thoughts doth ſcan, and findeth them but vaine.
- 12 But Lord that man is happy ſure, whom thou doeſt keepe in awe :
- And through correction doeſt procure,
to teach him in thy law.
- 13 Whereby he ſhall in quiet reſt,
in time of trouble ſit :
- When wicked men ſhall be ſuppreſt, and fall into the pit.
- 14 For ſure the Lord will not reſuſe, his people for to take :
- His heritage whom he did chuſe,
he will no time forſake.
- 15 Vntill that iudgement be decreed, to iuſtice to convert :
- That all may follow her with ſpeed :
- that are of vpright heart.
- 16 But who vpon my part ſhall ſtand, againſt the curſed traine :
- Or who ſhall rid me from their hand,
that wicked works maintaine :
- 17 Except the Lord had bene mine aide,
mine enemies to expell :
- My ſoule and life had now bene laid almost as low as hell.
- 18 When I did ſay, my foote doth ſlide, and I am like to fall :
- Thy goodneſſe Lord did ſo provide,
to ſtay me vp withall.
- 19 When with my ſelfe I muſed much,
and could no comfort finde :
- Then Lord thy goodneſſe did me touch, and that did eaſe my minde :
- 20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy ſelfe and draw with wicked men to ſit :
- Which with pretence in ſtead of law, much miſchiefe doe commit :
- 21 For they conſult againſt the life of righteous men and good :
- And in their counſels they are riſe,
to ſhed the guiltleſſe blood.
- 22 But yet the Lord he is to me a ſtrong defence or rocke :
- He is my God, to him I flee,
he is my ſtrength and rocke.
- 23 And he ſhall cauſe their miſchiefes all themſelues for to annoy :
- And in their malice they ſhall fall,
our God ſhall them deſtroy.

Venite exultemus Pſal.XCvj I.H.

An earnest exhortation to praife God for the government of the world & election of his Church, to ſchue the rebellion of the old fathers, who tempted God in the wildeſſe, and therefore entered not the land of promiſe.

Sing this as the 77.Pſalme.

- Come let vs liſt vp our voyce, and ſing vnto the Lord :
- In him our rocke of health reioyce let vs with one accord.
- 2 Yea, let vs come before his face,
to giue him thanks and praife :

In ſinging Pſalmes vnto his grace,
let vs be glad alwaies.

- 3 For why : the Lord he is no doubt,
a great and mighty God,
A king aboue all Gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.
- 4 The ſecrets of the earth ſo deepe, and corners of the land :
- The tops of hills that are ſo ſteepe,
he hath then in his hand.
- 5 The ſea and waters all are his,
for he the ſame hath wrought,
The earth and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nought.
- 6 Come let vs bow and praife the Lord,
before him let vs fall ;
- And kneele to him with one accord,
the which hath made vs all.
- 7 For why : he is the Lord our God,
for vs he doth prouide :
- We are his ſlocke, he doth vs feed, his ſheepe, and he our guide.
- 8 To day if ye his voyce will heare, then harden not your heart :
- As ye with grutching many a yeere prouokt me in deſert.
- 9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to proue :
- My wondrous works when they did ſee, yet ſtill they would me moue.
- 10 Twice twenty yeeres they did me grieue,
and I to them did ſay :
- They erre in heart, and not beleuee,
they haue not knowne my way.
- 11 Wherefore I ſware when that my wrath was kindled in my breaſt :
- That they ſhould neuer tread the path, to enter in my reſt.

Cantate Dom. Pſal.XCvj I.H.

An exhortation both to the Iewes and Gentiles to praife God for his mercie: and this ſpecially ought to be referred to the kingdome of Chriſt.

Sing this as the 77.Pſalme.

- S Ing ye with praife vnto the Lord
new ſongs of ioy and mirth :
- Sing vnto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.
- 2 Yea, ſing vnto the Lord, I ſay, praife ye his holy name :
- Declare and ſhew from day to day, ſaluation by the ſame.
- 3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about :
- To ſhew his wonders doe not ſpare,
in all the world throughout.
- 4 For why : the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praife alway :
- And he is to be dread of right,
about all Gods I ſay.
- 5 For all the Gods of heathen folke, are Idols that will fade :
- But yet our God he is the Lord, that hath the heauens made.
- 6 All praife and honour eke doe dwell,
for aye before his face :

Both power and might likewise excell
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe vnto the Lord alway, ye people of the world,
All might and worship eke, I say, ascribe vnto the Lord.

8 Ascribe vnto the Lord also,
the glory of his name :
And eke into his courts doe goe, with gifts vnto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall downe, and worship ye the Lord,
within his temple bright:

Let all the people of the world,
be fearefull at his sight.

10 Tell all the world, be not agast,
the Lord doth raigne aboute :
Yea, he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can neuer moue.

11 And that it is the Lord alone, that rules with princely might,
To iudge the nations euery one,
with equity and right.

12 The heauens shall great ioy begin,
the earth eke shall reioyce :
The sea withall that is therein, shall thout and make a noyse.

13 The field shall ioy, and euery thing that springeth on the earth:
The wood and euery tree shall sing,
with gladnesse and with mirth.

14 Before the presence of the Lord, and comming of his might,
When he shall iustly iudge the world,
and rule his folke with right.

Dominus reg. Psal. XCvij. I.H.

David exhorteth all to reioyce for the comming of the kingdome of Christ, dreadfull to the rebels and Idolaters, and ioyfull to the iust, whom he exhor-teth to innocency, to reioicing and thankgiuing.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

The Lord doth raigne, whereat the earth may ioy with pleasant voyce :

And eke the Isles with ioyfull mirth,
may triumph and reioyce.

2 Both clouds and darknesse eke doe swell, and round about him beate :

Yea, right and iustice euer dwell,
and bide about his seat.

3 Yea, fire and heate at once doe runne, and goe before his face :

Which shall his foes and enemies burne, abroad in euery place.

4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze,
and to the world appeare :

Whereat the earth did looke and gaze,
with dread and deadly feare.

5 The hills like waxe did melt in sight, and presence of the Lord :

They fled before that rulers might,
which guideth all the world.

6 The heauens eke declare and shew his iustice all abroad :

That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure shall come to such,

as worship Idols vaine :

And eke to those that glory much,
dumbe pictures to maintaine.

8 For all the Idols of the world, which they as Gods doe call :
Shall feeble the power of the Lord,
and downe to him shall fall.

9 With ioy shall Sion heare this thing,
and Iuda shall reioyce :

For at thy iudgement they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noyse.

10 That thou O Lord art set on high,
in all the earth abroad,
And art exalted wondrously, about each other God.

11 All ye that loue the Lord doe this, hate all things that are ill :

For he doth keepe the soules of his,
from such as would them spill.

12 And light doth spring vp to the iust, with pleasure for his part :
Great ioy with gladnesse, mirth and lust,
to them of vpriight heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord reioyce,
his holinesse proclaim :

Be thankfull eke with heart and voyce,
and mindfull of the same.

Cantate Dom. Psal. XCvij. I.H.

An earnest exhortation to all creatures to praise the Lord for his power, mercy and fidelity in his promise by Christ, by whom he hath communicated his saluation to all nations.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

O Sing ye now vnto the Lord
a new and pleasant song :

For he hath wrought throughout the world,
his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worthily,
he doth his foes deuoure :

And gets himselfe the victory,
with his owne arme and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know his sauing health and might.

The Lord doth eke his iustice show,
in all the heathens sight.

4 His grace and truth to Israel,
in minde he doth record :

That all the earth hath seene right well,
the goodnesse of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with ioyfull voyce,
all people on the earth :

Giue thanks to God, sing and reioyce to him with ioy and mirth.

6 Vpon the harpe vnto him sing,
giue thanks to him with Psalmes :

Reioyce before the Lord our King :
with trumpets and with shalmes.

7 Yea, let the sea with all therein, for ioy both roare and swell :

The earth likewise let it begin, withall that therein dwell.

8 And let the founts reioyce their flls, and clap their hands apace.

And eke the mountaines and the hills,
before the Lord his face.

For he shall come to iudge and try
the world and euery wight :
And rule the people mightily with iustice and with right.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. xcix. I. H.

He commendeth the power, equitie, and excellency of the kingdome of God by Christ, ouer the Iewes and Gentiles, prouoking them to magnifie the same, and to feare the Lord as the ancient Fathers, Moses, Aaron, and Samuel, who calling upon God, were heard in their prayers.

Sing this as the 65. Psalme.

THe Lord doth raigne, although at it
the people rage full fore :

Yea, he on Cherubins doth sit,
though all the world doe roare.

1 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell, is high and wondrous great :
Abooue all folke he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty name, for it is fearefull sure :

And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.

4 The Princely power of our King doth loue iudgement and right :
Thou rightly rulest euery thing in Iacob through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God deuise, all honour to him doe :
His foot-stoole worship him before,
for he is holy to.

6 Moses, Aaron and Samuel,
as Priests on him did call :

When they did pray, he heard them well,
and gaue them answer all.

7 Within the cloud to them he spake, then did they labour still :

To keepe such lawes as he did make and pointed them vntill.

8 O Lord our God thou didst them beare, and answerdst them againe :

Thy mercy did on them appeare, their deeds didst not maintaine.

9 O laud and praise our Lord and God, within his holy hill :

For why ? our God throughout the world is holy euer still.

Tubilate Deo omnes. Psal. C.

Hee exhorteth all men to serue the Lord, who hath made vs to enter into his courts and assemblies, to praise his name.

All people that on earth doe dwell,

sing to the Lord with chearefull voyce :

2. Him serue with feare, his praise forth tell,

Come ye before him and reioyce.

3 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did vs make :
We are his flocke he doth vs feede, and for his sheepe he doth vs take.

4 O enter then his gates with praise, approach with ioy his courts vnto, Praise, laud and blesse his name alwayes,
for it is seemely so to doe.

5 For why ? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for euer sure :
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same.

Sing this as the 68. Psalme.

IN God the Lord be glad and light, praise him throughout the earth :
Serue him and come before his sight,
with singing and with mirth.

2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did vs make and keepe :

Not we our felues, for we are his owne flocke and pasture sheepe.

3 O goe into his gates alwayes, giue thanks within the same :
Within his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy name.

4 For why ? the goodnesse of the Lord for euermore doth raigne :
From age to age throughout the world his truth doth still remaine.

Misericordiam. Psal. Cj. N.

Dauid describeth what gouernment he will obserue in his house and Kingdome, by rooting out the wicked, and cherishing the godly persons.

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

I Mercy will and iudgement sing
O Lord God vnto thee :

2 And wisely doe in perfect way, vntill thou come to me.

3 And in the midst of my house walke,
in purenesse of my spirit :

And I no kinde of wicked thing will set before my sight.

4 I hate their workes that fall away,
it shall not cleaue to me :

From me shall part the froward heart, none euill will I see

5 Him will I stroy that slandereth his neighbour priuily :

The lofty heart I cannot beare,
nor him that looketh hic.

6 Mine eyes shall be on them, within the land, that faithfull be :

In perfect way who walketh shall be seruant vnto me.

7 I will no guilefull person haue within my house to dwell :

And in my presence he shall not remain that lyes doth tell.

8 Betimes I will destroy euery all the wicked of the land :

That I may from Gods Citie cut the wicked workers hand.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cij. I.H.

It seemeth that this prayer was appointed to the faithfull to pray in the captiuitie of Babilon. A consolation for the building of the Church, whereof followeth the praise of God to be published vnto all posterities. The conuersion of the Gentiles, and stablishment of the Church.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme.

O Heare my prayer Lord, and let my cry come vnto thee :

- 2 In time of trouble doe not hide thy face away from me.
- 3 Incline thine eares to me, make haste to heare me when I call :

For as the smoake doth fade, so doe my dayes consume and fall.

4 And as a harth my bones are burnt, my heart is smitten dead :

And withers as the grasse, that I forget to eate my bread.

5 By reason of my groaning voyce, my bones cleaue to my skin :

6 As Pelican in wilderness, such case now am I in.

7 And as an Owle in desert is, loe I am such a one :

7 I watch, and as a Sparrow on the house top am alone.

8 Loe daily in reproachfull wise mine enemies doe me scorne :

And they that doe against me rage, against me they haue sworne.

9 Surely with ashes as with bread, my hunger I haue filld :

And mingled haue my drinke with teares, that from mine eyes haue stild.

10 Because of thy displeasure Lord, thy wrath, and thy disdain :

For thou hast lifted me aloft, and cast me downe againe.

11 The dayes wherein I passe my life, are like the fleeting shade :

And I am withered like the grasse, that soone away doth fade.

12 But thou O Lord for euer dost remaine in steady place :

And thy remembrance euer doth abide from race to race.

The second part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou to Sion wilt extend :

The time of mercy, now the time fore-set, is come to end.

14 For euen in the stones thereof thy seruants doe delight :

And on the dust thereof they haue compassion in their spirit.

15 Then shall the heathen people feare the Lords most holy name :

And all the Kings on earth shall dread thy glory, and thy fame.

16 Then when the Lord the mighty God againe shall Sion reare :

And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appeare.

17 To prayer of the desolate when he himselfe shall bend :

When he shall not disdain vnto their prayers to attend.

18 This shall be written for the age that after shall succede :

The people yet vncreated the Lords renowne shall spread.

19 For he from his high Sanctuary hath looked downe below :

And out of heauen hath the Lord beheld the earth also.

20 That of the mourning captiue he might heare the wofull cry :

And that he might deliuer those that damned are to dye.

21 That they in Sion might declare the Lords most holy name :

And in Ierusalem set forth the praises of the same.

22 Then when the people of the land, and Kingdomes with accord,

Shall be assembled for to doe their seruice to the Lord.

The third part.

23 My former force and strength he hath abated in the way :

And shorter he did cut my dayes, thus I therefore did say :

24 My God in midst of all my dayes now take me now away :

Thy yeares endure eternally, from age to age for aye.

25 Thou the foundation of the earth before all times hast laid :

And Lord the heauens are the worke, which thine owne hands haue made.

26 Yea, they shall perish and decay, but thou shalt tarry still :

And they shall all in time waxe old, euen as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them change, and changed shall they be :

But thou dost still abide the same, thy yeares doe neuer flee.

28 The children of thy seruants shall continually endure :

And in thy sight their happy feede for euer shall stand sure.

Benedic anima. Psal. Cij. T. S.

The Prophet praueth men and Angels, and all creatures to praise the Lord for his fatherly mercies, in deliuerance of his people from euils, in his providence ouer all things, and in preservation of the faithfull.

M

Y soule giue laud vnto the Lord, my spirit shall doe the same : And all the secrets of my heart, prayse ye his holy name, Giue thanks to God for all

all his gifts, shew not thy selfe vnkinde,
And suffer not his benefites to slip out of thy minde.

3 That gaue thee pardon for thy faults, and thee restor'd againe :

For all thy weake and fraile disease,
and heald thee of thy paine.

4 That did redeem thy life from death, from which thou couldst not flee,
His mercy and compassion both,
he did extend to thee.

5 That fill'd with goodnesse thy desire, and did prolong thy youth :

Like as the Eagle casts her bill,
whereby her age reneweth :

6 The Lord with iustice doth repay
all such as be oppress :

So that their sufferings and their wrongs, are turned to the best.

7 His waies and his commandements, to Moses he did shew.

His counsels and his valiant acts,
the Israelites did know.

8 The Lord is kinde and mercifull, when sinners doe him grieue,
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.

9 He chides not vs continually, though we be full of strife :

Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.

10 Nor yet according to our sinnes
the Lord doth vs regard :

Nor after our iniquities,
he doth not vs reward.

11 But as the space is wondrous great,
twixt earth and heauen above :

So is his goodnesse much more large,
to them that doe him loue.

12 God doth remove our sinnes from vs, and our offences all :

As farre as is the sunne rising, full distant from his fall.

The second part.

13 And looke what pitie parents deare vnto their children beare :

Like pitie beareth God to such as worship him in feare.

14 The Lord that made vs knowes our shape, our mould and fashion iust :

How weake and fraile our nature is,
and how we be but dust.

15 And how the time of mortall men, is like the withering hay :

Or like the flower right faire in field,
that fades full soone away.

16 Whose glosse and beauty stormy winde, doe vtterly disface.

And make that after their assaults, such blossomes haue no place.

17 But yet the goodnesse of the Lord,
with his shall euer stand :

Their childrens children doe receiue,
his righteousnesse at hand.

18 I meane which keepe his couenant, with all their whole desire :

And not forget to doe the thing, that he doth them require.

19 The heauens high are made the seate, and footstool of the Lord :

And by his power imperiall,
he gouernes all the world.

20 Ye Angels which are great in power, praise ye and blesse the Lord :

Which to obey and doe his will, immediately accord.

21 Ye noble hoasts and Ministers, cease not to laud him still :

Which ready are to execute,
his pleasure and his will :

22 Ye all his workes in euery place,
praise ye his holy name :

My heart, my minde, and eke my soule,
praise ye also the same.

Benedic anima. Psal. Ciiij. W.K.

A thanksgiving for the creation of the world, and gouernance of the same, by his maruelous providence : also a prayer against the wicked, who are occasions that God disinherit his blessings.

MY soule praise the Lord, speake good of his name: O Lord our great

God, how dost thou appeare? So passing in glory, that great is thy fame,

Honour and maiestie in thee shine most clear: With light as a robe, thou hast thee beclad, whereby all the earth thy greatnesse may see, the heauens in such sort thou also hast spread, That it to a curtaine compared may be.

- 3 His chamber beames lie,
in the cloudes full sure:
Which as his chariot,
are made him to beare.
And there with much swiftnesse his course doth endure:
Vpon the wings riding,
of winde in the ayre.
- 4 He maketh his spirits
as heralds to goe:
And lightnings to serue,
we see also preit.
His will to accomplish,
they runne to and fro.
To saue or consume things as seemeth him best.
- 5 He grounded the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to moue,
none shall haue such power:
The deepe a faire couering,
for it made thou hast:
Which by his owne nature
the hils would deuourc.
- 7 But at thy rebuke,
the waters doe flie,
And so giue due place,
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearefull they be.
That in their great raging,
they haste soone away.
- 8 The mountaines fullhie,
they then vp ascend:
If thou doe but speake thy word they fulfill.
So likewise the waues
most quickly descend.
Where thou them appointest, remaine they doe still.
- 9 Their bounds thou hast set,
how farre they shall runne.
So as in their rage,
not that passe they can.
For God hath appointed,
they shall not returne,
The earth to destroy more,
which was made for man.

The second part.

- 10 He sendeth the springs to strong streames and lakes:
Which runne doe full swift among the huge hils.
- 11 Where both the wilde asses their thirst oft-times slakes:
And beasts of the mountaines, thereof drinke their sils.
- 12 By these pleasant springs,
or fountaines full faire:
The fowles of the aire abide shall and dwell.
- 13 Who moued by nature,
to hop here and there:
Among the greene branches their songs shall excell.

- 14 The mountaines to moyft
the cloudes he doth vie:
The earth with his workes, are wholly repleate.
- 15 So as the brute cattell he doth not refuse:
But grasse doth prouide them,
and hearbe for mans meate.
Yea bread, Wine and Oyle,
he made for mans sake.
His face to refresh and heart to make strong.
- 16 The Cedars of Liban,
this great God did make,
Which trees he doth nourish, that grow vp so long.
- 17 In those may birds build and make there their nest:
In firre trees the Storkes remaine and abide.
- 18 The high hils are succours
for wilde Goates to rest:
And eke the rocks stonie,
for Conies to hide.
- 19 The Moone then is set,
her seasons to runne:
The daies from the nights,
thereby to discerne,
And by the descending also of the Sunne,
The cold from heate alway thereby we doe learne.
- 20 When darknesse doth come,
by Gods will and power,
Then creepe forth doe all the beasts of the wood.
- 21 The Lions range roaring, their prey to deuoure:
But yet it is thou Lord which giuest them food.
- 22 As soone as the Sunne is vp, they retire:
To couch in their dens
then are they full saine
- 23 That man to his worke may as right doth require,
Till night come and call him,
to take rest againe.

The third part.

- 24 How sundry (O Lord)
are all thy works found:
With wisdom full great,
they are indeede wrought.
So that the whole world of thy praise doth sound.
And as for thy riches
they passe all mens thought.
- 25 So as the great Sea, which large is and broad,
Where things that creepe swarme,
and beasts of each fort.
- 26 There both mighty ships saile,
and some lie at road:
The Whale huge and monstrous,
there also doth sport.
- 27 All things on thee waire,
thou dost them relieue,
And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.

28 Now when it doth please thee,
the same so to giue,
They gather full gladly those things which they need.
Thou openest thy hand,
and they finde such grace :
That they with good things are filled we see.

29 But fore are they troubled,
if thou turne thy face :
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.

30 Againe, when thy spirit from them doth proceed :

All things to appoint and what shall ensue.

31 Then are they created,
as thou hast decreed :

And dost by thy goodnesse
the dry earth reue.

32 The praise of the Lord for euer shall last :

Who may in his works
by right well reioyce.
His looke can the earth make to tremble full fast :

And likewise the mountaines to smoake at his voyce.

33 To this Lord and God, sing will I alwaies,

So long as I liue
my God praise will I.

34 Then am I most certaine, my words shall him please :

I will reioyce in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The sinners O Lord, consume in thine ire,

And eke the peruerse them root out with shame :

But as for my soule now,
let it still desire :

And say with the faithfull, praise ye the Lords name.

Confitemini Dom Psal. Cv. N.

He praiseth the singular goodnesse of God, for chusing a peculiar people to himselfe, neuer ceasing to doe them good, euen for his promise sake.

Sing this as the 59. Psalme.

GIue praises vnto God the Lord,
and call vpon his name :

Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.

2 Sing ye vnto the Lord I say,
and sing vnto him praise,
And talke of all the wondrous works,
that he hath wrought alwaies.

3 In honour of his holy name,
reioyce with one accord :

And let the heart also reioyce,
of them that seeke the Lord.

4 Seeke ye the Lord, and seeke the strength of his eternall might :

And seeke his face continually,
and presence of his sight.

5 The wondrous works that he hath done, keepe still in mindfull heart.

Ne let the iudgements of his mouth,

out of your mindes depart.

6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham his seruant are the seed :

Ye his elect, the children that of Iacob doe proceed.

7 For he, he onely is I say,
the mighty Lord our God :
And his most rightfull iudgements are through all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his couenant, which he hath made to his :

He hath remembered euermore, to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The couenant which he hath made,
with Abraham long agoe :
And faithfull oath which he hath sworne, to Isaac also :

10 And did confirme the same for law,
that Iacob should obey :

And for eternall couenant, to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, loe I to you all Canaan land will giue :

The lot of your inheritance, wherein your seed shall liue.

12 Although the number at that time,
did very small appeare :

Yea very small, and in the land they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walkt from land to land without a sure abode.

And while from sundry kingdomes they did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppressors hand, he suffered them to take :

But euen the great and mighty Kings, reproved for their sake.

15 And thus he said, touch none of those,
that mine annointed be :

Ne doe the Prophets any harme, that doe pertaine to me.

16 He call'd a dearth vpon the land, of bread he stroyd the store :

But he against their time of neede had sent a man before.

The third part.

17 Euen Ioseph which had once beene sold to liue a slave in woe :

18 Whose feet they hurt in stockes, whose the iron piersd also.

19 Vntill the time came when his cause was knowne apparently :

The mighty word of God the Lord his faultlesse truth did trie.

20 The King sent and deliuered him from prison where he was :

The ruler of the people then did freely let him passe.

21 And ouer all his house he made him Lord, to beare the sway :

And of his substance made him haue
the rule and all the stay.

22 That he might to his will instruct the Princes of the land :

And wisdomes lore his ancient men might teach to vnderstand.

- 23 Then into the Egyptian land, came Israel also :
And Iacob in the land of Ham did liue a stranger tho.
- 24 His people he exceedingly in number made to flow :
And ouer all their enemies in strength he made them grow.
- 25 Whose hart he turn'd, that they with hate his people did intreat :
And did his seruants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth part.

- 26 His faithfull seruant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to goe to them,
his message to disclose.
- 27 The wondrous message of his signes among them they did shew :
And wonders in the land of Ham then did they worke also.
- 28 Darknesse he sent and made it darke,
in stead of brighter day :
And vnto his commillion
they did not disobey.
- 29 He turn'd their waters into bloud,
he did their fishes slay :
30 Their land brought frogs, euen in the place where their King Pharaoh lay.
- 31 He spake, and at his voyce, there came great swarmes of noysome flies :
And all the quarters of their land were filld with crawling lice.
- 32 He gaue them cold and stony haile
in stead of milder raine :
And fiery flames within their land
he sent vnto their paine.
- 33 He smote their vines, and all their trees whereon their figs did grow,
And all the trees within their coasts,
downe did he ouerthrow.
- 34 He spake, then Caterpillers did,
and Grasshoppers abound.
- 35 Which eate the grasse in all their land, and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth part.

- 36 The first begotten in their land,
eke deadly did he smite :
Yea the beginning and first fruit, of all their strength and might.
- 37 With gold and siluer he them brought;
from Egypt land to passe :
And in the number of the tribes,
no feeble one there was.
- 38 Egypt was glad and ioyfull then,
when they did thence depart :
For terror and the feare of them,
was false into their heart.
- 39 To throude them from the parching heat,
a cloud he did display,
And fire he sent to giue them light,
when night had hid the day.
- 40 They asked, and he caused Quails to raigne at their request :
And fully with the bread of heauen,
their hunger he repress.

- 41 He opened then the stonie rocke, and water gushed out :
And in the dry and parched grounds,
like riuers ranne about.
- 42 For of his holy couenant, aye mindfull was he tho :
Which to his seruant Abraham,
he plighted long agoe.
- 43 He brought his people forth with mirth,
and his elect with ioy :
Out of the cruell land, where they had liu'd in great annoy.
- 44 And of the heathen men he gaue to them the fruitfull lands,
The labours of the people eke,
they tooke into their hands,
- 45 That they his holy statutes might obserue for euermore :
And faithfully obey his lawes,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. Cvj. N.

The people dispersed vnder Antiochus, do magnifie the goodnesse of God among the repentant, and pray to be gathered from among the heathen, that they may praise his name.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

- Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for aye:
- 2 Who can expresse his noble acts, or all his praise display :
- 3 They blessed are that iudgement keepe,
and iustly doe alway :
- With fauour of thy people Lord,
remember me I pray.
- 4 And with thy sauing health O Lord, vouchsafe to visit me :
That I the great felicity of thine elect may see.
- 5 And with thy peoples ioy I may,
a ioyfull minde possesse :
And may with thine inheritance,
a glorying heart expresse.
- 6 Both we and eke our fathers all,
haue sinned euery one :
We haue committed wickednesse, and lewdly we haue done.
- 7 The wonders great which thou O Lord,
hast done in Egypt land :
Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not vnderstand.
- Nor they thy mercies multitude did keepe in thankfull minde,
But at the sea, yea the red sea, rebelled most vnkinde.
- 8 Neuerthelesse he saued them,
for honour of his name :
That he might make his power knowne,
and spread abroad his fame.
- 9 The red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dride :
And as in wildernesse, so through the deepe he did them guide.
- 10 He saued them from the cruell hand of their despitefull foe :
And from the enemies hand he did deliuer them also.

The second part.

- 11 The waters their oppressors whelme,
not one was leſſe aliue :
- 12 Then they beleeu'd his words, and praise in song they did him giue.
- 13 But by and by vnthankfully his works they cleane forgot :
And for his counsell and his law
they did neglect to waite.
- 14 But lusted in the wilderness with fond and greedy lust :
And in the desert tempted God,
the slay of all their trust.
- 15 And then their wanton mindeſe deſire
he ſuffered them to haue :
But waſhing Ieannesse therewithall into their ſoules he gaue.
- 16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moſes they did grutch :
Aaron the holy of the Lord ſo did they enuy much.
- 17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did deuoure :
And all Abirams company
did couer in that houre.
- 18 In their aſſembly kindled was the hot conſuming fire :
And waſting flames did then burne vp the wicked in his ire.
- 19 Vpon the hill of Horeb they an Idoll Calſe did frame :
And there the moulten image they did worſhip of the ſame.
- 20 Into the likenesse of a Calſe, that feedeth on the graſſe :
Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deſace.
- 21 And God their onely Sauour vnkindly they forgot :
Which manv great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought,

The third part.

- 22 And in the land of Ham, for them
moſt wondrous workes had done :
And by the red ſea dreadfull things performed long ago.
- 23 Therefore for their ſo ſhewing them
forgetfull and vnkinde :
To bring deſtruction on them all he purpoſe in his minde.
- Had not his choſen Moſes ſtood before him in the breake :
To turne his wrath leſt he on them,
with ſlaughter ſhould him wreake.
- 24 They did diſpiſe the pleaſant land,
that he beight to giue :
Yea, and the words that he had ſpoke
they did no whit beleeue.
- 25 But in their tents with grudging hearts,
they wickedly repin'd :
Nor to the voice of God the Lord they gaue an harkning minde.
- 26 Therefore againſt them liſted he his ſtrong reuenging hand :
Them to deſtroy in wilderness,
ere they ſhould ſee the land.

- 27 And to deſtroy their ſeed among the nations with his rod :
And through the countries of the world to ſcatter them abroad.
- 28 To Baal-Peor then they did adioyne themſelues alſo :
And ate the offerings of the dead,
ſo they forſooke him tho.
- 29 Thus with their owne inuentions his wrath they did prouoke :
And in his ſo enkindled wrath
the plague vpon them broke.
- 30 But Phinees ſtood vp with zeale
the ſinners vile to ſlay :
And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did ſtay.

The fourth part.

- 31 It was imputed vnto him for righteousneſſe that day :
And from thence-forth ſo counted is from race to race for aye.
- 32 At waters cle of Meribah they did him angry make :
Yea, ſo farre forth that Moſes was then puniſht for their ſake :
- 33 Becauſe they vext his ſpirit ſo fore,
that in impatient heart,
His lips ſpake vnaduſedly, his ſeruour was ſo great.
- 34 Nor as the Lord commanded them, they ſlew the people tho :
- 35 But were among the heathen mixt, and learn'd their workes alſo.
- 36 And did their Idols ſerue, which were their ruine and decay :
- 37 To ſeeds their ſons and daughters they did offer vp and ſlay :
- 38 Yea, with vnkindly murdering knife
the guiltleſſe blond they ſpilt :
Yea, their owne ſonnes and daughters bloud, without all cauſe of guilt.
- Whom they to Canaan Idols then offered with wicked hand :
And ſo with bloud of innocents deſiled was the land.
- 39 Thus were they ſtained with the workes of their owne filthy way :
And with their owne inuentions a whoring did they ſtay.
- 40 Therefore againſt his people was the Lords wrath kindled fore :
And euen his owne inheritance,
therefore he did abhorre.
- 41 Into the hands of heathen men,
he gaue them for a prey :
And made their foes their Lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fiſt part.

- 42 Yea, and their hatefull enemies
oppreſt them in the land :
And they were humbly made to ſloope,
as ſubie to their hand.
- 43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he deliuered them before :
But with their counſels they to wrath prouokt him caermore.

Therefore they by their wickednesse were brought full low to lye :

44 Yet when he saw them in distresse, he hearkned to their cry.

45 He cald to minde his covenant, which he to them had sworn :

And by his mercies multitude, repented him therefore.

46 And fauour he them made to finde before the sight of those

That led them captiue from their land, when earst they were their foes.

47 Saue vs O Lord that art our God, saue vs O Lord we pray :

And from among the heathen folke,
Lord gather vs away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise of thy most holy name :

That we may glory in thy praise,
and founding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the God of Israel,
be blest for euermore :

Let all the people say Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Plal. Cviij. W.K.

*Dauid exhorteth all that are redeemed by the Lord, and gathered vnto him, to give thanks therefore,
who by sending prosperitie and aduantage bringeth men vnto him. Therefore as the righteous there reioyce, so shall the wicked haue their mounthes stopped.*

Sing this as the 96. Psalme.

GIVE thanks vnto the Lord our God,
for gracious is hee :

And that his mercy hath no end all mortall men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath, with thanks should praise his name :

And shew how they from foes are freed,
and how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands that lay so farre about :

From East to West, from North to South,
his hand did finde them out.

4 They wandred in the wildernesse, and strayed from the way :

And found no citie where to dwell,
that serue might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great,
in those deserts so void :

That faintnesse did them fore assault,
and eke their soules annoyd.

6 Then did they cry in their distresse
vnto the Lord for aid :

Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they praid.

7 And by that way that was most right,
he led them like a guide :

That they might to a citie goe,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his goodnesse then :

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

9 For he the empty soule sustaine, whom thirst had made to faint :

The hungry soule with goodnesse fed,
and did them eke acquaint.

10 Such as doe dwell in darknesse deepe, where they on death doe wait :

Fall bound to taste such troublous tonnes as iron chaines doe theate.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lords owne word,
they sought so to rebell :

Esteeming light his counsels hie, which doe so farre excell.

12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell downe with griefe :

And none was found so much to helpe, whereby to get reliefe.

13 Then did they cry in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aid :

Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they praid.

14 For he from darknesse out them broughe, and from deaths dreadfull shade :

Burling with force the iron bands, which did before them lade.

15 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then :

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

16 For he threw downe the gates of brasse, and brake them with strong hand :

The iron barres he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folke great plagues doe seele, and cannot from them wend :

But heape on more to those they haue,
because they doe offend.

18 Their soules so much did loath all meate, that none they could abide :

Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truely tride.

19 Then did they cry in their distresse
vnto the Lord for aid :

Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they praid.

20 For he then sent to them his word, which health did soone restore :

And brought them from those dangers deep,
wherein they were before.

The third part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then :

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

22 And let them offer sacrifice, with thanks and also feare :

And speake of all his wondrous workes, with glad and ioyfull cheare.

23 Such as in ships or brittle barkes into the seas descend :

Their merchandize through fearefull fowds to compasse and to end.

24 Those men are forced to behold the Lords workes what they be :

And in the dangerous deepe the same most marvellous they see.

25 For at his word the stormy winde, arise in a rage :

And stirreth vp the surges so,
as nought can them assuage.

26 Then are they lifted vp on high,
the clouds they seeme to gaine.

And plunging downe the depth vntill their soules consume with paine.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they reele :
As men with feare of witberest, or had of sense no feelee.

28 Then did they cry in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aide,
Who did remove their troublous state, according as they praide.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make the sturdie stormes to cease :
So that the great waues from their rage,
are brought to rest and peace.
30 Then are men glad, when rest is come,
which they so much doe craue,
And are by him in haueu brought,
which they so faine would haue.

The fourth part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindenesse then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

32 Let them in presence of the folke, with praise extoll his name :
And where the Elders doe conuent,
let them there doe the same.

33 For running floods to dry deserts
he doth oft change and turne,
And drieth vp as it were dust,
the springing well and bourne.

34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt, full barren doth he make :
When on their sinnes that dwell therein,
he doth iust vengeance take.

35 Again, the wildenesse full rude,
he maketh fruit to beare :
With pleasant springs of waters cleere, though none before were there.

36 Wherein such hungry soules are set,
as he doth freely chuse :
That they a citie may them build to dwell in for their vse.

37 That they may sow their pleasant land, and vineyards also plant :
To yeeld them fruits of such increase,
as none may seeme to want.

38 They multiply exceedingly, the Lord doth blesse them so :
Who doth also their bruit beasts make by numbers great to grow.

39 But when the faithfull are low brought,
by the oppressors stout,
And minish doe through many plagues, that compasse them about :

40 Then doth he Princes bring to shame, which did them fore oppress :
And likewise caused them to erre
within the wildernesse.

41 But yet the poore he raiseth vp out of their troubles deepe :
And oft-times doth his traine augment, much like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous shall behold this sight, and also much reioyce :
Whereas the wicked and perverser with griefe shall stop their voyce.

43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record :
For certainly such shall perceiue
the kindenesse of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Psal. Cviij. N.

David with heart and voyce praiseth the Lord, and assureth himselfe of the promise of God concerning hakinge downe ouer Israel, and his power against other nations, who though he seeme to forsake vs for a time, yet hee alone in the end will cast downe our enemies.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so :

I will aduance my voyce in song, and giuing praise also :

1 Awake my violl and my harpe sweet melody to make :
And in the morning I my selfe, right early will awake.

2 By me among the people (Lord) still praised shalt thou be :
And I among the heathen folke, will sing (O Lord) to thee.

3 Because thy mercy Lord is great about the heauens hie :
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds within the lofty skie.

4 About the starre heauens high,
exalt thy selfe O God :
And Lord display vpon the earth thy glory all abroad,

5 That thy dearly beloued may be set at liberty :
Helpe O my God with thy right hand,
and hearken vnto me.

6 God in his holinesse hath spoke :
(wherefore my ioyes abound,) Sichem I will diuide, and mete
the vale of Succoth ground.

7 And Gilead shall be mine owne, Manasses mine shall be :
My head-strength Ephraim, and Law shall Iuda giue for me.

8 Moab my washpot, and my shooe on Edom will I throw :
Vpon the land of Palestine in triumph will I goe.

9 Who shall into the citie strong be guide to conduct me :
Or how by whom to Edom land, conueyed shall I be :

10 It is not thou (O God) which late hadst vs forsaken quite :
And thou (O Lord) which with our host didst not goe forth to fight :

11 Giue vs (O Lord) thy sauing aide,
when troubles doe assaile :
For all the helpe of man is vaine,
and can no whit auale.

12 Through God we shall doe valiant acts, and worthy of renoune :
He shal subdue our enemies,
yea he shall tread them downe.

Deus, laudem meum Psal. Cix. N.

David being falsely accused by Saub flatterers, prayeth.

prayeth God to helpe him to destroy his enemies.
who represente Iudas the traitor vnto Iesus Christ and all like enemies of the Children of God.

Sing this as the 98. Psalm.

- IN speechlesse silence doe not hold,
O God thy tongue alwaies :
O God euen thou I say that art
the God of all my praise.
The wicked mouth and guilefull lips,
on me disclosed be :
And they with false and lying tongue,
haue spoken vnto me.
They did beset me round about,
with words of hatefull spight :
Without all cause of my desert, against me they did fight.
For my good will they were my foes,
but then gan I to pray :
My good with ill, my friendlinesse with hate they did repay.
Set thou the wicked oner him,
to haue the vpper hand :
At his right hand eke suffer thou,
his hatefull foe to stand.
When he is iudged, let him then condemned be therein :
And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into sinne, Few be his daies, his charge also,
let thou another take :
His children let be fatherlesse, his wife a widow make.
Let his off-spring be vagabonds,
to beg and seeke their bread :
Wandering out of the wonted place, where eartly they haue beene fed.
Let couetous extortioners catch all his goods and store :
And let the strangers spoile the fruit of all his toyle before.
Let there be none to pitie him,
let there be none at all :
That on his children fatherlesse, will let their mercy fall.

The second part.

- 13 And so let his posterity,
for euer be destroyde :
Their names out-blotted in the age,
that after shall succede.
14 Let not his fathers wickednesse, from Gods remembrance fall :
And let thou not his mothers sinne,
be done away at all.
15 But in the presence of the Lord,
let them remaine for aye :
That from the earth their memory,
he may cut cleane away.
16 Sith mercy he forgot to shew, but did pursue with spight
The troubled man, and sought to slay
the wofull hearted wight.
17 As he did cursing loue, it shall betide vnto him so :
And as he did not blessing loue,
it shall be farre him fro.
18 As he with cursing clad himselfe, so it like water shall

Into his bowels, and like oile, into his bones besfall.

- 19 As garment let isbe to him,
to couer him for aye :
And as a girdle wherewith he shall girded be alway.
20 Loe let the same be from the Lord,
the guerdon of my foe :
Yea, and of those that euill speake against my soule also.
21 But thou O Lord that art my God,
deale thou I say with me :
After thy name deliuee me,
for good thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distresse,
I needy am and poore :
And eke within my pained brest,
my heart is wounded fore.

The third part.

- 23 Euen so doe I depart away,
as doth declining shade :
And as the Grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.
24 With fasting long from needfull food, enfeebled are my knees :
And all her fainnesse hath my flesh enforced beene to leese.
25 And I also a vile reproch to them was made to be :
And they that did vpon me looke did shake their heads at me.
26 But thou O Lord that art my God,
mine aide and succour be :
According to thy mercy Lord,
saue and deliuee me.
27 And they shall know thereby, that this Lord is thy mighty hand :
And that thou, thou hast done it Lord,
so shall they vnderstand.
28 Although they curse with spite, yet thou shalt blesse with louing voyce :
They shall arise and come to shame,
thy seruant shall reioyce.
29 Let them be clothed all with shame,
that enemies are to me :
And with confusion as a cloake, eke couered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth give thanks vnto the Lord :
And I among the multitude his praises will record.
31 For he with helpe at his right hand, will stand the poore man by,
To saue him from the man that would condemne his soule to die.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. Cx. N.

Dauid prophetieth of the power and euermlasting kingdome of Christ, and of the Priesthood, which should put an end to the Priesthood of Lem.

Sing this as the 68. Psalm.

- THe Lord did say vnto my Lord, sit thou on my right hand,
Till I haue made thy foes a stoule, whereon thy feete shall stand.
3 The Lord shall out of Sion send,
the Scepter of thy might.

Amid thy mortall foes be thou
the ruler in their sight,

3 And in the day on which thy raigne and power they shall see:
Then hereby free-will offerings shall the people offer thee.

Yea, with an holy worshipping,
then shall they offer all:

Thy birth dew is the dew that doth from wombe of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and neuer will repent what he doth say:

By th' order of Melchisedech thou art a Priest for aye.

5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand that standeth for thy stay:

Shall wound for thee the stately Kings
vpon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he shall iudge, and fill the place with bodies dead:

And ouer diuers countries shall in funder smite the head.

7 And he shall drinke out of the brooke that runneth in the way:

Therefore he shall lift vp on high his royall head that day.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. Cxj. N.

Hee giueth thanks to the Lord for his mercifull works towards his Church, and declareth wherein true wisdom and right knowledge consisteth.

With heart I doe accord, to praise and laud the Lord, in presence of the iust: 2. For great his workes are found, to search them such are bound, as doe him loue and trust. 3. His workes are glorious, also his righteousnesse it doth endure for ever. 4. His wondrous workes hee would, wee still remember should,

his mercy faileth neuer,
Such as to him loue beare

A portion full faire
he hath vp for them laid.

For this they shall well finde,
He will them haue in minde, and keepe them, as he said.

6 For he did not disdaine

His workes to shew them plaine, by lightnings and by thunders:

When he the heachens land
Did giue into their hand, where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his workes ensueth
Both iudgement, right and truth, whereo his statutes tend:

8 They are decreed sure

For euer to endure,
which equitie doth end.

Redemption he gaue,
His people for to saue:

9 And hath also required
His promise not to faile,

But alwayes to preuaile:
his holy name be feared.

10 Who so with heart full faine
True wisdom would attaine,

the Lord feare and obey,
Such as his lawes doe keepe shall knowledge haue full deepe, his praise shall last for aye.

Beatus vir. Psal. Cxij. W. K.

He prayeth the felicity of them that feare God, and condemneth the cursed state of the contemners of God.

Sing this as the Lords Prayer.
The man is blest that God doth feare,
And that his lawes doth loue indeede:

2 His seede on earth God will vpeare,
And blest such as from him proceede:

3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousnesse endure shall still.

4 Vnto the righteous doth arise
In trouble ioy, in darknesse light:

Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy alwayes in his fight:

5 Yea, pittie moueth such to lend,
He doth by iudgement things expend.

6 And surely such shall neuer faile,
For a remembrance had is hee:

7 No tidings ill can make him quail,
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see:

8 His heart is firme, his feare is fast,
For he shall see his foes downe cast.

9 He did well for the poore prouide,
His righteousnesse shall still remaine,

And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked man disdain:

10 Yea, gnash his teeth thereat shall he,
And so consume his state to see.

Laudate pueri. Psal. Cxij. W. K.

*An exhortation to praise the Lord for his promi-dence, in that contrary to the course of nature
he worketh in his Church.*

Ye children which doe serue the Lord, praise ye his name with one accord:

- 6 He doth abase himselfe we know Things to behold both here below, and also in heauen above.
- 7 The needy out of dust to draw,
And eke the poore which helpe none saw,
his onely mercy did him moue.
- 8 And so him set in high degree
With Princes of great dignitie, that rule his people with great fame.
- 9 The barren he doth make to beare,
And with great ioy her fruit to reare :
therefore praise ye his holy name.

In .xiiij. Israel. Psal. Cxiiij. W. W.

Israels deliuey out of Egypt, putteth vs in remembrance of Gods great mercies towards his children, and of our unthankefulnesse for the same.

Sing this as the 85. Psalme.

- W^HEN Israel by Gods adresse, from Pharaohs land was bent :
And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same traine went.
- 2 In Iuda God his glory shew'd his holinesse most bright :
So did the Israelites declare his kingdome, power, and might.
- 3 The sea it saw, and sodainly
as all amaz'd did lie :
The roaring streames of Iordans floud reculd backwardly.
- 4 As rammes afraid the mountaines skip,
their strength did them forsake :

And as the silly trembling Lambes their tops did beate and shake.

- 5 What aild thee sea as all amaz'd, to sodainly to flie ?
Ye rolling waues of Iordans floud, why ranne ye backwardly ?
- 6 Why thooke ye hills as rammes afraid ?
why did your strength so shake ?
Why did your tops as trembling Lambes, for feare quier and quake ?
- 7 O earth confesse thy soueraigne Lord, and dread his mighty hand :
Before the face of Iacobs God, feare ye both sea and land.
- 8 I meane the God which from hard rockes doth cause maine flouds appeare :
And from the stonie flint doth make,
gush out the fountaines cleare.

Non nobis Domine. Psal. Cxv. N.

The faithfull oppressed by idolatrous tyrants, promise that they will not be vnmindfull of so great a benefite, if it would please God to heare their prayer, and deliuer them by his omnipotent power.

Sing this as the 68. Psalme.

- N^OT vnto vs Lord, not to vs, but to thy name giue praise :
Both for the mercy and the truth that are in thee alwayes.
- 2 Why shall the heathen scorners say, where is their God become ?
- 3 Our God in heauen is, and what he will, that hath he done.
- 4 Their Idols siluer are and gold, worke of mens hands they be :
- 5 They haue a mouth, and doe not speake;
and eyes and doe not see :
- 6 And they haue eares ioynd to their heads,
and doe not heare at all:
And noses eke they formed haue,
and doe not smell withall.
- 7 And hands they haue and handle not,
and feet and doe not goe :
- 8 A throat they haue, yet through the same they make no sound to blow.
Those that make them be like to them, and those whose trust they be :
- 9 O Israel trust in the Lord :
their helpe and shield is he.
- 10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their helpe and shield is he :
- 11 Trust ye the Lord that feare the Lord,
their helpe and shield is he.
- 12 The Lord hath mindefull beene of vs, and will blesse vs also :
On Israels and on Aarons house his blessing he will shew.
- 13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will blesse them all :
Euen he will blesse them euery one,
the great and eke the small.
- 14 To you I say the liuing Lord will multiply his grace :
To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.
- 15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,

even of the Lord I say :

Which both the heaven and the earth hath made and set in stay.
16 The heavens, yea, the heavens high belong vnto the Lord :
The earth vnto the sonnes of men
he gaue of free accord.

17 They that be dead doe not with praise set forth the Lords renowne :
Nor any that into the place of silence doe goe downe.
18 But we will praise the Lord our God from henceforth and for aye :
Sound ye the praises of the Lord,
praise ye the Lord I say.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. Cxvi. N.

Dauid being in great danger of Saul in the desert of Maon, perceiving the great and inestimable love of God towards him, magnifieth such great mercie, and protesteth that he will be thankfull for the same.

Sing this as the 111. Psalme.

1 Love the Lord, because my voyce and prayer heard hath he :

2 When in my dayes I cald on him, he bowed his eare to me.

3 Euen when the snares of cruell death about beset me round :
When paines of hell me caught, and when I woe and sorrow found.

4 Vpon the name of God the Lord,
when did I call and say :

Deliuier thou my soule O Lord,
I doe thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very mercifull, and iust he is also :

And in our God compassion doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in safetie doth preserve all those that simple be :

I was in wofull misery and he relieved me.

7 And now my soule, sith thou art safe,
returne vnto thy rest :

For largely loe the Lord to thee his bounty hath exprest.

8 Because thou hast deliuered my soule from deadly thrall :
My moistned eyes from mournfull teares,
my sliding feet from fall.

9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walke therefore :

10 I did beleene, therefore I spake, for I was troubled fore.

The second part.

11 I said in my distresse and feare, that all men lyers be :

12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefites to me :

13 The wholesome cup of sauing health
I thankfully will take :

And on the Lords name I will call when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vowes,
that I haue him beight :

Yea, euen at this present time,
in all his peoples sight.

17 Right deare and precious in his sight
the Lord doth aye esteeme
The death of all his holy ones, what euer men doe deeme.

16 Thy seruant Lord, thy seruant loe
I doe my selfe confesse :
Sonne of thy handmaid, thou hast broke the bonds of my distresse.

17 And I will offer vp to thee
a sacrifice of praise :

And I will call vpon the name of God the Lord alwayes.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vowes,
that I haue him beight :

Yea, euen at this present time,
in all his peoples sight.

19 Yea, in the courts of Gods owne house,
and in the midst of thee,

O thou Ierusalem, I say :

wherefore the Lord praise yee.

Laudeate Dom. Psal. Cxvij. N.

Hee exhorteth the Gentiles to prayse God, because hee hath accomplished as well to them, as to the Iewes, the promise of life everlasting by Iesus Christ.

Sing this as the 98. Psalme.

○ All yee nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord alwayes :

And all yee people euery where,
set forth his noble praise.

2 For great his kindnesse is to vs,
his truth endures for aye :

Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praise ye the Lord I say.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. Cxviii. N.

Dauid rescued of Saul and of the people, at the time appointed obtained the kingdom, for the which he biddeth all them that feare the Lord to be thankfull, vnder whose person Christ is liney set forth, who should be of his people rescued.

Sing this as the 84. Psalme.

○ Giue ye thanks vnto the Lord,
for gracious is hee :

Because his mercy doth endure
for euer towards thee.

2 Let Israel confesse and say,
his mercy dures for aye :

Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy dures for aye.

4 Let all that feare the Lord our God
euen now confesse and say :

The mercy of the Lord our God, endureth still for aye.

5 In trouble and in heauinesse
vnto the Lord I cride :

Which louingly heard me at large,
my suite was not denide.

6 The Lord himselfe is on my side :
I will not stand in doubt,

Nor feare what man can doe to me,
when God stands me about.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them that helpe to succour me :

Therefore I shall see my desire vpon mine enimie.

8 Better it is to trust in God, then in mans mortall seede :

Or to put confidence in Kings, or Princes in our need.
All nations haue enclosed me,
and compassed me round :
10 But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.
11 They kept me in on euery side,
they kept me in I say :
But through the Lords most mighty name
I shall worke their decay.
12 They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lords name
I quencht their thornes that were on fire, and will destroy the same.

The second part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust fore at me,
that I indeede might fail:
But through the Lord I found such helpe, that they were vanquisht all.
14 The Lord is my defence and strength, my ioy, my mirth, and song :
He is become for me indeed a Saviour most strong.
15 The right hand of the Lord our God doth bring to passe great things :
He causeth voyce of ioy and health in righteous mens dwellings.
16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mighty things to passe :
His hand hath the preheminnence, his force is as it was.
17 I will not die, but euer liue to vtter and declare
The Lord his might and wondrous power,
his workes, and what they are.
18 The Lord himselfe hath chastened, and hath corrected me :
But hath not giuen me ouer yet to death, as yee may see.
19 Set open vnto me the gates of truth and righteouinesse :
That I may enter into them,
the Lords praise to confesse.
20 This is the gate euen of the Lord, which shall not so be shut,
But good and righteous men alway shall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will giue thanks to thee O Lord, because thou hast heard me :
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour vnto me.
22 The stone which ere this time among the builders was refused :
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be vsed 23 This was the mighty worke of God, this was the Lords owne fact :
And it is maruellous to behold with eyes that noble act.
24 This is the ioyfull day indeed, which God himselfe hath wrought :
Let vs be glad and ioy therein,
in heart, in minde, in thought.
25 Now helpe vs Lord and prosper vs,
we wish with one accord :
26 Blessed be he that comes to vs

in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shewes vs light, binde ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the Altar, and giue thanks to the Lord.
28 Thou art my God, I will confesse, and render thanks to thee :
Thou art my God, and I will praise thy mercy towards me.
29 O giue ye thanks vnto the Lord,
for gracious is hee :
Because his mercy doth endure
for euer towards thee.

Beati immaculati. Psal. Cxix. W.W.

The Prophet wonderfully commendeth Gods Lawe, wherein he cannot satisfie himselfe, nor expresse sufficiently his affections, therunto adding notable complaints and consolations, meete for the faithfull to haue both in heart and voyce : and in Hebrew every eight verses beginne with one letter of the Alphabet.

Blessed are they that perfect are,

and pure in minde and heart : Whose lines and conuersation, from Gods

Lawes neuer start. 2. Blessed are they that giue themselves his statutes to obserue : Seeking the Lord with all their heart, and neuer from him swerue.

3 Doublelesse such men goe not astray,
nor doe no wicked thing :
Which stedfastly walke in his pathes without any wandring.

4 It is thy will and commandement, that with attentive heede, Thy noble and diuine precepts
we learne and keepe indeede.

5 O would to God it might thee please my wayes so to adresse :
That I might both in heart and voyce thy lawes keepe and confesse.

6 So should no shame my life attaine, whilst I thus set mine eyes :
And bend my minde alwayes to muse on thy sacred decrees.

9 Then will I praise with vpriht heart, and magnifie thy name,
When I shall learne thy iudgements iust,

and likewise proue the same.
B And wholly will I giue my selfe, to keepe thy lawes most right: Forsake me not for euer Lord but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

BY what meanes may a yong man best,
 his life learne to amend:
 If that he marke and keepe thy word,
 and therein his time spend.
10 Vnfaignedly I haue thee sought, and thus seeking abide:
 O neuer suffer me O Lord,
 from thy precepts to slide.
11 Within my heart and secret thoughts, thy words I haue hid still:
 That I might not at any time, offend thy godly will:
12 We magnifie thy name O Lord,
 and praise thee euermore:
 Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
 O Lord teach me therefore.
13 My lips haue neuer ceast to preach,
 and publish day and night:
 The iudgements all which did proceed, from thy mouth full of might.
14 Thy testimonies and thy waies, please me no lesse indeed:
 Then all the treasures of the earth,
 which worldlings make their meed.
15 Of thy precepts I will still muse, and thereto frame my talke:
 As at a marke so will I ayme,
 thy waies how I may walke.
16 My onely ioy shall be so fixe,
 and on thy lawes so set:
 That nothing can me so farre blinde,
 that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

GRaunt to thy seruant now such grace,
 as may my life prolong:
 Thy holy word then will I keepe, both in my heart and tongue.
18 Mine eies which were dim and shut vp so open and make bright:
 That of thy law and mercurious workes,
 I may haue the cleare sight.
19 I am a stranger in this earth,
 wandring now here now there:
 Thy word therefore to me disclose,
 my footsteps for to cleare.
20 My soule is rauisht with desire,
 and neuer is at rest:
 But seekes to know thy iudgements hie,
 and what may please thee best.
21 The proud men and malicious thou hast destroyed each one.
 And cursed are such as doe not thy hefts attend vpon.
22 Lord turne from me rebuke and shame,
 which wicked men conspire:
 For I haue kept thy covenants, with zeale as hot as fire.
23 The Princes great in counsell sate, and did against me speake:
 But then thy seruant thought how be thy statutes might not breake.

24 For why: thy covenants are my ioy,
 and my hearts great solace:
 They serue in stead of counsellors,
 my matters for to passe.

DALETH. The fourth part.

I Am alas as brought to graue,
 and almost turn'd to dust:
 Restore therefore my life againe,
 as thy promise is iust.
16 My waies when I acknowledged, with mercy thou didst heare:
 Heare now etc. soones and me instruct,
 thy lawes to loue and feare.
27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know,
 thy precepts and thy lore:
 Thy workes then will I meditate,
 and lay them vp in store.
28 My soule I feele so sore oppress'd, that it melteth for griefe:
 According to thy word therefore,
 hast Lord to send reliefe.
29 From lying and deceitfull lips, let thy grace me defend:
 And that I may learne thee to loue, thy holy law me send.
30 The way of truth both straight and sure
 I haue chosen and found:
 I set thy iudgements me before,
 which keepe me safe and sound.
31 Since then O Lord I fore't my selfe, thy covenants to embrace:
 Let me therefore haue no rebuke,
 nor check in any case.
32 Then will I runne with ioyfull cheare, where thy word doth me call,
 When thou hast set my heart at large,
 and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fifth part.

I nstruct me Lord in the right trade, of thy statutes diuine.
 And it to keepe euen to the end,
 my heart will I incline:
34 Graunt me the knowledge of thy law,
 and I shall it obey:
 With heart and minde, and all my might,
 I will it keepe I say.
35 In the right path of thy precepts, guide me Lord I require:
 None other pleasure doe I wish,
 nor greater thing desire.
36 Incline my heart thy lawes to keepe,
 and covenants to embrace:
 And from all filthy avarice,
 Lord shield me with thy grace.
37 From vaine desires and worldly lusts turne back mine eies and sight.
 Giue me the spirit of life and power,
 to walke thy waies aright.
38 Confrme thy gracious promise Lord, which thou hast made to me:
 Which am thy seruant, and doe loue,
 and feare nothing but thee.
39 Reproach and shame which I so feare, from me O Lord expell:
 For thou dost guide with equity,

and therein dost excell.
 40 Behold my hearts desire is bent, thy lawes to keepe for aye :
 Lord strengthen me so with thy grace,
 that it performe I may.

P. A. V. The vi. part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold, let me obtaine (O Lord)
 Thy sauing health let me enjoy, according to thy word.
 42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouthes, of lewd men and vniust :
 For in thy faithfull promises, stands my comfort and trust.
 43 The word of truth within my mouth,
 let euer still be prest :
 For in thy iudgements wonderfull,
 my hope doth stand and rest.
 44 And whilst that breath within my brest, doth naturall life preserue :
 Yea till this world shall be dissolu'd,
 thy law will I obserue.

45 So walke will I as set at large, and made free from all dread :
 Because I sought how for to keepe, thy precepts and thy read.
 46 Thy noble act: I will describe, as things of most great fame :
 Euen before Kings I will them blaze, and shrinke no whit for shame.

47 I will reioyce then to obey, thy worthy hefts and will Which euermore I haue lou'd best,
 and so will loue them still.
 48 My hands will I list to thy lawes, which I haue dearely sought :
 And praefise thy commandements, in will, in dedde, in thought.

Z. A. I. N. The viij. part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me,
 thy seruant, Lord remember,
 For therein haue I put my trust,
 and confidence for euer.
 50 It is my comfort and my ioy,
 when troubles me affaie :
 For were my life not by thy word,
 my life would soone me faile.
 51 The proud and such as God contemne, still made of me a scorne:
 Yet would I not thy law forsake,
 as he that was forlorne.
 52 But call'd to minde Lord thy great works, shew'd to our fathers old :
 Whereby I feele my ioyes surmount
 my griefe an hundred fold.
 53 But yet alas for feare I quake, seeing how wicked men Thy law forsooke, and did procure thy iudgements, who knoweth when 54 And as for me, I framde my songs thy statutes to exalt :
 When I among the strangers dwelt,
 and thoughts gan me assault.
 55 I thought vpon thy name O Lord,
 by night when others sleepe :
 As for thy law also I kept,

and euer will it keepe.

56 This grace I did obtaine, because thy couenants sweet and deare :
 I did embrace and also keepe, with reuerence and with feare.

H. E. T. H. The viij. part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
 my comfort and my stay :
 I haue decreed and promised,
 thy law to keepe alway.
 58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue,
 in presence of thy face :
 As thou therefore hast promised,
 Lord grant me of thy grace.
 59 My life I haue examined, and tride my secret heart :
 Which to thy statutes caused me my feet straight to conuert.
 60 I did not slay, nor linger long, as they that sloathfull are :
 But hastily thy lawes to keepe,
 I did my selfe prepare.
 61 The cruell hands of wicked men, haue made of me their pray :
 Yet would I not thy law forget,
 nor from thee goe astray.
 62 Thy righteous iudgements shewd toward so great are and so hie, (me,
 That euen at midnight will I rise,
 thy name to magnifie.
 63 Companion am I to all them, which feare thee in their heart :
 And neither will for feare nor dread,
 from thy commandements start.
 64 Thy mercies Lord most plenteously doe all the world fulfill :
 O teach me how I may obey, thy statutes and thy will.
T. E. T. H. The ix. part.
 65 According to thy promise Lord, so hast thou with me dealt :
 For of thy grace in sundry sorts,
 haue I thy seruant felt.
 66 Teach me to iudge alwaies aright, and giue me knowledge sure :
 For certainly beleuee I doe, that thy precepts are pure.
 67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod,
 I erred and went astray :
 But now I keepe thy holy word,
 and make it all my stay.
 68 Thou art both good and gracious, and giu'st most liberally :
 Thy ordinances how to keepe, therefore (O Lord) teach me.
 69 The proud and wicked men haue forg'd against me many a lie :
 Yet thy commandements still obserue, with all my heart will I.
 70 Their hearts are swolne with worldly as greafe so are they fat : (wealth,
 But in thy law doe I delight, and nothing seeke but that.
 71 O happy time may I well say,
 when thou didst me corre& :

For as a guide to learne thy Lawes, thy rod did me direct.

73 So that to me thy word and Law is dearer manifold,

Then thousands great of silver and gold, or ought that can be told.

JOD. The x. part.

74 Seeing thy hands haue made me Lord to be thy creature :

Grant knowledge likewise how to learne to put thy Lawes in vrc.

74 So they that feare thee shall reioyce, when euer they me see :

Because I haue learn'd by thy word,
to put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rod the world is plagu'd,
I know the cause is iust :

So when thou dost correct me Lord,
the cause iust needes be must.

76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray some comfort to me send :

As thou to me thy seruant heit'st,
so from all ill me shend.

77 Thy tender mercies poure on me, and I shall surely liue :

For ioy and consolation both thy Lawes to me doe giue.

78 Confound the proud, whose false pretence is me for to destroy :

But as for me thy helts to know
I will my selfe employ.

79 Who so with reuerence doe thee feare, to me let them retire :

And such as doe thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.

80 My heart without all wauering
let on thy lawes be bent :

That no confusion come to mee, whereby I should be shent.

CAPH. The xi. part.

81 MY soule doth faint, and ceaseth not thy sauing health to craue :

And for thy words sake still I trust
my hearts desire to haue.

82 Mine eyes doe faile with looking for thy word, and thus I say :

Oh when wilt thou me comfort Lord ?
why dost thou thus delay ?

83 As a skin bottle in the smoake,
so am I parcht and dride :

Yet will I not out of my heart let thy commandements slide.

84 Alas how long shall I yet liue, before I see the houre :

That on my foes which me torment thy vengeance thou wilt poure :

85 Presumptuous men haue digged pits, thinking to make me sure :

Thus contrary against thy Law
my hurt they doe procure.

86 But thy commandements are all true, and causelesse they me grieve :

To thee therefore I doe complaine, that thou mightst me relieue.

87 Almost they had me cleane destroyd, and brought me quite to ground :

Yet by thy statutes I abode, and therein succour found.

88 Restore me Lord againe to life,
for thy mercies excell :

And so shall I thy covenants keepe, till death my life expell.

LAMED. The xij. part.

89 IN heauen Lord where thou dost dwell, thy word is stablisht sure :

And shall for all eternitie, fast grauen there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witness :

Whose ground-works thou hast laid so sure,
as no tongue can expresse.

91 Euen to this day we may well see, how all things perseuere

According to thy ordinance, for all things thee reuerce.

92 Had it not bene that in thy Law
my soule had comfort sought :

Long time ere now in my distresse,
I had bene brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts aye,
in memory keepe fast :

By them thou hast my life restor'd,
when I was at last cast.

94 No wight to me can tittle make,
for I am onely thine :

Saue me therefore, for to thy Lawes mine cares and heart encline.

95 The wicked men doe seeke my bane,
and thereto lye in waite :

But I the while considered, thy noble acts and great.

96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath not end :

But thy commandements and thy word, beyond all end extend.

MEM. The xij. part.

97 What great desire and seruent loue,
doe I beare to thy Law :

All the day long my whole deuise, is onely on thy law.

98 Thy word hath taught me farre to passe
my foes in policie :

For still I keepe it as a thing of most excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell :

Because I doe thy covenants keepe, and them to others tell.

100 In wisdom I doe passe also the ancient men indeed :

And all because to keepe thy Lawes,
I held it aye best reed.

101 My feet I haue refrained eke from euery euill way :

Because that I continually thy word might keepe I say.

102 I haue not swerd'd from thy iudgements, nor yet shrunke any dell :

For why ? thou hast me taught thereby to liue godly and well.

- 103 O Lord how sweet vnto my taste
finde I thy words alway :
Doubtlesse no hony in my mouth
feele ought so sweet I may.
104 Thy lawes haue me such wisdom learn'd, that vnto I haue
All wicked and vngodly wayes, in euery kinde of rate.

ACHN. The xliij. part.

- 105 EVen as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy word shine bright :
And to my pathes where ere I goe
it is a flaming light.
106 I haue both sworne, and will performe
most certainly doubtlesse :
That I will keepe thy iudgements iust,
and them in life expresse.
107 Affliction hath me sore oppress'd, and brought me to deathes dore :
O Lord as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.
108 The offerings which with heart & voice
most frankly I thee giue, Accept, and teach me how I may after thy iudgements liue.
109 My soule is aye so in my hand,
that dangers me assaile :
Yet doe I not thy Law forget, nor it to keepe will faile.
110 Although the wicked laid their nets, to catch me at a bay :
Yet did I not from thy precepts,
once swerue, or goe astray.
111 Thy Law I haue so claim'd alway, as mine owne heritage:
And why for therein I delight,
and set my whole courage.
112 For euermore I haue bene bent thy statutes to fulfill:
Euen so likewise vnto the end,
I will continue still.

SAMECH. The xlv. part.

- 113 THY crafty thoughts & double hearts,
I doe alwayes detest :
But as for thy Lawes and precepts
I lou'd them euer best.
114 Thou art my hid and secret place, my shield and strong defence :
Therefore I haue thy promises, look't for with patience.
115 Goe to therefore ye wicked men, depart from me anone :
For the Commandements will I keepe of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou hast promis'd, so performe, that death me not assaile:
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quaille.
117 Vphold me and I shall be safe, for ought they doe or say :
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.
118 Thou hast trod such vnder thy feet,
as doe thy statutes breake :
For nought auails their subtiltie, their counsell is but weake.

- 119 Like drosse thou casts the wicked out,
where ere they goe or dwell :
Therefore can I as thy statutes,
loue nothing halfe so well.
120 My flesh alas is taken with feare, as though it were benumb'd :
For when I see thy iudgements straight
I am as one aston'd.
AIN. The xvi. part.
121 Doe the thing that lawfull is,
and giue to all men right : Resigne me not to them that would opresse me with their might.
122 But for thy seruant surcie be in that thing that is good :
That proud men giue me not the foile, which rage as they were wood.
123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blinde, thy health so much I craue :
And eke thy righteous promise Lord, whereby thou wilt me saue.
124 Intreat thy seruant louingly, and fauour to him shew :
Thy statutes of most excellencie, teach me also to know.
125 Thy humble seruant Lord I am,
grant me to vnderstand :
How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.
126 It is now time Lord to beginne, for truth is quite decayd :
Thy Law likewise they haue transgress'd, and none against them said.
127 This is the cause wherefore I loue thy Lawes better then gold :
Or Jewels fine, which are esteem'd most costly to be sold :
128 I thought thy precepts all most iust, and so them laid in store :
All crafty and malicious wayes
I doe abhorre therefore.
PE. The xvij. part.
129 THY covenants are most wonderfull, and full of things profound :
My soule therefore doth keepe them sure,
when they are tride and found.
130 When men first enter into thy word,
they finde a light most cleare :
And very Ideots vnderstand,
when they it reade or heare.
131 For ioy I haue both gap'd and breath'd to know thy commandement :
That I might guide my life thereby,
I fought what thing it meant.
132 With mercie and compassion Lord behold me from aboue :
As thou art wont to behold such as thy name feare and loue.
133 Direct my foot-steps by thy word, that I thy will may know :
And neuer let iniquitie thy seruant ouerthrow.
134 From slanderous tongues & deadly hate preserue and keepe me sure :

Thy

Thy precepts then will I obserue, and put them eke in v're.

135 Thy countenance which doth surmount
the Sunne in his bright hew:
Let shine on me, and by thy Law, teach me what to eschew.
136 Out of mine eies great flouds gush out, of dreaire teares and fell:
When I behold how wicked men, thy lawes keepe neuer a dell.

ZADE. The xviij. part.

137 IN euery point Lord thou art iust, the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou doest sentence pronounce, thou art a righteous Iudge.
138 To render right and flye from guile, are two chiefe points most hie:
And such as thou hast in thy law, commanded vs straitly.
139 With zeale and wrath I am consume, and euen pinde away:
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I doe may.
140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can deeme:
And I thy seruant nothing more,
doe loue or yet esteeme.
141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:
Yet doe I not thy heites forget,
nor thinke away from thee.
142 Thy righteounesse Lord is most iust,
for euer to endure:
Also thy law is truth it selfe,
most constant and most pure.
143 Trouble and griefe haue seaz'd on me,
and brought me wondrous low:
Yet doe I still of thy precepts, delight to heare and know.
144 The righteounesse of thy iudgements, doth last for euermore:
Then teach thou me, for euen in them
my life lieth vp in store.

KOPH. The xix. part.

145 WITH seruient heart I call'd and cride, now answere me O Lord:
That thy commandments to obserue,
I may fully accord.
146 To thee my God I make my suite, with most humble request:
Saue me therefore, and will keepe thy precepts and thy best.
147 To thee I cry euen in the morne, before the day waxe light:
Because that I haue in thy word,
my confidence whole plight.
148 Mine eies preuent the watch by night,
and ere they call I wake:
That by deuising on thy word,
I might some comfort take.
149 Incline thine cares to heare my voice, and picie on thee take:
As thou wast wont, so iudge me Lord, lest life should me forsake.
150 My foes draw nere, and doe procure my death maliciously:

Which from thy law are farre gone backe,
and straid from it lowly.

151 Therefore O Lord approach thou neere for neede doth so require:
And all thy precepts true they are,
then helpe I thee desire.
152 But thy commandments I haue learn'd not now, but long agoe:
That they remaine for euermore, thou hast them grounded so.

RESH. The xx. part.

153 MY trouble and affliction, consider and behold:
Deliuere me, for of thy law,
I euer take fast hold.
154 Defend my good and righteous cause, with speed me succour send:
From death as thou hast promised,
Lord keepe me and defend.
155 As for the wicked farre they are,
from hauing health and grace:
Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the trace.
156 Great are thy mercies Lord I graunt, what tongue can them attaine:
And as thou hast me iudg'd ere now,
so let me life obtaine.
157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore:
Yet from thy lawes I neuer shrunke, nor went awry therefore.
158 And truth it is for grife I die,
when I these traitors see:
Because they keepe no whit thy word,
nor yet seeke to know thee.
159 Behold, for I doe loue thy lawes, with heart most glad and faine:
As thou art good and gracious Lord, restore my life againe.
160 What thy word doth decree, must be,
and so it hath bene euer:
Thy righteous iudgements are also,
most true and decay neuer.

SCHIN. The xxi. part.

161 PRinces haue sought by cruelty, causelesse to make me crouch:
But all in vaine, for of thy word,
the feare did my heart touch.
162 And certainly euen of thy word,
I was more merrie and glad,
Then he that of rich spoiles and preyes, great store and plenty had.
163 And for all lies and falsity,
I hate most and detest:
For why thy holy lawes doe I,
about all things loue best.
164 Seuen times a day I praise the Lord, singing with heart and voice:
Thy righteous acts and wonderfull,
so cause me to reioyce.
165 Great peace and rest shall all such haue
as doe thy statutes loue:
No danger shall their quiet state impaired or once remove.
166 Mine onely health and comfort Lord,

I looke for at thy hand :
And therefore haue I done those things, which thou didst me commaund.

167 Thy lawes haue beene my exercise, which my soule most desired :
So much to them my loue was bent,
that naught else I required.
168 Thy statutes and commandements
I keepe, thou knowest aright :
For all the things that I haue done, are present in thy sight.

TAV. The xxij. part.

O Lord let my complaint and cry,
before thy face appeare :
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to feare.

170 Mine humble supplication, toward thee let finde access :
And grant me Lord deliuerance, for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speake,
after most ample sort :
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.

172 My tong shall sing and preach thy word, and on this wise say shall :
Gods famous acts and noble lawes, are iust and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech, and speedily me saue :
For thy commandements to obserue, chosen O Lord I haue.

174 Of thee alone Lord I craue health,
for other I know none :
And in thy law and nothing else,
I doe delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long daies to liue,
thy name to magnifie :
And of thy iudgements mercifull,
let me the fauour trie.

176 For I was lost and went astray, much like a wandring sheepe.
Oh seeke me, for I haue not fail'd, thy commandements to keepe.

Ad Dominum Psal. Cxx. T. S.

David being banished among the barbarous Arabians through false reports of envious flatterers, lamenteth his long abode among such infidels, giuen to all kinde of wickednesse and contention.

No trouble and in thrall, vnto the Lord I call, and he doth me comfort :

Deliuer me, I say, from lyers lips al-way, and tongues of false report.

4 What vantage or what thing,
Gest thou thus for to sing,
thou false and flattering lyer :

5 Thy tongue doth hurt I weene,
No lesse then arrowes keene
of hot consuming fire.

6 Alas too long I slake,
Within these tents so blacke,
Which Kedars are by name :
By whom the flocke elect,
And all of Isaacks seed
Are put to open shame.

7 With them that peace did hate,
I came a peace to make,
and set a quiet life :

8 But when my tale was told,
Causelesse I was controld,
by them that would haue strife.

Leuani oculos. Psal. Cxxj. W.W.

The Prophet sheweth by his own example, that the faithfull ought to looke for all their succour of God alone, who will gouerne and giue good success to all their godly enterprises.

Lift mine eies to Sion hill,

from whence I doe attend, that succour

God me leau: The nightie God me

succour will, which heauen and earth framed, and all things therein named.

3 Thy foote from slip he will preserue,
And will thee safely keepe :
For he will neuer sleepe.

4 Loe, he that doth Israel conserue,
No sleepe at all can him catch,
But his eies doe euer watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee couer,
As at thy right hand euer :

6 The Sunne shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the Moone nor halfe so bright,
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keepe thee from distresse,
And will thy life sure saue,
And thou also shalt haue

8 In all thy businesse good successe,
Where euer thou goest in or out,
God will thy things bring about.

Lætatus sum. Psal. Cxxij. W.W.

David reioiceth that God accomplished his promise and placed his Arke in Sion, giuing thanks, and praying for the prosperity of the Church.

Did in heart reioice to heare the peoples voice, in offering so willingly,

For

For let vs vp say they, and in the Lords house pray, thus spake the folke full louingly. Our feet that wandred wide, shall in thy gates abide. O thou Ieru-salem full faire, which art so seemly set, much like a Citie neat, the like whereof is not else where.

4 The tribes with one accord,
the tribes of God the Lord,
are thither bent their way to take :

So God before did tell,
That there his Israel, their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
and that for this respect:
to set forth iustice orderly :

Which thrones right to maintaine,
To Davids house pertaine,
his folke to iudge accordingly.

6 To pray let vs not cease, for Ierusalems peace,
thy friends God prosper mightily,

7 Peace be thy wals about,
And prosper thee throughout,
thy places eke continually.

8 I wish thy prosperous state.
for my poore brethrens sake :
that comfort haue by means of thee,

Gods house doth me allure,
Thy wealth for to procure :
So much alwaies as lies in me.

Ad eleuati Psal. Cxxij. T. S

A prayer of the faithfull, which are afflicted by the wicked worldlings, and contemners of God.

Sing this as the 119. Psalme.

O Lord that heauen doest possesse,
I lift mine eyes to thee :

Euen as the seruant listeth his,
his masters hands to see.

2 As handmaids watch their mistresse hands
some grace for to achieve :

So we behold the Lord our God,
till he doe vs forgiue.

3 Lord grant vs thy compassion, and mercie in thy sight :

For we are fill'd and overcome with hatred and despight.

4 Our mindes be flust'd with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wile.

Doe make of vs their mocking flockes,
the proud doe vs despise.

Nisi quia Dom? Psal. Cxxij. W.W.

The faithfull deliuered out of great danger, acknowledge not to haue escaped by their owne power, but through the fauour of God.

Ow Israel may say, and that truely, if that the Lord had not our cause maintain'd, if that the Lord had not our right sustain'd, When all the world against vs furiously, made their vprores, and said we should all die.

3 Now long agoe,
they had deuour'd vs all,
And swallowed quick,
for ought that we could deeme,
Such was their rage,

as we might well esteeme :

4 And as the floods with mightie force doe fall :

So had they now
our liues euen brought to thrall.

5 The raging streames, most proud in roaring noise :

Had long agoe,
o'rewhelm'd vs in the deepe.

6 But loued be God, which doth vs safely keepe :

From bloodie teeth,
and their most cruell voice.

Which as a prey,
to eate vs would reioyce.

7 Euen as a bird,
out of the fowlers grin,

Escapeth away,
right so it fareth with vs :

Broke are their nets,
and we escaped thus.

8 God that made heauen and earth is our helpe then :

His name hath saued vs,
euen from these wicked men.

Qui confidunt. Psal. Cxxv. W.K.

Hee describeth the assurance of the faithfull in their afflictions, and desireth their wealth, and the destruction of the wicked.

Vch as in God the Lord doe trust.

2 As mighty mountaines huge and great,
Ierusalem about doe circse:
So will the Lord be vnto those,
Who on his godly will doe waite,
Such are to him so deare,
They neuer need to feare.

3 For though the righteous trie doth he,
By making wicked men his rod.
Least they through griefe forsake their God,
It shall not as their lot still be,

4 Giue Lord to those thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

5 But as for such as turne aside,
By crooked waies which they out sought:
The Lord will surely bring to nought,
With workes most vile they shall abide,
But peace with Israel
For euermore shall dwell.

Another of the same by R.W.

Sing this as the 10. Commandments.

THose that doe put their confidence
Vpon the Lord our God onely:
And flie to him for their defence,
In all their need and misery.
Their faith is sure firme to endure.
Grounded on Chist the corner stone,
Moued with none ill but standeth still,
Stedfast, like to the mount Syon.

And as about Ierusalem,
The mighty hills doe it compasse:
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that towne in any case.
So God indeed, in euery need,
His faithfull people doth defend:
Standing them by, assuredly,
From this time forth world without end.

Right wise and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly:
The sinners and vngodlies rod,
To tarric vpon his family.
Least they also from God should goe
Falling to sinne and wickednesse:
O Lord defend world without end,
Thy christian flock through thy goodnes.

O Lord doe good to Christians all,
That stedfast in thy word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide.
Such will the Lord scatter abroad,

With hypocrites throwne downe to hell,
God will them send paines without end,
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of might,
And to his Sonne our Saviour,
And to the holy Ghost whose light,
Shine in our hearts and vs succour.

That the right way from day to day,
We may walke and him glorifie:
With hearts desire all that are here,
Worship the Lord and say, Amen.

In conuertendo. Psal Cxxvj. N.

This Psalme was made after the returne of the people from Babylon, and sheweth that the means of their deliuerance was wonderfull, after the seventy yeeres of captivity, foretold by Ieremy. 23.11. & 29.10.

2 The heathen folke were forced then this to confesse:
How that the Lord,
for them also great things had done:

3 But much more we,
and therefore can confesse no lesse:
Wherefore to ioy,
we haue good cause as we begun.

4 O Lord goe forth,
thou canst our bondage end,
As to Deserts,
the flowing riuers send.

5 Full true it is, that they which sow in reares indeed,
A time will come when they shall reape in mirth and ioy.

6 They went and wept,
in bearing of their precious seed:
For that their foes full oftentimes did them annoy:
But their returne

with ioy they shall sure see:
Their sheaues home bring,
and not impaired be.

Nisi Dominus. Psal. Cxxvij. W.W.

It is not man's wit, power, or labour, but the free goodnesse of God that giveth riches, preserveth townes and countries, granteth nourishment and children.

Sing this as the Lords prayer.

Except the Lord the house doe build,
And thereunto doe set his hand:
What men doe build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vaine men undertake Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise early in the morne,
And so at night goe late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with browne bread:
Yet were your labour lost and worne.
But they whom God doth love and keepe
Receiue all things with quiet sleepe.

3 Therefore marke well when euer you see
That men haue heires to enioy their land,
It is the gift of Gods owne hand:
For God himselfe doth multiply
Of his great liberalitie,
The blessing of posteritie.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in strength and actiuenesse,
In person and in comeliness:
So that a shaft shot with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arme,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harme.

5 O well is he that hath his quier
Furnished with such artillerie:
For when in perill he shall be,
Such one shall neuer shake nor shiner,
When that he pleadeth before the Iudge Against his foes that beare him grudge.

Beati omnes. Psal. Cxxvij. W.W.

Here is described the prosperous estate of persons married in the feare of God, and the promises of Gods blessings to all them that live in this honorable estate according to his commandements.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

Blessed art thou that fearest God,
and walkest in his way:
For of thy labour thou shalt eate, happy art thou I say.

2 Like fruitfull Vine on thy house side,
so doth thy wife spring out:
Thy children stand like Olive plants thy table round about.

3 Thus art thou blest that fearest God, and he shall let thee see The promised Ierusalem, and his felicitie.

4 Thou shalt thy childrens children see,
to thy great ioyes increase:
And likewise grace on Israel prosperitie and peace.

Sæpe expugnauerunt. Psal. Cxxix. N.

He admonisheth the Church to reioyce though afflicted in all ages, for God will deliuer and sodainly destroy the enemies thereof.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

O Fe they, now Israel may say,
me from my youth affaild:
2 Oft they affaild me from my youth,
yet neuer they preuail'd.
3 Vpon my backe the plowers plow'd, and furrowes long did cast:
4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords of wicked foes at last.
5 They that hate me shall be asham'd, and turned backe also:
6 And made as grasse vpon the house, which withereth ere it grow.
7 Whereof the mower cannot finde enough to fill his hand:
Nor he can fill his lap, that goeth to glean vpon the land.
8 Nor passers by pray God on them to let his blessing fall:
Nor say we blisse you in the name of God the Lord at all.

De profundis. Psal. Cxxx. T.S.

An effectfull prayer to obtaine mercy and forgieness of his sinne, and at length deliuerance from all emils.

L Ord to thee I make mymone, when dangers me oppresse: I call, I sigh, plaine, and grone, trusting to finde release. 2. Heare now O Lord my request, for it is full due time: And let thine eares aye be prest vnto this prayer mine.

3 O Lord our God if thou weigh our sinnes, and them peruse:
Who shall then escape and say,
I can my selfe excuse?
4 But Lord thou art mercifull, and turn' st to vs thy grace:

Thar

That we with hearts most carefull, should feare before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust, my soule waites on his will :
For his promise is most iust, and I hope therein still.
6 My soule to God hath regard,
wishing for him alway :
More then they that watch and ward to see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly in the Lord put his trust :
He is that God of mercy that his deliuer must.

8 For he it is that must saue
Israel from his sinne :
And all such as surely haue their confidence in him.

Domine non est. Psal. Cxxxj. N.

Dauid charged with ambition, professeth his humilitie before God.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

O Lord, I am not puffed in minde,
I haue no scornfull eye :
I doe not exercise my selfe in things that be too hie.
2 But as the childe that wained is euen from his mothers brest :
So haue I Lord behau'd my selfe in silence and in rest.

3 O Israel trust in the Lord,
let him be all thy stay :
From this time forth for euermore,
from age to age for aye.

Memento Domine. Psal. Cxxxij. N.

The faithfull grounded on Gods promise made vnto Dauid, desireth that hee would establish the same, both as touching his posteritie, and the building of the Temple, to pray there as was fore-spooken.

R

Remember Dauids troubles Lord,

how to the Lord he swore, and vow'd a vow to Jacobs God, to keepe for euermore.

more. I will not come within my house, nor climbe vp to my bed : Nor let my temples take their rest, or the eyes in my head.

5 Till I haue found out for the Lord,
a place to sit thereon :

As house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.

6 We heard of it at Euphrata, there did we heare this found :
And in the fields and forrests there, these voices first were found.

7 We will assay and goe in now his tabernacle there :
Before his foot-stoole to fall downe,
vpon our knees in feare.

8 Arise, O Lord, arise I say, into thy resting place :
Both thou and the Arke of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy Priests be clothed Lord with truth and righteousness :
Let all thy Saints and holy men sing all with ioyfulness.

10 And for thy seruant Dauids sake refuse not Lord, I say
The face of thine annointed Lord,
nor turne thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to Dauid swore in truth, and will not shrinke from it :
Saying, the fruit of thy body
vpon thy seate shall sit.

12 And if thy sonnes my couenant keepe, that I shall learne each one :
Then shall their sonnes for euermore sit vpon thy Princely throne.

13 The Lord himselfe hath chose Sion, and loues therein to dwell :
14 Saying, this is my resting place,
I loue and like it well.

15 And I will blesse with great increase her victuals euery where :
And I will satisfie with bread
the needy that be there.

16 Yea, I will decke and clothe her Priests with my saluation :
And all her Saints shall sing for ioy of my protection.

17 There will I surely make the horne of Dauid for to bud :
For I haue there ordain'd for mine
a lanterne bright and good.

18 As for his enemies I will clothe with shame for euermore :
But I will cause his crowne to shine more fresh then heretofore.

Ecce quam ? Psal. Cxxxij. W. W.

The commendation of godly and brotherly amitie, compared to the most precious oyle mentioned in Exodus 30.

Sing this as the 127. Psalm.

O How happy a thing it is,
and ioyfull for to see Brethren together fast to hold,
the band of amitie :

2 It calts to minde the sweet perfume,
and that costly oyntment,
Which on the sacrificers head,
by Gods precept was spent.

- 3 It wet not Aarons head alone, but diench't his beard throughout:
And finally it did runne downe his rich attire about: 4 And as the lower ground doth drinke
the dew of Hermon hill:
And Syon with her sluer drops,
the fields with fruit doth fill.
5 Euen so the Lord doth powre on them,
his blessings manifold:
Whose hearts and mindes without all guile,
this knot doe keepe and hold.

Ecce nunc. Psal. Cxxxiiij. W.K.

He exhorteth the Levites that watch in the Temple to praise the Lord.

Ehould and haue regard, ye ser-uants of the Lord: Which in his house by night doe watch, praise him with one accord.

- 2 Lift vp your hands on high,
vnto his holy place,
And giue the Lord his praises due his benefits embrace.
3 For why? the Lord who did both earth and heauen frame, Doth Sion blesse, and will contereue for euermore the same.

Laudate nomen. Psal. Cxxxv. N.

He exhorteth all the faithfull to praise God for his marueilous works & graces, wherewith he hath declared his Maiestie, to the confusion of all Idolaters.

Praise the Lord, praise him, praise him, praise him with one accord: O praise him still, all ye that be the seruants of the Lord. O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord: ye of his court and of his house

praise him with one accord.

- 3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
sing praises to his name:
It is a comely and good thing,
alwaies to doe the same.
4 For why? the Lord hath chose Iacob, his very one we see:
So hath he chosen Israel,
his treasure for to be.
5 For this I know and am right sure,
the Lord is very great:
He is indeed aboue all Gods,
most easie to intreat.
6 For whatsoeuer pleas'd him,
all that full well he wrought,
In heauen, in earth, and in the sea,
which he hath fram'd of nought.
7 He lifts vp clouds euen from the earth
he makes lightnings and raine:
He bringeth forth the windes also,
he made nothing in vaine.
8 He smote the first borne of each thing,
in Egypt that tooke rest,
He spared there no liuing thing,
the man nor yet the beast.
9 He hath in thee shew'd wonders great,
O Egypt voide of vaunts,
On Pharaos thy cursed King and his seuerer seruants 10 He smote then many nations.
and did great acts and things:
He slew the great and mightiest, and chiefeest of their Kings.
11 Schon King of the Amorites, and Og King of Basan:
He slew also the kingdoms all,
that were of Canaan.
12 And gaue their land to Israel, an heritage we see:
To Israel his owne people, an heritage to be.

The second part.

- 13 Thy name O Lord shall still endure, and thy memoriall
Throughout all generations,
that are or euer shall.
14 The Lord will surely now auenge his people all indeed:
And to his seruants he will shew faour in time of neede.
15 The Idols of the heathen are made,
in all their coats and lands:
Of silver and of gold be they,
the works euen of mens hands.
16 They haue their mouthes & cannot speak,
and eies and haue no sight:
17 They eke haue eares and heare nothing, their mouthes be breathlesse quite.
18 Wherefore all they are like to them,
that doe so set them forth,
And likewise those that trust in them, or thinke they be ought worth.

- 19 O all ye house of Israel,
see that ye praise the Lord :
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.
- 20 And ye that be of Leuies house,
praise ye likewise the Lord :
And all that stand in awe of him,
praise him with one accord.
- 21 And out of Sion sound his praise,
the great praise of the Lord,
Which dwelleth in Ierusalem,
praise him with one accord.

Confitemini. Psal. Cxxvj. N.

A most earnest exhortation to give thanks vnto
God for the creation & gouernance of all things.

Raise ye the Lord for he is good, for his mercy endureth for euer.

2. Give praise vnto the God of Gods, for his mercie endureth for euer. 3. Give praise vnto the Lord of Lords, for his mercie endureth for euer. 4. Which onely doth great wonders worke, for his mercy endureth for euer.

- 5 Which by his wisdom made the heauens
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 6 Which on the waters stretcht the earth,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 7 Which made great lights to shine abroad,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 8 As Sunne to rule the lightsome day,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 9 The Moone and starres to guide the night
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 10 Which timore Egypt with their first borne,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 11 And Israel brought out from them,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 12 With mighty hand and stretched arme,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 13 Which cut the red sea in two parts,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 14 And Israel made passe there through,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 15 And drowned Pharaos and his host,

- for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 16 Through wildernes he people led,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 17 He which did smite great noble Kings,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 18 And which hath slaine the mighty Kings,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 19 As Schon King of the Amorites,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 20 And Og the King of Basan land,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 21 And gaue their land for heritage,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 22 Euen to his seruant Israel,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 23 Remembering vs in base estate,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 24 And from oppressors rescued vs,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 25 Which giueth food vnto all flesh,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 26 Praise ye the Lord of heauen aboue,
for his mercy endureth, &c.
- 27 Give thanks vnto the Lord of Lords,
for his mercy endureth, &c.

Another of the same by T. C.

Sing this as the 148. Psalme.

- O Laud the Lord benigne, Whose mercies last for aye,
Great thanks and praises sing
To God of Gods I say,
For certainly,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and sure,
Eternally.
- 3 The Lord of Lords praise ye,
Whose mercies aye doe dure.
- 4 Great wonders onely he Doth worke by his great power:
For certainly,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and sure,
Eternally.
- 5 Which God omnipotent,
By his great wisdom high:
The heavenly firmament
Did frame as we doe see:
For certainly,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and sure,
Eternally.
- 6 Yea he the heauie charge
Of all the earth did stretch,
And on the waters large,
The same he did out-reach,
For certainly, &c.
- 7 Great lights he made to vs,
For why his loue is aye.
- 8 Such as the Sunne we see,
To rule the lightsome day,
For certainly, &c.
- 9 And eke the Moone so cleare
Which shineth in our sight:

And starres that doe appeare,
To guide the darksome night.
For certainly, &c.

10 With grievous plagues and sore
All Egypt smote he than,
The first borne lesse and more
He slew of beast and man.
For certainly, &c.

11 And from amidst their land
His Israel forth brought :

12 Which he with mighty hand,
And stretched arme hath wrought.
For certainly, &c.

13 The Sea he cut in two,
Which stood vp like a wall :

14 And made through it goe
His chosen children all.
For certainly, &c.

15 But there he whelmed then
The proud King Pharaon,
With his huge hoat of men
And Chariots eke also.
For certainly, &c.

16 Who led through wildernesse
His people safe and sound :

17 And for his loue endlesse
Great Kings he brought to ground.
For certainly, &c.

18 And slew with puissant hand,
Kings mighty and of fame :

19 As of Amorites land
Schon the King by name.
For certainly, &c.

20 And Og the Gyant large,
Of Basan King also :

21 Whose land for heritage
He gaue his people tho.
For certainly, &c.

22 Euen vnto Israel,
His seruant deare I say,
He gaue the same to dwell,
And there abide for aye.
For certainly, &c.

23 To miad he did vs call
In our most base degree :

24 And from oppressors all
In safety set vs free.
For certainly, &c.

25 All flesh on earth abroad
With food he doth fulfill :

26 Whereof of heauen the God
To laud be it your will.
For certainly, &c.

Super flumina. Psal. Cxxxvij. W.W.

The Israelites in their captivity hearing the Chaldeans reproach and blaspheme God and his religion, desire God to punish the Edomites, who provoked the Babylonians against them, and promised the destruction of Babylon.

When as we fate in Babilon, the rivers round about : And in remembrance of Sion, the teares for griefe burst out. We hang'd our harpes and instruments the willow trees vpon : For in that place men for their vie had planted many one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were,
said to vs tauntingly :
Now let vs heare your Hebrew songs, and pleasant melody.

4 Alas, said we, who can once frame his sorrowfull heart to sing
The praises of our liuing God, thus vnder a strange King :

5 But yet if I Ierusalem out of my heart let slide :
Then let my fingers quite forget the warbling harpe to guide.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth be tyed for euer fast,
If that I ioy before I see thy full deliuerance past.

7 Therefore O Lord remember now,
the cursed noife and cry,
That Edoms sons against vs made,
when they raz'd our Citie.

8 Remember Lord their cruell words,
when as with one accord,
They cryed, on, sacke, and raze their wals
in despite of the Lord.

9 Euen so shalt thou (O Babilon) at length to dust be brought :
And happy shall that man be cald that our reuenge hath wrought.

10 Yea blessed shall that man be cald, that takes thy children young,
To dash thy bones against hard stones which lye the streetes among.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. Cxxxvij. N.

David prayeth the goodnesse of God towards him, for which euen foraine Princes shall praise the Lord together with him, and he is assured to haue like comfort of God hereafter, as heretofore.

Sing this as the 137. Psalm.

Thou wilt I praise with my whole heart,
my Lord my God alwayes :
Euen in the presence of the Gods
I will aduance thy praise.

2 Toward thy holy Temple I will looke, and worship thee :
And praised in my thankfull mouth,
thy holy name shall be.

3 Euen for thy louing kindnesse sake, and for thy truth withall :
For thou thy name hast by thy word, aduanced

advanced ouer all.
 4 When I did call thou heardest me, and thou hast made also
 The power of encreased strength within my soule to grow.
 5 Yea, all the Kings on earth they shall giue praise to thee O Lord:
 For they of thy most holy mouth
 haue heard the mighty word.
 6 They of the wayes of God the Lord in singing shall intreat:
 Because the glory of the Lord
 it is exceeding great.
 7 The Lord is he, and yet he doth behold the lowly spirit:
 But he contemning knowes asafre
 the proud and lofty wight.
 8 Although in midst of trouble I doe walke, yet shall I stand:
 Renewed by thee, O my Lord, thou wilt stretch forth thy hand 9 Vpon the wrath of all my foes, and saued shall I be:
 By thy right hand the Lord God will performe his worke to me.
 10 Thy mercy Lord endures for aye,
 Lord doe me not forsake:
 Forsake me not that am the worke which thine owne hand did make.

Domine probasti. Psal. Cxxxix. N.

David to cleanse his hart from all hypocrisie sheweth that nothing is so secret which God seeth not, after declaring his zeale and feare of God, he protesteth to be enemy to all them that contemne God.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

O Lord, thou hast me tride and knowne,
 my sitting thou dost know:
 2 And rising eke, my thoughts asafre, thou understandst also.
 3 My pathes, yea, and my lying downe, thou compassst alwayes:
 And by familiar custome art acquainted with my wayes.
 4 No word is in my tongue O Lord,
 but knowne it is to thee:
 Thou me behinde holdst, and before,
 thou layest thy hands on mee.
 6 Too wonderfull about my reach Lord is thy cunning skill:
 It is so high, that I the same cannot attaine vntill.
 7 From sight of thy all-seeing spirit,
 Lord, whither shall I goe?
 Or whither shall I flee away,
 thy presence to scape fro?
 8 To heauen if I mount aloft, loe thou art present there:
 In hell if I lye downe below,
 euen there thou dost appeare.
 9 Yea, let me take the morning wings, and let me goe and hide Euen there where are the farthest parts, where flowing seas doe slide.
 10 Yea, euen thither also shall thy reaching hand me guide:
 And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
 and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I say, the darknesse shall yet throud me from thy sight:
 Loe, euen also the darkest night about me shall be light.
 12 Yea, darknesse hideth not from thee,
 but night doth shine as day:
 To thee the darknesse and the light are both alike alway.

The second part.

13 For thou possessedst hast my reines, and thou hast couered mee:
 When I within my mothers wombe enclosed was by thee.
 14 Thee will I praise, made fearefully, and wondrously I am:
 Thy workes are maruellous, right well my soule doth know the same.
 15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
 although in secret place
 I haue beene made, and in the earth beneath I shaped was:
 16 When I was formelesse then thine eye saw me, for in thy booke Were written all, nought was before, that after fashion tooke.
 17 The thoughts therefore of thee O God,
 how deare are they to mee:
 And of them all how passing great the endlesse numbers be:
 18 If I should count them, loe their summe more then the sand I see:
 And whensoever I awake,
 yet am I still with thee.
 19 The wicked and the bloody men,
 oh that thou wouldest slay:
 Euen those O God, to whom depart, depart from me I say.
 20 Euen those of thee O Lord my God, that speake full wickedly:
 Those that are lifted vp in vaine,
 being enemies to thee.
 21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
 and that in earnest wise:
 Contend I not against them all,
 against thee that arise:
 22 I hate them with vnfaigned hate,
 euen as my very foes:
 23 Try me O God, and know my heart,
 my thoughts proue and discloie.
 24 Consider Lord if wickednesse in me there any be:
 And in thy way, O God my guide, for euer lead thou me.

Eripe me Domine. Psal. Cxl. N.

David prayeth vnto the Lord, against the cruelty, falshood, and injuries of his enemies, assuring himselfe of his succour. Wherefore he prouoketh the saint to praise the Lord, and to assure themselves of his tuition.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

L ord saue me from the euill man,
 and from the cruell wights 2 Deliuerm me, which euill doe imagine in their sprites.
 3 Which make ou me continuall warre, their tongues loe haue they whet Like Serpents, vnderneath their lips is Adders payson set.

- 4 Keepe me O Lord from wicked hands, preferue me to abide Free from the cruell man, that meane to cause my steps to slide.
- 5 The proud haue laid a snare for me,
and they haue spread a net
With cords in my path wayes, and gins for me eke haue they set.
- 6 Therefore I said vnto the Lord,
thou art my God alone:
Heare me O Lord, O heare the voyce, wherewith I pray and mone.
- 7 O Lord my God, thou onely art
the strength that saueh mee:
My head in day of battell hath bene couered still by thee.
- 8 Let not O Lord the wicked haue
the end of his desire:
Performe not his ill thought, lest he with pride be set on high.
- 9 Of them that compasse me about,
the chiefeest of them all:
Lord let the mischief of their lips
vpon themselves befall.
- 10 Let coales fall on them, let him catch them in consuming flame:
And in deepe pits, so as they may not rise out of the same.
- 11 For no backbiter shall on earth,
be set in stable plighe:
And euill to destruction still shall haunt the cruell wight.
- 12 I know the Lord that afflicted will revenge, and iudge the poore:
The iust shall praise thy name, iust shall dwell with thee euenmore.

Domine clamauit. Psal. Cxli. N.

Dauid being grievously persecuted under Saul, de-sireth succour and assistance, till God take re-vengeance of his enemies.

Lord vpon thee doe I call, Lord haile thee vnto me. And hearken Lord, vnto my voyce, when I doe cry to thee,

2. As incense let my prayer be directed in thine eyes: And the vplifting of my hands as evening sacrifice.

3 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth set thou a watch before:

And also of my mouing lips
O Lord keepe thou the dore.

- 4 That I should wicked workes commit, incline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their delicacies
Lord let me eate no part.
 - 5 But let the righteous smite me Lord,
for that is good for mee:
Let him reprove me, and the same a precious oyle shall be.
Such smiting shall not breake my head,
the time shall shortly fall,
When I shall in their misery make prayers for them all.
 - 6 Then when in stony places downe their Iudges shall be cast:
Then shall they heare my words, for then they haue a pleasant tast.
 - 7 Our bones about the graues mouth, loe scattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he that diggeth vp the ground.
 - 8 But O my Lord my God, mine eyes
doe looke vp vnto thee:
In thee is all my trust, let not my soule forsaken be.
 - 9 Which they haue laid to catch me in,
Lord keepe me from the snare:
And from the subtil gins of them that wicked workers are.
 - 10 The wicked iato their owne nets together let them fall:
While I doe by thy helpe escape the danger of them all.
- Voce mea ad Dom. Psal. Cxliij. N.
- Dauid neither for feare nor anger would kill Saul, but with a quiet minde prayeth vnto God, who preserueth him.
- Sing this as the 141. Psalme.
- B Efore the Lord God with my voyce,
I did send out my cry:
And with my strained voice vnto
the Lord God prayed I.
- 2 My meditation in his sight to poure I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.
 - 3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was knowne to thee:
In way where I did walke a snare they slyly laid for me.
 - 4 I looked and view'd on my right hand,
but none there would me know:
All refuge failed me, and for my soule none cared tho.
 - 5 Then cryde I Lord to thee, and said,
my hope thou onely art:
Thou in the land of liuing art
my portion and my part.
 - 6 Hearke to my cry, for I am brought full low, deliuer me
From them that doe me persecute, for me too strong they be.
 - 7 That I may praise thy name, my soule
for prison Lord bring out:
When thou art good to me the iust shall praise me round about.

thee day by day. 3. Great is the Lord most worthe praise, his greatnesse none can reach. 4. From race to race they shall thy workes praise, and thy power preach.

that beare a louing heart :
But he them all that wicked are,
will utterly subuert.
21 My thankfull mouth shall gladly speake
the praises of the Lord :
All flesh to praise his holy name, for euer shall accord.
Lauda anima mea. Psal. Cxlvj. I.H.
Dauid teacheth that none should put their trust in men, but in God alone, who is almighty, and deliuereth the afflicted, nourisheth the poore, setteth prisoners at liberty, comforteth the fatherlesse, widowers, strangers, and is king for euer.

Sing this as the 137. Psalm.
MY soule praise thou the Lord alwaies,
my God I will confesse :
2 While breath and life prolong my daies,
my tongue no time shall cease.
3 Trust not in worldly princes then,
though they abound in wealth :
Nor in the fonnies of mortall men,
in whom there is no health.
4 For why? their breath doth soone depart to earth anone they fall,
And then the counsels of their hearts decay and perish all.
5 O happy is that man I say, whom Iacobs God doth aide :
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is flaid.
6 Which made the earth and waters deepe,
the heauens high withall :
Which doth his word and promise keepe,
in truth and euer shall.
With right alwaies he doth proceede,
for such as suffer wrong :
The poore and hungrie he doth feede,
and lose the setters strong.
7 The Lord doth send the blinde their sight the lame to limmes restore :
The Lord I say doth loue the right and iust man euermore.
8 He doth defend the fatherlesse, and strangers sad in heart,
And quit the widdow from distresse, and ill mens waies subuert.
9 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Sion still shall raigne :
In time of all posterity,
for euer to remaine.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxlvij. N.
The Prophet praiseth the bounty, wisdom, power, iustice and prouidence of God vpon all creatures, but specially vpon his Church, which he gathered together after their dispersion, declaring his word and iudgements so toward them, as he hath done to no other people.

5 I of thy glorious Maiestie, the beautie will record :
And meditate vpon thy workes,
most wonderfull O Lord.
6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearefull acts declare :
And I to publish all abroad,
thy greatnesse will not spare.
7 And they into the mention shall breake of thy goodnesse great :
And I aloud thy rightcousnesse,
in singing shall repeat.
8 The Lord our God is gracious, and mercifull also :
Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow.
9 Yea good to all, and all his workes his mercie doth exceede :
10 Loe all thy workes doe praise thee Lord, and doe thy honour spread.
11 Thy Saints do blisse thee, and they doe thy kingdomes glory shew :
12 And blasse thy power to cause the sonnes of men thy power to know.

The second part.

13 And of his mightie kingdome eke, to spread the glorious praise :
Thy kingdome Lord, a kingdome is,
that doth endure alwaies.
14 And thy dominion through each age,
endures without decay :
The Lord vpholdeth them that fall,
their sliding he doth stay.
15 The cies of all doe waite on thee,
thou dost them all relieue :
And thou to each sufficing foodes,
in season dost giue.
16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand, and bounteously dost fill :
All things whatsoever doe liue, with gifts of thy good will.
17 The Lord is iust in all his waies, his workes are holy all :
18 Neere all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
19 He the desires which they require, that feare him will fulfill :
And he will heare them when they crie,
and saue them all he will.
20 The Lord preferres all those, to him

Raise ye the Lord, for it is good vnto our God to sing : For it is pleasant, and to praise it is a comely thing.

ching. 2. The Lord his owne Ierusalem, he buildeth vp alone: and the disperit of Israel, doth gather into one.
 3 He heales the broken in their heart, their sores vp doth he binde:
 4 He counts the number of the starres, and names them in their kinde:
 5 Great is the Lord, great is his power, his wisdom infinite:
 6 The Lord relieues the meeke, and throwes to ground the wicked wight.
 7 Sing vnto God the Lord with praise, vnto the Lord reioyce:
 And to our God vpon the harpe, aduance your singing voyce.
 8 He couers heauen with clouds, and for the earth prepareth raine:
 And on the mountaines he doth make the grasse to grow amaine.
 9 He giues to beasts their food, and to young Rauens when they erie.
 10 His pleasure not in strength of horse, nor in mans legs doth lie.
 11 But in all those that feare the Lord, the Lord hath his delight:
 And such as doe attend vpon his mercies shining light.

The second part.

12 O praise the Lord Ierusalem, thy God O Sion praise:
 13 For he the barres hath forged strong, wherewith thy gates he stayes.
 14 Thy children he hath blest in thee, and in thy borders he doth settle peace, and with the flower of wheat he filleth thee.
 15 And his commandement vpon the earth he sendeth out:
 And eke his word with speedy course, doth swiftly runne about.
 16 He giueth snow like wooll, hoare frost like ashes he doth spread:
 17 Like morsels casts his Ice there of the cold who can abide.
 18 He sendeth forth his mightie word, and melteth them againe:
 His winde he makes to blow, and then the waters flow amaine:
 19 The doctrine of his holy word, to Iacob he doth shew:
 His statutes and his iudgements he giues Israel to know.
 20 With every nation hath he not so dealt, nor haue they knowe
 His secret iudgements, ye therefore, praise ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxlvij. I. H.

Hee prouoketh all creatures to praise the Lord, in heauen, and in all places, specially for the power that he hath giuen to his people Israel.

2. And also yee, his Angels all, annies royall, praise him with glee.

 3 Praise him both Moone and Sunne, Which are so cleare and bright:
 The same of you be done, Ye glistering starres of light.
 4 And eke no lesse, Ye heauens faire, And cloudes of the aire, His laud expresse.
 5 For at his word they were, All formed as we see:
 At his voice did appeare, All things in their degree:
 6 Which he set fast: To them he made, A law and trade, for aye to last.

7 Extoll and laud Gods name, On earth ye Dragons fell:
 All deepes doe ye the same, For it becommeth you well.
 8 Him magnifie, Fire, haile, ice, snow, And stormes that blow, At his decree.

9 The hills and mountaines all, And trees that fruitfull are:
 The Cedars great and tall, His worthie praise declare.
 10 Beasts and cattell, Ye birds flying, And wormes creeping, that on earth dwell.

11 All Kings both more and lesse, With all their pompous traine:
 Princes and all Iudges, That in the world remaine, 12 Exalt his name, Young men and maides, Old men and babes Doe ye the same.

13 For his name shall we proue, To be most excellent:
 Whose praise is farre about The earth and firmament.

14 For sure he shall, Exalt with blisse, The horne of his, And helpe them all.

Psalme Cxlix. CL.

15 His Saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthinesse,
The children of Israel,
Each one both more and lesse;
16 And also they
That with good will His words fulfill and them obey.

Cantate Domino. Psal. Cxlix. N.

An exhortation to the Church to praise the Lord for his victory and conquest that he giveth his Saints against all mans power.

Sing this as the 145. Psalme.

Sing ye vnto the Lord our God
a new reioycing song:
And let the praise of him be heard his holy Saints among.
2 Let Israel reioyce in him that made him of nothing.
And let the seede of Sion cke be ioysfull in their King.
3 Let them sound praise with voice of flute
vnto his holy name:
And with the Timbrell and the Harpe,
sing praises of the same.
4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set:
And by deliuerance he will raise the mecke to glory great.
5 With glory and with honour both let all the Saints reioyce:
And now aloud vpon their beds
aduaunce their singing voyce.
6 And in their mouthes let be the acts of God the mighty Lord:
And in their hands cke let them beare
a double edged sword.
7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands:
8 To binde their stately Kings in chaines, their Lords in iron bands.
9 To execute on them the doome that written is before:
This honour all his Saints shall haue,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Laudate Dom. Psal. CL. N.

An exhortation to praise the Lord without ceasing by all manner of wayes, for all his mighty and wonderfull workes.

Sing this as the 147. Psalms.

Yeeld vnto God the mighty Lord, praise in his Sanctuary:
And praise him in the firmament, that shewes his power on him.
2 Aduaunce his name, and praise him in his mighty acts alwayes:
According to his excellency of greatnesse giue him praise.
3 His praises with the Princely noyse of founding Trumpets blow: Praise him vpon the Violl, and vpon the Harpe also.
4 Praise him with Timbrell, and with Flute, Organs and Virginals:
5 With founding Cimbals praise ye him, praise him with loud Cimbals.

The X. Commandements. 93

6 What euer hath the benefit of breathing praise the Lord:
To praise the name of God the Lord agree with one accord.

The end of the Psalmes of Dauid.

An Exhortation vnto the praise of God, to be sung before Morning Prayer. T. B.

Sing this as the 100. Psalme.

Praise the Lord O ye Gentiles all, which hath brought you into his light:
O praise him all people mortall,
as it is most worthy and right.

For he is full determined on vs to poure out his mercy,
And the Lords truth be ye assur'd, abideth perpetually.

*Glory be to God the Father, and to Iesus Christ his true Sonne,
With the holy Ghost in like manner,
now and euer y season.*

An Exhortation vnto the praise of God, to be sung before Euc-ning Prayer. T. B.

Sing this as the 100. Psalme.

Behold now giue heede such as be the Lords seruants faithfull and true, Come praise the Lord euery degree, with such songs as to him are due.

O ye that stand in the Lords house,
euen in our owne Gods mansion:
Praise ye the Lord so bounteous, which worketh our saluation.

Lift vp your hands in his holy place,
yea, and that in the time of night:
Praise yee the Lord which giueth all grace, for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of Sion, which made heauen & earth by his power,
Giue to you and your nation,
his blessing mercy, and fauour.

Glory be to God the Father, &c.

Audi Israel. Exod. xx. W. W.

Attend my people and giue care,< of ferly things I will thee tell: See that my words in minde thou beare, and to my precepts listen well.

The Lords Prayer.

1 I am thy soueraigne Lord and God,
Which haue thee brought from careful thrall,
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod,
Make thee no Gods on then to call.

2 Nor fashioned forme of any thing,
In heauen or earth to worship it :
For I thy God by reuenging,
With grievous plagues this flane will smite.

3 Take not in vaine Gods holy name, Abuse it not after thy will :
For so thou might'st soone purchase blame,
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from work the seuenth day ceast,
And brought all things to perfect end :
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods helts yee may attend.

5 Vnto thy Parents honour giue,
As Gods Commandements doe pretend,
That thou long dayes and good maist liue
In earth where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murder and cruell hate.
7 All filthy fornication feare.
8 See thou steale not in any rate.
9 False witness against no man beare.

10 Thy neighbours house with not to haue,
His wife, or ought that he calls mine :
His field, his Oxe, his Ass, his slaue,
Or any thing that is not thine.

A Prayer.

THe Spirit of grace grant vs (O Lord)
To keepe these Lawes our hearts restore:
And cause vs all with one accord
To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of our selues no strength we haue
To keepe these lawes after thy will:
Thy might therefore (O Christ) we craue,
That wee in thee may them fulfill.

Lord, for thy names sake graunt vs this,
Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ :
Of thee to speede how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth consist :

To thee for euermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect :
And with the holy Spirit alwayes,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lord Prayer.

O Vt Father which in heauen art, and mak'st vs all one brotherhood : To call vp on thee with one heart, Our heavenly

Father and our God, Grant wee pray

The Creed.

not with lips alone : But with the hearts

deepe sigh and groane.

Thy blessed name be sanctified,
Thy holy word might vs inflame,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy name :
From all errors defend and keepe
The little flocke of thy poore sheepe.

Thy kingdome come euen at this houre,
And henceforth euertlastingly :
Thine holy Ghost into vs poure,
With all his gifts most plenteously.
From Sathans rage and filthy band Defend vs with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heauen in earth also :
In trouble grant vs patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and woe.
Let not flesh, bloud, or any ill
Preuaile against thy holy will.

Giue vs this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine :
Keepe vs from warre, and from bloud-shed,
Also from sickness, dearth, and pine :
That we may liue in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carefullnesse.

Forgiue vs our offences all,
Reliue our carefull conscience :
As we forgiue both great and small
Which vnto vs haue done offence :
Prepare vs Lord for to serue thee
In perfect loue and vnitie.

O Lord into temptation
Leade vs not when the fend doth rage :
To withstand his inuasion,
Giue power and strength to euery age,
Arme and make strong thy feeble host,
With faith and with the holy Ghost.

O Lord from euill deliuer vs,
The dayes and times are dangerous,
From euertlasting death saue vs,
And in our last neede comfort vs :
A blessed end to vs bequeathe,
Into thy hands our soule receiue.

For thou O Lord art King of Kings,
And thou hast power ouer all :
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world vniuersall.
Amen, let it be done O Lord,
That we haue pray'd with one accord:

The Creed.

A Ll my beliefe and confidence is in the Lord of might: The Father which all things

The Creed.

And in like manner I beleeeve,
In Christ our Lord his Sonne :
Coequall with the deitie,
And man in flesh and bone :
Conceiued by the holy Ghost,
His word doth me assure :
And of his mother Mary borne,
Yet she a Virgin pure.

Because mankinde to Satan was,
For sinne in bond and thrall,
He came and offered vp himselfe,
To death to saue vs all.

And suffering most grieuous paine :
Then Pilate being Iudge,
Was crucified on the Crosse,
And thereat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
But quickned in the spirit :
His body then was buried,
As is our vse and right.
His Soule did after this descend
Into the lower parts :
To them that long in darknesse were,
The true light of their hearts.

And in the third day of his death :
He rose to life againe :
To th'end he might be glorified,
Out of all griefe and paine.

Ascending to the heauens high,
To sit in glory still :
On Gods right hand his father deare,
According to his will.

Vntill the day of iudgement come,
When he shall come againe,
With Angels power, yet of that day
We all be vncertaine.

To iudge all people righteously,
Whom he hath dearly bought :
The liuing and the dead also,
Which he hath made of nought,

And in the holy spirit of God,
My faith to satisfie,
The third person in Trinitie,
Beleeue I stedfastly,

The holy and Catholike Church,
That Gods word doth maintaine :
And holy Scripture doth allow,
Which Satan doth disdain.

A prayer to the holy Ghost.

And also I doe trust to haue,
By Iesus Christ his death :
Release and pardon for my finnes :
And that onely by faith.

What time all flesh shall rise againe,
Before the Lord of might :
And see him with their bodily eyes,
Which now doe giue them light.

And then shall Christ our Sauour,
The sheepe and goates diuide :
And giue life euerlastingly,
To those whom he hath tride.
Within his Realme celestiall,
In glory for to rest :
With all the holy companie,
Of Saints and Angels blest.

Which serue the Lord omnipotent, Obediently each houre :
To whom be all Dominion,
And praise for euenmore.

A prayer to the holy Ghost, to be sung before the Sermon.

Sing this as the 119. Psalme.

Come holy Spirit the God of might, comforter of vs all :
Teach vs to know thy word aright,
that we doe neuer fall.
O holy Ghost visit our coast, defend vs with thy shield :
Against all sinne and wickednesse,
Lord helpe vs winne the field.

Lord keepe our King and his Counsell, and giue them will and might,
To perseuere in thy Gospell, which can put sinne to flight.
O Lord that giuest thy holy word,
send Preachers plenteously :
That in the same we may accord,
and therein liue and die.

O holy spirit direct aright,
the Preachers of thy word :
That thou by them maiest cut downe sinne,
as it were with a sword :
Depart not from those Pastors pure,
but aide them at all neede :
Which breake to vs the bread of life,
whereon our soules doe feede.

O blessed spirit of truth keepe vs,
in peace and vnitie :
Keepe vs from sects and errors ail,
and from all Papiserie.
Conuert all those that be our foes,
and bring them to thy light :
That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.

O Lord encrease our faith in vs,
and loue so to abound :
That man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about vs round.
In our time giue thy peace O Lord,
to nation farre and nie :

Da pacem Domine. The Lamentation. A Thanksgiuing.

And teach them all thy holy word, that we may sing to thee.

All glory to the Trinitie, that is of mighties most,
The liuing Father, and the Sonne,
and eke the holy Ghost:
As it hath bene in all the time,
that hath bene heretofore:
As it is now, and so shall be, henceforth for euermore.

Da pacem Domine. E. G.

Give peace in these our daies O Lord, great dangers are now at hand: thine enemies with one accord, Christs name in eue-ry land seeke to deface, root out and race thy true right worship indeed: be thou our stay, Lord we thee pray, thou helpst alone in all need.

Giue vs that peace which we doe lack,
Through misbeliefe and ill life:
Thy word to offer thou dost not slack,
Which we vnkindly gaine strue.

With fire and sword,
This healthfull word,
Some persecute and oppresse:

Some with the mouth
Confesse the truth,
Without sincere godlinesse.

Giue peace, and vs thy spirit downe send,
With griefe and repentance true,
Doe pierce our hearts our liues to amend,
And by faith Christ reue:

That feare and dread,
Warre and bloudshed.
Through thy sweet mercy and grace,
May from vs slide.

Thy truth may bide,
And shine in every place.

The Lamentation.

Through perfect repentance the sinner hath a sure trust in God, that his sins shall be washed away in Christs blood.

O Lord in thee is all my trust, giue care vnto my wofull cry: Refuse me not that am vnjust, but bowing downe thine heavenly eie, behold how I doe still lament my sinnes wherein I doe offend: O

Lord for them shall I be shent, sith thee to please I doe intend.

No, no, not so, thy will is bent, to deale with sinners in thine ire:
But when in heart they shall repent,
thou grant'st with speed their iust desire.

To thee therefore still shall I cry,
to wash away my sinfull crime:
Thy blood O Lord is not yet dry,
but that it may helpe me in time.

Hast thee O Lord, hast thee I say, to powre on me the gifts of grace:
That when this life shall sit away,
in heauen with thee I may haue place.

Where thou dost raigne eternally, with God which once did downe thee send,
Where Angels sing continually, to thee be praise world without end.

A thanksgiuing after the receiuing of the Lords Supper.

Sing this as the 137. Psalm.

THe Lord be thanked for his gifts,
and mercies euermore:
That he doth shew vnto his Saints, to him be laud therefore.

Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord,
as he doth right deserue:
Our hearts cannot of him so thinke,
as he doth vs preserue.

His benefits they be so great,
to vs that be but sinne:
That at our hands for recompence,
there is no hope to winne.

O sinfull flesh that thou shouldst haue
such mercies of the Lord:
Thou dost deserue more worthily, of him to be abhord.

Naught else but sinne and wretchednesse,
doth rest within our hearts:
And stubbornly against the Lord,
we daily play our parts.

The Sunne above the firmament which is to vs a light:
Doth shew it selfe more cleare and pure,
then we be in his sight.

The heauens aboue, and all therein, more holy are then we :
They serue the Lord in their estate,
each one in their degree,
They doe not strive for mastership, nor slack their office set :
But feare the Lord and doe his will,
hate is to them no let.

Also the earth and all therein,
of God it is in awe :
It doth obserue the formers will,
by skilfull natures law.
The sea and all that is therein,
doth bend when God doth beck :
The spirits beneath doe tremble all,
and feare his wrathfull check.

But we alas for whom all these were made them for to rule :
Doe not so know or loue the Lord,
as doth the Oxe or Mule.
A law he gaue for vs to know, what was his holy will :
He would vs good, but we would not auoid the thing is ill.

Not one of vs that seeketh out,
the Lord of life to please :
Nor doe the thing that might vs ioyne,
to Christ and quiet ease.
Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not denie :
And he againe of his good will,
would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedy was none,
to bring vs vnto life :
The Sonne of God our flesh he tooke, to end our mortall strife.
And all the law of God the Lord,
he did it full obey :
And for our sinnes vpon the Crosse,
his bloud our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget,
what good he to vs wrought :
A signe he left our eies to tell,
that he our bodies bought,
In bread and wine here visible,
vnto thine eies and tast :
His mercies great thou maist record,
if that his spirit thou hast.

As once the corne did line and grow,
and was cut downe with sicke :
And threshed out with many stripes, out from his huske to drue.
And as the mill with violence,
did teare it out so fall :
And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all.

And as the ouen with fire hot,
did close it vp in heate :
And all this done that I haue said, that it should be our meate.
So was the Lord in his ripe age,
cut downe by cruell death :
His soule he gaue to torments great,
and yeked vp his breath.

Because that he to vs might be an euerlasting bread :
With much reproach and troubles great,
on earth his life he led.
And as the grapes in pleasant time,
are pressed very fore :
And plucked downe when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more.

Because the iuice that in them is,
as comfortable drinke :
We might receiue and ioyfull be,
when sorrowes make vs shrinke.
So Christ his bloud out-pressed was,
with nailes and cke with scare :
The iuice whereof doth saue all those,
that rightly doe him feare.

And as the cornes by vnity into one loafe is knit :
So is the Lord and his whole Church,
though he in heauen sit,
As many grapes make but one Wine,
so should we be but one.
In faith and loue in Christ aboue, and vnto Christ alone.

Leading a life without all strife,
in quiet rest and peace :
From enuie and from malice both,
our hearts and tongues to cease.
Which if we doe, then shall we shew, that we his chosen be
By faith in him to leade a life, as alwaies willed he.

And that we may so doe indeede,
God send vs all his grace :
Then after death we shall be sure,
with him to haue a place.

FINIS.

A forme of Prayer to be vsed in priuate houses euery Morning and Euening.

Morning Prayer.

Almightie God and most mercifull Father, we doe not present our felues heere before thy Maieſty, truſting in our owne merits, or worthineſſe, but in thy manifold mercies, which haſt promiſed to heare our prayers and graunt our requells, which wee ſhall make to thee in the name of thy beloued Soane Ieſus Chriſt our Lord, who alſo hath commaunded vs to aſſemble our felues together in his name, with full aſſurance, that hee will not onely be amongſt vs, but alſo be our mediator and aduocate to thy Maieſtie, that we may obtaine all things which ſhall ſeeme expedient to thy bleſſed will, for our neceſſities. Therefore we beſeech thee ſweet Father, to turne thy louing countenance towards vs, and impute not vnto vs our manifold ſinnes and offences, whereby we moſt iuſtly deſerue thy wrath & ſharpe puniſhment, but rather receiue vs to thy mercie, for Ieſus Chriſtes ſake, accepting his death and paſſion as a iuſt recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleaſed, and through whom thou canſt not be offended with vs. And ſeeing that of thy great mercie wee haue quietly paſſed this night: Graunt (O heauenly Father) that we may beſtow this day wholly in thy ſervice, ſo that all our thoughts, words, and deeds, may redound to the glorie of thy name and good enſample of all men, who ſeeing our good workes, may gloriſie thee our heauenly Father. And ſo farre as of thy meere fauour and loue, thou haſt not onely created vs to thine owne ſimilitude and likenefſe, but alſo haſt choſen vs to be heires with thy deare ſonne Ieſus Chriſt, of that immortal kingdome, which thou preparedſt for vs before the beginning of the world: we beſeech thee to encrease our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thy holy ſpirit, that we may in the meane time liue in godly conſeruation and integritie of liſe, knowing that Idolaters, adulterers, conetous men, contentious perſons, drunkards, gluttons and ſuch like, ſhall not inherite the kingdome of God.

And becauſe thou haſt commaunded vs to pray one for another, we doe not onely make request (O Lord) for our felues, and for them that thou haſt already called to the true vnderſtanding of thy heauenly will, but for all people and nations of the world, who as they know by thy wonderfull works, that thou art God ouer all, ſo they may be inſtructed by thy holy ſpirit, to beleeue in thee, their onely Saviour and Redeemer, but ſo farre as they cannot beleeue, except they heare, nor cannot heare but by preaching, and none can preach, except he be ſent: therefore, (O Lord)

raiſe vp faithfull diſtributors of thy mysteries, who ſetting apart all worldly reſpects, may both in their liſe and doctrine onely ſeek thee thy glorie. Continually confound Satan, Antichriſt, with all hirelings, whom thou haſt already caſt off into a reprobate ſence, that they may not by ſects, ſchiſmes, hereſies, & errors, diſquiet thy little flock. And becauſe, O Lord, we be fallen into the latter daies and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the vpper hand, and Satan by his Miniſters ſeekes by all meanes to quench the light of thy Goſpell: wee beſeech thee to maintain thy cauſe againſt thoſe rauening Wolues, and ſtrengthen all thy ſeruants, whom they keepe in priſon and bondage. Let not thy long ſuffering be an occaſion, either to encrease their tyrannie, or to diſcourage thy children: neither yet let our ſins and wickednes, be an hinderance to thy mercies, but with ſinde (O Lord) conſider their great miſerie. For thy people Iſrael many times by their ſin prouoked thine anger, and thou puniſhedſt them by thy iuſt iudgement, yet though their ſins were neuer ſo grieuous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receiuedſt them to mercy. We therefore moſt wretched ſinners bewaile our manifold ſins, and earneſtly repeat vs of our former wickednes, and vngodly behauiour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our felues purchaſe thy pardon, yet wee humble beſeech thee for Ieſus Chriſts ſake, to ſhew thy mercie vpon vs, and receiue vs againe to thy fauour. Graunt vs deare Father theſe our requells, and all other things neceſſarie for vs, and thy whole Church, according to thy promiſe in Ieſus Chriſt our Lord. In whoſe name wee beſeech thee, as he hath taught vs, ſaying: Our Father which art in heauen, &c.

Euening Prayer.

O Lord God, Father euerlaſting, and full of pitie, wee acknowledge and confeſſe, that wee bee not worthe to liſt vp our eyes to heauen, much leſſe to preſent our felues before thy Maieſtie, with confidence that thou wilt heare our prayers, and graunt our requells: if we conſider our owne deſeruings: for our conſciences doe accuſe vs, and our ſins do witneſſe againſt vs, and wee know that thou art an vpriſht Iudge, which doeſt not iuſtifie the ſinners and wicked men, but puniſheſt the fautes of all ſuch as tranſgreſſe thy commandments: yet moſt mercifull Father, ſince it hath pleaſed thee to command vs to call on thee in all our troubles and aduerſities, promiſing euen then to help vs, when we ſeele our felues, (as it were) ſwallowed vp of death & deſperation, we vterly renounce all worldly confidence, and ſie to thy ſoueraine bountie as our only ſtay & refuge: beſeeching thee not to cal to remembrance our manifold

finnes and wickednesse, whereby we continually prouoke thy wrath & indignation against vs, neyther our negligence and unkindnesse, which haue neither worthily esteemed, nor in our liues sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospell reuealed vnto vs, but rather to accept the death and obedience of thy Son Iesus Christ, who by offering vp his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sins. Haue mercy therefore vpon vs, O Lord, and forgiue vs our offences. Teach vs by thy holy Spirit, that we may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent for the same. And so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate and such as thou hast forsaken, cannot praise thee, nor call vpon thy name, but the repenting heart, the sorrowfull minde, the conscience oppressed, hungriug and thirsting for thy grace, shall euer set forth thy praise and glory.

And albeit wee be but wormes and dust, yet thou art our Creator, and we be the worke of thine hands: yea, thou art our Father, and wee thy Children: thou art our Shepheard, and wee thy Flocke: thou art our Redeemer, and wee thy people whom thou hast bought: thou art our God, and wee thine inheritance. Correct vs not therefore in thine anger (O Lord) neither according to our desert punish vs, but mercifully chastise vs with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know at what time soeuer a sinner doth repent him of his sinne from the bottome of his heart, thou wilt put away all his wickednesse out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thy holy Prophet.

Finally, for as much as it hath pleased thee to make the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to trauel in, grant O deare Father, that we may continually watch for the time that our Lord Iesus Christ shall appeare for our deliuerance out of this mortal life, and in the meane season, that we be not overcome by any fantasies, dreames, or other temptations, may fully set our mindes vpon thee, loue thee, feare thee, and rest in thee. Furthermore, that our sleepe be not excessive or ouer-much, after the vnstatiable desires of our flesh, but onely sufficient to content our weake nature, that wee may be the better disposed to liue in all godly conuersation, to the glory of thy holy name, and profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

HONOUR and praise be giuen to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most deare Father of heauen, for all thy mercies and louing kindnesse shewed vnto vs, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodnesse, freely and of thine owne accord to elect and chuse vs to saluation before the beginning of the world: And euen like continuall thanks be giuen to thee, for creating vs after thine owne image, for redeeming vs with the precious blood of thy deare Sonne, when wee were vterly lost: for sanctifying vs with thy holy Spirit in the reuelation and knowledge of thy word: for helping and succouring vs in all our needes and necessities, for sauing vs from all dangers of body and soule, for comforting vs so fatherly in all our tribulations and persecutions, for sparing vs so long, and giuing vs so large a time of repentance. These benefits O most mercifull Father, like as wee acknowledge to haue received them of thy onely goodnesse, euen so we beseech thee for thy deare Sonne Iesus Christs sake, graunt vs alwayes thy holy Spirit, whereby wee may continually grow in thankesfulnesse towards thee, to be led into all truth, and comforted in all aduersities. O Lord strengthen our faith, kindle it more in seruentnesse and loue towards thee, and our neighbours for thy sake: suffer vs not (most deare Father) to receiue thy word any more in vaine: but graunt vs alwayes the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word, and deed, we may sanctifie and doe worship to thy name, helpe to amplifie and increase thy kingdom, and whatsoever thou sendest, we may be heartily well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let vs not lacke the thing, O Father, without the which we cannot serue thee: but blesse thou so all the workes of our hands, that we may haue sufficient, and not be chargeable but rather helpfull vnto others. Be mercifull O Lord to our offences, and seeing our debt is great which thou hast forgiven in Iesus Christ, make vs to loue thee and our neighbours so much the more: be thou our Father, Captaine, and defender in all temptations: hold thou vs by thy mercifull hand, that we may be deliuered from all inconueniencies, and end our liues in the sanctifying and honouring of thy holy name, through Iesus Christ our Lord and onely Saviour.

Let thy mighty hand and our stretched arme (O Lord) be still our defence, thy mercy and louing kindnesse in Iesus Christ thy deare Sonne our saluation, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation vnto the end and in the end. So be it.

O Lord increase our faith.

A Confession for all estates and times.

O Eternall God and most mercifull Father, we confesse and acknowledge here before thy diuine Maiesty, that we are miserable sinners, conceived and borne in sin and iniquitie, so that in vs there is no goodnes. For the flesh euermore rebelleth against the spirit, whereby we continually transgresse thy holy precepts and commandements: and so purchase to our selues through thy iust iudgement, death and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heauenly Father) for as much as we are displeased with our selues for the sinnes that wee haue committed against thee, and doe vnfeignedly repent vs of the same, wee most humbly beseech thee for Iesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercy vpon vs, to forgive vs all our finnes, and encrease thy holy Spirit in vs, that we acknowledging from the bottome of our hearts, our owne vnrighteousnesse, may from henceforth not onely mortifie our sinfull lusts and affections, but also bring forth such fruits as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will, not for the worthinesse thereof, but for the merits of thy dearly beloued Sonne Iesus Christ our onely Sauour, whom thou hast already giuen an oblation and offering for our finnes, and for whose sake wee are certainly perswaded that thou wilt deny vs nothing that we shall aske in his name, according to thy will. For thy Spirit doth assure our consciences, that thou art our mercifull Father, and so louest vs thy children through him, that nothing is able to remoue thy heavenly grace and fauor from vs. To thee therefore (O Father) with the Sonne, and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory world without end. Amen.

A Prayer to be said before a man begin his worke.

O Lord God, most mercifull Father and Sauour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command vs to trauell, that wee may relieue our neede, wee beseech thee of thy grace so to bless our labours, that thy blessing may extend vnto vs, without the which wee are not able to continue, and that this great fauour may be a witness vnto vs of thy bountifullnesse and assistance, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou hast ouer vs.

Moreouer (O Lord) wee beseech thee that thou wouldst strengthen vs with thy holy Spirit, that wee may faithfully trauell in our estate and vocation, without fraud or deceite, and that wee may endeavour our selues to follow thine holy ordinance, rather then to seeke to satisfie our greedy affections or desire to gaine. And if it please thee (O Lord) to prosper our labours, giue vs a minde also to helpe them that need, according to that ability that thou of thy mercy shalt giue vs: And knowing that all good things come of thee, graunt that wee may humble our selues to our neighbours, and not by any meanes lift our selues above them which haue not received so liberall a portion as of thy mercy thou hast giuen vnto vs. And if it please thee to try and exercise vs by greater pouerty and need then our flesh would desire, that thou wouldst yet (O Lord) grant vs grace to know that thou wilt nourish vs continually, through thy bountifull liberallitie, that we be not so tempted, that we fall into distrust, that that wee may patiently waite till thou fill vs, not onely with corporall graces and benefites, but chiefly with thine heavenly and spirituall treasures, to the intent wee may alwayes haue more ample occasion to giue thee thanks, and wholly to rest vpon thy mercies. Heare vs O Lord of mercy, through Iesus Christ thy Sonne our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the whole estate of Christs Church.

Almighty God and most mercifull Father, we humbly submit our selues and fall downe before thy Maiestie, beseeching thee from the bottome of our hearts, that this seed of thy word now sowne amongst vs, may take such deepe roote, that neyther the burning heate of persecution cause it to wither, neyther the thorny cares of this life choake it, but that as seede sowne in a good ground, it may bring forth thirtie, sixtie, and an hundred folde, as thy heavenly wisdom hath appointed. And because we haue neede continually to craue many things at thy hands, we humbly beseech thee (O heavenly Father) to graunt vs thy holy Spirit, to direct our petitions, that they may proceede from such a seruent minde, as may be agreeable to thy most holy will, and seeing that our infirmities are able to doe nothing without thy help, and that thou art not ignorant with how many and great temptations we poore wretches are on euery side enclosed and compassed, let thy strength (O Lord) sustaine our weaknesse, that we being defended with the force of thy grace, may be safely preserved against all assaults of Sathan, who goeth about continually like a roaring Lion, seeking to deuoure vs. Increate our faith (O mercifull Father, that we do not siuerue at any time from thy heavenly word, but augment in vs hope and loue, with a carefull keeping of all thy commandements, that no hardnesse of heart, no hypocrisie, no conspurisance of the eyes, nor enticements of the world doe draw vs away from thy obedience. And seeing wee liue now in these most perilous times, let thy fatherly prouidence defend vs against the violence of our enemies, which seek by all means to oppress thy truth.

Furthermore, for as much as by thy holy Apostle wee be taught to make our prayers and supplications for all men: Wee pray not onely for our selues here present, but beseech thee also to reduce all such as be yet ignorant from the miserable captiuitie of blindness and error, to the pure vnderstanding and knowledge of thy truth, that we all with one accord and vnitie of minde may worship thee our onely God and Sauour. And that all Pastors, Shepheards, and Ministers, to whom thou hast committed the dispensation of thy holy word, and charge of thy chosen people, may both in their life and doctrine be found faithful, setting only before their eyes thy glory, and that by them all poore sheepe which wander and goe astray, may be gathered and brought home to thy fold.

Moreouer, because the hearts of Rulers are in thy hands, wee beseech thee to direct and gouerne the hearts of all Kings, Princes, and Magistrates, to whom thou hast committed the sword: Especially (O Lord) according to our bounden duty, wee beseech thee to maintaine and increase the Honourable estate of the Kings Maiestie, and all his most noble Counsellors and Magistrates, with all the spirituall Pastors and Ministers, and nisters, and althe whole body of this common-weale. Let thy fatherly fauour so preſerue them, & thy holy ſpirit ſo gouerne their hearts, that they may in ſuch ſort execute their office, that thy religion may be purely maintained, manners reformed, and ſin puniſhed, according to the preſiſe rule of thy holy word: and for that we be al members of the myſticall body of Ieſus Chriſt, we make our requeſts vnto thee (O heauenly Father) for all ſuch as are afflicted with any kind of croſſe or tribulation; as warre, plague, ſamine, ſickneſſe, pouertie, imprifonment, perſecution, baniſhment, or any other kind of thy rods, whether it be calamitie of body, or vexation of mind, that it would pleaſe thee to giue them patience and conſtancie, till thou ſend them full deliuerance of all their troubles. Root out from hence, O Lord, all rauening Wolves, which to fill their bellies, ſeake to deſtroy thy flock. And ſhew thy great mercies vpon thoſe our bretheren in other countries, which are perſecuted, caſt into priſon, and daily condemned for the teſtimonie of thy truth. And although they be vtterly deſtitute of all mans aide, yet let thy ſweet comfort neuer depart from them, but ſo inflame their hearts with thy holy ſpirit, that they may boldly & chearefully abide ſuch triall as thy godly wiſedome ſhall appoint: So that at length as well by their death, as by their life, the kingdome of thy deare Sonne Ieſus Chriſt, may encreaſe and ſhine through all the world. In whoſe name wee make our humble petitions vnto thee, as hee hath taught vs. Our Father, &c.

A Prayer againſt the Diuell and his manifold tentations, made by

S. Auguſtine.

THere wanted a tempter, and thou waſt the cauſe that hee was wanting: there wanted time & place, and thou waſt the cauſe that they wanted. The tempter was preſent, and there wanted neither place nor time, but thou heldeſt me backe that I ſhould not conſent. The tempter came full of darkneſſe as he is, and thou diſt harden mee that I might deſpiſe him. The tempter came armed and ſtrongly, but to the intent he ſhould not overcome me, thou diſt reſtraine him and ſtrengthen me. The tempter came transformed into an Angell of light, and to the intent he ſhould not deceiue me, thou diſt rebuke him, and to the intent I ſhould know him, thou diſt enlighten me. For he is the great red dragon, the old ſerpent, called the Diuell & Sathan, which hath ſeauen heads and ten hornes, whom thou haſt created to take his pleaſure in this huge and broad ſea, wherein there creepe liuing wights innumerable, and beaſts great & ſmall, that is to ſay, diuers ſorts of fiends, which praſtiſh nothing elſe day and night, but goeth about ſeeking whom he may deuoure, except thou reſiſt him O Lord Ieſus. For it is that old dragon which draweth down the third part of the ſtarrs of heauen with his taile, and caſteth them to the ground, which with his venome poiſoneth the waters of the earth, that as many men as drinke of them, may die, which trampleth vpon gold, as if it were mire, & is of opinion that Iordan ſhall run into his month, and which is made of ſuch a mould that hee feareth no man: And who ſhall ſaue vs from his chops, O Lord Ieſus? who ſhall plucke vs out of his mouth, ſauiſg thou O Lord, who haſt broken the head of this great Dragon? Helpe vs Lord, ſpread out thy wings ouer vs O Lord, that we may flee vnder them from the face of this Dragon that purſueth vs: and ſence thou vs from his hornes with thy ſhield: For this is his continuall endeuour, this is his only deſire to deuoure the ſoules which thou haſt created. And therefore we cry vnto thee O God, deliuer vs from our daily aduerſary, who whether we ſleep or wake, whether we eate or drinke, or whether wee be doing of any thing elſe, preſeth vpon vs by all kinde of meanes, aſſaulting vs day and night with traines and policies, and ſhooting his venomous arrowes at vs, ſometimes openly, and ſometimes priuily, to ſlay our ſoules. And yet ſuch is our great madneſſe O Lord, that whereas wee ſee the dragon continually in a readineſſe to deuoure vs with open mouth, we neuertheleſſe doe ſleep, and reioyce in our owne ſlothfulneſſe, as though we were out of this danger, who deſireth nothing elſe but to deſtroy vs. Our miſchieuous enemy to the intent to kil vs, watcheth continually and neuer ſleepeth, & yet will not we awake from ſleepe to ſaue our ſelues. Behold he hath pitched infinite ſnares before our feet, and filled all our wayes with ſundry traps to catch our ſoules. And who can eſcape O Lord Ieſu, ſo many and great dangers? He hath laid ſnares for vs in our riches, in our pouerty, in our meat, in our drinke, in our pleaſures, in our ſleepe, and in our waking. Hee hath ſet ſnares for vs in our words and our workes, and in all our life. But thou O Lord, deliuer vs from the net of the fowler, and from hard words, that wee may giue praife to thee, ſaying: Bleſſed be the Lord who hath not giuen vs to be a prey for their teeth: our ſoule is deliuered as a ſparrow out of the fowlers net, the net is broke and we eſcaped.

The Confession of the Chriſtian Faith.

I beleue and confeſſe my Lord God, eternall, infinite, vnmeaſurable, incomprehenſible, and inuiſible, one in ſubſtance, and three in perſon, Father, Sonne, and holy Ghoſt, who by his almighty power and wiſedome, hath not onely of nothing created heauen and earth, and all things therein contayned, and man after his owne image, that he might in him be glorified, but alſo by his fatherly prouidence gouerneth, maintaineth, and preſerueth the ſame, according to the purpoſe of his will.

I beleue alſo and confeſſe Ieſus Chriſt the onely Sauour and Meſſias, who being equall with God, made himſelfe of no reputation, but tooke on him the ſhape of a ſeruant, and became man, in all things like vnto vs, except ſin.

sinne, to assure vs of mercie and forgiveness: for when through our Father Adams transgression, we were become children of perdition, there was no means to bring vs from the yoke of sinne and damnation, but only Iesus Christ our Lord, who giving vs that by grace, which was by nature his, made vs through faith the children of God, who when that fullness of time was come, was conceived by the power of the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgin Mary (according to the flesh) and preached in earth the Gospel of saluation, till at length by tyrannie of the Priests, he was guiltlesly condemned vnder Pontius Pilate, then President of Iury, and most slanderously hanged on the Crosse betweene two theues, as a notorious trespasser, where taking vpon him the punishment of our sinnes, hee deliuered vs from the curse of the law.

And for as much as hee being onely God, could not feelee death, neither being onely man, could ouercome death, hee ioyned both together, and suffered his humanitie to be punished with most cruell death, feeling in himselfe the anger and seuerer iudgement of God, euen as he had been in extreame torment of hell, and therefore cryed with a loud voyce, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Thus of his mercie, without compulsion, he offered vp himselfe as the onely sacrifice to purge the sinnes of all the world, so that all other sacrifices for sin, are blasphemous and derogate from the sufficiency herof, which death, albeit it did sufficiently reconcile vs to God, yet the Scriptures commonly doe attribute our regeneration to his resurrection. For as by rising again from the graue, the third day hee conquered death, euen so the victorie of our faith standeth in his resurrection: and therefore without the one, wee cannot feelee the benefits of the other. For as by his death sinne was taken away, so our right conscience was restored by his resurrection. And because hee would accomplish all things, and take possession for vs in his kingdome, hee ascended into heauen, to enlarge the same kingdome, by the abundant power of his spirit, by whom wee are most assured of his continuall intercession towards God the Father for vs.

And although hee be in heauen as touching his corporall presence, where the Father hath now set him at his right hand, commencing vnto him the administration of all things, as well in heauen above, as in earth beneath: yet is hee present with vs his members, euen to the end of the world, in preserving and gouerning vs with his effectuall power and grace; who when all things are fulfilled, which GOD hath spoken by the mouth of all his Prophets, since the world began, will come in the same visible forme, in the which hee ascended, with an vnspokeable Maiestie, power, and companie, to separate the Lambes from the Goates, the elect from the reprobate: So that none, whether hee be alive then, or dead before, shall escape his iudgement.

Moreover, I beleene and confesse the holy Ghost, God equall with the Father, and the Sonne, who regenerateth and sanctifieth vs, ruleth and guideth vs vnto all truth, perswading most assuredly in our consciences, that wee be the children of GODs brethren to Iesus Christ, and fellow heires with him of life euerlasting: yet notwithstanding it is not sufficient to beleuee that GOD is omnipotent and mercifull, that Christ hath made satisfaction, or that the holy Ghost hath his power and effect, except wee doe apply the same benefits to vs which are Gods gifts.

I beleue therefore and confesse one holy Church, which as members of Iesus Christ, the onely head thereof, consent in faith, hope, and charity, vsing the gifts of God, whether they be temporall or spirituall, to the profie and furtherance of the same, which Church is not seene to mans eye, but onely knowne to God, who of the lost sonnes of Adam, hath ordained some as vessels of wrath to damnation, and hath chosen others as vessels of his mercie to be saued: the which in due time he calleth to integritie of life, and godly conuerfation, to make them a glorious Church in himselfe.

But that Church which is visible, and seene to the eye, hath three tokens and marks whereby it may be knowne. First, the word of GOD, contained in the olde and new Testament, which as it is about the authoritie of the same Church, and onely sufficient to instruct vs in all things concerning saluation: so is it left for all degrees of men, to reade and vnderstand. For without this word, neither Church, Counsell, nor Decree, can establish any point touching saluation. The second is, the holy sacraments, to wit, of Baptisme, and the Lords Supper, which Sacraments Christ hath left vnto vs, as holy signes and seales of Gods promises. For as by Baptisme once receiued, is signified, that wee (as well Infants as others of age and discretion) being strangers from GOD by original sinne, are receiued into his family and congregation, with full assurance, that although this roote of sinne lye hid in vs, yet to the Elect it shall not be imputed: So the Supper declareth that GOD as a most provident Father, doth not onely feede our bodies, but also spiritually nourisheth our soules with the graces and benefits of Iesus Christ, (which the Scripture calleth eating of his flesh, and drinkeing of his blood) neither must wee in the administration of these Sacraments, follow mans fantasie, but as Christ himselfe hath ordained, so must they be administered, and by such as by ordinary vocation are thereto called. Therefore whosoever reuereneth and worshippeth these Sacraments, or contrariwise contemneth them in time and place, procureth to himselfe damnation.

The third marke of this Church, is Ecclesiasticall Discipline, which standeth in admonition and correction of faults. The finall end whereof is Excommunication, by the consent of the Church determined, if the offender be obdinate: And besides this Ecclesiasticall Discipline, I acknowledge to belong
